HIGHLIGHTS

This release features the addition of recent Licence Appeal Tribunal decisions in Appendix C15.

Licence Appeal Tribunal Decisions including:

In Hunter v. Aviva Insurance Company, Dante Hunter, the applicant, was involved in an automobile accident on October 8, 2017, and sought benefits pursuant to the Statutory Accident Benefits Schedule. The court found that the applicant is entitled to the treatment plan dated November 25, 2020 for $1,796.00 for physiotherapy services, proposed by Physiotherapy & Beyond Inc., plus interest, less any amount that is available under his parents' collateral benefits coverage; the applicant is not entitled to the remaining treatment plans in dispute or the OCF-6; and the respondent is not liable to pay an award.

In Kwan v. Aviva General Insurance Company, Clement Kwan, (the "applicant") was involved in an automobile accident on March 7, 2020, and sought benefits pursuant to the Statutory Accident Benefits Schedule. The court found that The applicant's injuries are predominantly minor and therefore subject to treatment within the $3,500.00 limit of the MIG; The applicant is entitled to the OCF-18s for a social work assessment, general practitioner assessment, and psychological assessment, plus interest in accordance with s. 51 of the Schedule; the applicant is not entitled to the remaining OCF-18s in dispute.
