

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. NEGLIGENCE: BASIC CONCEPTS AND DUTY

- § 1:1 Introduction to the basic concepts of negligence
- § 1:2 Degrees of negligence
- § 1:3 Duty
- § 1:4 Duty created by the foreseeability of harm
- § 1:5 Duty created by statute, ordinance, administrative rule, or industry standard
- § 1:6 Duty created by contract
- § 1:7 Duty voluntarily assumed
- § 1:8 Duty imposed by special relationships
- § 1:9 Operators of public places of amusement and entertainment
- § 1:10 Parental duty toward their children
- § 1:11 Duty of teachers, educational institutions, and school boards to supervise their students
- § 1:12 Duty of law enforcement officers
- § 1:13 Employer's duty of care
- § 1:14 Duty of common carriers
- § 1:15 Independent duty of care to injured third parties
- § 1:16 Duty to prevent misconduct of third persons

CHAPTER 2. THE STANDARD OF CARE

PART I. INTRODUCTION TO BASIC CONCEPTS

- § 2:1 Basic concepts of the standard of care in negligence cases

PART II. ESTABLISHING THE STANDARD OF CARE

- § 2:2 Standard of care established by the courts
- § 2:3 Standard of care established by legislative enactment
- § 2:4 Standard of care established by contract
- § 2:5 Custom, industry standard, and defendant's rules of conduct

PART III. THE REASONABLE PERSON STANDARD

- § 2:6 The reasonable person
- § 2:7 Physical characteristics
- § 2:8 Mental capacity
- § 2:9 Superior intellect, skill, and knowledge: the standard of care for professionals
- § 2:10 Children

PART IV. CIRCUMSTANCES OF EACH CASE

- § 2:11 Circumstances determine reasonable care

PART V. DIFFERENT DEGREES OF NEGLIGENCE

- § 2:12 Degrees of negligence

CHAPTER 3. CAUSATION

- § 3:1 Introduction
- § 3:2 Essential elements
- § 3:3 Causation-in-fact
- § 3:4 Foreseeability
- § 3:5 Concurring causes
- § 3:6 Intervening causes
- § 3:7 Plaintiff's negligence as the sole or intervening cause of his injury
- § 3:8 Violation of statute, ordinance or regulation
- § 3:9 Original tortfeasor's liability for the subsequent negligence of plaintiff's health care provider which causes further injuries or aggravates the plaintiff's existing injuries
- § 3:10 Burden of proof and evidentiary matters
- § 3:11 Procedural matters
- § 3:12 PIP and uninsured motorist coverage
- § 3:13 The related doctrine of unavoidable accidents
- § 3:14 The rescue doctrine

CHAPTER 4. IMPUTED NEGLIGENCE

- § 4:1 Introduction and basic concepts
- § 4:2 Establishing the employer-employee relationship
- § 4:3 Scope of employment
- § 4:4 Principal and agent
- § 4:5 Partnerships
- § 4:6 Joint venture and joint enterprise
- § 4:7 Independent contractors

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:8     Imputing the negligence of one family member to another
- § 4:9     Intentional torts and criminal acts
- § 4:10    Automobile accident cases
- § 4:11    Exceptions to the scope of employment rule
- § 4:12    Indemnification
- § 4:13    Pleading requirements

CHAPTER 5. DEFENSES

- § 5:1     The demise of the doctrine of contributory negligence
- § 5:2     Adoption of the “modified form” of comparative negligence
- § 5:3     Nature of comparative negligence
- § 5:4     Comparative negligence is an issue for the jury
- § 5:5     Comparative negligence of third persons who are not parties to the suit
- § 5:6     Comparative negligence of children
- § 5:7     Imputed comparative negligence
- § 5:8     Tortious conduct for which comparative negligence will not be a defense
- § 5:9     Entry of a default against the defendant
- § 5:10    Settlement agreements and the right to set-off after Fabre
- § 5:11    Comparative negligence is applied in rescue cases
- § 5:12    Assumption of the risk
- § 5:13    The seat belt defense
- § 5:14    The statutes of limitation and repose
- § 5:15    Miscellaneous defenses

CHAPTER 6. STRICT LIABILITY

- § 6:1     Introduction

PART I. STRICT LIABILITY FOR ABNORMALLY DANGEROUS ACTIVITIES

- § 6:2     Abnormally dangerous activities
- § 6:3     Limitations on damages: the physical harm rule and the scope of the abnormal risk rule
- § 6:4     Class of persons entitled to recover
- § 6:5     Defenses and limitations on the extent of strict liability
- § 6:6     Procedure: questions of law or fact
- § 6:7     Activities which are considered abnormally dangerous
- § 6:8     Strict liability for abnormally dangerous activities distinguished from nuisance

PART II. INJURIES CAUSED BY WILD

ANIMALS

- § 6:9 Strict liability for injuries inflicted by wild animals

PART III. INJURIES CAUSED BY DOGS

- § 6:10 Historical development of and distinctions between the “dog bite” and “dog injury” statutes
- § 6:11 Liability under the dog bite statute—Fla. Stat. § 767.04
- § 6:12 The dog injury statute: Fla. Stat. § 767.01
- § 6:13 Statutory strict liability for injuries caused by dogs
- § 6:14 Defenses to strict liability claims under the dog bite and dog injury statutes

PART IV. CAUSATION AND CONTRIBUTION

- § 6:15 Causation
- § 6:16 Right of a party who is found strictly liable to seek contribution from other tortfeasors who contributed to the plaintiff's injury

CHAPTER 7. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY

PART I. LEGISLATIVE ABROGATION OF JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY

- § 7:1 Introduction

PART II. DEVELOPMENT OF THE DOCTRINE OF JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY

- § 7:2 Adoption of the common law rule
- § 7:3 Statutory modification and partial elimination of the doctrine of joint and several liability

PART III. THEORIES OF LIABILITY

- § 7:4 Introduction
- § 7:5 Concert of action
- § 7:6 Independent tortious acts
- § 7:7 Civil conspiracy
- § 7:8 Imputed negligence
- § 7:9 The problem of the unidentified tortfeasor: proposed theories of recovery

PART IV. PROCEDURAL MATTERS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:10 Separate and successive suits against each joint tortfeasor
- § 7:11 Release
- § 7:12 Settlement Offers: Offers of Judgment

CHAPTER 8. INDEMNITY, SUBROGATION AND CONTRIBUTION

PART I. INDEMNITY

- § 8:1 Introduction to indemnity
- § 8:2 Common law indemnity
- § 8:3 Contractual indemnity
- § 8:4 Binding effect of a judgment or settlement entered in the main action: the vouching in rule
- § 8:5 Procedural matters in indemnity actions
- § 8:6 Defenses to indemnity actions

PART II. SUBROGATION

- § 8:7 Introduction to subrogation
- § 8:8 Equitable subrogation
- § 8:9 Contractual subrogation
- § 8:10 Successive or subsequent tortfeasors who aggravate an existing injury
- § 8:11 Procedure to assert subrogation rights
- § 8:12 Defenses to a subrogation claim

PART III. CONTRIBUTION

- § 8:13 Introduction to contribution
- § 8:14 Overview of the Uniform Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act
- § 8:15 Common liability
- § 8:16 Determining the pro rata shares
- § 8:17 Enforcement of right to contribution after judgment has been entered in the underlying action
- § 8:18 Right to contribution based on a settlement agreement
- § 8:19 Release and covenant not to sue
- § 8:20 Procedural matters: when the cause of action accrues and when it may be brought

CHAPTER 9. SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY

PART I. THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW

- § 9:1 Historical development

- § 9:2 Scope of the waiver
- § 9:3 Governmental entities encompassed within the waiver of sovereign immunity statute
- § 9:4 Action against the state, its agencies or subdivisions is the exclusive remedy: when the tortfeasor may be held individually liable
- § 9:5 Scope of employment
- § 9:6 Standards utilized by the courts to determine whether the waiver of sovereign immunity provisions of Fla. Stat. § 768.28 apply
- § 9:7 Legislative, permitting, licensing, and executive officer functions
- § 9:8 Enforcement of laws and protection of the public safety
- § 9:9 Capital improvements and property control functions
- § 9:10 Professional, educational, and general services
- § 9:11 Statutory limits on damages, and recovery of costs, interest, and attorney's fees

PART II. PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

- § 9:12 The statutory claim requirement
- § 9:13 Statute of limitations
- § 9:14 Venue
- § 9:15 Pleading
- § 9:16 Service of process and time to file responsive pleadings
- § 9:17 Collecting a judgment against a governmental entity: mandamus
- § 9:18 Claims bills
- § 9:19 Review of non-final orders denying a claim of sovereign immunity

CHAPTER 10. PREMISES LIABILITY

PART I. THE DUTY OF CARE AND ESTABLISHING LIABILITY

- § 10:1 Introduction
- § 10:2 The distinction between active negligence and a dangerous condition on the premises
- § 10:3 The standard for determining who is liable
- § 10:4 Trespassers
- § 10:5 Licensees
- § 10:6 Invitees
- § 10:7 The obvious danger doctrine
- § 10:8 The foreseeability test: establishing liability for injuries that occur away from the premises and liability for injuries caused by third persons

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART II. PARTIES WHO MAY BE HELD LIABLE

- § 10:9 Liability of owners, contractors, architects, and engineers for injuries caused by work performed or being performed on the premises
- § 10:10 Landlord and tenant liability
- § 10:11 Public and governmental entities

PART III. CONDITIONS THAT ARE FREQUENTLY THE SUBJECT OF PREMISES LIABILITY ACTIONS

- § 10:12 Particular conditions that commonly cause injury
- § 10:13 The slip and fall cases

CHAPTER 11. LIABILITY OF THOSE WHO SELL OR FURNISH ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

- § 11:1 The common law rule
- § 11:2 Judicial recognition of liability through statutory interpretation
- § 11:3 Legislative response to the judicial expansion of liability
- § 11:4 Liability of commercial vendors for selling or furnishing alcohol to minors
- § 11:5 Liability of commercial vendors for selling or furnishing alcohol to habitually addicted persons
- § 11:6 Liability of social hosts
- § 11:7 Liability of commercial vendors for selling or furnishing alcohol to persons over the lawful drinking age who are not habitually addicted
- § 11:8 Liability of tavern owners
- § 11:9 The requirement of causation
- § 11:10 The requirement of intoxication
- § 11:11 Damages
- § 11:12 The alcohol liability exclusion clause
- § 11:13 The alcohol defense pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 768.36
- § 11:14 A cause of action based on a violation of section 768.125 is a negligence action and the defense of comparative negligence may be asserted

CHAPTER 12. MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

PART I. OVERVIEW OF THE FLORIDA

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE ACT AND THE FLORIDA BIRTH-RELATED NEUROLOGICAL INJURY COMPENSATION PLAN

- § 12:1 Introduction
- § 12:2 Historical development of the Medical Malpractice Act
- § 12:3 Scope of the Medical Malpractice Act: Health care providers who are subject to the act and conduct that constitutes medical malpractice
- § 12:4 The Florida Birth-Related Neurological Injury Compensation Plan

PART II. PRESUIT REQUIREMENTS: PRESUIT NOTICE, INVESTIGATION, AND ARBITRATION

- § 12:5 The presuit investigation and notice requirements
- § 12:6 Presuit investigation by the claimant
- § 12:7 The defendant's presuit investigation
- § 12:8 Appellate review of pre-suit investigation compliance
- § 12:9 Informal discovery
- § 12:10 Determination by the court whether a reasonable basis exists for a claim
- § 12:11 Sanctions for failure to comply with presuit investigation, discovery, and notice requirements
- § 12:12 Arbitration

PART III. MEDICAL MALPRACTICE ACTIONS BASED ON NEGLIGENCE

- § 12:13 Establishing the duty of care
- § 12:14 The nature and extent of the duty of care
- § 12:15 The standard of care
- § 12:16 The reasonably prudent similar health care provider: the expert witness who establishes the standard of care
- § 12:17 Causation
- § 12:18 Res ipsa loquitur, inferences, and presumptions in medical malpractice cases
- § 12:19 Imputing the negligence of one health care provider to another
- § 12:20 Direct liability of health care entities and their duty under Fla. Stat. § 766.101 to screen, evaluate, and review the competence of their medical staff and the quality of the health care provided: the corporate

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- negligence doctrine and peer review
- § 12:21 Pleading requirements

PART IV. DEFENSES

- § 12:22 Comparative negligence
- § 12:23 Immunities and privileges
- § 12:24 Statute of limitations and repose
- § 12:25 Good samaritans

PART V. STATUTORY LIMITATIONS ON NONECONOMIC DAMAGES

- § 12:26 Introduction

CHAPTER 13. PRODUCTS LIABILITY

PART I. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

- § 13:1 Introduction
- § 13:2 Definition of product
- § 13:3 The common elements of any products liability action
- § 13:4 Product defects
- § 13:5 Causation
- § 13:6 The defect must exist at the time the product left the possession of the manufacturer, supplier, or retailer
- § 13:7 Proper parties
- § 13:8 Liability of successor corporations
- § 13:9 Confidential settlement agreements and disclosure of information obtained during discovery the parties do not want disseminated to the public; the “Sunshine in Litigation” statute

PART II. NEGLIGENCE

- § 13:10 Essential elements of a claim based on negligence
- § 13:11 Manufacturing defects
- § 13:12 Negligent design
- § 13:13 Negligent failure to warn
- § 13:14 The market share alternative theory of recovery in negligence cases

PART III. STRICT LIABILITY

- § 13:15 Strict liability
- § 13:16 Essential elements of a cause of action based on strict liability
- § 13:17 Defects in strict liability cases
- § 13:18 Standards to apply in strict liability cases to determine whether a product is defective

PART IV. BREACH OF WARRANTY

- § 13:19 Recovery based on breach of warranty
- § 13:20 Essential elements of a claim based on breach of warranty
- § 13:21 Express warranty
- § 13:22 Implied warranty of fitness for particular purpose
- § 13:23 Implied warranty of merchantability
- § 13:24 Disclaimer of warranties

PART V. SELECTED DEFENSES

- § 13:25 Comparative fault
- § 13:26 Statute of limitations
- § 13:27 Exculpatory agreements

CHAPTER 14. USE OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS IN SUBSEQUENT CIVIL PROCEEDINGS: STATUTORY COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL UNDER FLORIDA AND FEDERAL LAW

PART I. INTRODUCTION, LEGISLATIVE HISTORY AND CONSTITUTIONAL ANALYSIS

- § 14:1 Introduction and legislative history
- § 14:2 Constitutionality of the statutes

PART II. THE DOCTRINE OF COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

- § 14:3 Collateral estoppel: General principles

PART III. STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURAL USE OF THE STATUTES

- § 14:4 The victim
- § 14:5 The requirement of a prior conviction
- § 14:6 Offenses that give rise to restitution
- § 14:7 Procedural use of the statutes

PART IV. OTHER STATUTES WHICH

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CONTAIN COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL PROVISIONS

§ 14:8 The Civil Remedies for Criminal Practices Act

CHAPTER 15. PUNITIVE DAMAGES

PART I. INTRODUCTION

- § 15:1 Historical development of punitive damages
- § 15:2 Nature and purpose
- § 15:3 Constitutionality of punitive damages
- § 15:4 The standard of appellate review when constitutional issues are raised as to the amount of a punitive damage award

PART II. ESTABLISHING LIABILITY

- § 15:5 The legal standard for punitive damage awards
- § 15:6 Prerequisites for punitive damage awards

PART III. ESTABLISHING THE AMOUNT

- § 15:7 Assessing the amount of a punitive damage award
- § 15:8 Legislative restrictions and limitations on the amount of punitive damage awards
- § 15:9 Responsibility of the Court to correct an excessive or inadequate award: remittitur and additur

PART IV. PLEADING AND PROCEDURE

- § 15:10 Pleading requirements and procedure

PART V. PARTIES WHO MAY RECOVER AND WHO MAY BE LIABLE

- § 15:11 Parties entitled to recover
- § 15:12 Recovery against the state, its agencies, and employees
- § 15:13 Recovery against a deceased tortfeasor's estate
- § 15:14 Direct corporate liability
- § 15:15 Liability for punitive damages based on the doctrine of vicarious liability

PART VI. INSURANCE COVERAGE

- § 15:16 Insurance coverage for punitive damages

PART VII. CAUSES OF ACTION IN WHICH PUNITIVE DAMAGES MAY BE RECOVERED

- § 15:17 Types of actions in which punitive damages may be recovered
- § 15:18 Breach of contract actions
- § 15:19 Actions in which the defendant was intoxicated
- § 15:20 Products liability
- § 15:21 Assault and battery
- § 15:22 Insurer bad faith actions
- § 15:23 Arbitration proceedings

CHAPTER 16. HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENT OF WRONGFUL DEATH ACTIONS

- § 16:1 Prohibition of wrongful death actions at common law
- § 16:2 Criticism of the common law rule
- § 16:3 Lord Campbell's Act
- § 16:4 State legislation
- § 16:5 Causes of action for wrongful birth and life

CHAPTER 17. RIGHT OF ACTION FOR WRONGFUL DEATH

- § 17:1 In general
- § 17:2 Wrongful act, negligence, and default
- § 17:3 Breach of contract and warranty
- § 17:4 Causation
- § 17:5 Right of action in the decedent

CHAPTER 18. PROCEDURAL MATTERS IN WRONGFUL DEATH CASES

- § 18:1 Venue
- § 18:2 Choice of law
- § 18:3 Court approval of settlement and protection of minors and incompetents
- § 18:4 Lump sum settlement agreements that do not specify amounts for the estate or each survivor
- § 18:5 The verdict form
- § 18:6 Arbitration

CHAPTER 19. PARTIES TO A WRONGFUL DEATH ACTION

- § 19:1 Introduction
- § 19:2 The plaintiff
- § 19:3 The defendant

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 19:4 The deceased tortfeasor

CHAPTER 20. CLAIMANTS IN A WRONGFUL DEATH ACTION

- § 20:1 In general
- § 20:2 The decedent's estate
- § 20:3 The decedent's spouse
- § 20:4 Children of the decedent
- § 20:5 Parents' right to recover for the death of their children
- § 20:6 Dependent blood relatives and siblings

CHAPTER 21. DAMAGES IN WRONGFUL DEATH ACTIONS

- § 21:1 Introduction
- § 21:2 Damages recoverable by survivors
- § 21:3 Death of a survivor prior to the conclusion of a wrongful death action
- § 21:4 Damages recoverable by the estate
- § 21:5 Punitive damages
- § 21:6 The collateral source rule
- § 21:7 Additur and remittitur
- § 21:8 Jury consideration of federal income tax consequences
- § 21:9 Costs and attorneys fees

CHAPTER 22. COMMON DEFENSES TO A WRONGFUL DEATH ACTION

- § 22:1 In general
- § 22:2 Comparative negligence
- § 22:3 The seat belt defense
- § 22:4 Statute of limitations
- § 22:5 Release and settlement
- § 22:6 Prior actions
- § 22:7 Workers' compensation—The exclusive remedy
- § 22:8 Insanity
- § 22:9 Suicide
- § 22:10 Interspousal tort immunity
- § 22:11 Parental and family immunity

CHAPTER 23. SURVIVAL ACTIONS

- § 23:1 In general
- § 23:2 Damages that are recoverable
- § 23:3 Actions involving injury to the person
- § 23:4 Abatement

- § 23:5 Revival procedure
- § 23:6 The deceased tortfeasor
- § 23:7 The dissolved corporation
- § 23:8 Joint obligors
- § 23:9 Statute of limitations

CHAPTER 24. THE BURDEN OF PROOF, THE STANDARD OF PROOF, AND EVIDENTIARY ISSUES RELATING TO PERSONAL INJURY AND WRONGFUL DEATH ACTIONS

- § 24:1 The burden of proof: the burden of producing evidence and the burden of persuasion
- § 24:2 Burden of producing evidence
- § 24:3 Burden of persuasion
- § 24:4 Standard of proof
- § 24:5 Relevant evidence
- § 24:6 Rulings on evidence: preserving the record for appeal
- § 24:7 Presumptions
- § 24:8 Rear end collisions
- § 24:9 Inferences
- § 24:10 Res ipsa loquitur
- § 24:11 Violation of a statute, ordinance, administrative rule, or industry standard
- § 24:12 Witness testimony regarding opinions and inferences
- § 24:13 Opinions by experts
- § 24:14 Opinion testimony by lay witnesses
- § 24:15 Selected evidentiary issues that frequently arise in personal injury and wrongful death actions
- § 24:16 Motion to reopen to present additional evidence

CHAPTER 25. DISCOVERY

- § 25:1 Purpose of discovery
- § 25:2 Scope of discovery
- § 25:3 Oral depositions
- § 25:4 Use of depositions in court proceedings
- § 25:5 Interrogatories
- § 25:6 Production of documents and other things
- § 25:7 Examination of the person
- § 25:8 Sanctions for discovery violations
- § 25:9 Enforcing compliance with the rules of discovery: motions and forms of relief
- § 25:10 Privileges

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 25:11 The accident report privilege

CHAPTER 26. SPOILIATION OF EVIDENCE

- § 26:1 Introduction
- § 26:2 The cause of action for spoliation of evidence
- § 26:3 Spoliation of evidence may be used as a defense
- § 26:4 Imposition of discovery sanctions for spoliation of evidence
- § 26:5 The Valcin presumption
- § 26:6 The adverse inference

CHAPTER 27. CLIENT RELATIONS AND FEE AGREEMENTS

PART I. ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONS

- § 27:1 Maintaining good client relations

PART II. FEE AGREEMENTS IN GENERAL

- § 27:2 The employment agreement
- § 27:3 Procuring a fee contract by improper or illegal means; and charging excessive, illegal, and prohibited fees
- § 27:4 Fee agreements with minors
- § 27:5 Division of fees among lawyers who are not in the same firm
- § 27:6 Right to attorney's fees when the attorney withdraws with and without cause
- § 27:7 Attorney's right to compensation when discharged with cause
- § 27:8 Attorney's right to compensation when prematurely discharged without cause

PART III. CONTINGENT FEE AGREEMENTS

- § 27:9 Contingent fee contracts
- § 27:10 Contingent fee contracts in personal injury and wrongful death cases, and cases involving property damages
- § 27:11 Contingency fee agreements and structured settlements
- § 27:12 Partial and alternative contingent fee contracts

CHAPTER 28. SUMMARY JUDGMENT

PART I. INTRODUCTION

- § 28:1 Florida adopts the federal summary judgment rule and standard

PART II. HISTORICAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE NEW RULE

- § 28:2 In general
§ 28:3 Reasons for the change
§ 28:4 The Celotex Trilogy

PART III. PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

- § 28:5 The motion for summary judgment
§ 28:6 The response
§ 28:7 Failure to properly support or address a fact
§ 28:8 Hearing on the motion
§ 28:9 Summary judgment granted sua sponte and independently of a motion § 28:10 Judgment granting all or part of the relief requested in the motion and orders denying the motion

PART IV. BURDENS OF PRODUCTION AND PERSUASION

- § 28:11 The burden of production
§ 28:12 Burden of persuasion

PART V. EVIDENTIARY MATTERS

- § 28:13 Substance of the evidence considered must be admissible at trial
§ 28:14 Affidavits and declarations
§ 28:15 Evidence that blatantly contradicts the opposing party's version of the facts: Video evidence

PART VI. NEGLIGENCE CASES

- § 28:16 Summary judgments in negligence cases

CHAPTER 29. RECOVERY OF NON-ECONOMIC DAMAGES IN AUTOMOBILE NEGLIGENCE CASES

PART I. GENERAL PROVISIONS OF THE FLORIDA MOTOR VEHICLE NO-FAULT LAW

- § 29:1 The threshold requirements

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART II. THE THRESHOLD INJURIES

- § 29:2 Significant and permanent loss of an important bodily function
- § 29:3 Permanent injury within a reasonable degree of medical probability
- § 29:4 Significant and permanent scarring or disfigurement
- § 29:5 Death

PART III. DAMAGES

- § 29:6 Non-economic damages that are recoverable
- § 29:7 If a specific threshold injury is established, the plaintiff may recover non-economic damages for all injuries caused by the accident
- § 29:8 Recovery of future economic damages when a permanent injury is not established—The reasonable certainty standard
- § 29:9 A finding by the jury that the plaintiff suffered a permanent injury does not mandate an award of non-economic damages
- § 29:10 Aggravation of a pre-existing injury or condition—A category of special damages
- § 29:11 Damage claims for loss of consortium

PART IV. LIFTING THE TORT EXEMPTION TO ALLOW A TORT ACTION FOR NON-ECONOMIC DAMAGES

- § 29:12 Establishing a prima facie case
- § 29:13 Whether the plaintiff incurred a permanent threshold injury is usually a jury question
- § 29:14 Causation

PART V. EXPERT MEDICAL TESTIMONY

- § 29:15 Expert medical testimony is required to establish a permanent injury
- § 29:16 It is not necessary for the defendant to present expert medical testimony in order to refute a claim of permanent injury
- § 29:17 Subjective evidence of pain and suffering may be allowed to establish a permanent injury as long as medical expert testimony is also presented
- § 29:18 Independent medical examinations

PART VI. PLEADING REQUIREMENTS AND DEFENSE MOTIONS

- § 29:19 Pleading requirements
- § 29:20 Defense motions that question whether plaintiff can meet the threshold requirements of Fla. Stat § 627.737(2)

CHAPTER 30. THE JURY

- § 30:1 Introduction
- § 30:2 Scope of voir dire examination
- § 30:3 Strikes for cause
- § 30:4 Peremptory challenges
- § 30:5 Challenges based on race, ethnicity, or gender
- § 30:6 Failure to disclose information or providing untruthful answers during voir dire examination
- § 30:7 Juror misconduct
- § 30:8 Procedural requirements to obtain a juror interview
- § 30:9 Polling the jury
- § 30:10 Number of jurors
- § 30:11 The inconsistent jury verdict

CHAPTER 31. POST-JUDGMENT MOTIONS

PART I. INTRODUCTION

- § 31:1 Rules of civil procedure

PART II. CORRECTION OF JUDICIAL ERRORS PURSUANT TO RULE 1.530

- § 31:2 Judicial errors
- § 31:3 Motions for new trial
- § 31:4 Motions for rehearing
- § 31:5 Motions to alter or amend the judgment

PART III. CORRECTION OF ERRORS PURSUANT TO RULE 1.540

- § 31:6 Clerical errors under Rule 1.540(a)
- § 31:7 General requirements to correct substantive errors pursuant to Rule 1.540(b)
- § 31:8 Motions alleging mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect
- § 31:9 Motions alleging newly discovered evidence
- § 31:10 Motions alleging fraud, misrepresentation or other misconduct
- § 31:11 Motions seeking relief from void judgments or orders
- § 31:12 Motions alleging the judgment has been satisfied,

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	released or discharged—Other equitable considerations
§ 31:13	The requirement that the judgment or order must be final

PART IV. POST-TRIAL MOTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 1.480

§ 31:14	Motions pursuant to Rule 1.480 to enter judgment in accordance with the motion for directed verdict
---------	---

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index