

Detailed Contents

Volume 1

Chapter 1

Introduction to Probation and Parole

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 Probation—a brief history
- § 1:3 —State adoption of probation
- § 1:4 —Federal adoption of probation
- § 1:5 Theoretical bases for probation—rehabilitation as primary goal of probation
- § 1:6 —Retribution
- § 1:7 —Deterrence
- § 1:8 —Incapacitation
- § 1:9 —Other policy considerations
- § 1:10 Overview of probation procedures
- § 1:11 Parole—a brief history
- § 1:12 —Developments in the United States
- § 1:13 Theoretical bases for parole—generally
- § 1:14 —Rehabilitation as primary goal of parole
- § 1:15 —Incapacitation
- § 1:16 —Deterrence
- § 1:17 —Retribution
- § 1:18 —Impact on prison management
- § 1:19 —Equalize and fine-tune sentences
- § 1:20 —Other functions
- § 1:21 Overview of parole procedures
- § 1:22 Future of probation and parole
- § 1:23 —Failure of rehabilitation
- § 1:24 —Too much discretion
- § 1:25 Probation trends
- § 1:26 Parole trends

Chapter 2

Probation Granting: Eligibility, Limits of Discretion, and Factors Used in Probation Decisions

- § 2:1 Legal sources and limits of probation—introduction
- § 2:2 Probation eligibility—timing
- § 2:3 —Shock probation
- § 2:4 —Persons eligible
- § 2:5 —Type of offense
- § 2:6 —Manner of committing crime; use of firearm
- § 2:7 —Characteristics of offender
- § 2:8 —Nature of victim
- § 2:9 —Other sentences
- § 2:10 —Miscellaneous requirements
- § 2:11 —Constitutional issues
- § 2:12 — —Equal protection
- § 2:13 — —Cruel and unusual punishment
- § 2:14 — —Separation of powers
- § 2:15 — —Miscellaneous constitutional challenges
- § 2:16 Interpretation and proof
- § 2:17 —Statutory interpretation
- § 2:18 —Factual findings
- § 2:19 Scope and limits of discretion in probation release decisions
- § 2:20 —Duty to exercise discretion
- § 2:21 —Statutory preference for sentences other than confinement
- § 2:22 —Least restrictive alternative
- § 2:23 —Vast judicial discretion
- § 2:24 —Statutory factors
- § 2:25 —Plea bargaining
- § 2:26 Selected factors used in probation release decisions
- § 2:27 —Defendant's attitude toward crime and rehabilitation
- § 2:28 —Defendant's truthfulness
- § 2:29 —Defendant's willingness to assist law enforcement efforts
- § 2:30 —Defendant's willingness or refusal to plead guilty
- § 2:31 —Defendant's dangerousness
- § 2:32 —Defendant's prior criminal record
- § 2:33 —Acts not resulting in conviction
- § 2:34 —Juvenile court dispositions
- § 2:35 —Defendant's conduct between conviction and sentencing
- § 2:36 —Defendant's medical condition
- § 2:37 —Defendant's use of alcohol
- § 2:38 —Defendant's employment record
- § 2:39 —Defendant's political or societal beliefs

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:40 —Defendant’s race, national origin, sex, or religion
- § 2:41 —Need for deterrence
- § 2:42 —Nature and seriousness of offense
- § 2:43 —Need for public protection
- § 2:44 —Possibility of restitution
- § 2:45 —Victim’s preferred sentence
- § 2:46 —Recommendations in presentence and other reports

Chapter 3

Probation Granting: Due Process and Procedures

- § 3:1 Procedures in probation granting—applicability of constitutional principles
- § 3:2 —Due process analysis
- § 3:3 —Right to a hearing
- § 3:4 —Information about availability of probation
- § 3:5 —Right to appear, speak, and present evidence
- § 3:6 —Presence
- § 3:7 —Address the court
- § 3:8 —Present arguments and evidence
- § 3:9 —Right to counsel
- § 3:10 — —Waiver of counsel
- § 3:11 — —Choice of counsel
- § 3:12 — —Quality of defense counsel’s work
- § 3:13 —The presentence report
- § 3:14 — —Preparation
- § 3:15 — —Content
- § 3:16 — —Disclosure of contents of report
- § 3:17 —Rights of confrontation and cross-examination
- § 3:18 —Evidence
- § 3:19 —Inaccurate information
- § 3:20 —Illegally obtained evidence
- § 3:21 —Providing reasons for decision; transcript
- § 3:22 — —Written judgment and reasons
- § 3:23 — —Transcript

Chapter 4

Parole Granting: The Approaches Used by the States

- § 4:1 Introduction
- § 4:2 Parole boards—composition, appointment, and immunity from suit
- § 4:3 —Use of panels

THE LAW OF PROBATION AND PAROLE

- § 4:4 —Quorum and voting
- § 4:5 —Functions and powers in parole granting
- § 4:6 —Schedule review of cases
- § 4:7 —Establish procedures
- § 4:8 —Gather information
- § 4:9 —Issue subpoenas
- § 4:10 Eligibility for parole—few offenders ineligible for parole
- § 4:11 —Parole barred by order of court
- § 4:12 —Date of eligibility; requirement to serve minimum term
- § 4:13 —Capital crimes
- § 4:14 —Crimes involving sex offenders
- § 4:15 —Crimes involving violent or dangerous offenders
- § 4:16 —Crimes involving illegal drug offenses
- § 4:17 —Life imprisonment
- § 4:18 —Consecutive sentences
- § 4:19 —Concurrent sentences
- § 4:20 —Good time credits
- § 4:21 Constitutional challenges—in general
- § 4:22 —Ex post facto laws
- § 4:23 — —Policy considerations
- § 4:24 — —Disadvantage to the defendant
- § 4:25 — —Law versus procedure
- § 4:26 — —Victim notification laws
- § 4:27 — —Time between parole hearings
- § 4:28 — —Good-time credits and early release
- § 4:29 — —Release eligibility
- § 4:30 Criteria for release—preconditions to parole
- § 4:31 —Validity of general preconditions
- § 4:32 —Factors
- § 4:33 —Limits on factors
- § 4:34 —Guidelines
- § 4:35 —Burden of proof

Chapter 5

Parole Granting: Federal Parole Law and Supervised Release

- § 5:1 Federal parole law
- § 5:2 —Introduction; judicial review
- § 5:3 —Criteria
- § 5:4 —Guidelines
- § 5:5 —Offense severity
- § 5:6 —Offender characteristics; salient factor scores
- § 5:7 —Special role of other misdeeds

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:8 —Departures
- § 5:9 —Validity of guidelines
- § 5:10 Federal supervised release law
- § 5:11 —Introduction
- § 5:12 —Imposing supervised release on federal defendants
- § 5:13 —Conditions of supervised release

Chapter 6

Parole Granting: Due Process and Procedures

- § 6:1 Due process requirements in parole granting
- § 6:2 Due process in parole granting—historical background and Supreme Court decisions
- § 6:3 —Pre-Morrissey cases
- § 6:4 —Morrissey v. Brewer
- § 6:5 —Greenholtz v. Inmates of Nebraska Penal and Correctional Complex
- § 6:6 —Liberty interests created by statute; statutory sources
- § 6:7 —Federal parole law
- § 6:8 —Interpretive guides for state parole laws
- § 6:9 —Liberty interests created by administrative rules or regulations
- § 6:10 —Liberty interests and other limitations created by constitutional principles
- § 6:11 —Liberty interests created by an accepted practice
- § 6:12 —Liberty interests created by unilateral expectation or unofficial statements
- § 6:13 Procedures typically used in parole granting
- § 6:14 —Procedures in parole granting—notice
- § 6:15 — —Content of notice
- § 6:16 —Notice to public or to victims of crimes committed by prospective parolee
- § 6:17 —Requirement for providing foreign language interpreters
- § 6:18 —Appearance and presentation of evidence
- § 6:19 —Consideration of hearsay evidence
- § 6:20 —Access to inmate’s file and disclosure of other information
- § 6:21 —Representation by attorneys or lay advocates
- § 6:22 —Confrontation and cross-examination
- § 6:23 —Impartial hearing tribunal
- § 6:24 —Reasons for decision and record of hearing—written conclusions requirement
- § 6:25 —Sufficiency of transcribed or tape-recorded version of hearing
- § 6:26 Duration of parole

Chapter 7

Probation and Parole Conditions in General

- § 7:1 Purpose of probation and parole conditions
- § 7:2 —Corporate probation
- § 7:3 —Rehabilitation
- § 7:4 —Protection of the public
- § 7:5 —Restitution to victim
- § 7:6 —Punishment of offender
- § 7:7 Selection of probation and parole conditions—an overview
- § 7:8 —Categories of conditions
- § 7:9 —Effect of conditions
- § 7:10 —Effect of probation conditions on others
- § 7:11 —Limits on conditions
- § 7:12 —Statutory limits
- § 7:13 —Varieties of statutes
- § 7:14 —Standard lists
- § 7:15 —General principles
- § 7:16 Informing probationer or parolee of release conditions
- § 7:17 —Statutes
- § 7:18 —Standard form conditions
- § 7:19 —Vague or incomprehensible conditions
- § 7:20 —Ambiguous conditions
- § 7:21 —Rules of construction
- § 7:22 —Constitutional issues
- § 7:23 Delegation of authority to establish conditions
- § 7:24 —Delegation to department of corrections or probation department
- § 7:25 —Delegation to supervising officer
- § 7:26 —Delegation to others
- § 7:27 —Policy considerations
- § 7:28 Offender's consent to conditions
- § 7:29 —Consent to searches
- § 7:30 —Other areas
- § 7:31 —Role of counsel
- § 7:32 Survey of grounds for challenging conditions
- § 7:33 —Statutory or procedural irregularities
- § 7:34 —Unreasonable conditions not authorized by statute
- § 7:35 —Other statutory challenges
- § 7:36 —State constitutional challenges
- § 7:37 —Federal constitutional challenges
- § 7:38 — —Supremacy clause
- § 7:39 — —Bill of Rights
- § 7:40 — —First Amendment

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 7:41	— — Second Amendment
§ 7:42	— — Fourth Amendment
§ 7:43	— — Fifth Amendment—self-incrimination
§ 7:44	— — Fifth Amendment—double jeopardy
§ 7:45	— — Sixth Amendment
§ 7:46	— — Eighth Amendment
§ 7:47	— — Tenth Amendment
§ 7:48	— — Due process
§ 7:49	— — Privacy
§ 7:50	— — Equal protection

Chapter 8

Specific Conditions of Probation and Parole: Obedience to the Law, Searches, Confinement, and Cooperation with Authorities

§ 8:1	Obey the law
§ 8:2	— Statutory and implied authorities
§ 8:3	— Proof
§ 8:4	— — Standard of proof
§ 8:5	— — Effect of acquittal or reversal of new charges
§ 8:6	— Double jeopardy
§ 8:7	— Timing of violation
§ 8:8	— Distinction between arrest and conviction
§ 8:9	Submission to searches
§ 8:10	— Authority for search condition
§ 8:11	— Validity; purposes of probation and parole terms
§ 8:12	— Validity; Fourth Amendment issues
§ 8:13	Limits on possession or use of weapons or explosives
§ 8:14	Supplying information or taking polygraph test
§ 8:15	— Information about others
§ 8:16	— Information about oneself; registration
§ 8:17	— — Registration
§ 8:18	— — Fifth Amendment
§ 8:19	Confinement: serving a jail term
§ 8:20	— Sources
§ 8:21	— Policy considerations
§ 8:22	— Confinement: halfway house, home confinement, electronic monitoring, and boot camps
§ 8:23	— — Halfway house
§ 8:24	— — House arrest
§ 8:25	— — Electronic monitoring
§ 8:26	— — Boot camp
§ 8:27	Maintenance of contact with probation or parole officer

- § 8:28 —Policies
- § 8:29 —Authorities
- § 8:30 —Validity

Chapter 9

Specific Conditions of Probation and Parole: Limits on Speech and Associational Rights

- § 9:1 Limits on speech
- § 9:2 —Barring speech that allows defendant to profit from crime
- § 9:3 —First Amendment challenges
- § 9:4 —Statutory challenges
- § 9:5 Limits on association
- § 9:6 —Authority
- § 9:7 —Coverage
- § 9:8 — —Limits on contact with particular persons
- § 9:9 — —Limits on contact with category of persons
- § 9:10 — —Limits on type of contact
- § 9:11 — —Interpretation of “association”
- § 9:12 — —Interpretation of “contact”
- § 9:13 — —Interpretation of “law abiding”
- § 9:14 —Scienter
- § 9:15 —Vagueness
- § 9:16 —Serving purposes of release
- § 9:17 —First Amendment
- § 9:18 —Privacy
- § 9:19 —Substantive due process
- § 9:20 —Policy considerations

Chapter 10

Specific Conditions of Probation and Parole: Restrictions on Movement and Employment Rights

- § 10:1 Restrictions on freedom of movement
- § 10:2 —Authorities
- § 10:3 —Curfews
- § 10:4 —Remaining in prescribed area
- § 10:5 —Avoiding proscribed areas
- § 10:6 — —Vagueness
- § 10:7 — —Relationship to offense
- § 10:8 — —Abortion cases
- § 10:9 — —Banishment from specific location
- § 10:10 — —Banishment from geographical area

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 10:11	—Policy considerations
§ 10:12	Limits on access to automobiles and other vehicles
§ 10:13	—Drug cases
§ 10:14	—Sex offense cases
§ 10:15	—Automobile offense cases
§ 10:16	—Unrelated to crime
§ 10:17	—Conflict with drivers' licensing laws
§ 10:18	—Vagueness
§ 10:19	—Practical considerations
§ 10:20	Mandatory paid or volunteer work
§ 10:21	—Paid employment
§ 10:22	—Volunteer work, community service, or charitable donations
§ 10:23	— — Purposes
§ 10:24	— — Statutory and related authority
§ 10:25	—General limits
§ 10:26	—Tort and related aspects
§ 10:27	—Practice considerations
§ 10:28	Proscribed employment

Chapter 11

Payment of Restitution

§ 11:1	Payment of restitution and reparation; corporate restitution
§ 11:2	—Policy bases
§ 11:3	—Authorities
§ 11:4	— — Ancillary conditions
§ 11:5	—Amount of loss
§ 11:6	— — Property crimes
§ 11:7	— — Crimes against the person
§ 11:8	— — Other crimes
§ 11:9	—Restitution to persons other than the immediate victim
§ 11:10	— — Government unit
§ 11:11	— — Insurance company
§ 11:12	— — Indirect victim
§ 11:13	— — Multiple victims
§ 11:14	—Charity
§ 11:15	— — Restitution for other acts
§ 11:16	— — Restitution only for offenses where was conviction
§ 11:17	— — Expended restitution with consent
§ 11:18	— — Expanded restitution without consent
§ 11:19	— — Ability to pay
§ 11:20	—Bankruptcy
§ 11:21	—Procedures
§ 11:22	—Hearing requirements

- § 11:23 —Allocation of responsibility
- § 11:24 — —Practical suggestions

Chapter 12

Specific Conditions of Probation and Parole Payment of Family Support, Fines, and Costs

- § 12:1 Payment of family support
- § 12:2 —Policies
- § 12:3 —Authorities
- § 12:4 —Limits
- § 12:5 —Practical considerations
- § 12:6 Payment of fines and various costs
- § 12:7 —General authorities
- § 12:8 —Fines
- § 12:9 —Court and related costs
- § 12:10 —Fees of appointed counsel
- § 12:11 — —Ability to pay
- § 12:12 — —Equal protection and right to counsel
- § 12:13 —Cost of supervision or correctional programs
- § 12:14 —Other costs
- § 12:15 — —Law enforcement expenses
- § 12:16 — —Extradition and related expenses
- § 12:17 —Ability to pay
- § 12:18 —Policy considerations
- § 12:19 —Practical considerations

Chapter 13

Specific Conditions of Probation and Parole: Requirements for Education, Treatment, and Counseling, and Restrictions on Drugs and Alcohol

- § 13:1 Education
- § 13:2 —AIDS education
- § 13:3 Restrictions on contact with drugs and alcoholic beverages; tests
- § 13:4 —Barring presence in certain places
- § 13:5 —Blood or urine tests
- § 13:6 —Indirect limits
- § 13:7 —Policies
- § 13:8 —Validity
- § 13:9 — —Unrelated to rehabilitation or public protection
- § 13:10 — —Cruel and unusual punishment
- § 13:11 — —Unreasonable condition

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 13:12	— —Unlawful delegation
§ 13:13	—Practical considerations
§ 13:14	Required medical treatment
§ 13:15	—Cruel and unusual punishment
§ 13:16	—Privacy
§ 13:17	—Religious beliefs
§ 13:18	—Practical suggestions
§ 13:19	Participation in counseling
§ 13:20	—Authorities
§ 13:21	—Limits
§ 13:22	— —Compliance
§ 13:23	— —Need for counseling
§ 13:24	— —Other limits
§ 13:25	—Practical considerations

Chapter 14

Specific Conditions of Probation and Parole: Miscellaneous and Unusual Conditions

§ 14:1	Miscellaneous conditions—In general
§ 14:2	Posting bond
§ 14:3	—Validity
§ 14:4	—Amount of bond
§ 14:5	—Policy considerations
§ 14:6	Waiver of appeal
§ 14:7	General good conduct
§ 14:8	—Authorities
§ 14:9	—Interpretation
§ 14:10	—Proof
§ 14:11	—Policy considerations
§ 14:12	Dress and appearance
§ 14:13	Marital status, pregnancy, and castration
§ 14:14	—Birth control and pregnancy
§ 14:15	—Castration
§ 14:16	—Marital status
§ 14:17	Not maintaining a checking, savings, or bank account
§ 14:18	Paying taxes
§ 14:19	Changing environment, customs, or behavior
§ 14:20	Engaging in a required public activity or writing an essay
§ 14:21	—Public activity
§ 14:22	—Make speech or write essay
§ 14:23	Helping to facilitate administration of justice; waiving extradition
§ 14:24	—‘Hester Prynne’ conditions; acknowledgment sanctions
§ 14:25	Validity of unusual conditions

Chapter 15

Rescission of Probation and Parole

- § 15:1 Introduction
- § 15:2 Grounds for rescission: in general
- § 15:3 —Statutes
- § 15:4 —Conduct occurring after a favorable parole or probation decision
- § 15:5 —Other evidence not available at the time of the initial decision
- § 15:6 —Newly discovered evidence in existence at the time of the initial decision
- § 15:7 —Constitutional considerations
- § 15:8 — —Fifth Amendment
- § 15:9 — —Ex post facto
- § 15:10 — —Due process
- § 15:11 Procedures in rescission: is there a constitutional interest at stake?
- § 15:12 —Procedures required by statutes
- § 15:13 —Procedures required by the Constitution
- § 15:14 Specific procedures: hearing
- § 15:15 —Witnesses allowed to testify
- § 15:16 Confrontation and cross-examination requirements
- § 15:17 —Notice
- § 15:18 —Appear and present evidence
- § 15:19 —Fair and impartial decisionmaker
- § 15:20 —Record of proceeding and right to judicial review
- § 15:21 —Counsel
- § 15:22 —Relief in appropriate cases

Chapter 16

Modification of Probation or Parole

- § 16:1 Introduction
- § 16:2 —Who may seek modification; in general
- § 16:3 —Probationer or parolee
- § 16:4 —Probation or parole officer
- § 16:5 —Court or parole board
- § 16:6 —Who may order modification
- § 16:7 —Granting authority
- § 16:8 —Revoking authority
- § 16:9 —Federal probation, supervised release, and parole; federal courts
- § 16:10 —Parole or probation officer
- § 16:11 Timing of modification
- § 16:12 Grounds for modification
- § 16:13 —No violation of existing condition

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 16:14	No changed circumstances
§ 16:15	—Exercise of constitutional rights
§ 16:16	Limits on the types of modifications which can be ordered
§ 16:17	Procedures
§ 16:18	—Statutes
§ 16:19	—Probation
§ 16:20	—Parole
§ 16:21	—Due process

Chapter 17

Supervision of Persons On Probation or Parole

§ 17:1	Introduction
§ 17:2	—Authority
§ 17:3	—Personnel; qualified immunity
§ 17:4	—Duties and roles
§ 17:5	—Forms of supervision
§ 17:6	—Unsupervised probation or parole
§ 17:7	Searches by probation or parole officer
§ 17:8	—Consent
§ 17:9	—Need for a warrant
§ 17:10	— — Pre-Griffin
§ 17:11	— — Griffin v. Wisconsin
§ 17:12	— —Policy
§ 17:13	—Reasonableness of the search
§ 17:14	— —Manner of search
§ 17:15	—Remedies for an unconstitutional search
§ 17:16	— —Policy
§ 17:17	— — Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole v. Scott
§ 17:18	Search of probationer or parolee by police officer
§ 17:19	Questioning
§ 17:20	—Right to remain silent
§ 17:21	— —Fifth Amendment
§ 17:22	—Immunity
§ 17:23	—Applicability of Miranda to questioning by probation and parole officers
§ 17:24	— —Not in custody
§ 17:25	— —Not interrogation
§ 17:26	— —Law enforcement officer
§ 17:27	— —Waiver
§ 17:28	— —Absence of Miranda warning—effect on revocations
§ 17:29	— —Absence of Miranda warnings—effect on subsequent trial
§ 17:30	—Applicability of Miranda to questioning by police officer
§ 17:31	—Voluntariness

- § 17:32 —Privilege
- § 17:33 Interstate Compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers
- § 17:34 —Provisions
- § 17:35 —Amendment
- § 17:36 —Extradition versus interstate compact
- § 17:37 —Validity
- § 17:38 —Effect on habeas corpus

Volume 2

Chapter 18

Revocation of Probation or Parole: General Principles

- § 18:1 Introduction
- § 18:2 Brief history of revocation law: the Morrissey revolution
- § 18:3 —Morrissey v. Brewer
- § 18:4 —Gagnon v. Scarpelli
- § 18:5 Bail pending revocation
- § 18:6 —Constitutional authority for bail
- § 18:7 —Statutory authority for bail
- § 18:8 —Inherent authority to grant bail
- § 18:9 Changes in statutes that affect probationers or parolees adversely; ex post facto laws
- § 18:10 —Victim notification laws
- § 18:11 Timing of the violation and probation or parole term
- § 18:12 —Begin revocation hearing before term expires
- § 18:13 —Warrant or petition before term expires
- § 18:14 —Defendant responsible for delay
- § 18:15 —Defendant advised of post-term revocation
- § 18:16 —Post-sentencing, pre-probation misconduct
- § 18:17 —Pre-sentencing misconduct
- § 18:18 —After entry of probation order but before beginning of probation term
- § 18:19 —Post-probation or parole misconduct
- § 18:20 —Date of term and wrongful conduct
- § 18:21 Effect of reversal of conviction for which probation or parole granted
- § 18:22 Remedy for procedural defects in revocations

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 19

Revocation of Probation or Parole: General Bases for Revocation

- § 19:1 General reasons or grounds justifying revocation
- § 19:2 —Violation of a condition
- § 19:3 —Misconduct otherwise meriting revocation
- § 19:4 —Fraud or concealment in obtaining probation or parole
- § 19:5 —Applicable rules
- § 19:6 Commission of petty offenses
- § 19:7 Commission of additional criminal offenses or prohibited acts
- § 19:8 —Illustrations
- § 19:9 —Type of crimes
- § 19:10 —Need for a conviction
- § 19:11 —Effect of arrest or accusation
- § 19:12 —Effect of appeal and nonfinal conviction
- § 19:13 Effect of acquittal or dismissal of new offenses
- § 19:14 —Discretionary or mandatory revocation
- § 19:15 Rehabilitative purpose of probation not being achieved
- § 19:16 Need to protect society
- § 19:17 Willful failure to pay court-ordered restitution, fine, or court costs
- § 19:18 Fraud in obtaining probation or parole
- § 19:19 —Misrepresentation and concealment of material facts
- § 19:20 —Perjury
- § 19:21 —Duty to disclose
- § 19:22 —Revocation when truth discovered
- § 19:23 Misconduct not in violation of a condition
- § 19:24 Examples of conduct justifying revocation

Chapter 20

Revocation of Probation or Parole: Evidentiary Matters

- § 20:1 Introduction
- § 20:2 —Morrissey v. Brewer
- § 20:3 General comments about applying rules of evidence
- § 20:4 —Reliability and relevance of evidence
- § 20:5 —Privileges; statements to parole or probation officers
- § 20:6 —Confrontation and cross-examination of adverse witnesses
- § 20:7 —Evidence helpful to accused
- § 20:8 —Prejudice
- § 20:9 —Corroboration
- § 20:10 —Use of polygraph evidence

- § 20:11 —Use of hearsay evidence
- § 20:12 —Admissibility of evidence obtained in violation of statutes or the constitution
- § 20:13 —Rationale for exclusionary rule
- § 20:14 —Decisions holding that exclusionary rule is not applicable to revocation proceedings: Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole v. Scott
- § 20:15 —Decisions holding that exclusionary rule is applicable to revocation proceedings
- § 20:16 — —Special need for deterrence
- § 20:17 — —Imperative of judicial integrity; bad faith
- § 20:18 — —Coerced confessions
- § 20:19 —Procedures

Chapter 21

Revocation of Probation or Parole: Constitutional Rights and Guarantees

- § 21:1 Application of Rules of Criminal Procedure
- § 21:2 Right to counsel; introduction
- § 21:3 —Supreme Court decisions: Mempa and Gagnon
- § 21:4 —Applying Gagnon
- § 21:5 — —Colorable claim
- § 21:6 — —Substantial reasons revocation inappropriate
- § 21:7 — —Offender cannot speak adequately for self
- § 21:8 — —Preliminary v. final revocation hearings
- § 21:9 —Equal protection considerations; appointed counsel
- § 21:10 —Statutory law, state constitutions, and state court decisions
- § 21:11 —Notice of right to counsel
- § 21:12 —Responsibility for appointment of counsel
- § 21:13 —Record of denial of counsel
- § 21:14 —Timeliness of request for counsel
- § 21:15 —Waiver of counsel
- § 21:16 — —Capacity to execute waiver
- § 21:17 — —Constructive waiver
- § 21:18 — —Representation by self or nonlawyer
- § 21:19 — —Discharge of defense counsel
- § 21:20 —Scope of advocate’s work
- § 21:21 —Effect of wrongful denial of counsel
- § 21:22 Right to appear and present a defense; introduction
- § 21:23 —Personally appear
- § 21:24 —Speak in one’s own behalf
- § 21:25 —Introduce evidence
- § 21:26 —Call witnesses

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 21:27	—Issue subpoenas
§ 21:28	—Discover evidence in government’s possession
§ 21:29	— —Inculpatory evidence
§ 21:30	— —Exculpatory evidence
§ 21:31	Right to confront and cross-examine witnesses; introduction
§ 21:32	—Waiver
§ 21:33	—Sixth Amendment and due process considerations
§ 21:34	—Scope of confrontation
§ 21:35	—Reasons for denial of confrontation
§ 21:36	—Procedural aspects of confrontation
§ 21:37	— —Proof of good cause
§ 21:38	— —Request for presence
§ 21:39	— —Waiver of confrontation
§ 21:40	— —Remedies
§ 21:41	—Cross-examination
§ 21:42	Right to remain silent; introduction
§ 21:43	—Policy considerations
§ 21:44	—Statutory guidelines and constitutional requirements
§ 21:45	—Immunity from later use
§ 21:46	—Scope of use immunity
§ 21:47	—Informing violator of immunity
§ 21:48	—Scheduling as a means of minimizing self-incrimination problems
§ 21:49	Right to jury trial
§ 21:50	Right to a prompt hearing: speedy trial and due process
§ 21:51	—Statutes and rules
§ 21:52	Guilty plea or nolo contendere plea procedures
§ 21:53	—Due process considerations
§ 21:54	Competency
§ 21:55	—Incompetency to participate in revocation hearing
§ 21:56	— —Probation
§ 21:57	— —Parole
§ 21:58	—Raising the incompetency issue
§ 21:59	—Test of incompetency
§ 21:60	—Evidence
§ 21:61	—Disposition
§ 21:62	—Incompetency following a finding of a parole or probation violation

Chapter 22

Revocation of Probation or Parole: Defenses to Revocation

§ 22:1	Overview
--------	----------

THE LAW OF PROBATION AND PAROLE

- § 22:2 —Five categories of defenses
- § 22:3 Invalidity of the underlying conviction
- § 22:4 Invalidity of the new conviction for which revocation is sought
- § 22:5 Invalidity of the probation or parole condition
- § 22:6 Double jeopardy
- § 22:7 —Revocation after conviction in criminal trial for new offense
- § 22:8 —Criminal trial after revocation based on same conduct
- § 22:9 —Harsher sentence after new revocation
- § 22:10 —Harsher sentence without revocation
- § 22:11 —Effect of acquittal in earlier revocation
- § 22:12 —Minority view
- § 22:13 —Proof indicates defendant committed different offense than one charged
- § 22:14 Collateral estoppel
- § 22:15 —Effect of acquittal in criminal case
- § 22:16 — —Minority view: collateral estoppel applies
- § 22:17 —Effect of conviction in criminal case
- § 22:18 —Effect of acquittal in earlier revocation proceeding
- § 22:19 — —New revocation
- § 22:20 — —New criminal trial
- § 22:21 Insanity
- § 22:22 —Finding of insanity in earlier criminal proceeding
- § 22:23 —Court-ordered mental examination
- § 22:24 —Policy considerations
- § 22:25 Entrapment
- § 22:26 Failure to provide probationer with written copy of probation conditions
- § 22:27 Defendant's inability to understand English
- § 22:28 Injustice
- § 22:29 —Minor violations
- § 22:30 —Compliance useless
- § 22:31 —Noncompliance reasonable or compliance impossible
- § 22:32 — —Noncompliance reasonable
- § 22:33 — —Compliance impossible
- § 22:34 —Actions of other persons in causing violation
- § 22:35 —Estoppel
- § 22:36 —Unreasonable delay by state
- § 22:37 —Failure to inform probationer of condition
- § 22:38 —Lack of warning
- § 22:39 Miscellaneous defenses
- § 22:40 —Lack of intent
- § 22:41 —Self-defense
- § 22:42 —Racial discrimination
- § 22:43 —Religious discrimination
- § 22:44 —Inability to pay restitution, court costs, or fees

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 22:45 — Selective enforcement
- § 22:46 — Intoxication or addiction to alcohol or drugs
- § 22:47 — Lack of clarity or specificity in probation order
- § 22:48 — Clerical errors in judgment or probation order
- § 22:49 — Transactional immunity

Chapter 23

Initiation of Revocation Proceedings: Arrest and Notice

- § 23:1 Who may initiate revocation proceedings
- § 23:2 What constitutes initiation of revocation proceedings
- § 23:3 Timely initiation and completion of revocation proceedings: in general
  - § 23:4 — Duty to initiate revocation soon after violation
  - § 23:5 — Duty to initiate revocation before end of term
  - § 23:6 — — Escape
  - § 23:7 — — Remedy for tardy proceedings
  - § 23:8 — Timely completion of revocation proceedings; issuance of decision
    - § 23:9 — — Issuance of decision
- § 23:10 Summons, arrest warrant, and detainer; generally
- § 23:11 Summons
- § 23:12 Arrests by violator warrant
  - § 23:13 — Who can issue
  - § 23:14 — Probable cause
  - § 23:15 — Proof
  - § 23:16 — Who can execute
  - § 23:17 — Procedures in executing warrant
  - § 23:18 — “Knock and announce” rules
  - § 23:19 — Withdrawal of executed warrants
  - § 23:20 — Timeliness in executing warrant; due diligence
- § 23:21 Warrantless arrests
  - § 23:22 — Statutes
  - § 23:23 — Common law
  - § 23:24 — Fourth Amendment
- § 23:25 Immunity from arrest
- § 23:26 Notice: In general
  - § 23:27 — Service of notice
  - § 23:28 — Effect of notice; tolling of probation period
  - § 23:29 — Timing of notice
  - § 23:30 — Amending notice
  - § 23:31 — Form of notice
  - § 23:32 — Content of notice: in general

- § 23:33 —Time and place of hearing
- § 23:34 —Purpose of hearing
- § 23:35 —Rights at hearing
- § 23:36 —Alleged violation
- § 23:37 — —Condition allegedly violated
- § 23:38 — —Circumstances of alleged violation
- § 23:39 —Adverse evidence to be used
- § 23:40 —Possible consequences
- § 23:41 —Remedies for improper notice
- § 23:42 Notice to, and participation by, victims of crime
- § 23:43 —Timing and nature of victims' statements
- § 23:44 —Evidentiary effect of victims' statements

Chapter 24

Initiation of Revocation Proceedings: Detainers

- § 24:1 Introduction
- § 24:2 Legal basis for detainers
- § 24:3 —Interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers
- § 24:4 Consequences of outstanding detainers
- § 24:5 Statutory limits
- § 24:6 Interstate agreement on detainers
- § 24:7 —Uniform Mandatory Disposition of Detainers Act
- § 24:8 Judicial decisions requiring reasonableness
- § 24:9 Administrative review
- § 24:10 Constitutional limits
- § 24:11 —Moody v. Daggett
- § 24:12 —Jurisdictions subject to Moody
- § 24:13 —Adverse effect on opportunity to be released on bail bond
- § 24:14 —Adverse effect on parole opportunities as a liberty interest
- § 24:15 —Parole from original sentence
- § 24:16 —Parole from new sentence
- § 24:17 —Adverse effect on concurrent sentences as a liberty interest
- § 24:18 —Adverse effect on prison conditions as a liberty interest
- § 24:19 —Challenge classification directly
- § 24:20 —Adverse effect on defense at revocation as liberty interest
- § 24:21 Possible remaining Constitutional limits: the due process approach
- § 24:22 —Speedy trial
- § 24:23 —Pre-indictment delay
- § 24:24 —Reasonable diligence

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 25

Revocation Proceedings: The Preliminary Hearing

- § 25:1 Nature and functions
- § 25:2 Necessity of a preliminary hearing
- § 25:3 —No loss of freedom
- § 25:4 —Probable cause found elsewhere
- § 25:5 — —New criminal conviction
- § 25:6 — —Preliminary hearing on new charges
- § 25:7 — —Indictment
- § 25:8 — —Other proceedings
- § 25:9 —Admitted violation
- § 25:10 —Obvious violation
- § 25:11 —Waiver
- § 25:12 —Combined preliminary and final hearing
- § 25:13 —Remedy
- § 25:14 Timing
- § 25:15 —Remedy
- § 25:16 Venue
- § 25:17 Who can conduct a preliminary hearing
- § 25:18 Standard of proof
- § 25:19 Burden of proof
- § 25:20 State’s obligation to present evidence
- § 25:21 Role of defense counsel
- § 25:22 Record of decision

Chapter 26

Revocation Proceedings: the Final Hearing

- § 26:1 Nature of final hearing
- § 26:2 —Functions of final revocation hearing
- § 26:3 —Necessity of final revocation hearing
- § 26:4 Timing
- § 26:5 —Statutory limits
- § 26:6 —Constitutional limits
- § 26:7 —Remedies
- § 26:8 Venue
- § 26:9 Who can conduct a final hearing
- § 26:10 —Neutral and detached standard
- § 26:11 — —Remedy
- § 26:12 —Other standards
- § 26:13 Standard of proof
- § 26:14 Burden of proof
- § 26:15 —Opportunity to rebut government’s proof

- § 26:16 State's obligation to present and disclose evidence
- § 26:17 —Preserve evidence
- § 26:18 Role of defense counsel
- § 26:19 Record of decision
- § 26:20 —Form—Written record
- § 26:21 —Form—Transcript or summary of hearing
- § 26:22 —Content—Statement of court's or board's conclusions and reasons
- § 26:23 —Content—Documentation of waivers
- § 26:24 —Content—Reasons for denial of counsel and confrontation
- § 26:25 Distribution of report

Chapter 27

Revocation Proceedings: Sanctions for Revocation

- § 27:1 Introduction and overview of sanctions
- § 27:2 —Federal approach
- § 27:3 —Options
- § 27:4 —Criteria
- § 27:5 Information used to determine appropriate sanction; generally
- § 27:6 Presentence reports
- § 27:7 Violator's access to data
- § 27:8 —Violator's provision of data
- § 27:9 —Requiring additional data
- § 27:10 —Mental health diagnostic exam
- § 27:11 Sanctions; dismiss charges
- § 27:12 Issue warning
- § 27:13 —Change conditions of release
- § 27:14 —Fines and restitution
- § 27:15 —Increase or modify probation or parole term or term of supervised release
- § 27:16 —Revocation of probation
- § 27:17 —Revocation of parole
- § 27:18 —Revocation of supervised release
- § 27:19 —Incarceration
- § 27:20 —Mandatory prison sentences
- § 27:21 —Detention in "boot camps"
- § 27:22 —Split sentences
- § 27:23 —Consecutive or concurrent sentences
- § 27:24 —Sentencing under habitual offender statutes

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 28

Revocation Proceedings: Computing Credits for Time Served

- § 28:1 Credit for time on probation or parole
- § 28:2 — Policy considerations
- § 28:3 — Statutory law
- § 28:4 — Constitutional issues: double jeopardy
- § 28:5 — — Due process
- § 28:6 — — Cruel and unusual punishment
- § 28:7 — — Equal protection
- § 28:8 — — Miscellaneous challenges
- § 28:9 — Interests of justice
- § 28:10 Credit for time in custody
- § 28:11 — What types of restrictions count as “creditable custody”
- § 28:12 — — House arrest
- § 28:13 — — Hospitals and institutions
- § 28:14 — — Work release
- § 28:15 — Relationship between custody and the basis for the revocation
- § 28:16 — Detainers
- § 28:17 — Custody resulting from a parole or probation condition
- § 28:18 — Constitutional considerations
- § 28:19 — — Double jeopardy
- § 28:20 — — Equal protection
- § 28:21 — — Due process
- § 28:22 — Applying credit for time served
- § 28:23 — Double credit
- § 28:24 — Offender’s waiver of credit
- § 28:25 — Conclusion
- § 28:26 Effect on good time credits; awarding good time credits
- § 28:27 — Good time credits for transferred prisoners sentenced in foreign country
- § 28:28 — Taking away good time credits

Chapter 29

Appeals and Other Remedies

- § 29:1 Generally
- § 29:2 — Array of remedies
- § 29:3 — Selection of correct remedy
- § 29:4 — Timely initiation
- § 29:5 — Modification and reconsideration
- § 29:6 Administrative relief; exhausting administrative remedies
- § 29:7 — In probation cases

THE LAW OF PROBATION AND PAROLE

- § 29:8 —In parole cases
- § 29:9 —Review by governor
- § 29:10 —Conclusions
- § 29:11 Judicial relief—basic issues
- § 29:12 —Parole versus probation
- § 29:13 —Direct appeal versus collateral relief
- § 29:14 —Mootness
- § 29:15 —Standing
- § 29:16 —Finality of decision being reviewed
- § 29:17 —Standard of review
- § 29:18 —Discretionary matters
- § 29:19 —Burden of proof
- § 29:20 —Appeals
- § 29:21 —Appeals by the government
- § 29:22 —Appeals in probation cases
- § 29:23 —Appeals in parole cases
- § 29:24 Collateral attacks
- § 29:25 —Federal habeas corpus
- § 29:26 —Custody
- § 29:27 —Forum
- § 29:28 —Repeated hearings
- § 29:29 —Exhaustion of other remedies
- § 29:30 Federal Civil Rights Action (42 USC § 1983)
- § 29:31 —Tort actions in general
- § 29:32 —Tort actions between offender and public employee
- § 29:33 —Tort actions by third persons against public employees
- § 29:34 —Tort actions brought under federal tort claims act
- § 29:35 —Immunity as a bar
- § 29:36 —Actions against state governments
- § 29:37 —Actions against local governments
- § 29:38 —Actions against judges
- § 29:39 —Actions against parole boards
- § 29:40 —Actions against individual parole board members and parole hearing examiners
- § 29:41 —Actions against probation and parole officers
- § 29:42 —Good faith requirement
- § 29:43 Mandamus
- § 29:44 Expungement, pardon, and related remedies

- Table of Cases
- Table of Federal Statutes
- Table of State Statutes
- Table of Federal Regulations
- Table of Federal Rules
- Index