2025-2026 Pocket Parts

Ronald D. Rotunda & John E. Nowak now joined by... Vikram Amar and Akhil Amar.

The names “Rotunda & Nowak” have for decades been synonymous with constitutional law, their writing on the subject employed in law school classrooms, law firms and judicial chambers nationwide. Some 8,000 state and federal judges and legal commentators have cited their seminal work, Treatise on Constitutional Law, in judicial opinions and the legal literature.

Vikram Amar, a constitutional scholar of national reputation, continued his work on this publication in 2025. The more things change, the more they stay the same. So it is. Annual upkeep of the treatise continues apace, reflecting the ongoing work of our nation’s highest court. As ever, going forward, yearly pocket parts will not only scrutinize and assess carefully any changes in existing law but also analyze new issues as the need warrants.

Please note that, for ease of handling, the materials in this shipment may ship in more than one box.
