Highlights

Every point discussed in Sutherland includes extensive citations from both federal and state jurisdictions, which provide strong support for the proposition and often also for contrary positions.

In the 2026-2027 Cumulative Supplement new discussion and hundreds of new case citations from federal and state jurisdictions across the country have been added in all nine volumes of the set.

Cited in over 94 federal and state courts during the past 12 months—including 11 federal circuit court decisions, 19 district court decisions, and 57 decisions in courts in 26 states—this treatise continues to prove that it is the essential source for practitioners in understanding the legislative process and the principles for interpreting statutes.

Sutherland is also available on Westlaw and as a Proview eBook.
