

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. OVERVIEW OF VILLAGE, TOWN AND DISTRICT COURTS

I. DESCRIPTION AND JURISDICTION

- § 1:1 Village, town and district courts, generally
- § 1:2 —Other courts with similar jurisdiction
- § 1:3 —Justices may not plea bargain cases without approval of the prosecution
- § 1:4 The village and town justice courts
- § 1:5 —Judges of the justice courts
- § 1:6 — —Oath of office
- § 1:7 — — —Judges swear to uphold both United States Constitution and New York Constitution
- § 1:8 — —No reduction in compensation during term of office
- § 1:9 — —Advisory resources available
- § 1:10 —Towns must have town courts; contiguous towns may share a justice
- § 1:11 —Temporary assignment of judges
- § 1:12 —Towns must have town courts—Exceptions for Nassau and Suffolk Counties
- § 1:13 —Village courts optional
- § 1:14 — —Statutory number, election and term of justices
- § 1:15 — —Acting village justice may be required
- § 1:16 — — —Authority
- § 1:17 — — —Conduct and responsibilities
- § 1:18 — —Residence in village usually required
- § 1:19 —Budget and staffing
- § 1:20 — —Removal of court clerk
- § 1:21 —Financial and reporting requirements
- § 1:22 — —Bank account must be maintained
- § 1:23 — —Monthly report and remittal of fines required
- § 1:24 — — —State comptroller thereafter directs monies
- § 1:25 —Jurisdiction of the justice courts cannot be limited by any legislation
- § 1:26 —Criminal jurisdiction of the justice courts
- § 1:27 — —Restrictions on Nassau County village courts
- § 1:28 — —Village courts in Suffolk district court area
- § 1:29 — —Justice courts in eastern Suffolk County
- § 1:30 —Civil jurisdiction
- § 1:31 — —Exception for courts in district court areas
- § 1:32 — —Mechanical recording of proceedings in justice courts
- § 1:33 — —Residency requirements for village and town courts are constitutional
- § 1:34 —Appeals
- § 1:35 The district courts
- § 1:36 —Divided by judicial district
- § 1:37 —Criminal jurisdiction
- § 1:38 —Civil jurisdiction
- § 1:39 — —Mandatory arbitration program
- § 1:40 — —Commercial small claims available
- § 1:41 Appeals

II. FORMS

- § 1:42 Village Justice Monthly Report (See 1:17)
- § 1:43 Village Court Annual Audit
- § 1:44 Welcome letter
- § 1:45 Sample flat fee retainer in connection with a criminal matter
- § 1:46 Sample hourly retainer in connection with a criminal matter
- § 1:47 New client letter
- § 1:48 Letter closing out file
- § 1:49 Close Out Questionnaire
- § 1:50 Fee Arbitration Form—Nassau Part 137-A
- § 1:51 Sample itemized bill in connection with a criminal matter
- § 1:52 Incorporated Village of Westbury—Introductory remarks including language about possible deportation
- § 1:53 Oath of office
- § 1:54 Notice of appearance
- § 1:55 Notice of appeal

CHAPTER 2. LEGAL REPRESENTATION IN A CRIMINAL CASE

I. REPRESENTATION, GENERALLY

- § 2:1 The right to counsel
- § 2:2 —The right to assigned counsel for indigent defendants
- § 2:3 — —Not all traffic offenses warrant assigned counsel
- § 2:4 —When right attaches
- § 2:5 —Right applicable to “critical stages”
- § 2:6 —Arrestment court must advise of right to assigned counsel
- § 2:7 — —Court may not render right inapplicable
- § 2:8 Retention or assignment of counsel
- § 2:9 —Assigned counsel
- § 2:10 — —Rates of compensation generally determined by statute
- § 2:11 — — —Time to be billed to specific assigned case
- § 2:12 — — —Travel and supervised time
- § 2:13 — — —Out-of-pocket expenses
- § 2:14 — — —Additional fees in extraordinary circumstances
- § 2:15 — — —Expert witnesses and investigation may be available
- § 2:16 — — —Application must be made for approval
- § 2:17 —Where defendant not indigent but cannot afford counsel
- § 2:18 —Where minor defendant’s parents can afford but do not retain counsel
- § 2:19 —Retained counsel
- § 2:20 — —Nonrefundable and contingent fees prohibited
- § 2:21 The right to appear pro se
- § 2:22 —Court must consider three factors before granting request to proceed pro se
- § 2:23 — —Court must hold hearing
- § 2:24 —Request to appear pro se and defendant’s competence

II. COMMON ISSUES AFFECTING THE ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

- § 2:25 Parties’ roles distinct

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 2:26 —Counsel to inform defendant of scheduled proceedings
- § 2:27 ——Defendant’s presence usually required
- § 2:28 —Attorney may investigate on behalf of client
- § 2:29 ——State of the client must be investigated
- § 2:30 ——All possible defenses must be pursued
- § 2:31 ——Defendant physically and/or psychologically unable to proceed
- § 2:32 —Attorney should consider impact of criminal case on civil case
- § 2:33 —Defendant alone can make fundamental choices
- § 2:34 —Attorney’s role where defendant is fugitive
- § 2:35 Attorney-client communications privileged unless waived
- § 2:36 Conflict of interest: dual representation
- § 2:37 —Gomberg hearing must be held where conflict alleged
- § 2:38 —Where counsel should simply decline representation
- § 2:39 Termination of representation by counsel
- § 2:40 —Application on notice should be made
- § 2:41 —Ineffective assistance of counsel
- § 2:42 The right to counsel of one’s own choosing in a criminal case
- § 2:43 Ethical disparities between prosecutors and defense counselors

III. FORMS

- § 2:44 Pamphlet on Trial Procedure for Pro Se Defendants
- § 2:45 Sample Assigned Counsel Voucher (available at www.nassau18b.org)
- § 2:46 Internal Revenue Service Form 8300
- § 2:47 Waiver of Authority Form
- § 2:48 Order to show cause to be relieved
- § 2:49 Administrative Order § 200.25 (effective March 25, 2005) Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts pertaining to the issuance of certain securing orders in town and village courts; duties of the court; assignment of and notification to counsel; Notification to pretrial services agency
- § 2:50 Defendant’s authorization on appearance waiver
- § 2:51 Sample affirmation in opposition and joint defense agreement on issue of disqualification
- § 2:52 Motion to be relieved
- § 2:53 Omnibus Motion
- § 2:54 Motion to vacate a plea
- § 2:55 CPL § 190.50 notice
- § 2:56 Consent to change attorney
- § 2:57 Notice of claim with verification
- § 2:58 Joint defense agreement
- § 2:59 Motion to be relieved

CHAPTER 3. COMMENCEMENT OF A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING

I. ACCUSATORY INSTRUMENTS

- § 3:1 Filing of the instrument commences the action
- § 3:2 —Speedy trial rights affected
- § 3:3 —Speedy trial—Failure to notify prosecutor is an exception
- § 3:4 —Impact on the statute of limitations
- § 3:5 — —Tolling effect

- § 3:6 — — No tolling if misfiled
- § 3:7 — Right to counsel attaches
- § 3:8 Types of local criminal court accusatory instruments
- § 3:9 — Superior court accusatory instruments
- § 3:10 — Determination of type of accusatory instrument
- § 3:11 Rules applicable to all accusatory instruments
- § 3:12 — Jurisdiction is acquired by filing an accusatory instrument
- § 3:13 — — Instrument must be filed by return date of summons or appearance ticket
- § 3:14 — — — No arraignment if instrument has not been filed
- § 3:15 — — — Case may be dismissed
- § 3:16 — — — Case may be adjourned
- § 3:17 — — — Appearance before clerk
- § 3:18 — Instrument must be filed in the correct court
- § 3:19 — — Wrong return court on appearance ticket may not be fatal
- § 3:20 — — Family offense proceedings
- § 3:21 — A statutorily authorized instrument must be filed
- § 3:22 — All instruments except prosecutor’s informations must be verified
- § 3:23 — — Methods of verification
- § 3:24 — — — Judge can limit or select method
- § 3:25 — — Rule for verification of simplified traffic information
- § 3:26 — — Verification must be signed under affirmation
- § 3:27 — — Result of failure to verify is dismissal
- § 3:28 — — Exception: the prosecutor’s information
- § 3:29 The simplified information
- § 3:30 — Legal sufficiency of simplified information
- § 3:31 — — Name of the accusatory instrument is irrelevant
- § 3:32 — Legal sufficiency of simplified information at trial
- § 3:33 — Simplified information is constitutional
- § 3:34 — Types of simplified informations
- § 3:35 — Form of the simplified information
- § 3:36 — — Nature of offense charged
- § 3:37 — — Separate simplified information for separate charges
- § 3:38 — — — Dismissal for failure to conform
- § 3:39 — The supporting deposition to a simplified information, generally
- § 3:40 — — Definition
- § 3:41 — — Instances where there is no right to a supporting deposition
- § 3:42 — Demand by defendant and service of a supporting deposition
- § 3:43 — — Time to demand
- § 3:44 — — Determination of trial date in demand for supporting deposition
- § 3:45 — — Time for demand runs from time of charge
- § 3:46 — — Demand cannot be made by letter from the attorney
- § 3:47 — — Traffic infraction charging misdemeanor
- § 3:48 — — Late entry of attorney does not toll period
- § 3:49 — — No alternative demand for a bill of particulars
- § 3:50 — — Form of demand
- § 3:51 — — — Should notify court, not district attorney
- § 3:52 — — Time period for response to the request
- § 3:53 — — — Attorney should be served
- § 3:54 — — Dismissal for failure to serve
- § 3:55 — — — No amendments permitted

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 3:56 — — — Refiling is permitted

§ 3:57 — Amendment to Criminal Procedure Law 100.25

§ 3:58 — Arraignment not necessary

§ 3:59 — Defendant must comply with VTL 1806

§ 3:60 — Legal sufficiency of supporting deposition

§ 3:61 — — Form of proof contained in supporting deposition

§ 3:62 — — Must provide “reasonable cause”

§ 3:63 — — “Reasonable cause” may be inferred

§ 3:64 — — Outside documents referenced

§ 3:65 — — — “Checklist” supporting deposition may be used

§ 3:66 Electronic Filing

§ 3:67 The simplified information—Legal sufficiency of supporting deposition—
Voluntarily tendered deposition must provide reasonable cause

§ 3:68 — — Motion to dismiss for insufficiency must be timely

§ 3:69 — — Dismissal for deposition insufficiency does not trigger double jeopardy

§ 3:70 — — Issue of sufficiency of deposition waived on guilty plea

§ 3:71 The prosecutor’s information

§ 3:72 — Rarely begins action, but can be basis of prosecution

§ 3:73 — — Filing of prosecutor’s informations

§ 3:74 — — — At the direction of a grand jury

§ 3:75 — — — At the direction of a local criminal court

§ 3:76 — — — At the district attorney’s own instance

§ 3:77 — — — At the direction of a superior court

§ 3:78 — Form and content of a prosecutor’s information

§ 3:79 — — Form

§ 3:80 — — Factual statement

§ 3:81 — Sufficiency of prosecutor’s information

§ 3:82 — — Prosecutor’s information filed by the DA to supersede an information

§ 3:83 — — — Change in theory

§ 3:84 — — Amendment of prosecutor’s information

§ 3:85 — — Prosecutor’s information filed at direction of local criminal court

§ 3:86 — — Prosecutor’s information filed at direction of grand jury

§ 3:87 — — — Legally sufficient evidence required

§ 3:88 — — — Refiling of prosecutor’s information

§ 3:89 The complaint

§ 3:90 — The misdemeanor complaint

§ 3:91 — Reduction of Class A to Class B misdemeanor—Speedy trial considerations

§ 3:92 — The felony complaint

§ 3:93 — A complaint may commence an action

§ 3:94 — A complaint will not sustain prosecution

§ 3:95 — — Replacement of felony complaint

§ 3:96 — — A felony complaint cannot be dismissed

§ 3:97 — — Replacement of misdemeanor complaint

§ 3:98 Sufficiency of the complaint

§ 3:99 — Conformity with CPL 100.15 required

§ 3:100 — — Form

§ 3:101 — — Title of complaint

§ 3:102 — — — Title of action

§ 3:103 — — — Name of defendant

§ 3:104 — — — Complainant and prosecutor

- § 3:105 — — The accusatory portion of the complaint
- § 3:106 — — — Verification unnecessary
- § 3:107 — — — Counts for separate offenses
- § 3:108 — — — Codefendants may be included
- § 3:109 — — — Statutory section should be cited
- § 3:110 — — — Nature of the offense charged
- § 3:111 — — The factual portion of the complaint
- § 3:112 — Reasonable cause must be present
- § 3:113 — — Definition of reasonable cause
- § 3:114 — — Conclusory allegations are insufficient
- § 3:115 — — No appeal for CPL 140.45 dismissal
- § 3:116 — Converting the misdemeanor complaint to an information
- § 3:117 — — Supporting depositions
- § 3:118 — — New charges may be added
- § 3:119 — — Waiver of conversion of misdemeanor complaint
- § 3:120 — — — Silence not sufficient to establish waiver
- § 3:121 — — — Waiver at arraignment sufficient
- § 3:122 — — Defendant’s release for failure to convert misdemeanor complaint
- § 3:123 — — — Entire complaint must be converted
- § 3:124 — — — Exceptions to release requirement
- § 3:125 — — — Speedy trial dismissal
- § 3:126 — — — Timing of dismissal motion
- § 3:127 The information
- § 3:128 — Significance of a sufficient information
- § 3:129 — Necessity of specificity
- § 3:130 — “Non-hearsay” allegation requirement is waiveable—Failure to object during jury trial
- § 3:131 — — Following guilty plea
- § 3:132 — Form and content of an information
- § 3:133 — — Continuing offenses
- § 3:134 — — Amend and add counts
- § 3:135 — — Prima facie case requirement
- § 3:136 — — Dismissed if element not sufficiently alleged with non-hearsay allegations
- § 3:137 — — Satisfactory allegations may be of several types
- § 3:138 — — — “Non-hearsay” includes admissible hearsay
- § 3:139 — — — Use of defendant’s admissions
- § 3:140 — — — Written public acknowledgment
- § 3:141 — — — Public records
- § 3:142 — — — Sufficiency of business records unclear
- § 3:143 — — — Circumstantial evidence sufficient
- § 3:144 The role of supporting depositions
- § 3:145 — May render instrument sufficient
- § 3:146 — Different types of supporting depositions
- § 3:147 — Depositions verified by children
- § 3:148 — Indictment reports as supporting deposition
- § 3:149 — Appearance before clerk
- § 3:150 Superseding informations
- § 3:151 — Must charge one offense charged in first
- § 3:152 — Inclusion of new facts and charges is permissible
- § 3:153 — Effect of filing a superseding information
- § 3:154 — Arraignment on new information and dismissal of first

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:155 —Superseding prosecutor’s information
- § 3:156 —Replacement of misdemeanor complaint with superseding information
- § 3:157 —Simplified informations may not be superseded

II. SECURING THE ATTENDANCE OF THE DEFENDANT

- § 3:158 Securing attendance, in general
- § 3:159 The appearance ticket
- § 3:160 —Form and content of the appearance ticket
- § 3:161 — —Distinct from summons
- § 3:162 — —Effect of defective appearance ticket
- § 3:163 — —Proper section must be noted on appearance ticket
- § 3:164 —Wrong return date
- § 3:165 —Offenses for which an appearance ticket may be issued
- § 3:166 — —Appearance ticket required for marijuana charge
- § 3:167 —Who may issue an appearance ticket
- § 3:168 — —Police officer
- § 3:169 — —Peace officer
- § 3:170 — —Public servant
- § 3:171 — — —Proper authority required
- § 3:172 — — —Lack of authority may result in dismissal
- § 3:173 —Service of an appearance ticket, generally
- § 3:174 — —Local ordinance
- § 3:175 — — —Held constitutional
- § 3:176 — —Neighboring counties
- § 3:177 —Desk appearance ticket
- § 3:178 — —Setting bail; limits
- § 3:179 — — —Not “excessive” if amount exceeding limit is small
- § 3:180 — —Tolling of speedy trial time
- § 3:181 —Accusatory instrument must be filed by return date
- § 3:182 — —Impact of failure to file accusatory instrument unsettled
- § 3:183 — — —Case may be dismissed
- § 3:184 — — —Case may be adjourned
- § 3:185 —Failure to appear in response to appearance ticket
- § 3:186 — —Speedy trial implications
- § 3:187 The summons
- § 3:188 —Form and content of the summons
- § 3:189 —Courts that may issue a summons
- § 3:190 — —Accusatory instrument must be filed first
- § 3:191 —When a summons may be issued
- § 3:192 — —Types of cases
- § 3:193 — —Types of accusatory instruments
- § 3:194 — — —No simplified informations
- § 3:195 —Service of a summons, in general
- § 3:196 — —Who may serve
- § 3:197 — —Manner of service
- § 3:198 — —Geographical limits on service of a summons
- § 3:199 —Failure to appear in response to summons
- § 3:200 — —Speedy trial time may not be tolled
- § 3:201 Fingerprinting of the defendant
- § 3:202 —Where defendant’s appearance was secured by appearance ticket

- § 3:203 —Where appearance secured by summons, requirement varies with complainant
- § 3:204 — —Police officer as complainant
- § 3:205 — —Other complainants
- § 3:206 — —Designated offenses under CPL 160.10 requiring fingerprinting
- § 3:207 Service of the appearance ticket and summons
- § 3:208 —Service of an appearance ticket
- § 3:209 —Service of a summons
- § 3:210 —Improper service is not a jurisdictional defect
- § 3:211 —Contesting service
- § 3:212 — —A widespread practice of improper service can cause dismissal
- § 3:213 — —Dismissal in the interest of justice
- § 3:214 — —Speedy trial implications tied to nature of process
- § 3:215 — — —No tolling of period for improperly served appearance ticket
- § 3:216 Securing attendance of a corporate defendant
- § 3:217 —Service of process commences action
- § 3:218 — —Service must comply with statutory requirements
- § 3:219 — — —Who must be served
- § 3:220 — — —Secretary of State
- § 3:221 — — —Attorney as agent
- § 3:222 — — —Contesting service
- § 3:223 — — —Defendant must show lack of authority
- § 3:224 —Entry of default judgment
- § 3:225 — —Absence of counsel constitutes default
- § 3:226 — —Maximum fine commonly imposed
- § 3:227 — —Challenge to default judgment
- § 3:228 The warrant of arrest
- § 3:229 —All accusatory instruments except simplified information may support warrant
- § 3:230 — —Allegations providing reasonable cause must be in instrument
- § 3:231 — — —Judge may take testimony
- § 3:232 —Filing of sufficient accusatory instrument required
- § 3:233 — —Filing acts concerning instruments
- § 3:234 — —Proper locations for filing
- § 3:235 — — —Adjoining courts may be used
- § 3:236 —Warrant of arrest vs. bench warrant of arrest
- § 3:237 —Warrant of arrest not always necessary or desirable
- § 3:238 — —Direction to the defendant
- § 3:239 — —Issuance of summons
- § 3:240 —Form and content of warrant of arrest
- § 3:241 — —Insufficient warrant subject to dismissal
- § 3:242 — —Common errors in warrant
- § 3:243 — — —Vague description of defendant
- § 3:244 — — —Name of court not stated
- § 3:245 — — —Title of charges not named
- § 3:246 —Where a warrant may be executed
- § 3:247 — —When execution may be anywhere in state
- § 3:248 — —When execution is limited to county
- § 3:249 — — —“Endorsed” warrant
- § 3:250 —Who may execute the warrant: police officer and certain others
- § 3:251 — —Supervising probation and parole officers
- § 3:252 — —Authority to arrest may be delegated

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:253 — — —Grounds to delegate
- § 3:254 —When and how an arrest can be made
- § 3:255 — —The defendant should be informed of warrant at arrest
- § 3:256 — — —Failure to inform
- § 3:257 — —Warrant should be shown to the defendant
- § 3:258 — —Physical force
- § 3:259 — —Absent court approval, cannot enter premises without notice
- § 3:260 — — —Exception to notice; suppression if exception unjustified
- § 3:261 — —Third-party dwelling generally requires search warrant
- § 3:262 —Post-arrest procedure
- § 3:263 — —Arrest by “delegated” officer
- § 3:264 — —Notifying parents of juvenile offender
- § 3:265 — —Arraignment in adjoining county
- § 3:266 — —Arraignment in adjoining court permitted if in same county
- § 3:267 — — —Where warrant issued by town court
- § 3:268 — — —Warrant issued by village court
- § 3:269 — — —Warrant issued by city court
- § 3:270 — —Fingerprinting

III. FORMS

- § 3:271 Reproduction of Simplified Traffic Information Supporting Deposition
- § 3:272 Demand for Supporting Deposition
- § 3:273 Reproduction of Supporting Deposition (Aggravated Unlicensed Operation)
- § 3:274 Prosecutor’s Information
- § 3:275 Sample Information and Supporting Deposition (local code violation)
- § 3:276 Reproduction of Misdemeanor Information and Supporting Deposition
- § 3:277 Reproduction of Appearance Ticket and Supporting Deposition
- § 3:278 Information is insufficient
- § 3:279 Reproduction of Appearance Ticket
- § 3:280 Warrant for Arrest
- § 3:281 Reproduction of Moving Violation Ticket Back Informing of Right to Supporting Deposition
- § 3:282 Statement of rights and procedures in Village Justice Court

CHAPTER 4. ARRAIGNMENT AND PRETRIAL PROCEDURE

I. ARRAIGNMENT AND BAIL

- § 4:1 Arraignment, generally
- § 4:2 Initial arraignment almost always in local criminal court
- § 4:3 —Later arraignment on indictment in superior court
- § 4:4 Arraignment of plea of guilty by mail for a traffic infraction
- § 4:5 Identity of local criminal court handling case varies
- § 4:6 —In counties north of Bronx County
- § 4:7 —In New York City
- § 4:8 —In Nassau County, Long Island
- § 4:9 —In Suffolk County, Long Island
- § 4:10 —Identity of arraigning court affected when arrest is made pursuant to warrant
- § 4:11 — —Arrest within county and issuing court available

- § 4:12 — — Arrest within county but issuing court unavailable
- § 4:13 — — — Warrant issued by unavailable town court
- § 4:14 — — — Warrant issued by unavailable village court
- § 4:15 — — — Warrant issued by unavailable city court
- § 4:16 — — Arrest in another county
- § 4:17 — Identity of arraigning court when warrantless arrest occurs, appropriate court unavailable
- § 4:18 — — Class E felony and below—Town court unavailable
- § 4:19 — — — Village court unavailable
- § 4:20 — — Any offense, city court unavailable
- § 4:21 — Identity of arraigning court after warrantless arrest for class A–D felonies
- § 4:22 — Closest court by highway may be used for non-felony traffic offenses
- § 4:23 Time for arraignment depends on manner of securing defendant’s appearance
- § 4:24 — By appearance ticket or summons
- § 4:25 — By arrest pursuant to warrant
- § 4:26 — By warrantless arrest and continuing custody
- § 4:27 — By direction of the court—Informal means
- § 4:28 General procedure at arraignment
- § 4:29 — Counsel’s notice of appearance
- § 4:30 — All defendants advised of specific rights
- § 4:31 — — The right to counsel
- § 4:32 — — — Not applicable to defendants facing minor charges
- § 4:33 — — — May attach at different times
- § 4:34 — — — Right may be satisfied in several ways
- § 4:35 — — Right to enter guilty plea in non-felony case
- § 4:36 — Felony defendants advised of additional right
- § 4:37 — — Hearing must be set
- § 4:38 Defendant’s presence at arraignment not always required
- § 4:39 Protective custody for defendant may be requested
- § 4:40 Mental or physical competence examination may be ordered
- § 4:41 Audiovisual coverage of arraignment and later proceedings
- § 4:42 Contempt of court may be issue at arraignment
- § 4:43 Various dispositions possible at arraignment
- § 4:44 — Adjournment in contemplation of dismissal
- § 4:45 — Guilty plea
- § 4:46 — Plea bargain
- § 4:47 Progress of cases after arraignment, generally
- § 4:48 — Petty offense cases remain in local court
- § 4:49 — Misdemeanor cases usually remain in local court
- § 4:50 — — Exception where prosecution will be by indictment
- § 4:51 — Felonies transferred to superior courts
- § 4:52 — — Preliminary hearing may be held in local court
- § 4:53 — — Indictment required for superior court prosecution
- § 4:54 — — Case may return to local court as lower charge
- § 4:55 Changes to New York Bail Reform effective June 2, 2023
- § 4:56 Bail and release on recognizance
- § 4:57 Local court nearly always sets release terms
- § 4:58 The application for bail
- § 4:59 — Statutory factors considered by court
- § 4:60 — — Defendant’s record provided to court

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:61 — — —Local rap sheet
- § 4:62 — — —NYSID/state rap sheet
- § 4:63 — — —FBI rap sheet
- § 4:64 — —Options if record not available
- § 4:65 —Release on recognizance
- § 4:66 —Mandatory release for prosecutorial failure
- § 4:67 — —Failure to convert complaint to information
- § 4:68 — —Failure to hold preliminary hearing
- § 4:69 —Outstanding bench warrants may affect bail
- § 4:70 — —Immediate sentence on outstanding warrant possible
- § 4:71 —Various forms of bail possible
- § 4:72 — —Cash
- § 4:73 — —Insurance company bail bond
- § 4:74 — —Bonds posted with the court
- § 4:75 — —Credit cards permitted in VTL cases
- § 4:76 —Conditions may be imposed when granting bail or ROR
- § 4:77 — —Order of protection may be granted
- § 4:78 Bail decision may be appealed
- § 4:79 —Review is de novo
- § 4:80 Bail sufficiency hearing may be held
- § 4:81 Writ of habeas corpus to review bail
- § 4:82 Court may change or revoke terms of release
- § 4:83 Bail jumping may lead to forfeiture of bail
- § 4:84 —Exception—Voluntary appearance within 30 days
- § 4:85 — —Unavoidable absence
- § 4:86 Bail generally returned on acquittal
- § 4:87 —Where bail assigned in lieu of attorneys' fees
- § 4:88 Release of defendant pending sentencing or appeal

II. PROCEDURES AFFECTING YOUTHFUL DEFENDANTS

- § 4:89 Young offenders generally immune from criminal law
- § 4:90 —Exception: Juvenile Offender
- § 4:91 — —Favorable Youthful Offender still available
- § 4:92 —Mandatory notification to parent or guardian
- § 4:93 —Limitation on questioning of juvenile delinquent
- § 4:94 Youthful Offender (YO) treatment
- § 4:95 —Applicability of YO provisions to local criminal court
- § 4:96 — —Accusatory instrument filed as sealed instrument
- § 4:97 — —File of Youthful Offender is confidential
- § 4:98 — — —Unsealing where records have been sealed
- § 4:99 — —Closure of courtroom and bench trial
- § 4:100 —Presentence report reviewed after conviction
- § 4:101 —Effects of YO adjudication
- § 4:102 — —Employer may be notified of YO adjudication
- § 4:103 — —Application for certain employment opens subject
- § 4:104 Raise the Age

III. VENUE, TRANSFER AND ADJOURNMENT OF CASES

- § 4:105 Venue: geographical jurisdiction of the local criminal courts
- § 4:106 —Geographical jurisdiction of district court

- § 4:107 — —Offenses committed within the county
- § 4:108 — —The 500-yard rule
- § 4:109 —Geographical jurisdiction of city, town and village courts
- § 4:110 — —City courts including New York City
- § 4:111 — —Town and village courts
- § 4:112 — — —Felony complaint
- § 4:113 — —No authority to arrest due to lack of geographical jurisdiction to arrest can result in a dismissal of charges
- § 4:114 — —The 100-yard rule
- § 4:115 —Offenses having nexus to geographical jurisdiction of the local criminal court
- § 4:116 —Burden of proof when venue in issue
- § 4:117 Case transfer and adjournment important issues in local courts
- § 4:118 —Transfer to Supreme Court
- § 4:119 —Transfer does not violate equal protection
- § 4:120 Removal from one local criminal court to another
- § 4:121 Mandatory transfer by arraignment court
- § 4:122 —Transfer by local criminal court not having trial jurisdiction
- § 4:123 —Arraignment by superior court acting as local criminal court
- § 4:124 Transfer at request of defendant or prosecutor
- § 4:125 —Must be made in proper court
- § 4:126 —Time for motion
- § 4:127 —Statutory grounds for transfer
- § 4:128 — —Judicial death, disability or disqualification
- § 4:129 — —Inability of court to form jury when requested
- § 4:130 — — —Right to jury trial is key requirement
- § 4:131 —Non-statutory grounds for transfer
- § 4:132 — —Local bias and appearance of impropriety
- § 4:133 — —Disqualification of counsel not yet recognized as sufficient reason
- § 4:134 — —Lack of geographical jurisdiction
- § 4:135 —Assignment of outside judge as alternative to transfer
- § 4:136 — —Assignment to town or village court
- § 4:137 — —Assignment to city court
- § 4:138 —Transfer to Supreme Court by Supreme Court
- § 4:139 Divestiture of jurisdiction on misdemeanor indictment
- § 4:140 —Lower court proceedings nullified after indictment
- § 4:141 Adjournment for People to obtain indictment
- § 4:142 —No guilty plea during time of adjournment
- § 4:143 —Speedy trial time not tolled during adjournment
- § 4:144 —Where grand jury indicts or dismisses case
- § 4:145 —Where People fail to timely present to grand jury
- § 4:146 —Indictment without adjournment
- § 4:147 Adjournment when defendant requests removal for prosecution by indictment
- § 4:148 —Criteria for removal
- § 4:149 —Misdemeanors only may be removed
- § 4:150 —Timely motion stays local court proceedings
- § 4:151 —Effect of denial of motion by superior court
- § 4:152 —Effect of grant of motion by superior court
- § 4:153 —Effect of grand jury indictment or dismissal
- § 4:154 —Adjournment to make motion in superior court may be sought from local criminal court

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:155 — —Timely motion to superior court continues stay
- § 4:156 — —Where defendant does not timely move in superior court
- § 4:157 —Parties may agree to grand jury presentment
- § 4:158 Removal to superior court because lay justice presiding
- § 4:159 Dual-sovereignty prosecution

IV. DISCOVERY AND BILLS OF PARTICULARS IN LOCAL COURTS

- § 4:160 Discovery and related motion practice, generally
- § 4:161 Time for discovery is generally after case commenced
- § 4:162 —30 days after arraignment and before trial
- § 4:163 — —Exception for misdemeanor or felony complaint
- § 4:164 Defense discovery requests affect speedy trial calculation
- § 4:165 CPL § 240.20: defense discovery
- § 4:166 —Discovery generally unavailable for traffic infractions
- § 4:167 CPL § 245.65: defense discovery—Work product not discoverable
- § 4:168 CPL § 245.20[2]: defense discovery—Where property not in prosecution’s possession
- § 4:169 CPL § 240.20: defense discovery—Service and filing
- § 4:170 CPL § 245.20[k]: defense discovery—Discovery of evidence favorable to defendant: Brady material
- § 4:171 CPL § 245.60: defense discovery—Prosecution has continuing duty to disclose
- § 4:172 Speedy trial dismissal CPL 245.50[1]
- § 4:173 Court procedures to facilitate compliance CPL 245.35
- § 4:174 Bill of particulars: purpose and function
- § 4:175 —Bill specifies and limits elements of prosecution case
- § 4:176 —No request for bill for certain accusatory instruments
- § 4:177 —Content of demand
- § 4:178 —Service and filing
- § 4:179 —Timing and filing of prosecution response
- § 4:180 — —Contents of refusal to comply
- § 4:181 —Contents of bill
- § 4:182 Discovery demanded by the prosecutor CPL 245.20[4]
- § 4:183 Discovery demand by the prosecutor times of defense response CPL 245.20[4]
- § 4:184 CPL § 240.30: discovery demanded by prosecution—Where property not in possession of defense
- § 4:185 —Defense has continuing duty to disclose
- § 4:186 —Timing of defense response
- § 4:187 CPL § 245.40: prosecution motion for identification procedure, other non-testimonial evidence
- § 4:188 The Rosario rule: witness statements
- § 4:189 —Broad use on cross-examination
- § 4:190 —Many statements qualify as Rosario material
- § 4:191 —Sanctions for failure to provide Rosario material
- § 4:192 — —Exception: Rosario violations may be waived
- § 4:193 CPL § 710: prosecution notices to the defense
- § 4:194 —Timing of notices
- § 4:195 — —“Good cause” may justify late notice
- § 4:196 —Double purpose for notices

- § 4:197 —Separate motion to suppress before omnibus motion may waive right to notice
- § 4:198 —“Confirmatory” identifications excluded from notice rule
- § 4:199 —Defense entitled to copies of statements
- § 4:200 CPL § 250: defense notices to the prosecution on mental or alibi defense
- § 4:201 Motions to compel compliance with discovery demands
- § 4:202 —Time for motion
- § 4:203 — —Exception: where accusatory instrument is complaint
- § 4:204 — — —Motion may waive prosecution by information
- § 4:205 — —Motion not to precede discovery demands
- § 4:206 —Motion may be met by request for protective order
- § 4:207 —Defense entitled to broad discovery
- § 4:208 — —Material discoverable under CPL § 240.20
- § 4:209 — —Some exceptions to right to discovery exist
- § 4:210 — —Material outside of the statute

V. THE OMNIBUS AND OTHER PRETRIAL MOTIONS IN LOCAL COURTS

- § 4:211 Pretrial motions, generally
- § 4:212 The omnibus motion
- § 4:213 —Time for motion
- § 4:214 — —Exception for suppression motions
- § 4:215 — —Motion in felony case made to superior court
- § 4:216 Motion for dismissal of accusatory instrument
- § 4:217 —Time for motion
- § 4:218 —On grounds of facial insufficiency
- § 4:219 —On the ground of duplicity for an information
- § 4:220 —For absence of non-hearsay allegations in information
- § 4:221 Motion for dismissal in the interest of justice
- § 4:222 Joinder and severance
- § 4:223 —Severance of offenses
- § 4:224 —Severance of defendants
- § 4:225 —Consolidation of offenses or defendants
- § 4:226 —Time for motion
- § 4:227 Motion to suppress
- § 4:228 —Writing generally required
- § 4:229 —Sworn allegations of fact required
- § 4:230 —Summary grant of motion may be required
- § 4:231 —Summary denial may be permissible
- § 4:232 —Hearing may be required
- § 4:233 — —Evidence at the hearing
- § 4:234 —Determination of motion must be on record
- § 4:235 —Superior courts handle felony suppression motions
- § 4:236 Other motions
- § 4:237 —Lack of jurisdiction
- § 4:238 —Selective enforcement
- § 4:239 —Vindictive prosecution
- § 4:240 —Unconstitutional or invalid statute
- § 4:241 —Insufficiency of grand jury evidence
- § 4:242 —Statute of limitations
- § 4:243 —Double jeopardy

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:244 —Collateral estoppel
- § 4:245 —Statutory speedy trial
- § 4:246 ——Generally inapplicable to traffic infractions
- § 4:247 ——Applicability to local laws
- § 4:248 ——Different starting time where appearance ticket given
- § 4:249 ——Level of highest offense determines speedy trial time
- § 4:250 ——Time for motion to dismiss

VI. PRETRIAL HEARINGS IN LOCAL COURTS

- § 4:251 Pretrial hearings, generally
- § 4:252 Identification: the Wade hearing
- § 4:253 —Time for motion to suppress
- § 4:254 —Issues at the hearing
- § 4:255 —Burdens of proof
- § 4:256 —Suggestiveness in police identifications procedures
- § 4:257 ——Joint viewing of photo array
- § 4:258 ——Station house showups
- § 4:259 ——Lineup participants dissimilar to suspect
- § 4:260 —Right to counsel
- § 4:261 Statements: the Huntley hearing
- § 4:262 —Time for motion to suppress
- § 4:263 —Involuntary statement is suppressible
- § 4:264 ——Various factors considered
- § 4:265 ——Totality of circumstances governs
- § 4:266 —Suppression of statement made in custody
- § 4:267 ——Exception—Routine crime scene investigation
- § 4:268 ———Spontaneous statement
- § 4:269 ——Custody defined by various factors
- § 4:270 ———Objective standard governs
- § 4:271 ——Right to remain silent must be honored
- § 4:272 —Burdens of proof at Huntley hearing
- § 4:273 Search and seizure: the Mapp/Dunaway hearing
- § 4:274 —Lawful seizure of evidence from a person
- § 4:275 ——The stop and frisk
- § 4:276 ———Stop and frisk may constitute de facto arrest
- § 4:277 ——Search incident to lawful arrest
- § 4:278 ——Consent search
- § 4:279 ——Search under exigent circumstances
- § 4:280 —Stop of an automobile, generally
- § 4:281 ——Detention of vehicle occupant may be limited
- § 4:282 ——Search after stop for traffic infraction
- § 4:283 ———Entry into vehicle may be unconstitutional
- § 4:284 ——Search incident to valid arrest
- § 4:285 ——Pretextual stop unconstitutional
- § 4:286 —No notice from prosecution required
- § 4:287 —The motion to suppress
- § 4:288 —Burdens of proof at the Mapp hearing
- § 4:289 The Sandoval hearing
- § 4:290 —Additional discovery of defendant's prior bad acts

VII. BURDENS AND STANDARDS OF PROOF

- § 4:291 Burdens of proof in criminal proceedings, generally

- § 4:292 —Presumption of innocence and People’s burden of proof
- § 4:293 —Ordinary defenses and People’s burden of proof
- § 4:294 —Affirmative defense and defense burden of proof
- § 4:295 —Standard of proof for conviction
- § 4:296 — —Legally sufficient evidence

VIII. COMPETENCE OF DEFENDANT TO PLEAD AND PROCEED

- § 4:297 Defendant’s fitness to proceed and plead
- § 4:298 —Examination may be ordered
- § 4:299 —Post-examination hearing may be held
- § 4:300 —Where order of commitment required

IX. CHECKLIST

- § 4:301 Checklist—Preparation for arraignment

X. FORMS

- § 4:302 Sample Notice of Motion and Affirmation for Transfer
- § 4:303 Notice of Motion for Prosecution by Indictment
- § 4:304 Affirmation in Support of Motion for Prosecution by Indictment
- § 4:305 Prosecution Voluntary Discovery Form for DWI
- § 4:306 Demand for Discovery and a Bill of Particulars
- § 4:307 Letter Demand for 911 Recording and Preservation
- § 4:308 Notice of Omnibus Motion
- § 4:309 Affirmation in Support of Omnibus Motion
- § 4:310 Introductions at arraignment
- § 4:311 Notice of intent to present psychiatric evidence
- § 4:312 Script for taking N.G.R.I. (not guilty by reason of insanity) plea
- § 4:313 Psychiatric examination order
- § 4:314 Motion, reply and decision to dismiss on First Amendment grounds granted
- § 4:315 Motions, reply and decision to dismiss for insufficiency
- § 4:316 Sample immigration colloquy
- § 4:317 Notification to defendant of court appearance
- § 4:318 Notification of conditions of release
- § 4:319 Waiver of discovery (CPL § 245.75)
- § 4:320 Court date reminder information

CHAPTER 5. CRIMINAL TRIAL AND POST-TRIAL PROCEDURE

I. THE LOCAL CRIMINAL COURT JURY TRIAL, GENERALLY

- § 5:1 Superior and local court jury trials very similar
- § 5:2 Jury trial generally available for misdemeanors
- § 5:3 —Jury size varies with court
- § 5:4 —No right to jury if eligible for Youthful Offender status
- § 5:5 —Exception to jury trial right in New York City criminal court
- § 5:6 — —Exception to general New York City rule
- § 5:7 —Where misdemeanor and petty offense charged together
- § 5:8 Order of trial

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5:9	—Court may allow different order
§ 5:10	Formation of jury panel
§ 5:11	—Village and town justice courts
§ 5:12	—District and city courts
§ 5:13	—Jury lists may not discriminate or exclude
§ 5:14	— —Jury make-up need not reflect community
§ 5:15	—Defense may challenge the panel
§ 5:16	— —Time and manner of making challenge
§ 5:17	— —Determining issue when People controvert challenge
§ 5:18	Jury selection
§ 5:19	—Prospective jurors drawn and sworn
§ 5:20	—Court addresses prospective jurors
§ 5:21	—People and defense examine prospective jurors
§ 5:22	—Challenges for cause
§ 5:23	— —Key ground: opinion on defendant’s guilt or innocence
§ 5:24	— —Determination of challenge
§ 5:25	—Peremptory challenges
§ 5:26	—Challenged jurors must be replaced
§ 5:27	—Alternate jurors may be selected and challenged
§ 5:28	Court’s preliminary instructions to the jury
§ 5:29	Opening statements
§ 5:30	—Prosecution’s statement
§ 5:31	—Defense statement
§ 5:32	— —Time for defense statement
§ 5:33	Presentation of evidence
§ 5:34	Testimonial evidence
§ 5:35	—Direct examination
§ 5:36	— —Leading questions not permitted
§ 5:37	— —The defendant as witness
§ 5:38	—Cross-examination
§ 5:39	—Redirect and recross
§ 5:40	— —Amount and scope within court’s discretion
§ 5:41	Use of documentary evidence
§ 5:42	—Business record exception to hearsay rule
§ 5:43	Preservation and admission of real evidence
§ 5:44	—General admissibility
§ 5:45	—Chain of custody required for fungible items
§ 5:46	— —Purpose of the chain
§ 5:47	—Chain not required for non-fungible item
§ 5:48	— —Uncertainties of identification go to weight
§ 5:49	—Chain required for blood samples
§ 5:50	— —Time limit for taking samples
§ 5:51	Objections
§ 5:52	—Objections may be general or specific
§ 5:53	— —Time for objections
§ 5:54	— —Issue unavailable on appeal where no objection
§ 5:55	Trial motions
§ 5:56	—Mistrial
§ 5:57	— —May preclude double jeopardy claim
§ 5:58	—Motion for change of venue
§ 5:59	—Trial order of dismissal

- § 5:60 — —Time for decision on motion
- § 5:61 — —Failure to move may operate as waiver
- § 5:62 — —Grant of motion bars retrial but not all appeals
- § 5:63 Summations
- § 5:64 —Counsel entitled to know beforehand what jury will consider
- § 5:65 —Time and order of summations
- § 5:66 —Prosecutorial conduct on summation
- § 5:67 —Objections may be made to summations
- § 5:68 Charges to the jury and requests to charge
- § 5:69 —Counsel may submit requests to charge
- § 5:70 —Contents of charge
- § 5:71 — —Additional statements may be objectionable
- § 5:72 — —Omissions from charge as grounds for appeal
- § 5:73 Deliberations and verdict
- § 5:74 —Acquittal on count where no verdict
- § 5:75 —Motion regarding repugnant verdict
- § 5:76 —Discharge of jury without reaching verdict
- § 5:77 —Improper verdict as grounds for appeal
- § 5:78 Proceedings from verdict to sentence
- § 5:79 —The CPL 330.30 motion to set aside the verdict
- § 5:80 — —Three available grounds

II. THE LOCAL CRIMINAL COURT BENCH TRIAL

- § 5:81 Three occasions for local court bench trials
- § 5:82 —No right to jury trial for petty offenses
- § 5:83 —Misdemeanor defendant may waive right to jury trial
- § 5:84 — —Requirement of signature in court’s presence
- § 5:85 — —Court generally required to approve waiver
- § 5:86 — —Time for waiver
- § 5:87 Order of trial
- § 5:88 —General procedure, evidence and motions
- § 5:89 —Verdict
- § 5:90 — —Time for verdict

III. SEALING OF RECORDS AND RETURN OF FINGERPRINTING

- § 5:91 Effect of acquittal or dismissal of case
- § 5:92 —Court file generally sealed
- § 5:93 — —Defendant may cause file to be unsealed by placing case in issue
- § 5:94 Effect of plea or conviction to reduced charge

IV. FORMS

- § 5:95 Proposed Request for Voir Dire by Court
- § 5:96 Application to appeal from 440 motion denial
- § 5:97 C.P.L. § 440 motion
- § 5:98 2018 New York sealing statute
- § 5:99 Sealing Decision Form

CHAPTER 6. PARTICULAR CRIMINAL CHARGES AND DEFENSES

I. VEHICLE AND TRAFFIC LAW OFFENSES

- § 6:1 Vehicle and Traffic Law (VTL) offenses, generally
- § 6:2 —Most offenses constitute traffic infractions
- § 6:3 — —No mental intent usually required
- § 6:4 — —“Pretext” auto stop is constitutional
- § 6:5 — — —Inventory searches permissible but need to be conducted pursuant to an established procedure and done in a reasonable manner
- § 6:6 — — —No suppression of motor vehicle records available after hearing
- § 6:7 — — —Destructive searches
- § 6:8 —Defendant typically charged by simplified information
- § 6:9 — —Misdemeanor may be charged in one of two ways
- § 6:10 — —Statute must be literally followed
- § 6:11 — —Charges must be statutorily consistent
- § 6:12 — —Officer must witness the act
- § 6:13 — —Typographical errors may be corrected
- § 6:14 — — —Proper section should be cited
- § 6:15 Vehicle and Traffic offenses, generally—Now discovery available
- § 6:16 Vehicle and Traffic Law (VTL) offenses, generally—Discovery generally unavailable—No discovery regarding radar
- § 6:17 — —Bills of particulars unavailable
- § 6:18 — —Exception to discovery ban
- § 6:19 —Identification hearing may be held
- § 6:20 — —Burden of proof is on People
- § 6:21 — —Presumptions from production or failure to produce driver’s license
- § 6:22 — —Motor vehicle must be in operation and moving
- § 6:23 — —Identification must be “unequivocal”
- § 6:24 Vehicle and Traffic Law (VTL) offense generally—Statutory speedy trial may be applicable
- § 6:25 Vehicle and Traffic Law (VTL) offenses, generally—Misdemeanor traffic violations
- § 6:26 —Constitutional speedy trial applicable
- § 6:27 — —Joinder with misdemeanors is now relevant
- § 6:28 Numerous individual VTL offenses exist
- § 6:29 Use of cell phones
- § 6:30 —Cell Phone Law is constitutional
- § 6:31 —Cell phone use must be “on public highway”
- § 6:32 Equipment violations
- § 6:33 —Applies to all motor vehicles
- § 6:34 —Dismissal possible where violation corrected
- § 6:35 Defective brakes
- § 6:36 Driving while uninsured
- § 6:37 —People must prove four elements
- § 6:38 —Private parking lot
- § 6:39 — —Re-opening the People’s Case for Proof of Proper Parking Lot
- § 6:40 — —Element of knowledge may be presumed
- § 6:41 Failure to obey a traffic control device
- § 6:42 —Presumption of validity of device
- § 6:43 —Operation of red light must be shown

- § 6:44 — —Reflection of “red light” sufficient
- § 6:45 —Penalty on conviction
- § 6:46 Driving around rail road crossing gate
- § 6:47 Speeding
- § 6:48 —Statutory presumption of validity for speed limit signs
- § 6:49 — —Sign may be posted in one location only
- § 6:50 — —Sign should be clear
- § 6:51 No signs needed on state highway
- § 6:52 Speeding—Speed may be proven in various ways
- § 6:53 — —Reliability of speed observation devices
- § 6:54 Disclosure of second speed reading is not always required
- § 6:55 Speeding—Speed may be proven in various ways—Police visual estimation of speed may be insufficient to establish speed violation
- § 6:56 —Exact speed should be determined
- § 6:57 —Varying penalties imposed on conviction
- § 6:58 Reckless driving
- § 6:59 —Does not require operation on a public highway
- § 6:60 —Substantially unreasonable conduct required
- § 6:61 Reckless driving as a lesser included offense
- § 6:62 Reckless driving—Substantially unreasonable conduct required—Officer may be required to actually observe reckless driving
- § 6:63 — —Additional “Risk Creating Behavior” Needed
- § 6:64 — — —License violations not irrelevant
- § 6:65 Failure to have registration or inspection on a motor vehicle
- § 6:66 —Old stickers should be removed
- § 6:67 Operation while registration or privilege is suspended or revoked
- § 6:68 Aggravated Unlicensed Operation and failure to answer appearance tickets
- § 6:69 —No such offense as “attempted” aggravated unlicensed operation of a motor vehicle
- § 6:70 No double jeopardy if prior conviction is in a traffic bureau
- § 6:71 Aggravated Unlicensed Operation and failure to answer appearance tickets—Statute is constitutional
- § 6:72 —Statute on failure to answer/pay fines prospective only; amendments to existing statutes retroactive
- § 6:73 —Limitations on plea bargains for certain charges
- § 6:74 —Notice to defendant of license suspension is key element
- § 6:75 — —Process of notice is constitutional
- § 6:76 — —Statutory notice may violate confrontation clause
- § 6:77 — —Estoppel
- § 6:78 — —Right to confrontation does not extend to accusatory instrument
- § 6:79 — —Statutory presumption of notice available to People
- § 6:80 —Notice can be of suspension or revocation
- § 6:81 —Presumption of notice
- § 6:82 — —Proof of notice of suspension
- § 6:83 — — —DMV not required to keep track of changes of addresses of motorists
- § 6:84 — — —Pending prosecution may be required
- § 6:85 — —Surrender of license may be sufficient proof of notice that license or privilege to drive has been suspended or revoked
- § 6:86 —DMV database considered reliable
- § 6:87 —Aggravated Unlicensed Operation in the third degree

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:88 — —Fine, surcharge and jail may be imposed

§ 6:89 —Aggravated Unlicensed Operation in the second degree

§ 6:90 — —Sentence for conviction under first subsection of Veh & Traf Law § 511(2)(a)

§ 6:91 — —Mandatory jail strictly enforced

§ 6:92 — —Sentence for conviction under second through fourth subsections of Veh & Traf Law § 511(2)(a)

§ 6:93 —Facilitating Aggravated Unlicensed Operation, third degree

§ 6:94 — —Fine, jail or both on conviction

§ 6:95 —Facilitating Aggravated Unlicensed Operation, second degree

§ 6:96 — —Motor vehicle, defined

§ 6:97 — —Sentence depends on subsection violated

§ 6:98 —Failure to answer appearance tickets or pay fines imposed

§ 6:99 — —Statute is constitutional

§ 6:100 — —Proper county for venue

§ 6:101 — —Strict liability may be available

§ 6:102 —FFailure to answer appearance tickets or pay fines imposed—Fine, jail or both may be imposed

§ 6:103 —Unlicensed driving by nonresidents

§ 6:104 Definition of “resident” of New York State

§ 6:105 Aggravated Unlicensed Operation and failure to answer appearance tickets—Unlicensed driving by nonresidents—Out-of-state license may not be a defense

§ 6:106 Driving While Intoxicated (DWI)

§ 6:107 —“Common law” or per se DWI

§ 6:108 —Aggravated DWI, per se

§ 6:109 —Driving while ability impaired by drugs

§ 6:110 —Driving while ability impaired by combined influence

§ 6:111 —Out-of-state convictions

§ 6:112 —Under age 21

§ 6:113 —Under age 21, per se

§ 6:114 —Defense must be permitted to argue B.A.C. level

§ 6:115 —“Common law” or per se DWI—Requirements for common law DWI conviction

§ 6:116 — —Requirements for per se DWI conviction

§ 6:117 — —License suspension at arraignment may be required

§ 6:118 — —Fine or imprisonment, generally

§ 6:119 — — —Fine or imprisonment—§ 1192

§ 6:120 — — — —Conviction with other crimes

§ 6:121 — — — —License sanctions and revocation periods

§ 6:122 — — — —Permanent revocation under Vehicle & Traffic Law § 1193(2)(b)(12)

§ 6:123 — —License suspension at arraignment may be required—Suspension where test results not available at arraignment

§ 6:124 —License suspension—Three factors that must be satisfied

§ 6:125 — —Mandatory breath test under Vehicle & Traffic Law § 1194(1)(b)

§ 6:126 — — —Reasonable grounds to demand breath test

§ 6:127 — —Accusatory instrument not required

§ 6:128 — —Evidence of refusal admissible

§ 6:129 — —Refusal need not be articulated by express language

§ 6:130 — — —Vacillation of refusal

§ 6:131 — — — —Conditional consent is considered refusal

- § 6:132 — — — —Refusal on advice of counsel not an excuse
- § 6:133 — — — —Suspension based on refusal held constitutional
- § 6:134 — — — —Results of test are inadmissible if there was a failure to adequately warn
- § 6:135 — — — —Example of standard warnings after initial refusal
- § 6:136 — — — —Restoration of license after refusal
- § 6:137 — — — —Extreme hardship
- § 6:138 — — — —“Common law” or per se DWI—License suspension at arraignment may be required—Eligibility for conditional license after 30 days
- § 6:139 — — — —Probation or conditional discharge may be available
- § 6:140 — — — —License suspended on conviction
- § 6:141 — — — —Statute revoking license constitutional
- § 6:142 Chemical test evidence, per se
- § 6:143 Driving While Ability Impaired (DWAI)
- § 6:144 — — — —Subjective or objective test of impairment
- § 6:145 — — — —Objective standard
- § 6:146 — — — —Subjective standard
- § 6:147 — — — —Fine, jail or both may be imposed
- § 6:148 — — — —Conditional discharge may be available
- § 6:149 — — — —License suspended or revoked on conviction
- § 6:150 Impact of convictions for Vehicle and Traffic Law offenses
- § 6:151 — — — —Both courts and administrative judge have equal authority to suspend
- § 6:152 — — — —Points may be placed against a driver’s license
- § 6:153 — — — —Eleven points renders license subject to suspension or revocation
- § 6:154 — — — —Offenses carry varying numbers of points
- § 6:155 — — — —Eighteen-month period determines point level
- § 6:156 — — — —Class attendance may reduce point number
- § 6:157 — — — —Driver’s license may be suspended or revoked
- § 6:158 — — — —Some suspensions are discretionary
- § 6:159 — — — —Some revocations are mandatory
- § 6:160 — — — —Court convictions are not necessary to sustain a revocation or suspension
- § 6:161 — — — —Administrative hearing for suspension or revocation
- § 6:162 — — — —Many possible forums for hearing
- § 6:163 — — — —The People’s burdens at the hearing
- § 6:164 — — — —Insurance may be denied, or rates increased
- § 6:165 — — — —Specific convictions support denial of insurance
- § 6:166 — — — —Specific convictions support rate increases
- § 6:167 Motor vehicle violation defenses—Stolen vehicle defense
- § 6:168 — — — —Leaving the scene of an accident
- § 6:169 — — — —Defenses to § 1110, violation of traffic control device

II. VIOLATIONS OF LOCAL LAWS

- § 6:170 Local laws, generally
- § 6:171 Municipalities authorized to legislate local concerns
- § 6:172 — — — —Local laws presumed to be valid
- § 6:173 — — — —Invalidity beyond reasonable doubt overcomes presumption
- § 6:174 — — — —Regulation of free speech
- § 6:175 — — — —Commercial speech
- § 6:176 — — — —Issue of constitutionality is not waived on appeal

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:177 —Regulation of free speech—Religious and political activities are protected

§ 6:178 — —Overbreadth and vagueness may also void laws

§ 6:179 —Public policy considerations

§ 6:180 —State may preempt certain areas of law

§ 6:181 — —Local law must meet valid municipal purposes

§ 6:182 — —Local laws not to contravene state policy

§ 6:183 — —Co-existence of local and state laws

§ 6:184 — —Local laws must not contravene federal policy

§ 6:185 —Local laws usually impose strict liability

§ 6:186 — —Statutory language relevant

§ 6:187 — —Appropriate for regulation of local concerns

§ 6:188 — — —Private and public interests must be balanced

§ 6:189 Parking, standing and stopping offenses

§ 6:190 —Definition not always needed in local law

§ 6:191 —Discrimination against nonresidents may be unconstitutional

§ 6:192 —Adequate signs must be posted

§ 6:193 —Handicap parking

§ 6:194 — —Signs must be properly displayed

§ 6:195 —“Parking ticket” not accusatory instrument

§ 6:196 — —Does not require issuance of supporting deposition

§ 6:197 — —Sufficient accusatory instrument must be filed

§ 6:198 —Trials to be in accordance with CPL and CPLR

§ 6:199 — —Presumption of defendant’s identity

§ 6:200 — —Liability may be avoided in emergency situation

§ 6:201 —Impact of conviction

§ 6:202 —Local officials must have authority to enforce laws

§ 6:203 Zoning, planning and building laws and ordinances

§ 6:204 —Many generally applicable defenses available

§ 6:205 — —Possession of certificate of occupancy

§ 6:206 — — —Certificate entitled to great weight

§ 6:207 — —Certificates can expire

§ 6:208 — — —Limited searches

§ 6:209 — —Possession of building permit

§ 6:210 — — —Necessity for a building permit

§ 6:211 — — —Temporary structures

§ 6:212 — — —Burden of unconstitutionality is on the defendant

§ 6:213 — — —Validly issued permit constitutes defense

§ 6:214 — — —Permit plus “vested rights”

§ 6:215 — — —Improperly issued permit may be revoked

§ 6:216 — —Accessory use

§ 6:217 — —Prior nonconforming use

§ 6:218 — — —Considered an affirmative defense

§ 6:219 —Many applicable defenses available—Prior nonconforming use—
Considered an affirmative defense—Burden is on the defendant

§ 6:220 —Many generally applicable defenses available—Prior nonconforming use—Not applicable to State Fire Code

§ 6:221 — — —Increase in use not relevant

§ 6:222 — — —Increase in size improper

§ 6:223 — — —Increase in interior structure not allowed

§ 6:224 — — —Illegal use may not be justified

§ 6:225 — — —Issue of abandonment

- § 6:226 — —Action may be stayed pending Zoning Board
- § 6:227 Defenses common to all local law charges
- § 6:228 —Statute of limitations
- § 6:229 — —Limitations tolled by continuing offenses
- § 6:230 — —Tolling while out of state
- § 6:231 —Statutory speedy trial right
- § 6:232 — —Speedy trial rights apply to village courts
- § 6:233 — —Request of “jail time” in ordinance
- § 6:234 — —Time limits for misdemeanors and petty offenses
- § 6:235 — —Due diligence
- § 6:236 —Constitutional speedy trial right
- § 6:237 —Due process
- § 6:238 —Dismissal in the interests of justice
- § 6:239 — —Remedial measures not ground for dismissal
- § 6:240 — —Economic hardship not ground for dismissal
- § 6:241 —Legal insufficiency of accusatory instruments
- § 6:242 —Required notice of violation not received
- § 6:243 —Improper complainant
- § 6:244 — —No action against municipality for lack of enforcement
- § 6:245 —Selective prosecution
- § 6:246 — —Selective enforcement of laws not always unlawful
- § 6:247 — —Must be made by motion and not at trial
- § 6:248 — —Defense must make certain showings
- § 6:249 —Lack of any conduct on part of defendant
- § 6:250 — —Landowners still vicariously liable
- § 6:251 — — —Liability limited where owner denied access
- § 6:252 — —Others involved with real property may still be liable

III. PENAL LAW OFFENSES PROSECUTED IN LOCAL COURTS

- § 6:253 Penal law offenses in lower courts, generally
- § 6:254 Petit larceny
- § 6:255 —The “property” stolen may be of many types
- § 6:256 —Value and nature of property key
- § 6:257 — —Certain types of property create more serious charge
- § 6:258 —May be committed in various ways
- § 6:259 —Five elements of larceny
- § 6:260 — —Exercise of dominion and control is key
- § 6:261 — — —Need not be extreme
- § 6:262 — — —Necessary for conviction
- § 6:263 —Five elements of Larceny by False Pretenses
- § 6:264 —Sufficient accusatory instrument
- § 6:265 Assault
- § 6:266 —Elements of the offense
- § 6:267 — —Physical injury must always be caused
- § 6:268 — —Criminally negligent assault with deadly weapon or dangerous instrument
- § 6:269 — — —Criminal negligence
- § 6:270 — — —Deadly weapon
- § 6:271 — — —Dangerous instrument
- § 6:272 Menacing
- § 6:273 —Menacing A Police Officer

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:274 — —Federal border agents included

§ 6:275 —Third degree Menacing

§ 6:276 — —Statutory “fear of serious physical injury” includes fear of rape

§ 6:277 —Second degree Menacing

§ 6:278 Criminal mischief

§ 6:279 Prostitution offenses

§ 6:280 Prostitution offenses committed by person other than the prostitute

§ 6:281 —Fourth degree Patronizing a Prostitute

§ 6:282 —Third degree Patronizing a Prostitute

§ 6:283 —Third degree Promoting Prostitution

§ 6:284 —Permitting Prostitution

§ 6:285 Trespass offenses

§ 6:286 —Trespass

§ 6:287 — —Defendant’s knowledge is requisite element

§ 6:288 —Third degree Criminal Trespass

§ 6:289 — —“Building” broadly defined

§ 6:290 —Second degree Criminal Trespass

§ 6:291 — —Entry into “dwelling” required

§ 6:292 Harassment

§ 6:293 —Second degree Harassment

§ 6:294 —First degree Harassment

§ 6:295 Disorderly conduct

§ 6:296 Hazing, generally

§ 6:297 Hazing—First Degree

§ 6:298 —Second Degree

§ 6:299 Aggravated Disorderly Conduct

§ 6:300 Sexual Abuse, generally

§ 6:301 —Defenses—Defendant not aware that victim could not consent

§ 6:302 — —Valid medical reason or health care purpose

§ 6:303 — —Married to victim

§ 6:304 Sexual Misconduct

§ 6:305 Forcible Touching

§ 6:306 Persistent Sexual Abuse

§ 6:307 Sexual Abuse in the Third Degree

§ 6:308 Sexual Abuse in the Second Degree

§ 6:309 Sexual Abuse in the First Degree

§ 6:310 Corroboration not required

§ 6:311 Acting for the purposes of sexual gratification

§ 6:312 Establishing physical helplessness

§ 6:313 Aggravated sexual abuse in the Fourth Degree

§ 6:314 Aggravated sexual abuse in the Third Degree

§ 6:315 Aggravated sexual abuse in the Second Degree

§ 6:316 Aggravated sexual abuse in the First Degree

§ 6:317 Course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree

§ 6:318 Course of sexual conduct against a child in the second degree

§ 6:319 Female genital mutilation

§ 6:320 —No violation

§ 6:321 Facilitation of a sex offense with a controlled substance

§ 6:322 Sexually motivated felony, general law

§ 6:323 Sentencing, generally

§ 6:324 Predatory sexual assault

- § 6:325 Predatory sexual assault against children
- § 6:326 Endangering the welfare of a child
- § 6:327 —Corroboration required
- § 6:328 —Defenses—Religious defense
- § 6:329 — —Safe harbor defense
- § 6:330 —Conduct not directed at a child
- § 6:331 —Actual harm not required
- § 6:332 —State preemption
- § 6:333 —Unborn children
- § 6:334 —Persons “legally responsible” for childcare
- § 6:335 —Creation of circumstance
- § 6:336 — —Driving while impaired
- § 6:337 — —Firearms
- § 6:338 — —Alcohol & drugs
- § 6:339 — —Child consent is not a defense
- § 6:340 —Attempt crime is possible
- § 6:341 Unlawfully dealing with a child in the First Degree
- § 6:342 Unlawfully dealing with a child in the Second Degree
- § 6:343 Kidnapping—Definitions—Restraint
- § 6:344 — —Abduction
- § 6:345 — —Relative
- § 6:346 —Second degree
- § 6:347 —First degree
- § 6:348 — —Presumption of death during crime
- § 6:349 —Statute constitutional
- § 6:350 —Affirmative defense
- § 6:351 — —May not apply to biological mother
- § 6:352 Unlawful imprisonment—Second degree
- § 6:353 —First degree
- § 6:354 —Intent required
- § 6:355 —Affirmative defense
- § 6:356 Sovereignty and double jeopardy, generally
- § 6:357 Dual sovereignty, generally
- § 6:358 Defending dual charges—Generally
- § 6:359 —Burden of proof on prosecutors once prima facie or nonfrivolous claim produced
- § 6:360 —New York courts have held that double jeopardy may attach to a state prosecution that commences after a federal prosecution concludes
- § 6:361 —Previous prosecutions may bar second prosecution; CPL § 40.20, generally
- § 6:362 —Previous prosecutions may bar second prosecution—Substantially different elements, CPL § 40.20(a)
- § 6:363 — —Exceptions—Prevention of different harms or evils, CPL § 40.20(b)
- § 6:364 — —Contraband matter CPL § 40.20(c)
- § 6:365 — —Exceptions—Homicide as a result of assault-type crime CPL § 40.20(d)
- § 6:366 — — —Other exceptions
- § 6:367 —Separate prosecution of jointly prosecutable offenses may bar one or the other; CPL § 40.40
- § 6:368 —Military court martial tribunal held to be a “court” within meaning of CPL §§ 40.20 et seq

IV. FORMS

- § 6:369 Sample Parking Ticket
- § 6:370 Pilot project—Distracted Driving Education Program
- § 6:371 Distracted Driver Education Program of the Nassau County Traffic and Parking Violations Agency

CHAPTER 7. SENTENCING AND POST-SENTENCING PROCEEDINGS

I. SENTENCING ALTERNATIVES

- § 7:1 Sentencing, generally
- § 7:2 Many sentence alternatives available
- § 7:3 Incarceration
- § 7:4 —Offenses for which incarceration may be ordered
- § 7:5 — —Class A and B misdemeanors
- § 7:6 — —Unclassified misdemeanors
- § 7:7 — —Violations
- § 7:8 — — —Defined by the Penal Law
- § 7:9 — — —Defined by other laws or ordinances
- § 7:10 — —Traffic infractions
- § 7:11 — —Incarceration for violation of local laws
- § 7:12 — — —Town laws and ordinances
- § 7:13 — — —Village laws and ordinances
- § 7:14 — — —City laws and ordinances
- § 7:15 — — —Jail for zoning violations possible
- § 7:16 —No imprisonment where sentencing not statutory option under law
- § 7:17 —Sentence length may be reduced by good behavior
- § 7:18 —Concurrent vs consecutive terms
- § 7:19 — —When consecutive sentences are possible
- § 7:20 — —When sentences must be concurrent
- § 7:21 — —When court fails to specify
- § 7:22 — —Limit on total time of consecutive sentences
- § 7:23 —Right to counsel if possibility of incarceration exists
- § 7:24 — —Exception for traffic infractions
- § 7:25 — —Court must advise of right to assigned counsel
- § 7:26 No speedy trial rights for delay of sentencing
- § 7:27 —Court may not render right inapplicable
- § 7:28 Probation and conditional discharge
- § 7:29 —Numerous statutory and non-statutory conditions may be imposed
- § 7:30 — —Statutory conditions to be imposed on reasonable basis
- § 7:31 — —Community service often more useful than incarceration
- § 7:32 Community service must accommodate Federal Disabilities Act—
Sentencing and fines
- § 7:33 Probation and conditional discharge—Numerous statutory and non-statutory conditions may be imposed—Posting of bond or other security may be ordered
- § 7:34 — —Court may fashion remedy, within limits
- § 7:35 — — —Searches ordered must be constitutional
- § 7:36 — —Conditions should be reasonably specific
- § 7:37 — —Conditions must be related to rehabilitation

- § 7:38 — —House arrest improper
- § 7:39 — — —Electronic monitoring pursuant to Penal Law Section 65.10 permitted People v. McNair overruled
- § 7:40 —When incarceration may also be imposed
- § 7:41 —No modification of jail time
- § 7:42 —Certain factors render probation appropriate
- § 7:43 — —Length of probation depends on offense committed
- § 7:44 — —Conditions must be specified in writing
- § 7:45 — — —Exception
- § 7:46 — —Probationer not free to leave jurisdiction
- § 7:47 — —Transfer of supervision of probationers
- § 7:48 — —Probation officer supervises defendant
- § 7:49 — — —May take defendant into custody on violation
- § 7:50 — —Tolling of violation
- § 7:51 — — —May obtain and execute search warrant
- § 7:52 — —Resentencing possible on probation violation
- § 7:53 —Conditional discharge only appropriate for specific defendants
- § 7:54 — —Same length for both misdemeanors and violations
- § 7:55 — —May be imposed for traffic infractions
- § 7:56 — —Conditions not to exceed length of sentence
- § 7:57 — —Conditions need not be specified in writing
- § 7:58 — —Resentencing possible on violation
- § 7:59 Fines
- § 7:60 —Fines can be raised, but it must comply with local law
- § 7:61 —Fines for misdemeanors and violations
- § 7:62 —Fines for traffic infractions
- § 7:63 — —Town Court may approve reduction of charges to local ordinances
- § 7:64 — —Fines increase for repeat offenses
- § 7:65 —Municipalities may impose fines
- § 7:66 — —Fines may exceed Penal Law maximum for local violations
- § 7:67 — —Municipal speeding fines must follow Vehicle and Traffic Law structure
- § 7:68 — —Violations of village zoning laws
- § 7:69 — —Violation of town zoning or planning ordinance
- § 7:70 — —Fines imposed by second class cities
- § 7:71 —Court determines payment schedule
- § 7:72 —Cash or certified checks usually required for payment
- § 7:73 —Individual defendant may be jailed for nonpayment
- § 7:74 — —Permissible jail term depends on offense
- § 7:75 —Civil judgment against individual defendant for nonpayment
- § 7:76 —Corporations may be fined
- § 7:77 — —Where ordinance is silent, Penal Law can control
- § 7:78 — —Double the amount of illegal gain may also be imposed
- § 7:79 — —Civil judgment and enforcement if fine not paid
- § 7:80 —Manner of collection and forwarding of monies
- § 7:81 —Termination of suspension fee
- § 7:82 Mandatory assessments
- § 7:83 —Mandatory surcharge 2013
- § 7:84 —Mandatory surcharge
- § 7:85 — —For offenses under the Penal Law
- § 7:86 —New surcharge for Year 2008
- § 7:87 —New surcharges for year 2003

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:88 —New surcharges in year 2000
- § 7:89 — —Surcharges for handicap parking
- § 7:90 — —For Vehicle and Traffic Law offenses
- § 7:91 — —New Vehicle and Traffic Surcharges
- § 7:92 — —New surcharges for 2000
- § 7:93 — — —Separate schedule for DWI
- § 7:94 — —New DWI surcharges in 2000
- § 7:95 — — —Certain Vehicle and Traffic Law offenses exempt from surcharge
- § 7:96 — —Defendant may be jailed for nonpayment
- § 7:97 —Crime victim assistance fee
- § 7:98 —Where convictions for more than one offense
- § 7:99 —No surcharge or crime fee where restitution ordered
- § 7:100 —Surcharge and fee may be waived for indigency
- § 7:101 — —Waiver not to be routinely made
- § 7:102 —Manner of collection and forwarding of monies
- § 7:103 —Simultaneous payment of the mandatory surcharge and restitution
- § 7:104 Restitution and reparation
- § 7:105 —Definition of “victim”
- § 7:106 — —Victim can be a company
- § 7:107 — —Victim’s estate may receive payments
- § 7:108 —Amounts may be limited
- § 7:109 —Amounts determined by agreement or after hearing
- § 7:110 —Satisfactory evidence of restitution must be proven
- § 7:111 — —Exception where amounts established at trial
- § 7:112 —Specific sum must be imposed at sentencing
- § 7:113 —Full sum can be imposed if there is a partial acquittal
- § 7:114 —Court determines payment schedule
- § 7:115 —Cash or certified checks usually required for payment
- § 7:116 —Award of restitution bars surcharge or crime fee
- § 7:117 —Individual defendant may be jailed for nonpayment
- § 7:118 — —Permissible jail term depends on offense
- § 7:119 —Civil judgments for nonpayment by individual defendants
- § 7:120 —Reparation and restitution payable by corporations
- § 7:121 — —Civil judgment and enforcement for nonpayment
- § 7:122 Civil penalties
- § 7:123 —Not barred by imposition of monetary assessments
- § 7:124 —Use of one remedy no bar to later use of others
- § 7:125 Adjournment in contemplation of dismissal
- § 7:126 —People’s consent usually required
- § 7:127 — —Exception: certain marijuana charges
- § 7:128 —ACD not an admission of guilt
- § 7:129 —Arrest and prosecution deemed a nullity
- § 7:130 —Available for certain marijuana charges
- § 7:131 —Many conditions may be imposed
- § 7:132 — —Cannot impose waiver of rights in related civil litigation
- § 7:133 —Release on recognizance, and notice of dismissal, required
- § 7:134 —Restoration to calendar possible
- § 7:135 —Effect of ACD on later civil suits
- § 7:136 Unconditional discharge
- § 7:137 Various options for sentencing corporations

II. SENTENCING PROCEDURE

- § 7:138 Conviction must occur before sentencing
- § 7:139 Court must sentence after entry of conviction
- § 7:140 —Sentence to be pronounced without unreasonable delay
- § 7:141 — —Adjournment to determine amount of fine
- § 7:142 — —Adjournment to determine prior convictions
- § 7:143 — —Adjournment for investigation or specific activity
- § 7:144 Prosecutor’s presence at sentencing not required
- § 7:145 Individual defendant’s presence not always required
- § 7:146 —Court may excuse defendant where presence required
- § 7:147 —Sentencing in absentia where defendant’s absence unexcused
- § 7:148 — —Unexcused absence may vitiate plea and promise
- § 7:149 Many sentences immediate when defendant’s appearance optional
- § 7:150 —Most traffic infractions may be answered by mail
- § 7:151 — —Exception to mail plea for certain offenses
- § 7:152 — — —Unauthorized plea by mail a nullity
- § 7:153 —Procedure for plea by mail
- § 7:154 —Sentencing and payment
- § 7:155 — —Police officer may not provide fine schedule
- § 7:156 Immediate sentence when defendant appears in court
- § 7:157 Immediate sentence when defendant waives appearance for entry of plea
- § 7:158 Presentence reports
- § 7:159 —Report required on certain misdemeanors
- § 7:160 — —Exception: where required report waived
- § 7:161 —Report not required on petty offenses
- § 7:162 —Report required where Youthful Offender adjudication possible
- § 7:163 —Contents of report
- § 7:164 — —Court may request abbreviated report
- § 7:165 —Report confidential except on court order
- § 7:166 —Made available to parties one day before sentencing
- § 7:167 —Parties may submit presentence memoranda
- § 7:168 —Court may hold presentence conference
- § 7:169 — —Hearing may also be held if necessary
- § 7:170 —Correctional center receives report after sentencing
- § 7:171 Delayed sentence where fingerprinting required
- § 7:172 Plea bargains, generally
- § 7:173 Arriving at a bargained-for sentence
- § 7:174 —Prosecution’s offer may contain various elements
- § 7:175 —Court alone may make sentence commitment
- § 7:176 —Sentencing follows allocution and plea
- § 7:177 —Court may disregard sentence promise in some cases
- § 7:178 — —Where new information discovered
- § 7:179 — — —Where original commitment conditional
- § 7:180 — — —Where original commitment unconditional
- § 7:181 — — —Less severe sentence may also be imposed
- § 7:182 — —Where defendant absent from sentencing
- § 7:183 —Reasons for higher sentence must be put on record
- § 7:184 —Sentence after trial, without bargain, may be more severe
- § 7:185 Admonishment of defendant where monetary penalties imposed
- § 7:186 — —A no-jail sentence may be stayed
- § 7:187 —Possibility of jail for nonpayment must be stated

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:188 —Alternative jail sentence may be announced
- § 7:189 Sentencing of corporations
- § 7:190 Option of Youthful Offender adjudication at sentencing
- § 7:191 —Status mandatory if criteria met
- § 7:192 —Where two or more simultaneous convictions occur
- § 7:193 —Certain events make status unavailable
- § 7:194 —Presentence report reviewed after conviction
- § 7:195 —YO adjudication not a criminal conviction
- § 7:196 — —Conviction and most consequences set aside
- § 7:197 — — —Exception: incarceration may still be imposed
- § 7:198 — — —Certain fines may be imposed
- § 7:199 —Sentencing may be in closed courtroom
- § 7:200 —File confidential on adjudication
- § 7:201 Parties have right to address sentencing court
- § 7:202 —Victim’s right to address sentencing court may not extend to local courts
- § 7:203 —Parties’ statements sent to incarceration facility
- § 7:204 Certificate of relief from civil disabilities
- § 7:205 —Relief discretionary where defendant eligible
- § 7:206 —Any court may grant certificate

III. PAYMENT AND ENFORCEMENT OF MONETARY OBLIGATIONS

- § 7:207 Payment of fines, restitution or surcharge
- § 7:208 Criminal and civil remedies for nonpayment
- § 7:209 —Criminal enforcement against individuals
- § 7:210 —Civil enforcement by people against individuals
- § 7:211 — —Restitution or reparation have priority
- § 7:212 — —Prosecutor enforces civil judgment
- § 7:213 — —Lien priority of civil judgment
- § 7:214 —Alternative civil suit by victim for reparation or restitution
- § 7:215 —Civil enforcement by People against corporation
- § 7:216 Defendant may be resentenced if unable to pay
- § 7:217 —Defendant’s assets must be considered
- § 7:218 —Resentence to jail not to be automatic
- § 7:219 Discharge in bankruptcy generally unavailable
- § 7:220 —Fine is chargeable against estate
- § 7:221 Overpayments may be recovered

IV. MOTIONS TO SET ASIDE SENTENCES AND VACATE JUDGMENTS

- § 7:222 Nature of the motions
- § 7:223 —Motions addressed to sentences and judgments compared
- § 7:224 —Resentencing also available outside of motion
- § 7:225 Some procedure applicable to both motions
- § 7:226 —One motion in writing on notice to People
- § 7:227 —Contents of motion papers
- § 7:228 —Court may be required to summarily grant motion
- § 7:229 —Court may be able to summarily deny motion
- § 7:230 —Court may hold a hearing
- § 7:231 Defense motion to set aside a sentence

- § 7:232 —Scope of relief is limited
- § 7:233 —Mandatory and discretionary denial of motion
- § 7:234 —Interest of justice consideration of merits
- § 7:235 —Grant of motion does not affect judgment
- § 7:236 Motion by People to set aside sentence
- § 7:237 —Mandatory and discretionary denial of motion
- § 7:238 —Where bargained-for sentence cannot be carried out
- § 7:239 —Grant of motion does not affect judgment
- § 7:240 The motion to vacate a judgment
- § 7:241 —Use of the motion in lower criminal courts
- § 7:242 — —Frequently used to vacate guilty pleas
- § 7:243 —Time for motion
- § 7:244 —Eight available grounds
- § 7:245 — —Ineffective assistance of counsel
- § 7:246 — —Rosario violations
- § 7:247 — —New evidence
- § 7:248 — —Denial of motion may be required
- § 7:249 —Where denial of motion is discretionary
- § 7:250 —Consideration of motion in the interest of justice

V. VIOLATION OF PROBATION

- § 7:251 Sentence may be altered or revoked
- § 7:252 Filing of affidavit commences proceeding
- § 7:253 —Filing need not be immediate
- § 7:254 Declaration of delinquency may be issued
- § 7:255 —Accusatory instrument prepared if declaration issued
- § 7:256 — —Sufficiency of instrument
- § 7:257 Defendant brought to court after delinquency declaration
- § 7:258 —Upon filing of declaration, defendant must be brought to court
- § 7:259 —Procedure for warrants in cases of violations of probation and conditional discharges
- § 7:260 —Arraignment
- § 7:261 — —Right to counsel
- § 7:262 — —Defendant's statement affects further proceedings
- § 7:263 — —Bail
- § 7:264 Hearing on the violation
- § 7:265 —Defendant's case
- § 7:266 —Standard for conviction
- § 7:267 —Failure to convict does not bar future criminal case
- § 7:268 Sentencing
- § 7:269 —Pendency of proceeding affects sentence

VI. FORMS

- § 7:270 Sentencing—Specialized courts
- § 7:271 Judgment Order (Fine, Surcharge, Crime Fee)
- § 7:272 Judgment Order (Restitution, Reparation)
- § 7:273 Affidavit of Defendant Corporation
- § 7:274 Reproduction of Order of Protection—Family Offense
- § 7:275 —Non-Family Offense
- § 7:276 Defendant's Waiver of Appearance for Entry of Plea

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:277 Community Service Agreement
- § 7:278 Order to Stay Execution of Sentence & Attorney Affirmation
- § 7:279 Nassau County mental health court program contract & treatment plan
- § 7:280 Nassau County felony treatment court handbook & adjournment schedule
- § 7:281 C.P.L. § 440 motion

CHAPTER 8. CRIMINAL APPEALS

I. THE INTERMEDIATE APPELLATE COURTS

- § 8:1 The appropriate appellate courts, generally
- § 8:2 —Appeals from the New York City Criminal Court
- § 8:3 —Lower criminal courts outside New York City
- § 8:4 Appropriate appellate court, by judicial department
- § 8:5 —Appeals to Appellate Term in the First Department
- § 8:6 — —Geographic areas and judicial districts covered
- § 8:7 —Appeals to Appellate Term in the Second Department
- § 8:8 — —Geographic areas and judicial districts covered
- § 8:9 —Appeals to County Court in the Third Department
- § 8:10 — —Geographic areas and judicial districts covered
- § 8:11 —Appeals to County Court in the Fourth Department
- § 8:12 — —Geographic areas and judicial districts covered
- § 8:13 Subsequent appeal is to Court of Appeals

II. APPEALS BY DEFENSE AND PROSECUTION

- § 8:14 Defendant's right to appeal is statutory, but fundamental
- § 8:15 Right of indigent persons to appellate counsel
- § 8:16 Appeals by defendant to intermediate appellate court as of right
- § 8:17 —From judgments and sentences unless sentence of death
- § 8:18 — —Where sentence was part of plea bargain
- § 8:19 — —Appeal from sentence, defined
- § 8:20 — —Limits on appeals from resentencing
- § 8:21 — —Two grounds for appeal of sentence
- § 8:22 — — —Appeal if sentence invalid as a matter of law
- § 8:23 —From sentence that includes order of forfeiture
- § 8:24 —From order setting aside sentence
- § 8:25 Appeals by defendant to intermediate appellate court by permission
- § 8:26 —From order denying motion to vacate judgment or set aside sentence
- § 8:27 —From sentence not appealable as of right
- § 8:28 Appeals by the People to intermediate appellate court as of right
- § 8:29 —From a sentence
- § 8:30 —From order dismissing accusatory instrument
- § 8:31 —From order dismissing indictment and directing filing of prosecutor's information
- § 8:32 —From order setting aside verdict and dismissing accusatory instrument
- § 8:33 —From order setting aside or modifying verdict
- § 8:34 —From order vacating a judgment
- § 8:35 —From order setting aside a sentence
- § 8:36 —From order denying motion to set aside a sentence
- § 8:37 —From an order suppressing evidence
- § 8:38 — —People must file statement regarding impact of appealed ruling

- § 8:39 — —Appeal bars prosecution on instrument if order is not reversed
- § 8:40 —From an order setting aside or modifying a forfeiture verdict
- § 8:41 Direct appeals to Court of Appeals by defendant and People
- § 8:42 Appeals to Court of Appeals from intermediate appellate courts
- § 8:43 —Limited appeals from reversal or modification
- § 8:44 Appealing bail determinations

III. PROCEDURE FOR APPEALS TO INTERMEDIATE APPELLATE COURTS

- § 8:45 Taking appeal as of right where record was kept below
- § 8:46 —Notice of appeal must be filed
- § 8:47 — —Statement required in notice
- § 8:48 — —Filing to be in duplicate
- § 8:49 — — —Filing where lower court has clerk
- § 8:50 — — —Filing where lower court has no clerk
- § 8:51 —Notice of appeal must be served
- § 8:52 — —Procedure when defendant is appellant
- § 8:53 — —Procedure when the People are appellant
- § 8:54 Taking appeal as of right where no record was kept below
- § 8:55 —Affidavit of errors or notice of appeal must be filed
- § 8:56 — —Where notice of appeal filed first
- § 8:57 —Affidavit of errors must be served
- § 8:58 — —Procedure when defendant is appellant
- § 8:59 — —Procedure when the People appeal
- § 8:60 —Local court must file affidavit of errors and return
- § 8:61 — —Where return is not filed or is defective
- § 8:62 —Local court must serve return on parties
- § 8:63 Procedure for appeal by permission
- § 8:64 —Application for certificate granting leave to appeal
- § 8:65 — —Procedure in First Department
- § 8:66 — —Procedure in Second Department
- § 8:67 — —Procedure in Third Department
- § 8:68 — —Procedure in Fourth Department
- § 8:69 —Filings must be made if certificate issued
- § 8:70 — —Where no record was kept below
- § 8:71 —Subsequent procedure same as for appeals as of right

IV. PROCEDURE FOR APPEALS TO COURT OF APPEALS

- § 8:72 Certificate granting leave to appeal required
- § 8:73 —Certificate and its issuance
- § 8:74 —Time to apply for certificate
- § 8:75 —Manner of application
- § 8:76 —Notifications to parties by Court of Appeals
- § 8:77 —Determination of the application

V. EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO TAKE APPEAL, AND CORRECTION OF ERRORS

- § 8:78 Defendant's time for taking an appeal may be extended
- § 8:79 —Only two grounds available for granting extension
- § 8:80 —Time for motion for extension

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:81 —Written motion on notice required
- § 8:82 —Contents of motion papers
- § 8:83 —People may file opposition papers
- § 8:84 —Motion determined on submission or after hearing
- § 8:85 — —When motion must be granted without hearing
- § 8:86 — —When motion may be denied without hearing
- § 8:87 — —When hearing required
- § 8:88 —Appeal of intermediate appellate court's determination of motion
- § 8:89 Appellate courts have discretion to correct errors
- § 8:90 —Errors in connection with documents
- § 8:91 —Errors in connection with service of notice of appeal

VI. STAYS OF JUDGMENT PENDING APPEAL

- § 8:92 Stay pending appeal to intermediate appellate court
- § 8:93 —Various factors determine whether stay is appropriate
- § 8:94 — —Appeals from local courts outside New York City
- § 8:95 — —Appeals from New York City Criminal Court
- § 8:96 —Prosecution entitled to notice and opportunity to be heard
- § 8:97 —One application only may be made
- § 8:98 —Order granting stay may remain in effect for 120 days
- § 8:99 — —Exception
- § 8:100 —Stay effective when defendant released or bail posted
- § 8:101 —Defendant must surrender if judgment affirmed
- § 8:102 Stay pending appeal to Court of Appeals
- § 8:103 —When order and stay become effective
- § 8:104 —Time for application for stay
- § 8:105 — —Prosecution entitled to notice and opportunity to be heard
- § 8:106 — —One application only may be made
- § 8:107 —Order granting stay effective for 120 days
- § 8:108 — —Period may be longer if time for argument/submission extended
- § 8:109 —Stay terminates when leave to appeal is denied
- § 8:110 — —Defendant must surrender when leave is denied
- § 8:111 —Surrender of defendant if judgment is affirmed
- § 8:112 Sentences of imprisonment, generally
- § 8:113 Appeals for suspension of license—Suspension from court—Stays pending appeal
- § 8:114 — —Effect of stay order
- § 8:115 —Hearing from Department of Motor Vehicles—Pleadings, generally
- § 8:116 — —General procedure
- § 8:117 — —Evidence, generally
- § 8:118 — —Penalties
- § 8:119 — —Delay of suspension or fine
- § 8:120 — —Automatic dismissals

VII. PERFECTING THE APPEAL

- § 8:121 Procedure generally determined by appellate courts
- § 8:122 Perfecting appeal to County Court or Appellate Term where no stenographic record kept
- § 8:123 —Notice of argument must be filed and served
- § 8:124 — —Time for argument may be delayed
- § 8:125 —Compliance with court rules required

- § 8:126 —Dismissal for failure to comply with procedure
- § 8:127 Perfecting appeals to intermediate appellate court in all other instances
- § 8:128 —Many matters determined by court rules
- § 8:129 —Preparing and settling transcripts for appeal as of right
- § 8:130 —Transcripts for poor persons taking an appeal as of right
- § 8:131 — —Expense of transcripts covered by state funds
- § 8:132 — —Transcript may be provided to defendant or counsel
- § 8:133 Appeal to the Court of Appeals
- § 8:134 —Many matters determined by court rules

VIII. FORMS

- § 8:135 Notice of Appeal
- § 8:136 Affidavit of Errors
- § 8:137 Application for Stay Pending Appeal
- § 8:138 Notice of entry

CHAPTER 9. COMMENCEMENT OF A CIVIL ACTION AND PRETRIAL PROCEDURE

I. CIVIL JURISDICTION

- § 9:1 Subject matter jurisdiction of village and town courts
- § 9:2 —Exceptions for Nassau and Suffolk Counties
- § 9:3 —Jurisdictional amount and joinder of claims
- § 9:4 —Counterclaims
- § 9:5 — —Amount in excess of jurisdictional limit deemed waived
- § 9:6 —Additional jurisdiction and powers
- § 9:7 Venue and jurisdiction over parties in the justice courts
- § 9:8 —Failure to meet jurisdictional requirement may be waived
- § 9:9 Subject matter jurisdiction of district courts
- § 9:10 —Jurisdictional amount and joinder of claims
- § 9:11 — —Exception to permissible joinder
- § 9:12 —Provisional remedies
- § 9:13 —Counterclaims
- § 9:14 —Additional jurisdiction and powers
- § 9:15 —Jurisdiction with respect to arbitration issues
- § 9:16 — —Arbitrability of a matter
- § 9:17 — —Action on award already rendered
- § 9:18 — —Mandatory arbitration
- § 9:19 Venue of district court actions
- § 9:20 Personal and in rem jurisdiction in district court
- § 9:21 —Personal jurisdiction over non-resident defendants
- § 9:22 —Personal jurisdiction over parties added to pending action
- § 9:23 —In rem jurisdiction
- § 9:24 Identity of local civil court in New York City

II. COMMENCEMENT OF THE ACTION AND PLEADINGS

- § 9:25 Service of summons commences the action
- § 9:26 —Contents of justice court summons
- § 9:27 —Contents of district court summons

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 9:28 —Clerk or attorney issues summons
- § 9:29 — —Obtaining the return date for justice court summons
- § 9:30 — —Obtaining the return date for district court summons
- § 9:31 —Various methods available for service
- § 9:32 — —Restrictions on service by publication in justice courts
- § 9:33 — —Restrictions on service by publication in district court
- § 9:34 — —“Completion” of service depends on method used
- § 9:35 —Service of justice court summons generally required within county
- § 9:36 — —When service may be made in adjoining county
- § 9:37 —Service of district court summons generally within county
- § 9:38 — —Service outside of county allowed in some cases
- § 9:39 —Filing of proof of service required
- § 9:40 — —Court fee must be paid
- § 9:41 —Time to appear and answer the justice court summons
- § 9:42 —Time to appear and answer the district court summons
- § 9:43 —Justice court summons or notice of petition not filed on time
- § 9:44 —Where district court summons not filed on time
- § 9:45 Pleadings in town, village and district courts
- § 9:46 —Formal pleadings not always required
- § 9:47 — —Court may require formal pleadings
- § 9:48 — —When required in district court
- § 9:49 —Counterclaims
- § 9:50 — —Reply to counterclaims not necessary
- § 9:51 — —Where counterclaim is against plaintiff and another
- § 9:52 —Cross-claims
- § 9:53 —Third-party impleader claim
- § 9:54 —Non-residents as additional parties in district court
- § 9:55 —Pleadings may be amended or supplemented
- § 9:56 —Filing of pleadings required in district court

III. THE PRO SE PARTY IN CIVIL LITIGATION

- § 9:57 Pro se parties, generally
- § 9:58 —Right to appear pro se
- § 9:59 —No right to counsel in civil matters
- § 9:60 —Counsel may not overreach pro se party
- § 9:61 —Special concerns at settlement

IV. MOTION PRACTICE

- § 9:62 Motion practice, generally
- § 9:63 —Justice courts may entertain motions informally
- § 9:64 —Motion practice is formal in district court
- § 9:65 — —Differences between district courts and Supreme Court
- § 9:66 — —When order to show cause required in district court
- § 9:67 —The motion to dismiss
- § 9:68 — —Motions allowed at any time
- § 9:69 — —Lack of jurisdiction over the person
- § 9:70 —The motion for summary judgment
- § 9:71 — —Motion for summary judgment in lieu of complaint
- § 9:72 —Motion to correct pleadings

V. DISCLOSURE

- § 9:73 Disclosure available in justice and district courts
- § 9:74 —Service of disclosure devices in justice court actions
- § 9:75 —Service of disclosure devices in district court actions
- § 9:76 —Implied admissions
- § 9:77 — —Penalties for unreasonable denials

VI. FORFEITURE (PROCEEDS OF A CRIME) CPLR CHAPTER 13-A

- § 9:78 Forfeiture—Definitions
- § 9:79 —Generally
- § 9:80 —In rem proceedings
- § 9:81 —In personam proceedings
- § 9:82 —Due diligence
- § 9:83 —Civil Actions—Generally, CPLR 1311
- § 9:84 — —Timing
- § 9:85 — —Actions relating to post-conviction forfeiture crimes, CPLR 1311(1)(a)
- § 9:86 — —Actions relating to pre-conviction forfeiture crimes, CPLR 1311(1)(b)
- § 9:87 — —Trial by jury
- § 9:88 — —Burden of proof—Generally
- § 9:89 — — —Pre-conviction, non-criminal defendant
- § 9:90 — — — —Proceeds of a crime
- § 9:91 — — — —Substituted proceeds of a crime
- § 9:92 — — — —Instrumentality of a crime
- § 9:93 — —Rebuttable presumptions; CPLR 1311(3)(c)
- § 9:94 — —Dismissal in the interests of justice; CPLR 1311(4)
- § 9:95 — —Dismissal in the interests of justice—Notice in writing required; CPLR 1311(4)(b)
- § 9:96 — — —Relief applicable must be brought to superior court
- § 9:97 — — —Compelling factor necessary; CPLR 1311(4)(d)
- § 9:98 — —Commencement; Right to notice; Non-defendant rights
- § 9:99 — —Sealed records
- § 9:100 — —Recovery amount, generally
- § 9:101 — —Criminal liability; CPLR 1311(9)
- § 9:102 — —Proper venue, generally
- § 9:103 — —Proper venue—Post-conviction forfeiture
- § 9:104 — —Property acquired in good faith by an attorney as payment; CPLR 1311(12)
- § 9:105 — —City forfeiture statutes not preempted by State law
- § 9:106 — —Forfeitures as a result of DWI
- § 9:107 — —Out of state seizures
- § 9:108 — —Property seized, but no forfeiture proceeding
- § 9:109 —Creditor’s rights in personal property
- § 9:110 —Order of attachment with notice
- § 9:111 —Order of attachment without notice
- § 9:112 — —Confirmation of order
- § 9:113 —Service of summons
- § 9:114 —Service of Summons—Defendant dies before summons served
- § 9:115 — —Extension of time
- § 9:116 —Garnishee’s statement
- § 9:117 —Disclosure, CPLR 1326

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 9:118 —Proceedings to determine adverse claims—Generally
- § 9:119 — —Disputed facts
- § 9:120 —Vacating or modifying a judgment
- § 9:121 — —Burden of proof
- § 9:122 —Assigning interest
- § 9:123 —Grounds for a preliminary injunction or temporary restraining order (TRO)
- § 9:124 —TRO, generally
- § 9:125 — —Service
- § 9:126 —Vacating or modifying a preliminary injunction or TRO; CPLR 1336
- § 9:127 —Disposal of property
- § 9:128 —Innocent Owner’s Defense, generally
- § 9:129 —Innocent Owner’s Defense—Due process—Requirement of Krimstock hearing—Generally
- § 9:130 — — — —Krimstock distinguished
- § 9:131 — — — —Burden on defendant
- § 9:132 — — — —Defendant burden of proof
- § 9:133 — — — —Sufferance
- § 9:134 — — — —Continued deprivation
- § 9:135 — — — —City’s possessory interest
- § 9:136 — —Not unconstitutionally vague; subject to excessive fines clause
- § 9:137 — —Notice requirement
- § 9:138 — — —Violations of Vehicle & Traffic Law § 1192

VII. FORMS

- § 9:139 Justice Court Endorsed Summons
- § 9:140 Justice Court Summons with Complaint Annexed
- § 9:141 District Court Endorsed Summons
- § 9:142 District Court Summons with Complaint Annexed

CHAPTER 10. CIVIL TRIAL AND POST-TRIAL PROCEDURE

I. TRIALS GENERALLY AND THE DISTRICT COURT ARBITRATION PROGRAM

- § 10:1 Trials, generally
- § 10:2 Lower court civil trials, generally
- § 10:3 —Statutory authority for trials
- § 10:4 — —Uniform Rules also applicable
- § 10:5 Right to jury trial
- § 10:6 —Many issues triable by jury as of right
- § 10:7 — —Right to jury does not extend to small claims actions
- § 10:8 — —Summary proceedings involving real property
- § 10:9 — — —No monetary limit for rent due
- § 10:10 — —Lien actions in district court
- § 10:11 —Contractual waiver of jury trial
- § 10:12 — —Some waivers barred by statute
- § 10:13 —Waiver of right occurs if jury not requested
- § 10:14 — —Relief from waiver may be granted
- § 10:15 Setting the trial date and demanding jury in justice court

- § 10:16 —Date may be chosen by agreement
- § 10:17 —Obtaining a jury trial
- § 10:18 Setting the trial date and demanding jury in district court
- § 10:19 —Where any party appears pro se
- § 10:20 —Where all parties appear by attorney
- § 10:21 — —Notice of trial and certificate of readiness
- § 10:22 — — —Actions for medical malpractice and against municipalities
- § 10:23 —Motion to strike action from trial calendar
- § 10:24 —Discovery after case placed on trial calendar
- § 10:25 —Obtaining a jury trial
- § 10:26 — —Jury demand in summary proceedings
- § 10:27 — —Waiver of jury trial; cure of waiver
- § 10:28 —Special preferences for early trial may be requested
- § 10:29 — —Objection may be made to requested preference
- § 10:30 — —Grant, denial or revocation of preference
- § 10:31 Mandatory arbitration program in district court
- § 10:32 —Inapplicable to most small claims cases
- § 10:33 —Arbitration may also be used by stipulation
- § 10:34 — —Award may exceed district court limits if matter originated in Supreme Court
- § 10:35 —Counterclaims and cross-claims
- § 10:36 —Placement of case on arbitration calendar
- § 10:37 —Identity of arbitrators
- § 10:38 — —Disqualification
- § 10:39 — —Judicial hearing officer as arbitrator
- § 10:40 —Size and makeup of arbitration panels
- § 10:41 —Settlement or discontinuance prior to hearing
- § 10:42 —Place and time of arbitration hearing
- § 10:43 — —Continuance for inability to schedule a hearing
- § 10:44 — — —Court hearing after two continuances
- § 10:45 —The arbitration hearing
- § 10:46 — —Powers of arbitrators similar to those of court
- § 10:47 —Filing, service and effect of arbitration award
- § 10:48 — —Motion to vacate award may be available
- § 10:49 — — —Available grounds
- § 10:50 — — —Effect of grant of motion
- § 10:51 —Defaults at the hearing
- § 10:52 — —Action may be restored after default
- § 10:53 —Trial de novo may be demanded
- § 10:54 — —Where timely demand not served or filed
- § 10:55 — —Fees are payable for trial
- § 10:56 — —Where arbitration heard by judicial hearing officer
- § 10:57 — —Arbitration may not be used in evidence at trial
- § 10:58 — —Where result less favorable to demanding party after trial
- § 10:59 Calendar defaults in district court
- § 10:60 —Manner of restoring actions stricken from calendar
- § 10:61 — —Process on restoration
- § 10:62 —Restoration of actions not on calendar, other than those stricken

II. FIGURING OUT COSTS

- § 10:63 Figuring out costs—Generally—Justice Courts

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 10:64	— — District Courts—Ordinary costs
§ 10:65	— — — Limited costs in certain actions
§ 10:66	— — — No costs in certain proceedings
§ 10:67	— — Other Courts
§ 10:68	— Security for costs
§ 10:69	— General Costs—Prevailing party; UJCA § 1902
§ 10:70	— — Prevailing party—No counterclaims
§ 10:71	— — — Counterclaims
§ 10:72	— — — Cause of action pleading in the alternative
§ 10:73	— — Plaintiff recovery—Defendant’ failure to answer
§ 10:74	— — — Recovery upon motion before trial
§ 10:75	— — — Disobedience to a court order or subpoena
§ 10:76	— — — Multiple plaintiffs
§ 10:77	— — — Multiple defendants
§ 10:78	— — — Defendant discontinues counter claim
§ 10:79	— — Defendant recovery
§ 10:80	— — No provision made
§ 10:81	— — Confession of judgment
§ 10:82	— Limitation of costs—Justice Courts
§ 10:83	— No cost to a plea of bankruptcy
§ 10:84	— Costs allowed by the court
§ 10:85	— Taxation
§ 10:86	— — Review of taxation
§ 10:87	— — — Motion required
§ 10:88	— Disbursements allowable; UJCA § 1908
§ 10:89	— Disbursements allowable—Service of process by mail not acknowledged
§ 10:90	— Costs of appeal
§ 10:91	— Fees payable to the Clerk—Generally
§ 10:92	— — Pay before performance
§ 10:93	— — Justice Courts; UJCA § 1911(a)(1)
§ 10:94	— — District Courts; UDCA § 1911(a)
§ 10:95	— Actions where no fee charged
§ 10:96	— Witness fees, generally
§ 10:97	— Civil Procedure Law Rules—Fees, generally
§ 10:98	— — Exemptions to fees
§ 10:99	— — More than one plaintiff or defendant
§ 10:100	— — Cost of appeal, generally
§ 10:101	— — Appellate Division, First Dept
§ 10:102	— — Appellate Division, Second Dept

III. JURY SELECTION

§ 10:103	Understanding the jury pool
§ 10:104	— Identification of prospective jurors
§ 10:105	— Procedure for obtaining jurors in justice courts
§ 10:106	— Procedure for obtaining jurors in district courts
§ 10:107	Qualifications of jurors
§ 10:108	— Disqualifications and exemptions for jurors
§ 10:109	Standards for selecting trial jurors
§ 10:110	— Option to select alternate jurors
§ 10:111	— Judge’s presence during selection

- § 10:112 —Litigants’ right to be present
- § 10:113 —Oath administered to prospective jurors
- § 10:114 —Parties may exercise two types of challenges
- § 10:115 — —Challenges for cause
- § 10:116 — — —Based on conflict of interest
- § 10:117 — — —Based on family relationships
- § 10:118 — — —Based on lack of objectivity
- § 10:119 — — —Certain grounds insufficient for disqualification
- § 10:120 — —Peremptory challenges
- § 10:121 — — —May not be based on race
- § 10:122 — — —Sequence for challenges
- § 10:123 — — —Peremptory challenges for alternate jurors
- § 10:124 Steps in impaneling a jury
- § 10:125 —Oath administered to jury members chosen

IV. CONDUCT OF THE TRIAL

- § 10:126 General procedure for trial
- § 10:127 Opening statements
- § 10:128 Burden of proof
- § 10:129 —Preponderance is less than other standards
- § 10:130 Evidentiary issues
- § 10:131 —Examination of witnesses
- § 10:132 — —Witness’s oath or affirmation
- § 10:133 — —Cross-examination
- § 10:134 — —Re-direct and re-cross examination
- § 10:135 —Real evidence
- § 10:136 —Introducing documents
- § 10:137 — —The business records rule
- § 10:138 — — —General writing or records
- § 10:139 — — —Hospital bills
- § 10:140 — — —Other records
- § 10:141 —Objections
- § 10:142 —Role of the court
- § 10:143 Proving plaintiff’s case, generally
- § 10:144 The defense case, generally
- § 10:145 Summations
- § 10:146 Decision and judgment in a bench trial
- § 10:147 —Decision required in 30 days
- § 10:148 — —Effect of failure to comply in district court
- § 10:149 —Winning party prepares papers
- § 10:150 Availability of interest, costs and disbursements
- § 10:151 Procedures specific to a jury trial
- § 10:152 —Court gives preliminary instructions to jurors
- § 10:153 —Opening statements and summations made to jury
- § 10:154 —Judge must charge jury at close of all evidence
- § 10:155 —Jury deliberations
- § 10:156 — —Jurors’ communications very limited
- § 10:157 —Jury renders verdict
- § 10:158 — —Decision need not be unanimous
- § 10:159 — —When verdict must be in writing
- § 10:160 — —Mistrial when jurors cannot agree

V. TRIAL AND POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

- § 10:161 Motions during trial
- § 10:162 —The motion for judgment
- § 10:163 —The motion for continuance or mistrial
- § 10:164 Motions to set aside verdicts
- § 10:165 —Jury verdicts
- § 10:166 —Bench trial verdicts

VI. SUBPOENAS

- § 10:167 Subpoenas, generally
- § 10:168 —Trial subpoenas in village and town courts
- § 10:169 —Trial subpoenas in district courts

VII. PREPARATION AND EXECUTION OF JUDGMENTS

- § 10:170 Judgments, generally
- § 10:171 Judgments, limited amounts
- § 10:172 Default judgments
- § 10:173 —Notice of service & summons
- § 10:174 Execution of judgment, generally
- § 10:175 Execution of judgment—Necessity of transcript
- § 10:176 — —Prima facie proof of judgment
- § 10:177 —Judgment against enforcement officer, not a sheriff
- § 10:178 —Judgment against a sheriff
- § 10:179 —Execution issued out of court
- § 10:180 —Execution levied against real property
- § 10:181 —Execution against property of tenant
- § 10:182 District Court execution of judgment—Order of attachment issued
- § 10:183 —Injunctions and receiverships
- § 10:184 —Contempt

CHAPTER 11. SMALL CLAIMS

I. SMALL CLAIMS, GENERALLY

- § 11:1 Small claims courts
- § 11:2 Small claims procedure in all local courts nearly identical
- § 11:3 —Filing fees are different
- § 11:4 —Jurisdiction of courts is different
- § 11:5 Small claims action is for money only
- § 11:6 —Equitable relief unavailable
- § 11:7 —Interest is added to claim
- § 11:8 —Costs are added to the amount claimed
- § 11:9 Small claims generally reserved for individuals
- § 11:10 —Certain governmental corporations may bring claims
- § 11:11 —Commercial small claims permitted in district court and some others
- § 11:12 —Children may bring claims
- § 11:13 — —Children as defendants
- § 11:14 Small claims uses informal and simplified procedures
- § 11:15 —Counsel not required but permissible
- § 11:16 —Corporate defendants need not appear by counsel

- § 11:17 Small claims standard is substantial justice
- § 11:18 —Substantive law must be followed
- § 11:19 — —Statute of limitations is applicable
- § 11:20 — — —Limitations applicable to common small claims actions
- § 11:21 — —Notice of claim may be required
- § 11:22 — —Affirmative defenses may be raised
- § 11:23 Appeal available on one ground only
- § 11:24 —Small claims decision reviewed for substantial justice

II. PROCEDURE

- § 11:25 Proper court determined by defendant’s status
- § 11:26 —Residence means actual residence
- § 11:27 — —Mere ownership of property not sufficient
- § 11:28 —Office for the transaction of business
- § 11:29 —Regular employment within the municipality
- § 11:30 —Landlord-Tenant relationship
- § 11:31 Commencement of the action
- § 11:32 —Correct name of defendant must be determined if possible
- § 11:33 —Notice of claim filled out
- § 11:34 — —Claim not to be prejudged
- § 11:35 — —Where claim has been previously filed and decided
- § 11:36 —The hearing date is set
- § 11:37 —Court mails notice of claim to defendant
- § 11:38 — —Personal service as alternative if mail not possible
- § 11:39 — —Incomplete service does not provide jurisdiction
- § 11:40 — —Dismissal for failure to complete service of notice
- § 11:41 — —Amended notice where defendant’s correct name becomes known
- § 11:42 —Informational booklet provided on filing claim
- § 11:43 No formal pleadings required in response to notice of claim
- § 11:44 Disclosure generally unavailable
- § 11:45 —Subpoenas may be issued by court
- § 11:46 The small claims hearing
- § 11:47 —Case called by clerk or court
- § 11:48 —Court must determine correct name of defendant
- § 11:49 —Non-party representative may be allowed to participate
- § 11:50 —Order and type of proof
- § 11:51 — —Visual evidence is properly used
- § 11:52 —Rules of evidence generally inapplicable
- § 11:53 — —Exception for privileged communications
- § 11:54 — —Exception for transactions with decedents and the mentally ill
- § 11:55 — —Certain documentary evidence improper elsewhere may be accepted
- § 11:56 —Counterclaims may be interposed
- § 11:57 — —Procedure on a counterclaim
- § 11:58 —Third parties may be impleaded
- § 11:59 —Hearing generally to be concluded in one session
- § 11:60 — —Submission of additional proof after hearing may be improper
- § 11:61 —Where defendant appears engaged in illegal activities
- § 11:62 Failure to appear: default
- § 11:63 —When the defendant defaults
- § 11:64 — —Proof still required on default
- § 11:65 —When the plaintiff defaults

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 11:66 —Where both parties default
- § 11:67 The court must render a decision
- § 11:68 —The notice of decision should be in writing
- § 11:69 —Form of decision
- § 11:70 —Court’s award can be conditioned on action
- § 11:71 —Defendant’s name can be amended after judgment
- § 11:72 — —Defendant’s obligation to reveal correct name
- § 11:73 —Decision res judicata as to amount only
- § 11:74 Appeal
- § 11:75 Motion to vacate judgment or order
- § 11:76 —Informal application to open default judgment
- § 11:77 Juries—Generally presumed waived
- § 11:78 —No right to jury trial in Nassau Village Justice Courts
- § 11:79 —No federal or state right unless specially granted by statute
- § 11:80 —Demand required
- § 11:81 — —Affidavit required
- § 11:82 —Commencement time for filing request
- § 11:83 —Necessity of triable issues of fact
- § 11:84 —Rules of evidence; claim unchanged
- § 11:85 No security required for small claims

III. RESOLUTION OF SMALL CLAIMS THROUGH ARBITRATION OR MEDIATION

- § 11:86 Alternative resolution of a small claim, generally
- § 11:87 —Court confirmation of mediated or arbitrated settlement may be available
- § 11:88 —Parties in district court small claims may opt for arbitration
- § 11:89 — —Arbitration governed by specific rules
- § 11:90 — —Right to appeal is waived

IV. COMMERCIAL SMALL CLAIMS

- § 11:91 Commercial small claims
- § 11:92 —Nature and amount of claim
- § 11:93 —Necessary contacts between defendant and municipality
- § 11:94 —Use of commercial small claims is limited
- § 11:95 — —Certification must be filed upon filing claim
- § 11:96 —Where claim is a “consumer transaction”
- § 11:97 — —Additional requirements upon filing
- § 11:98 —Proceedings on default
- § 11:99 —Commercial small claims may be arbitrated

V. PROCEEDINGS UPON JUDICIAL DISQUALIFICATION

- § 11:100 Judicial disqualification, generally
- § 11:101 —Transfer of case by county court from original local court to another local court
- § 11:102 —Transfer of outside judge to original local court
- § 11:103 —Discontinuance of case for filing in another court

VI. FORMS

- § 11:104 Justice Court Notice of Claim

- § 11:105 District Court Notice of Claim
- § 11:106 Reproduction of District Court Complaint Form
- § 11:107 Small Claims Part, Small Claims Counterclaim
- § 11:108 Justice Court Notice of Small Claims Decision (to judgement creditor)
- § 11:109 Justice Court Notice of Small Claims Decision (to judgement debtor)
- § 11:110 Reproduction of District Court Notice of Small Claims/Commercial Claims Judgment
- § 11:111 Reproduction of District Court Commercial Claims Complaint Form
- § 11:112 Pleadings for legal fees

CHAPTER 12. SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS

I. OVERVIEW OF THE SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS

- § 12:1 Purpose of a summary proceeding
- § 12:2 Special proceeding
- § 12:3 Two types of summary proceedings
- § 12:4 Governing statutes
- § 12:5 —Good Cause Eviction Law
- § 12:6 —COVID-19 emergency legislation
- § 12:7 Parties
- § 12:8 —Proper petitioner
- § 12:9 —Respondent
- § 12:10 Respondent—Necessary party
- § 12:11 —Family members
- § 12:12 —Deceased tenant
- § 12:13 —Spouse
- § 12:14 —Miscellaneous Relationships
- § 12:15 —Domestic partner
- § 12:16 Grounds

II. SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- § 12:17 Subject matter jurisdiction
- § 12:18 —Court must have power and authority to hear summary proceeding
- § 12:19 — —Choice of court
- § 12:20 —Necessary steps to invoke jurisdiction
- § 12:21 —Agreement to pay rent
- § 12:22 —Respondent must be in possession of real property
- § 12:23 —No jurisdiction to determine title in summary proceeding
- § 12:24 —Justice or district court can determine rent due in any amount
- § 12:25 Venue
- § 12:26 —Specific geographical locations
- § 12:27 — —Long Island
- § 12:28 — —Upstate New York
- § 12:29 —Transfer for improper venue in district court
- § 12:30 —Request for change of venue

III. PRE-COMMENCEMENT PREDICATE NOTICES

- § 12:31 Holdover proceeding—Landlord/tenant relationship
- § 12:32 —No landlord/tenant relationship
- § 12:33 Nonpayment proceeding—Demand for rent

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 12:34 — —Manufactured home tenant

IV. PLEADINGS IN SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS

- § 12:35 Pleadings, generally
- § 12:36 Notice of petition
- § 12:37 Notice of petition-Form
- § 12:38 Notice of petition—Contents
- § 12:39 —Return date
- § 12:40 —Fees
- § 12:41 Order to show cause
- § 12:42 —Fees
- § 12:43 Petition
- § 12:44 —Description of premises
- § 12:45 —Facts supporting the proceeding
- § 12:46 —Relief sought
- § 12:47 —Fair Debt Collection Practices Act
- § 12:48 —Verification
- § 12:49 — —Contents
- § 12:50 — —Proper person
- § 12:51 —Amendment
- § 12:52 —Bill of Particulars
- § 12:53 The answer
- § 12:54 —Asserting defenses
- § 12:55 —Proper person
- § 12:56 —Form
- § 12:57 —Time
- § 12:58 —Jury trial—Demand
- § 12:59 — —Time for Demand
- § 12:60 — —Waiver
- § 12:61 —Defenses, generally
- § 12:62 —Defenses
- § 12:63 — —Personal jurisdiction
- § 12:64 — —Subject matter jurisdiction
- § 12:65 — —On the merits
- § 12:66 — —Nonpayment proceedings
- § 12:67 — — —No default in the payment of rent
- § 12:68 — — —Breach of warranty of habitability
- § 12:69 — —Holdover proceedings
- § 12:70 — — —Retaliation
- § 12:71 —Counterclaims

V. PERSONAL JURISDICTION IN SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS

- § 12:72 Commencement—Service of process
- § 12:73 — —Governing statute
- § 12:74 — —Time for service
- § 12:75 — —Methods
- § 12:76 Service of process—Personal delivery
- § 12:77 —Substituted service
- § 12:78 — —“Person of suitable age and discretion”
- § 12:79 — —Mailing required

- § 12:80 —“Conspicuous part” service
- § 12:81 — —Reasonable application standard
- § 12:82 —“Conspicuous Part” service—Mailing
- § 12:83 —Conspicuous part service—Mailing—Respondent is natural person
- § 12:84 —Substituted or conspicuous part service—Mailing—Respondent is corporation, joint-stock or other unincorporated association
- § 12:85 —Additional service required in Westchester County
- § 12:86 —Proof of service—Filing
- § 12:87 — —When service is “complete”
- § 12:88 — —Filing fees

VI. MOTIONS AND DISCOVERY IN SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS

- § 12:89 Motions and discovery
- § 12:90 —CPLR governs
- § 12:91 —Permission

VII. PROCEEDINGS ON THE RETURN DATE

- § 12:92 Return date—Prompt resolution
- § 12:93 — —Unrepresented parties
- § 12:94 —Prompt—Unrepresented parties—Court’s role
- § 12:95 —Prompt resolution—Adjournment
- § 12:96 — —Settlement
- § 12:97 — — —Enforcement of stipulation of settlement
- § 12:98 Trial—Jury
- § 12:99 —Burden of proof
- § 12:100 — —Rules of evidence

VIII. JUDGMENT, WARRANT OF EVICTION, STAY

- § 12:101 Judgment
- § 12:102 Default Judgment
- § 12:103 —Vacate
- § 12:104 —Money judgment on default
- § 12:105 —Money judgment—“Reasonable application” versus “due diligence”
- § 12:106 —Military service
- § 12:107 Default Judgment Military service—Stay of proceeding
- § 12:108 Judgment—Costs
- § 12:109 — —Force alleged
- § 12:110 —Disbursements
- § 12:111 —Attorneys’ fees
- § 12:112 —Limitation on fees
- § 12:113 —Enforcement
- § 12:114 — —Transcript of judgment
- § 12:115 — —District courts
- § 12:116 Warrant of eviction
- § 12:117 —Execution
- § 12:118 —Contents
- § 12:119 —Effect
- § 12:120 — —Court’s jurisdiction
- § 12:121 —Rent after issuance
- § 12:122 —Stays

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 12:123 — —Nonpayment proceeding—Payment of rent
- § 12:124 — — — —Deposit with the court
- § 12:125 — — — —Undertaking
- § 12:126 — — — —Payment of rent or undertaking—Effect of deposit or undertaking
- § 12:127 — — — —Insolvency or bankruptcy
- § 12:128 — — — —Dwelling—Up to one year
- § 12:129 — — — —Military personnel and dependents
- § 12:130 — — — —Utilities discontinued in multiple dwelling
- § 12:131 — — — —Failure to make repairs
- § 12:132 — — — —Vacate—Prior to execution
- § 12:133 — — — —After execution

IX. MANUFACTURED HOMES

- § 12:134 Eviction—Manufactured homes
- § 12:135 — — — —Grounds
- § 12:136 — — — —Nonpayment proceedings
- § 12:137 — — — —Violation of lease term
- § 12:138 — — — —Grounds for eviction—Change in land use
- § 12:139 — — — —Defenses
- § 12:140 — — — —Grounds—Holdover: 90-day eviction notice required
- § 12:141 — — — —Threat to health and safety
- § 12:142 — — — —Nonpayments

CHAPTER 13. CIVIL APPEALS AND ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS

I. THE RIGHT TO A CIVIL APPEAL

- § 13:1 The appellate process, generally
- § 13:2 CPLR generally provides procedure
- § 13:3 Correct intermediate appellate court varies by department
- § 13:4 — — — —Next appeal is to Appellate Division
- § 13:5 — — — —Permission required to appeal from Appellate Term
- § 13:6 — — — —Certain County Court orders appealable as of right
- § 13:7 Final Appeals—Final appeal is to Court of Appeals
- § 13:8 Final Appeal—Final appeal is to Court of Appeals—Appeal as of right
- § 13:9 Final Appeals—Final appeal is to Court of Appeals—By permission
- § 13:10 Various rights of appeal exist
- § 13:11 — — — —Most judgments appealable as of right
- § 13:12 — — — —Certain orders appealable as of right
- § 13:13 — — — —Certain orders appealable by permission
- § 13:14 — — — —Application to Appellate Term for leave to appeal
- § 13:15 — — — —Appeals of ex parte orders
- § 13:16 — — — —Review of ex parte orders of district court
- § 13:17 Appellant must be “aggrieved” by judgment or order
- § 13:18 Time for taking an appeal
- § 13:19 — — — —Entry of a judgment or order
- § 13:20 — — — —Starting the clock: service of the judgment or order and notice of entry
- § 13:21 — — — —Extension
- § 13:22 — — — —Substitution of new party
- § 13:23 — — — —Where wrong method of appeal used

- § 13:24 — —Attorney’s disability
- § 13:25 — —For mistake or excusable neglect
- § 13:26 Appeal does not automatically stay enforcement of judgment or order
- § 13:27 — —CPLR stay pending appeal may be available
- § 13:28 — —Stays not governed by CPLR

II. PROCEDURE FOR APPEALS

- § 13:29 Taking the appeal
- § 13:30 — —Appeals as of right
- § 13:31 — —Appeals by permission
- § 13:32 Appellate term—Civil Appeals Management Program
- § 13:33 Taking the appeal—Filing fee must be paid
- § 13:34 “Settling the case” on appeal
- § 13:35 — —Obtaining and settling a stenographer’s transcript
- § 13:36 — —Electronic recording in Town and Village Courts
- § 13:37 — —Functional equivalent of a stenographic recording
- § 13:38 — —Preparing and settling minutes where no stenographic record made
- § 13:39 — —Where district court transcript missing or destroyed
- § 13:40 — —Preparation, settlement and filing of court’s return
- § 13:41 — —Appeals of certain grants or denials of new trial
- § 13:42 — —No settlement where no testimony was taken
- § 13:43 — —Appeal from district court where no testimony taken
- § 13:44 — —No settlement where no testimony was taken—Appeal from justice court where no testimony taken
- § 13:45 Perfecting the appeal
- § 13:46 — —Appeal to an Appellate Term—General calendar
- § 13:47 — —Appellate Term—Respondent’s brief and appellant’s reply brief filed
- § 13:48 — —Notice of appointed term is given
- § 13:49 — —Dismissal for failure to notice appeal for argument
- § 13:50 — —County Court
- § 13:51 — —Appeal must be noticed for next term
- § 13:52 — —Respondent must timely file papers
- § 13:53 — —Dismissal for failure to timely perfect appeal

III. ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS

- § 13:54 Enforcement of judgments, generally
- § 13:55 CPLR and Uniform Court Acts applicable
- § 13:56 General procedure to enforce district court judgment
- § 13:57 General procedure to enforce justice court judgment
- § 13:58 Enforcement through use of execution
- § 13:59 — —Enforceable against personal property only
- § 13:60 — —Most but not all personal property subject to execution
- § 13:61 — —Form and content of personal property execution
- § 13:62 — —Docketing with county clerk may not be required
- § 13:63 — —Timing and service of personal property executions
- § 13:64 — —Enforceable against personal property only—Alternative procedure for levy against real property
- § 13:65 — —Income Execution—Form and contents
- § 13:66 — —Form and contents of income execution—Docketing with county clerk not always necessary
- § 13:67 — —Enforcement officers serve executions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:68 Additional enforcement devices for justice court small claims judgment creditors
- § 13:69 —Information subpoena
- § 13:70 —Court must provide claimants with enforcement information
- § 13:71 Filing transcript of judgment for lien on real property
- § 13:72 —Original transcript obtained from court clerk for fee
- § 13:73 Filing of transcript of judgment for lien on real property—Additional transcripts obtainable from county clerk
- § 13:74 Additional enforcement devices in district courts

CHAPTER 14. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

I. COMMUNITY DISPUTE RESOLUTION, GENERALLY

- § 14:1 The Community Dispute Resolution Centers Program
- § 14:2 —Purpose is informal, reduced-cost dispute resolution
- § 14:3 — —Concept spreading throughout state
- § 14:4 — — —Types of cases
- § 14:5 — — —Success rate impressive in large numbers of disputes
- § 14:6 —Eligibility of facilities
- § 14:7 —Establishment and funding of CDRCs
- § 14:8 — —Contents of application
- § 14:9 — —Approval by Chief Administrator of the Courts required
- § 14:10 General authority of CDRCs
- § 14:11 —Certain felonies may not be resolved
- § 14:12 —Monetary awards limited
- § 14:13 Immunity of mediators
- § 14:14 Confidentiality and later use of mediation proceedings
- § 14:15 —Suppression may be granted in later criminal case
- § 14:16 —Certain matters excepted if information not part of original proceeding

II. PROCEDURE

- § 14:17 Getting to mediation
- § 14:18 —Judge should not refer case to her/his own CDRC
- § 14:19 —Referral where matter pending in criminal court
- § 14:20 —Referral where matter pending in civil court
- § 14:21 —Case screened
- § 14:22 —Notification to parties required
- § 14:23 Conciliation, mediation or arbitration
- § 14:24 —Conciliation
- § 14:25 —Mediation
- § 14:26 — —When mediation agreement may be confirmed in court
- § 14:27 —Arbitration
- § 14:28 — —Criminal matters may be arbitrated
- § 14:29 — —Confirmation of award within one year
- § 14:30 — —Record can be sealed
- § 14:31 — —Vacatur or modification of award
- § 14:32 — — —Time for application
- § 14:33 — — —Must be same court proceeding
- § 14:34 — — —Rehearing may be ordered
- § 14:35 — — —Denial of motion is deemed confirmation

CHAPTER 15. THE RULES OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR OF THE COURTS GOVERNING JUDICIAL CONDUCT: STANDARDS OF BEHAVIOR AND OVERSIGHT OF LOWER COURT JUDGES

I. THE RULES OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR OF THE COURTS GOVERNING JUDICIAL CONDUCT

- § 15:1 The Rules Governing Judicial Conduct
- § 15:2 —Purpose
- § 15:3 —Application
- § 15:4 —Definitions
- § 15:5 —Judges and the Practice of Law
- § 15:6 Rule 100.1 A judge shall uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary
- § 15:7 —Assisting the prosecutor
- § 15:8 Rule 100.1 A judge shall uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary—Assisting the prosecutor—Plea agreements
- § 15:9 Rule 100.2—A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all the judge’s activities
- § 15:10 Rule 100.2 A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all the judge’s activities
- § 15:11 Rule 100.2 A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities
- § 15:12 —Judges must comply with the law
- § 15:13 Rule 100.2—A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities—Influence of family, social, political, or other relationships
- § 15:14 Rule 100.2: A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities—Prestige of judicial office
- § 15:15 Rule 100.2 A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities—Prestige of judicial office—Personal lawsuits
- § 15:16 —Extra judicial work relationships
- § 15:17 Rule 100.2—A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities—Character witness
- § 15:18 Rule 100.2 A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities—References
- § 15:19 —Court staff
- § 15:20 —Counsel-at-arraignment program
- § 15:21 Rules 100.2 A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities—Comments on the law
- § 15:22 Rule 100.2(D)A judge shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of the judge’s activities—Membership in discriminatory organizations
- § 15:23 Rule 100.3A judge shall perform the duties of judicial office impartially and diligently
- § 15:24 Rule 100.3 A judge shall perform the duties of judicial office impartially and diligently—Administrative responsibilities
- § 15:25 Rule 100.3 Administrative responsibilities—Supervise staff and court officials
- § 15:26 —Court clerk

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 15:27 —Political activities of judge’s staff
- § 15:28 —Appointments
- § 15:29 Rule 100.4 A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations
- § 15:30 —Internet-based social networks
- § 15:31 —Avocational activities
- § 15:32 —Governmental committee or commission
- § 15:33 —Ceremonial occasions or historical, educational, or cultural activities
- § 15:34 —Peace officer or police officer
- § 15:35 —Improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice
- § 15:36 —Not-for-profit organizations
- § 15:37 — —Limitation
- § 15:38 —Fund-raising activities
- § 15:39 —Speaker or guest of honor
- § 15:40 —Recommendations for funding
- § 15:41 —Name on letterhead or website
- § 15:42 —Financial activities
- § 15:43 Rule 100.4—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Financial activities
- § 15:44 Rule 100.4 A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Frequent disqualification
- § 15:45 —Prohibited gifts, loans, bequests, or favors
- § 15:46 —Permissible gifts, loans, bequests, or favors
- § 15:47 Rule 100.4(F)—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Mediator or arbitrator
- § 15:48 Rule 100.6—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Practice of law—Part-time lawyer judge may practice law
- § 15:49 Rule 100.6(2)—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Practice of law—Part-time lawyer judges—Certain courts off limits
- § 15:50 Rule 100.4(B)(2)—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Practice of law—Part-time lawyer judges—Certain cases off limits
- § 15:51 Rule 100.6(2)—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Practice of law—Part-time lawyer judges—Practice before nonlawyer judges
- § 15:52 Rule 100.6(B)(5)—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Practice of law—Part-time lawyer judges—Partners and associates
- § 15:53 Rule 100.6—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Practice of law—Part-time lawyer judges—Law firm advertising
- § 15:54 Rule 100.6(B)(4)—A judge shall so conduct the judge’s extra-judicial activities as to minimize the risk of conflict with judicial obligations—Extra judicial employment
- § 15:55 Rule 100.5—A judge or candidate for elective judicial office shall refrain from inappropriate political activity
- § 15:56 Rule 100.5 A judge or candidate for elective judicial office shall refrain from inappropriate political activity

- § 15:57 Rule 100.5—A judge or candidate for elective judicial office shall refrain from inappropriate political activity—Campaign for nonjudicial office
- § 15:58 — — Campaign for judicial office
- § 15:59 — — — Window period
- § 15:60 — — — Mandatory education program
- § 15:61 — — — Mandatory financial disclosure
- § 15:62 — — — Endorsements and non-financial support
- § 15:63 — — — Permissible campaign activities
- § 15:64 — — — Campaign speech
- § 15:65 — — — Campaign conduct
- § 15:66 — — — Petitions
- § 15:67 — — — Joint campaigns
- § 15:68 — — — The Internet
- § 15:69 — — — Purchasing tickets to political functions
- § 15:70 — — — Campaign committee
- § 15:71 — — — — Family members
- § 15:72 — — — — Lawyers
- § 15:73 — — Unexpended campaign funds
- § 15:74 — — Campaign for judicial office—Campaign conduct—Judge’s staff
- § 15:75 — — Judge’s family member as candidate
- § 15:76 Advisory resources available
- § 15:77 — Advisory Committee on Judicial Ethics
- § 15:78 Opinions by the Advisory Committee—Committee Opinions
- § 15:79 City, Town, and Village Courts Resource Center

II. OVERSIGHT OF NEW YORK STATE JUDGES AND JUSTICES

- § 15:80 New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct
- § 15:81 — Conduct on and off the bench
- § 15:82 — Greater scrutiny of lower court judges
- § 15:83 — Complaint statistics 2024
- § 15:84 — Complaints
- § 15:85 — Investigation
- § 15:86 Investigation—Failure to cooperate
- § 15:87 New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct—Formal written complaint
- § 15:88 — Summary determination
- § 15:89 — Dismissal
- § 15:90 — Discretion to proceed
- § 15:91 — Public or Private Discipline
- § 15:92 — Public Discipline
- § 15:93 Public discipline—Admonition
- § 15:94 — Censure
- § 15:95 New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct—Public discipline—Removal
- § 15:96 — — Resignation
- § 15:97 — Private discipline
- § 15:98 — — Further action
- § 15:99 — Judicial Review
- § 15:100 Discipline by the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct—Judicial Review—Scope

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 15:101 New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct—Judicial Review—
Suspension
- § 15:102 — —Application to reopen
- § 15:103 — —Jurisdiction—Effect of resignation
- § 15:104 — —Annual report
- § 15:105 — —Annual Report—Observations and Recommendations
- § 15:106 Lawsuits against judges
- § 15:107 — —Judicial immunity
- § 15:108 — —Lack of jurisdiction
- § 15:109 — —Certain work-related conduct
- § 15:110 — —Extra-judicial activities
- § 15:111 — —Other Grounds—Compel compliance
- § 15:112 — —Other grounds—Failure to disqualify

CHAPTER 16. THE RULES OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR OF THE COURTS GOVERNING JUDICIAL CONDUCT: ADJUDICATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES AND DISQUALIFICATION

I. JUDICIAL DUTIES MUST BE PERFORMED IMPARTIALLY AND DILIGENTLY

- § 16:1 Rule 100.3(B)(1)—Judicial duties
- § 16:2 Rule 100.3—Adjudicative responsibilities
- § 16:3 — —Continuing judicial education
- § 16:4 Rule 100.3(B)(2)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Professional competence in the law—Visits to facilities and institutions for detention, treatment, examination, and confinement
- § 16:5 — — — —District and certain city court judges
- § 16:6 — — — —New York City Criminal Court judges
- § 16:7 — — — —Town and village justices
- § 16:8 Rule 100.3(B)(1)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Outside influence prohibited
- § 16:9 Rule 100.3(B)(2)-(3)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Order and decorum
- § 16:10 Rule 100.3(B)(3), (4)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Order and decorum—
Bias and prejudice prohibited
- § 16:11 Rule 100.3(B)(2)-(3)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Order and decorum—
Gender neutral speech
- § 16:12 — — — —Proper attire for judge
- § 16:13 Rule 100.3(B)(2)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Order and decorum—
Proper attire for lawyers, parties and others
- § 16:14 Rule 100.3(B)(2)-(3)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Order and decorum—
Courtroom procedure
- § 16:15 — — — —Judge to sit apart
- § 16:16 — — — —Judge’s opening remarks
- § 16:17 — — — —General explanation of procedure
- § 16:18 Rule 100.3(B)(1)-(3)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Right to counsel—
Duty to advise
- § 16:19 Rule 100.3(B)(1)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Waiver of right to counsel
- § 16:20 — —Right to reasonable bail
- § 16:21 Rule 100.3(B)(2)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Cameras in the courtroom—Historical perspective

- § 16:22 Rule 100.3(B)(2)-(3)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Cameras in the courtroom—Current law
- § 16:23 — — — —Rules of the Chief Judge
- § 16:24 — — — —Application procedure
- § 16:25 — — — —Consent of parties and others usually not required
- § 16:26 — — — —Restrictions
- § 16:27 Rule 100.3(B)(6)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Parties must be afforded the right to be heard
- § 16:28 — — —Language interpreters
- § 16:29 — —Parties must be afforded right to be heard—Accommodations for physically/mentally disabled
- § 16:30 — —The right to be heard and ex parte communications
- § 16:31 — — —Remedy
- § 16:32 Rule 100.3(B)(6)(a)—Adjudicative responsibilities—The right to be heard and ex parte communications—Permissible ex parte communications—Scheduling or administrative purposes
- § 16:33 Rule 100.3(B)(6)(b)—Adjudicative responsibilities—The right to be heard and ex parte communications—Permissible ex parte communications—Advice of disinterested expert on the law
- § 16:34 Rule 100.3(B)(6)(c)—Adjudicative responsibilities—The right to be heard and ex parte communications—Permissible ex parte communications—Judge may consult with court personnel
- § 16:35 Rule 100.3(B)(6)(d)—Adjudicative responsibilities—The right to be heard and ex parte communications—Permissible ex parte communications—Judge may confer separately with consent
- § 16:36 Rule 100.3(B)(6)(e)—Adjudicative responsibilities—The right to be heard and ex parte communications—Permissible ex parte communications—Authorized by law
- § 16:37 Rule 100.3(B)(12)—Procedure at trial—Judge’s assistance
- § 16:38 Rule 100.3—Adjudicative responsibilities—Procedure at trial—Calling witnesses
- § 16:39 Rule 100.3(B)(7)—Adjudicative responsibilities—Prompt disposition of all judicial matters—Time for decision
- § 16:40 — — —Notice of delayed disposition
- § 16:41 Rule § 100.3(B)(8)—Adjudicative Responsibilities—Public comment
- § 16:42 —Public comment by judge and staff—Court procedures
- § 16:43 — —About the law
- § 16:44 — —Prohibited remarks
- § 16:45 — —Response to public criticism
- § 16:46 — —Judge under investigation may comment within certain limits
- § 16:47 — —During re-election campaign
- § 16:48 Rule § 100.3(B)(9)(a),(b)—Pledges, promises, or commitments
- § 16:49 Rule § 100.3(B)(10)—Commending or criticizing jurors
- § 16:50 Rule § 100.3(B)(11)—Use of non-public information

A. DISCIPLINARY RESPONSIBILITIES

- § 16:51 Rule 100.3(D)—Disciplinary responsibilities
- § 16:52 Rule 100.3 Disciplinary responsibilities—Judges
- § 16:53 Rule 100.3(D)(2)—Disciplinary responsibilities—Lawyers

II. DISQUALIFICATION

- § 16:54 Rule 100.3(E)—Disqualification

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 16:55 22 NYCRR 100.3 Disqualification—Impartiality might reasonably be questioned
- § 16:56 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)—Disqualification—Judge must disclose reason
- § 16:57 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)(1)(b)—Disqualification—Judge as lawyer in matter or as material witness concerning matter
- § 16:58 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)(1)(c)—Disqualification—Judge or relative—Economic or other interest
- § 16:59 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)(1)(d)—Disqualification—Sixth degree relative
- § 16:60 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)(1)(e)—Disqualification—Fourth degree relative—Acting as a lawyer or likely to be a material witness
- § 16:61 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)—Disqualification—Judge permitted to practice law—Professional associates and clients
- § 16:62 — —Judge’s attorney
- § 16:63 — —Relative’s attorney
- § 16:64 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)(1)(d)(iii)—Disqualification—Judge’s financial interests
- § 16:65 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)—Disqualification—Prior contemptible conduct occurred before judge
- § 16:66 — —Familiarity with matter, other
- § 16:67 — —Prior familiarity with matter—Consider only appropriate evidence
- § 16:68 — —Prior familiarity—Non-jury cases
- § 16:69 — — —Challenge to court’s prior ruling
- § 16:70 — —Ex parte communication
- § 16:71 — —Other reasons for disqualification
- § 16:72 — —Social media
- § 16:73 — —Prior employment
- § 16:74 — —Social relationship with attorney
- § 16:75 — —Co-judge’s relationships
- § 16:76 — —Negative publicity campaign
- § 16:77 — —Business or political activities
- § 16:78 — —Complaint to the Commission on Judicial Conduct
- § 16:79 22 NYCRR 100.4(E)—Disqualification—Member of town or village board
- § 16:80 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)—Disqualification—Judge named in lawsuit
- § 16:81 — —Municipality named in lawsuit
- § 16:82 — —Court clerk
- § 16:83 — —Employee of municipality
- § 16:84 — —Judge’s relative’s employment
- § 16:85 — —“Rule of necessity”
- § 16:86 22 NYCRR 100.3(F)—Disqualification—Remittal
- § 16:87 22 NYCRR 100.3(E)—Disqualification—Disclosure
- § 16:88 — —Judges have duty to preside
- § 16:89 — —Discourage forum shopping and delaying proceedings
- § 16:90 22 NYCRR 100.4(E)—Disqualification—Motion for recusal
- § 16:91 — — —Benefit
- § 16:92 — — —Moving party has substantial burden
- § 16:93 — — —Likelihood of success on appeal
- § 16:94 — — — —Statutory violation generally required

III. SOLEMNIZING MARRIAGES

- § 16:95 Judges of local courts may solemnize marriages
- § 16:96 — —Location of ceremony may require court seal
- § 16:97 — —Retired judges may solemnize marriages

- § 16:98 Procedures—Judge should verify parties’ ages
- § 16:99 —Solemnization period, check signatures
- § 16:100 —No specific form of ceremony required
- § 16:101 —License must be mailed to municipal clerk
- § 16:102 —Fee or compensation for performing a wedding
- § 16:103 Performing marriage ceremony in another state
- § 16:104 Marriages presumed to be valid
- § 16:105 Same-sex marriage

IV. CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS AND SANCTIONS

- § 16:106 Contempt, generally
- § 16:107 Contempt powers of local courts
- § 16:108 Criminal contempt—Grounds
- § 16:109 —Summary proceeding
- § 16:110 — —First and Second Department Rules
- § 16:111 — — —Exceptional circumstances only
- § 16:112 — — —Reasonable opportunity to defend
- § 16:113 — — —Opportunity to apologize and correct behavior usually warranted
- § 16:114 — — —When to impose punishment
- § 16:115 — —Procedure
- § 16:116 — —Permissible punishment
- § 16:117 — —Record and order of contempt to be made
- § 16:118 —Defendant may also be restrained or removed
- § 16:119 —Spectators—Removal, not contempt, usually appropriate for spectators
- § 16:120 Civil contempt—Motion
- § 16:121 — —Permissible penalty
- § 16:122 District court may impose Part 130 sanctions in civil litigation
- § 16:123 —Unavailable to town and village justice courts
- § 16:124 —Procedure—Frivolous conduct warrants sanctions
- § 16:125 — — —Factors to consider
- § 16:126 — —Court’s own motion or motion by party
- § 16:127 — —Who may be sanctioned
- § 16:128 — —Amount of fine or penalty
- § 16:129 —Sanctions for attorney’s failure to appear in criminal cases

CHAPTER 17. EVIDENCE

I. EVIDENCE IN GENERAL

- § 17:1 Evidence, generally
- § 17:2 Evidence—Article 45 of the C.P.L.R., generally
- § 17:3 —Applicability to local courts

II. WITNESS TESTIMONY

- § 17:4 Witness testimony, in general
- § 17:5 Witness testimony—Refusal to testify
- § 17:6 — —Must be incriminating
- § 17:7 Expert witness testimony—Requirements of testimony
- § 17:8 — —Permissible to testify about technical knowledge beyond ken of typical juror
- § 17:9 — —Applicable to accepted professional standards

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 17:10 —Foundation of opinion
- § 17:11 —Evidentiary foundation requirements
- § 17:12 — —Direct observations
- § 17:13 — —Out of court material
- § 17:14 —Hypothetical questions
- § 17:15 —Frye hearings
- § 17:16 —Expert qualifications go to weight rather than admissibility of testimony
- § 17:17 — —Specific license of doctor/physician goes towards weight, not admissibility

III. REPRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS

- § 17:18 Reproduction of original document as evidence, generally
- § 17:19 Reproduction of original document as evidence—CPLR § 4539
- § 17:20 —Establishing foundation
- § 17:21 —Enlargements may be permissible

IV. HEARSAY EVIDENCE

- § 17:22 Hearsay—Definition
- § 17:23 — —Double hearsay
- § 17:24 —Exceptions, generally
- § 17:25 —Exceptions—Non-testimonial evidence
- § 17:26 — —Statement not used to prove the truth of the matter asserted
- § 17:27 — —Co-conspirator exception
- § 17:28 — —Admission against penal interest, generally
- § 17:29 — —Declarant must know statement is against interest
- § 17:30 — —Admission against penal interest—Declarant must be unavailable
- § 17:31 — —Dying declaration
- § 17:32 — — —Determined by totality of circumstances
- § 17:33 — — —Immediate death not required
- § 17:34 — —Excited utterances and spontaneous declarations, generally
- § 17:35 — —Excited utterances and spontaneous declarations—Must remain under stress of event
- § 17:36 — — —Admissible even if prompted
- § 17:37 — —Present-sense impressions, generally
- § 17:38 — —Present-sense impressions—9-1-1 calls
- § 17:39 — — —Independent corroboration required
- § 17:40 — —Public document exception
- § 17:41 — —Prior consistent statements
- § 17:42 — —Prompt outcry
- § 17:43 — — —Sex crime necessary
- § 17:44 — —Offered to prove state of mind

CHAPTER 18. WARRANTS

- § 18:1 Warrants, generally
- § 18:2 Warrants—Scope
- § 18:3 —Specificity and particularity
- § 18:4 —Timing of execution
- § 18:5 —Notice and execution
- § 18:6 —Issuance by local courts

- § 18:7 — —Administrative searches
- § 18:8 — —Suppression permissible
- § 18:9 — —Geographic jurisdiction required
- § 18:10 — —“Probable cause plus” standard
- § 18:11 — —Example of a warrant
- § 18:12 Probable cause plus proposed guidelines for issuance of search warrant

CHAPTER 19. SECURITY

- § 19:1 Security, generally
- § 19:2 Judicial protection legislation

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index