

Table of Contents

Volume 19

CHAPTER 1. HISTORY, FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES, AND ADMINISTRATION OF CONNECTICUT WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 1:1 Origins of workers' compensation
- § 1:2 The 1913 Workmen's Compensation Act
- § 1:3 Ebb and flow of scope of coverage
- § 1:4 Exclusivity of remedy
- § 1:5 The date-of-injury rule
- § 1:6 Taking the worker as he is; preexisting susceptibilities and disabilities
- § 1:7 Remedial purpose of the Act
- § 1:8 Organization of the commission

CHAPTER 2. EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIPS UNDER THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT

- § 2:1 Coverage generally—Necessity of employment relationship satisfying statutory requisites
- § 2:2 Right to control test; independent contractor vs. employee
- § 2:3 Recurrent applications of the right to control test
- § 2:4 Injury must occur during the period of the employment contract
- § 2:5 The individuals, entities, and relationships which are covered by the Act's provisions—Generally
- § 2:6 Coverage of nonprofit and volunteer associations
- § 2:7 Coverage of municipal and state governments
- § 2:8 Coverage of business owners and officers
- § 2:9 Minors
- § 2:10 Illegal immigrants and undocumented aliens
- § 2:11 Individuals involved in illegal employments
- § 2:12 Joint ventures
- § 2:13 Services in kind; nonmonetary payment
- § 2:14 Resident state troopers
- § 2:15 Volunteer police, volunteer firefighter, and volunteer ambulance personnel

CT WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 2:16 Emergency response and homeland security operations
- § 2:17 Volunteer auxiliary police officers
- § 2:18 Statutory and judicial exclusions from coverage—Generally
- § 2:19 Relationships created by bailment
- § 2:20 Casual employees
- § 2:21 Members of employer's family
- § 2:22 Work around private residences
- § 2:23 Corporate officer who is also an employee
- § 2:24 Limitations on coverage for certain nonresidents
- § 2:25 Real estate agents, brokers, and appraisers
- § 2:26 Officers of fraternal organizations
- § 2:27 Inmates and prisoners
- § 2:28 Indian tribes and tribal businesses
- § 2:29 Voluntary agreement to provide coverage under the Act
- § 2:30 Volunteers
- § 2:31 Work for tips or services rendered gratuitously in the hope of receiving compensation
- § 2:32 Principal employer—C.G.S. § 31-291
- § 2:33 Lent employees
- § 2:34 Dual employment

CHAPTER 3. JURISDICTION AND CONFLICT OF LAWS

- § 3:1 Introduction—Jurisdiction in the context of workers' compensation
- § 3:2 History and development of case law regarding jurisdiction
- § 3:3 Jurisdiction of the Act in general—Current law
- § 3:4 Raising subject matter jurisdiction and burden of proof
- § 3:5 Establishing the employment relationship for purposes of subject matter jurisdiction
- § 3:6 A claim must be timely for jurisdiction to lie
- § 3:7 Type of injury must be one not excepted from the Act's jurisdiction
- § 3:8 Problems with removing classes of injuries from jurisdiction of Act, availability of civil remedies
- § 3:9 Conflicts of laws analysis when compensation acts of more than one state implicated
- § 3:10 Historical development of conflict of laws analysis
- § 3:11 Current law regarding jurisdiction between states and conflict of laws
- § 3:12 Unresolved issues concerning jurisdiction between states and conflict of laws
- § 3:13 Concurrent jurisdiction with Longshore and Harbor Workers Act

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:14 Jurisdiction of the Commission over insurance coverage disputes
- § 3:15 Jurisdiction of the Commission to decide constitutional questions
- § 3:16 Jurisdiction of the Commission over issues involving substitute or enhanced workers' compensation benefits
- § 3:17 Jurisdiction of the Commission over preferred provider organizations

CHAPTER 4. OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE AND REPETITIVE TRAUMA

- § 4:1 Occupational diseases generally
- § 4:2 Bases of the Connecticut law of occupational disease
- § 4:3 Elaboration of the statutory definition of occupational disease
- § 4:4 Statute of nonclaim in occupational disease cases
- § 4:5 Application of the definition of occupational disease in modern cases
- § 4:6 Reduction of benefits for preexisting occupational disease
- § 4:7 Reduction of benefits for "concurrently developing" nonoccupational and occupational diseases
- § 4:8 Heart disease claims under sec. 7-433c have not been treated as occupational diseases
- § 4:9 Compensation rates in occupational disease cases
- § 4:10 Repetitive trauma generally
- § 4:11 Statute of nonclaim in repetitive trauma cases; Categorization of hearing loss claims for application of statute of nonclaim
- § 4:12 Compensation rate in repetitive trauma claims
- § 4:13 OSHA, NIOSH, Material Safety Data Sheets
- § 4:14 Proof of causation in occupational disease cases
- § 4:15 Reference materials on occupational health and safety

CHAPTER 5. PSYCHIATRIC/PSYCHOLOGICAL INJURIES

- § 5:1 Historical perspective
- § 5:2 Statutory definitions
- § 5:3 Mental illness arising from physical injury
- § 5:4 Physical injuries arising from non-physical stimuli
- § 5:5 Claim investigation and defenses; suicide and compensation neurosis
- § 5:6 Mental illness arising from stressful conditions

CHAPTER 6. ARISING OUT OF EMPLOYMENT AND IN THE COURSE OF EMPLOYMENT

- § 6:1 In general

- § 6:2 Mutual benefit doctrine
- § 6:3 On-premises injuries; parking lot injuries
- § 6:4 Injuries during preparatory activities of work
- § 6:5 Personal activities; eating; smoking
- § 6:6 Recreational and social activities
- § 6:7 Horseplay
- § 6:8 Altercations
- § 6:9 Termination of employment
- § 6:10 Off-premises injuries at temporary work sites
- § 6:11 The going and coming rule—Introduction
- § 6:12 Travel as part of the employment
- § 6:13 Transportation provided by employer
- § 6:14 Police officers portal to portal; emergencies; on-call travel
- § 6:15 Employer-instigated travel
- § 6:16 Payment for travel time by the employer
- § 6:17 Dual-purpose travel
- § 6:18 Deviation from route of travel
- § 6:19 Out-of-town employees
- § 6:20 Home office issues

CHAPTER 7. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

- § 7:1 The switching of the burden of proof
- § 7:2 Willful and serious misconduct
- § 7:3 Intoxication
- § 7:4 Release by way of stipulation
- § 7:5 Reduction and apportionment of benefits

CHAPTER 8. BENEFITS

I. IN GENERAL

- § 8:1 Types of benefits available under the Act—Generally

II. MEDICAL BENEFITS

- § 8:2 Obligation in general to provide medical treatment for work-related injury
- § 8:3 Types of medical treatment authorized by the Act
- § 8:4 Claimant's right to choose treating physician
- § 8:5 Employer is liable for all reasonable and necessary treatment ordered by authorized treating physician
- § 8:6 Claimant may not change treating physicians without authorization
- § 8:7 Failure of physician's referral to name a specific medical provider

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 8:8	Physician's retention of authorization to treat after referral to another provider
§ 8:9	Retroactive authorization
§ 8:10	Commissioner's power to order change of treating physician and medical treatment, with or without a hearing
§ 8:11	Joint replacements and artificial body parts
§ 8:12	Preventative care
§ 8:13	Medical care with uncertain outcome
§ 8:14	Medical treatment for secondary injuries caused by treatment for compensable injury
§ 8:15	Palliative versus curative care
§ 8:16	Compensability of medical testing or treatment to "rule out" non-compensable pathology
§ 8:17	Compensation for time spent in medical treatment
§ 8:18	Reimbursement for travel expenses or provision of transportation
§ 8:19	Prescriptions
§ 8:20	Medical treatment for catastrophic injuries—Special needs, modifications of dwellings, transport, aides
§ 8:21	Reimbursement for care provided by a family member
§ 8:22	Payment for assistive devices such as wheelchairs, handrails and ramps
§ 8:23	Payment of medical bills in disputed claims
§ 8:24	Claimant not legally responsible for bills in accepted claim
§ 8:25	Payment for hospital charges
§ 8:26	Medical fee schedule for non-hospital services
§ 8:27	Medical providers' disputes with carriers over non-payment and underpayment of charges for medical services
§ 8:28	Medical treatment outside of Connecticut
§ 8:29	Emergency medical treatment not previously authorized
§ 8:30	Refusal of recommended medical treatment
§ 8:31	Chairman's memoranda regarding medical treatment
§ 8:32	Medical protocols

III. INDEMNITY BENEFITS

§ 8:33	Indemnity benefits for total incapacity in general
§ 8:34	Temporary total disability under C.G.S. § 31-307(a)
§ 8:35	Permanent total disability
§ 8:36	Total disability for five years or more—C.G.S. § 31-307a(c)
§ 8:37	Burden of proof in total incapacity claims
§ 8:38	Odd lot doctrine
§ 8:39	Evidence of total incapacity in C.G.S. § 31-307(a) claims
§ 8:40	" Osterlund " cases—The "realistically employable" standard
§ 8:41	Pre-existing conditions contributing to total incapacity
§ 8:42	Medical evidence in total incapacity claims

CT WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 8:43 Whether expert vocational testimony is necessary to prove total incapacity
- § 8:44 Commissioner has power to order vocational assessment under some circumstances
- § 8:45 Evidentiary significance of WRS report
- § 8:46 Work searches
- § 8:47 Role of economic conditions in total incapacity claims
- § 8:48 Earned income during period of claimed total incapacity
- § 8:49 Effect of Social Security disability award or denial
- § 8:50 Effect of State Medical Examining Board decision
- § 8:51 Total disability benefits are payable during period of incarceration
- § 8:52 Waiting period
- § 8:53 Prospective award or denial of total disability benefits
- § 8:54 Relevance of income generated from passive investments or owned businesses to issue of total incapacity
- § 8:55 Effect of retirement on entitlement to C.G.S. § 31-307(a) total disability payments
- § 8:56 Section 31-307(d) prohibition

IV. WAGE LOSS BENEFITS UNDER C.G.S. § 31-308(a); Commonalities with C.G.S. § 31-308a

- § 8:57 Temporary partial disability benefits under C.G.S. § 31-308(a)
- § 8:58 Similarities between C.G.S. § 31-308(a) and C.G.S. § 31-308a claims
- § 8:59 Burden of proof in wage loss claims under C.G.S. § 31-308(a) and § 31-308a
- § 8:60 Proof of the wage loss claim
- § 8:61 Effect of general economic conditions on entitlement to wage loss benefits
- § 8:62 Effect of termination of employment while claimant is eligible for wage loss compensation
- § 8:63 Effect of refusal to accept suitable employment offered by respondent on wage loss claims
- § 8:64 Effect on wage loss claims of voluntary removal from job market
- § 8:65 Evidentiary value and preclusive effect of Social Security disability award or denial
- § 8:66 Geographical considerations in Section 31-308(a) claims, as opposed to Section 31-308a claims
- § 8:67 Effect of failure to maximize earnings on wage loss claims
- § 8:68 Earning capacity may be established by wages earned during period of incapacity
- § 8:69 Incapacitating impairment can exist in the absence of signs or symptoms

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:70 Necessity of job searches in wage loss compensation claims
- § 8:71 Illegal aliens' entitlement to C.G.S. § 31-308(a) benefits
- § 8:72 Wage loss awards beyond the date of the formal hearing
- § 8:73 The employer's duty to accommodate light duty restrictions
- § 8:74 C.G.S. § 31-308(a) benefits and unemployment benefits
- § 8:75 Effect of self-employment income on entitlement to C.G.S. § 31-308(a) and § 31-308a benefits

V. PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY BENEFITS

- § 8:76 Permanent partial disability benefits-summary of entitlement and statutory changes affecting entitlement, in brief
- § 8:77 Permanent partial disability benefits are paid for medical impairment, not lost earning capacity
- § 8:78 Maximum medical improvement
- § 8:79 Burden of proof to establish Section 31-308(b) or former Section 31-308(c) entitlement
- § 8:80 Scheduled versus unscheduled injuries: repeal of C.G.S. § 31-308(c)
- § 8:81 Sufficiency of medical evidence to support commissioner's award
- § 8:82 Applicability of AMA Guides to impairment ratings
- § 8:83 Applicability of AMA Guides to hearing loss cases
- § 8:84 Whole person ratings
- § 8:85 Payment of permanency can be delayed until all body parts affected by the injury are rated
- § 8:86 Effect of availability of corrective measures on impairment ratings
- § 8:87 Commissioner has discretion to award specific based upon hand rating or statutory schedule for fingers
- § 8:88 Thoracic spine is considered part of spine
- § 8:89 Effect of pre-existing disability or impairment on permanent partial disability award
- § 8:90 When claimant has reached maximum medical improvement and continues to be totally disabled
- § 8:91 Claim for total disability after payment of some or all of PPD under voluntary agreement
- § 8:92 Vesting of permanent partial disability and posthumous payments
- § 8:93 Concurrent payment of permanent partial disability benefits and any other benefits not permitted absent different injury dates, even where more than one body part injured
- § 8:94 Mandatory statutory interest on unpaid Section 31-308(b) benefits
- § 8:95 Commutations
- § 8:96 Unemployment compensation while receiving C.G.S. § 31-308(b) or former § 31-308(c) benefits

CT WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 8:97 Continued wage loss benefits under Sec. 31-308(a) in lieu of permanent partial disability benefits under Sec. 31-308(b)
- § 8:98 Continued wage loss benefits under Sec. 31-308(a) in cases of unscheduled body parts

VI. SCARRING AND DISFIGUREMENT BENEFITS

- § 8:99 Scarring and disfigurement awards

VII. WAGE LOSS BENEFITS UNDER C.G.S. § 31-308a

- § 8:100 Section 31-308a benefits—Generally
- § 8:101 Medical proof of impaired earning capacity in C.G.S. § 31-308a claims
- § 8:102 Necessity of job searches
- § 8:103 Illegal aliens
- § 8:104 Accumulated entitlement to Section 31-308a benefits
- § 8:105 Pension and social security retirement benefits are not included in C.G.S. § 31-308a earnings calculation
- § 8:106 Unemployment benefits and C.G.S. § 31-308a benefits

VIII. DEATH BENEFITS

- § 8:107 Death benefits—Generally
- § 8:108 Funeral benefits
- § 8:109 Benefits for persons wholly dependent on the deceased—Presumptive dependents generally
- § 8:110 Presumptive dependents on date of injury
- § 8:111 Common law marriage not recognized
- § 8:112 Dependents in fact
- § 8:113 Standards for proof of dependency
- § 8:114 Non-resident alien presumptive dependents
- § 8:115 Eligibility for death benefits—Causation
- § 8:116 Death benefits not subject to reduction under Section 31-275(1)(D)
- § 8:117 Notice of eligibility for death benefits
- § 8:118 Death benefits barred by prior settlement of underlying claim
- § 8:119 Reimbursement by the Second Injury Fund of certain death benefits
- § 8:120 Dependency allowance increasing temporary total disability benefits

IX. THE COMPENSATION RATE

- § 8:121 Determining the compensation rate—In general
- § 8:122 Determining the average weekly wage

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 8:123	Elements which may be included in the average weekly wage calculation
§ 8:124	Effect of concurrent employment on average weekly wage
§ 8:125	Changing status during average weekly calculation period; part-time and full-time work
§ 8:126	Reduced pay due to compensable injury during average weekly wage calculation period
§ 8:127	Average weekly wage calculation for special categories of employees—Minors
§ 8:128	Average weekly wage when injury is caused by OSHA violation
§ 8:129	Average weekly wage for lent employees
§ 8:130	Average weekly wage of teachers
§ 8:131	Average weekly wage of volunteer firefighters and volunteer ambulance personnel
§ 8:132	Average weekly wage of supernumerary police officers and volunteer police officers
§ 8:133	Average weekly wage for auxiliary police, fire and civil preparedness forces
§ 8:134	Average weekly wage for legislators
§ 8:135	Average weekly wage for veteran trainees
§ 8:136	Contractual enhancements
§ 8:137	How to calculate the base compensation rate once the average weekly wage is determined
§ 8:138	Maximum and minimum compensation rates
§ 8:139	Benefits for relapse or recurrence under Section 31-307b—Generally
§ 8:140	Calculating relapse rates under Section 31-307b
§ 8:141	Compensation rates in occupational disease cases
§ 8:142	C.G.S. § 31-308(a) and § 31-308a claims: How to calculate the amount of a wage loss benefit

X. COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENTS

§ 8:143	Cost-of-living adjustments generally
§ 8:144	Reimbursement by Second Injury Fund for certain COLAs
§ 8:145	Calculation of cost-of-living increases, introduction
§ 8:146	COLA calculations for dates of injury after July 1, 1993
§ 8:147	Calculation of retroactive COLAs for claimants injured on or after July 1, 1993
§ 8:148	COLA calculation for dates of injury prior to July 1, 1993, but on or after Oct. 1, 1969
§ 8:149	COLA calculation for dates of injury prior to Oct. 1, 1969
§ 8:150	COLA calculations for survivors' benefits
§ 8:151	Tax status of workers' compensation indemnity benefits
§ 8:152	Social Security retirement offset from total disability payments, formerly C.G.S. § 31-307(e)

XI. ENHANCED COMPENSATION FOR STATE AND OTHER EMPLOYEES

- § 8:153 Enhanced benefits for certain state employees—In general
- § 8:154 C.G.S. § 5-143—Right to supplement workers' compensation benefit with sick pay
- § 8:155 C.G.S. § 5-142(a)—Full pay for injuries arising out of hazardous duty
- § 8:156 Section 5-142(b)—Total incapacity payments for disability from communicable diseases
- § 8:157 Enhanced benefits for state employees administered outside the Workers' Compensation Commission
- § 8:158 State service-connected disability retirement and workers' compensation payments

XII. OTHER PROVISIONS OF THE ACT RELATING TO BENEFITS

- § 8:159 Continuation of group health insurance coverage and other benefits for public employees
- § 8:160 Vocational rehabilitation
- § 8:161 Voluntary agreements
- § 8:162 Payments without prejudice
- § 8:163 Discontinuance and reduction of benefits—Form 36
- § 8:164 Payment for time spent at hearings

CHAPTER 9. HEART AND HYPERTENSION ACT—GENERAL STATUTES SECTION 7-433C AND SECTION 7-433B

- § 9:1 Legislative history and constitutionality of the heart and hypertension statute, general statutes section 7-433c
- § 9:2 Procedure and administration of section 7-433c
- § 9:3 Entitlement to benefits
- § 9:4 Notice of claim
- § 9:5 Preclusion
- § 9:6 Caps and offsets—Section 7-433b(b)
- § 9:7 Election
- § 9:8 Maintenance of health benefits—C.G.S. 31-284b(a)
- § 9:9 Repeal of coverage for policeman and fireman hired on or after July 1, 1996
- § 9:10 Statutes creating presumptions of compensability for heart conditions and hypertension
- § 9:11 Statute of nonclaim under rebuttable presumption statutes concerning heart disease and hypertension
- § 9:12 Public Act 08-61: Presumption of compensability for heart attacks in on-duty police, constables and firefighters

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 10. COMPLIANCE WITH REQUIREMENT FOR INSURANCE COVERAGE

- § 10:1 Compulsory coverage
- § 10:2 Self-insured status
- § 10:3 Consequences of failure fully to insure for workers' compensation
- § 10:4 Availability of coverage information
- § 10:5 Coverage disputes
- § 10:6 Scope of liability for the workers' compensation carrier
- § 10:7 Insurance fraud and remedies
- § 10:8 Payment of claims against insolvent insurers by the Connecticut Insurance Guaranty Fund
- § 10:9 Principal employer liability for claims of employees of uninsured subcontractor
- § 10:10 Insurance premium oversight

CHAPTER 11. MEDICAL CARE PLANS

- § 11:1 Medical care plans generally
- § 11:2 Denial of treatment and appeal
- § 11:3 Change of treating physicians
- § 11:4 Availability of employer's examination
- § 11:5 Authority of the commissioner
- § 11:6 Medical care plan information packet
- § 11:7 Approved preferred provider organizations

CHAPTER 12. SECOND INJURY FUND

- § 12:1 Second injury fund; a historical perspective including administration of transferred claims
- § 12:2 Payment of uninsured claims
- § 12:3 Procedure for payment of uninsured claims
- § 12:4 Recoupment of payments made under section 31-355
- § 12:5 Payment by the second injury fund of certain cost of living allowances and other benefits
- § 12:6 Concurrent employment
- § 12:7 Apportionment claims against the second injury fund

CHAPTER 13. LIENS, REIMBURSEMENT OBLIGATIONS AND CLAIMS AGAINST BENEFITS

- § 13:1 Liens—Generally
- § 13:2 Group health insurance reimbursement
- § 13:3 Employee Retirement Income Security Act liens from self-insured employers and union health funds

CT WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 13:4 Medicare conditional payments
- § 13:5 Veterans Administration medical benefits
- § 13:6 Public assistance, medical and indemnity benefits
- § 13:7 Child support and alimony support orders
- § 13:8 Incarceration liens
- § 13:9 Long-term and short-term disability, past-paid benefits
- § 13:10 Unemployment benefits
- § 13:11 Other ad hoc contractual obligations

CHAPTER 14. COORDINATION OF BENEFITS

- § 14:1 Coordination of benefits—Generally
- § 14:2 Social Security disability benefits
- § 14:3 Reduction in workers' compensation total disability benefits by Social Security retirement benefits for certain claimants
- § 14:4 Short-term and long-term disability benefits
- § 14:5 Unemployment compensation
- § 14:6 Retirement benefits
- § 14:7 Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act and other compensation systems with concurrent jurisdiction

CHAPTER 15. CIVIL ACTIONS ARISING FROM COMPENSABLE INJURIES

- § 15:1 Civil actions arising from compensable injury—Generally
- § 15:2 Actions against tortfeasors; CGS section 31-293
- § 15:3 Scope of employer's cause of action
- § 15:4 Procedure; notice; intervening complaint
- § 15:5 Consequences of failure to intervene
- § 15:6 Reimbursement of employer; moratorium against future benefits
- § 15:7 Accounting for "moratorium" expenses
- § 15:8 Indemnification counterclaims
- § 15:9 Uninsured and underinsured motorist claims
- § 15:10 Actions against uninsured employer under sec. 31-284(b)
- § 15:11 Actions against principal employers, subcontractors, and their employees
- § 15:12 Sovereign immunity and related issues in third-party cases
- § 15:13 Action against fellow employee—Generally
- § 15:14 —Motor vehicle exception
- § 15:15 —Intentional injury
- § 15:16 Action against employer—Intentional injury
- § 15:17 Action against employer by illegally employed minor
- § 15:18 Action against employer—Discrimination or retaliation under sec. 31-290a

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 15:19 Bad faith claims not allowed
- § 15:20 Action against medical providers employed by claimant's employer
- § 15:21 Actions against engineers and architects on construction sites not allowed
- § 15:22 Actions against safety inspectors for insurers not allowed

CHAPTER 16. CLAIM INVESTIGATION

- § 16:1 Claim investigation—Generally
- § 16:2 Initial review of potential claim
- § 16:3 Initial interview with claimant
- § 16:4 Ongoing investigation on behalf of claimants
- § 16:5 Earnings and personnel records
- § 16:6 Detailed earnings records from Social Security
- § 16:7 Investigation for factual proof of causation—Generally
- § 16:8 Connecticut occupational medicine programs
- § 16:9 OSHA investigations and exposure records; material safety data sheets
- § 16:10 Obtaining OSHA records
- § 16:11 Investigation and defense of the claim by the employer/insurer
- § 16:12 Surveillance of claimant

CHAPTER 17. MEDICAL INVESTIGATION

- § 17:1 Medical investigation/medical authorizations—Generally
- § 17:2 Request for hospital records
- § 17:3 Request for records of treating physicians
- § 17:4 Costs of medical records
- § 17:5 Medical authorization for deceased persons by the legal representative of the estate; opening an estate to obtain medical records
- § 17:6 Medical authorization to obtain medical records of a minor
- § 17:7 Medical authorization to obtain medical records of an incompetent person
- § 17:8 Requests for Veterans Administration records
- § 17:9 Requests for military records
- § 17:10 —Court order requirement
- § 17:11 Psychiatric records/special considerations/in-camera inspections
- § 17:12 Employer's independent medical examinations
- § 17:13 Commissioner's medical examinations
- § 17:14 One-time medical evaluation/second opinion
- § 17:15 Medical record availability: medical record retention requirements

CHAPTER 18. NOTICE OF CLAIM

- § 18:1 Overview
- § 18:2 Content of notice; specificity and accuracy
- § 18:3 Service of notice
- § 18:4 Timely notice requirement—Accidental injury
- § 18:5 —Repetitive trauma
- § 18:6 —Occupational diseases
- § 18:7 —Death claims
- § 18:8 Exceptions to requirement for written notice of claim—
Provision of medical care and acceptance of claim and assignment of hearing
- § 18:9 Employer report of injury
- § 18:10 Notice of contest—Denial of claim
- § 18:11 Preclusion of defense based on untimely disclaimer of liability—Conclusive presumption of liability
- § 18:12 Reduction of benefits as the result of late notice—Proof of prejudice
- § 18:13 Subsequent conditions—No notice requirement
- § 18:14 Bankruptcy
- § 18:15 First report of injury—Filing and notice requirements

CHAPTER 19. DISCOVERY

- § 19:1 In general
- § 19:2 Requests for wage records and personnel records
- § 19:3 Medical records
- § 19:4 Depositions
- § 19:5 Subpoenas duces tecum
- § 19:6 Surveillance information
- § 19:7 Extraterritorial depositions

CHAPTER 20. INFORMAL HEARINGS

- § 20:1 Hearing requests
- § 20:2 Scope of commissioner's authority at informal hearing
- § 20:3 Exchange or disclosure of information prior to informal hearing
- § 20:4 Agreement at informal hearing
- § 20:5 Preformal hearings
- § 20:6 Ex parte communications

CHAPTER 21. FORMAL HEARINGS

- § 21:1 Generally
- § 21:2 Representation
- § 21:3 Delineation and limitation of issues
- § 21:4 Burden of proof

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 21:5	Interpreters, expert witnesses
§ 21:6	Transcripts
§ 21:7	Subpoenas
§ 21:8	Rules of evidence and due process
§ 21:9	Administrative notice—Stipulations of fact
§ 21:10	Procedure—Exhibits and witnesses
§ 21:11	Admission of medical evidence
§ 21:12	Weight and opinion of commissioner’s medical examiner
§ 21:13	Credibility
§ 21:14	Constitutional issues limit jurisdiction at formal hearing
§ 21:15	Jurisdictional limits on contract and coverage disputes
§ 21:16	Motion to preclude
§ 21:17	Modification of awards
§ 21:18	Proposed findings
§ 21:19	Res Judicata and Collateral Estoppel

Volume 19A

CHAPTER 22. APPEALS TO THE COMPENSATION REVIEW BOARD AND POSTFORMAL HEARING MOTIONS

§ 22:1	In general: appeals to the compensation review board
§ 22:2	Statutes, regulations, and Practice Book provisions governing appeals to the CRB
§ 22:3	Appeal procedure to the CRB
§ 22:4	Timeliness of appeal
§ 22:5	Reasons of appeal
§ 22:6	Motions to correct
§ 22:7	Motion for articulation or motion for reconsideration
§ 22:8	Record on appeal
§ 22:9	Motion to submit additional evidence on appeal
§ 22:10	Standards for appeal
§ 22:11	Factual findings—Generally
§ 22:12	Credibility of witnesses
§ 22:13	Expert opinions
§ 22:14	Plenary appellate review
§ 22:15	Preservation of constitutional issues before the CRB
§ 22:16	Payment pending appeal to the CRB
§ 22:17	Legal briefs submitted to the CRB
§ 22:18	Oral argument before the CRB

CHAPTER 23. APPEALS TO THE APPELLATE AND SUPREME COURT

§ 23:1	Appeals to Appellate and Supreme Court—Generally
--------	--------------------------------------------------

CT WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 23:2 Final judgment rule
- § 23:3 Filing the appeal
- § 23:4 Record on appeal
- § 23:5 Preargument conferences
- § 23:6 Appellate Court briefs
- § 23:7 Oral argument
- § 23:8 Amicus curiae before the Appellate and Supreme Court
- § 23:9 Motion for reconsideration/motion for reconsideration en banc
- § 23:10 Constitutional issues on appeal
- § 23:11 Certification of issues to the Supreme Court of Connecticut

CHAPTER 24. PROFESSIONAL FEES IN WORKERS' COMPENSATION CASES

- § 24:1 Fees of physicians and other providers of medical services
- § 24:2 Medical providers fee guidelines
- § 24:3 Fees for medical reports and depositions
- § 24:4 Charges for evaluation of permanent impairment
- § 24:5 Duty to seek payment for fees of medical providers in event of settlement
- § 24:6 Attorney's fees
- § 24:7 Authority of commissioner to award attorney's fees as a penalty
- § 24:8 Attorney's fees for successive attorneys and fee dispute resolution

CHAPTER 25. PENALTIES AND INTEREST

- § 25:1 Penalties and interest—Generally
- § 25:2 Civil fines against the parties
- § 25:3 Sanctions for undue delay under sec. 31-300
- § 25:4 Attorney's fees for unreasonable contest under sec. 31-300
- § 25:5 Statutory 20% penalty for failure to pay award under sec. 31-303
- § 25:6 Interest on permanent partial disability benefits under sec. 31-295(c)
- § 25:7 Interest on appeal under sec. 31-301c(b)
- § 25:8 Penalty for unauthorized discontinuance of indemnity benefits under sec. 31-296 and 31-296a
- § 25:9 Penalty for refusing medical care
- § 25:10 Penalty for treating outside "preferred provider" network
- § 25:11 Proceedings against dilatory insurers and self-insured employers
- § 25:12 Increased compensation where employer has previously violated OSHA regulations
- § 25:13 Other miscellaneous penalties

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 25:14 Bad faith claims not allowed
- § 25:15 Criminal penalties for fraud
- § 25:16 Criminal penalty for failure to insure

CHAPTER 26. DISCRIMINATION AND RETALIATION

- § 26:1 Generally
- § 26:2 Availability of civil and administrative remedies
- § 26:3 Election of remedies
- § 26:4 Filing a claim with the office of the chairman
- § 26:5 Statute of limitations
- § 26:6 Proof of liability—Legal requirements
- § 26:7 —Practical considerations
- § 26:8 Proof of damages
- § 26:9 Mitigation of damages
- § 26:10 Reinstatement of employment
- § 26:11 Appeal to Appellate Court; standard of review
- § 26:12 Section 31-290a discrimination claim versus other discrimination claims generally
- § 26:13 Other employment discrimination acts

CHAPTER 27. PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES AND SPECIALIST CERTIFICATION

- § 27:1 Rules of professional conduct—Generally
- § 27:2 Issues in representation peculiar to claimants: Written contingency fee agreement; limitation of representation
- § 27:3 Issues in representation peculiar to respondents
- § 27:4 Disclosure of information
- § 27:5 Code of Ethics for Workers' Compensation Commissioners
- § 27:6 Ex parte communications and the appearance of impropriety
- § 27:7 Restrictions on communications with physicians
- § 27:8 Record retention
- § 27:9 Certification as specialist in workers' compensation law

CHAPTER 28. SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS

- § 28:1 Settlement considerations—Generally
- § 28:2 Valuation of claims—Generally
- § 28:3 Settlement of surviving spouse and dependents' claims—Special considerations
- § 28:4 Effect of settlement on other support systems—Generally
- § 28:5 Social Security considerations in settlement
- § 28:6 Medicare future treatment considerations in settlement

CT WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- § 28:7 Effect on future payments by group health insurers
- § 28:8 Negotiation of effect of settlement on future group health benefits (municipality, state, union health fund, and private plans)
- § 28:9 Long-term disability considerations in settlement
- § 28:10 Checklist of liens (health insurance; ERISA health plans; Medicare conditional payments; Veterans Administration; public assistance—Medical and indemnity; child support; alimony/divorce; incarceration; long-term and short-term disability; unemployment benefits)
- § 28:11 Special settlement considerations for state and municipal employees
- § 28:12 Effect of workers' compensation settlement on private retirement benefits
- § 28:13 Settling workers' compensation claims concurrently with third-party civil actions—Generally
- § 28:14 Third-party actions: workers' compensation employer reimbursement/lien issues; effect of failure to intervene
- § 28:15 Social Security and Medicare considerations in concurrent settlements
- § 28:16 Moratorium on workers' compensation benefits where workers' compensation case does not settle simultaneously with third-party action
- § 28:17 Loss of consortium, potential surviving spouse and dependents' claims: strategic considerations with concurrent settlements
- § 28:18 Procedure for settlement of claims—Generally
- § 28:19 Reopening settled claims

APPENDIX

Appendix

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index