

Preface

---

These are the pocket parts for the Second Edition of Colorado Criminal Practice and Procedure, Volumes 14 and 15 of West's Colorado Practice Series. These pocket parts include all pertinent changes in Colorado court rules and statutes that were adopted on or before May 31, 2025, and all pertinent United States Supreme Court, 10th Circuit, Colorado Supreme Court and Court of Appeals decisions through May 31, 2025.

Recent developments in these pocket parts include:

- Conflict-free counsel
- Discovery and sanctions
- For cause challenges
- Child testimony by TV
- Ineffective assistance of counsel
- Agent of law enforcement-Miranda
- Voluntariness of statements
- Invocation of right to remain silent
- Curtilage for purposes of search
- Knock and talk
- Particularity of search warrants
- Exigent circumstances
- Inevitable discovery and independent source
- Investigatory stops
- Affirmative defenses, including self-defense, and involuntary intoxication
- Hearsay
- 404(b)
- Elements of offenses, including lesser included and nonincluded offenses
- Jury instructions
- Prosecutorial misconduct
- Concurrent vs consecutive sentences
- Proportionality reviews
- Restitution
- Probation conditions
- IAD
- Costs of prosecution

- Re-sentencing after appeal

I would like to dedicate this update to the three women who have taught me so much about being a great husband, lawyer and person: my mom, Doris Bednarski, my wife, Kristina Knight and my mother-in-law, Julie Cantwell. Thank you for all your love and support and always setting a great example of how to treat others and how to be a great person. For Charlie, my son: GO MCLAREN AND NORRIS!!!

RICHARD F. BEDNARSKI

Colorado Springs, CO

June 2025