

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. FORMS OF BUSINESS ASSOCIATION—DEFINITIONS AND DISTINCTIONS

PART A. INTRODUCTION TO THE CORPORATION AS A FORM OF DOING BUSINESS

- § 1:1 The corporation
- § 1:2 The concept of corporate entity or personality
- § 1:3 Exceptions to the separate legal personality
- § 1:4 The corporation and the constitution
- § 1:5 Non-tax advantages of corporations
- § 1:6 Disadvantages of the corporate form

PART B. PARTNERSHIPS

- § 1:7 Characteristics of the partnership
- § 1:8 The joint venture: a form of partnership
- § 1:9 The limited partnership
- § 1:10 Tax considerations in selecting a business form

PART C. LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES

- § 1:11 The limited liability company
- § 1:12 Corporate Transparency Act
- § 1:13 Fiduciary duties in limited liability companies
- § 1:14 Continuity of existence and transferability of limited liability interests
- § 1:15 Management of limited liability companies
- § 1:16 Piercing the limited liability company veil and other entity issues
- § 1:17 Recognition of foreign limited liability companies
- § 1:18 Taxation issues for limited liability companies
- § 1:19 Limited liability company interests as securities
- § 1:20 Professional limited liability companies
- § 1:21 The limited liability company—Operational issues

PART D. OTHER FORMS OF DOING BUSINESS

- § 1:22 Loan to a business proprietor for a share of the profits; sharing of profits by lessor or employee
- § 1:23 The joint stock company

- § 1:24 The business trust (Massachusetts business trust)
- § 1:25 Public or government corporations
- § 1:26 Municipal corporations
- § 1:27 Charitable and other nonprofit corporations
- § 1:28 The corporation sole
- § 1:29 Publicly held corporations and close corporations
- § 1:30 One-person companies; family corporations; subsidiary corporations
- § 1:31 The joint venture corporation
- § 1:32 The professional corporation and professional limited liability company (PLLC)
- § 1:33 Agency: core concepts

CHAPTER 2. THE EVOLUTION OF CORPORATIONS IN ENGLAND AND AMERICA

- § 2:1 The importance of corporations in modern business
- § 2:2 The evolution of English corporation law
- § 2:3 Early American corporations
- § 2:4 Evolution of American general incorporation laws
- § 2:5 Modern corporation acts
- § 2:6 The race to the bottom or the race to the top?
- § 2:7 Separation of corporate ownership from control
- § 2:8 Reform efforts, the American Law Institute's Corporate Governance Project, and a brief introduction to the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002
- § 2:9 Control of corporations: treating incorporation as the grant of a franchise
- § 2:10 Regulation by specific statutes and general incorporation acts
- § 2:11 Federal power to incorporate and regulate corporations
- § 2:12 Foreign corporations
- § 2:13 Choice-of-law rule: the internal affairs doctrine

CHAPTER 3. THE INCORPORATION PROCESS

- § 3:1 Selection of the corporate form
- § 3:2 Selecting the state of incorporation
- § 3:3 The usual steps in the formation and organization of a corporation
- § 3:4 Drafting the articles of incorporation
- § 3:5 Selection and protection of a corporate name
- § 3:6 Statement of purposes and powers in the articles
- § 3:7 Registered agent and principal place of business

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 3:8 Incorporators and initial directors
- § 3:9 Authorized shares—Planning the corporation’s capital structure
- § 3:10 Optional provisions in the articles
- § 3:11 The corporate charter as a contract
- § 3:12 Corporate bylaws

CHAPTER 4. THE SCOPE OF THE AUTHORIZED BUSINESS AND DUTIES TO OTHER CONSTITUENCIES

- § 4:1 Purposes and powers
- § 4:2 Sources of corporate powers
- § 4:3 Implied power—Real property
- § 4:4 —Charitable contributions and assistance to employees
- § 4:5 —Acting as surety or guarantor
- § 4:6 —Entering partnership and joint ventures; purchasing stock of another corporation
- § 4:7 Sanctions for ultra vires activities
- § 4:8 Modern statutory treatment of ultra vires acts
- § 4:9 The state’s quo warranto proceeding
- § 4:10 Other constituencies statutes
- § 4:11 Benefit corporations
- § 4:12 Corporate objectives; the American Law Institute; the Business Roundtable; and the rise of corporate social responsibility
- § 4:13 Restrictions in the bylaws or statutes on the authority of directors

CHAPTER 5. THE PROMOTION OF THE CORPORATION

- § 5:1 Functions of promoters
- § 5:2 Pre-incorporation contracts: questions raised
- § 5:3 Liability of the corporation on pre-incorporation contracts
- § 5:4 Theories of corporate liability on promoters’ contracts
- § 5:5 Adoption and ratification theories
- § 5:6 Accepting a contract’s benefits
- § 5:7 Liability of the corporation for organization expenses
- § 5:8 The corporation’s right to enforce contracts
- § 5:9 Liability of promoters on pre-incorporation contracts
- § 5:10 Promoters’ liability after corporation’s adoption
- § 5:11 The promoters’ right to sue on the contract
- § 5:12 Drafting pre-incorporation agreements
- § 5:13 Statutes relating to pre-incorporation contracts

- § 5:14 Promoters' fiduciary obligations
- § 5:15 Fraudulent devices used by promoters
- § 5:16 Promoters' secret profits on sales
- § 5:17 The defense of full disclosure
- § 5:18 Duty of promoters to subsequent purchasers of shares
- § 5:19 Promoters and the securities laws
- § 5:20 Creditors' remedies for promoters' frauds

CHAPTER 6. DEFECTIVE FORMATION OF CORPORATIONS AND REVIVAL OF EXISTENCE

- § 6:1 Problems arising from defects in formation
- § 6:2 Corporation de jure
- § 6:3 The de facto doctrine
- § 6:4 Formation under invalid, unauthorized, or nonexistent statutes
- § 6:5 Sufficiency of compliance with statutory requirements
- § 6:6 Necessity for assumption or use of corporate powers
- § 6:7 Loss of de facto status by subsequent discovery of defects
- § 6:8 Effect of failure to pay in minimum amount of capital
- § 6:9 Title questions and property rights; the power of eminent domain
- § 6:10 Basis of the de facto doctrine
- § 6:11 Criticism of the de facto doctrine
- § 6:12 Corporation by estoppel
- § 6:13 Theories to avoid personal liability of shareholders
- § 6:14 Liability of participants: active versus passive participation
- § 6:15 Statutes pertaining to defective corporations
- § 6:16 Correction of corporate defects generally
- § 6:17 Liability for torts committed while corporation's organization is in progress
- § 6:18 Extension and revival of corporate existence
- § 6:19 Effect of expiration or forfeiture of a corporation's charter
- § 6:20 Application of the de facto doctrine and corporation by estoppel to limited liability companies

CHAPTER 7. THE SEPARATE CORPORATE ENTITY: PRIVILEGE AND ITS LIMITATIONS

- § 7:1 The corporate entity
- § 7:2 The nature of the shareholders' interest in corporate property

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 7:3	Corporate rights of action as distinct from individual rights
§ 7:4	Shareholders' transfers of corporate property
§ 7:5	Shareholders' contracts and wrongs as binding on the corporation
§ 7:6	Separate corporate entity in taxation
§ 7:7	Limited liability reconsidered
§ 7:8	Approaches used to disregard the corporate entity
§ 7:9	Lack of formality and confusion of affairs as bases for piercing the corporate veil
§ 7:10	Dominating the corporation's affairs as the basis for piercing the corporate veil
§ 7:11	Inadequate capitalization as a factor for piercing the veil
§ 7:12	Single-shareholder corporations as legal entities
§ 7:13	Definitions: "parent company," "holding company," "subsidiary," and "affiliate"
§ 7:14	Uses and functions of subsidiary and affiliated corporations
§ 7:15	Abuse of control over subsidiaries or affiliates
§ 7:16	Disregarding the separate entity in the parent-subsidiary context
§ 7:17	The corporation's separate entity under state and federal statutes
§ 7:18	Reverse-piercing of the corporate veil
§ 7:19	Subordination of controlling stockholders' loans and guaranties
§ 7:20	Fraudulent conveyances to corporations
§ 7:21	Jurisdiction over foreign corporations through their local subsidiaries

CHAPTER 8. POWERS OF OFFICERS AND AGENTS; TORT AND CRIMINAL LIABILITY OF CORPORATIONS

PART A. POWERS OF OFFICERS AND AGENTS

§ 8:1	Introduction and a summary of rules regarding the agent's authority
§ 8:2	Corporate officers and their sources of power
§ 8:3	Directors are not agents
§ 8:4	Selection of officers
§ 8:5	Removal or resignation of officers or agents
§ 8:6	The chief executive officer's and president's authority
§ 8:7	Authority of the chairman of the board

- § 8:8 The vice president's authority
- § 8:9 The secretary's authority
- § 8:10 The treasurer's authority; the comptroller's duties
- § 8:11 The general manager's authority
- § 8:12 The power of officers to litigate
- § 8:13 Apparent authority of officers and agents
- § 8:14 Ratification of unauthorized contracts or transactions
- § 8:15 Constructive knowledge of the corporation
- § 8:16 Formal evidence of an officer's authority
- § 8:17 De facto directors and officers

PART B. TORT AND CRIMINAL LIABILITY OF CORPORATIONS AND THEIR OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

- § 8:18 Vicarious liability of corporation for torts of employees
- § 8:19 Corporate liability for punitive or exemplary damages
- § 8:20 Liability of directors and officers for corporate torts to third persons
- § 8:21 Criminal liability of corporations
- § 8:22 Criminal liability of officers and directors

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 9. FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF DIRECTORS

- § 9:1 The traditional pattern of corporate governance
- § 9:2 Continuing efforts to strengthen the monitoring role of the board of directors
- § 9:3 Governance through the listing requirements of NYSE and Nasdaq
- § 9:4 Changes in the statutory description of functions of the board of directors
- § 9:5 Authority and powers of the directors
- § 9:6 Necessity for board action in a lawfully convened meeting
- § 9:7 Statutes authorizing informal board action
- § 9:8 The notice requirement for board meetings
- § 9:9 Directors' meetings: place, call, quorum, votes, disqualification by interest
- § 9:10 The virtual board: melding electronic media to the conduct of board meetings
- § 9:11 Governance and authority within a limited liability company
- § 9:12 The power of shareholders to control the acts of directors
- § 9:13 Board vacancies
- § 9:14 Removal of directors by shareholders
- § 9:15 Removal of directors by action of the board of directors
- § 9:16 Judicial removal of directors
- § 9:17 Delegation of authority by directors to committees, officers, and agents
- § 9:18 Committees of the board of directors
- § 9:19 Limitations on delegation of board powers to committees
- § 9:20 Responsibility of noncommittee directors for committee actions
- § 9:21 Distinction between committees of the board and committees containing non-directors
- § 9:22 Board committee meetings: notice, quorums, and voting
- § 9:23 Management agreements and other corporate contracts delegating authority
- § 9:24 Long-term employment contracts

CHAPTER 10. DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' DUTIES OF CARE AND LOYALTY

PART A. DILIGENCE, SKILL, AND CARE; LIABILITY FOR NEGLIGENCE IN MANAGEMENT

- § 10:1 Directors' duty of care: the policy, purpose, and costs
- § 10:2 Liability for imprudence and honest errors of judgment: the "business judgment rule"
- § 10:3 Standard of care and diligence
- § 10:4 The directors' obligation to be attentive
- § 10:5 Directors' actions should be the product of reasonable investigation and consideration
- § 10:6 Directors' decisions should embody a rational basis for action
- § 10:7 Knowing violations of a criminal statute
- § 10:8 Statutory developments limiting directors' and officers' liability for duty-of-care violations
- § 10:9 Executive officers; supervision of subordinates
- § 10:10 Liability of directors and officers for exceeding charter limitations on their authority

PART B. DEALINGS BETWEEN DIRECTORS AND THEIR CORPORATIONS—CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- § 10:11 The scope of the officers' and directors' duty of loyalty
- § 10:12 Interested officer and director transactions defined:
An historical treatment
- § 10:13 Burden of proof of fairness in fiduciary contracts
- § 10:14 Statutory treatment of transactions with interested officers and directors
- § 10:15 Scope of Conflict-of-Interest Statutes
- § 10:16 Methods of Satisfying the Statute
- § 10:17 Effect of Compliance with Statute
- § 10:18 Loans to Officers and Directors: Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002
- § 10:19 Interlocking directors: effect of conflict of duty or interest on the part of common directors
- § 10:20 The meaning of independence: the special problem of outside counsel
- § 10:21 The power of the shareholders to ratify
- § 10:22 Actions against directors and officers for mismanagement: corporate, individual, and creditor grounds to complain

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 10:23 Disclosure obligations based upon fiduciary principles

CHAPTER 11. FIDUCIARY DUTIES FOR EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION, CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES, AND CONTROLLING STOCKHOLDERS

PART A. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

- § 11:1 Contracts for compensation of directors and officers
- § 11:2 Methods of paying executive compensation
- § 11:3 Compensation for past services
- § 11:4 Judicial review of fairness of executive compensation: self-dealing and good faith
- § 11:5 Judicial review of executive compensation: equitable limits
- § 11:6 Executive compensation and the Internal Revenue Code
- § 11:7 Regulating executive compensation through improved governance and disclosure

PART B. CORPORATE OPPORTUNITIES

- § 11:8 Misappropriation of corporate opportunities: disloyal diversion of business
- § 11:9 Forbidden profits: gains by abuse of official position
- § 11:10 The duty of employees not to compete

PART C. CONTROLLING STOCKHOLDER'S FIDUCIARY OBLIGATIONS

- § 11:11 Fiduciary duties of majority shareholders to the minority
- § 11:12 Unequal treatment among different classes of securities or holders of the same class of security

CHAPTER 12. OBLIGATIONS ARISING OUT OF TRANSACTIONS IN SHARES

PART A. STATE LAW

- § 12:1 The sale of corporate control
- § 12:2 Fiduciary duties of sellers of corporate control
- § 12:3 Resignation of directors in connection with the sale of control
- § 12:4 The sale of a corporate office

- § 12:5 Statutory provisions affecting control transactions
- § 12:6 Other share transfers that trigger fiduciary obligations—Greenmail and equal opportunity concerns
- § 12:7 Common law fiduciary duty of directors and officers when trading in their corporation's shares

PART B. FEDERAL LAW

- § 12:8 Short-swing profits under section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act
- § 12:9 Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934
- § 12:10 Materiality
- § 12:11 Scienter and its pleading
- § 12:12 Rule 10b-5 Standing—The purchaser or seller requirement
- § 12:13 Rule 10b-5's "in connection with" requirement
- § 12:14 Causal relationship and damages
- § 12:15 Reliance
- § 12:16 Primary participants, aiders and abettors, and control persons
- § 12:17 Statutory restraints on private actions via PSLRA and SLUSA
- § 12:18 Rule 10b-5 and insider trading
- § 12:19 Rule 10b-5 and the duty to disclose
- § 12:20 Rule 10b-5 and control of corporate mismanagement

CHAPTER 13. RIGHTS AND POWERS OF SHAREHOLDERS: INSPECTION RIGHTS, VOTING, AND PROXIES

PART A. SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

- § 13:1 The nature of the shareholders' interest

PART B. RIGHT TO INFORMATION

- § 13:2 Basis of shareholders' right to information
- § 13:3 Proper purposes for inspection
- § 13:4 Tools at Hand Doctrine—Inspection rights and shareholder suits
- § 13:5 Statutory regulation of inspection rights
- § 13:6 Inspection through agents
- § 13:7 Inspection of books of subsidiary corporations
- § 13:8 Regulation of inspection by charter and bylaw provisions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 13:9 Remedies if inspection is denied
- § 13:10 Shareholder inspection of foreign corporations
- § 13:11 Accessing corporate reports, financial statements, and NOBO list
- § 13:12 Directors' right of inspection

PART C. SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS AND VOTING

- § 13:13 Shareholders act at meetings or by written consent
- § 13:14 Necessity of annual meeting and convening special meetings
- § 13:15 The time, place, and notice of the meeting
- § 13:16 Quorum and voting at shareholders' meetings
- § 13:17 Stockholders' meetings in a digital age
- § 13:18 Conduct of shareholders' meetings
- § 13:19 Inspectors or tellers of an election
- § 13:20 Shares entitled to vote
- § 13:21 The adverse personal interest of a shareholder
- § 13:22 Power to vote treasury shares and shares held by a subsidiary
- § 13:23 Cumulative voting
- § 13:24 Plurality, Majority and empty voting; advance notice bylaws; super voting and tenure voting shares
- § 13:25 Interference with the stockholders' franchise
- § 13:26 Vote-buying and coercion

PART D. STATE REGULATION OF THE PROXY MACHINERY

- § 13:27 The nature of a proxy
- § 13:28 Revocation, duration, and termination of proxies
- § 13:29 The proxy voting system
- § 13:30 Proxy contest expenses

PART E. FEDERAL REGULATION OF PROXIES

- § 13:31 Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934: An overview
- § 13:32 Definition of "solicitation" and "proxy"
- § 13:33 Shareholder proposals under the proxy rules
- § 13:34 Implied private action under Rule 14a-9

PART F. CORPORATE CONTROL DEVICES

- § 13:35 Various voting control devices
- § 13:36 Nonvoting shares and voting-only shares

TREATISE ON THE LAW OF CORPORATIONS

- § 13:37 The voting trust—Its use and abuse
- § 13:38 Voting trusts—Scope of trustee's powers
- § 13:39 The voting trust in operation
- § 13:40 Use of bylaws to establish a relationship between shareholders and management
- § 13:41 Broad private ordering under section 122 of Delaware
Statute

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 14. CLOSELY HELD ENTITIES

- § 14:1 Close corporations: definitions and distinctive needs
- § 14:2 Close corporation statutes—Scheme, pitfalls, and objectives
- § 14:3 Shareholders' agreements: contents
- § 14:4 Forms and execution of shareholders' agreements
- § 14:5 Validity of shareholders' agreements attacked because they limit the board of directors' discretion or authority
- § 14:6 Invalidity of sale of voting power as basis for striking down shareholders' agreements
- § 14:7 Shareholders' reciprocal pooling agreements controlling voting for directors
- § 14:8 Use of charter or bylaw provisions in lieu of shareholders' agreements
- § 14:9 Restrictions on the transferability of shares; reasons for restrictions; types of restrictions
- § 14:10 Legal limits on the use of transfer restrictions
- § 14:11 Dissension in the close corporation
- § 14:12 Dissolution for deadlock
- § 14:13 Deadlock; oppression; protecting reasonable expectations
- § 14:14 Policy questions surrounding dissolution and alternative remedies
- § 14:15 Dissolution and dissent in LLCs
- § 14:16 Custodians' resolution of shareholder deadlocks and disputes
- § 14:17 Fiduciary duties in the close corporation
- § 14:18 Fiduciary obligations in LLCs
- § 14:19 Special tax considerations for the close corporation

CHAPTER 15. THE DERIVATIVE SUIT

- § 15:1 Economic justifications for the derivative suit
- § 15:2 Nature and basis of derivative action
- § 15:3 Distinguishing the shareholder's individual suit from the derivative suit
- § 15:4 Individual recovery in derivative suits
- § 15:5 Mission of derivative suit: compensation versus deterrence
- § 15:6 Necessity of demand on the shareholders
- § 15:7 The demand on the directors requirement

- § 15:8 Special litigation committees
- § 15:9 Standing to bring a derivative suit
- § 15:10 Double derivative suits
- § 15:11 The plaintiff as an adequate representative
- § 15:12 Bona fide purchasers of “tainted” shares
- § 15:13 Security-for-expense statutes
- § 15:14 Limitations, laches, and acquiescence as defenses
- § 15:15 Derivative suits and the right to a jury trial and arbitration
- § 15:16 Control and settlement of a derivative suit
- § 15:17 The corporation as a passive party in derivative suits; defenses
- § 15:18 The role of counsel in a derivative suit
- § 15:19 The attorney-client privilege in derivative suits
- § 15:20 Award of attorneys’ fees and expenses of suit
- § 15:21 Indemnification and insurance for directors and officers
- § 15:22 Sanctions for frivolous shareholder actions
- § 15:23 Private ordering and shareholder suits

CHAPTER 16. ISSUANCE OF SHARES

PART A. SHARE SUBSCRIPTIONS AND UNDERWRITING

- § 16:1 Nature and form of subscription agreements
- § 16:2 Pre-incorporation subscriptions—Revocability
- § 16:3 Post-incorporation subscriptions: subscription or sale?
- § 16:4 Express conditions and special agreements
- § 16:5 Limitations on escape provisions
- § 16:6 Release of subscriptions by corporation
- § 16:7 Subscribers’ defenses to liability on subscription contracts
- § 16:8 Liability on unpaid subscriptions to corporations and creditors
- § 16:9 Rescission of subscriptions
- § 16:10 The underwriting services of investment bankers
- § 16:11 Underwriting agreements and syndicates

PART B. THE ISSUANCE OF SHARES

- § 16:12 The nature of shares and share certificates
- § 16:13 Issuance, creation, or allotment of shares
- § 16:14 Flexibility in terms of preferred shares
- § 16:15 Significance of par value

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 16:16 Sale of treasury shares at less than par
- § 16:17 No-par shares; advantages, issue price
- § 16:18 Kinds of consideration that validate payment for shares
- § 16:19 Valuation of consideration for shares
- § 16:20 Promotion frauds and the state and federal securities laws
- § 16:21 Equitable limitations for pricing shares
- § 16:22 The shareholders' preemptive right
- § 16:23 The theory behind the legal capital concept
- § 16:24 Legal capital of par and no-par shares

CHAPTER 17. LIABILITY FOR WATERED, BONUS, AND UNDERPAID SHARES

- § 17:1 Varieties of watered stock
- § 17:2 Evils and abuses of stock watering
- § 17:3 Contract and trust fund theories
- § 17:4 The fraud or holding-out theory
- § 17:5 The statutory obligation doctrine
- § 17:6 Liability of transferees of watered stock
- § 17:7 Creditors', receivers', and trustees' remedies
- § 17:8 Creditors against holders of watered no-par stock
- § 17:9 Cancellation and assessment of diluted or watered shares

CHAPTER 18. CAPITAL STRUCTURE, PREFERENCES, AND CLASSES OF SECURITIES

- § 18:1 Choices in debt and equity financing
- § 18:2 Bonds and debt financing
- § 18:3 Types of bonds
- § 18:4 Classes of stock
- § 18:5 The preferred share contract
- § 18:6 Flexibility through a "blank stock" authorization
- § 18:7 Preferred shareholders and rights approaching creditor status
- § 18:8 Cumulative dividends
- § 18:9 Non-cumulative preferred shares
- § 18:10 Participation of preferred shares beyond their preference
- § 18:11 Preference on liquidation
- § 18:12 Voting rights of preferred
- § 18:13 The redemption provision: voluntary or compulsory for the corporation

- § 18:14 The redemption or sinking fund for retirement of preferred shares
- § 18:15 Convertible shares and warrants
- § 18:16 Risk of alteration of preferred stockholders' rights
- § 18:17 Equitable protections of preferred stockholders

CHAPTER 19. ACCOUNTING STATEMENTS AND DIVIDEND LAW

- § 19:1 The importance of accounting to corporate law
- § 19:2 Major conventions of accounting
- § 19:3 The balance sheet
- § 19:4 Classification of assets on the balance sheet
- § 19:5 Classification of liabilities
- § 19:6 Stockholders' equity accounts
- § 19:7 Surplus and its varieties
- § 19:8 The interpretation of the balance sheet
- § 19:9 The income or profit and loss statement
- § 19:10 Consolidated financial statements

CHAPTER 20. DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTIONS: RIGHTS, RESTRICTIONS, AND LIABILITIES

PART A. RIGHTS TO DIVIDENDS

- § 20:1 Declaration and payment of dividends
- § 20:2 Directors' refusal to declare dividends
- § 20:3 Preferred stock and the business judgment rule
- § 20:4 Statutory, charter, and contractual provisions requiring distributions
- § 20:5 Derivative or direct action to compel dividends
- § 20:6 Declaration and vesting of right to dividends
- § 20:7 Rescission or revocation of dividend declarations
- § 20:8 Effect of insolvency on the stockholders' entitlement
- § 20:9 Right to dividends declared prior to transfer of shares
- § 20:10 Rights of transferees not registered on corporate books

PART B. RESTRICTIONS ON DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTIONS

- § 20:11 The purpose of dividend restrictions
- § 20:12 The various dividend limitations
- § 20:13 The capital impairment limitation
- § 20:14 The earned surplus test

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 20:15 Capital surplus as a source of “distributions” to shareholders
- § 20:16 The insolvency limitation
- § 20:17 Nimble dividends
- § 20:18 “Wasting asset” corporations
- § 20:19 The innovations of the California statute and the Model Business Corporation Act
- § 20:20 The issue of shares as stock dividends and stock splits
- § 20:21 Capitalization of surplus for stock dividends and stock splits
- § 20:22 Alteration of relative rights via dividends

PART C. LIABILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND SHAREHOLDERS

- § 20:23 Directors’ liability for unlawful dividends
- § 20:24 The extent of the directors’ liability
- § 20:25 Shareholders’ liability to return illegal dividends
- § 20:26 Fraudulent conveyance law and dividends

CHAPTER 21. REPURCHASES, REDEMPTIONS AND THE REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

PART A. SHARE PURCHASES AND REDEMPTIONS

- § 21:1 English limitations on authority to purchase
- § 21:2 American rules on share repurchases
- § 21:3 The dangers and abuses of dealing in the corporation’s own shares
- § 21:4 Statutory restrictions on repurchases of shares
- § 21:5 Executory and installment contracts to repurchase
- § 21:6 Agreements to repurchase at a later date
- § 21:7 Redemption and purchase of callable shares
- § 21:8 Fiduciary limitations on share repurchases

PART B. STATUS OF TREASURY SHARES

- § 21:9 The peculiar status of treasury shares
- § 21:10 The reissue or retirement of treasury shares
- § 21:11 Methods of accounting for treasury shares

PART C. REMEDIES FOR IMPROPER SHARE PURCHASES

- § 21:12 Recovery by corporation for unlawful share purchases

- § 21:13 Right of recovery by creditors from selling shareholders

PART D. REDUCTION OF LEGAL CAPITAL

- § 21:14 Reduction of capital—The problem defined § 21:15 Reasons for the reduction of legal capital
§ 21:16 Methods of reduction
§ 21:17 Statutory limitations on the reduction of legal capital § 21:18 A new start on earned surplus; the divergence of corporate law and tax law

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 22. CORPORATE COMBINATIONS

- § 22:1 Chapter overview
- § 22:2 Comparison of methods of combination or reorganization

PART A. SALE OF ASSETS

- § 22:3 Purposes of sale of substantially all assets
- § 22:4 Authority to sell entire assets in the absence of a statute
- § 22:5 Statutory authorization of sale of assets
- § 22:6 Sale of assets for securities
- § 22:7 The de facto merger doctrine
- § 22:8 Successor corporation liability
- § 22:9 Bulk sales protection for creditors

PART B. MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION

- § 22:10 Merger and consolidation distinguished
- § 22:11 Attributes and advantages of merger and consolidation
- § 22:12 Statutory authority for merger and consolidation
- § 22:13 Procedures to merge or consolidate
- § 22:14 “Short-form” mergers
- § 22:15 Triangular mergers and share exchanges
- § 22:16 Special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs)
- § 22:17 Dissolution of constituent companies
- § 22:18 Transfer of assets to the surviving corporation
- § 22:19 Rights of creditors of constituent companies
- § 22:20 Leveraged buyouts as fraudulent conveyances
- § 22:21 Accounting for corporate combinations
- § 22:22 Accounting treatment’s interface with the traditional statutory accounting norms
- § 22:23 Mergers as a means to recapitalize

PART C. REMEDIES OF DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS

- § 22:24 Alternative remedies of dissenting shareholders
- § 22:25 The statutory appraisal remedy
- § 22:26 Scope of statutory appraisal rights

- § 22:27 Valuation of shares in appraisal proceedings
- § 22:28 Exclusivity of statutory appraisal rights

PART D. CORPORATE DIVISIONS AND FEDERAL TAX IMPLICATIONS OF CORPORATE REORGANIZATIONS

- § 22:29 Corporate divisions
- § 22:30 Federal income tax implications of corporate reorganizations

CHAPTER 23. EQUITABLE LIMITS ON ACQUISITIONS AND DEFENSIVE MANEUVERS

- § 23:1 Fiduciary obligations in acquisition transactions
- § 23:2 Equitable limitations on the power of sale or merger
- § 23:3 Merger freeze-outs of minority shareholders
- § 23:4 Going-private transactions under the securities laws
- § 23:5 Defensive tactics
- § 23:6 Defensive maneuvers and the business judgment rule
- § 23:7 Judicial treatment of specific types of defensive maneuvers
- § 23:8 The directors' role as auctioneers—The “Revlon
moment”

CHAPTER 24. FEDERAL AND STATE TAKEOVER LAWS

- § 24:1 Federal regulation of takeovers
- § 24:2 Filing requirements of Section 13(d)
- § 24:3 Definition of “tender offer”
- § 24:4 The Williams Act requirements for tender offers
- § 24:5 The antifraud provision—Section 14(e)
- § 24:6 Director turnover and Williams Act—Section 14(f)
- § 24:7 Remedies for violations of Sections 13(d), 13(e), and 14(d)
- § 24:8 State regulation of tender offers

CHAPTER 25. AMENDMENTS TO THE CORPORATE CHARTER

- § 25:1 Power to authorize fundamental changes
- § 25:2 Constitutional limitations—The Dartmouth College
case
- § 25:3 The reservation of power to amend the corporate
statute

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 25:4 The disappearing concept of vested rights
- § 25:5 The amendment process
- § 25:6 Equitable limitations on changes in outstanding shares
- § 25:7 The debate over power to “opt out” of state laws

CHAPTER 26. VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION, ADMINISTRATIVE DISSOLUTION, AND WINDING UP

- § 26:1 Voluntary dissolution versus informal liquidation
- § 26:2 Statutory authority for voluntary dissolution
- § 26:3 Equitable limitations on dissolution
- § 26:4 Dissolution by expiration of stated duration and administrative dissolution
- § 26:5 Grounds for judicial dissolution
- § 26:6 Summary of the general consequences of dissolution
- § 26:7 Winding up and statutory continuation of existence after dissolution
- § 26:8 Effect of dissolution with regard to debts and contracts
- § 26:9 Dissolution and the property of not-for-profit and charitable corporations
- § 26:10 Capacity to sue or be sued following dissolution—survival statutes
- § 26:11 The right to judicial supervision of winding up
- § 26:12 Liability of shareholders and directors for improper liquidating distributions
- § 26:13 Authority to make liquidation distributions in securities or assets in kind

CHAPTER 27. INVESTOR PROTECTION: STATE AND FEDERAL SECURITIES REGULATION

- § 27:1 Securities regulation—Overview

PART A. STATE BLUE SKY LAWS

- § 27:2 Evils leading to state securities laws
- § 27:3 History, policy, and purpose of state securities laws
- § 27:4 Types of securities laws
- § 27:5 State registration of securities: qualification, notification, or coordination with federal registration; federal preemption
- § 27:6 State registration of securities: exemptions for certain classes of securities and transactions

- § 27:7 State registration of securities: civil liabilities for violations; right to rescind
- § 27:8 State registration of securities: conflicts of laws and jurisdiction; preemption

PART B. FEDERAL PROTECTION OF INVESTORS

- § 27:9 The origin and scope of federal securities regulation
- § 27:10 Federal Securities Act of 1933—Background
- § 27:11 The registration and prospectus requirements of the Securities Act of 1933
- § 27:12 Aim of disclosure
- § 27:13 What constitutes a security under federal and state law?
- § 27:14 What is a sale under federal and state securities laws?
- § 27:15 Securities and transaction exemptions under federal law
- § 27:16 Civil liability for violations of the Securities Act of 1933
- § 27:17 The Securities Exchange Act of 1934
- § 27:18 Civil liability under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934
- § 27:19 Fraud in the purchase or sale of securities—SEC Rule 10b-5
- § 27:20 Professional obligations of attorneys representing corporations

CHAPTER 28. SECURITIES TRANSFERS

- § 28:1 The three legal spheres of securities transfer laws
- § 28:2 Direct and indirect holding system
- § 28:3 Impetus for the Revised Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code
- § 28:4 The mechanics of transferring securities
- § 28:5 Warranties by transferor
- § 28:6 How and when the transferee acquires rights to a security
- § 28:7 The corporation's refusal to record a transfer
- § 28:8 Resolving conflicting claims of share ownership
- § 28:9 Lost, destroyed, and wrongfully taken certificates
- § 28:10 Restrictions on the transfer of corporate shares and other securities
- § 28:11 Securities as collateral
- § 28:12 Conflict of laws: which state law governs transfer of securities?
- § 28:13 Certificateless shares or central depositories

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index