

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION, DEFINITIONS, AND RESOURCES

- § 1.02 Administrative law
- § 1.03 Definition of an agency
- § 1.05 Guidebook to the organization of Minnesota agencies and their services
- § 1.07 Appointment and removal of agency heads
- § 1.08 The Minnesota Administrative Procedure Act
- § 1.08.2 Inapplicability of the Act to legislative and judicial branches and certain agencies
- § 1.09 The Minnesota Office of Administrative Hearings
- § 1.11 The State Register; Minnesota's Bookstore [Retitled]
- § 1.12 The Minnesota Ethical Practices Act and the administrative process

CHAPTER 2. CREATION OF THE AGENCY: DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

- § 2.03 Federal delegation of legislative power
- § 2.04 Delegation in Minnesota
- § 2.05 Delegation to private entities
- § 2.07 Subdelegation
- § 2.08 Constitutional limitations on agency power: separation of powers and role of the constitutional executive
- § 2.10 Statutory limitations on agency power

CHAPTER 3. AGENCY ACQUISITION OF INFORMATION

- § 3.03.4 Inspection of private premises
- § 3.03.10 Advisory inspections [New]

CHAPTER 4. AGENCY DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

- § 4.01 Agency disclosure of information as an enforcement tool
- § 4.02 The Federal Freedom of Information Act
- § 4.04 The Minnesota Government Data Practices Act
- § 4.04.1 Government entities governed by the Act
- § 4.04.3 Scope of the Data Practices Act; presumption that data are public
- § 4.04.6 Procedure to request information; costs
- § 4.04.7 Rights of the subjects of data
- § 4.04.9 Remedies for nonproduction of requested data

- § 4.05 The Minnesota Open Meeting Law: the general rule is openness
- § 4.05.2 Meeting defined
- § 4.05.3 Exceptions to the requirement of openness
- § 4.05.4 Notice of meetings
- § 4.05.7 Opinions by the commissioner
- § 4.05.8 Enforcement: injunctions
- § 4.05.9 Enforcement: penalties and removal from office

CHAPTER 5. ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

- § 5.01 Definition of a rule
- § 5.03 Authority to adopt rules and grant variances to rules
- § 5.05 Types of rules based on content
- § 5.05.2 Interpretive rules
- § 5.05.4 Other statements of agency policy

CHAPTER 6. RULEMAKING PROCEDURES

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 6.01.1 Federal rulemaking procedures: notice and comment rulemaking
- § 6.02 Minnesota rulemaking procedures
- § 6.03 Exclusions from rulemaking procedures
- § 6.04 Agency's public rulemaking docket

II. RULEMAKING PROCEDURES APPLICABLE TO ALL RULES

- § 6.06 Agency solicitation of advice on contemplated rules
- § 6.09 Petition of an interested party for adoption of a rule
- § 6.14 Repeal of obsolete rules
- § 6.17 Legislative approval of certain rules

III. RULEMAKING PROCEDURES APPLICABLE TO RULES ADOPTED AFTER A PUBLIC HEARING

- § 6.22 Agency statement of need and reasonableness
- § 6.23 Notice of the rulemaking hearing
- § 6.24.2 Preliminary hearing matters: registration of participants and introduction by the judge
- § 6.30 Adoption of the rule
- § 6.33 Filing and publication of the adopted rule; effective date

IV. RULEMAKING PROCEDURES APPLICABLE TO RULES ADOPTED WITHOUT A PUBLIC HEARING

- § 6.36 Dual notice rules
- § 6.37 Agency statement of need and reasonableness
- § 6.41 Approval and filing
- § 6.43 Costs of the administrative law judge's review

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 6.44 Approval of the form of the adopted rule
- § 6.45 Publication of the adopted rule; effective date

V. OTHER RULEMAKING PROVISIONS

- § 6.49 Procedures applicable to rules adopted under the good cause exemption
- § 6.50 Expedited rulemaking
- § 6.53 Negotiated rulemaking
- § 6.56 Policymaking in adjudication: case-by-case rulemaking
- § 6.57 Practice tips for effective rulemaking participation

CHAPTER 7. THE RIGHT TO AN ADJUDICATORY HEARING

II. DUE PROCESS AND THE RIGHT TO A HEARING

- § 7.03 Adjudication distinguished from rulemaking which may also affect important interests
- § 7.07.2 Property interests

III. THE FORM AND TIMING OF A DUE PROCESS HEARING

- § 7.09.2 The risk of erroneous deprivation

CHAPTER 8. THE ADJUDICATION PROCESS: THE DECISIONMAKER

- § 8.01 The administrative law judge: the presiding officer
- § 8.01.2 Structural assurances of independence
- § 8.03 Impartiality and disqualification for bias
- § 8.03.4 Self-interest or an economic stake in the outcome

CHAPTER 9. THE ADJUDICATION PROCESS: CONTESTED CASE HEARING PROCEDURES

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 9.01.2 The administrative procedure act

II. THE PREHEARING PROCESS

- § 9.03 Initiation of a contested case proceeding
- § 9.14 Motions

III. THE HEARING PROCESS

- § 9.27 Disruption of the hearing; penalties
- § 9.31 Burden of proof

CHAPTER 10. THE ADJUDICATION PROCESS: THE DECISION

- § 10.01 The standard of proof
- § 10.02 Sufficiency of the evidence; the residuum rule [Retitled]
- § 10.03 The administrative law judge's report
- § 10.05 The agency's decision
- § 10.06 Written findings of fact and reasons
- § 10.06.2 Adequacy of findings
- § 10.06.5 Penalties and other sanctions
- § 10.09 Agency failure to make a decision
- § 10.11.1 Res judicata
- § 10.11.2 Collateral estoppel
- § 10.12 Consistency: stare decisis; the law of the case
- § 10.13 Equitable estoppel
- § 10.15 Retroactive application of an agency decision

CHAPTER 11. METHODS OF OBTAINING JUDICIAL REVIEW OF AGENCY DECISIONS

- § 11.01 Obtaining judicial review under the Administrative Procedure Act and of quasi-judicial and quasi-legislative actions
- § 11.01.2 Initiating judicial review of a contested case or quasi-judicial decision: the petition for a writ of certiorari
- § 11.01.3 Service of the petition and statement of the case
- § 11.01.5 The record on review; transmissions of the record
- § 11.01.10 Initiating judicial review of a rule: the petition for a declaratory judgment

CHAPTER 12. AVAILABILITY OF REVIEW: REVIEWABILITY AND STANDING

- § 12.01.2 Statutory preclusion of review
- § 12.02 Standing to seek judicial review
- § 12.02.1 An aggrieved party

CHAPTER 13. TIMING OF JUDICIAL REVIEW: EXHAUSTION OF REMEDIES, PRIMARY JURISDICTION, THE FINAL ORDER RULE, AND RIPENESS

- § 13.02 Exhaustion of administrative remedies; the rule and its rationale
- § 13.02.2 Exception to the exhaustion rule: administrative proceedings would be futile
- § 13.03 Primary jurisdiction; the doctrine and its rationale
- § 13.04 The final order rule and its rationale
- § 13.05 Ripeness of the decision for review; the rule and its rationale

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 14. SCOPE OF JUDICIAL REVIEW OF AGENCY ACTION

I. PRESUMPTIONS ON REVIEW

- § 14.01 The presumptions of regularity and correctness; burden of proof on review

II. REVIEW OF RULES

- § 14.02 Scope of review of agency rules
§ 14.02.1 The agency's authority to promulgate the rule § 14.02.2 Compliance with rulemaking procedures
§ 14.02.3 Standard for review of a rule: the arbitrary and capricious test and other tests
§ 14.02.4 The Chevron decision

III. REVIEW OF CONTESTED CASE DECISIONS

- § 14.04 Scope of review of a contested case or quasi-judicial decision
§ 14.05 Review of issues of law; definition of issues of law
§ 14.05.1 Standard of review: substitution of judgment
§ 14.06 Review of issues of fact
§ 14.06.2 Local agency actions and ratemaking: quasi-judicial distinguished from quasi-legislative action
§ 14.06.3 Standard of review: the substantial evidence test
§ 14.06.4 Hearsay as substantial evidence

IV. REVIEW OF OTHER DECISIONS

- § 14.09 Scope of review of non-record decisions: the arbitrary and capricious test

V. THE DECISION AND FURTHER APPEALS

- § 14.11 The decision on review; remand to the agency
§ 14.12 Appeal from a judicial review decision

Appendix

APPENDIX A. The Minnesota Administrative Procedure Act

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index