

Table of Contents

PART 1. TITLE FROM THE SOVEREIGNTY

Volume 3

CHAPTER 1. SPANISH AND MEXICAN LAND GRANTS IN TEXAS

A. OVERVIEW OF TEXAS LAND GRANT HISTORY

- § 1.7 Validation and confirmation of early Texas land titles
- § 1.9 Validation and confirmation of early Texas land titles—
Validation of title to lands originally in Mexican State of Tamaulipas

CHAPTER 2. DISTRIBUTION OF LANDS BY THE REPUBLIC AND STATE OF TEXAS

D. LAND CERTIFICATES AND RAILROAD GRANTS

- § 2.34 1837–1862 Issuance of certificates by county land commissioners—Conditional and unconditional certificates distinguished

F. UNIVERSITY AND PUBLIC SCHOOL LANDS

- § 2.80 1854–1900 Public free school land grants in Texas—Vacant
unsurveyed school lands

CHAPTER 3. SURVEY AND LOCATION OF TEXAS PUBLIC LANDS

A. TEXAS LAND SURVEYORS

- § 3.2 Statutes governing Texas land surveyors—Requisites of surveyors' field notes

B. LAND CERTIFICATES, LOCATION AND SURVEY

- § 3.38 1876–1900 Discontinuance of land certificates in Texas
- § 3.54 Evidentiary presumptions for public land surveys and locations

CHAPTER 4. GENERAL LAND OFFICE OF TEXAS

- § 4.2 Introduction to general land office of Texas—Starting point for examination of Texas land titles
- § 4.6 Records functions of General Land Office [Retitled]

CHAPTER 5. GRANTS AND PATENTS TO TEXAS PUBLIC LAND

- § 5.1 Introduction to Texas grants and patents
- § 5.2 Introduction to Texas grants and patents—Texas retained public lands upon entry into union
- § 5.7 Texas patent or grant confers legal title upon patentee

CHAPTER 6. TITLE TO TEXAS RIPARIAN AND LITTORAL LANDS

A. OVERVIEW OF TEXAS RIPARIAN AND LITTORAL LANDS

- § 6.1 Introduction to title to Texas riparian and littoral lands
- § 6.3 What constitutes “navigable stream” in Texas
- § 6.4 What constitutes “navigable stream” in Texas—Under “thirty-foot statute”
- § 6.5 Title to Texas lands added by accretion of alluvion or reliction
- § 6.6 Title to Texas lands added by accretion of alluvion or reliction—Accretion to littoral lands [Retitled]
- § 6.7 Title to Texas lands added by accretion of alluvion or reliction—Accretion of mineral interests [Retitled]
- § 6.8 Title to Texas lands added by accretion of alluvion or reliction—When accretion is caused by man [Retitled]
- § 6.9 Title to Texas lands added by accretion of alluvion or reliction—On littoral lands [Retitled]
- § 6.10 Title to Texas lands altered by avulsion
- § 6.11 Title to lands altered by erosion and submergence
- § 6.14 Riparian rights of Texas landowners—Ownership of waters in navigable streams

B. TITLE TO TEXAS RIVERS AND LAKES

- § 6.15 Title to navigable Texas riverbeds
- § 6.17 Prohibition against surveys crossing navigable Texas streams—Effect of Small Act on cross-stream surveys
- § 6.18 Prohibition against surveys crossing navigable Texas streams—Effect of Small Act on cross-stream surveys—Litigation surrounding Small Act
- § 6.21 Extent of state jurisdiction over navigable streams—Conflict with federal jurisdiction
- § 6.23 Title to non-navigable Texas riverbeds
- § 6.24 Title to mineral estates in Texas riverbeds
- § 6.26 Title to Texas lakebeds—What constitutes “lake”

TABLE OF CONTENTS

C. TITLE TO TEXAS COASTAL LANDS

- § 6.28 Title to Texas littoral lands
- § 6.29 Title to Texas littoral lands—Public access to beaches
- § 6.33 Title to Texas littoral lands—Padre Island litigation
- § 6.34 Title to lands and minerals under Gulf of Mexico
- § 6.35 Title to Texas islands

CHAPTER 7. TEXAS SALES AND RELINQUISHMENT ACTS

- § 7.17 Texas relinquishment act
- § 7.23 Vacancy litigation in Texas
- § 7.26 Form—Relinquishment act oil and gas lease

PART 2. TEXAS TITLE EXAMINATION

CHAPTER 8. PUBLIC RECORDS OF TEXAS LAND TITLES

A. OVERVIEW OF TEXAS PUBLIC RECORDS

- § 8.3 Purpose of Texas recording statutes

B. TEXAS PUBLIC RECORDS AND ARCHIVES

- § 8.6 Texas land title instruments that may be recorded [Retitled]
- § 8.7 Texas land title instruments that may be recorded—Types of instruments within Section 12.001 [Retitled]
- § 8.7.50 Texas foreclosure instruments that must be recorded [New]
- § 8.8 Texas land title instruments that must be recorded [Retitled]
- § 8.9 Texas land title instruments that must be recorded—Types of instruments within Section 13.001 [Retitled]
- § 8.10 Recordation constitutes notice under Section 13.002
- § 8.12 Instruments must be recorded in county where land is located
- § 8.18 Recordation of deed not essential to validity
- § 8.19 Filing of instruments for record with county clerk
- § 8.19A Filing of instruments for record with county clerk—Electronic recording [New]
- § 8.21 Filing of instruments for record with county clerk—Instrument filed when handed to clerk

C. USE OF PUBLIC RECORDS IN EVIDENCE

- § 8.31 Admissibility of Texas public records
- § 8.36 Admissibility of Texas public records—County tax records
- § 8.42 Admissibility of Texas public records—Wills and probate proceedings
- § 8.48 Admissibility of ancient documents
- § 8.51 Presumptions as to evidence of land titles

Volume 3A

CHAPTER 9. ABSTRACTS OF TITLE AND TITLE INSURANCE

A. ABSTRACTS OF TITLE

§ 9.3 What constitutes “abstract of title”

B. TEXAS TITLE INSURANCE

- § 9.20 Land title insurance policies
- § 9.21 Land title insurance policies—Liability for undisclosed pipeline on land
- § 9.22 Land title insurance policies—Reimbursement for amounts paid to discharge liens
- § 9.23 Texas Title Insurance Act
- § 9.25 Liability of title insurer under Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act
- § 9.26 Liability of title insurer under Texas Insurance Code
- § 9.27 Liability of title insurer for breach of common law duty of good faith and fair dealing
- § 9.29 Forms promulgated by Texas Department of Insurance—Form T-7—Commitment for title insurance [Retitled]
- § 9.30 Forms promulgated by Texas Department of Insurance—Form T-1—Residential owner’s policy of title insurance [Retitled]
- § 9.31 Forms promulgated by Texas Department of Insurance—Form T-1R—Residential owner policy of title insurance, one-to-four family residences [Retitled]
- § 9.32 Forms promulgated by Texas Department of Insurance—Form T-2—Residential loan policy of title insurance

CHAPTER 10. TITLE EXAMINATIONS AND OPINIONS

- § 10.20 Compiling curative material for title—Title insurance company affidavit as release of lien
- § 10.20.50 Compiling curative material for title—Affidavit of judgment debtor or child support obligor as release of homestead lien [New]

CHAPTER 11. TEXAS TITLE EXAMINATION STANDARDS

- § 11.1.50 Texas Title Examination Standards—Texas Estates Code correlation table [New]
- § 11.2 Standards for title examiner
- § 11.3 Standards for marketable title
- § 11.5 Standards for execution, acknowledgment, and recordation
- § 11.6 Standards for land descriptions
- § 11.7 Standards for corporate conveyances

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 11.8 Standards for conveyances involving partnerships, joint ventures, and unincorporated associations
- § 11.9 Standards for powers of attorney
- § 11.10 Standards for conveyances involving trustees
- § 11.11 Standards for capacity to convey
- § 11.12 Standards for decedents' estates
- § 11.13 Standards for bankruptcies
- § 11.15 Standards for marital interests
- § 11.16 Standards for liens and lis pendens
- § 11.17 Standards for foreclosures
- § 11.18 Standards for title from sovereign [New]
- § 11.19 Standards for adverse possession [Proposed] [New]
- § 11.20 Standards for cotenancy [Proposed] [New]
- § 11.21 Standards for zoning and land use [Proposed] [New]

PART 3. TITLE TO LANDS AND INTERESTS UNDER TEXAS LAWS

CHAPTER 12. LEGAL PRINCIPLES FOR TEXAS LAND TITLES

A. TEXAS LAND TITLE PRINCIPLES

- § 12.1 Introduction to legal principles for Texas land titles
- § 12.2 Introduction to legal principles for Texas land titles—Transfer of interests
- § 12.4 Texas blends principles of law and equity—Effect of judgments in possession and title suits
- § 12.6 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Appurtenance”
- § 12.7 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Assignment”
- § 12.10 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Easement”
- § 12.11 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Encumbrance”
- § 12.11.50 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Equitable conversion” [New]
- § 12.12.10 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Executory interest” [New]
- § 12.12.30 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Heirs and assigns” [New]
- § 12.12.70 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Interest in gross” [New]
- § 12.13.50 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Land” [New]
- § 12.14 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Owner”
- § 12.16.50 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Right of way” [New]
- § 12.20 Definitions of terms affecting Texas land titles—“Title”
- § 12.22 What constitutes “real estate” or “real property” in Texas
- § 12.24 What constitutes “freehold” interest in Texas

B. LEGAL AND EQUITABLE TITLE TO TEXAS LAND

- § 12.26 What constitutes legal title to Texas land
- § 12.27 What constitutes equitable title to Texas land
- § 12.28 What constitutes equitable title to Texas land—Action of trespass to try title to enforce equitable title
- § 12.29 What constitutes equitable title to Texas land—Laches is defense to equity rights
- § 12.31 What constitutes equitable title to Texas land—Nature of interest fixed at inception of title
- § 12.36 Legal and equitable titles in trusts

C. RESTRAINTS UPON ALIENATION OF TEXAS LAND

- § 12.37 Effect of restraints upon alienation of Texas lands
- § 12.38 Effect of restraints upon alienation of Texas lands—General restraints on alienation are void
- § 12.41 Effect of restraints upon alienation of Texas lands—Allowable restraints
- § 12.41.50 Effect of restraints upon alienation of Texas lands—Allowable restraints—Right of first refusal [New]
- § 12.45 Rule against perpetuities
- § 12.46 Rule against perpetuities—Rule applies to vesting of interests, not their duration
- § 12.47 Rule against perpetuities—Rule applies to vesting of interests, not their duration—Examples of application of rule
- § 12.48 Rule against perpetuities—Rule applies to vesting of interests, not their duration—Examples of application of rule—Validity of top deed of royalty interest
- § 12.52 Rule against perpetuities—Rule applies to vesting of interests, not their duration—Distinction between contingent and vested remainders

CHAPTER 13. NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTERESTS IN TEXAS LANDS

A. TYPES OF TITLE TO TEXAS LANDS

- § 13.1 Fee simple title to Texas land
- § 13.2 Future and expectant interests in Texas land
- § 13.4 Determinable and qualified fee titles to Texas land
- § 13.5 Interests in Texas land subject to conditions and limitations
- § 13.8 Interests in Texas land subject to conditions and limitations—Distinguishing conditions subsequent from limitations
- § 13.11 Life estates in Texas land
- § 13.12 Life estates in Texas land—Homestead right is statutory life estate
- § 13.13 Life estates in Texas land—Rights of life tenant
- § 13.14 Life estates in Texas land—Rights of life tenant—Conveyance of life estate by life tenant

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13.15 Life estates in Texas land—Rights of life tenant—“Open mine” and “open well” doctrines for life estates
- § 13.19 Reversionary interests in Texas land
- § 13.20 Remainder interests in Texas land
- § 13.21 Merger of estates in Texas land

B. RIGHTS OF JOINT OWNERS OF TEXAS LANDS

- § 13.23 Interests in Texas land held by multiple owners
- § 13.25 Interests in Texas land held by multiple owners—Use and possession of land by co-tenants
- § 13.26 Interests in Texas land held by multiple owners—Use and possession of land by co-tenants—By mineral fee co-tenants
- § 13.27 Interests in Texas land held by multiple owners—Doctrine of survivorship abolished
- § 13.28 Interests in Texas land held by multiple owners—Doctrine of survivorship abolished—Survivorship of husband and wife
- § 13.30 Interest in Texas land held by spouses

C. HOMESTEAD INTERESTS IN TEXAS LAND

- § 13.33 Homestead interests in Texas lands
- § 13.34 Homestead interests in Texas lands—Size of homestead
- § 13.35 Homestead interests in Texas lands—Size of homestead—For families
- § 13.37 Homestead interests in Texas lands—Rural homesteads
- § 13.38 Homestead interests in Texas lands—Abandonment of homestead
- § 13.40 Homestead rights of husbands and wives
- § 13.41 Homestead rights of husbands and wives—Conveyance of marital homestead
- § 13.43 Homestead rights of husbands and wives—Contracts for improvements to marital homesteads
- § 13.45 Homestead rights of husbands and wives—Homestead right of widow or widower
- § 13.46 Homestead exemption from forced sale for debts
- § 13.47 Homestead exemption from forced sale for debts—Debts for which homestead can be sold
- § 13.48 Release of lien on homestead property [New]

CHAPTER 14. NATURE AND EXTENT OF TEXAS MINERAL INTERESTS

A. OVERVIEW OF TEXAS MINERAL INTERESTS

- § 14.1 Introduction to nature and extent of Texas mineral interests
- § 14.4 What constitutes “minerals” in Texas lands—Does not include water
- § 14.12 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Bonus”
- § 14.13 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Delay rentals” or “rentals”

- § 14.13.50 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Executive right” [New]
- § 14.14A Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Lease” [New]
- § 14.17 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Pooling” and “unitization”
- § 14.18 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Primary term”
- § 14.19 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Production”
- § 14.19.50 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Production payment”
- § 14.20 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Royalty”
- § 14.21 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Non-participating royalty”
- § 14.22 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Overriding royalty”
- § 14.22.50 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Shut-in royalty” [New]
- § 14.23 Definitions for mineral interests in Texas lands—“Working interest”

B. RIGHTS OF MINERAL INTEREST OWNERS

- § 14.24 Ownership of minerals may be severed from surface ownership
- § 14.25 Rights of holder of undivided mineral estate
- § 14.26 Rights of holder of undivided mineral estate—As against surface owner
- § 14.27 Rights of holder of undivided mineral estate—As against surface owner—Conflict between rights of mineral and surface holders
- § 14.28 Rights of holder of undivided mineral estate—As against neighboring mineral rights holders
- § 14.29 Rights of holder of royalty interest
- § 14.31 Executory right to execute mineral leases

Volume 4

CHAPTER 15. DESCRIPTIONS OF INTERESTS IN TEXAS LANDS

A. OVERVIEW OF TEXAS LAND DESCRIPTIONS

- § 15.1 Introduction to descriptions of interests in Texas lands
- § 15.2 Description of land must furnish means to identify land
- § 15.3 Deed is void if description of land is insufficient
- § 15.6 Terms used in descriptions of Texas lands—“Adjacent,” “adjoining” and “contiguous”
- § 15.10 General and particular descriptions of lands distinguished
- § 15.11 General and particular descriptions of lands distinguished—“Mother Hubbard” clause is part of general description

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 15.12 General and particular descriptions of lands distinguished—
Examples where specific descriptions prevailed over general descriptions
- § 15.13 Priority of field note calls in description of land
- § 15.14 Priority of field note calls in description of land—Footsteps of original surveyor control over field note calls
- § 15.16 Priority of field note calls in description of land—Effect of omission of call
- § 15.17 Use of metes and bounds in land descriptions
- § 15.18 Use of name of tract, owner, locality, occupation and use in land descriptions
- § 15.20 Use of name of tract, owner, locality, occupation and use in land descriptions—Ownership of tract
- § 15.23 Use of meander lines along bodies of water in lands described
- § 15.24 Use of meander lines along bodies of water in lands described—Meander lines are not boundaries

B. CONSTRUCTION OF TEXAS LAND DESCRIPTIONS

- § 15.27 Description of land must be construed as written
- § 15.28 Description of land must be construed as written—Effect of erroneous addition to description
- § 15.29 Application of “nucleus of description” theory to land
descriptions
- § 15.30 Defective description is construed to make deed effective
- § 15.31 Defective description is construed to make deed effective—
Rejection of false portion of land description
- § 15.32 Validity of land description as part of larger described tract
- § 15.35 Validity of land description as part of larger described tract—When description uses term “out of a corner” or “off a side of survey”
- § 15.36 Validity of blanket descriptions of land
- § 15.38 Documents of reference as aid to land description
- § 15.42 Documents of reference as aid to land description—References to prior deeds
- § 15.45 Documents of reference as aid to land description—References to maps or plats
- § 15.46 Documents of reference as aid to land description—References to maps or plats—Examples of map and plat references
- § 15.48 Documents of reference as aid to land description—Examples where references aided descriptions

C. PROOF OF TEXAS LAND DESCRIPTIONS

- § 15.50 Use of parol evidence to identify land or interest described
- § 15.52 Use of parol evidence to identify land or interest described—Parol evidence to locate monuments described
- § 15.53 Admissibility of surveyor’s evidence to locate land described

CHAPTER 16. EXCEPTIONS AND RESERVATIONS IN TEXAS LANDS

- § 16.1 Introduction to exceptions and reservations in Texas lands

- § 16.2 Introduction to exceptions and reservations in Texas lands—
Definition of “exception”
- § 16.3 Introduction to exceptions and reservations in Texas lands—
Definition of “reservation”
- § 16.4 Introduction to exceptions and reservations in Texas lands—“Exception” and “reservation” distinguished
- § 16.5 All interest passes in absence of exception or reservation
- § 16.6 All interest passes in absence of exception or reservation—
Effect of defective exception or reservation
- § 16.7 Power of landowner to reserve mineral rights in conveyances
- § 16.8 Power of landowner to reserve mineral rights in conveyances—Effect of unlimited reservation of minerals
- § 16.8.50 Construction of exception or reservation of mineral rights [New]
- § 16.9 Requirements for description of exceptions and reservations
- § 16.10 Requirements for description of exceptions and reservations—Effect of recital of erroneous reason for exception in conveyance
- § 16.11 Reservation in favor of stranger to title is void
- § 16.12 Construction of exceptions and reservations [Retitled]
- § 16.14 Examples of exceptions and reservations of land interests—
Conveyance excepting or reserving portion of lot or tract
- § 16.15 Examples of exceptions and reservations of land interests—
Conveyance excepting or reserving life estate
- § 16.18 Examples of exceptions and reservations of land interests—
Conveyance excepting or reserving right-of-way
- § 16.22 Examples of exceptions and reservations of mineral interests—Conveyance of fractional interest in minerals
- § 16.23 Examples of exceptions and reservations of mineral
interests—Conveyance of fractional interest in minerals—Conveyance of one-half of minerals
- § 16.30 Examples of exceptions and reservations of mineral interests—Conveyance excepting or reserving mineral rights
- § 16.32 Examples of exceptions and reservations of mineral interests—Conveyance excepting or reserving mineral rights—Conveyance excepting or reserving royalty interest in minerals
- § 16.45 Effect of Duhig rule on conveyances of mineral interests—
Application of Duhig rule—Subsequent Duhig rule cases

CHAPTER 17. DOCTRINE OF AFTER- ACQUIRED TITLE

- § 17.1 Introduction to after-acquired title doctrine
- § 17.7 When doctrine of after-acquired title does not apply

CHAPTER 18. EASEMENTS IN TEXAS LANDS

A. IN GENERAL

- § 18.1 Introduction to easements in Texas lands

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 18.2 Definitions for Texas easements
- § 18.3 Definitions for Texas easements—“Dominant estate”
- § 18.4 Definitions for Texas easements—“Servient estate”
- § 18.5 Definitions for Texas easements—“Servitude”
- § 18.7 Types and classes of Texas easements—Easements appurtenant
- § 18.8 Types and classes of Texas easements—Easements in gross
- § 18.12 Nature of and extent of easements in Texas
- § 18.13 Creation of easements in Texas

B. EXPRESS AND IMPLIED EASEMENTS

- § 18.14 Express grants of easements in Texas
- § 18.16 Express grants of easements in Texas—Requirements for written conveyance
- § 18.19 Determining whether instrument conveys easement or fee
- § 18.20 Determining whether instrument conveys easement or fee—When instrument conveys easement
- § 18.21 Determining whether instrument conveys easement or fee—When instrument conveys fee
- § 18.26 Location of easements created by express grant—Width of easements
- § 18.27 Implied easements in Texas
- § 18.28 Implied easements in Texas—Implied grant of easement
- § 18.29 Implied easements in Texas—Implied reservation of easement
- § 18.30 Implied easements in Texas—Easement implied when ownership of land is severed by conveyance
- § 18.31 Implied easements in Texas—Easement implied when ownership of land is severed by conveyance—Ways of necessity

C. EASEMENTS BY PRESCRIPTION AND ESTOPPEL

- § 18.33 Creation of easements in Texas by prescription or limitation
- § 18.34 Creation of easements in Texas by prescription or limitation—Elements of prescription must concur
- § 18.35 Creation of easements in Texas by prescription or limitation—Elements of prescription must concur—Use by claimant must be adverse
- § 18.36 Creation of easements in Texas by prescription or limitation—Prescriptive period is ten years
- § 18.38 Creation of easements in Texas by estoppel
- § 18.39 Creation of easements in Texas by estoppel—Estoppel in pais

D. ALIENATION AND TERMINATION OF EASEMENTS

- § 18.43 Alienation of Texas easements
- § 18.45 Termination of easements
- § 18.47 Termination of easements—By abandonment
- § 18.48 Termination of easements—By merger
- § 18.50 Termination of easements—By extinguishment of purpose

- § 18.53 Damages for injury to servient estate—From laying pipeline
- § 18.55 Obstruction of easements by fences and gates

CHAPTER 19. DEDICATION OF TEXAS LANDS TO PUBLIC USE

- § 19.1 Introduction to dedication of Texas lands to public use
- § 19.2 Dedication of Texas streets to public use
- § 19.3 Dedication of Texas streets to public use—Statutory dedication of road in sparsely populated county
- § 19.4 Implied dedications of Texas lands for public use
- § 19.5 Implied dedications of Texas lands for public use—Presumption of dedication after lengthy public use
- § 19.8 Abandonment, cancellation and termination of Texas land
dedications
- § 19.9 Abandonment, cancellation and termination of Texas land
dedications—Cemetery lots

CHAPTER 20. RIGHTS OF MARRIED PERSONS IN TEXAS LANDS

A. IN GENERAL

- § 20.1 Introduction to rights of married persons in Texas lands
- § 20.2 Validity of common law or informal marriage
- § 20.3 Community or separate nature of proceeds from property of husband and wife
- § 20.4 Validity of Texas deeds between husband and wife
- § 20.6.10 Marital property agreements [New]
- § 20.6.20 Agreements to convert separate property to community property [New]
- § 20.8 Effect of title held in trust during marriage
- § 20.9 Division of Texas land by decree of divorce or annulment

B. RIGHTS OF COMMUNITY SURVIVORS

- § 20.12 Validity of community survivors' deeds to Texas lands
- § 20.14 Validity of community survivors' deeds to Texas lands—In case of insanity
- § 20.16 Rights of unqualified survivors in Texas lands—Under probate code
- § 20.17 Rights of unqualified survivors in Texas lands—In relation to personal representative of deceased spouse
- § 20.19 Rights of qualified survivors in Texas lands—Statutory procedure and powers
- § 20.20 Rights of qualified survivors in Texas lands—In event of remarriage

C. HISTORY OF MARITAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND DUTIES IN TEXAS

- § 20.28 1968 Enactment of Texas Family Code—Survivorship in community property

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 20.32 1970 Revisions to Texas Family Code—Presumption of community property

CHAPTER 21. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION FOR TEXAS TITLE INSTRUMENTS

- § 21.1 Introduction to rules of construction for conveyances § 21.3 Instrument must be construed against grantor and in favor of grantee § 21.4 Application of “four corners” rule to ambiguous deeds § 21.5 Entire instrument must be harmonized § 21.6 Entire instrument must be harmonized—Every clause must be given effect § 21.8 Contract for purchase of Texas land merges into deed § 21.10 Effect of recitals in instruments of conveyance § 21.10A Effect of recitals in instruments of conveyance—Estoppel by deed [New] § 21.11 Granting clause prevails over other clauses § 21.13 Specific language controls over general language § 21.17 Effect of use of term “subject to” in conveyances § 21.18 Effect of use of term “subject to” in conveyances—Conveyances “subject to” existing mineral leases

PART 4. CONVEYANCE OF TITLE TO TEXAS LANDS

CHAPTER 22. CONVEYANCES OF TEXAS LANDS

A. IN GENERAL

- § 22.1 Introduction to conveyances of Texas lands § 22.5 Grantor must have interest in Texas land at time of conveyance § 22.6 Grantor must have interest in Texas land at time of conveyance—Conveyance of expectant or future interest § 22.6.50 Grantor must have interest in Texas land at time of conveyance—Prohibition on conveyance of greater interest [New]
§ 22.9 Doctrine of presumption of deed to Texas land § 22.12 “Strip and gore” doctrine of conveyances of Texas land § 22.13 Conveyances of Texas land abutting alleys, streets and highways § 22.14 Conveyances of Texas land abutting alleys, streets and highways—Under railroad rights-of-way

B. CONVEYANCES BY ENTITIES AND REPRESENTATIVES

- § 22.16 Conveyance of Texas land by corporate deed § 22.17 Conveyance of Texas land by partnership deed

- § 22.18 Conveyance of Texas land by receiver or conservator of failed depository institution
- § 22.19 Conveyances of Texas lands by powers of attorney
- § 22.25 Conveyance of Texas land by Sheriff's Deed

CHAPTER 23. CONVEYANCES OF TEXAS MINERALS

A. OVERVIEW OF TEXAS MINERAL CONVEYANCES

- § 23.1 Introduction to conveyances of Texas mineral interests
- § 23.2 Introduction to conveyances of Texas mineral interests—
Examples of conveyances of mineral interests
- § 23.3 Introduction to conveyances of Texas mineral interests—
Examples of conveyances of royalty interests
- § 23.4 Construction of fractional mineral conveyances
- § 23.5 Construction of fractional royalty conveyances

B. TEXAS MINERAL LEASES

- § 23.6 Nature of mineral leases in Texas
- § 23.6.50 Nature of mineral leases in Texas—Assignments [New]
- § 23.8 Nature of mineral leases in Texas—Lessor retains possibility of reverter and royalty right
- § 23.9 Nature of mineral leases in Texas—Lessor retains possibility of reverter and royalty right—Nature of royalty right retained by lessor
- § 23.10 Nature of mineral leases in Texas—Lessor retains possibility of reverter and royalty right—Royalty for gas “sold at the wells” or “sold or used off the premises”
- § 23.11 Implied covenants under mineral leases
- § 23.12 Implied covenants under mineral leases—Lessee’s duty to explore and develop leased minerals
- § 23.14 Implied covenants under mineral leases—Lessee’s duty to market oil and gas produced
- § 23.14.50 Implied covenants under mineral leases—Lessee’s duty to protect against drainage [New]
- § 23.19 Operations or production required to keep Texas mineral leases in force
- § 23.20 Operations or production required to keep Texas mineral leases in force—Extension of lease by excuse clause
- § 23.21 Production from one tract extends mineral lease as to all described tracts
- § 23.22 Effect of proportionate ownership or reduction clause in mineral leases
- § 23.24 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases
- § 23.25 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases—Benefits and consequences of pooling
- § 23.29 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases—Requirement for voluntary pooling agreement

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 23.31 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases—Benefits and consequences of pooling—Pooling by administrators, executors and guardians
- § 23.34 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases—Validity of pooling agreement
- § 23.35 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases—Benefits and consequences of pooling—Effect of “Pugh” clause
- § 23.38 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases—Involuntary pooling under mineral interest pooling act
- § 23.40 Pooling and unitization of Texas mineral leases—Lessee must act in good faith under pooling agreement
- § 23.42 Division orders for Texas mineral leases
- § 23.43 Division orders for Texas mineral leases—Execution of division order is ratification of mineral lease
- § 23.53 Shut-in royalty clauses in mineral leases
- § 23.62 Termination of oil and gas leases
- § 23.63 Termination of oil and gas leases—Repudiation of mineral lease by lessor
- § 23.64 Releases of mineral leases and surrender clauses

Volume 5

CHAPTER 24. STATUTES OF CONVEYANCES AND FRAUDS

A. IN GENERAL

- § 24.1 Introduction to statutes of conveyances and frauds
- § 24.4 Requirements for valid oral conveyances of Texas land
- § 24.6 Requirements for valid oral conveyances of Texas land—Improvements must be substantial
- § 24.7 Requirements for valid oral conveyances of Texas land—Requirement of present gift
- § 24.8 Requirements for valid oral conveyances of Texas land—Effect of partial performance

B. STATUTE OF CONVEYANCES

- § 24.10 Introduction to statute of conveyances in Texas
- § 24.12 Application of statute to mineral estates [Retitled]
- § 24.13 Application of statute to surface leases [Retitled]
- § 24.14 Application of statute to easements [Retitled]
- § 24.15 Application of statute to licenses [Retitled]
- § 24.16 Application of statute to releases [Retitled]
- § 24.18 Exceptions to statute of conveyances—Partitions of real property

C. STATUTE OF FRAUDS

- § 24.20 Introduction to statute of frauds in Texas
- § 24.21 Introduction to statute of frauds in Texas—Purpose of statute of frauds

- § 24.22 Application of statute to contracts for sale of real property
- § 24.22A Application of statute to contracts for sale of real property—Executory contracts for conveyance [New]
- § 24.24 Application of statute to contracts for sale of real property—
Application to options to purchase real property
- § 24.25 Application of statute to contracts for sale of real property—Application to contracts for sale of mineral rights or royalties
- § 24.29 Statute of frauds is affirmative defense

CHAPTER 25. CONVEYANCES IN FRAUD OF CREDITORS

- § 25.1 Texas Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act
- § 25.2 Texas Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act—Transfers fraudulent as to present and future creditors
- § 25.3 Texas Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act—Transfers fraudulent only as to present creditors

CHAPTER 27. VOID AND VOIDABLE CONVEYANCES OF TEXAS LANDS

- § 27.1 Introduction to void and voidable conveyances of Texas lands
- § 27.3 Forged deeds are void ab initio
- § 27.4 Forged deeds are void ab initio—What constitutes forged deed
- § 27.7 Deeds procured by fraudulent misrepresentation are voidable
- § 27.9 Deeds procured by fraudulent misrepresentation are voidable—Examples of fraudulently procured deeds
- § 27.12 Deeds procured by undue influence are voidable—What constitutes undue influence
- § 27.13 Deeds involving mutual mistake are voidable
- § 27.14 Deeds involving mutual mistake are voidable—Reformation under doctrine of “scrivener’s mistake” [Retitled]
- § 27.15 Deeds involving mutual mistake are voidable—Application of statute of frauds [Retitled]
- § 27.16 Deeds involving mutual mistake are voidable—Grantor’s misunderstanding of legal effect does not make deed voidable [Retitled]
- § 27.18 Four-year statute of limitations applies to suits to cancel
voidable deeds

CHAPTER 28. RIGHTS OF INNOCENT PURCHASERS IN TEXAS

- § 28.1 Introduction to rights of innocent purchasers
- § 28.2 Introduction to rights of innocent purchasers—Recording acts protect innocent purchasers
- § 28.3 What constitutes “bona fide purchaser” or “innocent purchaser”
- § 28.5 Protection is limited to innocent purchaser of legal title to land—Claimant under quitclaim deed is not protected as innocent purchaser

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 28.6 Protection is limited to innocent purchaser of legal title to land—Claimant under quitclaim deed is not protected as innocent purchaser—Limited warranty deed is not quitclaim
- § 28.8 Constructive notice of recorded title distinguished from actual notice
- § 28.9 Possession is constructive notice of unrecorded deed
- § 28.11 Subsequent purchasers are charged with notice of all prior instruments in chain of title
- § 28.12 Subsequent purchasers are charged with notice of all prior instruments in chain of title—Date determines whether instrument is in chain of title
- § 28.13 Subsequent purchasers are charged with notice of all prior instruments in chain of title—Extent of notice given by prior recorded and unrecorded instruments
- § 28.25 Proof of innocent purchaser status
- § 28.27 Proof of innocent purchaser status—Equitable title holder has burden against holder of legal title

PART 5. TEXAS INSTRUMENTS OF CONVEYANCE

CHAPTER 29. DEEDS TO TEXAS LANDS

- § 29.1 Texas recognizes many forms of conveyance instruments
- § 29.2 Texas recognizes many forms of conveyance instruments—Formalities not essential to validity of deed
- § 29.3 Texas definitions of “deed”
- § 29.4 Components of instruments of conveyance in Texas
- § 29.5 Components of instruments of conveyance in Texas—Premises clauses
- § 29.6 Components of instruments of conveyance in Texas—Habendum and tenendum clauses
- § 29.7 Components of instruments of conveyance in Texas—Reddendum and warranty clauses
- § 29.14 Correction deeds [New]
- § 29.15 Warranty deeds [New]
- § 29.16 Transfer on death (“TOD”) deeds [New]
- § 29.17 Form—Revocable transfer on death deed [New]
- § 29.18 Form—Cancellation of transfer on death deed [New]

CHAPTER 30. VENDOR LIEN DEEDS TO TEXAS LANDS

- § 30.1 Introduction to vendor’s lien deeds to Texas lands
- § 30.2 Nature of vendor’s lien deeds
- § 30.3 Vendor retains superior title under vendor’s lien

CHAPTER 31. QUITCLAIM DEEDS TO TEXAS LANDS

- § 31.1 Introduction to quitclaim deeds in Texas
- § 31.2 Quitclaim deeds distinguished from other types of deeds
- § 31.4 Quitclaim conveys interest of grantor at time of conveyance

- § 31.5 Quitclaim conveys interest of grantor at time of conveyance—
Application to innocent purchasers
- § 31.6 Effect of general and special covenants of warranty in quitclaim deeds
- § 31.10 Examples of instruments construed as quitclaims, not deeds
- § 31.11 Examples of instruments construed as deeds, not quitclaims

CHAPTER 32. PARTIES TO TEXAS CONVEYANCES

- § 32.1 Introduction to parties to Texas conveyances
- § 32.14 Grantor must have mental capacity to convey
- § 32.15 Grantor must have mental capacity to convey—Presumption of mental capacity
- § 32.16 Grantor must have mental capacity to convey—Mental capacity of elderly grantors
- § 32.25 Validity of conveyances from minor grantors—Attainment of majority

CHAPTER 33. CONSIDERATION FOR TEXAS CONVEYANCES

- § 33.3 Types of consideration held sufficient for conveyance—
Payment of previous loans made to grantor by grantee
- § 33.14 Validity of Texas deed without consideration
- § 33.15 Validity of Texas deed without consideration—Gifts
- § 33.16 Lack of consideration alone is not ground for cancellation of deed

CHAPTER 34. COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND WARRANTY OF TITLE

- § 34.1 Introduction to covenants, conditions and warranty of title
- § 34.4 Definition of “covenant”
- § 34.4.50 Definition of “covenant”—“Covenant of seisin” [New]
- § 34.5 Definition of “covenant”—Definition of “warranty”
- § 34.8 Covenant of warranty of title applies only to title conveyed
- § 34.10 Special or limited warranty of title
- § 34.15 Actions for breach of warranty of title

CHAPTER 35. EXECUTION OF INSTRUMENTS OF CONVEYANCE

A. IN GENERAL

- § 35.2.30 Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (“E-Sign Act”) [New]
- § 35.2.70 Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (“UETA”) [New]
- § 35.5 Acknowledgments of Texas instruments—Authority of notary public in Texas
- § 35.6 Acknowledgments of Texas instruments—Effect of acknowledgment

TABLE OF CONTENTS

B. ADOPTION AND RATIFICATION OF EXECUTED INSTRUMENTS

- § 35.25 Ratification of instruments of conveyance
- § 35.27 Ratification of instruments of conveyance—Relation back of ratification

CHAPTER 36. DELIVERY AND ACCEPTANCE OF TEXAS CONVEYANCES

- § 36.1 Introduction to delivery and acceptance of Texas instruments of conveyance
- § 36.2 Introduction to delivery and acceptance of Texas instruments of conveyance—Delivery and acceptance determine when deed becomes operative
- § 36.3 What constitutes delivery of deed by grantor
- § 36.4 What constitutes delivery of deed by grantor—Control of grantor
- § 36.6 Manual transfer of deed by grantor is not necessary to complete delivery
- § 36.7 Manual transfer of deed by grantor is not necessary to complete delivery—Deposit of deed in escrow with custodian
- § 36.9 Effect of acceptance of deed
- § 36.11 Presumption of acceptance of deed
- § 36.12 Recording of deed is prima facie evidence of execution and delivery

CHAPTER 37. ALTERATION OF TEXAS CONVEYANCES

- § 37.2 What constitutes material alteration of instrument of conveyance
- § 37.4 What constitutes immaterial alteration of instrument of conveyance

Volume 5A

PART 6. TRANSFER OF TITLE TO TEXAS LANDS

CHAPTER 38. TRANSFERS OF TEXAS LAND RIGHTS

- § 38.3 Licenses for specific use of land for less than one year
- § 38.4 Mortgages and deeds of trust of land
- § 38.5 Mortgages and deeds of trust of land—Notice of acceleration
- § 38.7 Mortgages and deeds of trust of land—Deeds in lieu of foreclosure
- § 38.8 Mortgages and deeds of trust of land—Remedies for wrongful foreclosure

- § 38.8.50 Mortgages and deeds of trust of land—Release of lien by title insurance company [New]
- § 38.9 Partition of land
- § 38.9.50 Partition of land—Uniform Partition of Heirs’ Property Act [New]
- § 38.13 Contract to convey title to Texas land—Contract for deed or executory contract for conveyance [Retitled]
- § 38.14 Transfer of Texas land title to state by escheat

CHAPTER 39. EMINENT DOMAIN IN TEXAS LANDS

A. IN GENERAL

- § 39.1 Introduction to eminent domain in Texas lands
- § 39.2 Introduction to eminent domain in Texas lands—Authorized purpose of condemnation
- § 39.3 Introduction to eminent domain in Texas lands—Authorized extent of condemnation
- § 39.4 What entities possess eminent domain powers in Texas
- § 39.7 Measure of damages for condemnation of Texas lands
- § 39.8 Procedure in Texas condemnation proceedings
- § 39.9 Procedure in Texas condemnation proceedings—Jurisdiction and venue
- § 39.12 Procedure in Texas condemnation proceedings—Admissibility of evidence of market value of property
- § 39.15 Procedure in Texas condemnation proceedings—Objection to finding of special commissioners
- § 39.17 Inverse condemnation of Texas land

CHAPTER 40. TESTAMENTARY TRANSFERS OF TEXAS LANDS

- § 40.0.50 Testamentary transfers of Texas lands—Texas Estates Code correlation table [New]
- § 40.4 Present and testamentary transfers of Texas land distinguished—Disposition of land by will
- § 40.5 Present and testamentary transfers of Texas land distinguished—Disposition of land by will—Examples of disposition by will
- § 40.6 Requirements for execution of valid written will in Texas
- § 40.7 Requirements for execution of valid written will in Texas—Holographic wills
- § 40.9 Validity of family agreement not to probate will
- § 40.10.50 Will provisions made before dissolution of marriage [New]
- § 40.14 Application for probate of will as muniment of title to Texas land
- § 40.15 Uniform Disclaimer of Property Interests Act (“UDPIA”) [New]

CHAPTER 41. INTESTATE TRANSFERS OF TEXAS LANDS

- § 41.1 Introduction to intestate transfers of Texas lands

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 41.1.50 Introduction to intestate of Texas lands—Texas Estates Code correlation table [New]
- § 41.3 Texas statutes of descent and distribution
- § 41.28 Form—Texas chart of inheritance showing lines of descent and distribution [New]
- § 41.29 Disclaimer of interest in estate of intestate decedent [New]

CHAPTER 42. SUITS TO CLEAR TITLE TO TEXAS LANDS

- § 42.1 Introduction to suits to clear title to Texas lands
- § 42.2 Eviction suits are not suits to clear title
- § 42.3 Suits to quiet title or remove cloud on title to Texas lands
- § 42.4 Suits in trespass to try title to Texas lands
- § 42.5 Suits involving disputed boundaries
- § 42.6 Suits for slander of title to Texas land
- § 42.7 Suits for declaratory judgment of title to Texas land
- § 42.13 Award of attorney fees in suits to clear title—Suits for declaratory judgment
- § 42.14 Award of attorney fees in suits to clear title—Suits in trespass to try title
- § 42.17 Award of attorney fees in suits to clear title—Suits to quiet title or remove cloud on title

CHAPTER 43. STATUTES OF LIMITATION FOR TEXAS LAND TITLES

A. OVERVIEW OF TEXAS STATUTES OF LIMITATION FOR REAL PROPERTY

- § 43.1 Introduction to statutes of limitation for Texas lands
- § 43.2 Introduction to statutes of limitation for Texas lands—Application of limitations statutes
- § 43.3 Legal disability extends limitations periods for real property actions
- § 43.6 Tolling of limitations periods by filing suit on claim—Requirement of due diligence
- § 43.7 Tolling of limitations periods by filing suit on claim—Effect of amended pleadings
- § 43.9 Statute of limitation defense must be affirmatively pled
- § 43.11.25 Discovery rule delays accrual of cause of action [New]
- § 43.11.50 Fraudulent concealment tolls limitation period [New]

B. STATUTES OF LIMITATION FOR TEXAS TITLE INSTRUMENTS

- § 43.13 Four-year period under Section 16.004 for real property, debt and fraud actions
- § 43.15 Four-year period under Section 16.004 for real property, debt and fraud actions—Action based on fraud
- § 43.17 Four-year period under Section 16.035 for action based on superior title and vendor's lien

- § 43.19 Four-year period under Section 16.035 for action based on superior title and vendor's lien—Effect of Section 16.036 on extension of real property lien
- § 43.23 Four-year residuary period under Section 16.051 for suits involving Texas land
- § 43.23A Four-year residuary period under Section 16.051 for suits involving Texas land—Suits for breach of warranty of title [New]
- § 43.24 Four-year residuary period under Section 16.051 for suits involving Texas land—Suits for reformation of title instruments
- § 43.25 Four-year residuary period under Section 16.051 for suits involving Texas land—Suits to set aside fraudulent transactions

CHAPTER 44. ADVERSE POSSESSION AND LIMITATION TITLE IN TEXAS

A. OVERVIEW OF ADVERSE POSSESSION AND LIMITATION TITLE IN TEXAS

- § 44.1 Introduction to adverse possession and the acquisition of title by limitation
- § 44.10 Limitation statutes do not apply against state or local governments
- § 44.13 Limitations period runs only against owners with accrued cause of action
- § 44.16 Effect of adverse possession on mineral estate

B. STATUTORY PROVISIONS FOR ADVERSE POSSESSION IN TEXAS

- § 44.19 Statutory definitions for adverse possession of Texas lands—"Adverse possession"
- § 44.26 Five-year limitations period of Section 16.025 for adverse possession under registered deed
- § 44.27 Five-year limitations period of Section 16.025 for adverse possession under registered deed—Requirements for deed under five-year statute
- § 44.28 Five-year limitations period of Section 16.025 for adverse possession under registered deed—Requirements for deed under five-year statute—Quitclaim deeds
- § 44.31 Ten-year limitations period of Section 16.026 for peaceable and adverse possession
- § 44.32 Ten-year limitations period of Section 16.026 for peaceable and adverse possession—When claimant has memorandum of title
- § 44.35 25-Year limitations period under Section 16.028 under recorded instrument
- § 44.36 25-Year presumption of title to land by adverse possession under Section 16.029

TABLE OF CONTENTS

C. ELEMENTS OF ADVERSE POSSESSION CLAIMS

- § 44.39 Common requirements for adverse possession of land—Actual residence on land not necessary
- § 44.41 Actual possession of land must be continuous and exclusive
- § 44.43 Actual possession of land must be continuous and exclusive—Continuity of possession—Tacking of successive interests
- § 44.45 Actual possession of land must be continuous and exclusive—Continuity of possession—Granting of easements inconsistent with exclusive possession
- § 44.49 Interruption of possession during statutory limitations periods—Death of landowner
- § 44.50 Acts of ownership and use of land by limitation claimant
- § 44.51 Acts of ownership and use of land by limitation claimant—Farming and grazing
- § 44.52 Acts of ownership and use of land by limitation claimant—Farming and grazing—Grazing or pasturing requires enclosure
- § 44.53 Acts of ownership and use of land by limitation claimant—Fencing and other acts
- § 44.54 Acts of ownership and use of land by limitation claimant—Fencing and other acts—Casual fencing and grazing
- § 44.62 Requirement for adverse or hostile possession
- § 44.64 Adverse possession by cotenants
- § 44.66 Adverse possession by cotenants—Extended possession by cotenant and non-claimant by other tenants
- § 44.69 Adverse possession by tenants

Chapter 3A. Condominiums, Cooperatives And Time Share Regimes

Chapter 3B. Restrictive Covenants In Texas Lands

Chapter 3C. Zoning Regulations For Texas Lands

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index