

What's New in the 2024 Edition

New cases regarding:

- the admissibility of court records regarding prior convictions;
- the need for expert testimony on causation and that the records were made to a reasonable degree of medical certainty even when the medical records were admitted pursuant to the business records statute;
- bolstering testimony;
- the difference between evidence of specific acts and character evidence;
- discussing the foundation for search history of a phone.

Updated citations to the Missouri Practice Series as an additional resource for relevant trial objections.

And more . . .