

Table of Contents

Dedication
Preface

CHAPTER 1

ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

- § 1:1. General principles
- § 1:2. Commencement of attorney-client relationship
- § 1:3. Termination of the attorney-client relationship
- § 1:4. Fiduciary relationship between attorney and client
- § 1:5. Transactions between attorney and client

CHAPTER 2

STANDARD OF CARE

- § 2:1. Introduction and general principles
- § 2:2. The traditional standard
- § 2:3. Theories of liability, generally
- § 2:4. —Breach of express contract
- § 2:5. —Theory of negligence
- § 2:6. —Breach of implied contract
- § 2:7. —Fraud
- § 2:8. —Violation of statute
- § 2:9. The contemporary standard
- § 2:10. Standard of Care for the Specialist
- § 2:11. The locality standard
- § 2:12. Foreign law

CHAPTER 3

PROXIMATE CAUSE IN LEGAL MALPRACTICE

- § 3:1. Introduction and general principles
- § 3:2. Burden of proving proximate cause
- § 3:3. The “but for” requirement
- § 3:4. The solvency requirement

- § 3:5. Case within a case requirement
- § 3:6. Contemporary approaches to the case within a case requirement
- § 3:7. —Presumption of validity of underlying claim
- § 3:8. —Shifting the burden
- § 3:9. —The lost opportunity test
- § 3:10. —Bifurcation of the legal malpractice action
- § 3:11. —Standard of “lost substantial possibility”

CHAPTER 4

DAMAGES

- § 4:1. Introduction and general principles
- § 4:2. What damages are recoverable
- § 4:3. Reduction of damages by amount of underlying contingency fee
- § 4:4. Legal fees
- § 4:5. Recovery of interest
- § 4:6. Punitive damages

CHAPTER 5

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

- § 5:1. Introduction
- § 5:2. General principles
- § 5:3. Specific statutes
- § 5:4. California’s modern statutory approach
- § 5:5. Determining when the cause of action accrues
- § 5:6. The occurrence rule
- § 5:7. The discovery rule, generally
- § 5:8. The New York rule
- § 5:9. —Contemporary trends
- § 5:10. Fraud
- § 5:11. Specific situation—delay or inaction
- § 5:12. —Negligent title examination
- § 5:13. —Negligence in litigation
- § 5:14. —Wills
- § 5:15. Miscellaneous situations

CHAPTER 6

ATTORNEY LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES

- § 6:1. Introduction

TABLE OF CONTENTS

xi

- § 6:2. Development of the concept
- § 6:3. Contemporary California law
- § 6:4. Contemporary New York law
- § 6:5. Recent decisions of note
- § 6:6. Conclusion

CHAPTER 7

OTHER DEFENSES TO LEGAL MALPRACTICE ACTIONS

- § 7:1. Introduction
- § 7:2. Contributory negligence
- § 7:3. Assumption of risk
- § 7:4. Ratification
- § 7:5. Estoppel, collateral estoppel and res judicata
- § 7:6. Laches
- § 7:7. Release

CHAPTER 8

PLEADINGS

- § 8:1. Introduction
- § 8:2. General principles
- § 8:3. Pleading the attorney-client relationship
- § 8:4. Pleading the duty and breach thereof
- § 8:5. Pleading causation
- § 8:6. Pleading damages
- § 8:7. Discovery

CHAPTER 9

EXPERT TESTIMONY

- § 9:1. Introduction
- § 9:2. General principles
- § 9:3. Scope of expert testimony
- § 9:4. Necessity of expert testimony
- § 9:5. Expert testimony as to proximate cause
- § 9:6. Expert testimony as to the expected result

CHAPTER 10

THE LITIGATION ATTORNEY

- § 10:1. Introduction and general principles

- § 10:2. Following instructions of the client
- § 10:3. Proximate cause
- § 10:4. Existence of the attorney-client relationship
- § 10:5. Missing the statute of limitations
- § 10:6. Negligence for settling or failing to settle a client's claim
- § 10:7. Negligent advice as to settlement
- § 10:8. Negligent investigation of a client's case
- § 10:9. Unfounded or premature litigation
- § 10:10. Failure to appear and defend
- § 10:11. Unauthorized appearance
- § 10:12. Liability for negligent service of process
- § 10:13. Liability for choosing improper venue
- § 10:14. Liability for negligent pleadings, generally
- § 10:15. —Failure to join parties
- § 10:16. —Failure to join actions or issues
- § 10:17. —Theory of action or defense
- § 10:18. Negligence in discovery
- § 10:19. Negligence in matters of evidence
- § 10:20. Attorney's inaction or delay
- § 10:21. Withdrawal from case
- § 10:22. Discontinuing or otherwise terminating the client's action
- § 10:23. Negligence in preparing or entering a judgment
- § 10:24. Negligence failure to timely file notice of tort claim

CHAPTER 11

THE SECURITIES ATTORNEY

- § 11:1. Securities Act of 1933 (Section 11)
- § 11:2. Section 12 of the Securities Act of 1933
- § 11:3. Securities and Exchange Act of 1934

CHAPTER 12

WILLS, TRUSTS AND ESTATES

- § 12:1. Introduction
- § 12:2. Concept of privity
- § 12:3. Negligent will drafting
- § 12:4. Negligent advice to heirs
- § 12:5. Negligent advice to executors and administrators

CHAPTER 13

REAL PROPERTY

- § 13:1. Introduction and general principles
- § 13:2. Conflict of interest for the real estate attorney
- § 13:3. Real estate transactions between attorney and client
- § 13:4. Negligence as to location or amount of property
- § 13:5. Negligence as to determination of title
- § 13:6. Negligence in failing to discover liens and encumbrances
- § 13:7. Negligence in preparation or recording security interests

CHAPTER 14

DOMESTIC RELATIONS

- § 14:1. Introduction
- § 14:2. General principles
- § 14:3. Suits by non-clients
- § 14:4. Conflicts of interest—dual representation
- § 14:5. Increased duty of diligent research
- § 14:6. Knowledge of related areas of law

CHAPTER 15

APPELLATE ATTORNEY

- § 15:1. Introduction and general principles
- § 15:2. Preserving the client's right to appeal
- § 15:3. Causation
- § 15:4. Taking the fruitless appeal
- § 15:5. Fees
- § 15:6. Present court awareness of the appellate attorney

CHAPTER 16

THE CRIMINAL DEFENSE ATTORNEY AND COURT APPOINTED COUNSEL

- § 16:1. Introduction and general principles
- § 16:2. Liability of appointed counsel

CHAPTER 17

TAX, PATENT, CORPORATE AND CONTRACT
LAW

- § 17:1. The tax attorney—introduction and general principles
- § 17:2. —Erroneous preparation of client's tax return

- § 17:3. Liability of executor or fiduciary for attorney negligence
- § 17:4. Liability of the tax attorney, generally
- § 17:5. The patent attorney's liability
- § 17:6. The corporate attorney—general principles
- § 17:7. Conflict of interest
- § 17:8. Negligence in contract drafting

CHAPTER 18

VICARIOUS LIABILITY OF ATTORNEYS

- § 18:1. Introduction
- § 18:2. Law partnership, generally
- § 18:3. Misappropriation of client's funds
- § 18:4. Change in composition of the law firm
- § 18:5. Defenses to claims of vicarious liability
- § 18:6. Defenses in New York
- § 18:7. Defenses in other jurisdictions
- § 18:8. Constructive trust
- § 18:9. Vicarious liability for negligent referral
- § 18:10. The professional corporation
- § 18:11. Miscellaneous situations

CHAPTER 19

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- § 19:1. Introduction
- § 19:2. General principles
- § 19:3. Vicarious conflicts
- § 19:4. Timely recognition of the conflict
- § 19:5. The insured and the insurer
- § 19:6. Husband and wife
- § 19:7. Buyer and seller of real property
- § 19:8. Differing interests in the same property
- § 19:9. Debtor-creditor representation
- § 19:10. Representation of multiple plaintiffs in a civil action
- § 19:11. Representation of multiple defendants in criminal proceedings
- § 19:12. Conflicts with former clients

TABLE OF CONTENTS

xv

§ 19:13. Attorneys representing governmental interests

§ 19:14. Miscellaneous conflict situations

CHAPTER 20

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION AND OTHER ATTACKS AGAINST THE ATTORNEY

§ 20:1. Malicious prosecution

§ 20:2. Abuse of process

§ 20:3. Prima facie tort

§ 20:4. Defamation

§ 20:5. Intentional infliction of emotional distress

§ 20:6. Complaints of ethical violations

CHAPTER 21

MALPRACTICE INSURANCE

§ 21:1. Introduction

§ 21:2. General principles

§ 21:3. Insurer's duty to defend

§ 21:4. Insured's duty to provide timely notice

§ 21:5. Policy coverage

§ 21:6. Exclusionary provisions

§ 21:7. Sample Policy

CHAPTER 22

HOW TO PREVENT LEGAL MALPRACTICE

§ 22:1. Introduction

§ 22:2. Ten recommended do's

§ 22:3. Ten recommended don'ts

§ 22:4. Client communication

§ 22:5. Fees

§ 22:6. Docket system

§ 22:7. Federal legislation

§ 22:8. Client security funds

§ 22:9. Articles to be read

Appendix

Table of Cases

Index