

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION

§ 1:1 Generally

CHAPTER 2. DUE DILIGENCE INVESTIGATIONS FOR SECURITIES OFFERINGS

- § 2:1 Some general principles to follow in conducting due diligence investigations
- § 2:2 Items to investigate in performing due diligence
- § 2:3 Practical aspects of due diligence investigations
- § 2:4 —General concerns for underwriters
- § 2:5 —Specific steps for underwriters
- § 2:6 — —Investigating issuer’s industry
- § 2:7 — —Investigating the issuer
- § 2:8 — — —Company and its management
- § 2:9 — — —Company’s business
- § 2:10 — — —Company’s financials
- § 2:11 —Sources of information
- § 2:12 — —Sources within issuer
- § 2:13 — —Sources outside issuer
- § 2:14 FINRA guidance for private placements; FINRA Rule 5123
- § 2:15 Detailed due diligence procedures by Cecilia T. Absher and David A. Katz
- § 2:16 Detailed due diligence procedures by Cecilia T. Absher and David A. Katz—
Preliminary steps
- § 2:17 —Investigating company’s industry
- § 2:18 —Investigating the company
- § 2:19 — —Company
- § 2:20 — —Company’s management
- § 2:21 — —Company’s business
- § 2:22 — —Company’s financials
- § 2:23 —Legal review
- § 2:24 —Due diligence list: Public offering
- § 2:25 —Director and officer questionnaire

CHAPTER 3. DUE DILIGENCE BY REPORTING COMPANIES FOR 1934 ACT PERIODIC FILINGS

- § 3:1 Introduction
- § 3:2 Due Diligence by Company’s Disclosure Committee and by CEO and CFO
- § 3:3 Disclosure controls and procedures
- § 3:4 Suggested steps in establishing and evaluating disclosure controls and procedures
- § 3:5 Critical role of company’s audit committee in financial due diligence
- § 3:6 Audit committee member independence
- § 3:7 Audit committee powers over auditors
- § 3:8 Audit committee procedures concerning complaints
- § 3:9 Audit committee authority to retain and pay advisors
- § 3:10 Proxy disclosures about the audit committee

- § 3:11 NYSE and Nasdaq corporate governance amendments: Independent audit committee focus
- § 3:12 Timely reporting by the auditor to the audit committee; audit committee's due diligence role
- § 3:12.50 PCAOB Auditing Standard No. 16: Auditor Communications with Audit Committees
- § 3:13 Audit committee's role in assuring auditor independence
- § 3:14 Due diligence concerning critical accounting policies and practices
- § 3:15 Management's discussion and analysis (MD&A)
- § 3:16 Auditor-audit committee communications
- § 3:17 Specific accounting issues for auditor-audit committee communications
- § 3:18 Financial due diligence continued: audit committee's assessment of the risks of fraud and responses thereto
- § 3:18.50 Financial/Transactional due diligence: PCAOB standards for related party transactions and for significant unusual transactions; relevance to due diligence counsel
- § 3:19 Due diligence: internal auditors
- § 3:20 Implementing and monitoring appropriate internal controls
- § 3:21 Due diligence: establishing an appropriate oversight process

CHAPTER 4. DUE DILIGENCE—PROTECTING THE CLIENT

- § 4:1 SEC views on due diligence of underwriters, attorneys, and accountants—Underwriters
- § 4:2 —Attorneys
- § 4:3 — —Due diligence as to formal opinions
- § 4:4 — —Drafting disclosure documents; Providing disclosure and other advice
- § 4:5 —Accountants
- § 4:6 Due diligence duties of securities counsel: Scope of state law duties
- § 4:7 Preventive lawyering: Written disclosure of warnings, caveats, and risk factors
- § 4:8 —Forward-looking information: The 1995 statutory safe harbor; the judicial bespeaks caution doctrine
- § 4:9 — —Statutory safe harbor: Applicability and exclusions
- § 4:10 Written or oral disclosure of warnings, caveats, and risk factors—Forward-looking information: The 1995 statutory safe harbor; the judicial bespeaks caution doctrine—Meaningful cautionary statement safe harbor
- § 4:11 Preventive lawyering: Written disclosure of warnings, caveats, and risk factors—Forward-looking information: The 1995 statutory safe harbor; the judicial bespeaks caution doctrine—State of mind safe harbor: Actual knowledge
- § 4:12 — —Oral statements; “Immaterial” safe harbor
- § 4:13 — —Due diligence
- § 4:14 — —Duty to update or correct?
- § 4:15 — —Companies taking advantage of the safe harbor—Mixed present/future forward looking statements—Cases
- § 4:16 — —Commission authority to expand safe harbors
- § 4:17 — —Judicial “bespeaks caution” doctrine
- § 4:18 —Written disclosures as a defense against oral misrepresentations or as “inquiry notice” under statutes of limitations: Kennedy-Zobrist rules or as unreasonable or “unjustifiable” reliance by plaintiff
- § 4:19 —Enforcing No Representation and No-Reliance Contract Provision Against Rule 10-5 Claims

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 4:20 —Rule 10b-5 versus 1933 Act Section 12(a)(2)

CHAPTER 5. DUE DILIGENCE FOR “EXPEDITED” SECURITIES OFFERINGS

- § 5:1 Introduction
- § 5:2 Task force report on sellers’ due diligence and similar defenses under the federal securities laws—A.B.A. Committee on federal regulation of securities
- § 5:3 Current and future due diligence procedures—1934 Act reports versus 1933 Act filings
- § 5:4 —Designated underwriters’ counsel

CHAPTER 6. SPECIFIC DUE DILIGENCE STANDARDS IMPOSED BY SEC AND PROFESSIONAL RULES

- § 6:1 Introduction
- § 6:1.50 Whistle-blower protection for employees in employment termination cases under Sarbanes-Oxley clarified in unanimous U.S. Supreme Court Opinion
- § 6:2 Attorneys’ opinion letters
- § 6:3 Lawyers’ responses to auditors’ requests for information
- § 6:4 Attorneys—Sarbanes-Oxley Act (2002) and SEC Professional Conduct Rules (2003) thereunder
- § 6:5 “Up-the-Ladder” reporting requirement
- § 6:6 —Alternative—Reporting to QLCC
- § 6:7 —“Appropriate Response” by issuer
- § 6:8 —If “Up-the-Ladder” fails—“Noisy” withdrawal and disaffirmance proposal and alternative proposal
- § 6:9 —Permissive disclosure of confidential information
- § 6:10 —Supervisory and subordinate attorneys
- § 6:11 —Sanctions and discipline for rule violations
- § 6:12 —Reporting attorney has no duty to investigate
- § 6:13 —Background: ABA and state ethical rules
- § 6:14 —No private right of action
- § 6:15 Inside general counsel’s fiduciary duties and liability for failure to advise board concerning its monitoring duties
- § 6:16 Accountants—Sarbanes-Oxley Act (2002) and SEC Auditor Rules (2003) thereunder
- § 6:17 —The Public Company Accounting Oversight Board
- § 6:18 —Required accounting disclosures
- § 6:19 —Strengthening auditor independence
- § 6:20 —Timely reporting by auditor to audit committee; audit committee’s role
- § 6:21 Due diligence for accountants—Generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS)
- § 6:22 Standard for auditing control over financial reporting
- § 6:23 Auditing Standard No. 5—An audit of internal control over financial reporting that is integrated with an audit of financial statements—Overview of changes
- § 6:24 Overview of the audit under AS 5
- § 6:25 Standard for auditing internal control over financial reporting—Requirement for adverse opinion when a material weakness exists
- § 6:26 —SEC guidance

- § 6:27 —FASB No. 154, accounting changes and error corrections
- § 6:27.10 Liability for inadequate internal controls: SEC enforcement and private actions
- § 6:27.20 SEC Authority under exchange Act § 13—Failing to report under the exchange Act over a significant time period
- § 6:27.30 SEC enforcement—Proxy and reporting violations—Misstatements about interlocking directorates
- § 6:27.40 SEC Injunctive Authority—Consent Decree to enjoin future § 17 and related violations
- § 6:27.50 SEC injunctive authority: Cryptocurrency
- § 6:27.75 Material omission to fail to disclose SEC investigation into ICFR weaknesses and promotional paid-for public articles
- § 6:28 Audit committee—Financial experts
- § 6:29 —SEC audit committee disclosure rules
- § 6:30 — —Pre-filing review of quarterly financial statements
- § 6:31 — —Audit committee report
- § 6:32 — —Audit committee charters
- § 6:33 — —Audit committee members’ independence
- § 6:34 — —Safe harbors
- § 6:35 —Self regulatory organization audit committee rules
- § 6:36 — —Composition and qualification
- § 6:37 — —Independence
- § 6:38 — —Audit committee charter
- § 6:39 “Present Fairly”—A requirement additional to GAAP compliance?
- § 6:40 Section 10A of the 1934 Act: Auditors’ duties regarding illegality and fraud
- § 6:41 Application of GAAS and GAAP in decided cases
- § 6:42 Compliance with GAAS and GAAP as evidence of reasonableness

CHAPTER 7. SECTION 11 AND DECIDED CASES ON DUE DILIGENCE FOR PUBLIC OFFERINGS

- § 7:1 Overview
- § 7:1.50 Submission of registration statements for non-public review by SEC permitted in all IPOs
- § 7:2 Section 11 liability
- § 7:2.10 —Market manipulation
- § 7:2.20 Section 11 liability-standing-direct listing
- § 7:3 Section 11 liability—Standard of reasonableness
- § 7:4 —Reliance on “expertised” part
- § 7:5 —Software Toolworks and Worlds of Wonder
- § 7:6 —BarChris
- § 7:7 —Leasco
- § 7:8 —Chris-Craft
- § 7:9 —WorldCom
- § 7:10 —Does an underwriter have a mandatory duty to conduct a reasonable investigation or merely a “waivable” defense to civil liability?
- § 7:11 —Due diligence met as a matter of law
- § 7:12 —Rule 176
- § 7:13 —SEC’s proposed expansion of Rule 176 (subsequently withdrawn) and written comments thereon received by SEC
- § 7:14 Statements of opinion or belief as “fact”
- § 7:14.10 “Puffery”—Immateriality as a Matter of Law

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 7:14.20 Objective and subjective elements of opinion falsity
- § 7:14.50 Actionable misrepresentations of legal compliance—Cases
- § 7:14.60 Aspirational statements
- § 7:14.70 Omnicare extended to proxy statements

CHAPTER 8. FEDERAL CIVIL LIABILITY (OTHER THAN SECTION 11) FOR DEFECTIVE DISCLOSURE IN SECURITIES OFFERINGS AND PERIODIC FILINGS

- § 8:1 Introduction
- § 8:2 Securities Act of 1933
- § 8:3 Section 11 of 1933 Act: Do persons other than those specifically named have disclosure/due diligence duties thereunder?
- § 8:4 Section 12(a)(2) of 1933 Act
- § 8:5 —Pinter v. Dahl: Who has disclosure and due diligence duties?
- § 8:6 —Post-Pinter cases: Agents, brokers, dealers, underwriters, and other Section 12(a)(2) “sellers”
- § 8:7 —Attorneys and accountants
- § 8:8 —Applies only to public offerings
- § 8:9 —No aiding and abetting liability
- § 8:9.50 The importance or not of targeted solicitation under section 12-the BitConnect case
- § 8:9.60 Non-fungible tokens were securities under U.S. Supreme Court case Howey
- § 8:10 Section 17(a) of 1933 Act
- § 8:10.10 Negligent securities “Fraud” Actions by SEC: Section 17(a)(2) misstatement liability
- § 8:10.20 Negligent securities “Fraud” Actions by SEC: Section 17(a)(3) “scheme” liability
- § 8:10.25 Sale of unregistered securities and securities fraud actions by the SEC
- § 8:10.30 Standard of Care under 1933 Act § 17(a)
- § 8:10.40 The SEC sets forth its prosecutorial position on Janus and Janus’ effect on Rule 10b-5 and Section 17(a)
- § 8:11 Securities Exchange Act of 1934
- § 8:12 Securities laws duties of corporate officers, directors, promoters, and attorneys, and accountants for preparation and accuracy of disclosure documents for investors: Overview
- § 8:13 Rule 10b-5 (1934 Act)
- § 8:13.50 —Independent Duty to Disclose?
- § 8:14 —Professional’s duty to disclose material facts
- § 8:15 — —Underwriter’s duties
- § 8:16 — —Attorneys
- § 8:17 —Duty to disclose qualitatively material facts and a known “trend or uncertainty”
- § 8:17.40 Accountant’s opinion in financial statement as certification and consequent section 11 violation
- § 8:17.50 Rule 10b-5 (1934 Act)—Accountants: “red flags” requiring additional due diligence?
- § 8:17.60 Materiality and § 11 liability under the 1933 Act
- § 8:17.70 Misrepresentations in connection with the Purchase or Sale of a Security under Section 10(b) of the 1934 Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder

- § 8:17.80 SEC Enforcement—Improper Disclosure about Sexual Misconduct on part of CEO and Corporation
- § 8:18 Rule 10b-5 (1934 Act)—Transaction and loss causation
- § 8:18.50 Loss causation—Materialization of the risk
- § 8:18.55 —Time delay between corrective disclosure and share price drop
- § 8:18.60 Generic misstatements-fraud-on-the-market
- § 8:18.70 Causation-reliance—Mixed affirmative statements and omissions
- § 8:19 Rule 10b-5 (1934 Act)—End-runs around no aiding and abetting liability in private actions? Few, if any, after Supreme Court’s Janus decision (2011)
- § 8:20 —End-Run around no aiding and abetting liability in private actions?—Who “makes” a misstatement?
- § 8:21 End-Runs around no Rule 10b-5 aiding and abetting liability in private actions?—Drafting, editing, reviewing, advising, or assisting in preparation of statements made by another: “Substantial Participation” approach—Expressly rejected by Supreme Court in Janus (2011)
- § 8:22 —SEC Amicus approach: “creating” the misrepresentation—Expressly rejected by Supreme Court in Janus (2011)
- § 8:23 —The “Bright Line” approach: Consistent with Janus (2011)
- § 8:24 Rule 10b-5 (1934 Act)—End-Run around no aiding and abetting liability in private actions?—Statements “made” by an accountant regarding unaudited financial information
- § 8:25 — —“Primary” violations of the nonrepresentational 10b-5 subdivisions
- § 8:26 — —Conspiracy
- § 8:27 — —SEC actions and criminal liability
- § 8:27.50 Supreme court applies statute of limitations to the SEC disgorgement remedy
- § 8:27.60 Attempts to label SEC injunctive enforcement remedies as punitive
- § 8:27.65 SEC enforcement arsenal—Consent decrees and no-deny provisions
- § 8:27.70 Supreme court upholds propriety of SEC disgorgement remedy while noting restrictions
- § 8:27.80 SEC enforcement authority pertaining to private funds and private fund advisers curtailed in Fifth Circuit ruling
- § 8:27.90 SEC responsibility to regulate unregistered brokers under Exchange Act § 15
- § 8:28 Rule 10b-5 (1934 Act)—Aiding and abetting actions by SEC
- § 8:29 Special pleading requirements for Rule 10b-5 claims
- § 8:29.50 Control person liability and advice of counsel defense to prove good faith under § 20(a) of the 1934 Exchange Act
- § 8:30 Corporate scienter
- § 8:31 —Adverse interests exception
- § 8:32 Constitutionality of SEC’s appointment process regarding Administrative Law Judges
- § 8:33 SEC Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) enforcement proceedings involving Civil Fines ruled Unconstitutional Seventh Amendment violation by U.S. Supreme Court
- § 8:34 Supreme Court holds that litigants may challenge the constitutionality of SEC administrative proceedings in Federal District Court parallel or collateral to administrative proceedings before the SEC
- § 8:35 Chevron doctrine used for 40 years is overruled by U.S. Supreme Court

APPENDICES

APPENDIX 1. Overview of SPACs

TABLE OF CONTENTS

APPENDIX 2.	CF Disclosure Guidance Topic No. 11 regarding special purpose acquisition companies
APPENDIX 3.	Selected C&DIs focused on SPACs
APPENDIX 3A.	SEC Adopts Final Disclosure Rules for SPACs
APPENDIX 4.	Sec Proposes New Regulatory Regime and Disclosure Rules for Spacs
APPENDIX 5.	FINRA Regulation Notice 10-22 (April 2010)
APPENDIX 6.	Manual of Corporate Forms: Form 2-6
APPENDIX 7A.	The Legal Audit: Corporate Internal Investigation: Document 5: Form of General Checklist for Acquisition of a Business: Prepared by Purchaser
APPENDIX 7B.	The Legal Audit: Corporate Internal Investigation: Document 6: Preliminary Audit Information
APPENDIX 7C.	The Legal Audit: Corporate Internal Investigation: Document 7: Form of General Statement of Business for Small Business
APPENDIX 8.	Form of Company Questionnaire and Due Diligence Checklist
APPENDIX 9.	PCAOB Auditing Standards Release #2014-002 (June 10, 2014)
APPENDIX 10.	Auditing Standard No. 16—Auditor Communication with Audit Committees (Aug. 15, 2012)
APPENDIX 11.	Commission Statement and Guidance on Public Company Cybersecurity Disclosures (February 26, 2018)
APPENDIX 12.	Amendments to Accelerated Filer and Large Accelerated Filer Definitions
APPENDIX 13.	Amendments (2020) to Modernize Regulation S-K Items 101, 103, and 105; Transitional FAQs
APPENDIX 14.	Amendments (2020) to Regulation S-K Items 301, 302 and 303
APPENDIX 15.	Corporate Transparency Act—FinCEN
APPENDIX 15A.	Corporate Transparency Act: The Large Operating Company Exemption
APPENDIX 15B.	FAQs Clarifying Dissolved Entities Subject to CTA
APPENDIX 16.	Final Climate Disclosure Rules Adopted

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index