ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Brent A. Olson, Esq., J.D., M.B.A.

Mr. Olson is an attorney and legal scholar with substantial expertise in corporate and business law. With respect to securities law, Mr. Olson's books have focused on securities fraud litigation, corporate compliance, corporate governance, shareholder proposals, insider trading, as well as state and federal securities registration (and exemptions from registration). With respect to corporate law, his books have discussed the corporation codes of Delaware, California, Minnesota, and New Jersey. He has also written extensively on commercial law, as well as the law of contracts, intellectual property, advertising, franchising, antitrust, business torts, and the Internet.

Mr. Olson has over a dozen years' experience as a private practice attorney, having graduated from the University of Minnesota (J.D.) and St. Olaf College (B.A.) magna cum laude, where he was honored with membership in Phi Beta Kappa. He has written several articles with leading law reviews, including two articles in the Minnesota Law Review, as well as articles in the George Washington Law Review.

PREFACE

Business Regulation in Minnesota attempts to compile all of the major business law-related state and federal statutes and regulations in one user-friendly publication.

As such, the State pamphlet includes statutes and regulations that address:

1. The regulation of securities and franchises;
2. The regulation of corporations and other business entities;
3. The regulation of trade and consumer protection;
4. The Uniform Commercial Code;
5. The regulation of property interests and liens;
6. The regulation of judicial procedure, pleadings, judgments, costs, etc.; and
7. The regulation of collection and compensatory remedies.

In like fashion, the Federal pamphlet addresses statutes and regulations that discuss:

1. Antitrust law;
2. Securities law;
3. Trademark law;
4. Copyright law;
5. Consumer credit protection;
6. Consumer product warranties;
7. Consumer fraud;
8. Internet law and e-commerce;
9. Electronic signatures;
10. Privacy;
11. Sarbanes-Oxley regulation;
12. Business crimes, including mail fraud and RICO;
13. The regulation of credit practices; and
14. CERCLA.

Because of space limitations, only the most frequently used materials are included. In addition, certain “specialized” areas (such as patent law and bankruptcy law) are intentionally omitted.
