

What's New in the 2025-2026 edition of the California Procurement Handbook

- New chapter on California's Skilled and Trained Workforce requirements
- New content on important new California Government Code section clarifying conflict of interest rules for independent contractors
- New section on the California Department of General Service's Government Claims Program
- New content on local bid protest procedure nuances and California Public Records Act Request practical tips