PENSION BENEFITS LAW IN ONTARIO

Andrea Boctor and Anne Slivinskas

Release No. 4, December 2024

Pension Benefits Law in Ontario is an indispensable resource to the understanding and practice of pension law. It provides a comprehensive annotation and analysis of the Ontario Pension Benefits Act and related Regulations. Copies of forms, reciprocal agreements and the Bulletins, Guidelines and Policies are also included. The case law reviewed includes the decisions of the Financial Services Tribunal, plus reported and unreported cases of the trial and appellate courts of Canada. Each provision sets forth a list of terms defined in the Act and Regulations, and the definition sections are cross-referenced with the applicable provisions.
