

Introduction to the 2025-2026 Edition

The 2025-2026 Edition of Ohio School Law (Baldwin’s Ohio Handbook Series) discusses legal aspects of education administration in Ohio. Authors W. Michael Hanna, Michael L. Sharb, Ryan K. Callender and Allison M. Binkley, of Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP and Daniel A. Jaffe of Case Western University School of Law, continue to combine their efforts to provide educators, attorneys, and interested members of the public with convenient access to expert commentary in an easy-to-use format.

The 2025-2026 Edition of Ohio School Law (Baldwin’s Ohio Handbook Series) replaces the 2024-2025 Edition in its entirety.

Highlights

- Suspension and expulsion—Authority to expel student for more than 80 days (Chapter 25)
- Special instruction, adult education—Competency-based educational programs (Chapter 26)
- Change to required reporting of fiscal year projections to the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce - “Five-Year Forecast” changed to “Three-Year Forecast” (2025 OH H.B. 96, Chapter 40)
- Public records—Exclusions from public records particularly relevant to work by school attorneys (Chapter 44)
- Updated Calendar for School District Officials (Appendix)

Thank you for subscribing to Ohio School Law (Baldwin’s Ohio Handbook Series). We hope you find this book an invaluable tool for your practice.

The Publisher