

Table of Contents

PART I. INTRODUCTION AND HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION

- § 1:1 Introduction
- § 1:2 The importance of oral argument
- § 1:3 How courts use oral argument
- § 1:4 Oral argument from the parties' perspective
- § 1:5 The approach of this book to oral argument

CHAPTER 2. A BRIEF HISTORY OF ORAL ARGUMENT IN THE SUPREME COURT

- § 2:1 Evolution of the nature and purpose of argument, generally
- § 2:2 Early practice of oral argument in the Supreme Court
- § 2:3 Transitional efforts to regulate oral argument
- § 2:4 Creation of the Office of the Solicitor General
- § 2:5 The rise of female Supreme Court advocates
- § 2:6 Twentieth century procedural developments affecting oral argument
- § 2:7 The re-emergence of the Supreme Court Bar
- § 2:8 Reforms occasioned by the Covid-19 pandemic
- § 2:9 Dynamics of change in oral argument practice

PART II. PREPARATION FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

CHAPTER 3. BEGINNING THE PREPARATION PROCESS

- § 3:1 Preparation is key to effective presentation
- § 3:2 Writing the brief

- § 3:3 Preparing to argue someone else's brief
- § 3:4 Understanding the advocate's individual learning style
- § 3:5 Evaluating oral argument objectives
- § 3:6 Determining the scope of what to prepare
- § 3:7 Developing a preparation schedule
- § 3:8 The opening
- § 3:9 Developing a plan for addressing questions
- § 3:10 Argument binder
- § 3:11 Synthesis and practice
- § 3:12 Speaking style
- § 3:13 Emotional ups and downs

CHAPTER 4. TYPES OF QUESTIONS COMMONLY ASKED

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 4:1 Four general categories of questions from the bench

II. BACKGROUND QUESTIONS

- § 4:2 Background questions, in general
- § 4:3 Questions about the parties involved
- § 4:4 Questions about the opinion under review
- § 4:5 Questions about views of different courts to address the same issue
- § 4:6 Questions about the record
- § 4:7 Questions about context
- § 4:8 Questions about why the Supreme Court is hearing the case

III. QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SCOPE OF THE RULE BEING ADVOCATED

- § 4:9 Scope of rule questions, in general
- § 4:10 Questions about the party's position
- § 4:11 Case-dispositive questions
- § 4:12 Questions seeking an articulation of the correct legal test
- § 4:13 Questions about limiting principles
- § 4:14 Questions about precedent
- § 4:15 Questions about distinctions in the case law

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 4:16 Questions about statutory text
- § 4:17 Questions about legislative history
- § 4:18 Questions about the policies underlying the rule
- § 4:19 Questions seeking concessions

IV. QUESTIONS ABOUT THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE RULE BEING ADVOCATED

- § 4:20 Questions about the implications of the rule
- § 4:21 —Examples of hypothetical questions
- § 4:22 —Questions about analogous legal contexts

V. QUESTIONS REFLECTING JUDICIAL IDIOSYNCRASIES

- § 4:23 Questions stemming from the prior professional experience of the judge
- § 4:24 Questions from the judge's personal knowledge
- § 4:25 Questions based on judicial philosophy or constitutional approach
- § 4:26 Styles of asking questions

CHAPTER 5. MOOT COURTS

- § 5:1 What is a moot court?
- § 5:2 Why do moot courts?
- § 5:3 How to do moot courts
- § 5:4 —Setting ground rules
- § 5:5 —The informal moot court
- § 5:6 —The formal moot court
- § 5:7 How not to do moot courts
- § 5:8 Articulating a theory of the case
- § 5:9 Perfecting answers
- § 5:10 Use of analogies
- § 5:11 Preparing defensively, arguing offensively
- § 5:12 Resources for moot courts

CHAPTER 6. AFTER THE MOOT COURTS: THE FINAL FEW DAYS

- § 6:1 Decisional points
- § 6:2 The “mantra”
- § 6:3 Affirmative points
- § 6:4 Thinking through segues

- § 6:5 Final preparation of materials
- § 6:6 A visualization exercise
- § 6:7 What to bring to court
- § 6:8 Visual aids
- § 6:9 The morning of argument
- § 6:10 For argument at the Supreme Court
- § 6:11 For argument at the courts of appeals

PART III. PRESENTATION OF ORAL ARGUMENT

CHAPTER 7. BASIC APPROACHES TO ORAL ARGUMENT

- § 7:1 Introduction
- § 7:2 Petitioner's argument
- § 7:3 Respondent's argument
- § 7:4 Rebuttal argument
- § 7:5 Amicus curiae argument
- § 7:6 Multiple-party arguments
- § 7:7 Changing counsel for appellate arguments
- § 7:8 Arguing on the same side as the United States
- § 7:9 Closing the argument

CHAPTER 8. COMMON MISTAKES IN ORAL ARGUMENTS

I. INTRODUCTION

- § 8:1 Mistakes in oral arguments, in general

II. SPEAKING-STYLE ERRORS

- § 8:2 Speaking-style errors, in general
- § 8:3 Speak with too much passion or rhetoric
- § 8:4 Speak too loudly or rapidly
- § 8:5 Read to the court
- § 8:6 Fail to maintain a professional posture while arguing
- § 8:7 Have disorganized notes

III. SUBSTANTIVE ERRORS

- § 8:8 Avoid direct answers to questions

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- § 8:9 Use ill-considered metaphors
- § 8:10 Make up hypothetical examples
- § 8:11 Use tendentious propositions
- § 8:12 Lead off with a proposition that generates questions
- § 8:13 Lose control of the agenda by becoming a ping-pong ball between judges
- § 8:14 Re-argue facts decided adversely below
- § 8:15 Argue about issues outside the questions presented
- § 8:16 Fail to make the strongest arguments until the end of the argument
- § 8:17 End the argument poorly

IV. ERRORS IN CITING MATERIALS

- § 8:18 Citing errors, in general
- § 8:19 Cite authority incorrectly
- § 8:20 Cite the record incorrectly
- § 8:21 Cite record materials the court cannot easily find
- § 8:22 Rely on citations of material not found in the brief
- § 8:23 Cite cases without explaining them

V. ERRORS IN HANDLING MEMBERS OF THE COURT

- § 8:24 Inappropriate interaction, in general
- § 8:25 Interrupt the court
- § 8:26 Misaddress a member of the court
- § 8:27 Misaddress the Chief Justice
- § 8:28 Ask questions of the court except to clarify the meaning of a question
- § 8:29 Defer consideration of questions

VI. DECORUM ERRORS

- § 8:30 Attack opposing counsel
- § 8:31 Use sarcasm in the courtroom
- § 8:32 Show anger or frustration with the court
- § 8:33 Use humor inappropriately
- § 8:34 Make statements the court can easily ridicule
- § 8:35 Use intemperate language

§ 8:36 Be too informal with the court

CHAPTER 9. ATTRIBUTES OF THE BEST ADVOCATES

I. INTRODUCTION

§ 9:1 The physical layout of the courtroom

§ 9:2 Common attributes of the best advocates

II. SUBSTANTIVE APPROACHES

§ 9:3 Have a mantra

§ 9:4 Answer questions directly

§ 9:5 Make affirmative points

§ 9:6 Fill “air” time

§ 9:7 Educate the court

§ 9:8 Cull down distinctions to problematic cases

§ 9:9 Use understandable short-hand references

§ 9:10 Understand the context of the problem or the client’s business

§ 9:11 Research answers to questions that may arise

§ 9:12 Stick to the black-letter law

§ 9:13 End on a powerful note

III. SPEAKING STYLE

§ 9:14 Speaking style, in general

§ 9:15 Make eye contact

§ 9:16 Speak in a conversational tone, but with professional sincerity

§ 9:17 Speak in short sentences

§ 9:18 Be respectful, but not obsequious

§ 9:19 Use humor in an appropriate manner

§ 9:20 Maintain a professional demeanor

IV. DEALING WITH MEMBERS OF THE COURT

§ 9:21 Demonstrate flexibility

§ 9:22 Follow the train of the argument

§ 9:23 Handle antagonistic questions

§ 9:24 Correct misstatements from the bench

§ 9:25 End, if possible, before time expires

TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 9:26 Ask for permission to speak beyond the red light

§ 9:27 Maintain personal credibility

Part IV APPENDICES

Appendix A. Checklists

Appendix B. Openings

Appendix C. Examples of Effective Mid–Argument
Advocacy Techniques

Appendix D. Model Rebuttals

Table of Cases

Index