

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. AN OVERVIEW OF THE HOMICIDE TRIAL IN ILLINOIS

- § 1:1 The trial of a homicide case
- § 1:2 The duties of the State's Attorney in the prosecution of a homicide case

CHAPTER 2. HOMICIDE AND RELATED CRIMES IN ILLINOIS

- § 2:1 The sources of homicide law (state and federal)
- § 2:2 Classification of homicides in Illinois
- § 2:3 Accelerated death (euthanasia, living wills, etc.)
- § 2:4 The law that applies in point of time

CHAPTER 3. THE CRIMINAL ACT AND THE REQUIRED MENTAL STATE

- § 3:1 The Criminal Act and the required mental state, generally
- § 3:2 The required mental state
- § 3:3 The intent to commit the offense charged
- § 3:4 The defendant's knowledge in committing the offense charged
- § 3:5 The defendant's recklessness in committing the offense charged
- § 3:6 The defendant's negligence in committing the offense charged
- § 3:7 Accident or misadventure not resulting in criminal liability

CHAPTER 4. FIRST DEGREE MURDER

- § 4:1 First-degree murder
- § 4:2 The sentences for first degree murder
- § 4:3 Consecutive sentences of natural life and 10 years for murder
- § 4:4 Distinction between first degree and second degree murder and between murder and manslaughter

- § 4:5 The intent to kill
- § 4:6 The intent to commit great bodily harm
- § 4:7 The doctrine of transferred intent
- § 4:8 The defendant's act as the cause of death
- § 4:9 Accountability for murder—Common design rule
- § 4:10 Instructing on accountability in homicide cases
- § 4:11 The sufficiency of the evidence to convict for first degree murder

CHAPTER 5. THE BURDEN OF PROOF IN FIRST DEGREE MURDER CASE

- § 5:1 The burden of proof and proof of facts, in homicide cases, generally
- § 5:2 The burden of proof in first-degree murder cases
- § 5:3 The burden of proving corpus delicti in murder cases
- § 5:4 The burden of proving motive
- § 5:5 The burden of proving the identity of the killer
- § 5:6 The burden of proving the identity of the victim
- § 5:7 The burden of proving causal connection between defendant's act and the death
- § 5:8 Effect of withdrawal of life support from victim
- § 5:9 The burden of proving time of and other facts surrounding the death
- § 5:10 The burden of proving intent to kill
- § 5:11 Sufficiency of the evidence to convict for first degree murder
- § 5:12 —Accountability and common design
- § 5:13 The burden of proving “personal discharge of a firearm”

CHAPTER 6. FELONY MURDER

- § 6:1 Felony murder—The proximate cause doctrine
- § 6:2 The predicate felony underlying a charge of felony-murder
- § 6:3 The “felony murder escape” rule
- § 6:4 Sufficiency of evidence to convict of felony murder
- § 6:5 Withdrawal from forcible felony as defense to felony murder
- § 6:6 Double enhancement in felony murder cases
- § 6:7 Felony murder and juvenile defendants

CHAPTER 7. ATTEMPTED MURDER

- § 7:1 Attempted murder, generally

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:2 The substantial step requirement for attempted murder
- § 7:3 The intent required to establish attempted murder
- § 7:4 Accountability for attempted murder
- § 7:5 Abandonment as a defense to attempted murder
- § 7:6 Impossibility as defense to attempted murder
- § 7:7 The “deadly weapon” used in attempted murder
- § 7:8 The preemption bar to prosecution under the general attempt statute
- § 7:9 The transferred intent doctrine in attempted murder cases
- § 7:10 Separate convictions for separate acts in attempted murder case
- § 7:11 Lesser-included offenses in attempted murder cases
- § 7:12 Self-defense as a defense to attempted murder
- § 7:13 Instructing on lesser-included offenses in attempted murder cases
- § 7:14 Evidence in attempted murder cases
- § 7:15 Other bad acts evidence in attempted murder cases
- § 7:16 Closing arguments in attempted murder cases
- § 7:17 Jury instructions in attempted murder cases
- § 7:18 The verdict in attempted murder cases
- § 7:19 Sentencing for attempted murder
- § 7:20 Sufficiency of the evidence to convict for attempted first degree murder
- § 7:21 Sentencing for attempted murder when a firearm is involved in the crime
- § 7:22 Imposing consecutive sentences in an attempted murder case

CHAPTER 8. SECOND DEGREE MURDER [FORMERLY VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER]

- § 8:1 Second-degree murder
- § 8:2 Sufficiency of evidence to convict for second degree murder
- § 8:3 Second-degree murder as a lesser included offense of first degree murder
- § 8:4 Lesser included offenses of second degree murder
- § 8:5 The application of the one act, one crime rule to second-degree murder

- § 8:6 The burden of proof in second degree murder cases
- § 8:7 Attempted second degree murder
- § 8:8 Second degree murder jury instructions
- § 8:9 The verdict in second degree murder cases
- § 8:10 Sentencing for second degree murder
- § 8:11 Drug-induced homicide

CHAPTER 9. “SERIOUS PROVOCATION” AS A MITIGATING FACTOR

- § 9:1 Proof of provocation—Sudden and intense passion
- § 9:2 Threats or “mere words” as sufficient provocation
- § 9:3 Infidelity of marital discord as sufficient provocation
- § 9:4 Minor altercation or words as sufficient provocation

CHAPTER 10. SELF DEFENSE AS DEFENSE OR MITIGATING FACTOR IN HOMICIDE

- § 10:1 Self defense as a defense in homicide cases
- § 10:2 Justifiable use of force to reduce first degree murder to second degree murder
- § 10:3 Self-defense as a defense to felony murder
- § 10:4 The burden of proof on prosecution and defense
- § 10:5 Reasonableness of defendant’s belief that killing was justified
- § 10:6 Use of force in defense of person
- § 10:7 Mutual combat as sufficient provocation
- § 10:8 Determining aggressor in mutual combat
- § 10:9 Duty of aggressor to retreat
- § 10:10 Use of force by aggressor
- § 10:11 Use of force in defense of dwelling
- § 10:12 Use of force in defense of other property
- § 10:13 Peace officer’s use of force in making arrest
- § 10:14 Private person’s use of force in making arrest
- § 10:15 Private person’s use of force in resisting arrest
- § 10:16 Force likely to cause death or great bodily harm
- § 10:17 Use of force to prevent escape
- § 10:18 The battered woman defense
- § 10:19 Evidence of character of victim
- § 10:20 Evidence of character of defendant

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:21 Evidence of threats by victim
- § 10:22 Evidence of threats by defendant
- § 10:23 Applying doctrine of transferred intent to exonerate defendant for killing third person in self-defense
- § 10:24 Instructing jury on justifiable use of force
- § 10:25 Sufficiency of evidence to establish self defense to reduce first degree to second degree murder

CHAPTER 11. MURDER RELATED CRIMES—INCHOATE OFFENSES

- § 11:1 Conspiracy to commit murder
- § 11:2 Admissibility of statements by murder coconspirators
- § 11:3 Jury instructions in conspiracy cases
- § 11:4 Solicitation of murder
- § 11:5 The entrapment defense to a solicitation of murder charge
- § 11:6 Solicitation of murder for hire
- § 11:7 Conviction of defendant for both the underlying principal offenses and an inchoate offense
- § 11:8 Instructions in solicitation case

CHAPTER 12. INVOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER

- § 12:1 Involuntary manslaughter
- § 12:2 Conviction of involuntary manslaughter based on accountability
- § 12:3 Involuntary manslaughter distinguished from murder
- § 12:4 Involuntary manslaughter when victim is a family or household member

CHAPTER 13. RECKLESS HOMICIDE

- § 13:1 Reckless homicide
- § 13:2 Reckless homicide based on driving under the influence
- § 13:3 Lesser included offenses of reckless homicide
- § 13:4 Sufficiency of evidence to convict for reckless homicide

CHAPTER 14. OTHER UNLAWFUL HOMICIDES

- § 14:1 Voluntary homicide of unborn child
- § 14:2 Reckless homicide of unborn child
- § 14:3 Intentional homicide of unborn child
- § 14:4 Drug-induced homicide
- § 14:5 Coerced and assisted suicide

CHAPTER 15. OTHER HOMICIDE RELATED CRIMES

- § 15:1 Concealment of homicidal death
- § 15:2 Sufficiency of evidence to convict for concealment of homicidal death
- § 15:3 Consecutive sentence based on concealment of homicidal death
- § 15:4 Conviction for accountability in relation to concealment of homicidal death
- § 15:5 Concealment of homicidal death as lesser included crime
- § 15:6 Homicide by a corporation
- § 15:7 Dismemberment of a human body

CHAPTER 16. PRETRIAL PROCEDURES

- § 16:1 Jurisdiction and venue in homicide cases
- § 16:2 Arrest, search and seizure of homicide suspect
- § 16:3 Suppression of evidence obtained as product of illegal search and seizure
- § 16:4 Burden of proving venue in homicide cases
- § 16:5 The applicability of Apprendi v. New Jersey to homicide cases
- § 16:6 Compliance with requirements of Apprendi
- § 16:7 Limitations of actions for homicide
- § 16:8 Limit on time between criminal act and death
- § 16:9 Recusal of the judge
- § 16:10 Change of venue
- § 16:11 Pretrial release in homicide cases
- § 16:12 Trial in absence of defendant
- § 16:13 Right to speedy trial
- § 16:14 Fitness to stand trial
- § 16:15 The plea of guilty to homicide
- § 16:16 Withdrawal of plea of guilty to homicide
- § 16:17 Pretrial motions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 16:18 Disqualification of judge
- § 16:19 Sufficiency of indictment
- § 16:20 Amendments to indictment, information or complaint
- § 16:21 Motions in limine
- § 16:22 Trial of juveniles under the Criminal Laws of Illinois
- § 16:23 Confessions by juveniles
- § 16:24 Search of homicide scene without warrant
- § 16:25 Search of homicide scene with search warrant—
Franks hearing
- § 16:26 Discovery in homicide cases
- § 16:27 Disinterment of body of alleged homicide victim
- § 16:28 Closure at trial
- § 16:29 The illegal detention of a crime suspect as a fourth amendment violation
- § 16:30 Material witnesses

CHAPTER 17. RIGHT TO COUNSEL

- § 17:1 The right to counsel in homicide cases
- § 17:2 The waiver of the right to counsel
- § 17:3 Need for unambiguous request for counsel
- § 17:4 The pro se defendant
- § 17:5 The right to conflict-free representation
- § 17:6 The right to the effective assistance of counsel
- § 17:7 The enforcement of the right to effective assistance of counsel
- § 17:8 Determining whether a defendant has received effective assistance
- § 17:9 Conduct held to be ineffective assistance of counsel
- § 17:10 Conduct held not to be ineffective assistance of
counsel
- § 17:11 Effectiveness of post-conviction counsel

CHAPTER 18. DEFENSES IN HOMICIDE CASES

- § 18:1 Defenses in homicide cases, generally
- § 18:2 Affirmative defenses
- § 18:3 Notice of defenses and alibi
- § 18:4 Consent
- § 18:5 Absence of a required mental state as a defense

- § 18:6 Contributory negligence
- § 18:7 Alibi
- § 18:8 Former (double) jeopardy
- § 18:9 Compulsion as defense in homicide case
- § 18:10 Instructing on compulsion in homicide case
- § 18:11 Intoxication or drugged condition in a homicide case
- § 18:12 Absence of legal or contractual duty
- § 18:13 Ignorance or mistake
- § 18:14 Accident
- § 18:15 Abandonment or withdrawal
- § 18:16 Impossibility as defense
- § 18:17 Res judicata
- § 18:18 Judicial estoppel
- § 18:19 Necessity
- § 18:20 Guilt of another person as defense
- § 18:21 Lack of proper jurisdiction or venue in homicide cases
- § 18:22 Prejudicial delay in prosecution

CHAPTER 19. THE DEFENSES OF INSANITY AND GUILTY BUT MENTALLY ILL

- § 19:1 Insanity as a defense in homicide cases
- § 19:2 Instructing on insanity
- § 19:3 Proof and burden of proof of defense of mental illness
- § 19:4 The finding of guilty but mentally ill
- § 19:5 Instructing as to finding defendant guilty but mentally ill
- § 19:6 Proceedings after acquittal by reason of insanity [730 ILCS 5/5-2-4]
- § 19:7 Sentencing and treatment of defendant found guilty but mentally ill [730 ILCS 5/5-2-6]

CHAPTER 20. HOMICIDE TRIAL PROCEDURES

- § 20:1 Homicide trial procedures
- § 20:2 Nolle prosequi
- § 20:3 The conduct of the judge
- § 20:4 Judge, prosecutor, or news reporter as special witness

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 20:5	The conduct of the defense attorney
§ 20:6	The conduct of the prosecutor
§ 20:7	Special prosecutor in homicide cases
§ 20:8	Brady violation in murder prosecution
§ 20:9	Publicity before and during trial
§ 20:10	The arraignment in homicide cases
§ 20:11	Motions during trial
§ 20:12	Discovery and disclosures in homicide cases
§ 20:13	Continuances
§ 20:14	Nonjury trials
§ 20:15	Rights of the defendant
§ 20:16	Right of defendant to testify and its waiver
§ 20:17	Right to confront witnesses
§ 20:18	Opening statements
§ 20:19	Privileged communications and information
§ 20:20	Mistrials
§ 20:21	Warning witness by judge or prosecutor about perjury
§ 20:22	Competency of witnesses
§ 20:23	Examination of witnesses
§ 20:24	Impeachment of witnesses
§ 20:25	Impeaching defendant with prior conviction
§ 20:26	Admissibility of evidence of defendant's other offenses and actions as exception to hearsay rule
§ 20:27	Cross-examination of witnesses
§ 20:28	Order of proof—Right to reopen case
§ 20:29	The doctrine of invited error
§ 20:30	Sanctions against prosecutor or defense counsel

CHAPTER 21. JURY TRIALS

§ 21:1	Right to jury trial and its waiver
§ 21:2	The jury selection process in homicide cases
§ 21:3	Voir dire
§ 21:4	Adequacy of jury's acceptance of the defendant's rights
§ 21:5	Matters proper for investigation on voir dire
§ 21:6	Challenge for cause
§ 21:7	Peremptory challenges
§ 21:8	Improper conduct of the jury
§ 21:9	Excessive trial publicity
§ 21:10	Separation of jurors during homicide cases

- § 21:11 Responses by the judge to juror's questions
- § 21:12 Items sent to the jury room
- § 21:13 Urging jury to agree to verdict
- § 21:14 Replacing discharged juror with alternate
- § 21:15 Shackles and other precautions before the jury because of threatened violence
- § 21:16 Dealing with juror bias or misconduct

CHAPTER 22. PROVINCE OF COURT AND JURY

- § 22:1 The province of the court and jury in homicide cases
- § 22:2 Passion
- § 22:3 Intent and premeditation
- § 22:4 Insanity and mental illness
- § 22:5 Relation of felony to death in felony murder case
- § 22:6 Negligence or recklessness
- § 22:7 Causal connection between act and death
- § 22:8 Whether instrument was deadly weapon
- § 22:9 Self-defense
- § 22:10 Aggravating and mitigating factors

CHAPTER 23. EVIDENCE IN HOMICIDE CASES

- § 23:1 The admissibility of evidence in homicide cases,
generally
- § 23:2 The admission of evidence
- § 23:3 The offer of proof
- § 23:4 Harmless admission of inadmissible evidence
- § 23:5 The relevancy of evidence
- § 23:6 Evidence that may prejudice defendant
- § 23:7 Circumstantial evidence
- § 23:8 Evidence of character and reputation
- § 23:9 Admissibility of evidence notwithstanding defendant's willingness to stipulate
- § 23:10 Proof of cause of death
- § 23:11 Defendant as sole cause of death
- § 23:12 Tangible and demonstrative evidence
- § 23:13 Testimony of accomplice
- § 23:14 Admissibility of a weapon
- § 23:15 Searches and seizures (arrests)
- § 23:16 Confessions and admissions by defendant

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 23:17	The Miranda warnings
§ 23:18	Confessions of juveniles
§ 23:19	Corroboration of confession
§ 23:20	When statements by accused in custodial interrogation may be used
§ 23:21	Expert reconstruction evidence
§ 23:22	Eavesdropping evidence
§ 23:23	Proof of identity of the accused as the perpetrator
§ 23:24	Evidence of defendant's state of mind
§ 23:25	The dead man exception for use of victim's prior testimony
§ 23:26	Presumptions and inferences
§ 23:27	Proof of motive
§ 23:28	Proof of intent to kill
§ 23:29	Proof of transferred intent to kill
§ 23:30	Evidence of defendant's behavior at or about the time of the crime
§ 23:31	Evidence of defendant's conduct to show consciousness of guilt
§ 23:32	Evidence of flight and concealment
§ 23:33	Evidence of other offenses by defendant
§ 23:34	Instructing on evaluating eyewitness testimony
§ 23:35	Prior inconsistent statements
§ 23:36	The homicide exception to non-disclosure under health and Confidentiality Act
§ 23:37	Evidence of gang involvement
§ 23:38	The life and death witness (victim identity)
§ 23:39	Prejudicial photographs of victim
§ 23:40	Evidence about the victim and his family
§ 23:41	The defendant's Miranda rights
§ 23:42	The admission of hearsay, generally
§ 23:43	Out-of-court statements that are testimonial
§ 23:44	Right of defendant to cross-examine declarant of out-of-court testimonial statement
§ 23:45	Police communications explanation of investigatory procedure or as hearsay
§ 23:46	Testimony at former trial or proceeding
§ 23:47	Admissibility of witness' statement against penal interest
§ 23:48	Dying declarations
§ 23:49	Hearsay exception for intentional murder of a witness

- § 23:50 Instructing on dying declarations
- § 23:51 Statements of coconspirators
- § 23:52 Testimony of victim's statement after being shot by defendant
- § 23:53 Statements of victim as to state of mind
- § 23:54 Evidence that suggests guilt of another person
- § 23:55 Confessions or admissions by third parties
- § 23:56 The use of opinion evidence, generally
- § 23:57 The use of expert testimony
- § 23:58 Fingerprint evidence
- § 23:59 Polygraph tests
- § 23:60 DNA evidence
- § 23:61 Expert testimony regarding reliability of eyewitness testimony
- § 23:62 Documentary evidence, generally
- § 23:63 Maps, models, diagrams, casts, etc
- § 23:64 Photographs
- § 23:65 Tests and experiments
- § 23:66 Hypnotically enhanced testimony
- § 23:67 Business records
- § 23:68 Social media
- § 23:69 Present sense impressions and spontaneous
declarations
- § 23:70 Evidence of defendant's use of assumed name
- § 23:71 Evidence concerning victim's family
- § 23:72 Sufficiency of evidence to support conviction for first degree murder
- § 23:73 Statements of identification

CHAPTER 24. PRESUMPTIONS AND INFERENCES

- § 24:1 Presumptions and inferences in homicide cases,
generally
- § 24:2 Inference of guilt from possession or disposal of body
- § 24:3 Inference from act of killing
- § 24:4 Inference from use and character of weapon
- § 24:5 Inference of premeditation or deliberation
- § 24:6 Inference of malice
- § 24:7 Inference from blow without weapon
- § 24:8 Malice implied by commission of unlawful act
- § 24:9 The unconstitutionality of mandatory statutory presumptions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 24:10 Inferences based upon conduct

CHAPTER 25. CLOSING ARGUMENTS IN THE GUILT PHASE

- § 25:1 Closing arguments in the guilt phase
- § 25:2 Improper arguments of the prosecutor
- § 25:3 Curing improper arguments of the prosecutor

CHAPTER 26. JURY INSTRUCTIONS IN GUILT PHASE OF HOMICIDE CASE

- § 26:1 Jury instructions in homicide cases, generally
- § 26:2 Checklist: Homicide jury instructions—Illinois pattern jury instructions—Criminal
- § 26:3 The definitions of the grades of homicide as given to the jurors in pattern jury instructions
- § 26:4 Instructing as to causation in homicide cases
- § 26:5 Instructing in first degree murder cases
- § 26:6 Instructing as to lesser-included offense in murder case
- § 26:7 Duty to instruct on involuntary manslaughter in murder prosecution
- § 26:8 Duty of trial court to determine that a defendant who tenders a lesser-included offense has been advised of the potential penalties
- § 26:9 Instructing in solicitation of murder cases
- § 26:10 Instructing in felony murder cases
- § 26:11 Instructing in second-degree murder cases
- § 26:12 Instructing in involuntary manslaughter cases
- § 26:13 Instructing in reckless homicide cases
- § 26:14 Instructing in aggravated reckless homicide cases
- § 26:15 Instructing in concealment of homicidal death cases
- § 26:16 Instructing in intentional homicide of unborn child cases
- § 26:17 Instructing in voluntary manslaughter of unborn child cases
- § 26:18 Instructing in involuntary manslaughter of unborn child cases
- § 26:19 Instructing in reckless homicide of unborn child cases
- § 26:20 Instructing in drug induced homicide cases

- § 26:21 Instructing on death by misadventure
- § 26:22 Instructing on accountability
- § 26:23 Instructing on “intent to kill”
- § 26:24 Instructing on homicide cases involving firearms
- § 26:25 Duty of court to instruct on presumption of innocence and proof beyond reasonable doubt
- § 26:26 Instructing as to factual variations among homicide charges and defenses
- § 26:27 Jury instructions on other bad acts evidence
- § 26:28 Concluding instructions

CHAPTER 27. THE VERDICT IN HOMICIDE CASES

- § 27:1 Verdict in homicide cases
- § 27:2 Verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity
- § 27:3 Inconsistent verdicts in homicide cases
- § 27:4 Convicting of lesser offense in homicide cases
- § 27:5 Convicting of homicide and closely related crime
- § 27:6 Single conviction for a single homicide
- § 27:7 Variance between indictment and proof
- § 27:8 Impeachment of verdict
- § 27:9 Special interrogation in criminal cases
- § 27:10 Need for separate verdict forms for three separate theories of first-degree murder

CHAPTER 27A. POST-CONVICTION PROCEEDING

- § 27A:1 Post-Conviction Hearings—Generally
- § 27A:2 The requirement of an arguable basis in law
- § 27A:3 The postconviction proceeding is not a substitute for an appeal
- § 27A:4 Excusing forfeiture of issues not raised on direct appeal
- § 27A:5 Petition seeking vacation of void judgment
- § 27A:6 Postconviction challenge of violation of federal or state constitutional rights
- § 27A:7 Contents of the petition
- § 27A:8 Timeliness of filing petition for postconviction hearing
- § 27A:9 Actual innocence claims
- § 27A:10 Claims of ineffective legal services
- § 27A:11 Newly discovered evidence

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 27A:12 First and second stages of motion for postconviction relief
- § 27A:13 Successive petitions for postconviction relief
- § 27A:14 Postconviction relief barred by res judicata
- § 27A:15 The use of offensive collateral estoppel
- § 27A:16 Burden on defendant at third stage evidentiary hearing
- § 27A:17 Falsity of DNA testing at trial
- § 27A:18 Dismissal of petition for postconviction relief at third stage

CHAPTER 28. SENTENCING IN HOMICIDE CASES

- § 28:1 Sentencing in homicide cases—Generally
- § 28:2 Proper factors to consider in determining sentence
- § 28:3 Sentencing procedures in first-degree murder cases [730 ILCS 5/5-8-1(a)(1)(b) to (c)]
- § 28:4 Sentencing to natural life for first degree murder where murder indicates wanton cruelty [730 ILCS 5/5-8-1(a)(1)(b)]
- § 28:5 Sentencing to natural life for murdering more than one person
- § 28:6 Sentencing to natural life for first degree murder where certain aggravating factors present [730 ILCS 5/5-8-1(a)(1)(b)]
- § 28:7 Mandatory life sentence for felony murder
- § 28:8 Mandatory life sentence for multiple murders
- § 28:9 Imposing term(s) of years for first degree murder
- § 28:10 Increase of prison sentence for discharge of firearm [730 ILCS 5/5-8-1(a)(1)(d)]
- § 28:11 One act, one crime doctrine
- § 28:12 Sentencing for felony murder
- § 28:13 Sentencing for second degree murder
- § 28:14 Sentencing for involuntary manslaughter
- § 28:15 Sentencing for reckless homicide
- § 28:16 Sentencing for drug-induced homicide
- § 28:17 Sentencing for inchoate homicide crimes
- § 28:18 Factors in aggravation and mitigation to be considered by sentencing judge
- § 28:19 Improper consideration by sentencing judge of factors that are inherent elements of offense

- § 28:20 Improper factors considered by judge in sentencing
- § 28:21 Extended term sentences
- § 28:22 Sentencing a juvenile for homicide
- § 28:23 Concurrent and consecutive sentences
- § 28:24 Offenses committed in single course of conduct
- § 28:25 Proceeding when an enhanced sentence is sought
- § 28:26 Improper double enhancement
- § 28:27 Lesser included offenses of homicide
- § 28:28 Convicting of uncharged lesser included offense
- § 28:29 Appropriateness of sentence for homicide
- § 28:30 Disparate sentence in homicide cases
- § 28:31 Probation in homicide and related cases
- § 28:32 Good conduct and meritorious service credit in homicide and related cases
- § 28:33 Truth-in sentencing in homicide cases
- § 28:34 The mandatory supervised release term (parole)
- § 28:35 Statute applicable to sentencing when law has been changed since date of crime
- § 28:36 The entry of the judgment
- § 28:37 Enforcement of plea agreements
- § 28:38 The abolition of the death penalty in Illinois

CHAPTER 28A. POST-TRIAL PROCEEDINGS

- § 28A:1 The motion to reduce a sentence
- § 28A:2 The motion for a new trial
- § 28A:3 The motion in arrest of judgment
- § 28A:4 The Post Conviction Hearing Act
- § 28A:5 Appellate procedure
- § 28A:6 When a death sentence is reversed
- § 28A:7 Effect of commutation of death sentence
- § 28A:8 Preservation of evidence for forensic testing
- § 28A:9 Post-conviction hearing in homicide cases
- § 28A:10 Post-conviction discovery
- § 28A:11 Intellectual disability and post-conviction relief
- § 28A:12 Motion for fingerprint or forensic testing not available at trial regarding actual innocence
- § 28A:13 Vacatur of final judgment more than 30 days after judgment
- § 28A:14 Appealable orders and judgments

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 28A:15 Notice of appeal

§ 28A:16 Prejudicial error in the conduct of the trial

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index