

PREFACE

The 2025 supplement to HANDBOOK OF FEDERAL CIVIL DISCOVERY AND DISCLOSURE reflects changes to civil discovery in federal courts resulting from rule amendments and judicial action.

The 2025 supplement includes:

- Case law updates
- New form of attorney affidavit in support of motion to take disposition of incarcerated person (Form 30-1)
- New form interrogatories in suit for discrimination under Americans with Disabilities Act (Form 33-9)
- New notice of motion for order requiring physical examination with deposition to be taken immediately following (Form 35-7)
- New order requiring submission to physical examination with deposition to be taken immediately following (Form 35-8)
- New demand that plaintiff submit to physical examination (Form 35-9)
- New response to demand that plaintiff submit to physical examination (Form 35-10)
- New request by examined party for copy of physical examination report (Form 35-11)
- Request for admission in medical malpractice (Form 36-7)
- Order directing production and permitting inspection of documents with assessment of expenses of obtaining order (Form 37-15)

Many thanks to Michelle White-Savage, excellent editor, for her support and guidance.

Readers who have suggestions or comments are encouraged to contact the authors at jgrenig@earthlink.net or jeff.kinsler@belmont.edu.

Jay E. Grenig
Jeffrey S. Kinsler

March 2025