

Preface

Revised Volume 12A of Fletcher Cyclopedic of the Law of Corporations continues the broad discussion of corporate stock that begins in Volumes 11 and 12 of this treatise.

This revised volume delivers detailed coverage of: contracts for the sale and purchase of shares; pledges, mortgages, and leases of stock; gifts of stock; and membership in nonprofit and nonstock corporations.

The publisher is confident that this Revised Volume 12A, when used in conjunction with the other volumes in this treatise, provides the reader with a complete and authoritative view of the law of corporations. We extend our gratitude to those in the legal profession who provided us with helpful suggestions and comments, and we invite others to share their ideas and comments with us as well.
