

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. COMPARATIVE FAULT IN TENNESSEE BEFORE MCINTYRE

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 FELA and admiralty
- § 1:3 Impact of gross negligence on defense of contributory negligence
- § 1:4 Remote contributory negligence
- § 1:5 Direct attacks on contributory negligence

CHAPTER 2. THE MCINTYRE DECISION

- § 2:1 McIntyre decision
- § 2:2 Conclusion

CHAPTER 3. TRANSITIONAL CASES

- § 3:1 Introduction
- § 3:2 How concept of “transitional cases” arose
- § 3:3 Contribution action as “transitional case”
- § 3:4 Case involving nonparty as “transitional case”
- § 3:5 Conclusion

CHAPTER 4. JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY

- § 4:1 Introduction
- § 4:2 Joint and several liability generally
- § 4:3 Impact of McIntyre on joint and several liability
- § 4:4 Joint and several liability in products liability
- § 4:5 Impact of McIntyre on joint and several liability—Vicarious liability
- § 4:6 —Acting in concert
- § 4:7 —Intentional and negligent tortfeasors
- § 4:8 Unresolved issues
- § 4:9 Conclusion

CHAPTER 5. ASSIGNMENT OF FAULT

- § 5:1 Introduction
- § 5:2 Assignment of fault—To plaintiff
- § 5:3 —To defendant
- § 5:4 Genesis of assignment of fault to nonparty
- § 5:5 Adoption and limitations of T.C.A. § 20-1-119

- § 5:6 Amendment to Tenn. R. Civ. P. 8.03
- § 5:7 Triggering of T.C.A. § 20-1-119—State court
- § 5:8 —Federal court
- § 5:9 Options available to plaintiff after allegation of fault against nonparty—Practice in circuit and chancery court
- § 5:10 —Practice in general sessions court
- § 5:11 Limitation on defendant's ability to allege fault of plaintiff's employer
- § 5:12 Assignment of fault—To those granted immunity by expiration of statute of repose
- § 5:13 —To governmental entities
- § 5:14 —To those protected by parental immunity
- § 5:15 —To spouse of plaintiff
- § 5:16 —To those protected by charitable immunity
- § 5:17 —To those given immunity for simple but not for gross negligence
- § 5:18 —To acts of God
- § 5:19 —To animal
- § 5:20 —To wrongful death beneficiaries
- § 5:21 Fault allocations against other nonparties—No tort duty owed to plaintiff
- § 5:22 Assignment of fault—To those whose conduct not cause in fact or proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries
- § 5:23 —To person not identified by defendant
- § 5:24 —To plaintiff's health care providers
- § 5:25 Conclusion

CHAPTER 6. CAUSATION AND COMPARATIVE FAULT

- § 6:1 Introduction
- § 6:2 Causation generally
- § 6:3 Cause in fact
- § 6:4 Legal cause
- § 6:5 —Liability for unforeseeable consequences
- § 6:6 —Intervening and superseding causes
- § 6:7 —Apportionment of damages
- § 6:8 —Public policy exclusions
- § 6:9 Bifurcated fault allocation—Grandstaff v. Hawks
- § 6:10 Criminal acts of third persons
- § 6:11 Conclusion

CHAPTER 7. ASSUMPTION OF RISK

- § 7:1 Assumption of risk prior to adoption of comparative fault
- § 7:2 Assumption of risk after adoption of comparative fault

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:3 Express assumption of risk
- § 7:4 Implied assumption of risk
- § 7:5 Conclusion

CHAPTER 8. PREMISES LIABILITY

- § 8:1 Premises liability cases generally
- § 8:2 “Open and obvious” rule

CHAPTER 9. PRODUCTS LIABILITY

- § 9:1 Introduction
- § 9:2 Products liability law prior to adoption of comparative fault
- § 9:3 Products liability law after adoption of comparative fault
- § 9:4 —Strict liability
- § 9:5 —Breach of implied warranty of merchantability
- § 9:6 —Negligence
- § 9:7 —Fraudulent misrepresentation
- § 9:8 —Allegations of fault against others
- § 9:9 Unresolved issues

CHAPTER 10. EFFECT OF COMPARATIVE FAULT ON COMMON LAW TORT DOCTRINES

- § 10:1 Introduction
- § 10:2 Doctrines addressed in McIntyre—Remote contributory negligence and last clear chance
- § 10:3 Doctrines addressed since McIntyre—Sudden emergency and rescue doctrines
- § 10:4 —Unavoidable accident
- § 10:5 —Negligence per se
- § 10:6 —Family purpose doctrine
- § 10:7 —Vicarious liability
- § 10:8 —Res ipsa loquitur
- § 10:9 —Intentional conduct
- § 10:10 —Reckless and wanton acts, and gross negligence
- § 10:11 —Fraud, negligent misrepresentation, and Tennessee Consumer Protection Act
- § 10:12 —Strict liability in non-products cases
- § 10:13 —Nuisance
- § 10:14 —Punitive damages
- § 10:15 —Liability of original tortfeasor for subsequent medical negligence
- § 10:16 —Subrogation rights
- § 10:17 Negligent entrustment

- § 10:18 Effect of comparative fault on established physical facts rule
- § 10:19 Comparative fault in legal malpractice actions

CHAPTER 11. SETTLEMENT ISSUES

- § 11:1 Introduction
- § 11:2 Impact of settlements prior to adoption of comparative fault
- § 11:3 Impact of comparative fault on settlements
- § 11:4 Issues after McIntyre
- § 11:5 Effect of giving release
- § 11:6 Financial impact of settlement with one tortfeasor on liability of remaining tortfeasor
- § 11:7 Impact of settlements in cases with joint and several liability
- § 11:8 Conclusion

CHAPTER 12. CIVIL PROCEDURE CONSIDERATIONS

- § 12:1 Tenn. R. Civ. P. 8.03
- § 12:2 Tenn. R. Civ. P. 13
- § 12:3 Tenn. R. Civ. P. 15
- § 12:4 —Tenn. R. Civ. P. 15.01
- § 12:5 —Tenn. R. Civ. P. 15.02
- § 12:6 —Tenn. R. Civ. P. 15.03
- § 12:7 Tenn. R. Civ. P. 16
- § 12:8 Tenn. R. Civ. P. 19
- § 12:9 Motions for summary judgment or directed verdict
- § 12:10 Motions for judgment notwithstanding the verdict
- § 12:11 Additur, remittitur, and fault percentages
- § 12:12 Motions to alter or amend
- § 12:13 Jury instructions
- § 12:14 Collateral estoppel
- § 12:15 Discretionary costs
- § 12:16 Findings of fact by court
- § 12:17 Findings of fact by jury
- § 12:18 Practice in general sessions court
- § 12:19 Use of pleadings containing claims of comparative fault

CHAPTER 13. PERSONS UNDER DISABILITIES

- § 13:1 Minors—Pre-McIntyre law
- § 13:2 —Impact of comparative fault
- § 13:3 Persons with physical or mental disabilities—Pre-McIntyre

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:4 Impact of adoption of comparative fault on persons with physical or mental disabilities

CHAPTER 14. LOSS OF CONSORTIUM AND SERVICES CLAIMS

- § 14:1 Law prior to adoption of comparative fault
- § 14:2 Impact of comparative fault
- § 14:3 Unresolved issues
- § 14:4 Conclusion

CHAPTER 15. WRONGFUL DEATH

- § 15:1 Law prior to adoption of comparative fault
- § 15:2 Wrongful death cases after adoption of comparative fault
- § 15:3 Types of cases
- § 15:4 Death of spouse
- § 15:5 Death of minor child
- § 15:6 Unresolved issues—Combining fault of decedent and beneficiary
- § 15:7 Death by suicide
- § 15:8 Conclusion

CHAPTER 16. CONTRIBUTION AND INDEMNITY

- § 16:1 Introduction
- § 16:2 Contribution prior to McIntyre
- § 16:3 Contribution after McIntyre
- § 16:4 Strict liability and contribution
- § 16:5 Contribution in cases involving concerted action
- § 16:6 Uncollectability of judgment from one of three or more tortfeasors in contribution action
- § 16:7 Indemnity before McIntyre
- § 16:8 Indemnity after McIntyre
- § 16:9 Unanswered questions on indemnity

APPENDICES

- APPENDIX A. Significant Cases in Tennessee Law of Comparative Fault

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index