Highlights of the 2026-2027 Edition

This 2026–2027 Edition of Texas Construction Law Manual is a practical reference designed to answer questions which arise in the handling of Texas construction law issues and cases. Since last year's edition, new material has been added and/or existing material updated on the following subjects:

- § 1:2. Contract formation generally
- § 1:3. Contract formation generally—Mutual assent
- § 1:9. Defenses to contract enforceability—Authority
- § 1:22. Rules of contract construction—Third-party beneficiary
- § 1:28. Implied contracts—Quantum meruit
- § 1:31. Equitable estoppel
- § 2:1. Introduction
- § 2:4. Forms of business—General partnership
- § 2:5. Forms of business—Limited partnership
- § 2:6. Forms of business—Joint venture
- § 2:7. Forms of business—Corporation
- § 2:8. Forms of business—Limited liability company
- § 2:10. Business enterprises—Historically underutilized business
- § 2:11. Business enterprises—Disadvantaged business enterprise
- § 2:12. Business enterprises—Minority business enterprise
- § 2:13. Business enterprises—Woman business enterprise
- § 2:15. Piercing the corporate veil—Sham to perpetrate a fraud
- § 2:16. Piercing the corporate veil—Alter ego liability
- § 2:17. Piercing the corporate veil—Single business enterprise
- § 2:25. Commercial licensing/registration requirements—No general contractor license
- § 3:7. Safety laws—The OSH Act
- § 3:21. Workplace issues—Anti-discrimination statutes
- § 3:26. Payment—Prompt payment
- § 3:27. Payment—Contingent payment
- § 3:47. Statute of repose
- § 4:30. Contracting with public body—Prompt payment
- § 4:34. Contracting with public body—Sovereign immunity
- § 4:38. Contracting with public body—Right to repair
- § 5:1. Introduction

- § 5:2. Selection of type and form of contract
- § 5:21. AIA Document A201-2017—Claims and disputes
- § 5:23. Implied conditions, duties, and warranties—Implied warranty/duty to perform in good and workmanlike manner
- § 5:24. Implied conditions, duties, and warranties—Implied duty to provide correct design documents
- § 6:2. AIA Document A401-2017
- § 6:13. AIA Document A401-2017—Progress payments and retainage
- § 7:11. Terms and forms
- § 7:14. Defense—Commercial impracticability
- § 8:12. Change orders and extra work—No claims against architects or engineers
- § 9:3. Duties owed on construction projects—Owners
- § 9:4. Duties owed on construction projects—Contractors
- § 9:7. Duties owed on construction projects—Negligence theories
- § 9:9. Duties owed on construction projects—Respondeat superior
- § 9:16. Causation and responsibility—Indemnification
- § 9:21. Insuring construction risks
- § 10:1. Introduction
- § 11:7. Prime contract in excess of $25,000.00—Perfection of bond claim for second tier claimants
- § 12:3. Provisions of Miller Act and projects and persons covered
- § 12:6. Suits on bond
- § 13:6. Compelling arbitration—Federal Arbitration Act
- § 13:7. Compelling arbitration—Challenges to arbitration
- § 13:20. Enforcement/vacatur of award—Texas general arbitration
- § 13:21. Enforcement/vacatur of award—Federal Arbitration Act
- § 13:26. Future of arbitration—Artificial intelligence?
- § 14:9. Institution of suit—Jurisdiction and venue
- § 14:11. Institution of suit—Suit against licensed registered professionals
- § 14:14. Institution of suit—Quantum meruit
- § 14:25. Progress of litigation—Discovery
- § 14:30. Damages
- § 14:31. Damages—Lost profits