

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. ARTICLE 1: GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF THE UCC

§ 1:1	Overview
§ 1:2	Variation by agreement
§ 1:3	The make-whole remedy—No penalties
§ 1:4	Contracts include both actions and words
§ 1:5	Reservation of rights
§ 1:6	Good faith
§ 1:7	—Examples of good faith
§ 1:8	— —Good faith found in industry practice
§ 1:9	— —Rejection of goods must be in good faith
§ 1:10	— —The history of negotiations is important in determining good faith
§ 1:11	—Form documents
§ 1:12	— —The termination for convenience clause
§ 1:13	— —Inspection clause
§ 1:14	— —The changes clause
§ 1:15	— —The setoff clause
§ 1:16	— —The termination for cause clause
§ 1:17	— —Delivery clause
§ 1:18	— —Force majeure
§ 1:19	— —Acceleration clauses
§ 1:20	— —Waiver
§ 1:21	— —Price
§ 1:22	The importance of being a merchant
§ 1:23	The scope of Article II—Sale of goods
§ 1:24	The concept of title
§ 1:25	The statute of limitations
§ 1:26	Revised Article 1—Introduction
§ 1:27	—Part 1—“General provisions”—Scope
§ 1:28	— — —Applicability of supplemental principles of law
§ 1:29	—Part 2—“General definitions and principles of interpretation”
§ 1:30	— — —Context matters
§ 1:31	— — —“Conspicuous”

- § 1:32 — — — Good faith
- § 1:33 — Part 3—Territorial applicability and general rules—Choice of law
- § 1:34 — — — — Consumer transactions
- § 1:35 — — — — Limits on selecting a different country for choice of law
- § 1:36 — — — — Conflict between the designated choice of law and a fundamental policy of the jurisdiction that would otherwise control
- § 1:37 — — — Course of performance
- § 1:38 — — — Statute of frauds
- § 1:39 Conclusion

CHAPTER 2. ARTICLE 2: SCOPE AND APPLICATION

- § 2:1 When does Article 2 apply?—Article 2 in general
- § 2:2 — A contract for goods or services?
- § 2:3 — Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?
- § 2:4 — — Development/sales and service transactions—Where the thrust of an agreement is the sale of goods, any research and development portion of the contract is incidental; the UCC applies even if the development is for the product to be sold
- § 2:5 — — — A court may choose to apply the UCC to a pure service contract
- § 2:6 — — — Application of Article 2 to a release agreement
- § 2:7 — — — Even if a transaction seems to involve a sale of goods, a state's statute may overrule that categorization
- § 2:8 — — — Application of Article 2 to carpet sale/installation
- § 2:9 — — — Transaction involving inspection and repair of aircraft was predominantly contract for service, Article 2 warranties did not apply
- § 2:10 — — — Application of Article 2 to sale/distributorship agreement
- § 2:11 When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Design contract
- § 2:12 When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Software—Goods or services?

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 2:13	— — — —The UCC governs licensure of software packages
§ 2:14	— — — —Where the entire contract is for software development, as opposed to licensure or packages as part of an integrated computer system, the UCC does not apply
§ 2:15	When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Software—Goods or services?—Software ancillary to billing services
§ 2:16	When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Software—Goods or services?—Software is a good where, at the time of identification in the contract, the software was “movable” as required under the definition of “goods”
§ 2:17	— — —Construction cases—UCC applies to sale and erection of a prefabricated building
§ 2:18	When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Construction cases—Predominant purpose test
§ 2:19	When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Application of the UCC to a collective bargaining agreement
§ 2:20	When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Dispensing medication
§ 2:21	When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Article 2 and the sale of a business—Sale of business did not remove debt from coverage of Article 2
§ 2:22	— — —Article 2 did not apply to sale of ongoing newspaper business
§ 2:23	When does Article 2 apply?—Contracts for goods and services: Does the UCC apply?—Article 2 and the sale of a business—Predominant purpose test not limited to goods and services
§ 2:24	Differences between Article 2 and general contract law
§ 2:25	—Formation of contracts
§ 2:26	—Warranties
§ 2:27	—Statute of frauds
§ 2:28	—Good faith
§ 2:29	—Statute of limitations
§ 2:30	—Modifications of contracts

- § 2:31 —Firm offers
- § 2:32 —Adequate assurances of performance
- § 2:33 —Excuse
- § 2:34 Use of course of dealing and other extrinsic evidence
- § 2:35 Termination
- § 2:36 —Notice
- § 2:37 Notes on other laws
- § 2:38 Amendments to UCC Article 2—Introduction
- § 2:39 Summary

CHAPTER 3. ARTICLE 2: THE REQUIREMENT OF A RECORD

- § 3:1 Overview
- § 3:2 Statute of frauds requirements—The record must show existence of an underlying contract
- § 3:3 —Signature of party to be charged
- § 3:4 —Statement of quantity
- § 3:5 Exceptions—Beginning/partial performance
- § 3:6 —Promissory estoppel
- § 3:7 —Judicial admission
- § 3:8 —Course of performance
- § 3:9 —Transactions between merchants
- § 3:10 — —What is a proper confirming memorandum?
- § 3:11 — — —Confirming telex and past practices of parties showed existence of confirming memorandum
- § 3:12 — — —The documents as a whole must indicate the existence of a contract
- § 3:13 — — —Invoices, purchase orders, checks, e-mails, and other such documents can be confirming memoranda
- § 3:14 — — —Careful drafting must go into the letter
- § 3:15 — —The confirming memorandum must be received within a reasonable time after the oral agreement is made
- § 3:16 — — —Unless evidence of practice in the trade shows otherwise, eight months is not a reasonable time
- § 3:17 — — —A three-and-one-half-month delay was not unreasonable in light of evidence of phone calls made during that time which also confirmed the contract

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:18 — — —Memoranda that were delayed because they were improperly addressed are treated as memoranda sent in an unreasonable time
- § 3:19 — — —Evidence of procedure indicating mailing of confirmation raises presumption of receipt
- § 3:20 — — —Receipt of confirmation contract within ten days of oral agreement considered reasonable
- § 3:21 — — —What happens when the terms of the confirming memorandum differ from the terms of the prior oral agreement?
- § 3:22 — — —Objection to a confirming memorandum
- § 3:23 — — —Who is a merchant?
- § 3:24 Other statutes of frauds may be applicable

CHAPTER 4. ARTICLE 2: THE BATTLE OF THE FORMS

- § 4:1 What is the battle of the forms?
- § 4:2 The mirror image rule and conditional forms
- § 4:3 General rules and illustrative examples
- § 4:4 Illustrative cases—The forms must be on the field while the battle is raging
  - § 4:5 —Acceptance limited to terms of offer
  - § 4:6 —Additional terms must appear in a contract
  - § 4:7 — —Terms incorporated by reference
  - § 4:8 —Cases where differing terms survived the battle of the forms
  - § 4:9 —Cases discussing what constitutes a material addition—The materiality of attorneys' fee clauses
- § 4:10 — —The materiality of arbitration clauses
- § 4:11 — —Warranty disclaimers
- § 4:12 — —Cancellation provision
- § 4:13 — —Forum selection clause
- § 4:14 — —Choice-of-law provision
- § 4:15 — —Indemnification provision
- § 4:16 —The battle of the forms can also be fought over a specifically negotiated deal, i.e., where one side sends a contract to the other and the recipient makes some changes before sending it back
  - § 4:17 —“Invoices” can also be “forms”
  - § 4:18 —Cases discussing the UCC's gap filling provisions

- § 4:19 —The battle of the forms and shrink-wrap licenses
- § 4:20 Analysis of additional terms under course of dealing and industry practice
- § 4:21 Conclusions and recommendations

CHAPTER 5. ARTICLE 2: THE DOCTRINE OF UNCONSCIONABILITY

- § 5:1 Introduction
- § 5:2 —General observations
- § 5:3 —Unconscionability versus other bases for recovery—Unconscionability versus failure of essential purpose
- § 5:4 — —Unconscionability versus fraud
- § 5:5 — —Unconscionability versus commercial impracticability
- § 5:6 — —Availability of choice
- § 5:7 — —Unconscionability versus lack of good faith
- § 5:8 — —Unconscionability versus mistake of fact
- § 5:9 Application of the doctrine in cases
- § 5:10 —Unequal bargaining power or no meaningful choice
- § 5:11 —Unfair surprise
- § 5:12 —Failure of essential purpose
- § 5:13 —Passage of time
- § 5:14 —Contract terms and provisions—Warranty disclaimers and limitations on damages
- § 5:15 — — —Negotiated contracts between sophisticated parties
- § 5:16 — — —Leases
- § 5:17 — — —Unequal bargaining power and unfair surprise
- § 5:18 — — —Meaningful choice
- § 5:19 — — —Remedy limitation not unreasonably favorable to one party
- § 5:20 — —Termination provision
- § 5:21 — —Hold harmless/indemnity clause
- § 5:22 — —No-lost-profits clause
- § 5:23 — —Take-or-pay clause
- § 5:24 — —Merger clauses
- § 5:25 — —Price increase provision
- § 5:26 — —Arbitration clause

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:27 Uniform Commercial Code unconscionability provisions

CHAPTER 6. ARTICLE 2: REQUIREMENTS CONTRACTS

- § 6:1 Introduction
§ 6:2 Creating a requirements contract
§ 6:3 Good faith requirement—Good faith as a restraint on buyer's reduction in requirements
§ 6:4 —Good faith as a restraint on seller's reduction in output
§ 6:5 —Reasonable efforts
§ 6:6 Exclusivity requirement—Without a quantity term a requirements contract must bind the purchaser to buy exclusively
§ 6:7 —Exclusive supplier of patented product under a requirements contract is not necessarily an exclusive licensee
§ 6:8 —Promise of exclusivity may be implied
§ 6:9 Negligent preparation of estimates—Breach of contract
§ 6:10 —Measure of damages
§ 6:11 Course of performance
§ 6:12 Output contracts
§ 6:13 The statute of frauds
§ 6:14 Suggestions for buyers entering into and administering requirements contracts

CHAPTER 7. ARTICLE 2: RISK OF LOSS AND SHIPPING TERMS

- § 7:1 Overview
§ 7:2 Two-party transactions (no common carrier)—General rules
§ 7:3 —Illustrative cases—Risk of loss remains with seller
§ 7:4 — —Risk of loss shifts to buyer
§ 7:5 —Seminar examples—Expensive oriental rug delivered to a factory § 7:6 — —Incorrect motors listed on the packing slip § 7:7 Shipping terms
§ 7:8 —F.O.B. (U.C.C. § 2-319)
§ 7:9 —F.A.S. (U.C.C. § 2-319)

- § 7:10 —C.I.F. and C&F (U.C.C. § 2-320)
- § 7:11 —Other delivery terms defined in the code
- § 7:12 — —Net landed weights; Delivered weights; Out turn (U.C.C. § 2-321)
- § 7:13 — —Payment on arrival; Warranty of condition on arrival (U.C.C. § 2-321)
- § 7:14 — —Delivery ex ship (from the carrying vessel)
(U.C.C. § 2-322)
- § 7:15 — —No arrival, no sale (U.C.C. § 2-324)
- § 7:16 — —Sale on approval and sale or return (U.C.C. §§ 2-326, 2-327)
- § 7:17 —Ambiguities in the F.O.B. jargon
- § 7:18 —One company's definitions
- § 7:19 —Illustrative cases involving shipping terms—
Risk of loss remains with seller
- § 7:20 — —Risk of loss shifts to buyer
- § 7:21 — —Other issues involving the use of shipping terms
- § 7:22 — —Sale on approval
- § 7:23 Conclusion

CHAPTER 8. ARTICLE 2: THE IMPORTANCE OF ACCEPTANCE

- § 8:1 Overview
- § 8:2 Definition
- § 8:3 —Nonconformity
- § 8:4 —Inspection—§ 2-606(1)(a)
- § 8:5 — —Types of defects
- § 8:6 — —Samples
- § 8:7 —Effective rejection—§ 2-606(1)(b)
- § 8:8 —Use of goods by buyer—§ 2-606(1)(c)
- § 8:9 —Commercial unit—§ 2-606(2)
- § 8:10 Complete delivery of goods
- § 8:11 Revocation of acceptance
- § 8:12 —Seller's attempts to cure defect
- § 8:13 —Timing
- § 8:14 —Goods must be nonconforming
- § 8:15 —Nonconformity must substantially impair value of goods
- § 8:16 —Form of revocation
- § 8:17 Notice of breach following acceptance
- § 8:18 —Timing

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 8:19	— —Filing of complaint within statute of limitations
§ 8:20	— —Knowledge of defect
§ 8:21	—Contents
§ 8:22	—Affected parties
§ 8:23	—Buyer's remedy
§ 8:24	—Standard of review
§ 8:25	Managing the acceptance problem
§ 8:26	—Stamp items on receiving dock
§ 8:27	—Purchase order terms and conditions
§ 8:28	—A detailed inspection process
§ 8:29	—Inspection on priority
§ 8:30	—Fixed period for making claims
§ 8:31	—Communication with engineering
§ 8:32	—Production equipment
§ 8:33	—Computer hardware and software

CHAPTER 9. ARTICLE 2: THE SELLER'S RIGHT TO CURE

§ 9:1	Generally
§ 9:2	Scope
§ 9:3	Elements—Tender of delivery
§ 9:4	—Timing of tender
§ 9:5	— —Before time for performance
§ 9:6	— —After time for performance
§ 9:7	—Notice to the seller
§ 9:8	—Conforming goods
§ 9:9	Limitations—Perfect tender rule
§ 9:10	—Attempts to cure
§ 9:11	Warranty obligations
§ 9:12	Installment contracts
§ 9:13	Revocation of acceptance by buyer
§ 9:14	Conclusion

CHAPTER 10. ARTICLE 2: BUYER'S RIGHTS BEFORE PERFORMANCE IS DUE—ADEQUATE ASSURANCE OF PERFORMANCE, INSTALLMENT CONTRACTS, AND ANTICIPATION REPUDIATION

§ 10:1	Introduction
--------	--------------

UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

- § 10:2 Right to adequate assurance of performance—
Overview
- § 10:3 —Grounds for insecurity must be reasonable
- § 10:4 — —Reasonable grounds present—Buyer's credit
- § 10:5 — — —Seller's request for a price increase
- § 10:6 — — —Lessor's failure to make mortgage payments
- § 10:7 — — —Buyer's demand for modification of contract clause
- § 10:8 — — —Discrepancies in buyer's letter of credit
- § 10:9 — —Reasonable grounds not present—Buyer's refusal to deviate from contract provisions
- § 10:10 — — —Lateness of delivery
- § 10:11 — — —Buyer's fear of insufficient supply
- § 10:12 — — —Buyer's notice of offset
- § 10:13 — — —Seller ready to perform
- § 10:14 — — —Unreasonable interpretation of the contract
- § 10:15 —Demand for assurance must be properly made—Demand must be in a record
- § 10:16 — —Demand must be clear
- § 10:17 — —A party may not ask for assurance if it created the insecurity
- § 10:18 — —Demand is unnecessary where time for performance has passed
- § 10:19 —Providing adequate assurance
- § 10:20 —Adequacy of assurance is a matter of fact
- § 10:21 —Consequences of failure to ask for or give adequate assurance—Failure to ask for assurance
- § 10:22 — —Refusal to give assurance
- § 10:23 — —Repudiation
- § 10:24 — —Substantial impairment
- § 10:25 — —Point of repudiation
- § 10:26 —Specific contract provisions can override § 2-609
- § 10:27 —Demand for adequate assurance in non-Uniform Commercial Code setting
- § 10:28 —Checklist for adequate assurance of performance
- § 10:29 Installment contracts—Overview
- § 10:30 —Issues concerning installment contracts—
Deliveries in separate lots or installments

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:31 — —Nonconformity must “substantially impair” the value of the contract to warrant rejection of the entire contract
- § 10:32 — —Effect of acceptance of a portion of nonconforming goods in an installment contract
- § 10:33 Anticipatory repudiation—Overview
- § 10:34 — —Issues concerning anticipatory repudiation—
Bankruptcy is not anticipatory repudiation
- § 10:35 — —Repudiation cannot occur after other parties’ breach
- § 10:36 — —The repudiation must substantially impair the value of the contract
- § 10:37 — —Termination of contract for failure of condition precedent
- § 10:38 — —Anticipatory breach must be clear and unequivocal
- § 10:39 — —The party asserting anticipatory repudiation must remain able to perform
- § 10:40 — —Repudiation must be accepted by the nonbreaching party
- § 10:41 — —Retraction of repudiation must be clear and
unequivocal
- § 10:42 — —Reasonable grounds must exist
- § 10:43 — —Aggrieved party’s right
- § 10:44 Bankruptcy

CHAPTER 11. ARTICLE 2: BUYER’S RIGHT TO COVER

- § 11:1 Introduction
- § 11:2 Elements
- § 11:3 — —Existence of a breach
- § 11:4 — —Buyer’s actions must be reasonable
- § 11:5 — —Time
- § 11:6 — —Price
- § 11:7 — —Substitute goods
- § 11:8 — —Characteristics
- § 11:9 — —Quality
- § 11:10 — —Partial cover
- § 11:11 — —Quantity
- § 11:12 — —Cost savings
- § 11:13 Cover options—Independent right
- § 11:14 — —Vendor actions—More money
- § 11:15 — —More time

- § 11:16 —Self-cover
- § 11:17 Mitigation of damages
- § 11:18 Discovery
- § 11:19 Summary and conclusion

CHAPTER 12. ARTICLE 2: BUYER'S REMEDIES

- § 12:1 Introduction
- § 12:2 —Make-whole remedy
- § 12:3 —Mitigation of damages
- § 12:4 —No tort damages
- § 12:5 —Limitations and disclaimers of liability
- § 12:6 —Specific Uniform Commercial Code remedies
- § 12:7 — —“Cover” damages
- § 12:8 — —Warranty damages
- § 12:9 —Liquidated damages
- § 12:10 —Proof of damages
- § 12:11 The make-whole remedy
- § 12:12 Mitigation of damages
- § 12:13 —Efforts to mitigate must be commercially reasonable
- § 12:14 — —Completion of goods
- § 12:15 —Specific provisions of Uniform Commercial Code may supersede the common-law duty to mitigate
- § 12:16 No tort recovery for breach of contract—
Economic loss doctrine
- § 12:17 Disclaimers of incidental and consequential damages
- § 12:18 —Warranty remedy limitation cannot apply to undelivered product
- § 12:19 —Limited remedy's failure of essential purpose
- § 12:20 Damages for breach of warranty
- § 12:21 —When repair costs exceed original contract price
- § 12:22 —Tort remedies in breach of contract case
- § 12:23 Liquidated damages
- § 12:24 —The reasonableness requirement
- § 12:25 —Application of the liquidated damages clause
- § 12:26 —Cases discussing whether liquidated damages clauses preclude other remedies
- § 12:27 —Liquidated damages clauses versus take-or-pay clauses

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 12:28 —Summary
- § 12:29 Proof issues—Introduction
- § 12:30 —Illustrative hypothetical examples
- § 12:31 —Illustrative cases—Lost profits based on average growth rate of buyer's sales
- § 12:32 — —The court decides what calculation to use in awarding lost profits
- § 12:33 — —Sufficiency of proof of loss
- § 12:34 — —Detailed record of losses
- § 12:35 — —Purchasers must show clear and actual damages
- § 12:36 — —Damages for breach of long-term contract must be based on equivalent long-term contract price for goods
- § 12:37 Specific performance—The law
- § 12:38 —Illustrative case
- § 12:39 Setoff—The law
- § 12:40 —Illustrative cases

CHAPTER 13. ARTICLE 2: SELLER'S REMEDIES

- § 13:1 Introduction
- § 13:2 Section 2-703: The basic remedies
- § 13:3 Section 2-704: Identification of the goods to the contract
- § 13:4 Section 2-705: The right to stop delivery
- § 13:5 Section 2-702: Reclamation
- § 13:6 Section 2-709: Action for the price
- § 13:7 Section 2-706: The resale remedy
- § 13:8 Section 2-708: Two remedies in one clause
- § 13:9 —The market formula
- § 13:10 —Lost volume sellers
- § 13:11 —Reasonable overhead and due credit
- § 13:12 Section 2-710: Incidental damages
- § 13:13 Contractual modification of remedies
- § 13:14 Conclusion

CHAPTER 14. ARTICLE 2: COMMERCIAL IMPRACTICABILITY AS EXCUSE FOR CONTRACT PERFORMANCE

- § 14:1 Introduction

- § 14:2 Elements—Triggering event
- § 14:3 — —Strike or other labor dispute
- § 14:4 — —Economic hardship
- § 14:5 — —Failure of specific source
- § 14:6 —Causal connection between triggering event and performance
- § 14:7 —Nonoccurrence of triggering event is basic assumption of the parties
- § 14:8 — —Unforeseeability
- § 14:9 — —Availability of alternative method of performance
- § 14:10 Application—Parties that may assert defense
- § 14:11 —Allocation of goods
- § 14:12 —No reinstatement of the contract
- § 14:13 —Assumption of risk of occurrence of triggering event
- § 14:14 Conclusion and recommendations

CHAPTER 15. ARTICLE 2: WARRANTIES

- § 15:1 Overview
- § 15:2 Consumer warranties
- § 15:3 Warranty of title and patent infringement—Title
- § 15:4 —Patent infringement
- § 15:5 Express warranties—Affirmations
- § 15:6 — —Restatement of other's affirmation
- § 15:7 —Reliance requirement
- § 15:8 —General concept
- § 15:9 —Illustrative cases—Duration of warranty
- § 15:10 — —It is a matter for the jury to determine how precisely the seller could be held to a statement, whether it be in a catalogue or a generally accepted condition
- § 15:11 — —Intention to make a warranty is not required
- § 15:12 — —Statute of limitations
- § 15:13 — —Statutes of repose
- § 15:14 — —Statements of the seller's representative, if within the scope of his or her knowledge, can expand or modify the seller's express warranty
- § 15:15 — —Adoption of warranties is possible; deviations from specifications in a brochure do not nullify the warranty where the brochure permits such deviation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 15:16 — —Opinion or puffery versus express warranties
- § 15:17 — —An express warranty takes precedence over an implied warranty of merchantability when the terms of the warranties are inconsistent
- § 15:18 Merchantability
- § 15:19 —Sale required
- § 15:20 —Determining ordinary use
- § 15:21 — —Foreseeability of use
- § 15:22 —Used goods
- § 15:23 —Presence of warnings
- § 15:24 —Food
- § 15:25 —Component parts doctrine
- § 15:26 Fitness for a particular purpose
- § 15:27 Requirement that goods be defective
- § 15:28 —Design defect
- § 15:29 —Malfunction theory
- § 15:30 Special situations—Warranty chains
- § 15:31 —Assignment of warranties
- § 15:32 —Services
- § 15:33 —Warranties from a manufacturer when the buyer buys from a distributor
- § 15:34 — —Manufacturer was held to have made a unilateral offer that the buyer could accept through the distributor, creating privity of contract
- § 15:35 — —Retailer cannot rely on manufacturer's disclaimer of warranties to protect it from suit; there must be a separate disclaimer in writing
- § 15:36 — —Courts will reach equitable results where the seller makes a sale by misinforming the consumer
- § 15:37 — —An exception to the rule of privity exists where the manufacturer knows of specific requirements of the buyer and manufactures the goods accordingly
- § 15:38 — —Third-party beneficiary
- § 15:39 — —Abolition of the privity requirement
- § 15:40 — —Some illustrative car dealership cases
- § 15:41 —Warranties from a manufacturer in third-party leasing deal
- § 15:42 —Warranties from a manufacturer when the buyer buys from a catalog that includes warranty information

- § 15:43 —Custom-made goods
- § 15:44 —Examination or opportunity to examine goods
- § 15:45 Notice of breach
- § 15:46 Damages for breach of warranty
- § 15:47 Warranty disclaimers and remedy limitations—
Introduction—The seller’s normal approach
- § 15:48 — —Timing
- § 15:49 — —Exceptions to the enforceability of the seller’s disclaimers and limitations—Fraud
- § 15:50 — — —The battle of the forms
- § 15:51 — — —Disclaimers must be conspicuous
- § 15:52 — — —Express warranties versus general disclaimers
- § 15:53 — — —Unconscionability
- § 15:54 — — —Ambiguity
- § 15:55 — — —Failure to raise as affirmative defense
- § 15:56 — — —Failure of essential purpose
- § 15:57 —Disclaimers of warranties—Generally
- § 15:58 — —The “as is” disclaimer
- § 15:59 — —“As is” language is ineffective to disclaim the warranty of title
- § 15:60 — —“As is” disclaimers must be conspicuous
- § 15:61 —Limitations on remedies—Repair or replacement
- § 15:62 — —Failure of essential purpose
- § 15:63 — — —Substantial compliance
- § 15:64 — — —Jury instructions
- § 15:65 — —Revocation and failure of essential purpose
- § 15:66 — —Illustrative cases—Failure of the essential purpose of a remedy gives the buyer all normal rights under the UCC
- § 15:67 — — —Failure of remedy limitation to fully compensate the buyer
- § 15:68 — — —Full refund remedy cannot fail of essential purpose
- § 15:69 — — —Latent defects
- § 15:70 — — —Seller’s backup remedies
- § 15:71 — —Limitation of liability clauses

CHAPTER 16. ARTICLE 2A: LEASES

- § 16:1 Introduction—History of Article 2A
- § 16:2 —Scope
- § 16:3 —Lease versus security interest

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 16:4	— —Definitions
§ 16:5	— —Application—Financing arrangement
§ 16:6	— — —True lease
§ 16:7	— — —Terminal rent adjustment clause
§ 16:8	Construction of a lease contract—Formation issues
§ 16:9	— —Privity
§ 16:10	— —Statute of frauds
§ 16:11	—Unconscionable provisions (§ 2A-108)
§ 16:12	—Warranties
§ 16:13	— —Express warranties (§ 2A-210)
§ 16:14	— —Implied warranties (§§ 2A-212 and 2A-213)
§ 16:15	— —Warranties against interference and infringement (§ 2A-211)
§ 16:16	— —Exclusion or modification of warranties (§ 2A-214)
§ 16:17	Construction of a lease contract—Warranties—Third-party beneficiaries (§ 2A-216)
§ 16:18	Construction of a lease contract—Risk of loss (§§ 2A-219, 2A-220, and 2A-221)
§ 16:19	—Parol evidence
§ 16:20	Effect of the lease contract—Transfer of lease rights and duties—In general (§ 2A-303)
§ 16:21	— —Lessor's sale of leased property (§ 2A-301)
§ 16:22	— —Subsequent lease of goods by lessor (§ 2A-304) or sale or sublease of goods by lessee (§ 2A-305)
§ 16:23	—Lien priorities (§§ 2A-306 and 2A-307)
§ 16:24	—Fixtures (§ 2A-309)
§ 16:25	—Accessions (§ 2A-310)
§ 16:26	—Indemnification
§ 16:27	—Insurance
§ 16:28	Buyer in the ordinary course (§ 2A-403)
§ 16:29	Effect of the lease contract—Accord and satisfaction
§ 16:30	Breach—Default
§ 16:31	—Statute of limitations
§ 16:32	—Acceptance
§ 16:33	— —Condition precedent
§ 16:34	—Remedies—Lessee (§ 2A-508 through § 2A-522)
§ 16:35	— — —Rejection of goods
§ 16:36	— — —Revocation of acceptance (§§ 2A-516 and 2A-517)

UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

- § 16:37 — — —Cover (§ 2A-518)
- § 16:38 — — —Noncover damages
- § 16:39 — — —Lessee (§§ 2A-508 through 2A-522)—Tort claims
- § 16:40 — — —Lessor (§§ 2A-523 through 2A-531)
- § 16:41 — — —Right to possess the goods (§ 2A-525)
- § 16:42 — — —Right to stop delivery of the goods (§ 2A-526)
- § 16:43 — — —Right to dispose of the goods (§ 2A-527)
- § 16:44 — — —Damages if lessor retains the goods (§ 2A-528)
- § 16:45 — — —Action for the rent (§ 2A-529)
- § 16:46 — — —Bankruptcy
- § 16:47 — — —Modifications or impairment (§ 2A-503)
- § 16:48 —Liquidated damages
- § 16:49 —Interest
- § 16:50 Strict liability
- § 16:51 Cancellation and termination
- § 16:52 Finance leases—Definition
- § 16:53 —Qualifications of finance lessor
- § 16:54 —Special rules for finance leases—Lessee under finance lease as beneficiary of supply contract (§ 2A-209)
- § 16:55 — — —Warranties—Warranty of infringement (§ 2A-211(2))
- § 16:56 — — —Implied warranties (§§ 2A-212(1) and 2A-213)
- § 16:57 — — —Risk of loss (§ 2A-219(1) and 2A-220)
- § 16:58 — — —Casualty to the goods (§ 2A-221)
- § 16:59 — — —Excused performance (§§ 2A-405(c) and 2A-406(1)(b))
- § 16:60 — — —Irrevocable promises (§ 2A-407)
- § 16:61 — — —Revocation of acceptance (§§ 2A-516(2) and 2A-517(1)(a) and (2))
- § 16:62 — — —Defenses—Fraudulent inducement
- § 16:63 — — —Unconscionability
- § 16:64 — — —Impracticability and frustration of purpose
- § 16:65 — — —Fraud
- § 16:66 — — —Assignment of security interest
- § 16:67 — — —Interference
- § 16:68 — — —Mitigation of damages
- § 16:69 — — —Illegal use of goods
- § 16:70 — — —Failure of acceptance

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 16:71	— —Agency
§ 16:72	— —Close connection doctrine
§ 16:73	— —Good faith
§ 16:74	— —Failure of consideration
§ 16:75	—Disposition of equipment

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 17. ARTICLE 3: NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

- § 17:1 Introduction
- § 17:2 Definition of terms
- § 17:3 Jurisdiction
- § 17:4 Basic rules for checks under the Uniform
Commercial Code
- § 17:5 —Rules of construction
- § 17:6 —Application
- § 17:7 —Statute of limitations
- § 17:8 Presentment
- § 17:9 Cashier's and certified checks
- § 17:10 Forgeries
- § 17:11 —Impostors and fictitious payees (§ 3-404)
- § 17:12 —Fraudulent indorsement by employee (§§ 1-201, 3-302, 3-303, 3-405)
- § 17:13 —Negligence contributing to forgery (§ 3-406)
- § 17:14 —Conversion
- § 17:15 — —Missing endorsement
- § 17:16 Payment by mistake (§ 3-418)
- § 17:17 Accommodation parties (U.C.C. § 3-419)
- § 17:18 "Properly payable"
- § 17:19 —Joint check
- § 17:20 Accord and satisfaction
- § 17:21 Promissory notes
- § 17:22 —Lost, stolen, or destroyed
- § 17:23 Amendments to Articles 3 and 4
- § 17:24 Conclusion

CHAPTER 18. ARTICLE 4: BANK DEPOSITS AND COLLECTIONS

- § 18:1 Introduction
- § 18:2 Preemption
- § 18:3 Definition of terms
- § 18:4 Basic rules for checks under the Uniform
Commercial Code

- § 18:5 —Period for cashing/depositing/dishonoring checks
- § 18:6 —Statute of limitations
- § 18:7 Warranties
- § 18:8 —Transfer warranties
- § 18:9 —Presentment warranties (§ 4-208)
- § 18:10 Duties of payor bank and drawer
- § 18:11 —Duty of the bank
- § 18:12 —Duty of customer
- § 18:13 —Allocation of loss
- § 18:14 —Interpretive case decisions
- § 18:15 Availability of funds
- § 18:16 “Properly payable”
- § 18:17 Statute of limitations
- § 18:18 Amendments to Articles 3 and 4
- § 18:19 Conclusion

CHAPTER 19. ARTICLE 4A—FUNDS TRANSFERS

- § 19:1 Background
- § 19:2 What is a “bank” for purposes of Article 4A?
- § 19:3 When is an instruction a “payment order” under 4A?
- § 19:4 Liability for unauthorized or erroneous payment orders—Acceptance and rejection of payment orders
- § 19:5 —Cancellation of payment orders
- § 19:6 —Security procedures
- § 19:7 —Customer’s duty to provide notification of unauthorized transfers
- § 19:8 —Necessity of an identifiable beneficiary
- § 19:9 —Allocation of loss for improper or uncompleted funds transfers and right to restitution from wrongful beneficiary
- § 19:10 — —Mistake of Fact Doctrine and Discharge for Value Rule
- § 19:11 — —Debt must be preexisting and liquidated in order for beneficiary to be able to raise defense of discharge for value
- § 19:12 Originator’s right to recover consequential damages resulting from incomplete, delayed, or erroneous funds transfers
- § 19:13 Originator’s right to object to debit of account
- § 19:14 Obligation of intermediary banks to respond to creditor process and court orders

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 19:15 Common law actions
- § 19:16 Statute of repose
- § 19:17 Indemnification

CHAPTER 20. ARTICLE 5: LETTERS OF CREDIT

- § 20:1 Letters of credit defined
- § 20:2 —What is a letter of credit?
- § 20:3 —How do you obtain a letter of credit?
- § 20:4 Jurisdiction
- § 20:5 Standing
- § 20:6 Statute of limitations
- § 20:7 Fundamental principles
- § 20:8 —Documents only
- § 20:9 —Rule of independence
- § 20:10 — —Application
- § 20:11 — —Uniform Customs and Practices for Documentary Credits versus Uniform Commercial Code
- § 20:12 — —Effect of court order
- § 20:13 — —Breach of warranty
- § 20:14 —Strict compliance
- § 20:15 — —Ambiguity
- § 20:16 — —Immaterial or insignificant discrepancies
- § 20:17 — —Material discrepancies
- § 20:18 — —Notice
- § 20:19 — —Identity of the parties
- § 20:20 — —Original documents
- § 20:21 — — —Amendments
- § 20:22 — —Quantity of goods
- § 20:23 — —Incorrect documents
- § 20:24 — —Strict compliance versus substantial compliance
- § 20:25 — —Waiver of strict compliance by issuer
- § 20:26 Terms and conditions
- § 20:27 —Binding promise to pay
- § 20:28 —Expiration date
- § 20:29 —Legal status of beneficiary
- § 20:30 —Revocable/irrevocable
- § 20:31 —Amount of draw
- § 20:32 —Transferability/assignment
- § 20:33 —Transferability/assignment—Assignment by statute

- § 20:34 —Amendments
- § 20:35 — —Contract Negotiations
- § 20:36 — —Consent of the beneficiary
- § 20:37 —Choice of law provision
- § 20:38 Relation to underlying claim—Terms
- § 20:39 —Statute of limitations
- § 20:40 Relation to the underlying claim—Anti-deficiency statutes
- § 20:41 Issues affecting payability
- § 20:42 —The fraud exception
- § 20:43 — —Fraud in the transaction
- § 20:44 — —Injunctions
- § 20:45 —Mistake
- § 20:46 —Forgery
- § 20:47 —Bankruptcy
- § 20:48 — —Foundation
- § 20:49 — —Insolvent account party
- § 20:50 — — —Excess funds
- § 20:51 — — —Automatic stay
- § 20:52 — — —Preferential transfers
- § 20:53 — — —Claim against estate
- § 20:54 — — —Ipso facto clause
- § 20:55 — —Insolvent beneficiary
- § 20:56 —Receivership
- § 20:57 Standby letters of credit—Generally
- § 20:58 —Areas of use
- § 20:59 —Issuing bank’s risk
- § 20:60 —Distinguished from guaranties
- § 20:61 —Standby letters of credit as deposits
- § 20:62 —Standby security for performance
- § 20:63 —Standby as a documentary letter of credit
- § 20:64 —Trade accounts receivable
- § 20:65 —Assumption
- § 20:66 —Warranties
- § 20:67 —Expiration date
- § 20:68 Attorneys fees
- § 20:69 Prejudgment interest
- § 20:70 Standby letters of credit—Drafting suggestions

CHAPTER 21. ARTICLE 6: THE BULK SALES ACT

- § 21:1 Introduction

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 21:2	Bulk sales law: Three alternatives
§ 21:3	Former Article 6—The definitions in the former law
§ 21:4	— —Which transactions are subject to the law?—Transfer of assets requirement
§ 21:5	— — —Transfer in settlement or realization of lien or security interest is not within the Bulk Sales Act
§ 21:6	— — —Sales from inventory/stock requirement
§ 21:7	— —Construing the terms of the definition
§ 21:8	—Exceptions where compliance is not required
§ 21:9	—The substantive rule: Notification
§ 21:10	— —Compiling a list of creditors
§ 21:11	— —Notifying the creditors
§ 21:12	— —Notice compliance may not insulate buyer from related fraud claims
§ 21:13	— —Waiver of notice requirements may preclude status as good faith transferee under Bankruptcy Code
§ 21:14	—Statute of limitations
§ 21:15	—Waiver by acceptance of payment
§ 21:16	—Buyer's duty to see that creditors are paid (optional)
§ 21:17	—The tax law
§ 21:18	—Recovery
§ 21:19	Revised Article 6
§ 21:20	—The definitions in the revised law
§ 21:21	—Exceptions where compliance is not required
§ 21:22	—The substantive rule: Notification
§ 21:23	—Transferee's duty to see that creditors are paid
§ 21:24	—Liability for failure to comply
§ 21:25	—Statute of limitations
§ 21:26	Practical application of the Bulk Sales Act—The Bulk Sales Act in practice—Agreements to waive application
§ 21:27	— —Difficulty in application
§ 21:28	— —Failure of the Bulk Sales Act remedy
§ 21:29	—When should the bulk sales law be used?

CHAPTER 22. ARTICLE 7: DOCUMENTS OF TITLE

§ 22:1	Introduction
§ 22:2	Documents of title

- § 22:3 —Warehouse receipts
- § 22:4 — —Form
- § 22:5 — —Duty of care
- § 22:6 —Bills of lading
- § 22:7 — —Duty of care
- § 22:8 — — —Condition of goods
- § 22:9 — — —Creation of duty
- § 22:10 — —Consignor's right to divert or reconsign shipment
- § 22:11 — —Priority of purchaser of bill of lading
- § 22:12 — —Carrier's right to storage expenses
- § 22:13 — —Through bills of lading
- § 22:14 —Other documents of title
- § 22:15 Liability
- § 22:16 —Burden of proof
- § 22:17 —Misdelivery of goods
- § 22:18 — —Unauthorized alteration of bills of lading
- § 22:19 — —Failure to require surrender of bill of lading
- § 22:20 —Limitation of liability
- § 22:21 — —Warehouse
- § 22:22 — —Carriers
- § 22:23 —Conversion
- § 22:24 —Damages
- § 22:25 Negotiation of documents of title—Negotiability
- § 22:26 —Requirements of due negotiation
- § 22:27 Conclusion

CHAPTER 23. ARTICLE 8: INVESTMENT SECURITIES

- § 23:1 Background—Scope of Article 8
- § 23:2 —What is a “security” under Article 8?
- § 23:3 The presumption of authenticity of signatures
- § 23:4 Acquisition of rights in a security by a purchaser and the elements needed to qualify as a protected purchaser
- § 23:5 When transfer of a security is deemed to have occurred
- § 23:6 Obligation of issuer to register transfer of a properly presented certificate or transfer order
- § 23:7 Restrictions on transfer
- § 23:8 Issuer's right to demand guarantees for indorsements—Warranty of signature

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 23:9 —Person entitled to rely on guarantees furnished under § 8-306
- § 23:10 The rights and remedies of a recipient of overissued stock
- § 23:11 Necessity of complying with Article 8's statute of frauds for transactions prior to 1994
- § 23:12 Entrustment of shares to securities intermediaries

CHAPTER 24. ARTICLE 9: SECURED TRANSACTIONS

- § 24:1 Introduction
- § 24:2 Attachment of a security interest
- § 24:3 —The need for a security agreement
- § 24:4 — —The American Card case
- § 24:5 — —The In re Bollinger case
- § 24:6 — —Some courts will infer the parties' intent
- § 24:7 — —Some courts refuse to infer the parties'
intent
- § 24:8 — —Conclusion
- § 24:9 —The giving of value
- § 24:10 —Debtor's rights in the collateral
- § 24:11 Perfection of a security interest
- § 24:12 —Perfection by possession
- § 24:13 —Automatic perfection—Purchase money security interests
- § 24:14 —Perfection by control
- § 24:15 — —Investment property
- § 24:16 — —Electronic chattel paper
- § 24:17 — —Deposit account
- § 24:18 — —Letter-of-credit rights
- § 24:19 —Perfection by filing
- § 24:20 — —Recording errors
- § 24:21 — —Period of effectiveness
- § 24:22 — —Termination
- § 24:23 Financing statements
- § 24:24 —Description of the collateral
- § 24:25 — —Collateral description sufficient
- § 24:26 — —Collateral description insufficient
- § 24:27 —Debtor's name
- § 24:28 —Statement ineffective because seriously misleading (U.C.C. § 9-506)

UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

- § 24:29 —Where to file
- § 24:30 —When to file
- § 24:31 —Signature requirement
- § 24:32 —Amendments
- § 24:33 —Filing continuation statements
- § 24:34 Types of collateral
- § 24:35 —Goods
- § 24:36 —Accounts and general intangibles
- § 24:37 —Commercial tort claims
- § 24:38 —Documents, instruments, and chattel paper
- § 24:39 Proceeds of the collateral
- § 24:40 Where to file under 1999 amendments
- § 24:41 Pre-1999 amendments—Perfection in multistate transactions—Basic rules
- § 24:42 — —Perfection of documents, instruments, and ordinary goods
- § 24:43 — —Perfection of accounts, general intangibles, and mobile goods
- § 24:44 — —Perfection of chattel paper
- § 24:45 Perfection in multistate transactions after 1999 amendments
- § 24:46 Priorities
- § 24:47 —The rules
- § 24:48 —First in time, first in right
- § 24:49 —Contractual rights
- § 24:50 —Purchase money security interest
- § 24:51 —Conversion
- § 24:52 —Priority of future advances
- § 24:53 —Buyers in the ordinary course of business
- § 24:54 —Unperfected security interests
- § 24:55 —Fixtures
- § 24:56 —Leasehold interests
- § 24:57 —Statutory liens
- § 24:58 —Judgment liens
- § 24:59 —Setoff
- § 24:60 —Joint check agreements
- § 24:61 Default
- § 24:62 —Creditor's options upon debtor's default
- § 24:63 —Creditor's options once in possession of the collateral
- § 24:64 — —Notice of sale
- § 24:65 — —Statute of limitations
- § 24:66 —Debtor's right of redemption

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 24:67	Leases as security interests
§ 24:68	Consignments—Protection of creditors
§ 24:69	—Consignments versus bailments
§ 24:70	Security interests in copyrights, trademarks, and patents
§ 24:71	Conclusion

Bibliography

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index