

TABLE OF CONTENTS

An Exploration of Creditor-Initiated CCAA Proceedings Katherine Forbes .....	1
Appointed as Court Officer When You Had a Prior Relationship? It's Not Like There's No Other Choice Out There! Martin Franco and Joseph Reynaud .....	17
Fragile Balance: Mitigating the Risks for Secured Lenders Associated with Remedies Available to Suppliers and Ensuring Suppliers' Cooperation in Insolvency Proceedings Hugo A. Babos-Marchand, Gabriel Faure and François Alexandre Toupin .....	43
It Wasn't Me: The Role of Context and Purpose in Corporate Attribution Natalie Renner, Derek Ricci, Frank Gillies and Dylan Young .....	79
Just and Equitable: Resolving Financially-distressed Insurance Companies in Canada Janis Sarra .....	103
Off the Hook? Limitations on Director (and Officer) Releases in Canadian Insolvency Law Eric St-Amour, Gabriel Lavery Lepage and Benjamin Jarvis .....	133
Sometimes; Maybe: The Enforceability of Intercreditor Agreements in Canadian Insolvency Proceedings Chris Burr .....	159
Strategic Maneuvers: Insights into Stalking Horse Dynamics Tom Powell and Kelly Bourassa .....	185
The Development of Section 243 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act: Expanded Powers of a Court-Appointed Receiver Kelsey Meyer, Graham Bowden and Kaamil Khalfan .....	203

Trust-Fall: Potential Perils Relating to Trust Claims Arising in Insolvency Proceedings Huey Lee and Mishaal Gill .....	225
A Disorienting Plunge from the Ivory Tower: Laurentian University and the Future of Insolvency Proceedings for Publicly Funded Corporations (PFCs) in Canada Kieran Moloney .....	241