

Summary of Contents

Volume 1

- Chapter 1. Confidential Business Information in Historical Context
- Chapter 2. Legal Bases Used by the Courts for the Protection of Confidential Business Information
- Chapter 3. Defining Confidential Business Information
- Chapter 4. Confidential Business Information and the Employment Relationship
- Chapter 5. Claims for Breach of Confidential Business Information
- Chapter 6. Defences to Claims for Breach of Confidential Business Information

Volume 2

- Chapter 7. Remedies for Breach of Confidential Business Information
- Chapter 8. Practical Advice for Protecting Confidential Business Information

Appendices

- Appendix A. Precedents
- Appendix B. Remedies Table—Misuse of Confidential Information

Table of Cases

Index

Table of Contents

Volume 1

CHAPTER 1. CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION IN HISTORICAL CONTEXT

I. ORIGINS OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 Roman Age
- § 1:3 Feudal Age
- § 1:4 Commercial Age
- § 1:5 Industrial Age
- § 1:6 Information Age
- § 1:7 Summary

II. MODERN CONCEPT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- § 1:8 Introduction
- § 1:9 Patent
- § 1:10 Copyright
- § 1:11 Trade-mark
- § 1:12 Trade Secrets
- § 1:13 Confidential Information

III. POLICY CONSIDERATIONS GOVERNING THE PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

A. PRINCIPLES GOVERNING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- § 1:14 Introduction
- § 1:15 Means for Protecting Intellectual Property
- § 1:16 —Absolute monopoly (as in contract)
- § 1:17 —Qualified monopoly (as in copyright)
- § 1:18 —Compulsory licence (as in patent)
- § 1:19 —Prevention of unfair competition (as in protection of confidential information)

B. CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION
PROTECTION V. PATENT/COPYRIGHT PROTECTION)

§ 1:20 Generally

IV. POLICY REASONS FOR PROTECTION OF
CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

A. GENERALLY

§ 1:21 Generally

B. NATURAL RIGHTS THEORIES

§ 1:22 Legal Protection of the Exclusive Use and Control of Ideas

§ 1:23 Disadvantages of Protection of the Exclusive Use of Ideas

C. ECONOMIC THEORIES

§ 1:24 Ensuring the Efficient Use of Resources

§ 1:25 Criticism of the Policy of Protecting Information to Ensure the Most Efficient Use of Resources

D. ECONOMIC INCENTIVES

§ 1:26 Provision of Economic Incentives for Individual
Inventors

§ 1:27 Criticism of the Policy of Providing Economic Incentives

V. CONCLUSION

§ 1:28 Generally

CHAPTER 2. LEGAL BASES USED BY THE COURTS FOR THE PROTECTION OF CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

I. GENERALLY

§ 2:1 Generally

II. PROPERTY THEORY

§ 2:2 Generally

§ 2:3 Criticism—Information Is Not Scarce

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:4 —Information May Be Shared Without Losing Possession
- § 2:5 —Not All Information Is Property
- § 2:6 —Protection of Confidential Business Information as a Form of Property Would Be Contrary to Public Policy
- § 2:7 —Difficulty in Determining Questions of Liability

III. EQUITY THEORY

- § 2:8 Introduction
- § 2:9 Criticism—Basis for the Equitable Obligation of Good Faith Is the Right to the Property

IV. CONTRACT THEORY

- § 2:10 Express Contracts
- § 2:11 Implied Contracts
- § 2:12 Criticism—Not All Breaches of Confidential Business Information Are Covered by Contracts
- § 2:13 —Consideration for the Contract May Be the Property Right in the Information

V. SUI GENERIS

- § 2:14 Introduction
- § 2:15 Criticism

VI. CONCLUSION

- § 2:16 Generally

CHAPTER 3. DEFINING CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 3:1 Generally
- § 3:2 Terminology
- § 3:3 Existing Definitions of Confidential Business Information and Trade Secrets

II. INFORMATION CAPABLE OF PROTECTION

A. THE “CONFIDENTIAL” NATURE OF THE INFORMATION

- § 3:4 Generally

- § 3:5 The Quality of Confidence
- § 3:6 —Extent to which the information is known
- § 3:7 —Availability within the industry
- § 3:8 —Intentional public disclosure
- § 3:9 When Disclosure Is a Breach of Confidence—
Reasonable person test
- § 3:10 —Partly public and partly private information
- § 3:11 Reverse Engineering
- § 3:12 Kind of Information—Identifiable and distinct
- § 3:13 —Information of substance
- § 3:14 —Sufficient development
- § 3:15 Treatment of the Information—Limited access
- § 3:16 —Practice of the trade
- § 3:17 —Confidential markings
- § 3:18 Form of the Information

B. THE “BUSINESS” NATURE OF THE INFORMATION

- § 3:19 Introduction
- § 3:20 Result of Independent Effort
- § 3:21 Economic Benefit of the Information

III. CLOSING COMMENTARY

- § 3:22 Closing Commentary

CHAPTER 4. CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION AND THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 4:1 Generally

II. DUTY OF GOOD FAITH

- § 4:2 Introduction
- § 4:3 Notice of Resignation

III. CONFIDENTIALITY

- § 4:4 Introduction
- § 4:5 Information Meriting Protection—During Course of Employment
- § 4:6 —Following End of Employment Relationship

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:7 The Employee's Post-Employment Duty of Confidentiality
- § 4:8 —The Employee's Right to Compete
- § 4:9 —Consequences for Subsequent Employers
- § 4:10 Distinguishing Knowledge and Skills from Confidential Information
- § 4:11 Results of Independent Effort
- § 4:12 Customer Information and Solicitation
- § 4:13 Use of Customer Lists and Memory
- § 4:14 Employment Circumstances and Solicitation
- § 4:15 Employee Solicitation

IV. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

- § 4:16 Generally
- § 4:17 Reasonableness of Restrictive Covenants
- § 4:18 —Duration
- § 4:19 —Geographical Area
- § 4:20 —Scope of Activity
- § 4:21 —Non-Competition versus Non-Solicitation Covenants
- § 4:22 —Restrictive Covenants in Commercial Agreements
- § 4:23 Covenants Entered into After Formation of the Employment Relationship
- § 4:24 Severance and Reading Down of Restrictive Covenants

V. FIDUCIARY DUTY

A. ANALYSIS

- § 4:25 Fiduciary Relationships Generally
- § 4:26 The Employment Context
- § 4:27 Duties of a Fiduciary
- § 4:28 Information Meriting Protection
- § 4:29 Competition by a Fiduciary Employee
- § 4:30 Unfair Use of Information
- § 4:31 —Impact Planning to Depart
- § 4:32 Time Restraint
- § 4:33 Québec Law
- § 4:34 —Confidential Information
- § 4:35 —Restrictive Covenants
- § 4:36 —Termination of the Employment Contract
- § 4:37 —Legal Decisions

B. REMEDIES TABLE—EMPLOYMENT
RELATIONSHIP—BREACH OF FIDUCIARY
DUTY

- § 4:37.30 WJ Packaging Solutions Corp. v. Park
- § 4:37.50 Eisler Estate v. GWR Resources Inc.
- § 4:37.60 West Bros. Frame & Chair Ltd. v. Yazbek
- § 4:37.70 Brien v. Brien
- § 4:38 Metalworks Canada Ltd. v. Warrack
- § 4:39 WestCorp Solutions Ltd. v. Lancaster
- § 4:40 Atlas Copco Canada Inc. v. David Hillier
- § 4:41 M-I Drilling Fluids Canada, Inc v. Cottle
- § 4:42 Borrelli v. Chan
- § 4:43 York University v. Markicevic
- § 4:44 Canadian Premier Life Insurance Co. v. Ho
- § 4:45 Computer Enhancement Corp. v. J.C. Options
- § 4:46 M.A. Concrete Ltd. v. Truter
- § 4:47 Frydman v. Pelletier
- § 4:48 John A. Ford & Associates Inc. v. Keegan
- § 4:49 Parsons Canada Ltd. v. Nathoo
- § 4:50 Consolidated Compressor Co. v. Northwest
Equipment Ltd.
- § 4:51 Zesta Engineering Ltd. v. Cloutier
- § 4:52 Beyer-Brown & Associates Ltd. v. S & R Interiors
Ltd.
- § 4:53 De Rose & Associates Ltd. v. Brugnano
- § 4:54 Kirkland v. Taylor
- § 4:55 Anderson Preece & Associates Inc. v. Dominium
Appraisal Group Inc.

VI. GENERAL EQUITIES OF THE SITUATION

- § 4:56 Generally

VII. CONCLUSION

- § 4:57 Closing Commentary

CHAPTER 5. CLAIMS FOR BREACH OF
CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

I. CIVIL ACTIONS

- § 5:1 Introduction

A. BREACH OF CONTRACT

- § 5:2 Introduction

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:3 Breach of Contract—Breach of Express Provisions of a Contract—Non-competition clauses
- § 5:4 — —Express contractual provisions regarding the use of confidential business information
- § 5:5 Breach of Implied Provisions of a Contract

B. BREACH OF CONFIDENCE

- § 5:6 Introduction
- § 5:7 Relationships Covered by an Action for Breach of Confidence
- § 5:8 Distinction Between an Action for Breach of Confidence and an Action for Breach of Fiduciary Duty

C. BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

- § 5:9 Types of Fiduciary Relationships
- § 5:10 Test for a Fiduciary Relationship
- § 5:11 Necessity of Showing Vulnerability
- § 5:12 Types of Fiduciary Duties Owed—Director or senior officer
- § 5:13 —Employee
- § 5:14 —Joint Ventures
- § 5:15 —Subject-oriented fiduciary duty
- § 5:16 —Solicitor Client Relationships
- § 5:17 —Other Professional Relationships

D. UNJUST ENRICHMENT

- § 5:18 Generally

E. CLAIMS AGAINST THIRD PARTIES

- § 5:19 Breach of Confidence Actions
- § 5:20 Unjust Enrichment Actions
- § 5:21 Actions for Tortious Interference with Contractual Relations

II. CRIMINAL ACTIONS

- § 5:22 Theft
- § 5:23 Fraud
- § 5:24 Mischief

CHAPTER 6. DEFENCES TO CLAIMS FOR BREACH OF CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 6:1 Generally

II. NATURE OF THE INFORMATION

§ 6:2 Information Not Confidential

§ 6:3 No Longer a Secret

§ 6:4 Reverse Engineering

§ 6:5 Employee's Personal Skill, Knowledge and Experience

III. PERSON SUING MUST BE SOMEONE TO WHOM A DUTY OF CONFIDENCE IS OWED)

§ 6:6 Generally

IV. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PARTIES

§ 6:7 Obligation of Confidence

§ 6:8 Not a Fiduciary

V. NO IMPROPER USE OR DISCLOSURE OF THE INFORMATION

§ 6:9 Generally

VI. PUBLIC POLICY

§ 6:10 Restraint of Trade

§ 6:11 Contrary to Public Interest—Unclean Hands

§ 6:12 —Breaches of the Law

§ 6:13 Right of the Public to Be Informed

§ 6:14 Public Interest in the Administration of Justice

VII. DEFENCES RAISED AS A RESULT OF THE PLAINTIFF'S INACTION

§ 6:15 Limitation Periods

§ 6:16 Laches

§ 6:17 Acquiescence

VIII. CONCLUSION

§ 6:18 Generally

Volume 2

CHAPTER 7. REMEDIES FOR BREACH OF CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

I. GENERALLY

§ 7:1 Generally

II. EQUITABLE RELIEF

A. INTERIM AND INTERLOCUTORY INJUNCTIONS

- § 7:2 Introduction
- § 7:3 Prima Facie Test
- § 7:4 Serious Issue to Be Tried Test
- § 7:5 Balance of Convenience
- § 7:6 Irreparable Harm
- § 7:7 Undertaking
- § 7:8 Related Relief

B. PERMANENT INJUNCTIONS

§ 7:9 Generally

C. SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS WITH REGARD TO INJUNCTIONS

- § 7:10 Restraint of Trade Cases
- § 7:11 Confidential Information Is Used as a Springboard
- § 7:12 Restraining Actions of Third Parties

D. ANTON PILLER ORDER

§ 7:13 Generally

E. ORDER FOR DELIVERY UP OR PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY

- § 7:14 Generally
- § 7:14.50 Certificate of Pending Litigation

F. CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

§ 7:15 Generally

G. DECLARATORY RELIEF

§ 7:16 Generally

H. ACCOUNT OF PROFITS

§ 7:17 Generally

I. REMEDY FOR SOLICITOR'S BREACH OF LAW OF CONFLICTS

§ 7:18 Generally

III. DAMAGES

§ 7:19 Generally

A. LEGAL BASIS FOR A CLAIM FOR DAMAGES

§ 7:20 Damages for Appropriation of Property

§ 7:21 Damages for Breach of Contract

§ 7:22 Damages in Tort

§ 7:23 Damages for Breach of an Equitable Duty of Confidence or Fiduciary Duty

§ 7:24 Punitive Damages

B. DETERMINING THE QUANTUM OF DAMAGES

§ 7:25 Appropriation Without Use

§ 7:26 Damages Based on the Type of Confidential
Information Appropriated

IV. CRIMINAL SANCTIONS

§ 7:27 Generally

V. INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS

§ 7:28 Generally

CHAPTER 8. PRACTICAL ADVICE FOR PROTECTING CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS
INFORMATION

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 8:1 Generally

II. SPECIFIC STEPS TO PROTECT CONFIDENTIALITY

A. MONITORING INFORMATION

- § 8:2 Introduction
- § 8:3 Copies of Documents
- § 8:4 Unintentional Disclosure
- § 8:5 Legislative Disclosure
- § 8:6 —Freedom of information
- § 8:7 —Miscellaneous legislation

B. TREATMENT OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- § 8:8 Company Manuals and Documents Containing
Confidential Information
- § 8:9 Personnel Files

C. ACCESS TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- § 8:10 Introduction
- § 8:11 Physical Access to Information
- § 8:12 Access to Duplication and Transmission Equipment
- § 8:13 Access by Visitors
- § 8:14 Computer Information
- § 8:15 Separation from Other Information
- § 8:16 International Travel

III. EMPLOYMENT DUTIES AND WRITTEN CONTRACTS

A. REVIEW OF DUTIES AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY EMPLOYEE

- § 8:17 Introduction
- § 8:18 Signing an Agreement
- § 8:19 Covenants Entered Into After Formation of the Employment Relationship

B. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

- § 8:20 Generally

C. FIDUCIARY DUTY

- § 8:21 Generally

D. DEPARTURE OF AN EMPLOYEE

§ 8:22 Generally

E. INFORMATION MERITING PROTECTION

§ 8:23 Practice of the Trade

§ 8:24 Distinguishing Knowledge and Skills from Confidential Information

§ 8:25 Customer Information and Solicitation

§ 8:26 Economic Benefit of Information

F. EVIDENCE

§ 8:27 Generally

IV. CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENTS

§ 8:28 Generally

V. CONCLUSION

§ 8:29 Generally

APPENDICES

Appendix A. Precedents

Appendix B. Remedies Table—Misuse of Confidential
Information

Table of Cases

Index