Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. THE GEORGIA EVIDENCE CODE, ITS SCOPE, AND ITS INTERPRETATION

§ 1:1 Introduction
§ 1:2 Broad applicability of Georgia Rules with narrow exceptions
§ 1:3 Interpretation of the Georgia rules and unmodified Code provisions

CHAPTER 2. PRESERVING AND ETHICALLY OBTAINING EVIDENCE

A. ETHICAL LIMITATIONS ON COMMUNICATIONS WITH PERSONS REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL

§ 2:1 Limits on informal evidence gathering
§ 2:2 Improper ex parte contact with plaintiff's treating physicians
§ 2:3 Improper ex parte contact with represented persons in criminal proceedings

B. PRESERVING EVIDENCE AND AVOIDING SPOLIATION IN CIVIL CASES

§ 2:4 Duty to preserve evidence in civil cases
§ 2:5 Preservation of evidence in civil cases
§ 2:6 Presumption for failure to produce documents that should exist in civil cases

C. PRESERVATION AND DISCLOSURE OF EVIDENCE IN CRIMINAL CASES

§ 2:7 Constitutional requirements for preservation and disclosure of evidence in criminal cases under Brady v. Maryland
§ 2:8 Constitutional requirements for preservation and disclosure of evidence in criminal cases under Napue v. Illinois
§ 2:9 Statutory requirements regarding preservation and disclosure of evidence in criminal cases

D. OBTAINING EVIDENCE FROM A PARTY TO A CIVIL CASE

§ 2:10 All discovery tools are available against a party to a civil case
§ 2:11 Notice to produce

E. OBTAINING EVIDENCE FROM NON-PARTIES

§ 2:12 Obtaining evidence from non-parties who reside in Georgia for use in Georgia state court
§ 2:13 Obtaining testimony or documents from non-parties who reside outside Georgia for Georgia criminal and civil proceedings
§ 2:14 Obtaining evidence from Georgia residents for civil cases filed outside of Georgia
§ 2:15 Use of subpoenas
§ 2:16 Payment of witness fees
§ 2:17 Protection from and compelling compliance with subpoena
§ 2:18 Failure of subpoenaed party to attend to testify or to produce evidence

CHAPTER 3. RELEVANCE IS REQUIRED FOR ADMISSIBILITY BUT RELEVANT EVIDENCE MAY BE EXCLUDED FOR UNFAIR PREJUDICE

§ 3:1 Three Georgia rules apply to admissibility of all evidence
§ 3:2 The general rule is to admit all, but only, relevant evidence
§ 3:3 Excluding relevant evidence for unfair prejudice under Georgia Rule 403

CHAPTER 4. JUDICIAL NOTICE

§ 4:1 Judicial notice of adjudicative facts and legislative facts
§ 4:2 Judicial notice of adjudicative facts: purpose and procedure
§ 4:3 Identifying adjudicative facts that are subject to judicial notice
§ 4:4 Effect of judicial notice: distinction between civil or criminal proceedings
§ 4:5 Judicial notice of law, legislative facts, and related matters
§ 4:6 Judicial notice of another state's law or of foreign country's law

§ 4:7 Judicial notice of local Georgia ordinances or resolutions
§ 4:8 Judicial notice of state administrative regulations
§ 4:9 Judicial notice of federal case law
§ 4:10 Judicial notice of federal regulations
§ 4:11 Judicial notice of judicial proceedings in Georgia state courts
§ 4:12 Judicial notice of governmental and administrative matters

CHAPTER 5. COMPETENCY OF LAY WITNESSES AND SCOPE OF LAY TESTIMONY

§ 5:1 General rule of competency for fact witnesses
§ 5:2 Competency of fact witnesses—Diminished mental capacity and mental illness
§ 5:3 —Children
§ 5:4 —Physical and communicative limitations
§ 5:5 —Spouse of a party
§ 5:6 Scope of lay witness testimony—Personal knowledge required
§ 5:7 —Lay opinion testimony including ultimate issues
§ 5:8 — —Examples

CHAPTER 6. CHARACTER AND CREDIBILITY

§ 6:1 Character evidence admissible when relevant to a claim, a defense, or credibility of a witness § 6:2 Exclusion of propensity evidence by Georgia Rule 404(a)
§ 6:3 Four express exceptions in Georgia Rule 404(a) to admit character evidence and limitations on its form
§ 6:4 Opening the door to rebuttal character evidence and limitations on rebuttal evidence § 6:5 Required and permitted forms of evidence of character or character traits
§ 6:6 Attacking or supporting any witness's character for truthfulness
§ 6:7 Who may attack a witness's character for truthfulness by impeachment § 6:8 Supporting a witness's character for truthfulness: bolstering
§ 6:9 Attacking or bolstering the credibility of a witness
§ 6:10 Attacking the credibility of a witness—Proper and improper impeachment
§ 6:11 —Evidence of prior criminal conviction

§ 6:12 Supporting the credibility of a witness: proper and improper bolstering § 6:13 Other means to attack credibility—Showing bias or interest and other bases
§ 6:14 —Impeachment through prior inconsistent statement
§ 6:15 Other means to support credibility—Prior consistent statement
§ 6:16 —Prior consistent statement under child hearsay statute
§ 6:17 Admissibility of polygraph tests to attack or support credibility

CHAPTER 7. EVIDENCE OF OTHER ACTS IN CRIMINAL CASES

§ 7:1 Introduction
§ 7:2 Georgia Rule 404(b)—Admissibility of evidence of intrinsic evidence and extrinsic evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts generally
§ 7:3 —Relevance for one purpose is sufficient for "other act" evidence § 7:4 —When other act is relevant to show motive
§ 7:5 —When other act is relevant to show intent
§ 7:6 —When other act is relevant to show knowledge
§ 7:7 —When other act is relevant to show absence of mistake or accident
§ 7:8 —When other act is relevant to show opportunity
§ 7:9 —When other act is relevant to show preparation
§ 7:10 —When other act is relevant to show plan
§ 7:11 —When other act is relevant to show identity
§ 7:12 —Cases holding other act evidence inadmissible for any purpose
§ 7:13 —Balancing under Georgia Rule 403
§ 7:14 —Preponderant evidence defendant committed the other act
§ 7:15 Specific "other act" rules applicable to certain sex offense or molestation cases § 7:16 Evidence of past sexual behavior of victim in certain sex offense cases § 7:17 Evidence of prior offenses in certain sexual assault cases
§ 7:18 Evidence of prior offenses in certain child molestation proceedings
§ 7:19 Evidence of prior offenses in certain civil sexual assault or child molestation proceedings
§ 7:20 Admissibility of different DUI violations
§ 7:21 Admissibility of defendant's participation in criminal gang activity

CHAPTER 8. OTHER SPECIFIC RULES INCLUDING OR EXCLUDING OTHER ACTS

§ 8:1 Introduction
§ 8:2 Relevance of habit of a person or routine practice of an organization § 8:3 Exclusion of subsequent remedial measures; exceptions
§ 8:4 Exclusion of offers of compromise and at mediation; exceptions
§ 8:5 Offers to pay medical expenses
§ 8:6 Pleas and statements made during plea discussions
§ 8:7 Insurance against liability or absence of liability insurance
§ 8:8 Exclusion in certain civil proceedings of certain statements by health care providers as admissions

CHAPTER 9. HEARSAY

§ 9:1 Overview
§ 9:2 Objection to hearsay is required
§ 9:3 Hearsay defined
§ 9:4 Certain statements by definition excluded from being hearsay
§ 9:5 Testifying witness's prior consistent or inconsistent statement is not hearsay § 9:6 Testifying child witness's prior statement describing certain sexual contact or physical abuse is admissible
§ 9:7 Testifying witness's prior statement identifying a person is not hearsay § 9:8 Admission by party opponent is not hearsay
§ 9:9 Admission in a party's own statement offered against the party is not hearsay
§ 9:10 Admission which a party has manifested an adoption or belief in its truth is not hearsay § 9:11 Certain admissions by an agent or employee of a party are not hearsay § 9:12 Certain admissions by a co-conspirator of a party are not hearsay § 9:13 Admissions: personal knowledge not necessary
§ 9:14 Judicial admissions in a party's pleadings are admissible
§ 9:15 Exclusion under the Confrontation Clause of testimonial statements in criminal cases § 9:16 Exceptions to hearsay; res gestae replaced
§ 9:17 Declarant's availability immaterial—Present sense impression
§ 9:18 —Excited utterance
§ 9:19 —Statement of existing mental, emotional, or physical condition

§ 9:20 —Statement for purposes of medical diagnosis or treatment
§ 9:21 —Recorded recollections
§ 9:22 —Records of regularly conducted activity or the absence of such records (business records)
§ 9:23 —Public records and reports, records of vital statistics, and the absence of such records
§ 9:24 —Regularly kept records of religious organizations of facts of personal or family history
§ 9:25 —Certificates regarding marriage, baptisms, and similar certificates
§ 9:26 —Family records
§ 9:27 —Records of documents affecting an interest in property and statements in documents establishing or affecting an interest in property
§ 9:28 —Ancient documents
§ 9:29 —Market reports and commercial publications
§ 9:30 —Learned treatises
§ 9:31 —Reputation concerning personal or family history
§ 9:32 —Reputation concerning boundaries or general history
§ 9:33 —Reputation of person's character
§ 9:34 —Judgments
§ 9:35 —Narrative medical reports
§ 9:36 Declarant unavailable—Unavailability defined
§ 9:37 —Exception for wrongful procurement
§ 9:38 —Testimony at a previous judicial proceeding
§ 9:39 —Dying declarations
§ 9:40 —Declaration against pecuniary or penal interest
§ 9:41 Residual hearsay exception
§ 9:42 Hearsay within hearsay
§ 9:43 Additional evidence admissible if hearsay was admitted to attack or support the credibility of a declarant

CHAPTER 10. AUTHENTICATION AND IDENTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS, RECORDS, PHOTOGRAPHS, RECORDINGS, AND OTHER EVIDENCE

§ 10:1 Introduction
§ 10:2 Role of judge and jury in determining admissibility and actual authenticity
§ 10:3 Self-authenticating documents or records
§ 10:4 Authentication of certain writings, recordings, photographs, and physical objects as a condition of admissibility
§ 10:5 Identification of medical bills

§ 10:6 Admission of certain photographs, motion pictures, videotapes, and audio recordings when witness is unavailable
§ 10:7 Admission of the original of a writing, recording, or photograph is generally required to prove its contents
§ 10:8 Admitting a "duplicate" in lieu of the "original" to prove the contents of a writing, recording, or photograph § 10:9 Proving the contents of a writing, recording, or photograph by other evidence § 10:10 Proving the contents of public records
§ 10:11 Summary may be admitted to prove the contents of voluminous writings, recordings, or photographs
§ 10:12 Proving contents of a writing, recording, or photograph through party's testimony or written admission of its contents
§ 10:13 Establishing authenticity through a party's answers to requests for admission
§ 10:14 Uniform Electronic Transactions Act

CHAPTER 11. EVIDENTIARY EXCLUSIONS BASED ON CONSTITUTIONAL PRIVILEGES

§ 11:1 Introduction to the constitutional privileges
§ 11:2 Privilege against self-incrimination
§ 11:3 —Personal and not available to artificial persons
§ 11:4 —Four aspects
§ 11:5 —Privilege of an accused in a criminal case not to be a witness against himself
§ 11:6 —Psychiatric examinations
§ 11:7 —Privilege of the accused to remain silent
§ 11:8 —Privilege of an accused not to incriminate himself through non-testimonial actions
§ 11:9 —Privilege of a witness not to testify to incriminating facts
§ 11:10 —Admissibility of unlawfully-obtained statements for impeachment purposes
§ 11:11 —Waiver of right by consent
§ 11:12 Right to counsel
§ 11:13 Search and seizure—The warrant requirement and the exclusionary rule § 11:14 Warrant required for electronic surveillance or wiretapping
§ 11:15 Warrantless searches—Evidence obtained by private individuals not excluded § 11:16 Warrantless searches
§ 11:17 —Cell phone information and electronic devices

§ 11:18 —Automobiles
§ 11:19 —Homes
§ 11:20 —Schools
§ 11:21 Exceptions to warrant requirement
§ 11:22 —Consent to search
§ 11:23 —Exigent circumstances
§ 11:24 —Search-incident-to-arrest
§ 11:25 Exceptions to exclusionary rule—Inevitable discovery
§ 11:26 —Independent source

CHAPTER 12. STATUTORY PRIVILEGES AND PUBLIC POLICY EXCLUSIONS

§ 12:1 Statutory exclusion for certain admissions and communications under Georgia Rule 501 § 12:2 Confidential communications between spouses
§ 12:3 Compelling spousal testimony in certain cases
§ 12:4 Attorney-client privilege
§ 12:5 —Corporate clients
§ 12:6 Accountant-client privilege
§ 12:7 Physician-patient privilege
§ 12:8 Medical review board and peer review privilege
§ 12:9 Veterinarian-patient privilege
§ 12:10 Mental health privilege
§ 12:11 Clergy privilege
§ 12:12 Governmental privileges, state matters, and secrets of state
§ 12:13 Informant privilege
§ 12:14 Qualified news gathering privilege
§ 12:15 Communications between law enforcement officers and peer counselors

CHAPTER 13. EXPERT WITNESSES

§ 13:1 When lay opinion testimony is prohibited but expert opinion testimony is required
§ 13:2 When expert testimony is required
§ 13:3 Subjects of expert testimony—Market value of chattels or real property; lost profits
§ 13:4 —Mental competency and insanity
§ 13:5 —Physical condition and causation
§ 13:6 —Vehicle speed
§ 13:7 —Due care
§ 13:8 —Truthfulness
§ 13:9 Same standards and Georgia Rule 702 now apply to civil, criminal, and other proceedings
§ 13:10 Three distinct requirements for admissibility of expert opinions

§ 13:11 Relevance, helpfulness, and fit of each expert opinion
§ 13:12 Qualifications of the expert to give each opinion
§ 13:13 Qualifications of standard of care experts in certain professional malpractice actions
§ 13:14 Propriety of expert opinion on ultimate factual issue
§ 13:15 Three aspects of reliability
§ 13:16 —Facts and data
§ 13:17 —Methodology
§ 13:18 —Conclusion
§ 13:19 Admissibility Under the Civil Standard of Expert Opinion on Handwriting
§ 13:20 Bloodhound evidence
§ 13:21 Results of paternity tests
§ 13:22 Harper v. State standard in criminal proceedings before July 1, 2022
§ 13:23 DNA evidence in criminal cases under Harper v. State
§ 13:24 Bloodhound evidence in criminal cases under Harper v. State
§ 13:25 HGN test results in criminal cases under Harper v. State
§ 13:26 Ballistic evidence including atomic absorption tests in criminal cases under Harper v. State
§ 13:27 Fingerprint evidence in criminal cases under Harper v. State
§ 13:28 Court-appointed experts
§ 13:29 Excluding expert opinions
§ 13:30 Expert testimony at summary judgment
§ 13:31 Examination of experts at trial through hypothetical questions
§ 13:32 Cross-examination of expert witnesses
§ 13:33 Experiments and out-of-court reenactments
§ 13:34 Jury consideration of expert opinion

CHAPTER 14. EVIDENCE AND PRE-TRIAL MOTIONS

§ 14:1 Evidence in summary judgment practice
§ 14:2 Pre-trial rulings to exclude evidence—Motions in limine in civil and criminal cases § 14:3 —Criminal cases—Motions to suppress § 14:4 Pre-trial rulings to admit evidence—Motions in limine

CHAPTER 15. BURDENS AND PRESUMPTIONS

§ 15:1 Burden of production distinguished from burden of persuasion at trial
§ 15:2 Allocation of burdens

§ 15:3 Preponderant evidence in civil and criminal cases
§ 15:4 Clear and convincing evidence
§ 15:5 Beyond a reasonable doubt
§ 15:6 Number of witnesses: when more than one is required
§ 15:7 Sufficiency of a party's own testimony
§ 15:8 Uncontroverted testimony
§ 15:9 Positive and negative testimony
§ 15:10 Circumstantial evidence
§ 15:11 Proof of a negative or affirmative defense
§ 15:12 Affirmative defenses in criminal cases—Burden-shifting and due process
§ 15:13 —Specific defenses
§ 15:14 —Insanity
§ 15:15 Nature of presumptions
§ 15:16 Operation and effect of presumptions
§ 15:17 Statutory presumptions: due process concerns
§ 15:18 Conflicting presumptions
§ 15:19 Other presumptions

CHAPTER 16. DETERMINING ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE AND CONTROLLING OF TRIAL

§ 16:1 The importance of admissibility to pre-trial investigation and discovery
§ 16:2 Specific objections with grounds must be made at trial to avoid waiver
§ 16:3 Formal exceptions unnecessary
§ 16:4 Determining preliminary questions of admissibility
§ 16:5 Offer of proof to preserve error for exclusion of evidence
§ 16:6 Court's duty to prevent the jury from hearing inadmissible evidence and to control the mode of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence § 16:7 Sequestration of witnesses and exceptions to "the rule"
§ 16:8 Oral, in-person testimony generally required
§ 16:9 Oath or affirmation
§ 16:10 Direct examination; use of leading questions § 16:11 Cross-examination; limitations on § 16:12 Re-direct examination; limitations on § 16:13 Re-cross examination; limitations on § 16:14 Court's power to question witnesses; improper court opinions on the evidence § 16:15 Demonstrative evidence and illustrative materials
§ 16:16 Persons as evidence

§ 16:17 Demonstrations
§ 16:18 Other writings for comparison
§ 16:19 Physical objects
§ 16:20 The jury view
§ 16:21 Evidence that goes out with jury; continuing witness rule
§ 16:22 Judge and jurors generally precluded from testifying; exception

CHAPTER 17. SUBSTANTIVE EVIDENTIARY LAWS REGARDING DAMAGES

§ 17:1 Introduction
§ 17:2 Collateral source rule—Purpose and effect
§ 17:3 —Procedural and substantive effect
§ 17:4 —Limitations and exceptions
§ 17:5 —Impact of 2025 Georgia tort reform measures
§ 17:6 Impact requirement limits damage evidence in negligence claims § 17:7 Excluding damages evidence in negligent security cases
§ 17:8 Admissibility of evidence relating to contract damages

CHAPTER 18. ADMISSIBILITY OF EVIDENCE TO INTERPRET CONTRACTS OR OTHER WRITTEN INSTRUMENTS

§ 18:1 Introduction
§ 18:2 Parol evidence—The principal parol evidence rules
§ 18:3 —Contracts subject to Georgia's Commercial Code
§ 18:4 —Contracts and instruments outside Georgia Commercial Code—Doctrine of merger or integration
§ 18:5 —Contracts and instruments outside Georgia Commercial Code
§ 18:6 — —Meaning of "instruments"
§ 18:7 — —Use of parol evidence to show no valid instrument existed
§ 18:8 — —Admissibility of later agreements
§ 18:9 — —Use of parol evidence to explain ambiguity
§ 18:10 — —Use of parol evidence to complete partial written contracts
§ 18:11 — —Parol evidence in the form of collateral agreements
§ 18:12 — —Instrument with a merger clause
§ 18:13 — —Receipts for payment

§ 18:14 —Rule for contracts subject to Statute of Frauds

APPENDICES

Appendix A. Georgia Evidence Code
Appendix B. Federal Rules of Evidence
Table of Laws and Rules
Table of Cases
Index