

Index

A

Admissibility of illegally obtained evidence, 140-143

Admissibility of police notes as past recollection recorded, 314-315

Admissibility of statements appreciating consequences of making statement, 242-244 compulsion or oppression, 238-240

free and voluntary, 232-235 informed and effective choice, 245-248

onus of proof, 235

operating mind, utterance of, 233-235, 240-241 person in authority, 250-252

police trickery, 248-250

prior consistent statement, 307-311 promise or inducement, 237-238 threat, what qualifies, 235-236

Admissions, See Interrogation

Ammunition, powers of search and seizure, 183-184

Appearance notice, 97-99

Arbitrary detention, See Charter of Rights and Freedoms

Arrest, generally arbitrary detention, protection against, 75-77

330 INDEX

- assisting peace officer, 126
- breach of Charter rights, consequences of, 77-84
- definition, 39-41, 52-63
- detention for investigation, 43-51
- generally, 37-38
- illegal arrest, consequences of, 128
- “public interest” not defined, 38
- reasonable and probable grounds, 41-43
- refusal of citizen to identify self, 126-128
- right to counsel, nature and meaning of, 63-75
- statutory power of, 14
- trespass in making arrest
 - “exigent circumstances” for entry without warrant, 124-125
 - proper announcement before entering required, 125-126
 - search of home is extraordinary remedy, 122-123
 - warrants under s. 529, 123-124

Arrest of youthful offender

- handcuffing, 120
- parents, role of, 119-120
- Youth Criminal Justice Act*
 - detention, 122
 - generally, 119-120
 - questioning under, 121
 - rights under, 120

Arrest under provincial statutes and bylaws, 129

Arrest with warrant

- carrying the warrant, 106-107
- execution of warrant where accused in another province, 107-108
- faulty grounds, 109-111
- generally, 104-105
- issuance of warrant, 106-106
- right to be informed of reasons for arrest, 107
- search of arrested person, 111-119
 - Controlled Drugs and Substance Act, under, 118
 - legality dependent on validity of arrest, 118-119
 - power governed by 3 considerations, 112
 - search of cell phones incident to arrest, 115-117

- strip search under Golden, 113-115
- warrantless where belief that weapon will be found, 117-118
- summons, 108-109
- wrong person, 109-111

Arrest without warrant

- appearance notice, 97-99
- duties after arrest, 99-103
- faulty grounds, 109-111
- general powers of arrest
 - believes on reasonable grounds offence about to be committed, 91-92
 - believes on reasonable grounds, offence committed, 90-91
 - believes on reasonable grounds, offence committed and escape, 86-89
 - finds committing breach of peace, 92-93
 - finds committing criminal offence, 91
 - finds committing indictable offence, 85-86
 - has committed indictable offence, 89
- generally, 20, 37-38, 84-85
- information, laying of, 103-104
- limitations on powers of arrest, 96-97
- procedure where no arrest, 97-99
- reasonable grounds to believe warrant in force, 93
- specific powers of arrest, 93-95
- when not to arrest without warrant, 37-38

Articulate cause, See Detention for investigation

Authority to commit crimes, police officers granted, 26-30

B

Bawdy houses, specific powers of search and seizure, 184-185

Betting, lotteries, specific powers of search and seizure, 184-185

Blood samples

- general powers of search, 146
- specific powers of search and seizure, 186-187

Body print or impression

specific powers of search and seizure, 189-190

Bow Street Runners, establishment of, 3

Building, receptacle or place, 145-147, 154

Bylaws, arrest under, 129

C

Canada Evidence Act

cross-examination under s. 9(1) of witness refusing to adopt prior statement, 308

Caution, administering of history, 267

no requirement to caution, 267
when given, 268

Charter of Rights and Freedoms

arbitrary detention, protection against, 75-77
"arrest or detention", meaning of, 52-63 arrest or detention, rights upon, 52 breach, consequences of, 77-84 detention not arbitrary where reasonable grounds to suspect criminal behaviour, 45 exclusion of evidence, 228-231 law office searches, violation of s. 8, 178 right to be informed of reasons for arrest, 107
right to counsel
one-time right unless material change in circumstances, 223-225 onus on police officer, 222 nature and meaning of, 63-75 psychological detention, 220-221
right to consult in private, 222-223
waiver, 225-227
when right arises, 220
right to remain silent, 206-219

- as part of s. 7 rights, 209
- confessions rule, common law, 214-215
- expansion of right to include interrogation, 208
- limits on right, 209-210
- “Mr. Big” operations, 216-219
- pre-Charter, 206-207
- where interrogation continues after assertion of right, 211-213
- where statement elicited by agent of state, 210-211
- unreasonable search and seizure, right to be secure against
 - generally, 134-137
 - search warrant, necessity for, 137-140

Child pornography

- search of computers, 169
- specific powers of search and seizure, 185-186

Children, statements of, See Witnesses, interviewing

Citizens

- ignorance of the law not protection for citizen, 25
- refusal to identify self, 126-128
- responsibility of in preserving law and order, 2-3

Collaboration of officers in making notes, 319-322

Confessions, See Interrogation

Confessions rule, common law

- voluntary statement, 214-215

Confidential informers, See Form 1 information, contents

Constitution Act, 1867

- s. 91(27), 4
- s. 92(14), 4

Constitution, United States

- Fourth Amendment, 134, 137

Controlled Drugs and Substances Act

- search and seizure under, 195-198
- search of person under, 118, 168
- search warrant, execution of, 164
- sting and reverse sting operations under, 25-26

Counterfeit money, specific powers of search and seizure, 194

Crime comics, specific powers of search and seizure, 185-186

Criminal Code

- authority to commit crimes granted to police under s. 25.1, 26-27
- general powers of search under, 144-147
- general warrant under s. 487.01
- imposition of duties on police, 9
- obstruction under s. 139(2), 12
- protection of officers performing duty, 15-30
- “public interest” not defined, 38
- specific powers of search and seizure, 182-194
- telewarrants under s. 487.1, 158-161
- when not to arrest without warrant, s. 495, 37-38

Criminal law, source of, 2

Cross-examination to test reliability of witness memory, 304

Crown Liability Act

- police liability under, 10

Crown, obligation to disclose evidence to defence, 297-299

D

Detention during search, 171-172

Detention for investigation

- arbitrary detention not found where reasonable grounds to suspect criminal behaviour, 45
- articulable cause, 43
- Charter* rights upon arrest or detention, 52

definition of “arrest or detention”, 52-63 hunch, no power to detain under, 44
pat-down search, power to conduct, 44
psychological detention, 220-221 reasonable suspicion standard, 43, 46-51
youthful offender, See Arrest of youthful offender

Disclosure of evidence

Crown obligation, 297-299 third party records, 299-303

DNA analysis of bodily substances

general powers of search, 146
specific powers of search and seizure, 187-189

Dynamic entry, See Search warrants, execution

E

Evidence

admissibility of illegally obtained, 140-143
Crown, obligation to disclose to defence, 297-299
exclusion of evidence, 228-231
giving evidence at trial, 286-287
notes, use of, 288-291

Exclusion of evidence, 228-231

Execution of duty, acting in the, 24-25

Execution of search warrant, See Search warrants, execution

“Exigent circumstances”

entry without warrant, 124-125
warrantless searches, 147-149

F

Federal statutes, protection of police under, See Police, status and liability of Firearms or ammunition, powers of search and seizure, 183-184

Force, use of, 21-24

Form 1 information, contents, See also Search warrants, procedure to obtain

building, receptacle or place, 154

grounds of belief

confidential informers, 153-154

generally, 151-152

more than mere suspicion, 152

statement of offence, 150-151

“will afford evidence”, 154-155

Form 5 search warrant, See also Search warrants, procedure to obtain

“day”, Criminal Code definition, 158

same details as information, 157

time of execution, 157-158

to whom directed, 157

G

G20 Summit, Toronto, 2010, 14

Gaming, betting, lotteries and bawdy houses, specific powers of search and seizure, 184-185

General warrant under s. 487.01

authority to issue, 161 execution in another province, 162-163 order to provide assistance, 162 requirements before issuance, 161-162 terms and conditions included, 162

where other statutory authority available, 162

H

Hate propaganda, specific powers of search and seizure, 193

Highway Traffic Act (Ont.)

powers granted to police under, 31

Hue and cry, 3

I

Ignorance of the law not protection for police officer or citizen, 25

Illegal arrest, consequences of, See Arrest, generally

Indictable offence

definition, 85-86

Information

laying of, 103-104

requirements, 149-155

Interrogation

accused's state of mind

intoxication, 258-260

mental illness, 260

young persons, 253-258

"admission", "confession" defined, 203

Charter of Rights and Freedoms

exclusion of evidence, 228-231

right to counsel, 219-227

right to remain silent, 206-219

procedure on interrogation

advising accused of rights again, 272-273

cross-examination, 274-275

form of questioning, narrative or questions, 273-274

guidelines and rules uncertain, 269-270

recording statement, 271, 275-279

trickery, 279-283

two officers present, 272

statement, necessity for taking, 204-206

videotaping or audiotaping of 264-266

Interviewing witnesses, See Witnesses, interviewing

Intoxicated accused, interrogation of, 258-260

J

Justice, historical development of system, 2

L

Law office searches

- guidelines, 179-180
- s. 488.1 of Criminal Code, 177-179
- solicitor client privilege 176-177
- violation of s. 8, 178-179

Liability of police officers, See Police, status and liability of

Liquor Licence Act (Ont.)

- powers granted to police under, 32-33

Lotteries, specific powers of search and seizure, 184-185

M

Media, search of, 175-176

Memory recall, nature of

- core memory vs. peripheral memory, 305-306
- memory as reconstructive process, 304
- reliability of testimony, two aspects of
 - accuracy and honesty of testimony tested, 303-304
 - cross-examination to test reliability, 304
- statement to be taken as soon as possible after event, 306-307
- suggestions to be avoided in questioning, 306
- triggers as aid to memory recall, 305

Mental Health Act (Ont.)

- powers granted to police under, 31-32, 41

Mentally ill accused, interrogation of, 260

Miranda rights, 270

Mistake of fact vs. mistake of law, police liability where, 17-18

“Mr. Big” operations, 216-219

N

Notes of police officers

- additions or changes to notes, 316
- collaboration in making notes, 319-322
- electronic notes, 312
- importance of making comprehensive and detailed notes, 311-314, 319
- past recollection recorded, 314
- production to cross-examiner, 314
- use of at trial, 288-291
- when notes to be made, 313, 315

O

Obscene publications, crime comics, child pornography and voyeuristic recordings, specific powers of search and seizure, 185-186

P

Past recollection recorded, admission of notes into evidence, 314

Pat-down search, power to conduct, 44

Peel, Sir Robert

- establishment of Metropolitan Police Force, 1829, 3

Plain view doctrine, See Seizure of goods

Police Act (B.C.)

- civil liability under s. 21, 11
- duties of officers under, 7

Police Act (Man.), 7-8

Police Act (Que.)

- civil liability under s. 2.1, 11
- duties of officers under, 5-6

Police duties, See Police, status and liability of Police liabilities, See Police, status and liability of Police powers, See Police, status and liability of

Police Services Act (Ont.)

- civil liability under s. 50, 10-11
- duties of officers under s. 42, 4-5

Police, status and liability of

- development of system of justice, history, 2
- discretion not to engage judicial process, 12-13
- duties, failure to perform, 12-13
- duties of police officers under statute creating police force
 - Criminal Code*, 9
 - Police Act (B.C.)*, 7
 - Police Act (Man.)*, 7-8
 - Police Act (Que.)*, 5-6
 - Police Services Act (Ont.)*, 4-5
 - Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act*, under, 4, 8
 - Royal Newfoundland Constabulary Act, 1992 (Nfld.)*, 6-7
- federal statutes, protection under
 - acting in execution of duty, 24-25
 - authority to commit crimes, 26-30
 - Criminal Code*, ss. 25-27, 15-24, 26-30
 - force, use of, 21-24
 - mistake of fact vs. mistake of law, 17-18
 - “reasonable grounds”, meaning of, 19-21
 - “required or authorized by law”, 17-18
 - sting or reverse sting operations, 25-26
- liabilities of police officers
 - Crown Liability Act, legal responsibility for torts under, 10
 - Crown servants, 9

Police Act (B.C.), civil liability under s. 21, 11
Police Act (Que.), civil liability under s. 2.1, 11
Police Services Act (Ont.), civil liability under, 10-11 powers

general powers of search under Criminal Code, 144-147
 generally, 13-14, 26-30, 30-33

provincial statutes, protection under powers granted

Highway Traffic Act (Ont.), 31
Liquor Licence Act (Ont.), 32-33
Mental Health Act (Ont.), 31-32
Trespass to Property Act (Ont.), 33
Provincial Offences Act (Ont.), protection under ss. 146-147, 30-31

status varying depending on legislation establishing police force, 4

Powers granted to police officers, See Police, status and liability of

Prior consistent statement, admissibility of, 307-311

cross-examination on statement under s. 9(1) Canada Evidence Act, 308 guarantees of reliability, 309-311 needs to be adopted by witness while giving evidence, 307-308 statement must be shown to be voluntary, 311
 use of statement where witness denies making it, 308

Probable cause, See Reasonable and probable grounds

Procedure, criminal

history, 2-3

Proceeds of crime, specific powers of search and seizure, 190-192

Production orders compelling third parties to produce relevant documents and data, 169 costs of production, 169-170

 "data" defined, 169
 "document" defined, 169
 evidence respecting commission of offence, 170

342 INDEX

exemption, right to apply for, 171 specific orders, 170

Prohibited, restricted weapons, firearms or ammunition, powers of search and seizure, 183-184

Provincial Offences Act (Ont.)

“offence” defined, 199 powers of search under, 198-199 protection of officers under ss. 146-147, 30-31

Provincial statutes, arrest under, 129

Provincial statutes, protection of police under, See Police, status and liability of

Psychological detention, 220-221

“Public interest” under Criminal Code, 38

R

Reasonable and probable grounds

arrest, 41-43
meaning of, generally, 19-21
suspicious circumstances insufficient, 42

“Required or authorized by law”, 17-18

Right to be informed of reasons for arrest, See Charter of Rights and Freedoms

Right to counsel, See Charter of Rights and Freedoms

Right to remain silent, See Charter of Rights and Freedoms

Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act

duties of officers, 4, 8

Royal Newfoundland Constabulary Act, 1992 (Nfld.)*, 6-7

S

Sealing order, 182Search and seizure

- Charter*, s. 8, 134-140
- Constitution*, United States, Fourth Amendment, 134, 137
- detention during search, 171-172
- evidence, admissibility of illegally obtained, 140-143
- general powers of search under Criminal Code, 144-147
 - blood samples, 146
 - “building or receptacle”, meaning of, 145
 - “place”, meaning of, 145-147
- good faith actions of police officers, 143-144
- implied licence to come on to property, 134-135
- pat-down search, power to conduct, 44
- production orders, See Production orders
- search as extraordinary remedy, 133
- search of arrested person, 111-119
 - legality dependent on validity of arrest, 118-119
 - power governed by 3 considerations, 112
 - search of cell phones incident to arrest, 115-117
 - strip search under Golden, 113-115
- search warrant, necessity of, 137-140
- seizure of the goods, See Seizure of goods
- specific powers under Criminal Code
 - blood samples, 186-187
 - body print or impression, 189-190
 - counterfeit money, 194
 - gaming, betting, lotteries and bawdy houses, 184-185
 - hate propaganda, 193
 - obscene publications, crime comics, child pornography and voyeuristic recordings, 185-186
 - proceeds of crime, 190-192
 - prohibited, restricted weapons, firearms or ammunition, 183-184
 - right to seize vs. right to search, 182-183
- specific powers under other federal statutes
 - Controlled Drugs and Substances Act*, 195-198
 - generally, 194-195

- specific powers under Provincial Offences Act (Ont.), 198-199
- warrantless searches
 - “exigent circumstances”, 147-149
 - “hot pursuit”, 147
 - where impermissible, 161

Search of computers, 168-169

Search of the person

- Controlled Drugs and Substances Act*, under, 168
- detention during search, 171-172
- pat-down search, power to conduct, 44
- search of arrested person, 111-119
 - legality dependent on validity of arrest, 118-119
 - power governed by 3 considerations, 112
 - search of cell phones incident to arrest, 115-117, 168
 - strip search under Golden, 113-115, 168
- search warrant, under, 167-168

Search warrants, execution

- complex searches, planning of, 165
- dynamic entry permitted, 165
- jurisdiction, search executed outside, 180-181
- law offices, search of, 176-180
- media, search of, 175-176
- officers not having right to remain once search completed, 165
- police required to give notice of presence, authority and purpose, 164
- sealing order, 182
- where entry refused, 164

Search warrants, procedure to obtain

- Form 1 information contents
 - building, receptacle or place, 154
 - grounds of belief, 151-154
 - statement of offence, 150-151
 - “will afford evidence”, 154-155
- Form 5, form of the warrant
 - Criminal Code* definition of “day”, 158
 - same details as information, 157

- time of execution, 157-158
- to whom directed, 157
- general warrant under s. 487.01, 161-163
- judicial discretion to refuse to issue
 - generally, 155-156
 - where refused, no right of appeal, 156-157
- telewarrants, 158-161
- tracking devices, See Tracking devices and telephone recorders

Seizure of goods

- articles named in warrant, 166
- articles not named in warrant, 166
- duty of officers after articles seized, 173-174
- explosive substances, 167
- plain view, seizure of items in, 166-167

Statements, admissibility, See Admissibility of statementsStatements, introduction at trial – voir dire

- absence of jury, 284-285
- burden of proof, 285-286
- definition, 284
- waiver, 286

Statements made in presence of accused

- acceptance by accused by assent, 292-293
- acceptance by accused by word or conduct, 292
- acceptance by accused inferred from accused's silence, 293-294

Statements, taking of

- caution, administering of, 267-268
- communications with friends and relatives, 263
- environment in police station, 261-262
- food and drink, 266-267
- interpreters, 263-266
- procedure on interrogation
 - advising accused of rights again, 272-273
 - form of questioning, narrative or questions, 273-274
 - guidelines and rules uncertain, 269-270
 - recorded statement, 271

346 INDEX

- trickery, 279-283
- two officers present, 272
- recording statement
 - oral, 278-279
 - typewritten vs. handwritten, 278
 - video and audio recordings, 275-278, 324-327
 - witness statements, 322-324

Status of police officer, See Police, status and liability of Statute of Winchester, 1285, 3

Sting or reverse sting operations, protection of officers in, 25-26

Strip search

- under Golden, 113-115, 168

Summons, 108-109

T

Telephone recorders, See Tracking devices and telephone recorders

Telewarrants, 158-161

Third party records, disclosure of

- “in the interests of justice”, 301
- “likely to be relevant”, 299-300
- police misconduct, in cases of, 302-303
- two-stage procedure to obtain, 300-301

Tracking devices and telephone recorders

- definition, 163
- reasonable grounds to suspect, 164
- warrant permitting police to install telephone recorder, 163-164
- warrant permitting police to install tracking device, 163

Trespass in making arrest

- “exigent circumstances” for entry without warrant, 124-125

proper announcement before entering required, 125-126
search of home is extraordinary remedy, 122-123
warrants under s. 529, 123-124

Trespass to Property Act (Ont.)

powers granted to police under, 33

Trial, introduction of statement cross-examination of officer, 291-292

giving evidence at trial, 286-287
notes, use of, 288-291
voir dire
 absence of jury, 284-285
 burden of proof, 285-286
 definition, 284
 waiver, 286

Trickery in interrogation admissions to cellmates, exclusion of, 283 distinct inquiry on voir dire, 280

generally, 248-250
“Mr. Big” operations, 216-219
right to silence subject to limits, 282-283 “shocks the community”, 249, 280-281

U

Unreasonable search or seizure, right to be secure against, See
 Charter of Rights and Freedoms

V

Videotaped statements, See Statements, taking of and Witnesses, interviewing*

Voir dire

absence of jury, 284-285
burden of proof, 285-286
definition, 284
trickery in interrogation, distinct inquiry on, 280

348 INDEX

waiver, 286

Voyeuristic recordings, specific powers of search and seizure, 185-186

Vulnerable witnesses, statements of, See Witnesses, interviewing

W

Warrantless searches, See also Search and seizure

“exigent circumstances”, 147-149

“hot pursuit”, 147

where impermissible, 161

Warrants, See Arrest with warrant

“Will afford evidence”, See Search warrant, procedure to obtain

Witnesses, interviewing

Crown obligation to disclose evidence, 296-299

memory recall, 303-307

core memory vs. peripheral memory, 305-306

memory as reconstructive process, 304

reliability of testimony, two aspects of

accuracy and honesty of testimony tested, 303-304

cross-examination to test reliability, 304

statement to be taken as soon as possible after event, 306-307

suggestions to be avoided in questioning, 306

triggers as aid to memory recall, 305

notes of police officers

additions or changes to notes, 316

collaboration in making notes, 319-322

electronic notes, 312

importance of making comprehensive and detailed notes, 311-314, 319

past recollection recorded, 314

production to cross-examiner, 314

use of at trial, 288-291

when notes to be made, 313, 315

prior consistent statement, admissibility of cross-examination on statement under s. 9(1) Canada Evidence Act, 308 guarantees of reliability, 309-311

 needs to be adopted by witness while giving evidence, 307-308
 statement must be shown to be voluntary, 311
 use of statement where witness denies making it, 308 recording witness statements, 322-324
 third party records, disclosure of, 299-303
 “in the interests of justice”, 301
 “likely to be relevant”, 299-300
 police misconduct, in cases of, 302-303
 two-stage procedure to obtain, 300-301
 videotaping statements of children and vulnerable witnesses, 324-327

Y

Youth Criminal Justice Act

arrest under, 119-120

Youthful offender, arrest of

handcuffing, 120
 parents, role of, 119-120
Youth Criminal Justice Act
 detention, 122
 generally, 119-120
 questioning under, 121
 rights under, 120

Youthful offender, interrogation of state of mind, 253-258