PREFACE

The Baldwin's Ohio Practice, Local Government Laws & Rules Annotated set is a compilation of the constitutional provisions, statutes, and administrative law provisions needed for researching and practicing municipal, township, and county law in Ohio. It offers practitioners, civil servants, and public officials, a convenient and up-to-date guide to the sources of law they refer to most often, in a compact and easy-to-use format. As a portable reference, the set is ideal for use either in court or in the office.
