Introduction to the 2027 Edition

Your new Local Regulation of Adult Businesses, 2027 Edition, contains updates addressing the latest caselaw and statutory changes in the growing field of adult business regulation. Meticulously researched and analyzed by nationally-renowned litigator and Constitutional law expert, Scott D. Bergthold, the 2027 edition focuses on the judicial balancing of state authority to protect minors from sexually explicit materials and environments, and constitutional rights. This complicated field of law often implicates complex First Amendment free speech issues, local zoning regulations, and municipal laws that are concurrently regulated by both federal and state caselaw.

Highlights from the 2027 Edition include:

- § 2:7. Time, place, and manner regulations—Content neutrality—Legislative purposes and content neutrality
- § 4:22. Legislative motives and burden of proof
