

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. SELECTION OF THE JURY

- § 1.1 Right to a jury trial in civil cases
- § 1.2 How jurors are selected
- § 1.3 Jury panel and talesmen
- § 1.4 Aids available to lawyer conducting voir dire examination
- § 1.5 Voir dire examination—Purpose
- § 1.6 Voir dire examination—Scope
- § 1.7 Voir dire examination—Procedure
- § 1.8 Voir dire examination—Number of jurors and alternate jurors
- § 1.9 Voir dire examination—Order of examination and strategy of exercising peremptory challenges
- § 1.10 Voir dire examination—Techniques
- § 1.11 Voir dire examination—Previous experience with lawsuits
- § 1.12 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain actions
- § 1.13 Voir dire examination—Actions for damages in personal injury cases
- § 1.14 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain actions—Lawsuits between relatives and spouses
- § 1.15 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain actions—Oral contract actions
- § 1.16 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain actions—Action long delayed
- § 1.17 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain parties—Action against large corporations
- § 1.18 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain parties—Questions relating to the interest of veniremen in insurance companies
- § 1.19 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain parties—Action involving a religious organization
- § 1.20 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against certain parties—Nationality, race and wealth
- § 1.21 Voir dire examination—Prejudice as to size of verdicts
- § 1.22 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against persons with criminal records
- § 1.23 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against persons with prior accidents
- § 1.24 Voir dire examination—Prejudice against legal counsel
- § 1.27 Removing prospective jurors from jury panel—Generally
- § 1.28 Removing prospective jurors from jury panel—Challenges for cause
- § 1.29 Removing prospective jurors from jury panel—Peremptory challenges
- § 1.30 Removing prospective jurors from jury panel—Challenge to the array

- § 1.32 Removing prospective jurors from jury panel—Evaluating veniremen
- § 1.33 Removing prospective jurors from jury panel—When to exercise a peremptory challenge
- § 1.34 Alternate jurors; illness or disability of a juror
- § 1.35 Juror’s oath
- § 1.37 Excusing juror unable to perform jury duty

CHAPTER 2. PRELIMINARY MATTERS PRIOR TO EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

- § 2.1 Motions preliminary to trial—Generally
- § 2.1.25 Motion to dismiss [New]
- § 2.1.50 Motion to strike [New]
- § 2.2 Motions preliminary to trial—Amendment of pleadings
- § 2.4 Motions preliminary to trial—Motion to bifurcate the trial
- § 2.5 Motions preliminary to trial—Motion to bifurcate the trial—Form
- § 2.6 Motions preliminary to trial—Motions in limine
- § 2.7 Motions preliminary to trial—Matters dependent on judge assigned [Retitled]
- § 2.8 Motions preliminary to trial—Challenges to the array
- § 2.10 Submissions prior to trial—Trial briefs
- § 2.11 Submissions prior to trial—Requests to charge
- § 2.12 Submissions prior to trial—Hospital records
- § 2.13 Submissions prior to trial—Dissolution proceedings
- § 2.14 Consolidation of parties and claims
- § 2.15 Separation of parties and claims
- § 2.16 Order of trial
- § 2.17 Failing to appear for trial
- § 2.18 Opening statements—Purpose
- § 2.19 Opening statements—Present practice
- § 2.20 Opening statements—Techniques

CHAPTER 3. PRESENTATION OF EVIDENCE

- § 3.1 Rules of evidence
- § 3.2 Order of presenting evidence—Right to open
- § 3.3 Order of presenting evidence—Discretion to vary order
- § 3.4 Order of presenting evidence—Importance of a logical and interesting sequence
- § 3.5 Order of testimony—Direct examination
- § 3.6 Order of testimony—Cross examination
- § 3.7 Order of testimony—Subsequent examination
- § 3.8 Examination of witnesses
- § 3.9 Burden of proof—In general
- § 3.10 Burden of proof—Allocation in civil cases
- § 3.11 Burden of proof—The requisite amount of proof
- § 3.12 Requirements of proof—In general
- § 3.12.50 Authentication—Electronically stored information [New]

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3.13 Requirements of proof—Relevancy
- § 3.14 Requirements of proof—Materiality
- § 3.15 Requirements of proof—Competency
- § 3.16 Requirements of proof—Discretionary power of court
- § 3.17 Foundations for evidence—In general
- § 3.19 Foundations for evidence—Telephone conversations
- § 3.20 Foundations for evidence—Business records
- § 3.21 Foundations for evidence—Computer printouts
- § 3.22.50 Video recordings—Medical treatment exception to hearsay rule [New]
- § 3.23 Foundations for evidence—Foundations not required
- § 3.24 Foundations for evidence—Secondary evidence
- § 3.25 Foundations for evidence—Demonstrative evidence—Generally
- § 3.26 Foundations for evidence—Demonstrative evidence—Photographs
- § 3.27 Foundations for evidence—Demonstrative evidence—Motion pictures and videotapes
- § 3.28 Foundations for evidence—Demonstrative evidence—Maps
- § 3.29 Foundations for evidence—Demonstrative evidence—Models
- § 3.30 Foundations for evidence—Demonstrative evidence—Costs
- § 3.31 Foundations for evidence—Refreshing recollection
- § 3.32 Foundations for evidence—Qualifying the lay witness
- § 3.33 Foundations for evidence—Qualifying the infant witness
- § 3.34 Foundations for evidence—Qualifying the expert witness
- § 3.34.50 Qualifying the expert witness in a medical malpractice case [New]
- § 3.35 Foundations for evidence—Qualifying the expert witness—The hypothetical question
- § 3.36 Foundations for evidence—Qualifying the expert witness—Admissibility of expert testimony
- § 3.37 Foundations for evidence—Qualifying the expert witness—Admission of authoritative treatise
- § 3.38 Foundations for evidence—Introduction of deposition testimony
- § 3.39 Marking and offering exhibits
- § 3.40 Methods of excluding exhibits—Generally
- § 3.41 Methods of excluding evidence—The objection
- § 3.43 Methods of excluding evidence—Techniques in objecting
- § 3.44 Methods of excluding evidence—Motions to strike out testimony
- § 3.45 Exceptions to hearsay—Dead man’s statute [New]

CHAPTER 4. PRINCIPLES AND TECHNIQUES OF DIRECT EXAMINATION

- § 4.2 Objectives of direct examination
- § 4.3 Determining order of witnesses—Importance of first witness
- § 4.4 Determining order of witnesses—Subsequent witnesses
- § 4.5 Determining order of witnesses—Court schedule and the strategy of closing strong each day

- § 4.9 Presentation of plaintiff's case—Presenting essential facts
- § 4.10 Presentation of plaintiff's case—Redirect examination
- § 4.12 Conduct of counsel—During examination of witnesses
- § 4.15 Presentation of defense

CHAPTER 5. PROOF OF DAMAGES

- § 5.1 Introduction
- § 5.1.50 Burden of proof [New]
- § 5.2 Damages for personal injuries—Generally
- § 5.3 Damages for personal injuries—Medical expenses
- § 5.4 Damages for personal injuries—Impairment of earning capacity
- § 5.5 Damages for personal injuries—Pain and suffering—In general
- § 5.6 Damages for personal injuries—Pain and suffering—Measurement of pain and suffering
- § 5.8 Damages for personal injuries—Illness or injury resulting from fright or shock
- § 5.9 Damages for loss of consortium
- § 5.10 Wrongful death actions—Generally
- § 5.11 Damages recoverable in wrongful death actions—Generally
- § 5.12 Damages recoverable in wrongful death actions—Destruction of earning capacity
- § 5.14 Damages recoverable in wrongful death actions—Destruction of capacity to carry on and enjoy life's activities
- § 5.15 Damages recoverable in wrongful death actions—Conscious pain and suffering prior to death
- § 5.16 Damages recoverable in wrongful death actions—The death itself
- § 5.18 Damages recoverable in wrongful death actions—Loss of consortium by spouse
- § 5.18.50 Wrongful life [New]
- § 5.19 Damages for injury to or destruction of personal property
- § 5.19.50 Lost Profits [New]
- § 5.19.70 Damages in contract actions [New]
- § 5.20 Punitive or exemplary damages
- § 5.21 Multiple damages under various statutes
- § 5.22 Waiver of sovereign immunity
- § 5.22.50 Sovereign immunity of tribes [New]
- § 5.23 Dram shop liability
- § 5.25 Damages—Forfeiture and disgorgement [New]
- § 5.25.50 Damages after default [New]
- § 5.26 Mitigation of damages [New]

CHAPTER 6. PRINCIPLES AND TECHNIQUES OF CROSS-EXAMINATION

- § 6.1 Nature and purpose of cross-examination—In general
- § 6.2 Discrediting the testimony—In general
- § 6.3 Discrediting the testimony—Contradiction by prior testimony
- § 6.4 Discrediting the testimony—Contradiction by prior written or oral statements

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6.5 Discrediting the testimony—Contradiction by other documents
- § 6.6 Discrediting the testimony—Contradiction based on indisputable physical facts
- § 6.7 Discrediting the testimony—Demonstrating the inherent improbability of the testimony
- § 6.8 Discrediting the testimony—Questioning the qualifications of the witness
- § 6.9 Discrediting the testimony—Conviction of a crime
- § 6.10 Discrediting the testimony—Personal interest
- § 6.11 Discrediting the testimony—Impeachment by inconsistent statement
- § 6.14 Preparing for cross-examination—Pleadings
- § 6.18 Preparing to cross-examine specific witnesses—Expert witnesses
- § 6.19 Cross-examination regarding exhibits

CHAPTER 7. PRINCIPLES AND TECHNIQUES OF REBUTTAL AND SURREBUTTAL

- § 7.1 Rebuttal and surrebuttal—In general
- § 7.2 Purpose of rebuttal and surrebuttal
- § 7.3 Permissible scope of rebuttal and surrebuttal
- § 7.4 Discretion of trial judge
- § 7.5 Proper subject matter of rebuttal
- § 7.6 Trial techniques for rebuttal and surrebuttal
- § 7.7 Extent of rebuttal
- § 7.8 Selection and availability of rebuttal witnesses

CHAPTER 8. MOTIONS DURING TRIAL OR AFTER THE EVIDENCE

- § 8.1 Introduction
- § 8.3 Motions to correct or perfect the record—Motion to strike evidence
- § 8.4 Motions to correct or perfect the record—Motions to amend pleadings to conform to proof
- § 8.5 Motions directed to the merits—Questions of law and fact
- § 8.6 Motions directed to the merits—Motion for voluntary nonsuit after beginning of trial
  - § 8.6.50 Motion to restore case to court docket—Form [New]
- § 8.7 Motions directed to the merits—Evidential nonsuits
- § 8.8 Motions directed to the merits—Motion for directed verdict
- § 8.9 Motions directed to the merits—Motion for mistrial
- § 8.10 Claims of law
- § 8.11 Motions for articulation [New]

CHAPTER 9. CLOSING ARGUMENT

- § 9.1 Introduction
- § 9.2 Mechanics of closing argument—Sequence of argument
- § 9.3 Mechanics of closing arguments—Time limitations
- § 9.5 Mechanics of closing arguments—Additional argument

- § 9.6 Mechanics of closing arguments—Dispensing with or waiving summation
- § 9.7 Subject matter of closing argument—Generally
- § 9.8 Subject matter of closing argument—Identification of parties and issues
- § 9.9 Subject matter of closing argument—Commenting upon evidence and exhibits
- § 9.10 Subject matter of closing argument—Commenting upon credibility and conduct of witnesses
- § 9.11 Subject matter of closing argument—Commenting on adversary’s objections and court’s rulings
- § 9.12 Subject matter of closing argument—Commenting upon law, jury instructions, and special interrogatories
- § 9.13 Subject matter of closing argument—Presenting injuries—Pain and suffering
- § 9.14 Subject matter of closing argument—Money damages for pain and suffering and the “per diem” argument
- § 9.15 Subject matter of closing argument—References to income tax consequences
- § 9.16 Subject matter of closing argument—Arguing new matters in summation
- § 9.17 Subject matter of closing argument—Improper appeals to jury
- § 9.18 Objections during summation
- § 9.22 Arguments to the court

CHAPTER 10. SUBMISSION OF THE CASE TO THE JURY

- § 10.2 Matters for consideration by jury
- § 10.3 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—In general
- § 10.4 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—Purpose of special verdicts
- § 10.5 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—Purpose of special verdicts—Discretionary power of the court
- § 10.6 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—Purpose of special verdicts—Form, sufficiency and construction of special verdicts
- § 10.7 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—General verdict with written interrogatories
- § 10.8 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—When to use special verdicts and written interrogatories
- § 10.9 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—General verdict forms
- § 10.10 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—Special verdict forms
- § 10.11 Use of special verdicts and interrogatories—Sample general verdict interrogatories
- § 10.12 Requests to charge
- § 10.13 Jury instructions
- § 10.14 Exceptions to charge
- § 10.15 Grounds of exceptions or objections to charge
- § 10.15.50 Curative instructions [New]
- § 10.16 Form of requests to charge

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 10.17 Items allowed in jury room

CHAPTER 11. VERDICT AND MOTIONS
AFTER VERDICT

§ 11.3	Types of verdicts—General verdict
§ 11.4	Types of verdicts—Special verdict
§ 11.5	Types of verdicts—General verdict with interrogatories
§ 11.6	Types of verdicts—General verdict with interrogatories— Conflict between verdict and interrogatories
§ 11.7	Verdicts in declaratory judgment actions
§ 11.8	Procedure relating to verdict and interrogatories
§ 11.9	Jury deliberations—Manner of reaching verdict
§ 11.11	Jury deliberations—Jury may request information
§ 11.13	Jury deliberations—Jury returned for reconsideration
§ 11.14	Rendition and acceptance of verdict—In general
§ 11.15	Rendition and acceptance of verdict—Confirming the verdict
§ 11.16	Rendition and acceptance of verdict—Polling the jurors
§ 11.17	Rendition and acceptance of verdict—Recording verdict and discharging jury
§ 11.18	Rendition and acceptance of verdict—Disagreement of jury
§ 11.19	Rendition and acceptance of verdict—Amendment or correction of verdict
§ 11.21	Rendition and acceptance of verdict—Time for amendment or correction
§ 11.22	Discussions with jurors after discharge
§ 11.23	Motions after verdict—Generally
§ 11.23.50	Motion for reargument [ New ]
§ 11.24	Motions to set aside verdict—Generally
§ 11.25	Motion to set aside verdict—As against the evidence
§ 11.26	Motion to set aside verdict—Improper damages—Excessive damages and remittitur
§ 11.27	Motion to set aside verdict—Improper damages— Inadequate damages and additur
§ 11.28	Motion to set aside verdict—Other grounds
§ 11.29	Motion to set aside verdict—Consequences of having motion to set aside granted
§ 11.30	Motion to set aside verdict—Consequences of failing to file motion to set aside after rendition of verdict
§ 11.31	Motion for judgment notwithstanding verdict in accordance with previous motion for directed verdict
§ 11.32	Motion for judgment notwithstanding verdict—Common law variant
§ 11.32.50	Motion to amend pleadings—Posttrial [ New ]
§ 11.33	Motion for new trial
§ 11.34	Motion for new trial—Mispleading
§ 11.35	Motion for new trial—Want of notice or opportunity to defend
§ 11.36	Motion for new trial—Newly discovered evidence
§ 11.37	Motion for new trial—Other reasonable cause
§ 11.38	Motion for new trial—Procedure
§ 11.39	Motion for interest

- § 11.40 Motion for collateral source reduction [New]
- § 11.41 Postjudgment order effectuating court's judgment [New]
- § 11.42 Construction and interpretation of judgments [New]

Appendix

Appendix 1. Guide to Jury Duty

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index