

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. FORMATION AND VALIDITY OF MARRIAGE

- § 1:1 Summary
- § 1:2 Historical background
- § 1:3 Marriage defined
- § 1:4 Formation of Florida marriage
- § 1:5 Recognition of marriages formed elsewhere
- § 1:6 Common-law marriage
- § 1:7 Cohabitation without marriage
- § 1:8 Marriage—Valid, void, and voidable
- § 1:9 Marriage—Valid, void, and voidable—Void—Bigamy, incest, permanent mental incapacity, etc.
- § 1:10 Marriage—Valid, void, and voidable—Void—Same sex
- § 1:11 Marriage—Voidable—Fraud, duress, incapacity, etc.
- § 1:12 — —Waiver of grounds—Effect of consummation

CHAPTER 2. MARITAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

- § 2:1 Summary
- § 2:2 Historical development
- § 2:3 Right and duty of support
- § 2:4 Property ownership
- § 2:5 Homestead and head of household exclusions
- § 2:6 Rights of dower and curtesy (abolished)
- § 2:7 Right of action for loss of consortium or other injury to spouse
- § 2:8 Evidentiary privilege
- § 2:9 Interspousal tort immunity abolished
- § 2:10 Removal of disabilities of nonage
- § 2:11 Immigration status
- § 2:12 Succession and survivorship
- § 2:13 Tax consequences
- § 2:14 Property distribution and support upon dissolution
- § 2:15 Consent to or refusal of medical treatment
- § 2:16 Insurance and retirement plan beneficiary

CHAPTER 3. ANNULMENT AND DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

- § 3:1 Summary

- § 3:2 Historical perspective
- § 3:3 Separation and “legal separation”
- § 3:4 Effect of separation on property rights
- § 3:5 Decree for support without divorce
- § 3:6 Annulment—Generally
- § 3:7 —Grounds—Bigamy, incest, permanent incapacity
- § 3:8 — —Fraud, duress, or temporary incapacity
- § 3:9 —Consummation and nonconsummation
- § 3:10 —Effect—Legitimacy of children
- § 3:11 — —Wills and insurance proceeds
- § 3:12 —Proceedings
- § 3:13 — —Temporary relief
- § 3:14 Dissolution—Grounds
- § 3:15 —Adultery, cruelty, violence, desertion
- § 3:16 —Defenses of condonation, recrimination, etc.
- § 3:17 —Proceedings—Issues and sequence
- § 3:18 — —Proof
- § 3:19 — —Effect of reversal on appeal
- § 3:20 — —Bifurcation of action
- § 3:21 —Effect—Legitimacy of children
- § 3:22 — —Property ownership
- § 3:23 — —Wills, insurance, and benefit plans
- § 3:24 —Same sex marriage

CHAPTER 4. MARITAL CONTRACTS

- § 4:1 Summary
- § 4:2 Historical perspective
- § 4:3 Typical provisions
- § 4:4 Marital contracts—Unenforceable provisions
- § 4:5 —Voiding
- § 4:6 — —Fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation
- § 4:7 — —Duress or coercion
- § 4:8 — —Overreaching
- § 4:9 — —Unfairness of agreement
- § 4:10 — —Postjudgment attack
- § 4:11 — — —Res judicata
- § 4:12 — —Postfiling but prejudgment
- § 4:13 — —Waiver of grounds
- § 4:14 — —Advice of counsel
- § 4:15 — —Requisites of trial court order
- § 4:16 —Mediation agreements
- § 4:17 The requirement of a writing
- § 4:18 Consequences of interim reconciliation or remarriage
- § 4:19 Agreements on less than all terms

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:20 Modification of marital contracts
- § 4:21 Attorney's fees
- § 4:22 Postjudgment interpretation of contracts
- § 4:23 Enforcement

CHAPTER 5. PATERNITY

- § 5:1 Summary
- § 5:2 Historical perspective
- § 5:3 Legitimacy
- § 5:4 Establishment of legal father status without formal legal proceedings
- § 5:5 Judicial proceedings for initial establishment of legal father status
- § 5:6 Judicial proceedings for initial establishment of legal father status—Jury trial
- § 5:7 Quasi-judicial proceedings for initial establishment of legal father status
- § 5:8 Judicial proceedings to contest established paternity
- § 5:9 Proceedings—Administrative and quasi-judicial
- § 5:10 Administrative paternity procedure
- § 5:11 Paternity—Naming rights
- § 5:12 —Effect of paternity on standing to sue under wrongful death statute
- § 5:13 —Scientific testing
- § 5:14 —Res judicata
- § 5:15 —Estoppel
- § 5:16 —Rescinding affidavit of paternity
- § 5:17 Disavowing child of marriage
- § 5:18 Disestablishment of paternity—Section 742.18
- § 5:19 Paternity—Same sex couples

CHAPTER 6. ADOPTION

- § 6:1 Summary
- § 6:2 Historical perspective
- § 6:3 —Biological father's constitutional rights and responsibilities
- § 6:4 —Florida courts
- § 6:5 Parental rights under the 2008 and 2012 amendments
- § 6:6 The statutory scheme: nonrelative adoptions
- § 6:7 Termination of parental rights pending adoption—In general
- § 6:8 —By consent
- § 6:9 —Consent unavailable
- § 6:10 —Grounds when consent refused

- § 6:11 Legal effect of adoption
- § 6:12 Who may adopt
- § 6:13 Home studies
- § 6:14 Adoptions by stepparents or relatives

CHAPTER 7. CHILD CUSTODY LAW

- § 7:1 Scope
- § 7:2 Summary
- § 7:3 Historical development
- § 7:4 Constitutional rights of parents to custody of their children
- § 7:5 Persons entitled to custody of a minor child
- § 7:6 Definition and legal effect of “custody”
- § 7:7 Grandparent rights
- § 7:8 Territorial jurisdiction over child custody—UCCJEA and PKPA
- § 7:9 Territorial jurisdiction—UCCJEA, PKPA, and “subject-matter jurisdiction”
- § 7:10 UCCJEA and PKPA—Home state jurisdiction
- § 7:11 UCCJEA—Home state jurisdiction—Moving to or from Florida prior to custody action
- § 7:12 UCCJEA and PKPA—Home state—Determination of residence
- § 7:13 —Nonhome state jurisdiction
- § 7:14 —Jurisdiction over modification of custody orders
- § 7:15 —Jurisdiction over enforcement of custody orders
- § 7:16 —Simultaneous proceedings in different states
- § 7:17 —Grounds for declining jurisdiction
- § 7:18 UCCJEA, PKPA, and international child custody dispute jurisdiction

CHAPTER 8. CHILD CUSTODY BY NONPARENTS

- § 8:1 Summary
- § 8:2 Temporary custody by extended family member—Chapter 751 Florida Statutes
- § 8:3 —Who may seek temporary custody
- § 8:4 —Over whom may custody be obtained
- § 8:5 —Grounds and proceedings
- § 8:6 —Termination of temporary custody established by consent
- § 8:7 —Termination of temporary custody based on abuse, neglect, or abandonment
- § 8:8 Temporary custody by extended family member—concurrent custody

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:9 Guardianship; Chapter 744 Florida Statutes
- § 8:10 Juvenile dependency; Custody by the state
- § 8:11 Juvenile dependency—Structure and goals of Chapter 39
- § 8:12 —Mandatory reporting of child abuse
- § 8:13 —Investigations of child abuse reports
- § 8:14 —Taking child into custody, shelter petition, and hearing
- § 8:15 —Process for adjudication of dependency
- § 8:16 —Termination of parental rights

CHAPTER 9. TIME-SHARING AND CUSTODY DISPUTES BETWEEN PARENTS

- § 9:1 Summary
- § 9:2 Scope of this chapter
- § 9:3 Historical perspective—Overview
- § 9:4 —Paternal preference rule (before 1940)
- § 9:5 —Tender years doctrine
- § 9:6 —Toward gender neutrality
- § 9:7 —Shared parental responsibility statute (1982–2008)
- § 9:8 —Statutory factors under the 1982–2008 shared parenting law
- § 9:9 —Time-sharing and parenting plan statute (2008 to date)
- § 9:10 Time-sharing factors under 2008 statute
- § 9:11 Custody—Jurisdiction and venue
- § 9:12 —Primary principles
- § 9:13 —Absence of court order
- § 9:14 —Temporary
- § 9:15 — —“Emergency”
- § 9:16 —By final judgment
- § 9:17 —Shared or joint custody
- § 9:18 —Rotating custody
- § 9:19 —Split custody
- § 9:20 —Primary residential responsibility, sole parental responsibility and “full custody”
- § 9:21 —Visitation
- § 9:22 — —Remedy for denial
- § 9:23 —Time-sharing
- § 9:24 —Financial viability of parenting plan
- § 9:25 —Allocation of decisional authority
- § 9:26 —Third parties
- § 9:27 —Bad acts of a parent
- § 9:28 —Effect of agreement

- § 9:29 —Proceedings—Due process
- § 9:30 — —Default
- § 9:31 — —Sanctions for litigation misconduct
- § 9:32 — —Final judgment
- § 9:33 — —Discretion of trial court

CHAPTER 10. PARENTAL CHILD CUSTODY MODIFICATION AND RELOCATION

- § 10:1 Summary
- § 10:2 Modification—Historical perspective
- § 10:3 —Effect of agreement
- § 10:4 —Grounds
- § 10:5 — —Substantial change in circumstances
- § 10:6 — — —Relocation
- § 10:7 — — —Foreseeability
- § 10:8 — —Terms of final judgment
- § 10:9 — —Facts unavailable to issuing court
- § 10:10 — —Moral fitness
- § 10:11 — —Current statute
- § 10:12 —Emergency relief
- § 10:13 —Temporary relief
- § 10:14 —Proceedings
- § 10:15 Clarification and enforcement
- § 10:16 Relocation with minor child
- § 10:17 Relocation—Historical perspective—Relocation permitted unless prohibited by final judgment (statehood to 1970)
- § 10:18 —Relocation denied if inconsistent with visitation rights (1970–89)
- § 10:19 —Rise of the Mize-Russenberger presumption favoring relocation
- § 10:20 —The precursor of the current statute (1997–2006)
- § 10:21 —Current statute, section 61.13001 (2006-date)
- § 10:22 —The current statute section by section
- § 10:23 —Predicting outcome of cases

CHAPTER 11. EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION

- § 11:1 Summary
- § 11:2 Historical evolution
- § 11:3 Identifying marital and nonmarital assets and liabilities
- § 11:4 Marital and nonmarital assets—Time of acquisition
- § 11:5 —Time of acquisition not conclusive
- § 11:6 —Conversion of nonmarital assets to marital assets

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 11:7	—Effect of tenancy by the entirety
§ 11:8	—Marital claim to the increased value of nonmarital asset
§ 11:9	—Date for determination of classification and value
§ 11:10	—Marital claims against property held in one spouse’s name
§ 11:11	—Personal injury and disability settlements
§ 11:12	—Real estate
§ 11:13	—Family pets
§ 11:14	—Passive ownership interests in business organizations
§ 11:15	—Participatory ownership interest in business organizations
§ 11:16	—Options, bonuses, and contingent financial assets
§ 11:17	—Retirement plans
§ 11:18	—Defined contribution retirement plans
§ 11:19	—Defined benefit retirement plans
§ 11:20	— —Florida State Retirement System
§ 11:21	—Accumulated leave or other employee benefits
§ 11:22	—Distribution of marital property
§ 11:23	—Effect of agreement
§ 11:24	—Equal distribution
§ 11:25	— —Marital home
§ 11:26	—Unequal distribution
§ 11:27	—Critique of Florida’s approach
§ 11:28	—Dissipation of assets
§ 11:29	—Relation to alimony
§ 11:30	—Lump-sum alimony
§ 11:31	—Relation to child support
§ 11:32	—Proceedings—Evidence
§ 11:33	—Requisites of judgment
§ 11:34	—Equitable distribution—Enforcement and modification
§ 11:35	— —Standard of review

CHAPTER 12. ALIMONY AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT

§ 12:1	Summary
§ 12:2	Historical perspective
§ 12:3	Constitutional issues with alimony
§ 12:4	Types of alimony and legal standard for award
§ 12:5	The alimony statute
§ 12:6	Effect of the 2023 amendments
§ 12:7	Roles of the courts and legislature

- § 12:8 All types of alimony; threshold requirement of need and ability to pay
- § 12:9 Determining the amount
- § 12:10 Alimony—All types—Effect of agreement
- § 12:11 Permanent periodic alimony
- § 12:12 Lump-sum alimony
- § 12:13 Nominal permanent alimony
- § 12:14 “Maintenance” or alimony without divorce
- § 12:15 Temporary alimony—Pending divorce
- § 12:16 —Rehabilitative alimony
- § 12:17 —“Bridge-the-gap” alimony
- § 12:18 Statutory factors—Need and standard of living
- § 12:19 —Ability to pay
- § 12:20 —Duration of marriage
- § 12:21 —Age and mental and physical condition
- § 12:22 —Financial resources—Income
- § 12:23 — —Imputed income
- § 12:24 —Adultery and dissipation
- § 12:25 Modification of alimony
- § 12:26 —Cohabitation or supportive relationship
- § 12:27 Termination of alimony
- § 12:28 Relationship to property distribution
- § 12:29 Evidentiary issues
- § 12:30 Requisites of order
- § 12:31 Standard of review
- § 12:32 Security
- § 12:33 Enforcement of alimony orders
- § 12:34 Policy considerations

CHAPTER 13. CHILD SUPPORT

- § 13:1 Summary
- § 13:2 The child-support statute(s)
- § 13:3 Administrative determination of paternity and child support in cases covered by Federal Title IV-D
- § 13:4 Child-support hearing officers
- § 13:5 Determination of amount
- § 13:6 Standard or “grid” method
- § 13:7 Substantial time or “gross-up” method
- § 13:8 Determination of income
- § 13:9 Deductions from income
- § 13:10 Health care, day care, and transportation costs
- § 13:11 Imputation of income
- § 13:12 Discretionary deviation
- § 13:13 Other children

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:14 Good fortune doctrine
- § 13:15 Effect of agreement
- § 13:16 Retroactive child support
- § 13:17 Child support after majority
- § 13:18 Child support and Social Security
- § 13:19 Defenses
- § 13:20 Enforcement—Contempt
- § 13:21 —Income deduction order
- § 13:22 —From capital assets
- § 13:23 Enforcement-tax deduction
- § 13:24 Requisites of child support order
- § 13:25 Modification of child support
- § 13:26 Incarcerated parent

CHAPTER 14. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND INJUNCTIONS FOR PROTECTION

- § 14:1 Summary
- § 14:2 Historical perspective
- § 14:3 Injunction for protection from domestic violence under section 741.30
- § 14:4 Injunction for protection from dating, sexual, or repeat violence under section 784.046
- § 14:5 Cause of action for injunction—Elements
- § 14:6 —Commencement
- § 14:7 —Pretrial procedure
- § 14:8 —Temporary order
- § 14:9 —Hearing and final order
- § 14:10 Injunction for protection—Duration and modification
- § 14:11 —Appellate review
- § 14:12 —Who may seek protection
- § 14:13 —What constitutes actionable “imminent” violence
- § 14:14 —Stalking
- § 14:15 —Enforcement
- § 14:16 — —Relation to other remedies
- § 14:17 Tort law remedies
- § 14:18 Criminal law remedies
- § 14:19 Constitutional questions
- § 14:20 Effect on dissolution of marriage actions

CHAPTER 15. COLLABORATIVE DIVORCE

- § 15:1 Introduction: what is collaborative divorce?
- § 15:2 The history of collaborative law
- § 15:3 Distinctions between collaborative and cooperative
divorce

- § 15:4 The development of collaborative divorce in Florida
- § 15:5 Worldwide use of collaborative law
- § 15:6 Use of collaborative law beyond traditional divorce
- § 15:7 —Prenuptial and postnuptial agreements
- § 15:8 —Agreements and dissolutions for same-sex couples
- § 15:9 —Extension into civil law
- § 15:10 Various “models” of collaborative divorce
- § 15:11 —Attorney-only model
- § 15:12 —Attorney-referral model
- § 15:13 —Interdisciplinary team model
- § 15:14 —California model
- § 15:15 The attorney’s role in collaborative divorce—
Paradigm shift
- § 15:16 —Advocacy in the collaborative process
- § 15:17 —Determine the client’s interests
- § 15:18 —Determining if the client is right for collaborative
divorce
- § 15:19 —Educating the client on the concepts, processes, and costs of collaborative divorce
- § 15:20 Differences between traditional divorce and collaborative divorce
- § 15:21 Invoking a key difference: Interest versus position-based foundation to guide negotiations
- § 15:22 Emphasis on confidentiality in collaborative law negotiations
- § 15:23 “Transparency” in collaborative divorce
- § 15:24 How to deal with communication challenges
- § 15:25 Ethical issues in collaborative divorce
- § 15:26 —The Colorado Ethics Opinion
- § 15:27 —American Bar Association’s approval of collaborative divorce
- § 15:28 Who should “quarterback” the process
- § 15:29 The process of collaborative divorce
- § 15:30 The road map for the collaborative divorce
- § 15:31 Meetings: the “wheels” of the collaborative process
- § 15:32 The importance of agendas to the collaborative process
- § 15:33 Individual and group meetings
- § 15:34 Pre- and postteam professionals-only meetings/debriefings
- § 15:35 When clients become emotional at collaborative meetings
- § 15:36 Alternatives to meetings in collaborative divorce
- § 15:37 Use of mediation in collaborative divorce

Appendix 15A. Collaborative Divorce Participation Agreement

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Appendix 15B.	Engagement Agreements for Financial Neutral
Appendix 15C.	Neutral Collaborative Facilitator Participation Agreement
Appendix 15D.	Agenda for Initial Team Meeting
Appendix 15E.	Minutes of Team Meeting
Appendix 15F.	Calendar of Pre- and Postteam Meeting
Appendix 15G.	Road Map to Resolution Using Collaborative Law Process

CHAPTER 16. FLORIDA FAMILY LAW PROCEDURE

§ 16:1 Summary

§ 16:2 Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure

Appendix 16A. Collaborative Family Law Rules

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index