

Preface to 2025-2026 Supplement Pamphlets

The 2025-2026 supplement update to Tort Law, 2d (Baldwin's Ohio Practice) is designed to continue the tradition of the publication of providing the civil attorney with a comprehensive reference to tort law in the state of Ohio. This work analyzes the law based on the subject area, fact scenario, and appellate district allowing easy and quick research for practically any situation. A discussion of how the appellate districts vary in their approaches to the same fact scenarios is also included.

This 2025-2026 supplement replaces the 2024-2025 supplement in its entirety.

Highlights

- Falling trees (Tauchert v. Rumpke Sanitary Landfill, Inc., Chapter 21)
- Restaurants, caterers, and other food preparers (Berkheimer v. REKM, L.L.C., Chapter 22)
- Discovery rule (Fears v. Midwest Eye Consultants, Chapter 23)
- Traveling employee (Mitchell v. Michels Corporation, Chapter 41)
- Elements of tortious interference with employment relationship (Nosse v. Potter, Chapter 46)
- Interference with business relationship (AEGIS, LLC v. Schlorman, Chapter 46)
- Special damages for lost profits (Hyden v. Ingram, Chapter 77)
- Over 100 cases added throughout

Thank you for subscribing to Tort Law 2d (Baldwin's Ohio Practice). We hope you find this book an invaluable tool for your practice.

THE PUBLISHER