Intellectual Property Law Review

2021 Edition

Edited by Karen B. Tripp

We are pleased to enclose your 2021 Edition of Intellectual Property Law Review, our annual compilation of the most important and timely articles recently published in the ever-evolving field of intellectual property law.

These articles present a comprehensive and enlightening analysis of recent developments in the areas of patent, trademark, and copyright law and general intellectual property and offer sound criticism and projections for future directions in these fields. As usual, Ms. Tripp has included an informative introductory survey, to place each article in context. For ease of handling, please note the materials in this box.

Filing Instructions
