

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION

- § 1.3 The Office of Administrative Law
- § 1.4 Organization of the Executive Branch—Constitutional requirements
- § 1.6 State Agency’s Enabling Act—Three branch powers
- § 1.9 State Agency’s Enabling Act—Rulemaking, adjudication and informal action
- § 1.13 Delegation of powers by an agency
- § 1.16 Administrative hearings
- § 1.17 Hearing Officials in Administrative Proceedings
- § 1.18 Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) appointment, qualifications and responsibilities

CHAPTER 2. RULEMAKINGS BY ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES

- § 2.1 What is a rulemaking?
- § 2.2 Definition of a rule
- § 2.3 Internal management or discipline statements are not rules
- § 2.4 Intra agency and inter agency statements are not rules
- § 2.5 Agency decisions and findings in contested cases are not Rules
- § 2.7 Authority to make Rules
- § 2.8 Express and implied authority to make Rules
- § 2.10 Agency authority to adopt organizational and procedural rule
- § 2.11 Reasons for making rules
- § 2.12 Implementing a statute by rule
- § 2.13 Agency failure to make rules
- § 2.14 Overview of rulemaking process: Notice and comment
- § 2.15 The preproposal process
- § 2.16 Negotiating a rule
- § 2.17 Proposals of new rules, amendments, and repeals of existing rules
- § 2.18 Regulatory flexibility
- § 2.19 Exceeding federal standards
- § 2.20 Additional notice for proposals
- § 2.21 Adopting a rule
- § 2.22 Rulemaking record
- § 2.23 Emergency rules
- § 2.24 The expiration or “sunsetting” of rules
- § 2.25 Readopting emergency and sunseting rules
- § 2.26 Rulemaking hearings
- § 2.27 Rule Appendices
- § 2.28 Rulemaking calendars

CHAPTER 3. CHALLENGING AGENCY RULES

- § 3.1 The 1981 Amendments to the Administrative Procedure Act
- § 3.1.50 The 2001 Amendments to the Administrative Procedure Act
- § 3.3 Validity of a rule
- § 3.4 Attacking an arbitrary or capricious rule
- § 3.5 Attacking vague rules
- § 3.6 Need for standards
- § 3.7 Attacking an unauthorized rule
- § 3.8 Attacking unconstitutional Rules
- § 3.9 Presumptions that must be rebutted when attacking a rule
- § 3.10 Attacking a procedurally irregular rule
- § 3.11 Attacking a procedurally irregular rule for failure to comply with notice and comment requirements
- § 3.12 Consequence of failing to submit written comments in a rulemaking
- § 3.13 Rule changes upon adoption
- § 3.14 Curative remand of invalid rules
- § 3.15 Three related questions involving the Administrative Procedure Act Rule Definition
- § 3.16 When agencies choose adjudication over rulemaking to issue policy statements (contrasting New Jersey with federal precedents)
- § 3.17 Challenging a policy statement issued in an adjudication because it should have been announced in a rulemaking (applying Metromedia, Inc. v. Director, Div. of Taxation)
- § 3.18 Challenging an agency's adjudication because the agency has not promulgated standards to guide its exercise of discretion
- § 3.19 Declaratory ruling
- § 3.20 Waiver of a rule
- § 3.21 Petition for a rule
- § 3.22 Executive Order No. 66
- § 3.23 Regulatory oversight
- § 3.24 Importance of the register in interpreting rules
- § 3.25 Interpreting rules

CHAPTER 4. PREPARING FOR HEARING

- § 4.1 Beginning a contested case
- § 4.3 Time limits for filing
- § 4.5 The contested case determination
- § 4.6 The Administrative Procedure Act and hearing rights
- § 4.7 The meaning of "contested" cases
- § 4.8 The meaning of "uncontested" cases
- § 4.9 Retention of contested cases for hearing by Agency head
- § 4.11 Applicability of the Office of Administrative Law's Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules
- § 4.13 Special Rules adopted by the Office Of Administrative Law
- § 4.17 Agency responsibility before transmittal to the Office Of Administrative Law

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4.17.50 Department of Environmental Protection—Special requirement after transmittal to the Office of Administrative Law
- § 4.18 Who may represent a party in administrative proceedings, including pro se, attorney, pro hac vice and law student representation
- § 4.19 Non-lawyer representation
- § 4.22 Admission application process for non-lawyers
- § 4.23 Appearance without representation
- § 4.25 Administrative Law Judges-appointment of lawyers for indigents
- § 4.27 Service of pleadings and other papers
- § 4.29 Filing of papers after the pleadings
- § 4.30 Filing by facsimile transmission
- § 4.32 Clerk’s Notices
- § 4.34 Adjournments
- § 4.35 Inactive list
- § 4.36 Prehearing conferences
- § 4.37 At the prehearing conference
- § 4.39 Discovery—Generally
- § 4.40 Right-to-Know Law and Common Law right to inspect documents
- § 4.41 Discovery by Notice
- § 4.42 Discovery in conference hearings
- § 4.43 Depositions
- § 4.44 Time for discovery
- § 4.45 Discovery sanctions
- § 4.46 Power to issue subpoenas
- § 4.47 Subpoena forms
- § 4.51 Researching Administrative cases

CHAPTER 5. THE ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING

- § 5.3 Recording the hearing
- § 5.4 Media coverage in administrative hearings
- § 5.5 Sealing the record
- § 5.7 Sanctions for Failure to Appear
- § 5.9 Types of contested case hearings
- § 5.11 Conference hearings
- § 5.12 Telephone hearings
- § 5.12.50 Hearings via video transmission
- § 5.13 Proceedings on the papers
- § 5.14 Settlement conferences
- § 5.15 Uncontested case proceedings
- § 5.16 Mediation
- § 5.17 Motion practice
- § 5.18 Motions for summary decision
- § 5.21 Intervention and participation
- § 5.22 Consolidation of cases
- § 5.23 Predominant interest determinations
- § 5.24 The process for determining predominant interest motions

- § 5.25 Disqualification of judges
- § 5.26 The general approach to evidence at administrative hearings
- § 5.33 Hearsay evidence and the Residuum Rule
- § 5.36 Witnesses—Fact and expert
- § 5.38 Privileges
- § 5.39 Beginning Administrative Evidentiary Hearings
- § 5.42 Interpreters
- § 5.44 Sequestration of witnesses
- § 5.47 Trying the case using prior transcribed testimony

CHAPTER 6. THE ADJUDICATION PROCESS

- § 6.1 Closing arguments and the submission of briefs
- § 6.7 Concluding the hearing and beginning the 45 days permitted to write an initial decision
- § 6.8 Initial decisions—Generally
- § 6.11 Initial decisions—Fact finding
- § 6.13 Exceptions to initial decisions
- § 6.15 Final decisions—Generally
- § 6.16 Final decisions—Rejecting or modifying the initial decision’s findings of fact
- § 6.17 Final decisions—Review of the record
- § 6.18 When the passage of time causes the initial decision to become the final decision
- § 6.19 Extensions of time limits
- § 6.21 Time requirements for administrative adjudication
- § 6.22 Final decisions by Administrative Law Judges
- § 6.23 Final decisions by administrative law judges in special education cases
- § 6.24 Settlements
- § 6.26 Obtaining a transcript
- § 6.27 Collateral estoppel
- § 6.29 Forfeiture of public office, position or employment without a state administrative hearing
- § 6.31 Equitable estoppel against Agencies
- § 6.32 Power to reopen or reconsider Administrative Adjudications

CHAPTER 7. JUDICIAL REVIEW

- § 7.3 Is review permitted by law?
- § 7.4 Standing
- § 7.5 Selecting and notifying the proper respondents
- § 7.6 Primary jurisdiction
- § 7.7 Exhaustion of administrative remedies
- § 7.8 Exceptions to exhaustion
- § 7.9 Ripeness
- § 7.10 Final decisions or rules of state administrative agencies may be appealed to the Appellate Division
- § 7.14 Actions in lieu of prerogative writs against local and state administrative agencies
- § 7.16 Presumptions affecting the standard of judicial review

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7.17 The general standard for judicially reviewing agency determinations
- § 7.19 The standard for judicially reviewing conclusions of law in an agency adjudication
- § 7.20 The standard for judicially reviewing findings of fact in an agency adjudication
- § 7.21 Substantial credible evidence and agency expertise
- § 7.24 The standard for judicially reviewing a sanction imposed by an agency in an adjudication
- § 7.26 Remands by an appellate court to a state Agency
- § 7.27 The state Board of Education is the ultimate decision maker in almost all school matters
- § 7.28 Stare decisis in Administrative Decisions
- § 7.29 Agency enforcement actions
- § 7.30 Federal review of state Administrative Action

Appendices

- Appendix A. Administrative Procedure Act
- Appendix B. Office of Administrative Law Enabling Act
- Appendix C. Rules for Agency Rulemaking
- Appendix D. Rulemaking Examples
- Appendix E. Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules
- Appendix F. Special Hearing Rules
- Appendix G. Hearing Forms
- Appendix H. Organization of the Office of Administrative Law

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index