

About The Author

Employment Law is Rick Norman's sixth book, his third book on business law. He is co-author of Louisiana Corporations. He has also written numerous articles on various commercial subjects.

Mr. Norman graduated from LSU Law School in 1979. He has also served as a federal prosecutor, city attorney, chairman of an ethics panel, and has taught business law and employment law at McNeese State University for many years. He is currently Vice President of the Council of the Louisiana State Law Institute.

As assistant U.S. Attorney for the Middle District of Louisiana, as City Attorney for the City of Lake Charles, and in his private, commercial practice, Mr. Norman has been extensively involved in both public and private employment law. He is currently on the Law Institute Committee rewriting the Louisiana Wage Payment Act.

Mr. Norman currently practices in Lake Charles, Louisiana with his son, Joe, through the Norman Business Law Center. His practice is limited to commercial representation, including litigation.
