

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 How to use these volumes
- § 1:3 Medical liability tort system
- § 1:4 Risk of liability as a deterrent to malpractice
- § 1:5 Liability insurance
- § 1:6 Tort reform
- § 1:7 The physician's perspective
- § 1:8 Expert testimony "peer review"; the conspiracy of silence; and physician countersuits
- § 1:9 Defensive medicine and Good Samaritan statute laws
- § 1:10 How can and how should medical liability be avoided?

CHAPTER 2 PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

- § 2:1 Education and training of the physician
- § 2:2 Education and training of the surgeon
- § 2:3 Physician-patient relationship
- § 2:4 —As based on contract

CHAPTER 3 PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON LIABILITY

- § 3:1 Medical and surgical competence and incompetence
- § 3:2 What is a "medical error" or a "medical mistake"?
- § 3:3 Standard of care, generally
- § 3:4 —For the specialist
- § 3:5 Community v. national standard of care
- § 3:6 Duty to employ best judgment
- § 3:7 Pathophysiology
- § 3:8 What is the basic approach required for each patient from each physician?
- § 3:9 Duty to take proper medical history
- § 3:10 Duty to conduct careful and proper physical examination
- § 3:11 Duty to properly use laboratory and ancillary procedures
- § 3:12 Duty to make a proper diagnosis; differential diagnosis
- § 3:13 Duty to refer to a specialist

AMERICAN LAW OF MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

- § 3:14 Duty to keep abreast of medical knowledge
- § 3:15 Duty not to abandon the patient
- § 3:16 Duty owed to nonpatient third parties
- § 3:17 Vicarious liability
- § 3:18 HMO; managed-care liability

CHAPTER 4 INFORMED CONSENT

- § 4:1 Introduction
- § 4:2 When duty of disclosure arises
- § 4:3 Who must make disclosure
- § 4:4 What must be disclosed, generally
- § 4:5 Particular subjects of disclosure
- § 4:6 Defenses to nondisclosure
- § 4:7 Causation
- § 4:8 Capacity to consent
- § 4:9 Proof of disclosure and consent
- § 4:10 Burden of proof
- § 4:11 Need for expert testimony
- § 4:12 Limitation or withdrawal of consent
- § 4:13 Statutory requirements

CHAPTER 5 PROXIMATE CAUSE

- § 5:1 Introduction
- § 5:2 Iatrogenic injury
- § 5:3 Loss of a chance

CHAPTER 6 HOSPITALS AND HOSPITAL LIABILITY

A. GENERALLY

- § 6:1 Introduction
- § 6:2 Private hospitals
- § 6:3 Public hospitals

B. HOSPITAL MANAGEMENT

- § 6:4 Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) generally
- § 6:5 Hospital patient's rights and responsibilities
- § 6:6 JCAHO accreditation procedures
- § 6:7 JCAHO standards, generally

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6:8 —Hospital administration
- § 6:9 —Hospital medical staff
- § 6:10 —Hospital privileges
- § 6:11 —Quality assurance: Risk management
- § 6:12 —Medical records

C. HOSPITAL SERVICES

- § 6:13 Generally
- § 6:14 —Nursing services
- § 6:15 —Infection control
- § 6:16 —Pathology and medical laboratory services
- § 6:17 —Medication management
- § 6:18 —Emergency care: Generally
- § 6:19 —Radiological services

D. HOSPITAL LIABILITY

- § 6:20 Vicarious liability; respondeat superior
- § 6:21 Apparent authority
- § 6:22 Review and supervision of staff: Hospital “corporate liability”
- § 6:23 Premature discharge from the hospital
- § 6:24 Charitable and governmental immunity

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 7 DEFENSES OF MEDICAL MALPRACTICE ACTIONS

A. GENERALLY

- § 7:1 Introduction
- § 7:2 Contributory and comparative negligence
- § 7:3 Contribution, indemnity, and set-off
- § 7:4 Release
- § 7:5 Arbitration agreement
- § 7:6 Worker's compensation defense

B. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

- § 7:7 Introduction
- § 7:8 Statutory codifications
- § 7:9 Discovery as basis for accrual
- § 7:10 Continuous treatment
- § 7:11 Foreign object
- § 7:12 Fraud and estoppel

C. GOOD SAMARITAN DEFENSE

- § 7:13 Introduction
- § 7:14 Medical emergency defined
- § 7:15 Good Samaritan defined
- § 7:16 Scene of emergency defined
- § 7:17 Good faith requirement

CHAPTER 8 EXPERT TESTIMONY

A. EXPERT TESTIMONY

- § 8:1 Introduction
- § 8:2 Res ipsa loquitur and expert testimony
- § 8:3 Frye; Daubert; federal standards for admissibility of expert testimony

AMERICAN LAW OF MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

B. DIRECT EXAMINATION OF EXPERT WITNESS

- § 8:4 Qualifying an expert witness
- § 8:5 Expert's knowledge of standard of care; the locality rule
- § 8:6 Hypothetical questions
- § 8:7 Basis of opinion; the "reasonable medical certainty" test

C. CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EXPERT WITNESS

- § 8:8 Introduction
- § 8:9 Use of books, articles, and learned treatises
- § 8:10 "Cross-examination" of adverse party witness

CHAPTER 9 MALPRACTICE PANELS AND STATUTES

- § 9:1 Malpractice statutes generally
- § 9:2 Constitutional issues
- § 9:3 Damages limitation provisions
- § 9:4 Panel submission provisions
- § 9:5 Attorney fee limitations

CHAPTER 10 DAMAGES

- § 10:1 Generally
- § 10:2 Punitive damages

CHAPTER 11 ANESTHESIOLOGY

- § 11:1 Introduction
- § 11:2 Hospital anesthesia services
- § 11:3 The anesthesia record
- § 11:4 Preanesthesia evaluation
- § 11:5 Influence of malpractice claim's history on anesthetic care
- § 11:6 Risk management/quality assurance and evaluation of human behavioral psychology to influence anesthetic care
- § 11:7 Standards
- § 11:8 General anesthesia
- § 11:9 Complications of general anesthesia
- § 11:10 Monitoring
- § 11:11 Regional anesthesia

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 11:12 Obstetrical anesthesia and analgesia
- § 11:13 Anesthesia for pediatric patients
- § 11:14 Informed consent

CHAPTER 12 PERINATAL BRAIN INJURY AND THE NEUROLOGICALLY IMPAIRED CHILD

- § 12:1 Perinatal brain injury
- § 12:2 Neurological handicap: Defining the disability
- § 12:3 Mechanisms of injury: The insult
- § 12:4 Neurologic development of the fetal/newborn brain at the time of injury
- § 12:5 Fetal growth and maturity at birth
- § 12:6 Perinatal asphyxia
- § 12:7 Cerebral palsy and the biophysical profile
- § 12:8 Labor and delivery
- § 12:9 Apgar score
- § 12:10 Neonatal information: Acidosis; encephalopathy; seizures and multiorgan dysfunction
- § 12:11 Sepsis and meningitis
- § 12:12 Prenatal perinatal infections and encephalitis
- § 12:13 Trauma
- § 12:14 Metabolic encephalopathy
- § 12:15 Genetic disorders: Congenital anomalies
- § 12:16 Neuropathology of brain injury
- § 12:17 Neuroradiology
- § 12:18 Perinatal mortality: Frequency
- § 12:19 Perinatal neurological injury: Nature and frequency
- § 12:20 ACOG technical bulletin no. 163 (1992)
- § 12:21 ACOG: Neonatal encephalopathy and cerebral palsy (2003)
- § 12:22 Preventing perinatal brain damage
- § 12:23 Perinatal brain injury: Establishing the cause-and-effect relationship
- § 12:24 Conclusion

CHAPTER 13 OBSTETRICS AND OBSTETRICAL MALPRACTICE

- § 13:1 Introduction
- § 13:2 Obstetrics as a specialty
- § 13:3 American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG)

AMERICAN LAW OF MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

- § 13:4 —Pregnant patient's bill of rights
- § 13:5 Maternal mortality and morbidity, generally
- § 13:6 Ectopic pregnancy
- § 13:7 Prenatal care, generally
- § 13:8 Amniocentesis—Prenatal genetic testing
- § 13:9 Teratogenesis
- § 13:10 Diabetes in pregnancy
- § 13:11 Pregnancy-induced hypertension, PIH
- § 13:12 Fetal growth and maturity
- § 13:13 Preterm birth and prematurity
- § 13:14 Hemolytic disease of the newborn
- § 13:15 Obstetrical hemorrhage—Abruptio placentae and placenta previa
- § 13:16 Umbilical cord accidents
- § 13:17 Chorioamnionitis, premature rupture of the membranes
- § 13:18 Antepartum testing of fetal well-being
- § 13:19 Labor and delivery, generally
- § 13:20 Presentation and position
- § 13:21 Friedman curve, dystocia, oxytocin
- § 13:22 Intrapartum monitoring of fetal well-being
- § 13:23 Forcep and vacuum deliveries
- § 13:24 Breech deliveries
- § 13:25 Cesarean section
- § 13:26 Shoulder dystocia
- § 13:27 Delivery room resuscitation; Apgar scoring
- § 13:28 Obstetrical nursing responsibilities
- § 13:29 Postpartum hemorrhage
- § 13:30 Wrongful life and conception liability
- § 13:31 Obstetrical liability cases

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 14 PEDIATRICS

- § 14:1 Scope of the specialty
- § 14:2 Neonatal resuscitation
- § 14:3 Infection
- § 14:4 —Sepsis
- § 14:5 —Meningitis
- § 14:6 —Gastroenteritis
- § 14:7 —Hemolytic-uremic syndrome (HUS)
- § 14:8 Trauma
- § 14:9 Critical care
- § 14:10 —Metabolic emergencies
- § 14:11 Cardiology

CHAPTER 15 MEDICINE

- § 15:1 Introduction
- § 15:2 Primary care or principle physician; family practice and internal medicine
- § 15:3 Cardiology
- § 15:4 Pulmonology
- § 15:5 Nephrology
- § 15:6 Endocrinology
- § 15:7 Gastroenterology
- § 15:8 Infectious disease
- § 15:9 Neurology
- § 15:10 Hematology

CHAPTER 16 CANCER

- § 16:1 Overview
- § 16:2 Medical oncology
- § 16:3 Cancer screening
- § 16:4 Principles of cancer treatment
- § 16:5 Breast cancer
- § 16:6 Skin cancer
- § 16:7 Colorectal cancer
- § 16:8 Gynecological malignancies
- § 16:9 Lung cancer

AMERICAN LAW OF MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

§ 16:10 Liability in cancer cases

CHAPTER 17 PHARMACOLOGY

- § 17:1 Introduction
- § 17:2 Principles of drug therapy
- § 17:3 Pharmacokinetics: The dynamics of drug absorption, distribution, and elimination
- § 17:4 Pharmacodynamics
- § 17:5 Sources of drug information
- § 17:6 Principles of toxicology
- § 17:7 The package insert
- § 17:8 Drug addiction and drug abuse
- § 17:9 Prescribing drugs (generally)
- § 17:10 Quality assurance and risk management
- § 17:11 Hospital's liability
- § 17:12 Nurses and drug administration
- § 17:13 Drug manufacturer's liability
- § 17:14 Vaccines
- § 17:15 Birth control pills
- § 17:16 Steroids
- § 17:17 Antimicrobial agents
- § 17:18 Antineoplastic agents
- § 17:19 Anticonvulsant agents
- § 17:20 Orphan drugs

CHAPTER 18 SURGERY

- § 18:1 Introduction
- § 18:2 The American College of Surgeons
- § 18:3 Quality assurance and risk management
- § 18:4 Surgical specialties and subspecialties
- § 18:5 Medical evaluation of the surgical patient
- § 18:6 Basic surgical principles and practices
- § 18:7 Liability cases

CHAPTER 19 AUTOPSY

- § 19:1 Introduction
- § 19:2 Basic postmortem examination
- § 19:3 Autopsy report
- § 19:4 Admissibility of autopsy report and death certificate
- § 19:5 Liability for wrongful autopsy

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 20 TRIAL OF A MEDICAL MALPRACTICE ACTION

- § 20:1 Introduction
- § 20:2 Trial of a complex hematology wrongful death action
- § 20:3 Trial of a complex endocrinology-pharmacology wrongful death action
- § 20:4 Trial of a perinatal brain-damaged case
- § 20:5 Trial of an obstetrical brain-damaged infant case:
Prenatal care associated with hypoxia/hypoglycemia
- § 20:6 Premature baby and birth asphyxia
- § 20:7 Postmature baby and birth asphyxia
- § 20:8 Resuscitation of an asphyxiated newborn
- § 20:9 Perinatal asphyxia, gestational diabetes and growth retardation

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index