Lawyers & Ethics: Professional Responsibility and Discipline

Gavin MacKenzie

Release No. 1, March 2024

A practical, contemporary text dealing with the issues of professional responsibility regularly confronting lawyers in Canada in every area of practice. A valuable reference source for the practising lawyer and the student. Specific types of ethical problems arising in the major areas of practice are identified, and insightful, practical solutions presented. Areas of practice discussed are criminal, civil litigation, estates, real estate, corporate and in-house counsel. A substantial portion of the work is devoted to discipline proceedings.
