

Table of Contents

Volume 1

CHAPTER 1. THE STRUCTURE AND PURPOSE OF A WORKOUT

- § 1:1 What is a workout?
- § 1:2 When does the workout begin?
- § 1:3 How does the workout begin?
- § 1:4 —Excessive trade debt
- § 1:5 —Creditor pressure and working capital shortages
- § 1:6 —External events
- § 1:7 Importance of early recognition
- § 1:8 What are the forms a workout can take?
- § 1:9 What are the rules of a workout?
- § 1:10 The workout plan
- § 1:11 The workout process
- § 1:12 The effect of a workout on major parties in interest—
Debtor company's management
- § 1:13 —Trade creditors
- § 1:14 —Unsecured bank lenders
- § 1:15 —Secured bank lenders and other asset-based sources of credit
- § 1:16 —The long-term lender-investor
- § 1:17 —Subordinated debt holders and high-yield bondholders
- § 1:18 —Taxing authorities
- § 1:19 —Small business administration and other governmental credit agencies
- § 1:20 —Lessors of real property and equipment
- § 1:21 —Shareholders, customers, employees, and others
- § 1:22 The conclusion of the workout

CHAPTER 2. THE CREDITOR IN THE WORKOUT

- § 2:1 Recognizing early signs of trouble—Advantages of early detection
- § 2:2 —Opportunities of specific types of lenders
- § 2:3 — —Trade creditors
- § 2:4 — —Short-term, unsecured commercial lenders
- § 2:5 — —Secured lenders

- § 2:6 — —Long-term lenders
- § 2:7 —Common changes that signal financial stress
- § 2:8 Checklist: Signals of financial stress
- § 2:9 Independent action by the creditor—Dealing with initial reactions
- § 2:10 —Possibilities and problems of self-help measures
- § 2:11 — —Bankruptcy
- § 2:12 — —Liability to third parties
- § 2:13 — —Damage to relationships with other creditors
- § 2:14 — —Self-help and the workout
- § 2:15 Workout credit analysis
- § 2:16 Debtor's reports to the creditor once problems are identified
- § 2:17 Checklist: Debtor's information and reports to the creditor
- § 2:18 Creditor's strategy development
- § 2:19 —Consultation with creditor's counsel
- § 2:20 —Consultation with the debtor company
- § 2:21 —Consultation with other creditors
- § 2:22 —Retention of consultants
- § 2:23 —Creditor analysis of its bargaining power—Legal and contractual relationship between debtor and creditor
- § 2:24 — —Creditor's position in relation to other parties
- § 2:25 — —Effect of the creditor's internal conditions
- § 2:26 —Goals and objectives of the creditor's strategy
- § 2:27 —Creditor's decision to apply maximum pressure
- § 2:28 Checklist: Analytical investigation for strategy development
- § 2:29 Checklist: Information to be supplied to creditor's counsel
- § 2:30 Checklist: Objectives of creditor's representative at initial conference with debtor
- § 2:31 Checklist: Determining purpose of consultation with other creditors
- § 2:32 Checklist: Analysis of potential vulnerability of the creditor
- § 2:33 Checklist: Analysis of creditor's internal conditions
- § 2:34 Checklist: Preparation for application of maximum pressure on debtor
- § 2:35 Communication in the workout
- § 2:36 Need for creditor analysis and influence

CHAPTER 3. MANAGING THE WORKOUT

- § 3:1 Introduction
- § 3:2 The beginning of the workout—Causes of workout situations
- § 3:3 —Management problems

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|--------|---|
| § 3:4 | —Poor financial planning and vulnerable financial structures |
| § 3:5 | —Fraud |
| § 3:6 | Early detection |
| § 3:7 | Organizing the workout internally—Staffing the creditor’s workout team |
| § 3:8 | —Workout lenders |
| § 3:9 | —Lawyers |
| § 3:10 | —Accountants |
| § 3:11 | Creditor attitude |
| § 3:12 | The analysis necessary for decision making |
| § 3:13 | —The paper trail—The importance of accurate documentation |
| § 3:14 | —Collateral problems |
| § 3:15 | —Constituency of the creditor’s group |
| § 3:16 | —Debtor’s other sources of repayment |
| § 3:17 | —Management and the risk of control |
| § 3:18 | —Preliminary choices for a plan |
| § 3:19 | —Setoff |
| § 3:20 | Organizing the workout with others—Leadership and communication in the creditor group |
| § 3:21 | —Bandages and splints—Forms of the nonbankruptcy workout—The standby |
| § 3:22 | — —The composition |
| § 3:23 | — —Assignment for the benefit of creditors |
| § 3:24 | —Obtaining new money to go forward |
| § 3:25 | — —Trade credit |
| § 3:26 | — —Introduction of a new lender |
| § 3:27 | — —Sales, mergers, and acquisitions |
| § 3:28 | —Defensive loans |
| § 3:29 | Financing the debtor’s proceeding |
| § 3:30 | Conclusion |

CHAPTER 4. THE DEBTOR IN THE WORKOUT

| | |
|-------|---|
| § 4:1 | Nontechnical profile of the debtor company— Problems facing the debtor company |
| § 4:2 | —What is the debtor likely to do to survive? |
| § 4:3 | —What is the debtor’s attitude likely to be when the creditor takes action? |
| § 4:4 | —Analysis of the debtor company’s management |
| § 4:5 | — —Management obsessions |
| § 4:6 | — —Professional or entrepreneurial management |
| § 4:7 | — —Organizational structure and reaction to stress |
| § 4:8 | —The debtor’s perception of its own problems |
| § 4:9 | —Pressures on the debtor |

- § 4:10 —Synthesis of subjective and objective evaluations
- § 4:11 Financial and business analysis of the debtor company
- § 4:12 —Continuity of debtor company operations
- § 4:13 —Immediate additional financing
- § 4:14 —Debtor company's long-term prospects
- § 4:15 —Creditor position during the workout
- § 4:16 —Necessity or advisability of a Chapter 11 proceeding
- § 4:17 —Creditor controls and monitoring devices
- § 4:18 General problems of the financially troubled debtor company
- § 4:19 —Asset changes
- § 4:20 — —Reduction of assets
- § 4:21 — —Changes in the quality of assets
- § 4:22 —Creditor action against assets
- § 4:23 —Cash flow problems
- § 4:24 —Creditor and third-party pressures
- § 4:25 —Default triggers and cross-defaults
- § 4:26 —Threats to continued operations
- § 4:27 —Customer problems
- § 4:28 —Failure to meet government or industry standards
- § 4:29 —Insurance problems
- § 4:30 —Securities law problems
- § 4:31 —Problems with publicly held debt
- § 4:32 —Federal tax liens and attachment of assets
- § 4:33 —Loss of market position
- § 4:34 —Implications for the creditor
- § 4:35 Technical profile of the debtor company
- § 4:36 Checklist: Sources of immediate crisis for debtor company
- § 4:37 Checklist: Major player analysis
- § 4:38 Checklist: Customer base
- § 4:39 Checklist: General profile of existing sources of credit
- § 4:40 Checklist: Federal deposit insurance corporation and resolution trust corporation as creditors
- § 4:41 Checklist: General operational information
- § 4:42 Checklist: Review of debtor's assets
- § 4:43 Checklist: Special contractual relationships
- § 4:44 Checklist: Review of debtor's liabilities
- § 4:45 Checklist: Specific creditor composition
- § 4:46 Checklist: Utilities
- § 4:47 Checklist: Employee agreements and benefits
- § 4:48 Checklist: Public debt and investor profile
- § 4:49 Checklist: Environmental and land-use information
- § 4:50 Checklist: Litigation analysis
- § 4:51 Checklist: Management/key employee profile, internal organization, and control

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|--------|---|
| § 4:52 | Checklist: Financial structure of debtor |
| § 4:53 | Checklist: Financial statements, audits, investigations, applications, filings, and reports |
| § 4:54 | Checklist: Company capacity to produce financial and operational information |
| § 4:55 | Checklist: Analysis of debtor's cash flow problems |
| § 4:56 | Checklist: Cash management |
| § 4:57 | Checklist: Cost and expense analysis |
| § 4:58 | Checklist: Insiders |
| § 4:59 | Checklist: Intercompany transactions and officer loans |
| § 4:60 | Checklist: Corporate, partnership, or other business structure; Business records |
| § 4:61 | Checklist: Control over information |
| § 4:62 | Checklist: Accounting and legal services |
| § 4:63 | Checklist: Analysis of legal problems |
| § 4:64 | Checklist: Public and political dimensions and public issue problems |
| § 4:65 | Checklist: Fraud information |
| § 4:66 | Checklist: Industry and pricing analysis |
| § 4:67 | Checklist: Leveraged buyout or other acquisition |
| § 4:68 | Checklist: Root causes of debtor's problems |
| § 4:69 | Checklist: Possible preliminary sources for rehabilitation |
| § 4:70 | Checklist: Use of experts and consultants |
| § 4:71 | Checklist: Intercompany relationships |
| § 4:72 | Checklist: Analysis of sale of business as a going concern |
| § 4:73 | Checklist: Liquidation value analysis |
| § 4:74 | Checklist: Tax loss carryover |
| § 4:75 | Checklist: Government contract status |
| § 4:76 | Checklist: Business closedown |
| § 4:77 | Checklist: Working capital issues |
| § 4:78 | Checklist: The viable company—Special workout problems |
| § 4:79 | Checklist: Profitability |
| § 4:80 | Checklist: Contract completion |
| § 4:81 | Checklist: Effect of federal tax lien and levy |
| § 4:82 | Checklist: Out-of-court workout analysis |
| § 4:83 | Checklist: Setoff rights |
| § 4:84 | Checklist: Bankruptcy analysis—General |
| § 4:85 | —Venue |
| § 4:86 | —Committees |
| § 4:87 | —Effect of Chapter 11 on business |
| § 4:88 | —Executory contracts |
| § 4:89 | —Voidable transfers |
| § 4:90 | —Potential for reorganization |

- § 4:91 —Management/ownership change issues
- § 4:92 —Litigation
- § 4:93 —Trustee
- § 4:94 —Potential for creditor Chapter 11 plan
- § 4:95 —Cramdown
- § 4:96 Checklist: Counsel for debtor
- § 4:97 Checklist: Conflicts of interest
- § 4:98 Checklist: Shareholder and bondholder litigation
- § 4:99 Liquidation analysis
- § 4:100 Close-down analysis
- § 4:101 The public company in the workout

CHAPTER 5. THIRD-PARTY PROBLEMS

- § 5:1 Third-party involvement in contemporary financing
- § 5:2 Lender's goals—The secured lender
- § 5:3 —The major unsecured lender
- § 5:4 How third parties may frustrate the lender's goals—
The secured lender
- § 5:5 —The major unsecured lender
- § 5:6 Constituency of Third Parties
- § 5:7 Checklist: Scope of third-party involvement in the workout
- § 5:8 Third parties in the workout
- § 5:9 Checklist: Evaluating workout parties
- § 5:10 Investigating third parties
- § 5:11 Preventive and remedial measures
- § 5:12 Checklist: Preventive considerations
- § 5:13 Major creditor's role in third-party problems
- § 5:14 Special third-party problems—Environmental liability
- § 5:15 —Labor unions
- § 5:16 —Retirees
- § 5:17 —Tort claimants
- § 5:18 —Nondebtor parties to executory contracts
- § 5:19 —Nondebtor affiliates and subsidiaries
- § 5:20 —Directors, officers, and shareholders—Directors and officers
- § 5:21 — —Control of the borrower corporation
- § 5:22 — —Fiduciary obligations
- § 5:23 — —Insider presence and transactions
- § 5:24 — —Indemnification
- § 5:25 —Shareholders—Leveraged buyout transactions
- § 5:26 — —Shareholder lawsuits
- § 5:27 — —Derivative actions
- § 5:28 — —Participation in a reorganization plan
- § 5:29 —Taxing authorities
- § 5:30 Checklist: Corporate governance of the borrower

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 5:31 Conclusion

CHAPTER 6. AN OVERVIEW OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE AND THE WORKOUT

| | |
|--------|--|
| § 6:1 | Introduction—Need for overview of Bankruptcy Code |
| § 6:2 | —Effect of insolvency |
| § 6:3 | —Effect of bankruptcy on relationships with debtor |
| § 6:4 | —Elements of increased workout risks under bankruptcy law |
| § 6:5 | — —Creditor’s knowledge |
| § 6:6 | — —Third-party scrutiny |
| § 6:7 | — —Possibility of bankruptcy |
| § 6:8 | — —Loss of control by debtor |
| § 6:9 | — —Insolvency |
| § 6:10 | — —Special time limitations |
| § 6:11 | — —Risk control |
| § 6:12 | —Bankruptcy—A new set of rules |
| § 6:13 | Purpose of the involuntary petition |
| § 6:14 | —Importance of involuntary filing under the Bankruptcy Code |
| § 6:15 | —Who may file an involuntary petition? |
| § 6:16 | —Effect of filing the petition |
| § 6:17 | Turnover of property to the trustee |
| § 6:18 | Purpose of the automatic stay |
| § 6:19 | —Effect of the automatic stay |
| § 6:20 | Bankruptcy Code provisions permitting use, sale, or lease of property |
| § 6:21 | —Free-and-clear sale of property |
| § 6:22 | Obtaining credit |
| § 6:23 | Importance of adequate protection to creditors |
| § 6:24 | —How adequate protection may be provided |
| § 6:25 | —Determination of secured claim status |
| § 6:26 | Control |
| § 6:27 | The Chapter 11 plan—General scope |
| § 6:28 | —Unimpaired claims or interest |
| § 6:29 | —Acceptance of the plan |
| § 6:30 | —Confirmation of the plan |
| § 6:31 | —Cramdown |
| § 6:32 | —Chapter 11 plan analysis and strategy |
| § 6:33 | — —Classification of claims and interests |
| § 6:34 | — —Strict priority |
| § 6:35 | — —New value |
| § 6:36 | — —Impairment of a class of creditors |
| § 6:37 | — —The effect of section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code |
| § 6:38 | — — —Situation 1: Claim split between secured and unsecured claims |

- § 6:39 — — —Situation 2: Separate classification of unsecured claim
- § 6:40 — — —Situation 3: Full claim treated as secured claim
- § 6:41 — — —Context of claim classification
- § 6:42 Importance of asset valuation
- § 6:43 Preferences—Preference provisions in the Bankruptcy
Code
- § 6:44 —Exceptions to the preference rules—
Contemporaneous exchanges in the ordinary course of business
- § 6:45 — —Purchase-money security interest
- § 6:46 —Security interests in inventory and receivables
- § 6:47 —Preferences and the insider—Definition of “insider”
- § 6:48 — —Control of borrower
- § 6:49 —The preferential transfer
- § 6:50 Assumption, rejection, and assignment of executory contracts and unexpired leases—Bankruptcy Code provisions for executory contracts and unexpired leases
- § 6:51 —Purpose of adequate assurance
- § 6:52 — —Adequate assurance for shopping center leases
- § 6:53 — —Executory contracts and unexpired leases
- § 6:54 — —Licenses, franchises, and distributorships
- § 6:55 — —Collective bargaining agreements
- § 6:56 — —Retirees
- § 6:57 —Loan agreements
- § 6:58 —Effect on creditors
- § 6:59 Setoff
- § 6:60 Creditors’ committees
- § 6:61 Avoidance of liens
- § 6:62 Chapter 12—Family farmer/fisherman debt modification
- § 6:63 Creditors and the Bankruptcy Code
- § 6:64 Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer
Protection Act of 2005—Introduction
- § 6:65 2005 Amendments—Single asset real estate cases
- § 6:66 —Small business
- § 6:67 —Assumption or rejection of leases
- § 6:68 —Cure of nonmonetary defaults
- § 6:69 —Preferences
- § 6:70 —Fraudulent transfers
- § 6:71 —Utilities
- § 6:72 —Reclamation and goods received within 20 days
- § 6:73 —Key employee retention programs
- § 6:74 —Exclusivity
- § 6:75 —Creditors’ committees
- § 6:76 —Appointment of trustee; Conversion or dismissal

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 6:77 —Healthcare cases

CHAPTER 7. SPECIAL PROBLEMS OF SECURED CREDITORS

- § 7:1 The secured creditor in the workout
- § 7:2 Preparing for the workout or business reorganization
- § 7:3 Weighing the out-of-court workout against a Chapter 11 reorganization
- § 7:4 Risks of the unsuccessful out-of-court workout
- § 7:5 —Fraudulent transfers
- § 7:6 —Preferential transfers
- § 7:7 — —Inventory/receivable exception
- § 7:8 — —Other safe harbors
- § 7:9 —Control and equitable subordination
- § 7:10 —Liability under environmental laws
- § 7:11 The Chapter 11 workout: Postpetition strategies
- § 7:12 —Financing the debtor in Chapter 11
- § 7:13 —Dealing with an uncooperative debtor
- § 7:14 — —Moving for the appointment of a trustee
- § 7:15 — —Moving for conversion or dismissal of the case
- § 7:16 Effect of the bankruptcy case on the secured creditor's position
- § 7:17 —Use of collateral and adequate protection
- § 7:18 — —After-acquired property and proceeds
- § 7:19 — —Use, sale, and lease of collateral
- § 7:20 — —Requesting adequate protection
- § 7:21 —Effect of the automatic stay on rights of the secured creditor
- § 7:22 —Turnover of property in possession of the secured creditor
- § 7:23 —Priming the lien of the secured creditor
- § 7:24 —Availability of postpetition interest
- § 7:25 —Limitation on right of setoff
- § 7:26 —The cramdown under Chapter 11
- § 7:27 — —Affecting right of acceleration
- § 7:28 — —Dealing with a dissenting secured creditor
- § 7:29 — —Electing nonrecourse treatment
- § 7:30 Developing a strategy
- § 7:31 Conclusion

CHAPTER 8. PROBLEMS RESULTING FROM IMPROPER LENDER CONDUCT DURING THE WORKOUT

- § 8:1 Introduction
- § 8:2 Relationship between creditor and debtor

- § 8:3 General theories of liability for improper conduct
- § 8:4 Checklist: Situations that may lead to lender liability
- § 8:5 Control or domination of borrower—Generally
- § 8:6 —The concept of control in the Bankruptcy Code
- § 8:7 Control or domination of Borrower—Voting control—
Dangers
- § 8:8 Control or domination of borrower—Voting Control—
Control by affiliate
- § 8:9 Control or domination of Borrower—Participation on borrower's Board of Directors
- § 8:10 Control or domination of borrower—Interlocking
directorships
- § 8:11 —Control of management
- § 8:12 —Economic control
- § 8:13 —Inequitable conduct
- § 8:14 Control or domination of Borrower—Statutory control
- § 8:15 Control or domination of borrower—Fiduciary duty
- § 8:16 —Control affecting environmental issues
- § 8:17 Checklist: Possible effects of inequitable conduct
- § 8:18 Other theories of liability—Good faith
- § 8:19 —Other common-law theories
- § 8:20 —The Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act
- § 8:21 Violations of securities law—Purpose of securities laws
- § 8:22 —Definition of a security
- § 8:23 —Controlling person liability
- § 8:24 Violations of Securities Law—Aider and abettor liability
- § 8:25 Consequences of improprieties
- § 8:26 —Equitable subordination
- § 8:27 —Damage claims
- § 8:28 Consequences of improprieties and mistakes—Liability to participants or co-lenders
- § 8:29 Checklist: Damage claims made by injured parties
- § 8:30 Defensive workout strategy
- § 8:31 —Maintain clean files
- § 8:32 —Act like a creditor
- § 8:33 —Adjust alternatives
- § 8:34 —Workout team personnel
- § 8:35 Generally
- § 8:36 Oral commitments and legislative response
- § 8:37 Focus on loan documents
- § 8:38 Loan to own
- § 8:39 Third-party suits
- § 8:40 Deepening insolvency
- § 8:41 Recharacterization
- § 8:42 WARN Act liability

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 9. WORKOUT TAX ISSUES

- § 9:1 Tax concerns in a workout
- § 9:2 Cancellation-of-debt income
- § 9:3 —Related party
- § 9:4 —Bankruptcy and insolvency—Attribute reduction
- § 9:5 — —Net operating loss reduction
- § 9:6 — —Depreciable property election
- § 9:7 — —Consolidated group
- § 9:8 —Stock-for-debt exception—Repealed
- § 9:9 Reserved [Reserved]
- § 9:9 Cancellation-of-debt income—Contribution to capital
- § 9:10 —Purchase price reduction
- § 9:11 — —Qualified real property business indebtedness
- § 9:12 —Debt exchanges
- § 9:13 —Actual and deemed debt exchanges
- § 9:14 Limitations on use of net operating loss carryovers
- § 9:15 —Shift of ownership
- § 9:16 —Limitation in out-of-court workout
- § 9:17 —Limitation in bankruptcy proceeding
- § 9:18 —“Old and cold” exception
- § 9:19 — —Tax avoidance acquisitions
- § 9:20 — —Second change in ownership
- § 9:21 —Built-in gains and losses
- § 9:22 —Complete elimination of net operating loss carryovers
- § 9:23 Tax effect on creditors
- § 9:24 G reorganization
- § 9:25 Creditors’ trust
- § 9:26 —Qualified settlement funds
- § 9:27 — —Reporting requirements
- § 9:28 —Holywell decision
- § 9:29 Worthless stock deduction
- § 9:30 Tax claims
- § 9:31 Tax sharing agreements and consolidated tax attributes

CHAPTER 10. DOCUMENTING THE LENDER-BORROWER WORKOUT

- § 10:1 The workout process
- § 10:2 —Short-term standstill
- § 10:3 —Medium-range accommodation
- § 10:4 —Long-term workout agreement
- § 10:5 Reasons for documenting the workout
- § 10:6 —Reestablishing the lender-borrower relationship
- § 10:7 —Organization and consolidation
- § 10:8 — —Tailor-made agreement

- § 10:9 — —Ease of administration
- § 10:10 —Legal reasons—Parol evidence
- § 10:11 — —Good faith
- § 10:12 — —Statute of frauds
- § 10:13 Preliminary considerations
- § 10:14 The workout agreement
- § 10:15 —Title and introduction
- § 10:16 —Recitals
- § 10:17 — —Legal effect
- § 10:18 — —Parties involved
- § 10:19 — —Credit transaction
- § 10:20 — —Status of the lending arrangement
- § 10:21 — — —Amount of indebtedness
- § 10:22 — — —Acknowledgment of default
- § 10:23 — —Existing collateral
- § 10:24 — —Disputes between parties
- § 10:25 — —Outside consultants
- § 10:26 — —Statement of purpose
- § 10:27 — —Determining the budget
- § 10:28 — — —Cash flow basis
- § 10:29 — — —Borrower as preparer of the budget
- § 10:30 — — —The budget as basis of the agreement
- § 10:31 —Body of the agreement
- § 10:32 — —Introduction
- § 10:33 — —Statement of debt
- § 10:34 — —Evaluation of collateral
- § 10:35 — — —Confirmation of existing collateral
- § 10:36 — — —New collateral
- § 10:37 — — —Liquidation of collateral
- § 10:38 — — —Environmental concerns
- § 10:39 — —Repayment terms
- § 10:40 — —Additional advances
- § 10:41 — — —Advances depending on budget performance
- § 10:42 — — —Lockbox or other cash controls
- § 10:43 — —Reporting requirements
- § 10:44 — —Third parties
- § 10:45 — —Conditioning the agreement on third-party cooperation
- § 10:46 — —Communication regarding the workout
- § 10:47 — —Borrower as controller of the workout
- § 10:48 — —Involvement of guarantors
- § 10:49 — —Term of agreement
- § 10:50 — —Legal considerations
- § 10:51 — — —Legal relationship
- § 10:52 — — —General release
- § 10:53 — —Defaults and remedies

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 10:54 — —Arbitration clause and jury waiver
- § 10:55 — —Integration of agreements
- § 10:56 — —Notice requirements
- § 10:57 — —Closing the loan workout
- § 10:58 Conclusion

CHAPTER 11. DEVELOPING A PLAN

- § 11:1 The need for a feasible plan with long-term prospects—Meanings of “plan”
- § 11:2 —Inadequacy of the debtor’s planning
- § 11:3 —Necessity of developing the plan in early stages of financial difficulty
- § 11:4 —Debtor’s leading role in developing the plan
- § 11:5 —Contributions of debtor’s personnel to development of the plan
- § 11:6 —Role of the board of directors
- § 11:7 —Role of outside specialists
- § 11:8 —Role of the debtor’s creditors
- § 11:9 Developing a short-term plan
- § 11:10 —Focus on short-term cash flow
- § 11:11 —Need to defer major decisions until comprehensive plan is developed
- § 11:12 —Short-term debt modification
- § 11:13 —Short-term strategy for management changes
- § 11:14 Developing a comprehensive plan
- § 11:15 —Questioning the debtor’s business and assets
- § 11:16 —Identifying problems in the debtor company
- § 11:17 —Analysis of the debtor’s management
- § 11:18 —Expense reduction
- § 11:19 — —Evaluating the adequacy of the debtor’s accounting records and systems
- § 11:20 — —Operating costs
- § 11:21 — —Disadvantageous contracts
- § 11:22 —Disposition of assets
- § 11:23 — —Determining which assets are subject to disposition
- § 11:24 — —Determining the best method for disposing of assets
- § 11:25 — —Costs of asset disposition
- § 11:26 —Determining the debtor’s future funding requirements
- § 11:27 —Sources of information about the debtor’s finances
- § 11:28 — —Historical financial information
- § 11:29 — —Tax information
- § 11:30 — —Supplemental financial material
- § 11:31 — —Information about similar businesses
- § 11:32 — —Nonfinancial information

- § 11:33 — —Intangible assets and hidden liabilities
- § 11:34 —Asset valuation
- § 11:35 —Analysis of the debtor's outstanding indebtedness
- § 11:36 —Financial projections
- § 11:37 —Final projections
- § 11:38 —Debtor's willingness to share information with creditors
- § 11:39 Checklist: Steps in developing a comprehensive plan
- § 11:40 Checklist: Causes of debtor failure
- § 11:41 Agreeing on a plan
- § 11:42 —Focus on maximum value for all parties
- § 11:43 —Difficulties of approach
- § 11:44 —Using outside mediation to break deadlocks
- § 11:45 —Negotiating a restructuring of debt
- § 11:46 Negotiating a debt restructuring
- § 11:47 Proceeding under Chapter 11—Chapter 11 as an alternative to an out-of-court workout
- § 11:48 —Choice of a Chapter 11 case to implement the plan
- § 11:49 —Importance of control over filing of the plan
- § 11:50 —Bankruptcy code provisions for the plan's contents
- § 11:51 —Steps following the filing of a plan
- § 11:52 —Requirements for confirmation of the plan
- § 11:53 —Cramdown on nonaccepting classes of claims and interests
- § 11:54 — —Nonaccepting class of secured claims
- § 11:55 — —Nonaccepting class of unsecured claims
- § 11:56 — —Nonaccepting class of equity interests
- § 11:57 — —Importance of cramdown provisions
- § 11:58 —Effect of confirmation of the plan
- § 11:59 The plan's classification and treatment of claims of creditors and equity interests
- § 11:60 —Substantially similar claims
- § 11:61 —Separate class for small claims
- § 11:62 —Contractually subordinated claims
- § 11:63 —Introducing additional classes of claims
- § 11:64 —Payment options
- § 11:65 —Nonlegal factors in the treatment of claims and interests
- § 11:66 —Recurring issues in dealing with claims and interests
- § 11:67 — —Administrative expenses
- § 11:68 — —Tax claims and other priority claims
- § 11:69 — —Secured claims
- § 11:70 — —Unsecured claims
- § 11:71 — —Equity interests
- § 11:72 Nonfinancial aspects of the plan—General nonfinancial aspects

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 11:73 —Accounting rules applicable to restructuring of debt
- § 11:74 —Tax considerations
- § 11:75 —Securities law considerations
- § 11:76 Funding payments to creditors
- § 11:77 Soliciting acceptance of the plan—The disclosure statement
- § 11:78 —Adequate information
- § 11:79 —Variability of the contents of disclosure statements
- § 11:80 — —Historical information about the debtor's business
- § 11:81 — —Summary of the plan and classification of claims
- § 11:82 — —Assessment of the reorganized debtor's prospects
- § 11:83 —Limited exemption from liability
- § 11:84 Acceptance of the plan before a Chapter 11 filing
- § 11:85 Importance to the debtor of the plan's acceptance
- § 11:86 Importance to creditors of the plan's acceptance
- § 11:87 Agreement on a plan: The best available alternative for all interests

CHAPTER 12. THE CONSULTANT'S ROLE IN A BUSINESS WORKOUT

- § 12:1 Use of consultants in workout situations
- § 12:2 Overcoming resistance to consultants—Reasons for management resistance
- § 12:3 —Encouraging retention of consultants
- § 12:4 —Justifying consulting costs
- § 12:5 Selecting the workout consultant
- § 12:6 Engaging the workout consultant—Defining project scope
- § 12:7 —Engagement letter terms
- § 12:8 —Introduction to company personnel
- § 12:9 Checklist: Defining engagement terms and responsibilities
- § 12:10 The troubled company environment
- § 12:11 The consultant's role
- § 12:12 —Controlling immediate cash flow crises
- § 12:13 —Communication between consultant and lenders
- § 12:14 —Evaluating management
- § 12:15 Developing the business plan
- § 12:16 —Situation analysis
- § 12:17 —Planning for the future
- § 12:18 —Proposing the unthinkable
- § 12:19 Presenting the business plan
- § 12:20 Implementing the business plan
- § 12:21 Checklist: Management questionnaire
- § 12:22 Chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings—Planning for a Chapter 11 filing

- § 12:23 —Operating in bankruptcy
- § 12:24 —Consulting assistance to creditors
- § 12:25 The business that is no longer viable—Viability issues
- § 12:26 —Maximizing recoveries
- § 12:27 Conclusion

CHAPTER 13. ROLE OF THE CREDITORS' COMMITTEE

- § 13:1 Bankruptcy cases and out-of-court workouts
- § 13:2 Role of the committee—The committee as advocate
- § 13:3 —The committee as fiduciary
- § 13:4 Creation and composition of committees—Chapter 7 cases
- § 13:5 —Chapter 11 cases
- § 13:6 — —Committee of unsecured creditors
- § 13:7 — —Multiple debtor cases
- § 13:8 — —Permissive committees
- § 13:9 — —Composition of committees
- § 13:10 — —Continuation of prefiling committees
- § 13:11 — —Eligibility to serve
- § 13:12 Functions of committees
- § 13:13 —Chapter 7 cases
- § 13:14 —Chapter 11 cases
- § 13:15 — —Consulting with trustee or debtor-in-possession
- § 13:16 — —Investigating affairs of debtor
- § 13:17 — —Participating in formulation of plan
- § 13:18 — —Seeking appointment of trustee or examiner
- § 13:19 — —Performing other services
- § 13:20 Organizational matters—Bylaws
- § 13:21 —Committee minutes
- § 13:22 —Subcommittees
- § 13:23 —Retention of professionals
- § 13:24 —Reimbursement of expenses
- § 13:25 Conclusion

CHAPTER 14. THE ACCOUNTANT'S ROLE IN A BUSINESS WORKOUT

- § 14:1 Accountants in the workout arena—Overview
- § 14:2 —The accountant's special skills
- § 14:3 Engaging the workout accountant—The debtor as client
- § 14:4 —Expectations for the project
- § 14:5 —Payment
- § 14:6 —Possible suspicion of illegal transactions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| § 14:7 | Communication and coordination with other workout professionals |
| § 14:8 | Evaluating early warning signals |
| § 14:9 | —Financial analyses |
| § 14:10 | — —Overview of financial statements |
| § 14:11 | — —Typical signs of lack of financial control |
| § 14:12 | —Assessing management's ability and judgment |
| § 14:13 | Company performance |
| § 14:14 | Financial control problems |
| § 14:15 | Management problems |
| § 14:16 | Inside a financially troubled company |
| § 14:17 | —Record keeping |
| § 14:18 | —Soliciting staff cooperation |
| § 14:19 | Tools for workout analysis |
| § 14:20 | —Cash flow forecasting |
| § 14:21 | —Business unit identification and determination of viability |
| § 14:22 | —Liquidation scenarios |
| § 14:23 | —Tax implications |
| § 14:24 | —Financial reporting |
| § 14:25 | Achieving the business plan |
| § 14:26 | Conclusion |

CHAPTER 15. AGRICULTURAL WORKOUTS

| | |
|---------|--|
| § 15:1 | Special features of agricultural workouts |
| § 15:2 | Signals of distress |
| § 15:3 | Checklist: Signals of distress |
| § 15:4 | Initial steps for addressing the problem—Considering potential reactions |
| § 15:5 | —Understanding the scenario |
| § 15:6 | —Determining debt and legal status |
| § 15:7 | Checklist: Review of borrower's operations |
| § 15:8 | Checklist: Creditor review of documents |
| § 15:9 | Checklist: Debtor review of documents |
| § 15:10 | Establishing interim protection: the standstill agreement |
| § 15:11 | Developing a workout team |
| § 15:12 | Reviewing specific financial considerations—Financial reports |
| § 15:13 | —On-site inspections |
| § 15:14 | —Participation in government programs |
| § 15:15 | Checklist: Review of financial considerations |
| § 15:16 | Checklist: On-site inspection |
| § 15:17 | Liquidation analysis |
| § 15:18 | Checklist: Liquidation analysis |
| § 15:19 | Reviewing nonfinancial matters |
| § 15:20 | Checklist: Nonfinancial concerns |

- § 15:21 Reviewing special exposure
- § 15:22 Checklist: Exposure review
- § 15:23 Environmental evaluation
- § 15:24 Evaluating cause of financial problem
- § 15:25 Calculating impact of special agricultural rules
- § 15:26 —Bankruptcy Rules
- § 15:27 — —Chapter 12
- § 15:28 — — —Eligibility
- § 15:29 — — —Rules governing pendency of Chapter 12 estates
- § 15:30 — — —Downsizing
- § 15:31 — — —Adequate protection
- § 15:32 — — —Plan of reorganization
- § 15:33 — — —Modification of plan
- § 15:34 — — —Discharge
- § 15:35 — —Section 552
- § 15:36 — —Other rules
- § 15:37 —Non-bankruptcy rules
- § 15:38 —Personal property vs. real estate interests
- § 15:39 Assessing involvement of third parties
- § 15:40 —Feed lots
- § 15:41 —Crop farming
- § 15:42 —Livestock farming/ranching
- § 15:43 —The Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act and setoff rights
- § 15:44 —Marketing and Production Contracts
- § 15:45 —Assessing involvement of third parties—Reasons for contracting
- § 15:46 — — —Producer motivations
- § 15:47 — — —Contractor motivations
- § 15:48 — —Regulation of production and marketing contracts
- § 15:49 — —Issues for producers and lenders raised by production contracts
- § 15:50 — —Issues for contractors raised by production contracts
- § 15:51 — —Issues raised by marketing contracts
- § 15:52 Checklist: Production contract considerations in workouts
- § 15:53 Checklist: Marketing contract considerations in workouts
- § 15:54 Conduct during preliminary stage of a workout
- § 15:55 Goal formulation
- § 15:56 —Debt and operational restructuring
- § 15:57 —Viability determination
- § 15:58 —Liquidation alternatives
- § 15:59 Strategy formulation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|--|
| § 15:60 | —Debtor strategies—General considerations |
| § 15:61 | — —Bankruptcy options |
| § 15:62 | — — —Chapter 7 |
| § 15:63 | — — —Chapter 11 or 12 |
| § 15:64 | — —Other strategic maneuvers |
| § 15:65 | —Creditor strategies |
| § 15:66 | —Liquidation strategies |
| § 15:67 | Written agreements—General strategies |
| § 15:68 | —Drafting tips |
| § 15:69 | Checklist: Workout agreement drafting concerns |
| § 15:70 | Post-workout activities |
| § 15:71 | Special issues |
| § 15:72 | —Tax issues |
| § 15:73 | —Lender liability issues |
| § 15:74 | —Protection of priority |
| § 15:75 | Conclusion |

CHAPTER 16. INTERNATIONAL MARITIME WORKOUTS

| | |
|---------|--|
| § 16:1 | Introduction |
| § 16:2 | Global nature of the maritime business |
| § 16:3 | U.S. law governing security interests in vessels |
| § 16:4 | Securing the loan |
| § 16:5 | Monitoring the loan |
| § 16:6 | Checklist: monitoring fulfillment of loan requirements |
| § 16:7 | Indications of problems |
| § 16:8 | Checklist: warning signs of financial trouble |
| § 16:9 | The workout team and information gathering |
| § 16:10 | Checklist: workout information to be obtained |
| § 16:11 | Workout strategies—Analysis of debtor's problems |
| § 16:12 | Examination of each vessel in a fleet |
| § 16:13 | Relationships with other lenders |
| § 16:14 | Action short of foreclosure |
| § 16:15 | Bankruptcy |
| § 16:16 | Sale of vessels |
| § 16:17 | Judicial foreclosure |
| § 16:18 | Extrajudicial sales |
| § 16:19 | Mortgagee-in-possession |
| § 16:20 | Exercise of stock pledge |
| § 16:21 | Insurance recoveries |
| § 16:22 | Liquidation: judicial foreclosure |
| § 16:23 | Preliminary considerations—Choice of forum for foreclosure |
| § 16:24 | Cargo |
| § 16:25 | Cooperation of owners |
| § 16:26 | Other creditors |

- § 16:27 Procedure to auction
- § 16:28 Commencement of proceedings
- § 16:29 Practical matters after arrest
- § 16:30 Order of sale
- § 16:31 Establishment of lender's bidding vehicle
- § 16:32 Auction
- § 16:33 Payment and transfer of title
- § 16:34 Maritime liens—Generally
- § 16:35 Maritime liens for “necessaries”
- § 16:36 Priorities in admiralty in the U.S.
- § 16:37 Maritime attachment under Supplemental Rule B
- § 16:38 Filing for bankruptcy
- § 16:39 Impact of a bankruptcy proceeding in the U.S.
- § 16:40 Liquidation under Chapter 7
- § 16:41 Reorganization under Chapter 11
- § 16:42 The automatic stay
- § 16:43 Relief from the automatic stay
- § 16:44 Executory contracts
- § 16:45 Special considerations
- § 16:46 Ship sales
- § 16:47 Checklist: matters to consider in a bankruptcy
- § 16:48 Foreign bankruptcy proceedings
- § 16:49 Cooperation of courts in different countries
- § 16:50 High yield debt
- § 16:51 Sale in bankruptcy
- § 16:52 Drilling rigs
- § 16:53 Special issues—The U.S. Maritime Administration
- § 16:54 Judicial sale of U.S. flag vessels
- § 16:55 Syndicated loans
- § 16:56 Conclusion

CHAPTER 17. AVIATION WORKOUTS

- § 17:1 Special features of aviation workouts
- § 17:2 Governing law—U.S. law
- § 17:3 —Perfection and remedies
- § 17:4 —Federal aviation administration registration and certificates
- § 17:5 The effect of international law and the Cape Town Treaty
- § 17:6 Indications of trouble
- § 17:7 Checklist: Warning signs
- § 17:8 Formation of the workout team
- § 17:9 Checklist: Workout team members
- § 17:10 Debtor analysis and communication
- § 17:11 —Financial position
- § 17:12 —Operating and regulatory position

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| § 17:13 | —Lines of communication |
| § 17:14 | Checklist: Factors to consider regarding the debtor's operating and regulatory position |
| § 17:15 | Review of the collateral and assets |
| § 17:16 | —Evaluation of aircraft, engines, propellers, and spare parts—Appraisal of value |
| § 17:17 | — —Inspection |
| § 17:18 | — —Location and routes |
| § 17:19 | — —Registration and airworthiness certificate |
| § 17:20 | — —Condition and configuration |
| § 17:21 | — —Maintenance program |
| § 17:22 | — —Logs and maintenance records |
| § 17:23 | — —Required modifications, airworthiness directives, and service bulletins |
| § 17:24 | — —Insurance violations |
| § 17:25 | —Evaluation of other types of collateral and assets |
| § 17:26 | — —Kits and other special products |
| § 17:27 | — —Lease as collateral |
| § 17:28 | — —Insurance coverage |
| § 17:29 | — —Maintenance reserves and security deposits |
| § 17:30 | — —Aircraft purchase contracts |
| § 17:31 | — —Military airlift command and other charters |
| § 17:32 | — —Airline ticket receivables |
| § 17:33 | — —Political risk insurance |
| § 17:34 | — —Eximbank guaranties, deficiency guaranties, other manufacturer support, and residual value insurance |
| § 17:35 | —Lien searches and the effect of third-party liens—Lien searches |
| § 17:36 | — —Liens and priority |
| § 17:37 | —Third-party liability |
| § 17:38 | Review of legal and tax documentation |
| § 17:39 | Workout strategies |
| § 17:40 | —Restructuring and amendments—Form of agreement and required filings |
| § 17:41 | — —Ongoing inspections and expert oversight |
| § 17:42 | — —Effect on section 1110 rights |
| § 17:43 | —Preparation for the surrender or retaking of aircraft, engines, propellers, and spare parts |
| § 17:44 | — —Operations, maintenance, and storage |
| § 17:45 | — —Aircraft registry and export considerations—Aircraft registry |
| § 17:46 | — — —Export |
| § 17:47 | —Enforcement |
| § 17:48 | — —Self-help |
| § 17:49 | — —Legal procedures for repossession |
| § 17:50 | — — —Replevin |

- § 17:51 — — —Attachment
- § 17:52 — — —Procedures outside the U.S.
- § 17:53 — — —Political risk insurance, residual value insurance, and guaranties
- § 17:54 — — —Disposition—U.S. laws and practice
- § 17:55 — — —Effect of the Cape Town Treaty and of the Geneva Convention
- § 17:56 —Court reorganization and bankruptcy—Chapter 11 reorganization—Section 1110
- § 17:57 — —Cape Town Treaty
- § 17:58 — —Chapter 15 proceedings and Chapter 11 proceedings for foreign airlines
- § 17:59 —Chapter 7 bankruptcy and the liquidating Chapter 11
- § 17:60 Other considerations—Lender liability
- § 17:61 —Confiscation and requisition
- § 17:62 Conclusion

CHAPTER 18. WORKOUTS OUTLOOK FOR THE 1990S

- § 18:1 Changes in the workout process
- § 18:2 Collateral realization and the workout
- § 18:3 —The automatic stay, cramdown, and other Bankruptcy Code provisions
- § 18:4 —Collateral valuation and relief from the automatic stay
- § 18:5 —Lender liability concerns
- § 18:6 —Larger borrowers
- § 18:7 —Lengthening the workout process
- § 18:8 Workout success in the 1980s
- § 18:9 —The boom years
- § 18:10 —Bankruptcy court reaction to the 1980s boom
- § 18:11 —Valuation, optimism, and financing
- § 18:12 —Typical workout results in the 1980s
- § 18:13 Workout problem for the 1990s
- § 18:14 —The conditions affecting workouts
- § 18:15 —The problem for the 1990s
- § 18:16 —The need for bankruptcy court changes
- § 18:17 A strategy for the 1990s and beyond—Valuation
- § 18:18 —The benefit of collateral in the 1990s
- § 18:19 —Viability
- § 18:20 —From lender liability back to borrower liability
- § 18:21 —Bankruptcy court activism
- § 18:22 —Use of experts

CHAPTER 19. PREPACKAGED PLANS OF REORGANIZATION UNDER CHAPTER 11

- § 19:1 Introduction—Background

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| § 19:2 | —Circumstances where prepackaged plan is useful |
| § 19:3 | Bankruptcy Code provisions and Rules relating to prepackaged Chapter 11 plans—In general |
| § 19:4 | —Filing prepackaged plan with petition |
| § 19:5 | —Prepetition disclosure—Section 1126(b)(1) |
| § 19:6 | — —Section 1126(b)(2) |
| § 19:7 | — — —Adequate information |
| § 19:8 | — — —Legislative history |
| § 19:9 | —Prepetition solicitation—Bankruptcy Rule 3018 |
| § 19:10 | — —Solicitation fees |
| § 19:11 | — —Counting votes—Numerosity requirement |
| § 19:12 | — —Record holder/beneficial owner dichotomy |
| § 19:13 | — —Independence of tendering and voting |
| § 19:14 | — —Length of solicitation period |
| § 19:15 | — —Section 1145 exemption |
| § 19:16 | — —Section 1125(e) safe harbor |
| § 19:17 | — —Dissident strategy/choice of forum |
| § 19:18 | —Section 1124 impairment of claims—In general |
| § 19:19 | — —Ride-through of claims |
| § 19:20 | —Deemed rejection and cramdown |
| § 19:21 | —Duration of case |
| § 19:22 | Prepackaged plan techniques—Combined exchange offer/prepackaged plans |
| § 19:23 | —Straight prepackaged plans |
| § 19:24 | —Hybrid Chapter 11 plans |
| § 19:25 | Comparison of prepackaged plans, exchange offers, and traditional Chapter 11—Special protections and advantages available in Chapter 11—Binding all creditors |
| § 19:26 | —Lower acceptance levels |
| § 19:27 | —Tax advantages |
| § 19:28 | —Rejection of contracts and leases and limitation of liability |
| § 19:29 | —Bankruptcy court as a forum |
| § 19:30 | —Avoidance of potential original issue discount problems |
| § 19:31 | —Bar date |
| § 19:32 | —Evading anti-assignment clauses in leases and contracts |
| § 19:33 | Risks of prepackaged Chapter 11 plans—Adverse effect on cash flow |
| § 19:34 | —Risk of lengthy case or that court will not confirm plan |
| § 19:35 | —Adverse effect on debtor’s business |
| § 19:36 | —Avoidance actions |
| § 19:37 | —Case commenced during the solicitation period |
| § 19:38 | Advantages of prepackaged plan over traditional Chapter 11—Lower expense |

- § 19:39 —Shorter case
- § 19:40 —Fewer adverse effects on debtor's business
- § 19:41 —More certainty for debtor
- § 19:42 Practice pointers—Do not assume that what worked in someone else's prepackaged case will work in all cases
- § 19:43 —Do not assume that practices that pass muster under the securities laws will necessarily survive bankruptcy court scrutiny
- § 19:44 —Do not underestimate the weapons available to dissidents
- § 19:45 —Keep in mind that prepackaged plans continue to evolve

CHAPTER 20. ASSESSING THE USEFULNESS OF A CHAPTER 11 FILING

- § 20:1 Introduction
- § 20:2 Factors in favor of filing
- § 20:3 —Automatic stay
- § 20:4 — —Loss of assets
- § 20:5 — —Litigation explosion
- § 20:6 —Executory contracts
- § 20:7 — —Assumption, assignment, and rejection
- § 20:8 — —Limitations on claims
- § 20:9 — — —Leases of real property
- § 20:10 — — —Employment contracts
- § 20:11 —Obtaining and extending credit—Certainty
- § 20:12 — —Priming loans
- § 20:13 —Asset sales
- § 20:14 — —Sales free and clear of liens
- § 20:15 — —Successor liability
- § 20:16 —Level of creditor cooperation
- § 20:17 — —Absence of cohesive creditor body
- § 20:18 — —Ability to bind dissenters
- § 20:19 —Delivering the benefit of the bargain
- § 20:20 — —Original issue discount concerns
- § 20:21 — —Preference issues
- § 20:22 — —Availability of releases
- § 20:23 —Control issues
- § 20:24 — —Access to information
- § 20:25 — —Appointment of trustees and examiners
- § 20:26 — —Title 18 of the U.S. Code
- § 20:27 — —Equitable subordination
- § 20:28 —Exemptions from securities laws—Disclosure and solicitation
- § 20:29 — —Issuance and sale of securities

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| § 20:30 | —Avoidance actions |
| § 20:31 | — —Transactions avoidable under nonbankruptcy law |
| § 20:32 | — —Unperfected statutory liens |
| § 20:33 | — —Preferential transfers |
| § 20:34 | — —Fraudulent transfers |
| § 20:35 | — —Statutes of limitation |
| § 20:36 | — —Tolling agreements |
| § 20:37 | — —Standing issues |
| § 20:38 | Potentially unsolvable problems |
| § 20:39 | —Negative cash flow |
| § 20:40 | —Single-asset cases |
| § 20:41 | — —Absence of unsecured debt |
| § 20:42 | — —Classification issues |
| § 20:43 | — —Treatment of claims under section 1111(b) |
| § 20:44 | —Cost considerations |
| § 20:45 | — —Complexity of case relative to asset values |
| § 20:46 | — —Requests from professionals for subordination |
| § 20:47 | — —Prepackaged plans and prenegotiated plans |
| § 20:48 | —Environmental issues |
| § 20:49 | — —Automatic stay |
| § 20:50 | — —Dischargeability and priority of claims |
| § 20:51 | —Protected categories of claims and interests |
| § 20:52 | — —Retiree benefits |
| § 20:53 | — —Collective bargaining agreements |
| § 20:54 | — —Tax claims |
| § 20:55 | — — —Priority |
| § 20:56 | — — —Dischargeability |
| § 20:57 | —Nondischargeable liabilities |
| § 20:58 | — —Obligations automatically excepted |
| § 20:59 | — —Claims excepted in response to a creditor's timely request |
| § 20:60 | —Insider concerns |
| § 20:61 | — —Asset sales |
| § 20:62 | — —New value exception |
| § 20:63 | — —Availability of releases |
| § 20:64 | —Impact on operations |
| § 20:65 | — —Personnel |
| § 20:66 | — —Trade credit |
| § 20:67 | Conclusion |

CHAPTER 21. WAIVER OF BANKRUPTCY PROTECTIONS IN PREBANKRUPTCY WORKOUT AGREEMENTS

| | |
|--------|------------------|
| § 21:1 | Introduction |
| § 21:2 | Typical scenario |

- § 21:3 Enforceability of relief from stay waiver provisions—
General provisions
- § 21:4 Enforcing the waiver
- § 21:5 Refusing to enforce waiver
- § 21:6 Enforceability of waiver in serial filing cases
- § 21:7 Enforceability of other provisions
- § 21:8 Practice issues regarding waivers—Advisability—
Creditor’s standpoint
- § 21:9 Advisability—Creditor’s standpoint
- § 21:10 —Debtor’s standpoint
- § 21:11 Types of waiver provisions
- § 21:12 Form acknowledgment and relief from stay waiver

CHAPTER 22. STRATEGIC PLANNING IN REAL ESTATE WORKOUTS

- § 22:1 Traditional view of default and collateral realization
- § 22:2 Later 20th century changes: New players lending within differing economic, legal, and regulatory environments
- § 22:3 —Factors affecting real estate values and markets
- § 22:4 —Default as a broad-spectrum phenomenon
- § 22:5 —Increased borrower opportunities under Chapter 11
- § 22:6 —Lender liquidity and solvency concerns
- § 22:7 —Summary
- § 22:8 Maximizing value: Enforcement or restructuring?
- § 22:9 —Lender portfolio objectives
- § 22:10 —Maturity defaults
- § 22:11 — —Chapter 11 “forced refinance” as restructuring baseline
- § 22:12 — —Alternative restructuring formats
- § 22:13 —“True” problem loan defaults
- § 22:14 — —Chapter 11 cramdown as restructuring baseline
- § 22:15 — —Alternative restructuring formats
- § 22:16 —Note sales: Alternative liquidity/divestiture
strategy
- § 22:17 Preserving the enforcement option: Coordinating exercise of creditor remedies with workout negotiations
- § 22:18 —Improper lender conduct
- § 22:19 —Prewriteout agreements: Communications, financial information and cash management
- § 22:20 —Parallel tracks
- § 22:21 Realizing on collateral: When restructuring does not maximize recovery
- § 22:22 —Environmental screening
- § 22:23 —Realizing on escrows, cash collateral accounts, and credit supports

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 22:24 —Capturing cash flow
- § 22:25 —Recourse recoveries
- § 22:26 —Foreclosure
- § 22:27 —Deeds in lieu of foreclosure

CHAPTER 23. CONFLICT MANAGEMENT, DISPUTE RESOLUTION, AND MEDIATION IN WORKOUTS

- § 23:1 Introduction
- § 23:2 Workout negotiation profile—Workout negotiation background
- § 23:3 —Options and mandates
- § 23:4 —Multiparties
- § 23:5 —Alliances, adversaries, and interests
- § 23:6 —Disparate parties and competing interests
- § 23:7 —New players in the workout world—Purchasers of claims and interests
- § 23:8 — —Governments and governmental agencies
- § 23:9 — —Money funds, pension funds, and other investors as creditors
- § 23:10 — —Brokerage houses and investment bankers
- § 23:11 —Reality checking
- § 23:12 —Decision makers, internal management issues, and negotiation
- § 23:13 —The need for venting
- § 23:14 —Workout plan approval
- § 23:15 —Chapter 11 and the workout
- § 23:16 Mediation—Introduction
- § 23:17 —Mediation as negotiation
- § 23:18 —How mediation gets started
- § 23:19 —Confidentiality in mediation
- § 23:20 —Why mediation works
- § 23:21 —The mediator’s role
- § 23:22 Mediation and the workout negotiation profile
- § 23:23 —Adversarial and litigation-oriented parties
- § 23:24 —Fault-oriented, blame-fixing, get-even positions
- § 23:25 —Failure to recognize legitimate requirements limiting negotiating flexibility
- § 23:26 —Failure to recognize real business interests
- § 23:27 —Difficulty in holding interest-oriented, candid discussions
- § 23:28 —Reality checking
- § 23:29 —Sorting out hyperbole from reality
- § 23:30 —The “if I had only known. . .” problem
- § 23:31 Mediation in bankruptcy proceedings
- § 23:32 Mediation in workouts—Timing

- § 23:33 —Selection of mediator
- § 23:34 —Parties included in the mediation
- § 23:35 —The good faith issue
- § 23:36 —Cost-saving
- § 23:37 Analysis of alternatives to a negotiated resolution
- § 23:38 Goals and interests: A workout mediation checklist
- § 23:39 Conclusion
- § 23:40 Update regarding workout/finance oriented neutrals panel, clauses and rules for arbitration and mediation
- § 23:41 Update for counsel and clients on process management, effective negotiation and skillful advocacy in workout mediation

CHAPTER 24. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY CONSIDERATIONS IN WORKOUTS

- § 24:1 Introductory comments—Overview of intellectual property issues—General criteria for evaluating intellectual property as potential security in workouts
- § 24:2 — — —Ownership
- § 24:3 — — —Extent/scope
- § 24:4 — — —Duration
- § 24:5 — — —Infringement
- § 24:6 — — —Validity
- § 24:7 — — —Encumbrances
- § 24:8 — — —Transferability
- § 24:9 — — —Marketability
- § 24:10 Patents
- § 24:11 Copyrights
- § 24:12 Trademarks
- § 24:13 Trade secrets
- § 24:14 Other types of intellectual property and related property
- § 24:15 Brief comments on certain law reforms
- § 24:16 Comments concerning workout realities relating to intellectual property
- § 24:17 Illustrations of applications of intellectual property business issues and tactics
- § 24:18 Using “street smarts” in unique business cultures
- § 24:19 The new frontier of cyberspace
- § 24:20 Multimedia complications within traditional intellectual property limitations
- § 24:21 A brief comment on intellectual property and international law
- § 24:22 Selected special features of workouts involving different types of intellectual property—Illustration

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| | of selected issues and tactics for certain types of intellectual property |
| § 24:23 | —Screening for upcoming trouble as a means of developing a watch list |
| § 24:24 | —Employee departures and the misappropriation of trade secrets and other intellectual property—Employee confidentiality agreements, support agreements, noncompetition agreements |
| § 24:25 | — —An illustrative scenario involving key employee bailouts |
| § 24:26 | — —Lender’s initial decisions regarding litigation |
| § 24:27 | — —“Cut and run” sales and credible litigation capacity |
| § 24:28 | — —Employees’ interests in intellectual property |
| § 24:29 | — —Miscellaneous litigation/employee problems |
| § 24:30 | — —Defensive tactics |
| § 24:31 | — —Concluding observations |
| § 24:32 | —Situations where the debtor wins by losing |
| § 24:33 | —Financial reporting dynamics |
| § 24:34 | —Illustrations of selected workout issues—The value and marketability of the intellectual property |
| § 24:35 | — —Patents |
| § 24:36 | — —Trademarks |
| § 24:37 | — —Copyrights |
| § 24:38 | — —Trade secrets |
| § 24:39 | — —Other types of intellectual property |
| § 24:40 | — —“Turn-key” packaging of trade secrets |
| § 24:41 | — —Conversion of one form of intellectual property to another form to protect the lender |
| § 24:42 | —Selected signals, causes of distress, and workout issues in specific businesses—Computer software and evasion of the export ban |
| § 24:43 | — —Biotechnology products |
| § 24:44 | — —Medical devices |
| § 24:45 | — —Litigation considerations and litigating as a business tactic |
| § 24:46 | — —Infringement litigation |
| § 24:47 | — —Product obsolescence or inferiority |
| § 24:48 | — —Unsuccessful collaborations with third-party providers of goods and services |
| § 24:49 | — —Securities fraud litigation |
| § 24:50 | — —Gray market goods and import-customs problems |
| § 24:51 | Licensing and joint ownership issues—General comments about licensing |
| § 24:52 | —The reconciliation of competing interests |
| § 24:53 | — —Secured party of the licensor vs. the licensee—Priority conflicts with the licensee’s interests |

- § 24:54 — — —Amendments to licenses
- § 24:55 — — —Collecting collateral proceeds
- § 24:56 — — —Competing licensees desiring inconsistent protection
- § 24:57 — — —Exposures of secured parties of licensees to licensor remedies
- § 24:58 —Using bankruptcy remote entities
- § 24:59 —The borrower as the licensee
- § 24:60 — — —Licensor’s consent vs. prohibition on encumbrances, assignments, and changes in control—General comments regarding the licensors’ attempt to prohibit or limit assignments, encumbrances, or other changes in the identity or ownership of the licensee
- § 24:61 — — —Bankruptcy maneuvers by licensees to overcome license restrictions
- § 24:62 — — —Licensor’s bankruptcy and rejection of the license vs. continued use under Bankruptcy Code § 365(n)
- § 24:63 — — —Licensor’s remedies for licensee’s default, including license termination
- § 24:64 — — —Licensor’s secured party’s foreclosure on the licensed intellectual property
- § 24:65 — — —Licensor’s infringement and exposures to the licensee
- § 24:66 —Disputes about the borrower’s rights under the license agreement
- § 24:67 —Cross-licenses between licensees and licensors
- § 24:68 —Development venture problems
- § 24:69 Security interests in intellectual property—Introductory comments
- § 24:70 —Copyrights—Where to file
- § 24:71 — — —Filing procedures
- § 24:72 — — —Security interests in copyright license revenue: National Peregrine vs. BMI
- § 24:73 — — —Comments on the Peregrine decision
- § 24:74 — — —Comments on AEG Acquisition
- § 24:75 — — —BMI v. Hirsch
- § 24:76 —Patents
- § 24:77 —Trademarks—General considerations
- § 24:78 — — —Perfecting a security interest in trademarks
- § 24:79 —Cautions against “collateral” assignments with license back provisions
- § 24:80 —Trade secrets
- § 24:81 —Foreclosure; power of attorney transfers
- § 24:82 —Collection of royalties; infringement/misappropriation damages
- § 24:83 —Packaging secrets vs. employee know-how; preserving licenses

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|----------|---|
| § 24:84 | End game alternatives—Sales of the business or assets or up-front license revenue; salvage concerns |
| § 24:85 | —Strategic partnering arrangements, etc. |
| § 24:86 | —Borrower’s sale of unsecured debt or equity securities or assets |
| § 24:87 | Concluding comments |
| § 24:88 | Current developments and new trends—The emergence of multidisciplinary intellectual property and commercial issues in non-technology company bankruptcies—General overview on the emerging conflicts among intellectual property and commercial legal imperatives |
| § 24:89 | —Application of those predictions of conflict to the Avalon Software controversy: An illustrative introduction |
| § 24:90 | The Avalon Software problem: the ultimate intellectual property heresy and commercial mystery—Brief review of the Avalon Software decision and fundamentals of copyright law—The Avalon decision |
| § 24:91 | — Avalon is arguably contrary to copyright and intellectual property fundamentals |
| § 24:92 | — Avalon appears inconsistent with the new Ninth Circuit decision in BMI |
| § 24:93 | —No meritorious authority or policy exists for de-perfecting, subordinating or otherwise tainting perfected patent, trademark, or trade secret security because of associations with unregistered copyrights |
| § 24:94 | —Other arguable mistakes in the Avalon theory |
| § 24:95 | —Software and other copyrightable products may not be copyrightable or may provide narrower copyright protection than imagined by trustees and courts advocating Avalon -type analyses |
| § 24:96 | —Copyrightable labels and packaging after Quality King create the ultimate valuation/leverage dispute under the Avalon/Peregrine theory |
| § 24:97 | —The Avalon copyright registration requirement is impractical in typical transactions, even without considering the interaction of other perfected intellectual property security |
| § 24:98 | Szombathy v. Controlled Shredders avoids another intellectual property heresy by denying the trustee’s claim to the allegedly infringing improvements on patented technology of the debtor |
| § 24:99 | Limitations on the assumption and assignment of intellectual property licenses—General considerations |
| § 24:100 | —If there is neither assumption nor rejection, the |

- contract for purchase and sale of the creditor's stock survives
- § 24:101 Intellectual property sales pursuant to section 363: purchaser qualifications, tactical litigation, and other considerations; some lessons from Gucci—General description of the Gucci case
- § 24:102 —Good faith purchaser under section 363(m)
- § 24:103 —Standing issues for competing bidders
- § 24:104 Miscellaneous intellectual property litigation considerations—Miscellaneous business considerations
- § 24:105 —Expanded jurisdiction over foreign persons
- § 24:106 —Limits on the assignment of state tort claims
- § 24:107 —Litigation can be an opportunity for high dollar recoveries
- § 24:108 The year 2000 problem (aka “the millennium bug”): Anticipating a new potential claim receivable and a new contingent liability in bankruptcy cases—Introductory comments
- § 24:109 —Some easily identified Y2K plaintiffs and defendants; general bankruptcy issues
- § 24:110 —Administrative/reporting problems/new Y2K excuses
- § 24:111 —Miscellaneous concluding comments; future complications coming as new Y2K tactics emerge
- § 24:112 Supplement: recent developments at the intersection of IP and bankruptcy law
- § 24:113 —IP is now a critical component of many business transactions
- § 24:114 —Illustrations of business concerns regarding distressed IP
- § 24:115 —Developing strategies used by debtors concerning IP
- § 24:116 —Coming changes in practice and law
- § 24:117 —Debtor as licensee: assumption and assignment of intellectual property licenses
- § 24:118 —Hypothetical test on contract assumption
- § 24:119 —Actual test on contract assumption
- § 24:120 —Trademark assumption case study: In re Trump Entertainment
- § 24:121 —Non-exclusive vs. exclusive IP licenses
- § 24:122 —Practice pointers on assumption and assignment issues
- § 24:123 —Debtor as licensor: preserving IP rights post-rejection through Section 365(n) and other means
- § 24:124 —Section 365(n): policy and the Lubrizol mistake
- § 24:125 — —In seeking to remedy the Lubrizol result through Section 365(n), congress perpetuated Lubrizol's key mistake

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|----------|---|
| § 24:126 | — —Effect of Section 365(n) elections |
| § 24:127 | — —Section 365(n)(1)(A) |
| § 24:128 | — —Section 365(n)(1)(B) |
| § 24:129 | — —Mechanics of Section 365(n) election |
| § 24:130 | — —Applicability of Section 365(n) in Chapter 15 |
| § 24:131 | — —Limitations of Section 365(n) |
| § 24:132 | —Treatment of IP rights following rejection of trademark license |
| § 24:133 | —Treatment of foreign patents and foreign copyrights |
| § 24:134 | —Strategies for drafting license agreements that contemplate a licensor’s bankruptcy |
| § 24:135 | —Adequate protection for IP parties in debtor sales under Section 363(f) and plans of reorganization: improper attempts to sell or vest “free and clear” of IP rights |
| § 24:136 | —Protecting IP rights in “free and clear” sale or plan |
| § 24:137 | —IP Parties Are entitled to adequate protection—“Indubitable equivalent” of their rights and defenses |
| § 24:138 | —Using secured creditors and DIP lender to prejudice IP parties’ rights |
| § 24:139 | —Pre- versus post-petition collateral versus Section 552 limitations on floating liens |
| § 24:140 | —Allocation problems complicate adequate protection analysis, reducing recoveries for IP parties |
| § 24:141 | —Illustrative allocation example for creditors of different debtor affiliates: Nortel |
| § 24:142 | —Comment on the ABI task force’s proposed reforms affecting IP |

CHAPTER 25. CLAIMS TRADING AND THE WORKOUT

| | |
|---------|--|
| § 25:1 | Introduction |
| § 25:2 | A mature claims trading market |
| § 25:3 | Claims that are traded |
| § 25:4 | Impact on the workout |
| § 25:5 | Legal issues regarding claims trading |
| § 25:6 | —Insider purchasers |
| § 25:7 | —Creditors’ committee members |
| § 25:8 | —Champerty |
| § 25:9 | —Securities laws |
| § 25:10 | —Application of Rule 3001(e) |
| § 25:11 | —Good faith and the purchase of Chapter 11 claims |
| § 25:12 | —Counting votes toward acceptance of a Chapter 11 plan |

- § 25:13 Terms of transfer
- § 25:14 —Trade claims
- § 25:15 —Loan receivables
- § 25:16 —Checklist of agreement terms regarding distressed loans
- § 25:17 —Other claims
- § 25:18 Conclusion

CHAPTER 26. CROSS-BORDER RESTRUCTURING & INSOLVENCY

- § 26:1 Introduction: The complexities of international restructuring and insolvency
- § 26:2 History: U.S. vs. the rest of the world
- § 26:3 Chapter 11 gains international appeal
- § 26:4 Conflicts of competing insolvency systems
- § 26:5 International protocols
- § 26:6 New Chapter 15
- § 26:7 Dichotomy of cross-border insolvency scenarios
- § 26:8 Insolvent or wrongful trading
- § 26:9 Competition for assets
- § 26:10 Conflicting claim priorities
- § 26:11 Considerations for workouts of foreign businesses with U.S. assets
- § 26:12 Practicalities
- § 26:13 Considerations for workouts of U.S. businesses with foreign assets
- § 26:14 More practicalities
- § 26:15 Conclusions

CHAPTER 27. RESTRUCTURING AND MASS TORTS

- § 27:1 Introduction
- § 27:2 The business problem
- § 27:3 The players—Traditional interests
- § 27:4 —The company's management
- § 27:5 —Secured lenders
- § 27:6 —Trade creditors
- § 27:7 —Subordinated debt holders and high yield bond holders
- § 27:8 Nontraditional creditors—Claimants
- § 27:9 Non-traditional creditors—Future claimants
- § 27:10 —Claimants' lawyers
- § 27:11 —Insurance companies
- § 27:12 —Parent corporation
- § 27:13 Special restructuring problems in mass tort cases
- § 27:14 —Wasting assets

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| § 27:15 | —Ability to identify present or known claimants |
| § 27:16 | —Future claimants |
| § 27:17 | —How much does the company owe? |
| § 27:18 | Strategies to resolve the business problem |
| § 27:19 | —Traditional litigation |
| § 27:20 | —Settlement classes |
| § 27:21 | —Sale of healthy businesses |
| § 27:22 | —Chapter 11 |
| § 27:23 | —Checklist re: Severity of mass tort problems |
| § 27:24 | Special Chapter 11 tools for resolution of mass tort claims—Litigation management |
| § 27:25 | —Stopping the litigation |
| § 27:26 | —A consolidation of claims in a single forum |
| § 27:27 | —Determining the claimant pool |
| § 27:28 | —Setting the parameters of liability |
| § 27:29 | —Impact of Chapter 11 on jury trial rights |
| § 27:30 | Protection of the reorganized debtor—The bankruptcy restructuring model |
| § 27:31 | —Asbestos cases |
| § 27:32 | —Non-asbestos cases |
| § 27:33 | —Future claims representative |
| § 27:34 | Protection of third parties |
| § 27:35 | Protection of asset purchasers |
| § 27:36 | —Checklist for asset purchasers |
| § 27:37 | Conclusion |

CHAPTER 28. THE FINANCIAL ADVISOR'S ROLE IN A BUSINESS WORKOUT

| | |
|---------|--|
| § 28:1 | Introduction |
| § 28:2 | When to retain an advisor |
| § 28:3 | Retention process |
| § 28:4 | Assessment of crisis |
| § 28:5 | —Management assessment |
| § 28:6 | —Business assessment—The business plan and financial model |
| § 28:7 | — —Thirteen-week cash flow projection |
| § 28:8 | — —Operational restructuring |
| § 28:9 | Postdefault services |
| § 28:10 | —Evaluation of alternatives |
| § 28:11 | —Out of court financial restructuring (“Workout”) |
| § 28:12 | —Chapter 11 reorganization |
| § 28:13 | — —Section 363 sale |
| § 28:14 | —Chapter 7 liquidation |
| § 28:15 | —Liquidating Chapter 11 |
| § 28:16 | —Assignment for the benefit of creditors |
| § 28:17 | Negotiations with the lender |

- § 28:18 —Loan covenant default
- § 28:19 —Securing debtor in possession (“DIP”) financing
- § 28:20 Postpetition services
- § 28:21 —Cash management
- § 28:22 —First day motions and notification
- § 28:23 —Statements and schedules
- § 28:24 —Vendor relationship management
- § 28:25 —Employee retention and emergence programs
- § 28:26 —Avoidance actions
- § 28:27 — —Reclamation claims
- § 28:28 — —Preference payments
- § 28:29 — —Fraudulent conveyance
- § 28:30 Plan of reorganization
- § 28:31 —Reorganization value
- § 28:32 —Liquidation analysis
- § 28:33 —Distribution and recovery analysis
- § 28:34 —Proforma balance sheets at emergence date
- § 28:35 —Negotiation of POR
- § 28:36 —Disclosure statement
- § 28:37 Tax Advisory
- § 28:38 Fraud investigations
- § 28:39 Conclusion
- § 28:40 Exhibits

Volume 2

CHAPTER 29. NEW ISSUES FOR WORKOUTS UNDER REVISED ARTICLE 9

- § 29:1 Introduction
- § 29:2 —Assumptions
- § 29:3 —New definitions
- § 29:4 —Still no definition of default
- § 29:5 —New limitations on the duties of purchasers of receivables
- § 29:6 —New provisions regarding waivers of certain rights and duties
- § 29:7 —Self-help remedies for secured parties
- § 29:8 —New rules regarding the application of proceeds
- § 29:9 —New rules regarding the disposition of collateral
following default
- § 29:10 —New Requirements for Notice of Disposition
- § 29:11 —New rules regarding the application of proceeds of disposition, liability for deficiency, and right to surplus
- § 29:12 —The rights of transferees of collateral

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 29:13 —New rules regarding the transfer of record or legal title
- § 29:14 —New rules regarding full and partial satisfaction
- § 29:15 —Surplus and deficiencies
- § 29:16 —Commercial reasonableness
- § 29:17 —Limitations on Liability
- § 29:18 —Concluding remarks

CHAPTER 30. SECOND LIEN FINANCINGS AND WORKOUTS

- § 30:1 Introduction
- § 30:2 Second lien financing
- § 30:3 State of the market; exponential growth of second lien financings
- § 30:4 Nature and structure of second lien financing transactions
- § 30:5 Advantages and disadvantages of second lien financings
- § 30:6 —Borrower's perspective
- § 30:7 —First lien lender's perspective
- § 30:8 —Second lien lender's perspective
- § 30:9 Introduction
- § 30:10 Debt subordination described
- § 30:11 Lien subordination described
- § 30:12 Intercreditor agreements in second lien financing transactions
- § 30:13 Postponement of a second lien lender's right to exercise its rights against the collateral
- § 30:14 DIP financing, cash collateral, and the request for adequate protection
- § 30:15 The automatic stay
- § 30:16 Voting issues in bankruptcy
- § 30:17 Release of collateral
- § 30:18 Problems regarding waivers and other provisions
- § 30:19 Limitations on waivers relating to adequate protection and the automatic stay
- § 30:20 Limitations on waivers relating to voting
- § 30:21 The rule of explicitness and postpetition interest
- § 30:22 Drafting the intercreditor agreement for the workout
- § 30:23 Standstill periods
- § 30:24 Adequate protection and the automatic stay
- § 30:25 Voting
- § 30:26 DIP financing and 363 sales
- § 30:27 Conclusion
- § 30:28 Scenarios

CHAPTER 31. WORKOUT ISSUES IN THE HEALTHCARE INDUSTRY

- § 31:1 Demographic trends
- § 31:2 Healthcare industry trends
- § 31:3 Medicare
- § 31:4 Medicaid
- § 31:5 Other forms of “government” financing
- § 31:6 Bankruptcy as an option to deal with healthcare workouts
- § 31:7 Assignment for the benefit of creditors as an option to deal with healthcare workouts
- § 31:8 State or federal receiverships
- § 31:9 Conservatorship
- § 31:10 Informal liquidations
- § 31:11 Secured creditors and bond holders
- § 31:12 False Claims Act suits and the automatic stay
- § 31:13 Medicare suspensions and exclusions and the automatic stay
- § 31:14 Is the bankruptcy court the proper forum to adjudicate Medicare controversies?
- § 31:15 Setoff or recoupment and the automatic stay
- § 31:16 The Medicare relationship as an executory contract
- § 31:17 Healthcare entities with landlord issues
- § 31:18 Enforceability of state laws regarding closing facilities
- § 31:19 Revisions to the Code related to healthcare businesses
- § 31:20 Patient care ombudsman
- § 31:21 Disposal of patient records
- § 31:22 Duty to transfer patients
- § 31:23 Administrative expense claim for costs of closing a healthcare business
- § 31:24 Exclusion from Medicare program participation
- § 31:25 Transfers made by nonprofit charitable corporations
- § 31:26 Application of section 525 to Medicare/Medicaid
- § 31:27 Licenses and other regulatory issues
- § 31:28 Dealing with medical malpractice claims

CHAPTER 32. PENSIONS IN RESTRUCTURINGS

- § 32:1 Introduction
- § 32:2 —ERISA and PBGC: the basics
- § 32:3 —PBGC: no more Studebakers; what PBGC insures and how it is funded
- § 32:4 Statutory scheme for Title IV—Overview
- § 32:5 —“Controlled group” liability

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| § 32:6 | —How plans terminate |
| § 32:7 | — —The statutory standards for distress terminations |
| § 32:8 | — —Judicial construction of the reorganization test in distress terminations |
| § 32:9 | — —Aggregation of plans for purposes of the reorganization test in distress terminations |
| § 32:10 | — —Controlled group test required in distress terminations |
| § 32:11 | — —The statutory standards for PBGC-initiated terminations |
| § 32:12 | — —Procedure for PBGC-initiated terminations |
| § 32:13 | — —Date of plan termination and its significance |
| § 32:14 | —Liability to PBGC upon plan termination—Types of claims |
| § 32:15 | — —Joint and several liability of all trades or businesses in the controlled group |
| § 32:16 | — —Joint and several liability for minimum funding requirements; waivers; liens for failure to meet |
| § 32:17 | — —Priority of PBGC claims |
| § 32:18 | — —Priority for UBL claims |
| § 32:19 | — —Priority for unpaid minimum funding claims |
| § 32:20 | — —Valuation of UBL claim |
| § 32:21 | — —PBGC’s methodology in valuation of UBL claim |
| § 32:22 | — —Debtors’ approach to valuation of UBL claim |
| § 32:23 | — —Valuation of UBL claim in CF&I and Copperweld Steel |
| § 32:24 | — —Valuation of UBL claim in U.S. Airways |
| § 32:25 | — —Bankruptcy courts follow U.S. Airways in valuation of UBL claim |
| § 32:26 | — —Plan restoration |
| § 32:27 | — —Termination premium |
| § 32:28 | —Other PPA changes affecting distressed companies |
| § 32:29 | —PBGC authority to reach settlements |
| § 32:30 | —Workouts with PBGC outside of bankruptcy |

CHAPTER 33. THE OUTLOOK FOR RESTRUCTURINGS: A VIEW FROM 2011

| | |
|--------|--|
| § 33:1 | Introduction |
| § 33:2 | Current restructuring themes—U.S. corporate default rates: how low and how long? |
| § 33:3 | —Is confidence giving way to complacency? |
| § 33:4 | —Credit investors continue to migrate into “deep junk” |
| § 33:5 | —Chipping away at the debt maturity wall |
| § 33:6 | Business trends to watch: U.S. economic prospects—Weak US GDP growth persists |

- § 33:7 —Stubbornly high unemployment
- § 33:8 Business trends to watch: U.S. economic growth prospects—Housing sector yet to bottom, home prices falling
- § 33:9 Business trends to watch U.S. economic growth prospects—Corporate profits soaring; Main Street reeling
- § 33:10 Business trends to watch: U.S. economic growth prospects—The inflation debate
- § 33:11 Sectors to watch—Commercial real estate’s maturity wall
- § 33:12 —The commercial real estate maturity wall—State of the CMBS market
- § 33:13 —Municipal default prospects: mountain or molehill?
- § 33:14 Conclusions

CHAPTER 34. RECEIVERSHIPS AS A NEW ALTERNATIVE TO TRADITIONAL WORKOUT OPTIONS

- § 34:1 Introduction to receivers
- § 34:2 What is a receiver?
- § 34:3 History of receivers—The establishment of courts of equity
- § 34:4 —The equitable powers found in American courts
- § 34:5 —Appointment of a receiver
- § 34:6 —Duties and powers of a receiver
- § 34:7 —Proposed receivership order provisions
- § 34:8 —A receiver’s neutrality
- § 34:9 —Benefits of a receiver
- § 34:10 Other factors to be considered before requesting the appointment of a receiver
- § 34:11 Solutions and alternatives to bankruptcy in the cannabis industry
- § 34:12 Bankruptcy and receiverships
- § 34:13 —Immediate impact on receiver’s administration of the property
- § 34:14 —Turnover and reporting
- § 34:15 —Protections provided to a receiver
- § 34:16 —Surcharge of receiver possible
- § 34:17 —Procedure for allowing receiver to retain control of the property
- § 34:18 Conclusion

CHAPTER 35. MUNICIPAL INSOLVENCY

- § 35:1 Introduction
- § 35:2 History of municipal bankruptcy legislation—The

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|--|
| | Great Depression as the impetus for municipal bankruptcy laws |
| § 35:3 | —Chapter 9 under the current bankruptcy code |
| § 35:4 | —Recent chapter 9 bankruptcy cases |
| § 35:5 | The delicate balance of state sovereignty and bankruptcy—The states can decide whether to permit municipal bankruptcy filings |
| § 35:6 | —The bankruptcy court’s limited role in chapter 9 cases |
| § 35:7 | —Role of the U.S. trustee in chapter 9 cases |
| § 35:8 | —The rights of interested parties to be heard in chapter 9 cases |
| § 35:9 | Commencing the chapter 9 bankruptcy case—Eligibility to be a debtor under chapter 9 |
| § 35:10 | — —Is the entity a municipality? |
| § 35:11 | — —Is the entity specifically authorized to commence a chapter 9 case? |
| § 35:12 | Commencing the Chapter 9 bankruptcy case—Eligibility to be a debtor under chapter 9—Is the entity insolvent? |
| § 35:13 | Commencing the chapter 9 bankruptcy case—Eligibility to be a debtor under chapter 9—Does the entity desire to enter into a plan to adjust its debts? |
| § 35:14 | — —The consent and good faith requirement? |
| § 35:15 | —Filing the chapter 9 bankruptcy petition |
| § 35:16 | —Notice of and objections to the commencement of the chapter 9 case |
| § 35:17 | —Venue and judicial assignment of the chapter 9 Case |
| § 35:18 | The municipality as a debtor in possession—The flexibility afforded to municipal debtors in bankruptcy |
| § 35:19 | —Comparing reorganization under chapter 9 and chapter 11 |
| § 35:20 | — —The protections provided by the automatic stay |
| § 35:21 | — —The municipal debtor’s ability to obtain credit |
| § 35:22 | — —Sale and use of municipal assets under section 363 |
| § 35:23 | — —The avoiding powers of the municipal debtor |
| § 35:24 | — —The “strong arm clause” |
| § 35:25 | — —Actual and constructively fraudulent transfers |
| § 35:26 | — —Avoidance of statutory liens |
| § 35:27 | — —Preference actions |
| § 35:28 | — —Postpetition transfers |
| § 35:29 | — —Appointment of a chapter 9 trustee |
| § 35:30 | — —Substantive consolidation of municipal entities |
| § 35:31 | The chapter 9 plan of adjustment—Proposing the chapter 9 plan |

- § 35:32 —The contents of the chapter 9 plan
- § 35:33 —Obtaining approval of the disclosure statement
- § 35:34 —Confirmation of the chapter 9 plan of adjustment
- § 35:35 — —Section 943(b)(1): compliance with Title 11 of the bankruptcy code
- § 35:36 — —Section 943(b)(2): compliance with chapter 9 of the bankruptcy code
- § 35:37 — —Section 943(b)(3): full disclosure and reasonableness of amounts
- § 35:38 — —Section 943(b)(4): compliance with law to carry out plan
- § 35:39 — —Section 943(b)(5): payment of administrative expenses
- § 35:40 — —Section 943(b)(6): regulatory or electoral approval
- § 35:41 — —Section 943(b)(7): best interest of creditors and feasibility tests
- § 35:42 Representing creditors in a chapter 9 case—The role of creditors and the creditors' committee
- § 35:43 —Proofs of claims
- § 35:44 —Representing bondholders
- § 35:45 —General obligation bonds
- § 35:46 —Special revenue bonds
- § 35:47 —Payment protection from preference liability
- § 35:48 —Representing lessors, lessees and contractual parties
- § 35:49 — —Municipal finance leases
- § 35:50 —Representing labor unions
- § 35:51 Conclusion of the municipal bankruptcy case—
Dismissal of the chapter 9 case
- § 35:52 —Discharge of debts
- § 35:53 —Return to the capital markets
- § 35:54 Conclusion

CHAPTER 36. SUBORDINATE FINANCE IN REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

- § 36:1 Introduction
- § 36:2 Mezzanine financing
- § 36:3 Preferred equity financing
- § 36:4 Loan participation structures
- § 36:5 A/B Note financing
- § 36:6 Second mortgage financing
- § 36:7 The Rake Bond
- § 36:8 Borrower's perspective
- § 36:9 Subordinate lender underwriting
- § 36:10 Mortgage lender underwriting
- § 36:11 Loan sizing considerations

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|--|
| § 36:12 | CMBS considerations |
| § 36:13 | The impact of servicing and control rights |
| § 36:14 | Intercreditor agreements generally |
| § 36:15 | Intercreditor subordination and standstill |
| § 36:16 | The impact of intercreditor agreements on default and remedies |
| § 36:17 | The Stuy Town case |
| § 36:18 | Intercreditor agreement bankruptcy provisions |
| § 36:19 | Intercreditor restrictions on transfer of the mezzanine loan |
| § 36:20 | Mezzanine lender cure rights |
| § 36:21 | Mezzanine lender purchase options |
| § 36:22 | Restrictions on mortgage and mezzanine loan modifications |
| § 36:23 | Control and approval rights |
| § 36:24 | Limitations on mezzanine borrower affiliate purchase rights |
| § 36:25 | Refinancing considerations |
| § 36:26 | Rating Agency Confirmations |
| § 36:27 | Tranched mezzanine loans |
| § 36:28 | Preferred equity “Recognition” [i.e., Intercreditor] agreements |
| § 36:29 | Mezzanine enforcement: the importance of pre-default administration and servicing |
| § 36:30 | The first and often most difficult enforcement problem—The intercreditor agreement |
| § 36:31 | Post-default, pre-foreclosure lender remedies |
| § 36:32 | UCC “disposition” (foreclosure) |
| § 36:33 | UCC sale |
| § 36:34 | Conduct of sale/lender’s bid strategy |
| § 36:35 | Post-sale takeover |
| § 36:36 | Judicially-approved sale |
| § 36:37 | Strict foreclosure—Possibly the best solution? |
| § 36:38 | Special bankruptcy concerns |
| § 36:39 | Preferred equity enforcement issues |

CHAPTER 37. SELECTED TOPICS IN § 363 BANKRUPTCY ASSET SALES

| | |
|--------|--|
| § 37:1 | Generally |
| § 37:2 | Applicable nonbankruptcy law |
| § 37:3 | Interest holder consent |
| § 37:4 | Sale proceeds exceed the value of the liens |
| § 37:5 | Interests is in bona fide dispute |
| § 37:6 | Compelled to accept money satisfaction of their interest |
| § 37:7 | Adequate protection required |
| § 37:8 | Sale of real property subject to a lease |

- § 37:9 Introduction to credit bidding
- § 37:10 What is a credit bid?
- § 37:11 The arguments for credit bidding in bankruptcy sales
- § 37:12 The arguments against credit bidding in bankruptcy sales
- § 37:13 The statutory basis for credit bids: Bankruptcy Code § 363(k)
- § 37:14 Credit bidding at asset sales
- § 37:15 Credit bidding under plans of reorganization and plans of liquidation
- § 37:16 —Bankruptcy Code § 1129(b)(2)(A)
- § 37:17 The RadLAX Gateway Hotel decision
- § 37:18 The mechanics of credit bidding
- § 37:19 Parties entitled to credit bid
- § 37:20 Senior lenders
- § 37:21 Junior lenders
- § 37:22 Agents
- § 37:23 Assets subject to a credit bid
- § 37:24 Amount of the credit bid
- § 37:25 Effect of a credit bid; “same as cash”
- § 37:26 Limits on credit bidding
- § 37:27 Contractual limitations
- § 37:28 For “cause”: Limitations imposed by the bankruptcy court
- § 37:29 For “cause”: The Fisker Automotive Holdings decision
- § 37:30 For “cause”: The Free Lance-Star Publishing decision
- § 37:31 Stalking-horse bidding protections and incentives in bankruptcy asset sales—Stalking-horse bidders
- § 37:32 —Advantages and disadvantages of being a stalking-horse bidder
- § 37:33 —Types of deal protections and bidding incentives offered to a stalking-horse
- § 37:34 —Legal tests for assessing the validity and enforceability of deal protections and bidding incentives
- § 37:35 Successor liability after a bankruptcy sale
- § 37:36 Successor liability under nonbankruptcy law generally
- § 37:37 Asset sales under § 363 and courts struggle to classify successor liability claims
- § 37:38 Types of claims that can survive § 363 sales in bankruptcy
- § 37:39 Bankruptcy court’s jurisdiction regarding successor liability

CHAPTER 38. MAKE-WHOLE AND NO-CALL PROVISIONS—CAVEAT LENDER

- § 38:1 Introduction

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---------|---|
| § 38:2 | Recent treatment of premiums in bankruptcy courts |
| § 38:3 | Is there an enforceable premium? |
| § 38:4 | —Is a premium called for under the loan documents? |
| § 38:5 | —Has the premium been waived? |
| § 38:6 | —Exceptions to waiver of the premium |
| § 38:7 | —Exceptions to waiver under bankruptcy default acceleration |
| § 38:8 | —Exceptions to waiver for voluntary acceleration |
| § 38:9 | —A trap for lenders when there is no actual payment |
| § 38:10 | Filing bankruptcy as an intentional default |
| § 38:11 | Lifting the automatic stay to rescind acceleration |
| § 38:12 | Ipsa facto clauses usually do not void automatic bankruptcy acceleration provisions |
| § 38:13 | Perfect tender in time, § 502(b)(2) and § 506(b) |
| § 38:14 | Conclusion |

CHAPTER 39. BOND WORKOUT ISSUES— THE TRUST INDENTURE ACT IN BOND WORKOUTS

| | |
|--------|--|
| § 39:1 | Introduction |
| § 39:2 | Exchange offers, generally |
| § 39:3 | The Trust Indenture Act of 1939 |
| § 39:4 | Historical interpretation of section 316(b) |
| § 39:5 | Recent disputes regarding section 316(b)— Marblegate District Court |
| § 39:6 | — Caesars District Court |
| § 39:7 | Proposed legislative response |
| § 39:8 | Second Circuit speaks— Marblegate |
| § 39:9 | Practice implications of Marblegate and Caesars going forward |

CHAPTER 40. LIABILITY MANAGEMENT TRANSACTIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

| | |
|--------|---------------|
| § 40:1 | In general |
| § 40:2 | Types of LMTs |

§ II. THE UPTIER TRANSACTION

| | |
|--------|--|
| § 40:3 | In general |
| § 40:4 | Before the uptier transaction |
| § 40:5 | Mechanics and result of the uptier transaction from the company's perspective |
| § 40:6 | Result of the uptier transaction from the lenders' perspective |

III. THE DROP-DOWN TRANSACTION

- § 40:7 In general
- § 40:8 The drop-down transaction example

IV. THE DOUBLE-DIP TRANSACTION

- § 40:9 In general
- § 40:10 The double-dip transaction example

V. LMT CONSIDERATIONS—BORROWER'S PERSPECTIVES

- § 40:11 In general
- § 40:12 Legal challenges to LMTs
- § 40:13 Drafting tips
- § 40:14 Recent LMT caselaw and analysis

VI. FIDUCIARY DUTIES AND LMTs

- § 40:15 In general
- § 40:16 Directors and officers do not owe fiduciary duties to individual creditors
- § 40:17 Insolvency
- § 40:18 Special committees

VII. CONCLUSION

- § 40:19 Summary

CHAPTER 41. PRIVACY AND CYBERSECURITY CONSIDERATIONS IN WORKOUTS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 41:1 Chapter composition

II. PRIVACY-RELATED FACT-GATHERING

- § 41:2 Geographic considerations
- § 41:3 Industry-specific privacy laws
- § 41:4 Sources of personal data
- § 41:5 Types of data the company processes
- § 41:6 Volume of data
- § 41:7 Uses of data
- § 41:8 Relevant agreements
- § 41:9 Relevant policies
- § 41:10 Cybersecurity considerations

TABLE OF CONTENTS

III. BANKRUPTCY VS. OUT-OF-COURT
WORKOUTS

§ 41:11 Available options

IV. GENERAL PRIVACY CONSIDERATIONS IN BANKRUPTCY

§ 41:12 In general

§ 41:13 Section 363 Sales

§ 41:14 Selling consumer data under Section 363

§ 41:15 Appointment and duties of a consumer privacy ombudsman

§ 41:16 Assumption or rejection of executory contracts

§ 41:17 Privacy policies

§ 41:18 Vendor agreements

V. CONCLUSION

§ 41:19 In summary

CHAPTER 42. WORKOUTS AND RESTRUCTURINGS UNDER SUBCHAPTER
V OF CHAPTER 11

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 42:1 In general

II. ELIGIBILITY FOR SUBCHAPTER V

§ 42:2 The challenge and the burden of proof

§ 42:3 The debt limit

§ 42:4 Non-contingent, liquidated debt

§ 42:5 Excluding debt held by insiders and affiliates

§ 42:6 The commercial real property lease conundrum

§ 42:7 The first decision and the split on lease debt

§ 42:8 Leases and executory contracts as unliquidated and contingent net-assets or net liabilities

§ 42:9 Aggregate debts of affiliated debtors

§ 42:10 Debts of subsequently filing debtors

§ 42:11 Engaged in commercial or business activities

§ 42:12 Debt arising from the debtor's business

§ 42:13 SEC regulated corporations and companies ineligible

§ 42:14 Single-asset-real-estate ineligible

III. THE SUBCHAPTER V PLAN AND THE EXIT STRATEGY

§ 42:15 Crafting the workout strategy

- § 42:16 Subchapter V plan advantages
- § 42:17 Ninety-day deadline to file a plan
- § 42:18 Three approaches to extending the plan-filing deadline
- § 42:19 The consequences of missing the plan-filing deadline
- § 42:20 Filing the plan by the original 90-day deadline
- § 42:21 Joint plan by debtor and trustee
- § 42:22 Contents of a plan
- § 42:23 Format of the plan
- § 42:24 No creditor veto
- § 42:25 Voting on the plan
- § 42:26 No absolute priority rule
- § 42:27 No competing plans and (virtually) no competing sale
- § 42:28 Secured creditor cramdown and 1111(b) election
- § 42:29 Plan confirmation pursuant to § 1191(a) or § 1191(b)
- § 42:30 Procedures and burden of proof on plan confirmation
- § 42:31 The two benchmarks of plan formulation: liquidation value & projected disposable income
- § 42:32 High liquidation value
- § 42:33 The high liquidation plan without an immediate payout
- § 42:34 Projected disposable income
- § 42:35 Three years to five years of disposable income
- § 42:36 “Projected” disposable income
- § 42:37 “Actual” disposable income and the “true-up”
- § 42:38 Disposable income
- § 42:39 Insider compensation in the disposable income determination
- § 42:40 Contested plan confirmation discovery challenges
- § 42:41 Chapter 5 avoidance action powers
- § 42:42 Derivative standing for avoidance actions
- § 42:43 Derivative standing for avoidance actions and hypothetical liquidation analysis
- § 42:44 Effect of plan confirmation under § 1191(a)
- § 42:45 Effect of plan confirmation under § 1191(b)
- § 42:46 The split on the application of the discharge exception of § 523 to corporate debtors pursuant to § 1192 for confirmation under § 1191(b)
- § 42:47 Plan modification procedure
- § 42:48 Post-confirmation plan modification substance
- § 42:49 The temporal limitation on post-confirmation plan modification
- § 42:50 The separate classification and voluntary subordination of insider debt
- § 42:51 Section 363 going-concern sale in Subchapter V

TABLE OF CONTENTS

IV. CONSIDERATIONS FOR USE OF TRADITIONAL CHAPTER 11 INSTEAD OF SUBCHAPTER V

- § 42:52 Wiping out old equity
- § 42:53 Non-dischargeable debts for a corporation

V. THE SUBCHAPTER V TRUSTEE

- § 42:54 Appointment of the Subchapter V Trustee
- § 42:55 The duties of the Subchapter V Trustee
- § 42:56 The unique role of the Subchapter V Trustee
- § 42:57 Compensation of the Subchapter V Trustee
- § 42:58 Termination of the Subchapter V Trustee's services

APPENDICES

- APPENDIX 1. Selected Provisions of Title 11 of the U.S. Code
- APPENDIX 2. Selected Provisions of Title 18 of the U.S. Code
- APPENDIX 3. Selected Provisions of Title 28 of the U.S. Code
- APPENDIX 4. Selected Provisions of Title 26 of the U.S. Code Concerning Failure to Collect and Pay Withholding Taxes
- APPENDIX 5. Selected Sections of the Uniform Commercial Code, Articles 1 and 9
- APPENDIX 6. Sample Credit Surveillance Report
- APPENDIX 7. Code of Ethics for the Exchange of Commercial Credit Information
- APPENDIX 8. Statement of Principles for the Exchange of Credit Information Between Banks and Business Credit Grantors
- APPENDIX 9. Letter Agreement With Borrower
- APPENDIX 10. In re Greystone III Joint Venture
- APPENDIX 11. Debtor's Plan of Reorganization
- APPENDIX 12. Funding Agreement
- APPENDIX 13. Sample Creditors' Committee Bylaws
- APPENDIX 14. Sample Standstill Agreement
- APPENDIX 15. Parties to the Convention on the International Recognition of Rights in Aircraft
- APPENDIX 16. Matter of Landmark at Plaza Park, Ltd.

BUSINESS WORKOUTS MANUAL

- APPENDIX 17. Selected Provisions of Title 29 of the U.S. Code
- APPENDIX 18. Granada Wines, Inc. v. New England Teamsters and Trucking Industry Pension Fund
- APPENDIX 19. Selected Prepackaged Chapter 11 Reorganizations
- APPENDIX 20. Summary Comparison of Exchange Offer, Prepackaged Plan, and Traditional Chapter 11 Case
- APPENDIX 21. Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co. v. Greystone III Joint Venture
- APPENDIX 22. Sample Workout Letters and Debt Restructuring Term Sheet
- APPENDIX 23. Environmental Protection Agency Final Rule for Lender Exemption Under CERCLA
- APPENDIX 24. Convention on The International Recognition of Rights In Aircraft (Geneva Convention)
- APPENDIX 25. Mediation
- APPENDIX 26. Dispute Resolution Clauses: A Drafter's Guide
- APPENDIX 27. Resolving Commercial Financial Disputes—A Practical Guide
- APPENDIX 28. Business-to-Business Mediation

Table of Laws and Rules

Table of Cases

Index