

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. PLEADING, PROOF OF BASIC ELEMENTS, AND DEFENSES

- § 1:1 Charging documents and other preliminary considerations in DUI cases
- § 1:2 Circumstantial evidence
- § 1:3 Proof of driving or actual physical control of a vehicle
- § 1:4 Operable vehicle
- § 1:5 Under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances
- § 1:6 Impairment of normal faculties or the presence of a blood or breath alcohol level over .08
- § 1:7 Jury instructions on blood or breath alcohol levels
- § 1:8 Commercial vehicles
- § 1:9 Defenses
- § 1:10 Entrapment
- § 1:11 Duress
- § 1:12 Necessity
- § 1:13 Voluntary intoxication and insanity
- § 1:14 Involuntary intoxication
- § 1:15 Intervening cause

CHAPTER 2. ENHANCEMENT

- § 2:1 Prior offenses and enhancing factors
- § 2:2 Driving while impaired resulting in damage or nonserious injury
- § 2:3 Driving while impaired resulting in serious injury
- § 2:4 Driving while impaired resulting in death
- § 2:5 Allegations of charging document as to enhancement
- § 2:6 Enhancement procedures
- § 2:7 Proof of prior convictions
- § 2:8 Uncounseled prior convictions

CHAPTER 3. MULTIPLE CHARGES AND TRIAL

- § 3:1 The nature of the double jeopardy clause
- § 3:2 Prosecutions for multiple criminal traffic offenses based on the same episode or transaction involving injury or damage to one person or item of property
- § 3:3 Prosecution for multiple criminal traffic offenses based on the same episode or transaction involving injury or damage to multiple persons or items of property

- § 3:4 Effect of other traffic offenses, civil proceedings, license suspension proceedings, and detention on DUI prosecutions
- § 3:5 Application of estoppel
- § 3:6 Fla. R. Crim. P. 3.151 and 3.152
- § 3:7 Dismissal of charge as a result of a mistrial or other premature termination of trial

CHAPTER 4. SUPPRESSION OF EVIDENCE: VALIDITY OF DETENTION

- § 4:1 Procedural considerations
- § 4:2 Consensual encounters
- § 4:3 Reasonable suspicion
- § 4:4 Tips, BOLOs, & informants
- § 4:5 Innocent behavior and unusual events
- § 4:6 Connection with other crimes
- § 4:7 Presence in high crime area as sole factor or combined with other factors
- § 4:8 Drug courier profiles
- § 4:9 Application of standards for investigatory stops to driving ability or behavior
- § 4:10 The duration of detention
- § 4:11 Stops to issue citations or make arrests on other traffic charges
- § 4:12 Arrest
- § 4:13 Arrest: warrantless entry into home
- § 4:14 Officer's authority to arrest
- § 4:15 Probable cause for DUI arrest
- § 4:16 Probable cause for arrest or search on other charges
- § 4:17 Fresh pursuit
- § 4:18 Officer not in fresh pursuit outside of officer's jurisdiction
- § 4:19 Pretextual stops
- § 4:20 Citizen's arrest
- § 4:21 Roadblocks
- § 4:22 Exceptions to the exclusionary rule
- § 4:23 Good faith exception
- § 4:24 The inevitable discovery rule

CHAPTER 5. SECURING SAMPLES FOR CHEMICAL OR PHYSICAL TESTING

- § 5:1 Constitutional rights applied to securing samples
- § 5:2 Overview and scope of Implied Consent Law
- § 5:3 The forcible extraction of a blood sample

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 5:4 Reliance on implied consent
- § 5:5 Reliance on voluntary consent
- § 5:6 Use of a warrant or other discovery tools to secure test results obtained for a purpose other than prosecution

CHAPTER 6. ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

- § 6:1 Validity of regulations
- § 6:2 Foundation for establishing compliance with regulations
- § 6:3 Approval, registration, and inspections
- § 6:4 Qualifications, training, and permitting requirements
- § 6:5 Administration of breath and blood test
- § 6:6 Observation period for breath test
- § 6:7 Number of tests, timing, and margin of errors
- § 6:8 Admissibility of test results upon noncompliance with regulations

CHAPTER 7. FIELD SOBRIETY TESTS

- § 7:1 Probative value and prejudicial impact
- § 7:2 Constitutional considerations in dealing with field sobriety tests
- § 7:3 HGN tests
- § 7:4 Crash report privilege

CHAPTER 8. OTHER POTENTIAL EVIDENTIARY PROBLEMS

- § 8:1 Opinion testimony and scientific evidence
- § 8:2 Evidentiary problems with documentary and physical evidence
- § 8:3 Other hearsay issues
- § 8:4 Other objections

CHAPTER 9. DRUG USE

- § 9:1 The Drug Evaluation and Classification Program (DEC)
- § 9:2 Admissibility of evidence of drug use
- § 9:3 Prejudicial effect of evidence of drug use

CHAPTER 10. REFUSAL TO SUBMIT TO TESTS

- § 10:1 Constitutional issues relating to refusals
- § 10:2 Admissibility of refusal to submit to chemical or physical tests
- § 10:3 Admissibility of refusals to submit to field sobriety tests

- § 10:4 Jury instructions relating to refusal
- § 10:5 Independent offense for refusal

CHAPTER 11. PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE

- § 11:1 General principles
- § 11:2 Videotape
- § 11:3 Preservation of samples
- § 11:4 Independent chemical tests

CHAPTER 12. ADMISSIBILITY OF STATEMENTS

- § 12:1 Miranda rights at the scene of the stop
- § 12:2 Statements that may be exempt from Miranda requirements
- § 12:3 Biographical information
- § 12:4 Performance on field sobriety tests
- § 12:5 Defendant's comments during instruction on field sobriety tests and chemical or physical tests
- § 12:6 Spontaneous or gratuitous statements
- § 12:7 Invocation of rights
- § 12:8 Validity of waiver and voluntariness of statements
- § 12:9 Taint of unlawful arrest
- § 12:10 Comment on exercise of right to remain silent
- § 12:11 Accident or crash report privilege
- § 12:12 Corpus delicti

CHAPTER 13. SENTENCING

- § 13:1 Fines, fees, costs, and incarceration
- § 13:2 Driver license or privilege penalties
- § 13:3 Probation, treatment, and educational provisions
- § 13:4 Ignition interlock devices
- § 13:5 Impoundment and immobilization
- § 13:6 Minors

APPENDICES

- Appendix A. Fla. Stat. ch. 316 State Uniform Traffic Control (Selected Sections)
- Appendix B. Fla. Stat. ch. 322 Drivers' Licenses (Selected Sections)
- Appendix C. Fla. Admin. Code ch. 11D-8 Implied Consent Program

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Appendix D.	Florida Department of Law Enforcement Alcohol Testing Program—Forms
Appendix E.	Discovery Order for Intoxilyzer Inspection
Appendix F.	Excerpts From Fla. Stat. ch. 948
Appendix G.	Judgment and Sentence Forms, Including Costs
Appendix H.	Relevant Standard Jury Instructions in Criminal Cases
Appendix I.	Excerpts From Fla. Stat. ch. 327 Vessel Safety

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index