The Rutter Group California Practice Guide: Privacy Law

What's New or Updated 2026

The 2026 edition of the Privacy Law Practice Guide contains new and updated material on the following subjects, among others:

- CCPA developments, including additional requirements for online businesses and allegations sufficient for enforcement
- Employee use of workplace computers
- Scope of the consumer's right to be forgotten
- Opt-out functionality requirements under the Opt Me Out Act
- Additional states with DPA requirements
- Notification requirements under the Customer Records Act
- Prohibition on private actions for online conduct under CIPA
- Registration requirements for data brokers under the Delete Act
- Immigration information, enforcement, and subpoenas under CMIA
- Enforcement of the Transgender Privacy Act
- Employee's right to personnel records
- Updates to Age-Appropriate Design Code Act
- Geofencing technology use in rental vehicles

Please refer to the “Update highlights and filing (PDF)” for a more comprehensive summary of the most significant developments in this edition where these topics are discussed in more detail.