

INTRODUCTION TO THE 2025-2026 EDITION

Charges to the Jury and Requests to Charge in a Criminal Case in New York provides a full range of valuable coverage, from charges submitted at pretrial conferences through final instructions. Practical advice and suggested responses to juror questions and requests are offered. Recent changes in the law are addressed and highlighted with pertinent case citations.

Note for Subscribers

Beginning with this Edition, customers will no longer receive the looseleaf pages and stand-alone supplements for Charges to the Jury and Requests to Charge in a Criminal Case in New York. This softcover version will be the new format going forward.

Highlights

New features and recent developments in this 2025-2026 Edition include:

- Updated information relating to robbery in the second degree. See § 86:10.
- New § 32:13. Evading arrest by concealment of identity.
- Circumstances under which a victim is incapable of consent in sex offenses. See § 87:1.
- Updated information relating to vehicular assault in the first degree. See § 11:54.
- New § 87:9. Rape—Attempt.
- Updated language has been added throughout the publication pertaining to what constitutes the following: sexual assault and sexual contact, harassment, incest, promoting and possessing a sexual performance by a child, and a weapon.