

INTRODUCTION TO 2025-2026 SUPPLEMENT UPDATES

The 2025-2026 update to Katz and Giannelli Criminal Law, 3d (Baldwin's Ohio Practice) covers all aspects of Ohio criminal procedure, from initial appearance to post-conviction remedies, with emphasis on constitutional and evidentiary issues.

This 2025-2026 supplement update replaces the 2024-2025 supplement update in its entirety.

- Exigent circumstances (State v. Easter, § 11:3)
- Malicious prosecution (Chiaverini v. City of Napoleon, § 7:17)
- Inadvertence requirement (State v. Hyatt, § 16:9)
- Testing for drunk driving (State v. Lopez, § 15:18)
- Automobile exception requirements (State v. Belton, § 14:3)
- Traffic stops (State v. Dunlap, § 15:2)
- Application for DNA testing by incarcerated felons (State v. Riley, § 81:15)
- Acquittal consequences (State v. Hickman, § 87:15)
- Drug trafficking—Penalties (State v. Dunn, § 107:3)
- Consecutive sentences (State v. Glover, § 118:16)
- Judicial release (State v. Kennedy, § 120:7)

Thank you for subscribing to Katz and Giannelli Criminal Law, 3d (Baldwin's Ohio Practice). We hope you find this work an invaluable tool for your practice.

THE PUBLISHER