

Introduction to the 2026 Edition

Thank you for subscribing to Defending Pesticides in Litigation. This edition provides practical guidance for attorneys working in this highly complex area of law. Defending Pesticides in Litigation is a complete sourcebook for the defense-side practitioner and serves as a comprehensive reference on how to present an effective defense in pesticide litigation. It will prove especially useful in drafting pleadings, planning discovery, and efficiently researching unfamiliar areas of law. There are updates to the following chapters:

- Chapter 2. A Litigator's Guide to FIFRA
- Chapter 5. Theories of Liability
- Chapter 7. Causation in Pesticide Cases
- Appendix E
