

New in the 2024–2025 Edition

Going Global offers clear, concise advice on how to start doing business overseas and how to build and manage the business as it grows. With an overview of U.S. and foreign legal and regulatory issues, it is a one-stop reference for the major issues involved in doing business internationally.

New features and recent developments in this release include:

- International organizations and institutions: The United Nations (§ 2:13), Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (§ 2:16), International Labour Organization (§ 2:17), International Organization for Standardization (§ 2:19)
- Regional organizations and agreements: U.S. trade agreements (§ 2:21), Other regional trade organizations and agreements (§ 2:22)
- General business considerations—Irresponsible global sourcing (§ 22:13)
- Competition laws and policies (§ 31-A:1)
- Capital markets and securities laws (§ 31-A:10)
- Laws regulating foreign investment (§ 31-A:26)
- U.S. foreign investment laws and regulations—Exon-Florio reporting requirements (§ 32:3)
- U.S. Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act—Acquisitions of corporate securities or assets (§ 32:6)
- U.S. Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act—Non-corporate entities and interests (§ 32:9)
- Export license determination—Part 732: Steps for using the EAR (§ 33:39)
- Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (§ 34:4)
- FCPA Guide (§ 34:19)
- Trade programs and agreements—Bilateral trade programs and agreements (§ 35:23)