

Table of Contents

Volume 1

PART I. DYNAMICS OF ADVOCACY

CHAPTER 1. ALIGNMENT OF INTERESTS

- § 1:1.10 Need for strategy in advocacy—Effective advocacy strategies for girls [New]
- § 1:1.20 Need for strategy in advocacy—Criminal defense advocacy [New]
- § 1:1.30 Need for strategy in advocacy—Zealous advocacy [New]
- § 1:1.40 Multidimensional advocacy [New]
- § 1:1.50 Advocacy for elder LGBTQ clients [New]
- § 1:12 Importance of the setting in cross-examination [Retitled]
- § 1:13.10 Relevance of fact skepticism—Effect of post-truth era on juries [New]
- § 1:14 Models of communication and their importance: “Common-sense” model [Retitled]
- § 1:18 Implications of indirect portrayal of facts and role of motives—The advocate as an indirect witness [Retitled]
- § 1:19 Risk/benefit approach to choices [Retitled]
- § 1:21 Advantages of professionalism [Retitled]
- § 1:22 Advantages of professionalism—Civility and professionalism in legal advocacy
- § 1:22.10 Advantages of professionalism—Definition of professionalism in legal advocacy [New]
- § 1:22.20 Advantages of professionalism—Standards of professionalism in legal advocacy [New]
- § 1:22.30 Advantages of professionalism—Importance of clients [New]
- § 1:23 Importance of limited human control over future events [Retitled]
- § 1:26 Additional references—Overview
- § 1:27 Additional references—Generally
- § 1:28 Additional references—On professionalism in advocacy
- Appendix 1-1. Standards of Professionalism and Civility [New]

CHAPTER 2. NONVERBAL COMMUNICATION AND ITS PREREQUISITES

§ 2:4.50 Productive video conferences with incorporation of nonverbal communication cues [New]

§ 2:7 Additional references

PART II. COUNSELING

CHAPTER 3. COUNSELING AGAINST A SHIFTING BACKGROUND

§ 3:3.10 Counseling First—Moral Counseling [New]

§ 3:22.10 E-mail communication with clients [New]

§ 3:22.20 Online communication and client confidentiality [New]

§ 3:23 Additional references—In general

§ 3:24 Additional references—Media access, influence, and impact on trials and advocacy

§ 3:25 Additional references—Terrorism and governmental rights and responses

PART III. PARTICULAR DISPUTES

CHAPTER 4. PREPARATION

§ 4:6 Before litigation—Pre-litigation and pre-motion settlement devices

§ 4:14 Questioning your own client or witness prior to testimony—Ethical limits on witness preparation
[Retitled]

§ 4:14.10 Questioning your own client or witness prior to testimony—Witness preparation and trial consultation [New]

§ 4:16 Questioning your own client or witness prior to testimony—Ethical preparation of witnesses
[Retitled]

§ 4:17 Questioning your own client or witness prior to testimony—Virtues and vices [Deleted]

§ 4:18 Questioning your own client or witness prior to testimony—Ethical rules [Deleted]

§ 4:19 Questioning your own client or witness prior to testimony—Practical limits [Deleted]

§ 4:20 Conducting a witness interview [New]

§ 4:20.10 Lay witness preparation [New]

§ 4:20.50 Witness preparation—Telling the witness story [New]

§ 4:26 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—
Introduction [Deleted]

§ 4:27 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Rapport and the interview [Deleted]

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:28 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Empathy [Deleted]
- § 4:29 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Clueing the witness in [Deleted]
- § 4:30 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Demeanor and body language [Deleted]
- § 4:31 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Eye contact [Deleted]
- § 4:32 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Location of the interview [Deleted]
- § 4:33 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—To script or not to script [Deleted]
- § 4:34 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Having a third person at the interview [Deleted]
- § 4:35 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Time [Deleted]
- § 4:36 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Preparation [Deleted]
- § 4:37 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Suggestions, not commandments [Deleted]
- § 4:38 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—The art of building rapport during witness interviews—Conclusion [Deleted]
- § 4:40 Interviewing neutral and hostile witnesses—Don't take all documents affecting witnesses at face value
- § 4:54 Risks in witness interviewing—Represented opponents
- § 4:57 Risks in witness interviewing—Risks of secret taping of interviews
- § 4:60 Strategies for discovery—In general
- § 4:61.50 Strategies for discovery—E-Discovery [New]
- § 4:61.75 Strategies for discovery—E-discovery—Social media [New]
- § 4:67.50 Discovery of informal notes of prosecution witness statements [New]
- § 4:75.50 Prosecutor's duty to assist defense [New]
- § 4:84 The impact of computers, the internet, the world-wide web on discovery and trial preparation, generally
- § 4:84.50 Independent internet research by court as to expert qualifications
- § 4:85.50 Preliminary overall litigation strategies—Complex cases [New]

- § 4:86 Additional references—In general
- § 4:87 Additional references—Destruction of evidence
- § 4:89 Additional references—Missing witness inference
- § 4:93 Additional references—Abuse of discovery for competitive or other non-violent warfare
- § 4:95 Additional references—Extensions of time
- § 4:96 Additional references—Trial strategy and preparation generally
- § 4:97 Additional references—Trial publicity [New]
- § 4:98 Additional references—Use of focus groups
- § 4:99 Additional references—Emerging technologies and admissibility
- § 4:100 Additional references—Computer records and internet/world wide web issues
- § 4:101 Metadata production in electronic discovery [New]
- § 4:102 Prevention of overcollection of electronic information by court rule [New]

CHAPTER 5. DIRECT EXAMINATION

- § 5:3.50 Art of direct examination [New]
- § 5:5 Introducing documents and other exhibits—
Demonstrative evidence [Retitled]
- § 5:5.30 Importance of hiring expert [New]
- § 5:5.50 Expert witness selection [New]
- § 5:7 Qualifying experts and offering novel scientific evidence—Novel scientific evidence
- § 5:8 Qualifying experts and offering novel scientific evidence—Direct examination of expert witness
[Deleted]
- § 5:8.50 Qualifying experts and offering novel scientific evidence—Direct examination of plaintiff's medical expert in medical malpractice case
- § 5:9 Qualifying experts and offering novel scientific evidence—Prepare expert for cross examination
[Deleted]
- § 5:22 Additional references

CHAPTER 6. CROSS-EXAMINATION OF TRUTHFUL WITNESSES

- § 6:2 Preparation and flexibility—In general
- § 6:3 Top reasons for cross-examination [Retitled]
- § 6:12.10 Effective cross-examination of an expert witness [New]
- § 6:12.20 Opposing expert witness—Plaintiff's medical expert in medical malpractice case
- § 6:12.50 Opposing expert witness—Defendant's medical expert in automobile accident case [New]
- § 6:15.10 Cross-examination of defense's cigarette manufacturer expert witness by Plaintiff [New]
- § 6:31 Additional references

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 7. NARROWING THE DISPUTE THROUGH CROSS-EXAMINATION

§ 7:10 Additional references—Statements as equivocal

CHAPTER 8. EXPOSING THE LYING WITNESS

- § 8:1 Basic strategy—In general
- § 8:29 Contradiction by implication—Generally
- § 8:44 Additional references—Generally
- § 8:46 Additional references—Novel scientific claims [New]
- § 8:48 Additional references—Impeachment and rehabilitation
- § 8:49 Additional references—Accomplice witnesses
- § 8:51 Additional references—False exculpatory statements
- § 8:53 Additional references—Handling files
- § 8:54 Additional references—Nonverbal evidence
- § 8:56 Additional references—Names
- § 8:57 Additional references—Money laundering provisions
- § 8:61 Additional references—Impeaching credibility and exposing bias
- § 8:62 Additional references—Witness statements and prior statements

CHAPTER 9. SPECIFIC TECHNIQUES

- § 9:9 Leading questions on direct and cross-examination [Retitled]
- § 9:10 Disallowance of leading questions by judge
- § 9:11 Leading questions—“Isn’t it a fact . . .”—When leading questions are allowed by the court [Deleted]
- § 9:12 Leading questions—“Isn’t it a fact . . .”—When leading questions are not allowed [Deleted]
- § 9:13 Leading questions—“Isn’t it a fact . . .”—Conclusions [Deleted]
- § 9:14 Leading questions—“Isn’t it a fact . . .”—Casenote examples [Deleted]
- § 9:15 Leading questions—“Isn’t it a fact . . .”—The subtle lead [Deleted]
- § 9:16 Leading questions—“Isn’t it a fact . . .”—So how do you lead without leading? [Deleted]
- § 9:31.10 Cross-examination with learned treatises [New]
- § 9:34 Additional references—Model of choice making
- § 9:35 Additional references—Impeaching testimony
- § 9:36 Additional references—Cross-examination involving scientific or technical information
- § 9:37 Additional references—Other critical techniques

CHAPTER 10. EXPLORATORY EXAMINATION

§ 10:5 Depositions—Documents first: Usually advantageous

- § 10:11.50 Sequestration of witnesses during depositions [New]
- § 10:29 Additional references—Generally
- § 10:31 Additional references—Depositions
- § 10:33 Additional references—Witness immunity from suit
- § 10:34 Additional references—Inferences from silence
- § 10:35 Additional references—Suspect’s right to talk without risks except adverse inference?

CHAPTER 11. DEALING WITH TACTICS DESIGNED TO SABOTAGE CROSS-EXAMINATION

- § 11:4 Evasion—Evasive witnesses—Handling evasive witness or argumentative lawyer at deposition [Retitled]
- § 11:5 Evasion—Evasive witnesses—Understand the witness’s perspective [Deleted]
- § 11:6 Evasion—Evasive witnesses—Know when less is more [Deleted]
- § 11:12 Constriction of cross-examination by the tribunal—Generally
- § 11:14 Constriction of re-direct
- § 11:16 Additional references—Generally
- § 11:17 Additional references—Medical Experts

CHAPTER 12. EXAMPLES OF MULTIPLE TECHNIQUES

- § 12:15.50 Self-Driving Technology Product Liability [New]
- § 12:16 Additional references—Generally

CHAPTER 14. REPRESENTING AND PREPARING A WITNESS

- § 14:36 Risks confronting a truthful witness—Showing witnesses documents involved in disputed events not previously seen by witness
- § 14:53.50 Objections—Trial—Advocacy [New]
- § 14:62.50 Responses to hostile examination—Coaxing answers from hostile witnesses [New]
- § 14:65 Additional references—In general
- § 14:66 Additional references—Restricting recess consultation
- § 14:67 Additional references—Grand jury
- § 14:68 Additional references—Criminal aspects

CHAPTER 15. SELECTION OF ARGUMENTS

- § 15:34 Uses of history
- § 15:41 Alignment of arguments with interests of the tribunal—“Where do you draw the line?”
- § 15:45 Alignment of arguments with interests of the tribunal—Equal protection and individualized tax benefits

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 15:46 Alignment of arguments with interests of the tribunal—
Discrimination against military personnel and their children based on low educational expenditure in locality where base is sited
- § 15:50 Additional references—General principles and concrete cases
- § 15:57 Additional references—Purpose interpretation [New]
- § 15:58 Additional references—Federal law absorbed by state law
- § 15:60 Additional references—Values implicit in the bill of rights and other constitutional clauses
- § 15:61 Additional references—“Hard look”
- § 15:62 Additional references—Legislative history
- § 15:63 Additional references—Expressio unius?
- § 15:64 Additional references—Intent as evidence of effect
- § 15:65 Additional references—Circumstantial evidence
- § 15:66 Additional references—Inaction as action
- § 15:67 Additional references—Currency
- § 15:69 Additional references—Additional sources of authority
- § 15:70 Additional references—Citation of authority

CHAPTER 16. MANNER OF ARGUMENT

- § 16:55.10 Argument as conversation—Advocacy and emotion
[New]
- § 16:55.20 Art of persuasion [New]
- § 16:55.30 Art of persuasion—Jury persuasion [New]
- § 16:57 Additional references—In general
- § 16:58 Additional references—Non-annoying and gender-neutral writing

CHAPTER 17. TYPES OF ARGUMENTS

- § 17:2.10 Effect of opening statements on jurors [New]
- § 17:3 Openings—Preparation of opening statements
[Retitled]
- § 17:4 Openings—Develop a theory of your case [Deleted]
- § 17:5 Openings—Select a key theme [Deleted]
- § 17:6 Openings—Tell a story [Deleted]
- § 17:6.10 Openings—Tell a story—Elements of opening stories
[New]
- § 17:15 Argument to the court—Distinguishing prior rulings
as an affirmative strategy
- § 17:20.20 Argument to a jury—Educating jury on proximate cause [New]
- § 17:24 Argument to a jury—Jurors’ questions
- § 17:30.10 Argument to a jury—Name-calling in closing argument [New]
- § 17:42.10 Closing argument on behalf of Martha Stewart
[Deleted]
- § 17:46.50 Interaction of oral and written advocacy—Improving written advocacy [New]
- § 17:46.60 Interaction of oral and written advocacy—Strategies to enhance legal writing [New]

- § 17:47.50 Interaction of oral and written advocacy—Citations—
Persuasion through use of legal citation
- § 17:56.50 Sentencing—Sentencing guidelines—Prosecutorial lenience in sentencing [New]
- § 17:57 Sentencing—Federal guidelines
- § 17:57.50 Sentencing—Federal guidelines—Sentencing guidelines hypocrisy [New]
- § 17:58 Sentencing—Departure
- § 17:59 Sentencing—Long-term viability of guidelines?
- § 17:63 Sentencing—Request for hearing
- § 17:74 Additional references—Overview
- § 17:75 Additional references—Generally
- § 17:76 Additional references—Using demonstrative materials

CHAPTER 18. APPELLATE ADVOCACY

- § 18:1.10 Appellate advocacy [New]
- § 18:11.10 Remote appellate oral argument [New]
- § 18:12 How appellate advocacy differs from trial advocacy—
Effective appellate advocacy [Retitled]
- § 18:12.10 Appellate brief writing [New]
- § 18:20.10 The jugular—Amicus participation—Briefs—Court’s perspective [New]
- § 18:20.50 The jugular—Amicus participation—Clinical amicus advocacy [New]
- § 18:21 Additional references—In general
- § 18:23 Additional references—Scientific issues
- § 18:24 Additional references—Discretionary review
- § 18:25 Additional references—Checklist for appellate advocacy
- § 18:26 Additional references—Federal appellate practice
- § 18:27 Additional references—Waiver of right to appeal
- § 18:28 Additional references—Pendent appellate jurisdiction

CHAPTER 19. TRIAL STRATEGIES

- § 19:4.1 Central theme—Use of social media and Internet
[New]
- § 19:17.20 Persuasion during voir dire [New]
- § 19:17.50 Selection of tribunal—Jury selection—Systematic selection and supplemental questionnaire [New]
- § 19:17.70 Selection of tribunal—Jury selection—Millennial
jurors [New]
- § 19:19.50 Selection of tribunal—Jury selection—Aiding jurors
in deciding the case—Motivating unmotivated
jurors [New]
- § 19:28.50 Selection of evidence—Best evidence [New]
- § 19:29 Selection of evidence—Otherwise inadmissible
evidence [Deleted]
- § 19:33 Selection of evidence—Inoculating against bad facts
[Retitled]
- § 19:34 Selection of evidence—Inoculation theory [Deleted]
- § 19:41.10 Sanctions for late discovery [New]

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 19:47 Combatting delay, accelerating cases and rules for the court—Summary disposition
- § 19:60 Preliminary relief—More on intervention issues
- § 19:68 Preliminary relief—All deliberate speed
- § 19:81 Strategic issues in criminal defense—Relationship of need for and abuses by informants
- § 19:83 Strategic issues in criminal defense—Notice under the Fourth Amendment
- § 19:83.10 Prosecutorial perspective on Fourth Amendment [New]
- § 19:92 Strategic issues in criminal defense—Defense option in interrogation where privilege against self-incrimination inappropriate
- § 19:93.10 Leadership in trial advocacy [New]
- § 19:95.10 Psychology of trial advocacy—State of mind of the advocate—Defining the valid claims of the party—Anchoring requests for damages at trial [New]
- § 19:173 Additional references—Professionalism and psychology of trial advocacy
- § 19:174 Additional references—Psychology of trial advocacy
- § 19:175 Additional references—Trial strategy
- § 19:175.50 Cyberjuries [New]
- § 19:176 Additional references—Jury selection, conduct, and practices
- § 19:177 Additional references—Professionalism
- § 19:178 Additional references—Jury selection
- § 19:179 Additional references—“Suits at common law”
- § 19:180 Additional references—Specific contexts
- § 19:181 Additional references—Other strategic aspects
- § 19:182 Additional references—Criminal cases

CHAPTER 20. STRATEGIC IMPACT OF NEW RULES AND ABUSE OF LITIGATION

- § 20:8 Issues raised by expansion of sanctions—“Ordinary” costs
- § 20:22.50 Exceptions to American Rule against attorney fee awards [New]
- § 20:24 Additional references—Generally
- § 20:26 Additional references—American rule

Volume 2

PART IV. ALTERNATIVES TO LITIGATION

CHAPTER 21. NEGOTIATION

- § 21:1 Defining objectives, basic approach and capturing attention—In general

- § 21:12 Dynamics of positions of parties—Nonbinding accommodations
- § 21:54 Specific provisions in agreements—Judicial jurisdiction to enforce settlements
- § 21:59 Third-party settlement—Facilitated negotiation
[Deleted]
- § 21:60 Third-party settlement—What is facilitated negotiation? [Deleted]
- § 21:61 Third-party settlement—Why a facilitator? [Deleted]
- § 21:62 Third-party settlement—Rules and tips for a successful facilitated negotiation [Deleted]
- § 21:63 Third-party settlement—Controlling the process
[Deleted]
- § 21:64 Third-party settlement—The format of a facilitated negotiation [Deleted]
- § 21:64.50 Online Dispute Resolution—Deception in computer-facilitated negotiation and dispute resolution [New]
- § 21:65 Third-party settlement—The use of experts
[Deleted]
- § 21:77 Binding versus nonbinding agreements—International relevance
- § 21:88.10 Negotiation as conversation—E-mail dealmaking
[New]
- § 21:89.10 Negotiation as conversation—Escalation of hostility or defusing it—Emotions in negotiation [New]
- § 21:94.10 Negotiation as conversation—Escalation of hostility or defusing it—Use of apology [New]
- § 21:100.10 Negotiation as healing process [New]
- § 21:101 Additional references—In general
- § 21:102 Additional references—Business and commercial negotiation
- § 21:103 Additional references—Other
- § 21:104 Procedural and substantive options for settlement of litigation—Backdrop: How settlement negotiations during litigation differ from other negotiations
- § 21:110 Procedural and substantive options for settlement of litigation—Honesty in settlement negotiations
[New]
- § 21:111 Settlement Advocacy [New]

CHAPTER 22. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- § 22:2 Impartial umpire selected by the parties—In general
- § 22:4 Impartial umpire selected by the parties—What clients must know about mediation
- § 22:4.10 Impartial umpire selected by the parties—Models of mediation in e-discovery [New]
- § 22:14 Impartial umpire selected by the parties—Facilitative mediation
- § 22:14.30 Impartial umpire selected by the parties—Mediation advocacy [New]

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 22:14.50 Impartial umpire selected by the parties—E-Neutrals
[New]
- § 22:14.70 Arbitrating whether to arbitrate [New]
- § 22:14.90 Waiver of right to arbitrate [New]
- § 22:15 Arbitration administered by a private tribunal—In general
- § 22:17.50 Predispute arbitration provisions [New]
- § 22:17.70 Compelling participation in remote arbitration [New]
- § 22:22 Enforcing arbitration provisions against non-signatories
- § 22:24 Additional references—In general
- § 22:25 Additional references—Private judging
- § 22:26 Additional references—Mediation
- § 22:27 Additional references—Arbitration
- § 22:28 Additional references—Arbitration—Case law: Nature and form of arbitration [New]

CHAPTER 23. PREPARED POSITIONS

- § 23:11.50 Communication of prepared options—Liquidated damages provisions—Encourage breach? [New]
- § 23:18 Additional references—Overview
- § 23:20 Additional references—Insurance
- § 23:21 Additional references—Real property or lease agreements
- § 23:22 Additional references—Criminal law; Victim impact statements

CHAPTER 24. COMPLIANCE STRATEGIES

- § 24:14 Additional references—In general
- § 24:15 Additional references—Sentencing commission compliance program guidelines
- § 24:16 Additional references—Public health and bioterrorism compliance
- § 24:17 Additional references—Immigration
- § 24:18 Additional references—Intellectual property/capital
- § 24:19 Additional references—Real property and leases

PART V. ADVOCACY TO A PUBLIC OR PRIVATE INSTITUTION

CHAPTER 25. ADVOCACY FROM OUTSIDE AN ORGANIZATION

- § 25:28 Initial contact with an agency—Second round?—As recipient of agency inquiry—Right to Financial Privacy Act
- § 25:36 Judicial review of agency action—Agency action
reversing hearing officer rulings; Agency inaction
- § 25:36.50 Judicial review of agency action—Use of mandamus remedy for agency delay or inaction [New]

- § 25:44 Additional references—In general
- § 25:45 Additional references—Takings implications
- § 25:46 Additional references—Exhausting parties by adding procedure
- § 25:47 Additional references—Information laws
- § 25:49 Additional references—Jury trials for administrative civil penalties?
- § 25:50 Additional references—Magna Charta ch 48: Citizen review of administrative rules and practices?

CHAPTER 26. ADVOCACY FROM INSIDE AN ORGANIZATION

- § 26:20 Impact of organizational styles—The other side of ethics in government
- § 26:61 Additional references—“Whistle blowers”
- § 26:64 Additional references—Risks of whistleblower protections themselves

Appendix 26-1. Internal Bureaucratic Structure of Agencies

PART VI. LEGISLATIVE ADVOCACY

CHAPTER 27. LEGISLATIVE TACTICS

- § 27:9.50 Strategic Options—Impact of Social Media on Passage of Congressional Bills [New]
- § 27:23 Strategic options—Legislative advocacy
- § 27:24 Strategic options—Legislative lawyer skills
- § 27:78 Phases of legislative campaigns—Legislative climate in the nineties
- § 27:90 Phases of legislative campaigns—Possible reactions to these trends—One-to-a-customer legislation—Equal protection and separation of powers objections
- § 27:95 Phases of legislative campaigns—Possible reactions to these trends—Fast track procedures—Judicial review
- § 27:104 Additional references—Generally
- § 27:105 Additional references—Confrontation
- § 27:108 Additional references—Legislative rules
- § 27:109 Additional references—State procedure
- § 27:111 Additional references—Particular lobbying interests/groups

CHAPTER 28. PROLONGED LEGISLATIVE CAMPAIGNS

- § 28:16 References on types of legislative outcomes—Budget processes
- § 28:17 References on types of legislative outcomes—Marshall plan
- § 28:19 References on types of legislative outcomes—Financing mechanisms
- § 28:21 References on types of legislative outcomes—Licensing
- § 28:22 References on types of legislative outcomes—Problems

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- connected with references to other laws by section number or similar designations when amended—
Experience under state constitutional ban [Deleted]
- § 28:23 References on types of legislative outcomes—National common market
- § 28:25 References on types of legislative outcomes—Simplification of the legal system
- § 28:26 References on types of legislative outcomes—Options concerning problematic technologies
- § 28:29 References on types of legislative outcomes—State and federal law
- § 28:31 References on types of legislative outcomes—Codification [New]
- § 28:32 References on types of legislative outcomes—Tax incentives
- § 28:33 References on types of legislative outcomes—Sunshine
- § 28:35 References on types of legislative outcomes—Self-help
- § 28:36 References on types of legislative outcomes—Use of contract clause
- § 28:37 References on types of legislative outcomes—Eleventh amendment
- § 28:38 References on types of legislative outcomes—National service
- § 28:39 References on types of legislative outcomes—Recordkeeping
- § 28:40 Additional references

PART VII. ECONOMIC ARGUMENT

CHAPTER 29. UNDERSTANDING AND TAKING PART IN ECONOMIC ARGUMENT

II. NATURE OF ECONOMIC ARGUMENT

- § 29:10 The open marketplace—Overview
- § 29:16 Major types of approaches—Keynesian economics
- § 29:30 Participating in economic argument—In general
- § 29:73 Additional references
- Appendix 29-1. Role of Corporate Directors

CHAPTER 30. SOME BASICS OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS

- § 30:18.50 Additional references—Generally [New]
- § 30:19 Additional references—Impact of austerity as economic prescription in developing or de-bureaucratizing economies

PART VIII. THE SURVIVAL OF ADVOCACY

CHAPTER 31. THE IMAGE OF ADVOCACY

- § 31:2 Advocacy as conflict and cooperation—The public image of a lawyer
- § 31:3 Advocacy as conflict and cooperation—Listening skills for attorneys [Retitled]
- § 31:4 Advocacy as conflict and cooperation—Pretrial listening [Deleted]
- § 31:5 Advocacy as conflict and cooperation—Listening at trial [Deleted]
- § 31:55.50 Law enforcement in the “crack” era—Future of privacy and free speech in age of social media [New]
- § 31:71 Law enforcement in the “crack” era—Problems in establishing effective criminal justice
- § 31:77 Practical considerations in jury selection [Retitled]
- § 31:91 Law enforcement in the “crack” era—Killing witnesses

CHAPTER 32. THREATS TO ADVOCACY AND RESPONSES

- § 32:10 Threats to trial advocacy—Mandatory pro bono—Televising trials
- § 32:10.50 Threats to trial advocacy—Effect of social media on jury trials and rule of law [New]
- § 32:13 Threats to trial advocacy—Mandatory pro bono—“No citation” opinions—Trend toward allowing citation of unpublished opinions if served
- § 32:20 Discretionary justice—Regulation of charities
- § 32:24 Campaign and lobbying regulation
- § 32:25 Nominating processes—In general
- § 32:28 Additional references—Free press—Fair trial
- § 32:30 Additional references—Amending process
- § 32:31 Additional references—Combination of prosecutor and judge
- § 32:32 Additional references—Discretionary justice

CHAPTER 33. COMMENTS ON EDUCATION FOR ADVOCACY

- § 33:10.10 Changes in Religion Clause jurisprudence [New]
 - § 33:10.20 Religious freedoms in America [New]
 - § 33:10.50 Additional references—Generally [New]
 - § 33:12 Additional references—Free exercise/establishment clause issue
- Appendix 33-1. Private Vocational Schools [Deleted]

Volume 3

PART IX. INTERACTION OF ADVOCACY AND OTHER DISCIPLINES

CHAPTER 34. ADVOCACY AND INTERGROUP ATTITUDES

- § 34:32.50 Navigating ADA during COVID-19 [New]
- § 34:32.60 Extended leave as required accommodation under ADA [New]
- § 34:35 Gender stereotypes in litigation—Gender bias in legal profession [Retitled]
- § 34:36 Additional references—Overview
- § 34:37 Additional references—Generally
- § 34:38 Additional references—Americans with Disabilities Act
- § 34:39 Additional references—CIRRA § 9
- § 34:41 Additional references—Neutrality principle in state-religion relations?
- § 34:42 Additional references—Employment cases and paperwork
- § 34:43 Additional references—Handicap discrimination and ability to perform
- § 34:44 Additional references—Drug and alcohol abuse
- § 34:45 Additional references—Constitutional rather than sociological grounds for Brown v. Board

CHAPTER 35. DYNAMICS OF ADVOCACY IN SELECTED AREAS OF SPECIALIZED EXPERTISE

- § 35:9 Divergences of terminology and interests—Selected source materials
- § 35:17 Dynamics of some medical-legal issues—Blocking patents and medicines
- § 35:20 Psychiatric categories—Selected source materials
- § 35:22 Psychiatric categories—Related risks in compulsory psychiatric treatment
- § 35:23 Psychiatric categories—Dial-a-porn issue
- § 35:26 Psychiatric categories—Application to national endowment for the arts?
- § 35:32 Additional references—Generally
- § 35:33 Additional references—Impact of statistics
- § 35:35 Additional references—Psychiatric issues
- § 35:36 Additional references—Environmental litigation
- § 35:37 Additional references—Personal injury and related insurance issues
- § 35:38 Additional references—Real property litigation
- § 35:39 Additional references—Landlord/tenant litigation

- § 35:40 Additional references—Defamation
- § 35:41 Additional references—Contracts, generally
- § 35:41.50 Formation of electronic real estate contracts [New]
- § 35:42 Additional references—Computers, technology, and the internet
- § 35:43 Additional references—Family law
- § 35:44 Additional references—Estates and trusts
- § 35:45 Additional references—Labor law; Employee benefits; Workers' compensation; Unemployment compensation
- § 35:46 Additional references—Civil rights
- § 35:47 Additional references—Damages
- § 35:48 Additional references—Other specialized areas of practice

CHAPTER 36. ADVOCACY FOR THE OPEN SOCIETY

- § 36:36.10 Domestic terrorism and the First Amendment [New]
- § 36:36.50 Liability of social media providers for acts of domestic terrorism [New]
- § 36:41 Additional references—Peacekeeping and potential aggressors
- § 36:45 Additional references—Terrorism and governmental rights and responses

PART X. CAREER CHALLENGES FOR LAWYERS; ORGANIZATIONAL DILEMMAS FOR FIRMS AND LAW DEPARTMENTS

CHAPTER 37. CAREER CHALLENGES

- § 37:1.10 Beginning new legal career [New]
- § 37:4 The practice of law as a job, a career, or a calling
- § 37:5 Choice of law as a profession—Encouraging law students to engage in vocational reflection [Deleted]
- § 37:6 Choice of law as a profession—Deciding to become a lawyer [Deleted]
- § 37:7.10 Choice of law as a profession—Changing structure of legal profession [New]
- § 37:7.20 The flexible lawyer [New]
- § 37:8.50 Career law clerk [New]
- § 37:10.50 Firm practice: Associates and partners—Professional challenges in large law firms [New]
- § 37:11.50 Social media as a tool for solos and small firms [New]
- § 37:12 Solo practitioner—Contract attorney [Retitled]
- § 37:13 Solo practitioner—Determining if contract lawyering is right for you [Deleted]
- § 37:14 Solo practitioner—Marketing yourself as a contract lawyer [Deleted]

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 37:15 Solo practitioner—Conclusion [Deleted]
- § 37:17 Public and nonprofit—Choosing a career in public service
- § 37:17.50 Encouraging diversity in the legal profession [New]
- § 37:17.60 Constitutionality of diverse legal profession [New]
- § 37:18 Additional references

CHAPTER 38. ORGANIZATIONAL DILEMMAS

- § 38:11.50 Social media marketing in law firms [New]
- § 38:13 Pressures on firms and responses—Law office management [Retitled]
- § 38:13.10 Pressures on firms and responses—Law office management—Use of paralegals [New]
- § 38:13.30 Effect of pandemic on law firm culture [New]
- § 38:13.50 Use of remote technology in legal practice [New]
- § 38:14.50 Pressures on firms and responses—Office dress codes [New]
- § 38:16 Additional references

CHAPTER 39. CLIENTS' VIEWPOINT

- § 39:1.10 Choosing counsel—Making yourself the obvious choice for a client [Retitled]
- § 39:2 Choosing counsel—Partnership with outside legal counsel [New]
- § 39:2.10 Choosing counsel—Client service [New]
- § 39:5 Additional references—Adequacy of representation

CHAPTER 40. OUTLOOK FOR PROFESSIONALISM

- § 40:1 Strands of tradition—Definition of professionalism [Deleted]
- § 40:5 Strands of tradition—Professionalism: A necessary component of successful lawyer's performance [Retitled]
- § 40:5.50 Professionalism in elder law [New]
- § 40:8 Threats to professionalism—Recommendations for professionalism [Deleted]
- § 40:8.10 Threats to professionalism—Sabotaging Unprofessionalism [New]
- § 40:16 Additional references

CHAPTER 41. SELECTED USES AND ABUSES OF LEGAL ETHICS

- § 41:1.10 Interactions of ethics, professionalism, and law—The professionalization of ethics [New]
- § 41:3.50 Interactions of ethics, professionalism, and law—Using social networking websites in legal investigations [New]

- § 41:5 Conflict of interest—Common conflicts of interest
[Retitled]
- § 41:6 Conflict of interest—What to look for [Deleted]
- § 41:7 Conflict of interest—Representation directly adverse to existing client [Deleted]
- § 41:8 Conflict of interest—Representation limited by responsibilities to other clients [Deleted]
- § 41:9 Conflict of interest—Representation where the attorney
may be limited materially by his or her own interests
[Deleted]
- § 41:10 Conflict of interest—Representation adverse to a former client [Deleted]
- § 41:19 The profession and the public—Practical ways in making professionalism a part of your life [Deleted]
- § 41:20 The profession and the public—Professionalism above client interests [Deleted]
- § 41:21 Additional references—Overview
- § 41:22 Additional references—Generally
- § 41:23 Additional references—Bar admission procedures
- § 41:25 Additional references—Professionalism
- § 41:26 Additional references—Trial misconduct
- § 41:27 Additional references—Tampering, spoliation, and failure or refusal to disclose evidence
- § 41:28 Additional references—Continuing legal education requirements