

Index

ABNORMALITY

Impeachment based on, § 44

ACCIDENT PRONENESS

Generally, § 189

ACCIDENTS

Injuries, this index

Relevance of similar accidents evidence, § 200

Subsequent Remedial Measures, this index

ACCOMPLICE TESTIMONY

Cautionary instructions, § 4

ACCOUNTANTS

Privilege, § 76.2

ADDICTION

Impeachment based on, § 44

ADJUDICATIVE FACTS

See Judicial Notice, this index

ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES

Adjudications, exclusionary rules, § 173

Regulations, judicial notice, § 335

ADMISSIBILITY

DETERMINATIONS

Generally, § 51 et seq.

After-objections, § 52

Agency status as preliminary facts, § 259

Argument on objections, § 52

Balancing Prejudice and Probative Value, this index

Bench vs jury trials, § 60

Broad questions eliciting inadmissible evidence, § 7

Burden of proof as to predicate facts in rulings on objections, § 53

Completeness Doctrine, this index

Computer technology assisting, § 51

ADMISSIBILITY

DETERMINATIONS—Cont'd

Conditional and provisional admission distinguished, § 58

Conditional relevancy, foundational facts, § 53

Confessions, this index

Connecting up doctrine, § 58

Conservation partially introduced, § 56

Curative admissibility, § 57

Curative instructions, inadmissible evidence, § 4

Deposition testimony

generally, § 3, 51

completeness doctrine, § 56

objection procedure, § 52

unavailable witnesses, § 3

Discretion of Court, this index

Dying declarations, foundational facts, § 53

Exceptions to rulings, § 52

Exclusion by judge on own motion absent an objection, § 55

Exclusionary rules

generally, § 52 et seq.

see also Exclusionary Rules, this index

Expert opinions based on inadmissible data or facts, opinions based on, § 15

Fact questions arising on objections, § 53

Fighting fire with fire, § 57

Foundation for admission

generally, § 51

see also Foundation, this index;

Preliminary Fact Finding, this index

General objections, § 52

Harmless and plain error distinguished, § 52

Hearings on objections, § 53

ADMISSIBILITY

DETERMINATIONS—Cont'd

- Hearsay, this index
- Hypothetical questions assuming inadmissible facts, § 15
- Identification marking of evidence, § 51
- Improperly obtained evidence. See Exclusionary Rules, this index
- In Limine Motions, this index
- Indefinite questions eliciting inadmissible evidence, § 7
- Invited error, § 57
- Judicial exclusion on own motion absent an objection, § 55
- Juror testimony, § 68
- Limited purpose admissibility, § 59
- Limiting objections, § 52
- Marking evidence for identification, § 51
- Multiple party trials, evidence admissible as to some parties, § 59
- Narrative testimony including inadmissible evidence, § 5
- Objections
  - after-objections, § 52
  - argument on objections, § 52
  - bench trials, § 60
  - burden of proof as to predicate facts, § 53
  - conditional relevancy, foundational facts, § 53
  - demeanor, § 52
  - deposition evidence, § 52
  - documents produced in discovery, § 55
  - exceptions, § 52
  - exclusion by judge on own motion absent an objection, § 55
  - failure to object to earlier similar evidence, § 55
  - former testimony offered as hearsay exception, objections that could have made, § 306
  - general objections, § 52
  - hearings on, § 53
  - In Limine Motions, this index
  - judicial exclusion on own motion absent an objection, § 55

ADMISSIBILITY

DETERMINATIONS—Cont'd

- Objections—Cont'd
  - like evidence offered by objector, § 55
  - limiting objections, § 52
  - offers of proof on, § 51
  - personal knowledge challenges, § 53
- Preliminary Fact Finding, this index
  - premature objections, § 52
  - proof value of evidence admitted without objection, § 54
  - repetition of objections, § 52
  - speaking objections, § 52
  - specific objections, § 52
  - statements of grounds, § 52
  - strike motions, § 52
- Suppression Motions, this index
- tactical considerations, § 52
- time for making objection, § 52
- voir dire in support of objections, § 53
- Waivers of objections, below
- Offers of proof
  - appellate court requirements, § 51
  - objections eliciting, § 51
- Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
- Order of proof
  - connecting up doctrine, § 58
  - discretion of court as to, § 58
  - foundational facts, § 53
- Partially admissible evidence, § 51
- Partially introduced recordings, writings and conversations, § 56
- Personal knowledge challenges, § 53
- Plain and harmless error distinguished, § 52
- Predicates for admission generally, § 10, 51, 53
- Foundation, this index
- Preliminary Fact Finding, this index
- Prejudice. See Balancing Prejudice and Probative Value, this index
- Preliminary Fact Finding, this index

INDEX

ADMISSIBILITY

DETERMINATIONS—Cont'd

- Premature objections, § 52
- Prior inconsistent statements used to impeach, § 34
- Privilege assertion procedure
  - generally, § 73 et seq.
  - see also Privileges, this index
- Probative value. See Balancing Prejudice and Probative Value, this index
- Produced documents, objections at trial, § 55
- Proffer, definition, § 51
- Proof value of evidence admitted without objection, § 54
- Provisional and conditional admission distinguished, § 58
- Real evidence, discretion of court to exclude, § 212
- Record evidence, § 51
- Recordings partially introduced, § 56
- Relevance objections
  - generally, § 185
  - foundational facts, § 53
  - offers of proof, § 51
- Repetition of objections, § 52
- Speaking objections, § 52
- Specific objections, § 52
- Strike motions, § 52
- Suppression Motions, this index
- Technical exclusionary rules,
  - foundational facts conditioning application, § 53
- Testimony, § 51
- Time for making objection, § 52
- Unavailable witness depositions, § 3
- Voir dire in support of objections, § 53
- Waivers of objections
  - generally, § 55
  - door opening waivers, § 56, 57
- Withdrawal of evidence, § 52
- Witness competency, foundational facts, § 53
- Writing partially introduced, § 56

ADMISSIONS

- Authenticity admissions requests, § 229

ADMISSIONS—Cont'd

- Casual statements, § 259
- Confessions, this index
- Declarations against interest, admissions of party-opponents distinguished, § 254
- Deemed admissions of genuineness of writings, § 229
- Evidentiary and judicial admissions distinguished, § 254
- Party-opponent admissions
  - generally, § 254 et seq.
  - see also Hearsay, this index
- Pleadings admissions of party-opponents, § 257
- Prior inconsistent statements, admissions, § 37
- Requests for admissions
  - authentication, requests for admissions of, § 229
  - discovery, § 3
- Writings, deemed admissions of genuineness, § 229

AFFIDAVITS

- Hearsay rules, § 245
- Prior inconsistent statements in, § 34

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

- Generally, § 346
- Burdens of Proof, this index
- Order of proof, § 4
- Presumptions, this index

AGAINST-INTEREST DECLARATIONS

- See Hearsay, this index

AGENCY

- Admissions of agents of party-opponents, § 257, 259
- Lawyer-client privilege, agents of lawyers, § 91, 91.1
- Marital communications privileges, spouse acting as agent, § 81
- Self-incrimination privilege claims of corporate agents, § 141
- Status as agent, preliminary fact determinations, § 259

ALCOHOL USE

- See also Intoxication, this index
- Circumstantial evidence of character, § 44
- Impeachment based on, § 44

ANCIENT DOCUMENTS

- Authentication, § 212, 225
- Hearsay rules, § 323

ANECDOTAL EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 209

APPELLATE PRACTICE

- Best evidence rule disputes, § 243.1
- Harmless and plain error distinguished, § 52
- Invited error, § 57
- Judicial findings of fact review, § 340
- Judicial notice at the appellate level, § 333
- Lawyer-client privilege, who may assert, § 92
- Offers of proof, appellate court requirements, § 51
- Plain and harmless error distinguished, § 52
- Privilege determinations, § 73.1
- Real evidence, preservation for appeal, § 212

ARGUMENT

- Admission of evidence objections, § 52
- Demonstrative aids used in, § 214
- Jury room arguments, impeachment of verdicts rule, § 68
- Objections to admission of evidence, § 52
- Offers of proof, § 4
- Opening Statements, this index
- Privilege claims, adverse arguments based on, § 74.1
- Probabilities, arguments about, § 210
- Questions to witnesses, argumentative, § 7
- Right to open and close, § 4
- Self-incrimination privilege, argument alluding to invocation, § 126

ARREST AND CUSTODY

DETENTION

- Generally, § 151
- Improperly obtained evidence. See Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Interrogation, custodial
  - generally, § 150
  - self-incrimination privilege, § 125
  - who is in custody, § 151
- Jurisdiction illegally obtained, exclusionary rules, § 178
- Lineups, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Magistrate, delay in presenting arrestee to, § 156
- Miranda rules
  - see also Exclusionary Rules, this index
  - trigger, § 150
  - warnings, § 152

ASSOCIATIONS

- Self-incrimination privilege, § 140, 141

ATTENUATION OF TAINT

- See Exclusionary Rules, this index

ATTORNEYS

- Competency as witnesses, § 68
- Conflicts of interest, § 68
- Lawyer-Client Privilege, this index
- Perjurious testimony, examiner's dilemma, § 5
- Right to Counsel, this index
- Self-incrimination privilege, counsel as to rights, § 131

AUTHENTICATION

- Generally, § 212 et seq., 221
- See also Foundation, this index
- Acknowledged and certified documents and records, § 229.1
- Ancient documents, § 212, 225
- Ancient writings, § 323
- Best evidence rule and authenticity requirements compared, § 236
- Burden of authentication, § 212, 221
- Burden of proof, writings, § 229
- Chain of custody, § 213

INDEX

AUTHENTICATION—Cont'd

- Chat room communications, § 227
- Circumstantial evidence, § 212
- Computer-generated documents, § 227
- Computer-generated models and simulations, § 218
- Contents of writings proving authentication, § 224
- Credibility, this index
- Data compilations, § 212, 227
- Deemed admissions of genuineness of writings, § 229
- Demonstrations, § 214
- Distinctive characteristics, authentication by
  - generally, § 212
  - writings, § 224
- Documents, scientific evidence, § 207
- Drugs, § 212
- Electronic Evidence, this index
- Email, § 224, 227
- Expert opinions
  - generally, § 212
  - handwriting, § 223
- Foreign public documents, § 229.1
- Guns, § 213
- Handwriting
  - generally, § 212, 221
  - opinions, § 223
- Internal authentication of writings, § 221
- Internet communications, identification issues, § 227
- Judge and jury functions, § 212
- Modern procedural practice, writings authentication, § 229
- Notarized signatures, § 229.1
- Objections based on, tactical considerations, § 52
- Opinions, handwriting, § 223
- Percipient witness proof of authorship of writings, § 222
- Photographs, § 215
- Postmarks on letters, § 224
- Presumptive authenticity, writings, § 229.1

AUTHENTICATION—Cont'd

- Pretrial conference resolutions, § 229
- Public records, § 212
- Public records and reports, § 226
- Records of regularly conducted activities, § 229.1
- Reliability, this index
- Requests for admissions of authenticity, § 229
- Self-authentication of public records, § 226, 229.1
- Signatures, § 229.1
- Sound recordings, § 228
- Standard of proof, § 212
- Telephone conversations, § 212, 221, 228
- Text messages, § 227
- Transcripts, § 216
- Trustworthiness, this index
- Truthfulness, this index
- Video, film and sound recordings, § 216
- Voice communications, § 221, 228
- Voice identification opinions, § 212
- Weapons, § 213
- Website data and postings, § 227
- Writings
  - generally, § 221
  - witness testimony, § 222

AUTOPTIC EVIDENCE

- See Real Evidence, this index

BALANCING PREJUDICE AND PROBATIVE VALUE

- Bad character evidence, § 190 et seq.
- Character evidence, § 186
- Character impeachment, § 40
- Confessions, § 157
- Conviction of crime evidence, § 42
- Customary behavior evidence, § 195
- Discretion of court, § 212
- Flight evidence, § 263
- Gruesome exhibits or demonstrations, § 212
- Habit evidence, § 195
- Hearsay exceptions, § 321
- Impeachment
  - character, § 40

BALANCING PREJUDICE AND PROBATIVE VALUE—Cont'd

- Impeachment—Cont'd
  - conviction of crime impeachment, § 42
  - drug use impeachment, § 44
- Liability insurance evidence, § 201
- Negligence, evidence of character for, § 189
- Other crimes evidence, § 190 et seq.
- Photographs, § 212
- Real evidence, § 212
- Relevancy
  - generally, § 185.5
  - similar matters evidence, § 196 et seq.
- Similar crimes evidence, § 190 et seq.
- Similar matters evidence, § 196 et seq.

BATTERED WOMAN SYNDROME

- Expert opinions, § 206

BELIEF

- Physical or mental condition statements, memory or belief to prove the fact remembered or believed, § 276
- Religious Beliefs, this index

BEST EVIDENCE RULE

- Generally, § 230
- Admissible duplicates, § 236
- Appellate review, § 243.1
- Authenticity requirements compared, § 236
- Collateral matters, § 239
- Counterparts and duplicates distinguished, § 235
- Destroyed originals, § 237
- Discovery procedures rendering rule obsolete, § 232
- Discretion of court, § 243
- Document production discovery procedures rendering rule obsolete, § 232
- Duplicates
  - admissible duplicates, § 236
  - counterparts distinguished, § 235

BEST EVIDENCE RULE—Cont'd

- Duplicates—Cont'd
  - originals distinguished, § 235
- Dying declarations, written, § 313
- Electronic evidence applicability, § 235
- Exceptions
  - generally, § 239 et seq.
  - collateral matters, § 239
  - public records, § 240
- Excused nonproduction of original, § 237
- Fact and law questions, § 243
- Fraud application of rule to prevent, § 232
- Inscribed and uninscribed objects, § 233
- Lost originals, § 237
- Notice of intent to offer copy, § 2
- Notice requirements, originals in possession of opponents, § 237
- Objections, tactical considerations, § 52
- Original document requirement
  - generally, § 231
  - duplicates distinguished, § 235
  - excused nonproduction, § 237
- Photographs
  - generally, § 231, 233, 236
  - electronic photographs, § 235
- Proof of contents element, § 234
- Reasons for rule, § 232
- Recordings, § 231, 233
- Scope of rule
  - generally, § 233
  - collateral matters, § 239
- Secondary evidence
  - generally, § 230
  - types preferences, § 238
- Sound recordings, § 231, 233
- Technology advances in copy preparation, § 236
- Transcripts, § 236
- Writings, § 233
- X-rays, § 233

BIAS AND PARTIALITY

- Credibility effects of evidence of, § 19

INDEX

BIAS AND PARTIALITY—Cont'd

- Cross-examination to show, § 20
- Demeanor, this index
- Expert witnesses, § 13, 18
- Impeachment
  - foundation requirements, § 39
  - rehabilitation of impeached witnesses, § 47
- Interest in Outcome of Litigation, this index

BIBLES

- Hearsay rules as to family bible entries, § 322

BIOLOGY

- Experimental and scientific evidence, § 205

BITEMARK IDENTIFICATION

- Generally, § 210

BLIND PERSONS

- Competency of witnesses, § 62

BLOOD TESTING

- Intoxication, § 205
- Paternity, § 211
- Self-incrimination privilege, § 124

BOLSTERING

- Generally, § 22, 33
- Confessions, § 157
- Cross-examination after bolstering direct, § 49
- Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
- Out-of-court statements, § 157
- Polygraph evidence to bolster credibility, § 206
- Rehabilitation of the impeached witness, § 47
- Voucher Rule, this index

BREATH ALCOHOL TESTING

- Generally, § 205

BRIBERY

- Impeachment through evidence of, § 39

BUGS

- See Electronic Surveillance, this index

BURDENS OF PROOF

- Generally, § 336 et seq.
- See also Presumptions, this index
- Affirmative defenses
  - criminal cases, reasonable doubt, § 347
  - satisfying the burden of persuasion, § 341
- Allocations
  - generally, § 337
  - criminal prosecutions, § 347
- Apportionment, § 337
- Authentication
  - generally, § 212
  - writings, § 229
- Choice of law issues affecting, § 349
- Clear, strong and convincing proof, § 339
- Clear and convincing proof, § 340
- Confessions, admissibility, § 163
- Criminal prosecutions. Reasonable doubt, below
- Defenses, § 337
- Definitions, § 336
- Duty of going forward, § 338
- Essential elements, § 337
- Evidence producing burden, § 338
- Exceptions to rules, § 337
- Exclusionary rules
  - causal link between violation and challenged evidence, § 177
  - good faith exception, § 182
- Expert witness qualification, § 70
- Inferences, this index
- Initial evidence producing burden, § 338
- Instructions explaining, § 336
- Judicial notice overriding, § 328
- Negative averments, § 337
- Negligence issues, § 337
- Objections, predicate facts in rulings, § 53
- Order of presentation of evidence implications, § 4

BURDENS OF PROOF—Cont'd

- Persuasion burden
  - generally, § 336
  - nature of, § 336
  - policy considerations, § 336
  - presumptions shifting, § 342
  - Reasonable doubt, below
  - Satisfying the burden of persuasion, below
  - self-incrimination privilege claims, § 132
- Pleadings relationship, § 336, 337
- Policy considerations, persuasion burden, § 336
- Predicate facts in rulings on objections, § 53
- Preponderance of evidence, § 339
- Presumptions shifting, § 342, 344
- Prima facie case, satisfying the burden of persuasion, § 342
- Probabilities effecting allocations, § 337
- Probability, preponderance of, § 339
- Production of evidence burden
  - generally, § 336
  - inferences, § 338
  - presumptions shifting, § 342, 343
  - satisfying, § 338
- Public records and reports, trustworthiness, § 296
- Reasonable doubt
  - affirmative defenses in criminal cases, § 347
  - criminal prosecutions, § 341
  - due process requirements, § 341
  - instructions, § 341
  - persuasion burden, § 338, 339
- Rules, exceptions to, § 337
- Satisfying the burden of persuasion, § Reasonable doubt, above
  - generally, § 339
  - affirmative defenses, § 341
  - civil cases, § 339
  - clear, strong and convincing proof, § 339
  - clear and convincing proof, § 340
  - criminal prosecutions, § 341
  - preponderance of evidence, § 339

BURDENS OF PROOF—Cont'd

- Satisfying the burden of persuasion, § Reasonable doubt, above
  - Cont'd
  - prima facie case, § 342
  - probabilities, § 339
- Satisfying the production of evidence burden, § 338
- Self-incrimination privilege, burden of persuasion as to claims of, § 132
- Shifting
  - persuasion burden, presumptions shifting, § 342
  - presumptions, burden shifting effect, § 343
  - presumptions as shifting, § 344
- Writings, authentication, § 229

BURSTING BUBBLE THEORY

- Presumptions, § 344

BUSINESS RECORDS

- Generally, § 252, 287
- See also Hearsay, this index
- Confrontation Clause rights, § 252

BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS

- Relevance of similar transactions evidence, § 198

CAPACITY OF WITNESSES

- See Competency and Capacity of Witnesses, this index

CAPACITY TO MAKE A WILL

- Lay opinions, § 12

CASE-IN-CHIEF

- Order of presentation of evidence, § 4

CAUSATION

- Attenuation of taint, § 166
- Experiments, causation issues, § 202
- Fruit of the poisonous tree doctrine.
  - See Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Relevance of similar incidents evidence to show, § 200
- Statistical studies, § 209 et seq.

CERTIFICATES

- Generally, § 299

INDEX

CERTIFICATES—Cont'd

- Foreign public documents, § 229.1
- Hearsay rules
  - birth and death certificates, § 297
  - marriage certificates, § 299
  - public records, certified copies or summaries, § 300

CHAIN OF CUSTODY

- See also Authentication, this index
- Exhibits, § 2
- Presumptive regularity, § 213
- Real evidence, § 213
- Standard of proof, § 213

CHARACTER

- Generally, § 186 et seq.
- Accident proneness evidence, § 189
- Actions, character evidence offered to prove, § 186
- Assault prosecutions, victim character, § 193
- Attacking supporting character witnesses, § 48
- Backfiring impeachment attempts, § 40
- Bad character evidence, impeachment through, § 190 et seq., 194
- Balancing prejudice against probative value, § 40, 186
- Behavior, characteristic, § 187
- Care, evidence of character for, § 189
- Categorical exclusions of character evidence, § 186
- Circumstantial evidence
  - generally, § 188
  - alcoholism, § 44
  - bad character in criminal prosecutions, § 190
  - balancing of prejudice vs probative value, § 188
  - care, evidence of character for, § 189
  - good character in criminal prosecutions, § 187
- Civil cases
  - conduct to prove character, § 189
  - crime issues in, § 192
- Collateral fact rule, impeachment based on character, § 41

CHARACTER—Cont'd

- Common plan, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.2
- Community, impeachment based on reputation for veracity within, § 43
- Conduct to prove character
  - generally, § 186 et seq.
  - civil cases
    - generally, § 189, 192
    - criminal issues, § 192
  - criminal cases
    - generally, § 190
    - other crimes evidence, § 190
  - in issue matters of character, § 187
  - other crimes evidence, § 190
- Conduct vs opinion evidence, § 43
- Conspiracy, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190
- Cross-examination on character, limitations, § 40, 41
- Customary behavior distinguished, § 195
- Degrading and disgraceful matters questions, § 41
- Deliberation, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190
- Design, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190
- Discretion of court to allow impeachment based on character, § 41
- Dishonesty or false statement crime convictions, character impeachment based on, § 42
- Do you know questions, § 43
- Element of cause of action, character as, § 187
- Ethical considerations, impeachment based on character, § 40
- Exclusionary rule, § 186
- Existence of a larger plan or scheme, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190
- Expert opinions, § 43
- General character vs veracity
  - implications of character, to impeach, § 43
- Good character evidence
  - civil cases, § 192

CHARACTER—Cont'd

- Good character evidence—Cont'd criminal prosecutions, § 187, 190
- Good character evidence, Lawful conduct, § 191
  - Pertinent traits, § 191.1
  - Rebuttal, § 191.3
  - Types of proof, § 191.2
- Good reputation evidence in civil litigation, § 192
- Habit distinguished, § 195
- Homicide prosecutions, victim character, § 193
- Identity, other crimes evidence to prove, § 190.8
- Impeachment based on
  - generally, § 40 et seq.
  - see also Impeachment, this index
- In issue matters of character, § 187
- Independent relevance of character evidence, § 188
- Infamous crime convictions, impeachment based on, § 42
- Inferences from character traits, § 186
- Instances of misconduct, impeachment based on, § 41
- Intent, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Limitations on character cross-examination, § 40, 41
- Malice, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Misconduct evidence, character-based impeachment, § 41
- Modus operandi, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190
- Moral turpitude crime convictions, impeachment based on
  - generally, § 42
  - civil litigation, § 192
- Motions in limine controlling impeachment questions, § 41
- Motive, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.5
- Negligence, evidence of character for, § 189
- Negligence issues, § 187

CHARACTER—Cont'd

- Noncriminal misconduct, impeachment based on, § 41
- Opinion as to character,
  - generally, § 186
  - care, character for, § 189
  - personal knowledge, § 43
- Opportunity, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.6
- Other criminal acts evidence, § 190
- Personality traits as circumstantial evidence, § 186
- Prejudice/probative value balancing, § 40
- Propensity evidence
  - generally, § 186, 190
  - bad character for veracity, § 194
- Purpose for which evidence of character is offered, § 186
- Rape shield laws, § 193
- Rehabilitation after character impeachment, § 47
- Relevancy of impeachment based on
  - generally, § 41
  - see also Relevancy, this index
- Reputation
  - generally, § 186
  - character for care, § 189
  - good reputation evidence in civil litigation, § 192
  - hearsay rules, § 322
  - impeachment use, § 43
  - in issue character, § 187
- Self-incrimination issues, impeachment based on character, § 41
- Sex crime propensity, other crimes evidence to show, § 190.10
- Signature criminal behavior, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.3
- Similar criminal acts evidence, § 190
- Special relevance of character evidence, § 188
- Specific intent, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Supporting character witnesses, attacking, § 48
- Take-the-answer rule, impeachment questions, § 41

INDEX

CHARACTER—Cont'd

- Truthfulness, character for, § 40
- Veracity reputation questions to impeach, § 43
- Victim character
  - Defendant's knowledge, § 193.2
  - Proof, § 193.1
  - Rape victims and complaints, § 193.3
- Victim character, evidence to show, § 193
- Violence, character for, § 188

CHAT ROOM

COMMUNICATIONS

- Authentication, § 227

CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE ACCOMMODATION SYNDROME

- Expert opinions, § 206

CHILD WITNESSES

- Availability determinations, hearsay rules, § 253
- Competency as witnesses, § 62
- Confrontation Clause rights, testimony by closed-circuit television, § 272.1
- Cross-examination, § 30
- Hearsay rules
  - availability determinations, § 253
  - child sex abuse prosecutions, § 252
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
  - sex abuse complaints, § 272.1
- Leading questions, § 6
- Sex abuse prosecutions
  - bodily feelings, symptoms, and condition statements to physicians made for purposes of testimony, § 278
  - hearsay rules, § 252, 272.1
- Testimony by closed-circuit television, Confrontation Clause rights, § 272.1

CHOICE OF LAW

- Presumptions and burdens of proof, § 349
- Privileges, § 73.2, 76.1

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE

- Authentication, § 212
- Character
  - generally, § 188
  - alcoholism, § 44
  - balancing of prejudice vs probative value, § 188
- Common plan, § 190.2
- Inferences, § 338
- Personality traits, § 186
- Real, testimonial and circumstantial evidence, Wigmore distinctions, § 185.3
- Relevancy, § 185.3
- Relevancy, direct and circumstantial evidence distinctions, § 185.3
- Trustworthiness, § 324
- Truthfulness of witness, § 40

CLASSIFIED INFORMATION PROCEDURES ACT

- Governmental secrets privileges, § 107

CLIENTS

- See Lawyer-Client Privilege, this index

CLOSED CIRCUIT TV

- Child abuse testimony, Confrontation Clause rights, § 272.1
- Surveillance video observations, personal knowledge issue, § 248

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

- See Argument, this index

COERCION

- Impeachment through evidence of, § 39

COLLATERAL FACT RULE

- See also Impeachment, this index
- Definition of collateral fact, § 49

COLLATERAL MATTERS

- Prior inconsistent statements regarding, § 36

COLLECTIVE ENTITY RULE

- Self-incrimination privilege, § 141

COMMERCIAL PUBLICATIONS

Hearsay rules, § 321

COMMISSIONERS

Deposition supervision, § 3

COMMON KNOWLEDGE

Judicial notice, § 329, 330

COMMON PLAN

Circumstantial evidence, § 190.2

COMMUNICATIONS

Conversations, this index

Privileges, this index

Reports, this index

Telephone Conversations, this index

Video communication. See Closed
Circuit TV, this index

Writings, this index

COMPETENCY AND CAPACITY OF WITNESSES

Generally, § 61 et seq.

Admissions of party-opponents, mental competency issues, § 255

Advocate-witness prohibition, § 68

Children, § 62

Common law rules of incompetency,
§ 61

Confrontation Clause rights in criminal prosecutions, § 74.2

Conviction of crime, § 64

Criminal prosecutions, Confrontation Clause rights, § 74.2

Dead man statutes, § 65

Deafness or blindness, § 62

Disqualification procedure, § 70

Drug use, § 62

Evolution of competency rules, § 61,
71

Expert witness qualifications
generally, § 13, 70

see also Expert Witnesses, this
index

Former testimony offered as hearsay exception, objections that could have made, § 306

Foundational facts, § 53, 70

Four-fold showing, § 62

COMPETENCY AND CAPACITY OF WITNESSES—Cont'd

Hearsay rules

admissions of party-opponents, § 255 available/unavailable witness distinction, § 253

declarant competency, § 61

excited utterances, § 272

former testimony, § 306

Immaturity, § 62

Impeachment for capacity defects

generally, § 44

rehabilitation, § 47

Impeachment of verdict, competency of juror, § 68

Interest in the litigation, § 65

Judges and jurors, § 68

Lawyers, § 68

Memory defects impeachment

generally, § 44

rehabilitation, § 47

Mental capacity defects

generally, § 62

impeachment, § 44

party-opponents where admissions offered as hearsay exception, § 255

Misleading or confusing jury as standard, § 62

Oath or affirmation, § 62, 63

Objections, § 70

Opinion rules, § 69

Party competency

generally, § 65

Spouses of parties, below

Paternity issues, § 67

Perception capacity, § 62

Perjury convictions, § 64

Personal knowledge and competency,
§ 69, 329

Presumptions, competency of children, § 62

Privileged and incompetent evidence distinguished, § 74.1, 102

Religious beliefs, historical rules,
§ 46, 63

Sensory capacity defects, § 44

INDEX

COMPETENCY AND CAPACITY OF WITNESSES—Cont'd

- Spouses of parties
  - generally, § 66
  - disqualification procedure, § 70
  - marital communication privileges compared, § 66, 78
  - paternity issues, § 67
- Statutory reforms of common law rules, § 61, 62
- Voir dire to determine, § 70
- Weight of evidence, competency affecting, § 62, 255

COMPILATIONS OF DATA

- See Electronic Evidence, this index

COMPLETENESS DOCTRINE

- Generally, § 32, 56
- Partially introduced former testimony, § 307
- Partially introduced recordings, writings, and conversations, § 56

COMPROMISE

- See Settlement, this index

COMPUTERS

- Admissibility of evidence, computer technology assisting, § 51
- Electronic Evidence, this index
- Exhibits, computer-generated
  - generally, § 2, 214
  - illustrative vs substantive use, § 212
- Internet as Evidence Source, this index
- Pedagogic aids, computer-generated, § 214
- Real evidence, computer-assisted presentations, § 212

CONDITIONAL ADMISSIBILITY

- Generally, § 58

CONDITIONAL PRIVILEGES

- Generally, § 77

CONDITIONAL RELEVANCY

- Generally, § 53

CONFERENCES

- Pretrial conferences, § 3

CONFESSIONS

- Generally, § 144 et seq.
- Accuracy
  - generally, § 149
  - voluntariness distinguished, § 157
- Admissibility determinations
  - generally, § 144
  - burden of proof, § 163
  - credibility vs admissibility, § 163
  - sufficiency vs admissibility, § 148
- Admissions
  - adoptive, § 161
  - bargaining admissions, § 160
  - confessions, admissions amounting to, § 144
  - corpus delicti requirement, admissions vs confessions, § 145
  - impeachment use, § 160
  - plea bargaining, § 160
  - tacit, § 161
- Adoptive confessions and admissions, § 161
- Bargaining admissions, § 160
- Burden of proof of admissibility, § 163
- Coerced, § 149
- Constitutional requirements
  - generally, § 149
  - Miranda rules, below
- Corpus delicti or corroboration requirement
  - generally, § 145
  - admissions vs confessions, § 145
  - future of requirement, § 148
  - purpose of rule, § 145
  - standard of proof, § 146
  - sufficiency vs admissibility determinations, § 148
  - truthfulness requirement, § 147
- Credibility determinations, § 163
- Custodial interrogations
  - generally, § 150
  - who is in custody, § 151
- Deception inducing, § 155
- Definition, § 144
- Due process
  - generally, § 150

CONFESSIONS—Cont'd

- Due process—Cont'd
  - exculpatory confessions otherwise inadmissible as hearsay, § 252
  - Miranda rules, below
- Effectiveness of Miranda waivers, § 153
- Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Exculpatory confessions, hearsay
  - rules conflicts with due process rights, § 252
- Expert opinions, false confession phenomenon, § 206
- Extorted, § 149
- Fruit of the poisonous tree doctrine
  - generally, § 159
  - see also Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Guilty pleas as, § 160
- Hearsay rules
  - generally, § 254
  - confessions of third persons as declarations against interest, § 318
  - exculpatory confessions, due process conflicts, § 252
- Impeachment, use of otherwise inadmissible confessions for, § 162
- Interrogation determinations Miranda rules, § 151
- Interrogation refusals, § 152
- Judicial confessions, § 160
- Magistrate, delay in presenting arrestee to, § 156
- Mandatory recording of confessions, § 158
- Miranda rules
  - generally, § 150
  - see also Exclusionary Rules, this index
  - custodial interrogations, § 150
  - custody determinations, § 151
  - exceptions, § 151
  - interrogation determinations, § 151
  - interrogation refusals, § 152
  - magistrate, delay in presenting arrestee to, § 156
  - right to counsel, § 152, 154

CONFESSIONS—Cont'd

- Miranda rules—Cont'd
  - Waivers of Miranda rights, below warnings, § 152
- Nolo contendere pleas, evidentiary use, § 160
- Plea bargaining admissions, § 160
- Prejudice/probative value balancing, § 157
- Proffer agreements, § 160
- Promises inducing waivers of Miranda rights, § 155
- Real evidence obtained as a result of inadmissible confessions, § 159
- Recording of confessions, § 158
- Reliability requirements
  - generally, § 149
  - voluntariness distinguished, § 157
- Right to counsel
  - generally, § 152, 154
  - waivers, § 154
- Search and seizure rule violations affecting admissibility, § 144
- Self-incriminating statements amounting to, § 144
- Silence as tacit admission, § 161
- Truthfulness requirement, § 147
- Voluntariness
  - generally, § 149
  - accuracy distinguished, § 157
  - burden of proof, § 163
  - Miranda rules, above
  - reliability distinguished, § 157
- Waivers of Miranda rights
  - generally, § 153
  - deception inducing, § 155
  - effectiveness of waivers, § 153
  - implied, § 150
  - promises inducing, § 155
  - prompt presentation waivers, § 156
  - right to counsel waivers, § 154
  - voluntary and intelligent waiver standard, § 150
- Warnings, Miranda, § 152

CONFIDENTIAL MATTERS

- See Privileges, this index

INDEX

CONFLICT OF LAWS

- Presumptions and burdens of proof, § 349
- Privileges, § 73.2, 76.1

CONFRONTATION CLAUSE RIGHTS

- Against interest declarations as hearsay exception, § 319
- Available/unavailable witness distinction
  - good faith attempt to locate missing hearsay declarant, § 253
  - hearsay rules, § 251, 252
- Business records, § 252
- Child witnesses
  - availability determinations, § 253
  - testimony by closed-circuit television, § 272.1
- Cross-examination opportunities
  - generally, § 39
  - hearsay evidence, § 252
- Deposition use as evidence, § 253
- Development, § 252
- Dying declarations, § 252
- Emergencies, assertions made in, § 252
- Forensic analysis reports, § 252, 296
- Forfeiture of confrontation rights by wrongdoing, § 252, 253
- Former testimony offered as hearsay exception, § 308
- Good faith attempt to locate missing hearsay declarant, § 253
- Hearsay
  - generally, § 327
  - against interest declarations
    - generally, § 319
    - testimonial statements inculcating another, § 319
  - available and unavailable witnesses, § 251, 252
  - business records, § 252
  - child witness availability determinations, § 253
  - deposition use as evidence, § 253
  - dying declarations, § 252
  - emergencies, assertions made in, § 252

CONFRONTATION CLAUSE RIGHTS—Cont'd

- Hearsay—Cont'd
  - forfeiture of confrontation rights by wrongdoing, § 252, 253
  - former testimony offered as hearsay exception, § 308
  - good faith attempt to locate missing hearsay declarant, § 253
  - investigating officer statements regarding reason for their presence at scene of crime, § 252
  - medical reports created for treatment purposes, § 252
  - 911 calls, § 252
  - prior opportunity for cross-examination, § 252
  - Supreme Court's decoupling of the principles, § 327
- Investigating officer statements regarding reason for their presence at scene of crime, § 252
- Laboratory reports, § 252, 296
- Medical reports created for treatment purposes, § 252
- 911 calls, § 252
- Prior inconsistent statements, § 37
- Public records, § 252
- Records and reports offered as evidence, § 252
- Self-incrimination privilege conflicts, § 134
- Testimonial vs nontestimonial evidence, § 252, 272.1

CONFUSION

- See Misleading or Confusing the jury, this index

CONNECTING UP DOCTRINE

- Order of proof, § 58

CONSCIOUSNESS OF GUILT EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 190

CONSPIRACIES

- Admissions of party-opponents, § 259
- Common plan evidence, § 190

CONSPIRACIES—Cont'd

- Foundational facts as to existence of conspiracy, § 53
- Hearsay rules
  - generally, § 252
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 259
- Preliminary questions, conspiracy existence, § 259
- Similar crimes evidence to establish, § 190

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

- Confessions, this index
- Confrontation Clause Rights, this index
- Counsel. See Right to Counsel, this index
- Due Process, this index
- Evidence obtained in violation of constitution. See Exclusionary Rules, this index
- First Amendment, privileges conflicts, § 113
- Harmless error standard, § 53
- Judicial notice and constitutional law determinations distinguished, § 331
- Presumptions, this index
- Privileges
  - see also Privileges, this index
  - nonconstitutional privileges distinguished, § 74.2, 114 et seq.

CONTRACTS

- Relevance of similar contracts disputes evidence, § 198

CONTRADICTION

- See Impeachment, this index

CONVERSATIONS

- See also Communications; this index; Hearsay, this index
- Completeness doctrine, § 56

CONVICTIONS OF CRIME

- Character impeachment, § 42
- Competency of witnesses, § 64

CONVICTIONS OF CRIME

—Cont'd

- Dishonesty or false statement crimes, § 42
- Impeachment based on character, § 42
- Infamous crimes, § 42
- Judgments, hearsay rules applicable to evidentiary use, § 298
- Moral turpitude crimes, § 42
- Motions in limine to exclude
  - generally, § 52
  - subsequent objection procedure, § 55
- Pardon affects, § 42
- Prejudice/probative value balancing, § 42
- Proof requisites, § 42
- Rehabilitation of impeached witnesses, § 47

COPIES

- See also Best Evidence Rule, this index
- Notice of intent to offer copy, § 2

CORPORATIONS

- Depositions of, identifying deponents, § 3
- Hearsay rules, admissions of party-opponents, § 259
- Lawyer-client privilege, corporate clients, § 87.1
- Self-incrimination privilege applicability
  - generally, § 140
  - agents and officers, § 141

CORPUS DELICTI

- See also Confessions, this index
- Proof of, § 145

CORROBORATION

- Generally, § 47
- Bolstering, this index
- Confessions, this index
- Habit and custom evidence, § 195
- Hearsay, this index
- Rehabilitation distinguished, § 47

INDEX

CORRUPT INFLUENCE IMPEACHMENT

Generally, § 39
Rehabilitation, § 47

COUNSEL

Right to Counsel, this index

COUNTERWEIGHTS

Balancing Prejudice and Probative
Value, this index
Relevancy, this index

COURTS

Discretion of Court, this index
Judges, this index
Judicial Notice, this index
Sanctions, this index

CREDIBILITY

See also Authentication, this index
Bias evidence, § 19
Bolstering on direct examination,
§ 22
Confessions, credibility determinations, § 163
Cross-examination on, § 21, 22, 29
Demeanor affecting, § 3
Demeanor of witnesses, evaluation during discovery, § 3
Expert qualifications rulings, § 13
Expert witnesses, § 13
Hearsay rules, prior statements used to affect credibility, § 249
Impeachment, this index
Judicial questions targeting, § 8 Prior statements used to affect
hearsay rules, § 249
Prior Consistent Statements, this
index
Prior Inconsistent Statements, this
index
Refusal to answer questions relevant to, § 19
Relevance of witness credibility, § 33
Self-incrimination privilege
applicability, § 129

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

Accomplice testimony, cautionary
instructions, § 4

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

—Cont'd

Affirmative defenses
generally, § 346 et seq.
see also Presumptions, this index burden of persuasion, § 341 Argument allusions to privilege invocations, § 126
Arrest and Custody Detention, this
index
Assault, victim character, § 193
Bad character in criminal prosecutions, § 190
Blood alcohol testing, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
Blood sample extraction, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
Burdens of Proof, this index
Character
good character evidence, § 187 impeachment of testifying defendant, § 42 similar criminal acts evidence, § 190
Child sex abuse prosecutions
expert witnesses, § 13
hearsay rules, § 252
Circumstantial evidence bad character, § 190 good character, § 187
Clear and convincing proof, § 340
Common plan evidence, § 190
Competency of witnesses, Confrontation Clause rights, § 74.2
Conduct to prove character
generally, § 190
other crimes evidence, § 190
Confessions, this index
Confrontation Clause Rights, this
index
Consciousness of guilt evidence,
§ 190
Conspiracies, this index
Convictions of Crime, this index
Cross-examination
Confrontation Clause rights, § 39
criminal record questions, § 29

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

—Cont'd

- Cross-examination—Cont'd
  - scope, civil vs criminal proceedings, § 25, 26
  - victims, § 30
- Custody. See Arrest and Custody
- Detention, this index
- Defendant, testifying, character impeachment, § 42
- Deliberation, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190
- Depositions, § 3
- Detention. See Arrest and Custody
- Detention, this index
- Discovery
  - generally, § 97
  - rights of defendants, § 3
- Dishonesty or false statement crimes, conviction of crime evidence, § 42
- DNA identification, expert opinions, § 15
- Drug crimes, physician-patient privilege, § 99
- Drug trafficking opinions, expert witnesses, § 13
- Dying declarations. See Hearsay, this index
- Exclusion of witnesses, § 50
- Expert witnesses
  - child sexual abuse cases, § 13
  - drug trafficking opinions, § 13
  - modus operandi opinions, § 13
- Field sobriety testing, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Fingerprint experts, § 13
- Flight evidence, § 263
- Good character evidence, § 187
- Grand jury proceedings privilege, § 113
- Handwriting samples, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Hearsay rules
  - child sex abuse prosecutions, § 252
  - investigative reports, § 296
  - preliminary hearing testimony, § 304
- Homicide, victim character, § 193

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

—Cont'd

- Hostile witnesses, judicially called, § 8
- Identification questions, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Identity, other crimes evidence to prove, § 190.8
- Impeachment
  - state's witnesses, § 39
  - testifying defendant based on character, § 42
- Improperly obtained evidence. See Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Infamous crimes, conviction of crime evidence, § 42
- Informer's Privilege, this index
- Investigating officer statements
  - regarding reason for their presence at scene of crime
  - Confrontation Clause issues, § 252
  - hearsay issues, § 249
- Investigative reports, hearsay rules, § 296
- Jencks Act, § 97
- Joint defense agreements, lawyer-client privilege, § 91.1
- Judgments, hearsay rules applicable to evidentiary use, § 298
- Jurisdiction illegally obtained, § 178
- Law enforcement information
  - protected by governmental secrets privileges, § 108
- Lawyer-client privilege
  - generally, § 88
  - crime-fraud exception, § 95
  - joint defense agreements, § 91.1
- Lawyer-client privilege, crime-fraud exception, § 95
- Lineups, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Malice, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Marital communications privilege, spousal homicide, § 86
- Mental state opinions, § 12
- Miranda rules. See Confessions, this index

INDEX

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

—Cont'd

- Modus operandi evidence,
§ opinions13
generally, § 190
- Moral turpitude crimes, conviction of crime evidence, § 42
- Motive, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.5
- Multiple defendants, evidence admissible as to some, § 59
- Narrative testimony including perjury, § 5
- Opportunity, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.6
- Other criminal acts evidence, § 190
- Parole and probation proceedings,
exclusionary rules, § 174
- Perjury, examiner's dilemma, § 5
- Physician-patient privilege
generally, § 104
defenses waiving, § 103
drug crimes, § 99
- Plea proceedings, self-incrimination
privilege, § 129
- Preliminary hearing testimony as evidence, hearsay rules, § 304
- Premeditation opinions, § 12
- Presumptions
innocence, § 342 mandatory and permissive, § 342,
346
- Priors. See Convictions of Crime, this
index
- Privacy rights of crime victims, § 44
- Privileges
Confrontation Clause rights overriding, § 74.2
due process limitations, § 74.2
- Proffer agreements, § 160
- Propensity to commit crime, other crimes evidence to show, § 190
- Rape. See Sex Crimes, this index
- Rape shield laws, § 193
- Real evidence, compelled production,
self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Reasonable doubt
generally, § 341

CRIMINAL PROSECUTIONS

—Cont'd

- Reasonable doubt—Cont'd persuasion burden, § 338
- Self-Defense, this index
- Self-Incrimination Privilege, this
index
- Sentencing proceedings, exclusionary rules, § 174
- Sex Crimes, this index
- Signature criminal behavior evidence, § 190.3
- Similar criminal acts evidence, § 190
- Sobriety testing, self-incrimination
privilege, § 124
- Specific intent, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Spousal homicide, marital communications privilege, § 86
- Spousal privileges, § 66
- State's witnesses, impeachment, § 39
- Victims
character evidence, § 193
Child Witnesses, this index
cross-examination, § 30
privacy rights, § 44
rape shield laws, § 193
- Voice samples, self-incrimination
privilege, § 124
- Waivers of self-incrimination privilege accused persons, § 129
witnesses, § 133
- Warnings as to Miranda rights, § 152
- Witnesses
discovery rights of defendants, § 3 exclusion orders, § 50 statements, § 97

CROSS-EXAMINATION

- Depositions, this index
- Examination of Witnesses, this index

CUSTODY

- See Arrest and Custody Detention, this index

CUSTOM

- Conduct on particular occasion, habit and custom as evidence of, § 195

DANGEROUS CONDITIONS

Relevance of similar incidents evidence, § 200

DATA COMPILATIONS

See Electronic Evidence, this index

DEAD MAN STATUTES

Competency of witnesses, § 65

DEAF PERSONS

Competency of witnesses, § 62

DEATH

Certificates, § 101

Dying declarations. See Hearsay, this index

Hearsay available/unavailable witness distinction, § 253

Lawyer-client privilege, death of client, § 94

Marital communications privilege, death of spouse, § 85

Physician-patient privilege, death of patient, § 102

DECLARATIONS AGAINST INTEREST

See Hearsay, this index

DEEDS

Hearsay rules, § 323

DEFENSES

Affirmative Defenses, this index

Burdens of proof, § 337

Similar matters evidence, defenses of a party, § 196

DEFINITIONS

Dangers of in evidence jurisprudence, § 341

DELIBERATION

Similar crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7

DEMEANOR

Credibility effects, § 3

Discovery, demeanor evaluations during, § 3

Judicial demeanor, juror inferences, § 8

Objections to evidence, § 52

DEMEANOR—Cont'd

Witness demeanor elicited on cross-examination, § 29

DEMONSTRATIVE AIDS

Generally, § 214

Argument, demonstrative aids used in, § 214

Authentication, § 214

Charts as pedagogic aids, § 214

Computer-generated animations, § 2, 214

Drawings and diagrams, § 214

Evidentiary status, § 214

Exhibits, status as, § 214

Fair and accurate representation standard, § 214

Illustrative use limitations, § 214

Illustrative vs substantive use, § 212

In-court re-enactments, § 217

Jury access during deliberations, § 214, 220

Maps, § 214

Models, § 214

Opening statements use, § 214

Photographs used as, § 215

Real evidence, demonstrations and experiments as, § 217

Re-enactments, recorded, § 216

Summaries as pedagogic aids, § 214

Views by jury, § 219

Voluminous evidence, § 214

DEMONSTRATIVE EVIDENCE

See Real Evidence, this index

DEPOSITIONS

Generally, § 3

Commissioners to supervise, § 3

Corporate defendants, identifying deponents, § 3

Criminal law, § 3

Cross-examination

hearsay rules, § 304

right of cross-examination, § 19

Evidence rules applicable at discovery stage, § 3

Evidentiary use

generally, § 3, 51, 244

INDEX

DEPOSITIONS—Cont'd

- Evidentiary use—Cont'd
  - available and unavailable witnesses, § 253
  - completeness doctrine, § 56
  - Confrontation Clause rights, § 253
  - Hearsay, this index
  - historical use of depositions, § 244
  - objection procedure, § 52
- Exclusion of deposition witnesses, § 50
- Hearsay
  - questions eliciting, § 3
  - rules where depositions used as evidence. See Hearsay, this index
- Identifying deponents, corporate defendants, § 3
- Lawyer-client privilege issues, § 96
- Notice, § 3
- Oath requirements, § 3
- Prior inconsistent statements in
  - generally, § 34
  - foundation requirements, § 37
- Privilege waivers, effect on trial admissibility, § 3
- Recordation means, § 3
- Refreshing recollection by means of deposition testimony, § 9
- Right of cross-examination, § 19
- Separation of deposition witnesses, § 50
- Unavailable witnesses, § 3
- Videotaping, § 3
- Waivers of privileges, effect on trial admissibility, § 3
- Witness demeanor evaluations, § 3
- Written vs oral, § 3

DERIVATIVE EVIDENCE

- See also Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Primary or direct evidence distinguished, § 181

DETENTION

- See Arrest and Custody Detention, this index

DIRECT EVIDENCE

- See also Circumstantial Evidence, this index
- Relevancy, direct and circumstantial evidence distinctions, § 185.3

DIRECT EXAMINATION

- See Examination of Witnesses, this index

DISCOVERY

- Admissions requests, § 3
- Best evidence rule, discovery procedures rendering rule obsolete, § 232
- Criminal prosecutions, § 97
- Depositions, this index
- Discovery of foundation matters, § 3
- Documents, mandatory disclosure, § 229
- Experts, informal discovery, § 2
- Formal and informal discovery distinguished, § 2, 3
- Foundation matters, § 3
- Governmental secrets privileges, § 109
- Informal
  - client interviews, § 2
  - experts, § 2
  - formal discovery distinguished, § 3
  - mandatory pre-discovery disclosure rules, § 3
  - surprise element, § 2
  - techniques, § 2
  - witness interviews, § 2, 3
- Interrogatories, this index
- Lawyer-client privilege issues, § 96
- Mandatory disclosure rules
  - generally, § 3
  - documents, § 229
- Notice pleading discovery requirements, § 2, 3
- Physical or mental examinations, § 3
- Preparation and presentation and proof, § 2
- Privilege waivers through production of documents, § 3
- Production of documents, privilege waivers through, § 3

DISCOVERY—Cont'd

- Reciprocal discovery in criminal proceedings, § 3
- Subpoenas to compel, § 3
- Surprise, informal discovery techniques avoiding, § 2
- Test results, § 97
- Witnesses
  - see also Depositions, this index
  - demeanor evaluations, § 3
  - informal discovery, § 3
  - mandatory, § 3
  - statements, criminal prosecutions, § 97
  - subpoenas to compel discovery, § 3
- Work product protection, witness interviews, § 2

DISCRETION OF COURT

- Balancing prejudice and probative value, § 212
- Best evidence rule, § 243
- Broad questions, § 7
- Character-based impeachment, § 41
- Cross-examination
  - sanctions limiting, § 19
  - scope and limits, § 19, 24
- Evidence exclusion by judge on own motion absent an objection, § 55
- Examination of witnesses, judges' questions, § 4
- Exclusionary rule applications, § 166
- Expert qualifications
  - generally, § 13
  - gatekeeping role of judges, § 18, 330
- Impeachment based on character, § 41
- Indefinite questions, § 7
- Leading questions, § 6
- Masters, use of, § 18
- Narrative vs interrogatory testimony, § 5
- Order of presentation of evidence, § 4
- Order of proof, § 24, 58
- Privilege assertions, § 77
- Real evidence, discretion to exclude, § 212

DISCRETION OF COURT—Cont'd

- Referees, use of, § 18
- Relevance, similar matters evidence, § 200
- Sanctions limiting cross-examination, § 19
- Self-incrimination privilege warnings, § 131
- Similar matters evidence, relevance, § 200
- Views by jury, § 219
- Warnings, self-incrimination privilege, § 131

DNA EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 205
- Expert opinions, § 15
- Identification, validity probabilities, § 210
- Paternity, § 211
- Probabilities, § 210
- Profiles, DNA, § 15

DOCUMENTS

- See also Writings, this index
- Acknowledged and certified documents and records, § 229.1
- Ancient Documents, this index
- Authentication
  - computer-generated documents, § 227
  - foreign public documents, § 229.1
  - scientific evidence, § 207
- Best Evidence Rule, this index
- Certificates, this index
- Computer-generated document authentication, § 227
- Foreign public document authentication, § 229.1
- Jury access during deliberations, § 220
- Mandatory disclosure, § 229
- Production of Documents, this index
- Scientific evidence authentication, § 207
- Self-incrimination privilege, documents protected, § 137
- Subpoena duces tecum, § 3

INDEX

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

- Battered woman syndrome, § 206
- Hearsay rules, forfeiture of confrontation rights by wrongdoing, § 252, 253
- Marital communications privilege, § 84

DOOR OPENING

- See Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index

DRAWINGS AND DIAGRAMS

- Demonstrative aids, § 214

DRUG CRIMES

- Authentication of drugs offered as real evidence, § 212
- Physician-patient privilege, § 99
- Trafficking, expert opinions, § 13

DRUG USE

- Competency of witnesses, § 62
- Impeachment based on, § 44

DUE PROCESS

- Burdens of Proof, this index
- Confessions, this index
- Hearsay rules conflicts, § 252
- Presumptions, this index
- Reasonable doubt, § 341
- Voucher rule conflicts, § 252

DUPLICATES

- See also Best Evidence Rule, this index
- Counterparts distinguished, § 235
- Definition, § 233
- Notice of intent to offer copy, § 2

DYING DECLARATIONS

- Confrontation Clause rights, § 252
- Hearsay, this index

EAVESDROPPERS

- Privileges, § 82

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

- Self-incrimination privilege, § 139.1

ELECTRONIC EVIDENCE

- See also Computers, this index;
Internet as Evidence Source, this index
- Animations, computer-generated, § 2, 214
- Authentication
  - generally, § 224, 227
  - computer-generated models and simulations, § 218
  - data compilations, § 212, 227
  - photographs, § 215, 227
- Automatic machine generated data, hearsay rules, § 249
- Best evidence rule applicability
  - generally, § 235
  - technology advances in copy preparation, § 236
- Charts as pedagogic aids, § 214
- Chat room communications, § 227
- Confessions, mandatory recording, § 158
- Data compilations
  - authentication, § 212, 227
  - hearsay rules, § 249
- Digital manipulation of electronic photographs, § 215
- Digital signatures authentication, § 227
- Email, § 224, 227
- Enhanced images, § 214
- Exhibits, computer-generated
  - generally, § 214
  - foundation, § 2
  - illustrative vs substantive use, § 212
- Foundation requirements
  - generally, § 294
  - computer-generated models and simulations, § 218
- Hearsay
  - automatic machine generated data, § 249
  - reports produced by computer software, § 294
  - simulations, computer-generated, § 218
- Identification issues in internet communications, § 227

ELECTRONIC EVIDENCE

—Cont'd

- Internet as Evidence Source, this index
- Judicial notice of scientific principles of computers, § 294
- Judicial notice trends, internet impacts, § 334
- Models, computer-generated, § 218
- Pedagogic aids, computer-generated, § 214
- Photographs
  - generally, § 215
  - authentication, § 227
  - digital manipulation, § 215
- Records regularly kept, hearsay rules, § 294
- Simulations, computer-generated, § 218
- Social network communications, authentication, § 227
- Sound recordings, § 216
- Spontaneous statements, electronically communicated, § 271
- Static images, § 214
- Summaries as pedagogic aids, § 214
- Text messages authentication, § 227
- Trustworthiness
  - generally, § 294
  - internet information, § 334

ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE

- Standing to seek exclusion, § 175
- Statutory evidence rules, § 170, 172
- Statutory restrictions, § 74

EMERGENCIES

- Hearsay rules, assertions made in emergency situations, § 252

EMOTIONS

- Fear statements, hearsay rules, § 276
- Physical or mental condition statements to show, hearsay rules, § 274

ERROR

- Invited error, § 57
- Plain and harmless error distinguished, § 52

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

- Impeachment based on character, § 40

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

- Generally, § 5 et seq.
- Admissibility of deposition testimony, § 3
- Alternative answers proposed in questions as leading, § 6
- Assumptions, questions including, § 7
- Background evidence questions on cross-examination, § 29
- Balanced vs leading questions, direct examination, § 6
- Bias, cross-examination to show, § 20
- Bolstering, this index
- Broad questions, § 7
- Calling and interrogation of witnesses by court, § 8
- Child Witnesses, this index
- Collateral fact rule. See Impeachment, this index
- Collateral matters cross-examination, § 21
- Competency and Capacity of Witnesses, this index
- Confrontation Clause Rights, this index
- Corroboration, this index
- Credibility, this index
- Crime victims, § 30
- Cross-examination
  - generally, § 19 et seq.
  - see also Impeachment, this index
  - art of cross-examination, § 30
  - background evidence, § 29
  - bereaved relatives, § 30
  - bias, § 20
  - character question limitations, § 40, 41
  - children, § 30
  - civil vs criminal proceedings, § 25, 26
  - collateral matters, § 21
  - Confrontation Clause rights, § 39
  - credibility, cross-examination to impeach, § 29

INDEX

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

—Cont'd

Cross-examination—Cont'd credibility questions, § 21
crime victims, § 30
criminal record questions, § 29 demeanor elicited on, § 29 depositions, hearsay rules, § 304 direct examination compared leading questions, § 6
    skills required, § 5
discretionary control of judge, § 19, 24 embarrassing questions, § 41 exclusionary rules, impeachment exception, § 183
expert witnesses, § 13
exploratory questions, § 29 fishing expedition dangers, § 30 follow-up question dangers, § 30 form of interrogation, § 20 harassing questions, § 41
Hearsay, this index
hostile vs friendly witnesses, § 25
inability to cross-examine, § 19, 31 inconsistent past writings, § 28
indefinite questions, § 7
instances of misconduct, § 41 jury considerations, § 30
leading questions, § 20, 23 learned treatises used in, § 13 misconduct instances, § 41 misleading questions, § 7 new matter raised in cross-examination, § 23 offers of proof in support of questions, § 29
one-appearance rule as limitation, § 21 opportunity to cross-examine where former testimony offered, § 19 order of proof issues, § 23 perjury proof, § 30 prejudicial questions, § 29 preparation and planning, § 30 redirect to neutralize, § 32 refusal to answer, § 19

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

—Cont'd

Cross-examination—Cont'd
relevancy, direct vs cross, § 29 restrictive rule
    generally, § 21, 27
    discretion of court, § 24 right of, § 19, 31
Rule in Queen Caroline's Case, § 28
sanctions to limit or enforce, § 19
Scope of cross-examination, below
self-incrimination privilege, § 129 sympathetic witnesses, § 30 trustworthiness, cross-examination as to, § 29 value of, § 31
when to cross, § 30
Wide open cross-examination rule, below
Degrading and disgraceful matters questions, § 41
Demeanor elicited on cross-examination, § 29
Deposition testimony, admissibility of, § 3
Direct examination
    generally, § 5 et seq.
    alternative answers proposed in questions as leading, § 6 balanced vs leading questions, § 6 bolstering, § 22, 33
    cross-examination compared leading questions, § 6
        skills required, § 5
    experts, § 13
    hostile witnesses, leading questions, § 6
    impeachment evidence, defusing on direct, § 42 isn't it true. form of question as leading, § 6
    leading questions, § 6
    narrative vs interrogatory testimony, questions eliciting, § 5
    open ended vs specific questions,
        § 5

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

—Cont'd

- Direct examination—Cont'd
  - Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
  - right of cross-examination after, § 19
  - signaling form of questions as leading, § 6
  - specific vs open ended questions, § 5
- Voucher Rule, this index
- Embarrassing questions, § 41
- Exclusion of witnesses during trial, § 50
- Exclusionary rules applicability, real evidence and testimony distinguished, § 179
- Expert witnesses, judges' powers to call and examine, § 8
- Exploratory questions on cross-examination, § 29
- Facts not in evidence, questions assuming, § 6
- Fishing expedition dangers, § 30
- Grand jury testimony privilege, § 113
- Harassing questions, § 41
- Hearsay, this index
- Hostile witnesses
  - cross-examination, § 25
  - judicially called, § 8
  - leading questions, § 6, 25
- Hypothetical Questions, this index
- Impeachment
  - generally, § 33 et seq.
  - see also Cross-Examination, above; Impeachment, this index
  - follow-up question dangers, § 30
  - redirect to neutralize cross-examination, § 32
  - scope of cross-examination to impeach, § 22
- In Limine Motions, this index
- Inability to cross-examine, § 19, 31
- Inconsistent past writings, cross-examination on, § 28
- Indefinite questions, § 7

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

—Cont'd

- Inflection of examiner's voice as leading, § 6
- Instances of misconduct, character-based impeachment, § 41
- Isn't it true. form of question as leading, § 6
- Judges' powers to call and question, § 8
- Judges' questions, § 4
- Jurors' questions, § 8
- Leading questions
  - generally, § 6
  - cross-examination
    - generally, § 20
    - new matter raised in cross-examination, § 23
  - direct examination, § 6
  - hostile vs friendly witnesses, § 25
  - impeachment, § 6
  - judges' use, § 8
  - misleading questions, § 7
  - objections, tactical considerations, § 52
  - prior inconsistent statement elicitation, § 37
  - recitations of facts in questions as, § 7
  - refreshing recollection by means of, § 6, 9
  - tests for distinguishing, § 6
- Learned treatises, cross-examination based on, § 13
- Misleading questions, § 7
- Narrative vs interrogatory testimony, questions eliciting, § 5
- Offers of proof, cross-examination questions, § 29
- One-appearance rule, cross-examination limitation, § 21
- Open ended vs specific questions, direct examination, § 5
- Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
- Opinions, this index
- Order of calling, authentication witnesses, § 2

INDEX

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

—Cont'd

- Order of proof issues, cross-examination, § 23
- Perjury, examiner's dilemma, § 5
- Physical and Mental Examinations, this index
- Prejudicial questions on cross-examination, § 29
- Preliminary matters, leading questions to elicit, § 6
- Preparation and planning cross-examination, § 30
- Privacy rights of witnesses, § 44, 46
- Privileges, this index
- Real evidence distinguished, exclusionary rules applicability, § 179
- Recitations of facts in questions as leading, § 7
- Re-cross-examination, § 32
- Redirect examinations, § 32
- Refreshing Recollection, this index
- Refusal to Testify, this index
- Rehabilitation of impeached witness, § 47
- Relevancy rules
  - see also Relevancy, this index
  - cross-examination, § 29
- Restrictive rule, cross-examination
  - generally, § 21, 27
  - discretion of court, § 24
- Rule in Queen Caroline's Case, § 28
- Rule of completeness, § 32
- Sanctions limiting cross-examination, § 19
- Sanctions to enforce right of cross-examination, § 19
- Scope of cross-examination
  - generally, § 20, 21 et seq.
  - civil vs criminal proceedings, § 25, 26
  - impeachment, § 22
  - Wide open cross-examination rule, below
- Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index
- Separation of witnesses during trial, § 50

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

—Cont'd

- Sequestration orders, § 50
- Signaling form of questions as leading, § 6
- Specific vs open ended questions, § 5
- Speech impediments, § 5
- Subsequent examinations, § 32
- Sympathetic witnesses, cross-examination, § 30
- Take-the-answer rule, character impeachment, § 41
- Tests for distinguishing leading questions, § 6
- Tone of examiner's voice as leading, § 6
- Trustworthiness, cross-examination as to, § 29
- Unavailable witness depositions, § 3
- Victims, § 30
- Voucher Rule, this index
- Wide open cross-examination rule
  - generally, § 21, 27
  - discretion of court, § 24
- Writings, witness authentication, § 222

EXCLUSIONARY RULES

- Generally, § 52 et seq., 164 et seq.
- See also Admissibility Determinations, this index
- Administrative agency adjudications, § 173
- Attenuation of taint
  - generally, § 166, 176
  - independent source concept distinguished, § 179
  - intervening illegal conduct exception distinguished, § 180
- Automatic standing to challenge admissibility, § 175
- Burden of proof
  - causal link between violation and challenged evidence, § 177
  - good faith exception, § 182
- Causal link between violation and challenged evidence
  - generally, § 176
  - Attenuation of taint, above

EXCLUSIONARY RULES—Cont'd

- Causal link between violation and challenged evidence—Cont'd
  - burden of proof, § 177
  - constitutional illegality, § 166
  - inevitable discovery, § 176
  - Miranda rule violations, § 176
  - nonconstitutional illegality, § 172
- Character evidence, categorical exclusions, § 186
- Civil litigation applicability, § 173
- Confessions
  - inadmissible, evidence obtained as result of, § 159
  - Miranda rule violations, § 159, 164
- Constitutional illegality
  - deliberate violations, § 166
  - federal
    - generally, § 166
    - attenuation of taint, § 179
    - justifications, § 167
  - good faith exceptions, § 167
  - grossly negligent violations, § 166
  - Nonconstitutional illegality, below qualified vs nonqualified exclusion requirements, § 172
  - reckless violations, § 166
  - state, § 168
- Constitutional restrictions on judicial authority to establish and apply, § 175
- Costs of evidence exclusion
  - constitutional illegality, § 165
  - nonconstitutional illegality, § 172
- Deliberate constitutional law violations, § 166
- Derivative evidence
  - generally, § 176
  - Causal link between violation and challenged evidence, above exception, § 179
  - primary or direct evidence distinguished, § 181
- Deterrent effect, § 165
- Development of concept, § 164
- Discretion of court in application, § 166
- Disfavored nature of remedy, § 167

EXCLUSIONARY RULES—Cont'd

- Effectiveness of exclusion remedy, nonconstitutional illegality, § 167
- Electronic surveillance
  - generally, § 170, 172
  - standing to seek exclusion, § 175
  - statutory restrictions, § 74
- Exceptions
  - generally, § 179 et seq.
  - Attenuation of taint, above derivative evidence, § 179
  - Good faith exception, below identification of defendant, § 178
  - impeachment, § 183
  - Independent source concept, below inevitable discovery, § 176, 181
  - intervening illegal conduct, § 180
  - Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
- Federal constitutional sanctions
  - generally, § 166
  - attenuation of taint, § 179
  - justifications, § 167
- Federal courts, standing to seek exclusion, § 175
- Forfeiture proceedings applicability, § 173
- Fruit of the poisonous tree metaphor
  - generally, § 159, 176
  - Causal link between violation and challenged evidence, above
- Good faith exceptions
  - generally, § 182
  - burden of proof, § 182
  - constitutional illegality, § 167
  - nonconstitutional illegality, § 172, 182
  - objective standard, § 182
- Grand jury proceedings, § 174
- Grossly negligent constitutional law violations, § 166
- Hypnotically induced recollections, § 206
- Identification of defendant, § 178
- Immigration law proceedings, § 173
- Impeachment exception, § 183

INDEX

EXCLUSIONARY RULES—Cont'd

- Independent source concept
  - generally, § 177
  - attenuation of taint distinguished, § 179
- Inevitable discovery exception, § 176, 181
- Intentional violations,
  - nonconstitutional illegality, § 172
- International law violations, § 167
- Intersovereign situations, § 173
- Judicial authority to establish and apply
  - constitutional illegality, § 166
  - constitutional restrictions, § 175
  - nonconstitutional illegality, § 171
- Jurisdiction illegally obtained, § 178
- Justifications
  - generally, § 165
  - federal constitutional sanctions, § 167
- Juvenile court proceedings, § 173
- Last resort, remedy as, § 167
- Legislative requirements, § 170
- Limitations. Scope of rules, below
- Miranda rule violations
  - generally, § 159, 164
  - see also Confessions, this index
  - causal link between violation and challenged evidence, § 176
- Nonconstitutional illegality
  - generally, § 169 et seq.
  - costs of evidence exclusion, § 172
  - effectiveness of exclusion remedy, § 167
  - good faith exceptions, § 172, 182
  - intentional violations, § 172
  - international law violations, § 167
  - judicially developed requirements, § 171
  - legislative requirements, § 170
  - limitations, § 172
  - qualified vs nonqualified exclusion requirements, § 172
  - standing to seek exclusion, § 175
  - substance of exclusionary requirements, § 172

EXCLUSIONARY RULES—Cont'd

- Nonconstitutional illegality—Cont'd
  - substantial violations, § 172
  - willful violations, § 172
- Noncriminal litigation applicability, § 173
- Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
- Parole and probation proceedings, § 174
- Personal nature of rights enforceable, § 175
- Policy justifications
  - generally, § 165
  - federal constitutional sanctions, § 167
- Preliminary hearings, § 174
- Privacy right justifications, § 165
- Privileges, this index
- Qualified vs nonqualified exclusion requirements, § 172
- Real evidence vs testimony, § 179
- Reckless constitutional law violations, § 166
- Recovered memories, § 203, 206
- Right to counsel enforcement, § 176
- Sanctions, rules viewed as, § 164
- Scope of rules
  - administrative agency adjudications, § 173
  - Causal link between violation and challenged evidence, above
  - civil litigation, § 173
  - derivative evidence, § 176
  - evidence obtained prior to illegality, § 176
  - forfeiture proceedings, § 173
  - grand jury proceedings, § 174
  - immigration law proceedings, § 173
  - Independent source doctrine, above
  - intersovereign situations, § 173
  - juvenile court proceedings, § 173
  - nonconstitutional illegality, § 172
  - noncriminal litigation, § 173
  - parole and probation proceedings, § 174
  - preliminary hearings, § 174

EXCLUSIONARY RULES—Cont'd

- Scope of rules—Cont'd
  - pretrial and procedural issues, § 174
  - right to counsel, § 176
  - sentencing proceedings, § 174
- Self-incrimination privilege denials, § 159
- Sentencing proceedings, § 174
- Standing to seek suppression, § 175
- State constitutional sanctions, § 168
- State court applications of federal constitutional standards, § 166
- Statutory requirements, § 170
- Substance of exclusionary requirements, § 172
- Substantial violations, § 172
- Testimony vs physical evidence, § 179
- Waivers, § 183
- Willful violations, § 172

EXECUTIVE PRIVILEGE

- See Governmental Secrets Privileges, this index

EXHIBITS

- See also Authentication, this index; Foundation, this index
- Chain of custody, § 2
- Computer-generated, § 214
- Demonstrative aids as, § 214
- Discovery of foundation matters, § 3
- Identification marking, § 9, 51
- Jury access during deliberations, § 220
- Master exhibit lists, § 2
- Objections to introduction, § 53
- Physical characteristics of a person, § 217
- Procedure for admission, § 51
- Real Evidence, this index
- Records of past recollection, § 279
- Scars, § 217

EXPERIMENTAL AND SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 202 et seq.
- Admissibility, § 203
- Anecdotal evidence, § 209

EXPERIMENTAL AND SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE

—Cont'd

- Battered woman syndrome, § 206
- Battering parent syndrome, § 206
- Biology, § 205 et seq.
- Blood alcohol testing, § 205.1
- Blood stains, § 207
- Blood typing, § 205.2
- Breath alcohol testing, § 205.1
- Child sexual abuse accommodation syndrome, § 206
- Court-appointed, testifying experts to present, § 203
- Data recorders, § 204
- DNA typing, § 205.3, 205.7
- Event data recorders, § 204
- Eyewitness Identification, this index
- False confessions, § 206
- Fiber identification, § 207
- Fingerprints, § 207.1
- Flight recorders, § 204
- General acceptance test, § 203
- Hair identification, § 207
- Hypnosis, § 206
- Identification of persons and things, § 207 et seq.
- Intoxication, § 205.1
- Judicial notice principle applicability, § 204
- Lie detection, § 206
- Medicine, § 205
- Methodology validation, § 203
- Mitochondrial sequencing, § 205.5
- Opinion polls, § 208
- Paternity testing, § 211 et seq.
- Polygraphs, § 206
- Post-traumatic stress disorder, § 206
- Pretrial experiments, § 202
- Probabilities as evidence
  - identification, § 210
  - paternity testing, § 211 et seq.
- Probabilities in statistical studies, § 208, 209 et seq.
- Profiles, § 206
- Psychology, § 206.1 to 206.7
- Radar, § 204

INDEX

EXPERIMENTAL AND SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE

—Cont'd

- Real evidence, demonstrations and experiments as, § 217
- Recovery of repressed memories, § 203, 206
- Reform proposals, § 18
- Relevancy, § 203
- Sampling, § 208
- Serologic tests, § 205
- Speed detection and recording tests, § 204
- Standards for admitting, § 203.1 to 203.4
- Statistical studies, § 208
- STR profiling, § 205.4
- Substantial vs general acceptance test, § 203
- Surveys, § 208
- Syndromes, § 206.7
- Tachographs, § 204
- Tests
  - generally, § 204 et seq.
  - speed detection and recording, § 204 to 204.4
- Trace evidence, § 207
- Voice spectrograms, § 207.2
- Witness fallibility opinions, § 206

EXPERIMENTS

- See also Tests, this index
- Case-specific experiments, § 202
- Demonstrative use, § 202
- Illustrative use, § 202
- Jury experiments, § 220
- Observational evidence
  - distinguished, § 202
- Peer review validation, § 202
- Substantial similarity requirements, § 202

EXPERT WITNESSES

- Generally, § 13 et seq.
- Accident proneness, § 189
- Accuracy of technology, § 13
- Actuarial risk opinions, § 206
- Anecdotal evidence, § 209

EXPERT WITNESSES—Cont'd

- Application of theory or technique to minor premises, § 13
- Authentication opinions
  - generally, § 212
  - handwriting, § 223
- Bases of opinions
  - generally, § 15
  - Hearsay, bases of opinions as, below
- Battering syndromes, § 206
- Battle of the experts, § 18
- Bias, § 13, 18
- Burden of proof, qualifications, § 70
- Character impeachment, expert opinions as to reputation, § 43
- Child sexual abuse, § 13
- Child sexual abuse accommodation syndrome, § 206
- Competence, § 13
- Court appointed experts
  - generally, § 18
  - scientific evidence, § 203
- Credibility, § 13
- Cross-examination, § 13
- Daubert qualification standard
  - generally, § 13, 330
  - actuarial risk opinions, § 206
  - fingerprint identification, § 207.1
  - Frye standard compared, § 203, 204
  - gatekeeping role of judges, § 18
  - handwriting identification, § 223
  - hypnosis, § 206.4
  - peer review, § 202
  - polygraphy testimony, § 206.3
  - reliability of methodology, § 199
  - scientific matters, § 203
  - scientific vs non-scientific opinions, § 13
  - soft sciences, § 44
  - specialized expertise, § 13
  - technical expertise, § 13
- Direct examination, § 13
- Discovery
  - mandatory pre-discovery disclosure rules, § 3
  - reports, § 3

EXPERT WITNESSES—Cont'd

- Discretion of court as to qualifications, § 13
- DNA identification, § 15
- Drug trafficking opinions, § 13
- Dueling experts, § 12
- Examination of Witnesses, § 8
- Exclusion of witness orders applicability, § 50
- Eyewitness Identification, this index
- False confessions, § 206.6
- Fingerprint experts, § 13
- Foundation requirements, § 13
- Frye qualification standard
  - Daubert standard compared, § 204
  - general acceptance, § 203
- Gatekeeping role of judges generally, § 330
  - Daubert standard, § 18
- General acceptance qualification standard, § 203
- General knowledge matters, § 13
- Group decision bases for opinions, hearsay rules, § 249
- Handwriting authentication, § 223
- Hearsay, bases of opinions as generally, § 15
  - bodily feelings, symptoms, and condition statements to physicians made for purposes of testimony, § 278
  - group decision statements, § 249
  - limiting instructions, § 324.3
  - quasi-hearsay, § 324.3
  - survey evidence, § 208
- Hypnosis, § 206
- Hypothetical Questions, this index
- Impeachment of the expert, § 13, 18
- Impeachment of witness opinions
  - psychiatric opinions, § 44
  - witness fallibility opinions, § 206
- Inadmissible or unadmitted data and facts, opinions based on, § 15
- Independent experts appointed by judges
  - generally, § 18
  - scientific evidence, § 203
- Informal discovery, § 2

EXPERT WITNESSES—Cont'd

- Infringement opinions, § 13
- Judges' powers to call and examine, § 8
- Kuhmo qualification standard, § 13
- Lay and expert testimony distinguished, § 11, 12
- Learned treatises, cross-examination based on, § 13
- Limiting instructions, hearsay rules, § 324.3
- Mandatory pre-discovery disclosure rules, § 3
- Medical malpractice reform proposals, § 18
- Mental state opinions, § 12
- Model Expert Testimony Act, § 18
- Modus operandi opinions, § 13
- Opinion evidence generally. See also Opinions, this index
- Peer review, Daubert qualification standard, § 202
- Personally observed data, opinions based on, § 15
- Phrasing of opinion, § 16
- Post-traumatic stress disorder, § 206
- Pretrial conference negotiations re, § 3, 18
- Proof of bases for opinions, § 15
- Psychiatric testimony, impeachment, § 44
- Qualification
  - generally, § 13
  - burden of proof, § 70
  - Daubert qualification standard, above
  - Frye qualification standard, above
  - Kuhmo standard, § 13
  - procedure, § 70
- Quasi-hearsay, basis for expert opinion as, § 324.3
- Reasonably relied upon data as basis for opinion, § 15
- Reform proposals, § 18
- Reliability of methodology, § 199
- Reports, discovery
  - generally, § 3
  - work product protection, § 2

INDEX

EXPERT WITNESSES—Cont'd

- Reputation, expert opinions as to, § 43
- Scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge
  - generally, § 13
  - court-appointed experts, § 203
  - Daubert qualification standard, § 203
- Scientific vs non-scientific opinions, § 13
- Soft sciences, Daubert qualification standard, § 44
- Specialized expertise, daubert qualification standard, § 13
- Specificity of expert's claim, § 13
- Speed detection and recording tests, § 204
- Subjects of expert testimony, § 13
- Technical expertise, daubert qualification standard, § 13
- Technique or theory validity, § 13
- Test procedures validation, § 13
- Trustworthiness of bases for opinions, § 15
- Trustworthiness of minor premises, § 13
- Truthfulness opinions, § 206
- Validation requirements, § 13
- Validity of underlying technique or theory, § 13
- Witness exclusion orders applicability, § 50
- Witness fallibility opinions, § 206
- Work product protection, § 2
- Workability of expert's technique, § 13

EXTRINSIC EVIDENCE

- See Impeachment, this index

EYESIGHT

- Impeachment, vision defects, § 44

EYEWITNESS IDENTIFICATION

- Admissibility determinations, § 179
- Cautionary instructions, § 4
- Expert opinions as to reliability, § 13, 203, 206.5
- Lineups distorting, § 165

EYEWITNESS IDENTIFICATION—Cont'd

- Validity probabilities, § 210
- Weapon focus phenomenon, § 203

FACT AND LAW QUESTIONS

- Generally, § 328
- Authentication, judge and jury functions, § 212
- Best evidence rule, § 243
- Foreign law, judicial notice, § 328, 335
- Judicial Notice, this index
- Jury responsibilities, § 53
- Opinions on questions of law, § 12

FACTS

- Adjudicative facts. See Judicial Notice, this index
- Assumed facts. See Hypothetical Questions, this index
- Burdens of Proof, this index
- Collective fact opinions, § 11
- Common knowledge facts, § 329, 330
- Foundational facts
  - generally, § 53
  - see also Admissibility Determinations, this index; Preliminary Fact Finding, this index
- Geographic facts, judicial notice, § 330
- Indisputable facts, judicial notice, § 329, 332
- Legislative facts. See Judicial Notice, this index
- Marital communications privilege
  - applicability to communicative facts, § 79
- Not in evidence facts, questions assuming, § 6
- Objections, preliminary questions of fact arising on, § 53
- Opinions distinguished, § 11, 12
- Personal Knowledge, this index
- Predicate or preliminary facts
  - generally, § 53
  - see also Admissibility Determinations, this index; Preliminary Fact Finding, this index

FACTS—Cont’d

- Predicate or preliminary facts
  - Cont’d
  - ultimate facts coinciding, § 53
- Presumptions of fact, § 342
- Questions assuming not in evidence facts, § 6
- Ultimate Issue, this index

FAMILY HISTORY

- Hearsay rules, § 322

FEAR STATEMENTS

- Hearsay rules, § 276

FIELD SOBRIETY TESTING

- Self-incrimination privilege, § 124

FILM

- See Video, Film and Sound Recordings, this index

FINANCIAL STANDING

- Reputation evidence, § 322

FINDINGS OF FACT

- Burdens of Proof, this index
- Judicial findings, appellate review, § 340
- Jury Trials, this index
- Preliminary Fact Finding, this index

FINGERPRINTS

- Scientific evidence, § 207.1
- Validity probabilities, § 210

FIRSTHAND KNOWLEDGE

- Generally, § 10 et seq.
- Hearsay exclusion rules compared, § 247
- Personal knowledge as
  - generally, § 290
  - see also Personal Knowledge, this index

FLIGHT

- Hearsay rules, flight as admission by conduct, § 263

FOREIGN LAW

- Judicial notice, § 328, 335

FORENSIC REPORTS

- Hearsay rules, § 252, 296

FORMER TESTIMONY AS EVIDENCE

- Cross-examination opportunity, § 19
- Hearsay, this index
- Perjury prosecutions, § 301
- Prior inconsistent statements, § 301
- Refreshing recollection, § 301

FOUNDATION

- Admissions, foundation for, § 51
- Admissions requests in aid of foundation, § 3
- Authentication, this index
- Chain of Custody, this index
- Computer-generated animations, § 2
- Computer-generated models and simulations, § 218
- Electronic evidence, § 294
- Expert opinions, § 13
- Facts, foundational
  - generally, § 53
  - see also Preliminary Fact Finding, this index
- Hearsay issues
  - generally, § 53
  - records regularly kept, § 292
- Multiple foundations, § 51
- Personal knowledge, foundation establishing, § 10
- Photographs, § 215
- Prior inconsistent statement impeachment, § 37
- Real evidence authentication requirements. See Authentication, this index
- Test results evidence, § 203
- Video, film and sound recordings, § 216

FRAUD

- Best evidence rule application to prevent, § 232
- Lawyer-client privilege, crime-fraud exception, § 95
- Relevance, similar matters evidence, § 197

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

- Governmental secrets privileges, § 107

INDEX

FRUIT OF THE POISONOUS TREE DOCTRINE

See Exclusionary Rules, this index

GOVERNMENTAL ENTITIES

Lawyer-client privilege, § 87.1

Privileges applicable in litigation involving, § 109

GOVERNMENTAL SECRETS PRIVILEGES

Generally, § 106

Accident reports, § 112

Administrative agencies' deliberative processes, § 108

Administrative secrecy regulations, § 108

Classified information, § 107

Deliberative processes of administrative agencies, § 108

Diplomatic matters, § 107

Discovery, § 109

Executive privilege, § 74.2, 106, 108

Freedom of Information Act, § 107, 108

Governmental parties to litigation, § 109

Grand jury proceedings, § 113

Informer's Privilege, § 74.2

International relations matters, § 107

Law enforcement information, § 108

Military matters, § 107

National security and defense matters generally, § 107 judicial determinations, § 110

Officers' immunity from liability distinguished, § 106

Particularized need, qualified privileges, § 108, 113

President, executive privilege, § 74.2, 108

Privileges, § 105

Public interest conflicts

generally, § 107

assertions and judicial determinations, § 110

Qualified privileges, § 108, 110

Records protections distinguished, § 106

GOVERNMENTAL SECRETS PRIVILEGES—Cont'd

Reports to government agencies, § 112

Separation of powers principles affecting evidence, § 106

Social security information, § 112

Tax returns, § 112

Unemployment compensation information, § 112

Waivers, § 107

Who may claim, § 107, 109

GRAND JURY PROCEEDINGS

Exclusionary rules, § 174

Privileges, § 113

Testimony as evidence in subsequent proceeding, § 304

GUILTY PLEAS

See Pleas, this index

GUNS

Authentication of real evidence, § 213

HABIT

Conduct on particular occasion, habit and custom as evidence of, § 195

HANDWRITING

Authentication

generally, § 212, 221

opinions, § 223

Samples, self-incrimination privilege, § 124

Writings, authentication by proof of handwriting, § 223

HARMLESS ERROR

Plain error distinguished, § 52

HEARING DEFECTS

Impeachment, § 44

HEARINGS

Objections to evidence, § 53

Probable cause, hearsay evidence, § 245

Testimony as evidence in subsequent proceeding. See Hearsay, this index

HEARSAY

Generally, § 244 et seq.
 Absence of entry in records regularly kept, § 287
 Absence of public record, § 300
 Acquiescence, admissions of party-opponents by, § 262
 Actions, explanatory words accompanying, § 249
 Admissions of party-opponents generally, § 254 et seq.
   acquiescence, § 262
   adoptive admissions, § 261 against interest declarations distinguished, § 316 agents' statements, § 257, 259 availability/unavailability distinction, § 254
   casual statements, § 259
   Conduct admissions of party-opponents, below confessions of crime, § 254
     conspiracies, § 259
     corporations, § 259
     declarations against interest distinguished, § 254 deposition admissions, § 259 express admissions, § 254 failure to call witnesses or produce evidence, § 264
     flight, § 263
     guilty pleas, § 257
     joint obligor declarations, § 260 joint tenant declarations, § 260 judicial admissions, § 257 mental competency, § 255
     nolo contendere pleas, § 257
     obstruction of justice misconduct, § 265
     offers to compromise, § 266 opening state remarks, § 254, 259
     opinions, § 256
     payment of medical expenses, § 267 peculiar knowledge requirement, § 258
     personal knowledge, § 255
     plea negotiations, § 266

HEARSAY—Cont'd

Admissions of party-opponents—Cont'd pleadings, § 257
   predecessors in interest declarations, § 260 principal's declarations against surety, § 260 privies in estate declarations, § 260 rationale, § 254
   refusal to submit to physical examination, § 264 representative admissions, § 259 safety measures taken after an accident, § 267 silence, admission by, § 262 testimonial admissions, § 258 testimonial qualifications, § 255
 Adoptive admissions of party-opponents, § 261
 Affidavits, § 245
 Against interest declarations generally, § 316 et seq.
   admissions of party-opponents distinguished, § 316 availability element, § 316, 320 confessions of third persons, § 318
 Confrontation Clause rights, § 319 context of declaration element, § 319 defense-impairing declarations, § 317 disgrace invoking declarations, § 318 hatred invoking declarations, § 318 indirect interests, § 316 inferences, § 319
   motive element, § 319 penal interest, § 318 preliminary fact questions, § 319 prestige, § 318
   proprietary or pecuniary interest, § 317 remoteness of interest, § 316 ridicule invoking declarations, § 318 self-esteem, § 318 social interests, § 318

INDEX

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Against interest declarations—Cont'd
  - testimonial statements inculpatory another, § 319
  - trustworthiness, § 316, 319
  - truthfulness, § 318, 319
- Against-interest declarations
  - admissions of party-opponents distinguished, § 254
- Agents' statements as admissions of party-opponents, § 257, 259
- Ancient writings, § 323
- Animal reactions, § 249
- Assertions
  - nonverbal conduct as, § 250
  - range of, § 246
- Assertiveness of spontaneous statements, § 269
- Automatic machine generated data, § 249
- Available and unavailable witnesses
  - generally, § 253
  - absence of declarant, § 253
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 254
  - against interest declarations, § 316, 320
  - child witness availability determinations, § 253
  - Confrontation Clause rights, below cross-examination opportunities, § 251
  - death of declarant, § 253
  - depositions of unavailable witnesses, § 253
  - due process rights, § 252
  - equally available witnesses, § 264
  - failure to call available witness as admission by party opponent, § 264
  - forfeiture of confrontation rights by wrongdoing, § 252, 253
  - former testimony, § 302
  - good faith effort to locate missing declarant, § 253
  - illness of declarant, § 253
  - memory failure, § 253
  - origin of distinction, § 244

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Available and unavailable witnesses—Cont'd
  - prior statements of available witnesses, § 251
  - privilege assertions and unavailability, § 253
  - procured unavailability, § 253
  - public records and reports, § 295
  - records regularly kept, § 291
  - refusal of declarant to testify, § 253
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
  - wrongfully procured unavailability, § 253
- Basis for expert opinion as quasi-hearsay, § 324.3
- Belief statements to prove the fact remembered or believed, § 276
- Bible entries, § 322
- Birth certificates, § 297
- Bodily feelings, symptoms, and condition statements to physicians
  - testimony, statements made in preparation for, § 278
  - treatment, statements made for, § 277
- Business records exception
  - generally, § 252
  - opinions in records, § 287
  - personal knowledge element, § 290
  - reform proposals, § 286
  - regular course of business element, § 290
  - routine of business element, § 288
- Catchall hearsay exception, § 324
- Certificates
  - generally, § 299
  - birth certificates, § 297
  - death certificates, § 297
  - public records, certified copies or summaries, § 300
- Child sex abuse prosecutions, § 252
- Child witnesses
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
  - sex abuse complaints, § 272.1
- Classification of exceptions, § 325
- Collective statements, § 249

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Commercial publications, § 321
- Communicated threats on issue of self-defense, § 249
- Competency of hearsay declarants, § 61
- Competency of speaker, excited utterances, § 272
- Computer-generated data compilations, § 218, 249
- Conclusions in public records and reports, § 296
- Conduct, assertive, as hearsay, § 250
- Conduct admissions of party-opponents
  - generally, § 261 et seq.
  - acquiescence, § 262
  - adoptive admissions, § 261
  - express admissions distinguished, § 254
  - failure to call witnesses or produce evidence, § 264
  - failure to reply to written communication, § 262
  - flight, § 263
  - nolo contendere pleas, § 257
  - obstruction of justice misconduct, § 265
  - offers to compromise, § 266
  - payment of medical expenses, § 267
  - plea negotiations, § 266
  - privilege conflicts, failure to call privilege witness, § 264
  - refusal to submit to physical examination, § 264
  - safety measures taken after an accident, § 267
  - silence, § 262
  - spoliation of evidence as misconduct, § 265
- Confessions
  - generally, § 254
  - third persons', as declarations against interest, § 318
- Confrontation Clause rights
  - see also Confrontation Clause Rights, this index

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Confrontation Clause rights—Cont'd
  - available and unavailable witnesses, § 251, 252
  - forfeiture by wrongdoing, § 252, 253
  - Supreme Court's decoupling of the principles, § 327
- Conspiracies
  - generally, § 252
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 259
- Corroboration element
  - generally, § 271, 319
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Criticisms of hearsay jurisprudence, § 325
- Cross-examination rights protections
  - generally, § 245, 249
  - available witnesses, § 251
  - depositions, § 304
  - former testimony
    - generally, § 301, 302
    - motive to cross-examine, § 304
  - learned treatises used in, § 13
  - rationale for exclusion, § 245, 249
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
  - rights as rationale for exclusion, § 251
  - waiver, § 302
- Death certificates, § 297
- Death of declarant and unavailability, § 253
- Declarant availability. Available and unavailable witnesses, above
- Declarant competency, § 61
- Deeds, § 323
- Defense-impairing declarations, § 317
- Definition of hearsay, § 246
- Deposition questions eliciting, § 3
- Depositions as evidence
  - generally, § 245
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 259
  - available and unavailable witnesses, § 253
- Confrontation Clause rights, § 253

INDEX

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Depositions as evidence—Cont'd
  - cross-examination, § 304
  - historical use of depositions, § 244
- Development of jurisprudence
  - generally, § 244
  - future of hearsay, § 327
  - records regularly kept, § 285
  - reform proposals, § 326
- Disgrace invoking declarations as against interest, § 318
- Double hearsay, § 324.1
- Due process rights conflicts, § 252
- Dying declarations
  - Confrontation Clause rights, § 252
  - consciousness and certainty of impending death, § 310
  - defense use, § 312
  - foundational facts affecting admissibility, § 53
  - homicide prosecution element, § 311
  - instructions to jury, § 314
  - opinions, § 313
  - personal knowledge requirement, § 313
  - preliminary fact questions, § 310
  - reform proposals, § 315
  - scope of exception
    - generally, § 311
    - defense use, § 312
  - special reliability, § 310
  - time element, § 310
  - trustworthiness, § 310
  - truthfulness, § 309
  - writings, best evidence rule, § 313
- Electronic communication of spontaneous statements, § 271
- Electronic evidence
  - computer-generated simulations, § 218
  - records regularly kept, § 294
  - self-generated records, § 294
- Emergencies, assertions made in, § 252
- Emotion, physical or mental condition statements to show, § 274

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Evaluation of hearsay jurisprudence, § 325
- Exceptions
  - generally, § 245
  - Admissions of party-opponents, above
  - Against interest declarations, above
  - Balancing prejudice and probative value, § 321
  - Business records, above
  - catchall hearsay exception, § 324
  - classification, § 325
  - Conduct admissions of party-opponents, above
  - Dying declarations, above
  - Excited utterances, below
  - Former testimony, below
  - necessity, § 274
  - nonhearsay determinations distinguished, § 254
  - Physical or mental condition statements, below
  - Public records and reports, below
  - Records of past recollection, below
  - Records regularly kept, below
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
  - Spontaneous statements, below
- Excited utterances
  - generally, § 271, 272
  - competency requirement, § 272
  - preliminary fact finding, § 272
  - proof requirement, § 272
  - reflective thought, § 272
  - sex abuse crimes, § 272.1
  - time interval, § 272
- Excitement element
  - spontaneous statements, § 271
- Explanatory words accompanying physical acts, § 249
- Failure to call witnesses or produce evidence as admission of party-opponent, § 264
- Family history, § 322
- Fear statements, § 276
- Firsthand knowledge rule compared, § 247

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Flight as admission by conduct of party-opponent, § 263
- Former testimony
  - generally, § 301 et seq.
  - availability of declarant, § 301
  - availability of witness, § 302
  - character of tribunal, § 305
  - competency objections that could have made, § 306
  - completeness doctrine, § 307
  - Confrontation Clause issues, § 308
  - cross-examination requirement
    - generally, § 301, 302
    - motive to cross-examine, § 304
  - grand jury testimony, § 304
  - identity of interest, § 303
  - identity of issues, § 304
  - identity of parties, § 303
  - jurisdictional challenges to tribunal, § 305
  - nonhearsay determinations, § 301
  - oath requirement, § 301, 302
  - objections that could have made, § 306
  - predecessor in interest
    - generally, § 303
    - reform proposal, § 308
  - preliminary hearing testimony, § 304
  - proof, § 307
  - reform proposals, § 308
  - relevancy objections that could have made, § 306
  - right to counsel issues, § 302
  - transcript evidence, § 307
  - trustworthiness, § 308
- Foundation requirements
  - dying declarations, § 53
  - records regularly kept, § 292
- Future of hearsay, § 327
- Grand jury testimony, § 304
- Guilty pleas, § 257
- Hatred invoking declarations as against interest, § 318
- Hidden hearsay in impeachment questions, § 41
- Hospital records, § 293

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Identity of interests, issues, and parties, former testimony, § 303
- Illness of declarant and unavailability, § 253
- Immediacy of spontaneous statements, § 268
- Impeachment of hearsay declarant, § 324.2
- Impeachment questions, hidden hearsay in, § 41
- Imperative statements as assertions, § 246
- Implied assertions, § 250
- Incompetency of declarant and unavailability, § 253
- Industry standards publications, § 321
- Inferences against interest, § 319
- Intention
  - physical or mental condition statements to show
    - generally, § 274
    - subsequent conduct evidence, § 275
- Interest
  - Against interest declarations,
    - above
    - identity of interest and parties, former testimony, § 303
- Intrinsic weakness hearsay, § 245
- Investigating officer statements
  - regarding reason for their presence at scene of crime
    - generally, § 249
    - Confrontation Clause rights, § 252
- Investigative reports, § 296
- Joint obligor and joint tenant declarations, § 260
- Judgments, § 298
- Judicial admissions of party-opponents, § 257
- Jurisdictional challenges to former testimony tribunal, § 305
- Justifications for rules
  - admissions of party-opponents
    - exception, § 254
  - cross-examination rights protections, § 245, 249

INDEX

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Justifications for rules—Cont'd
  - oath or affirmation requirement, § 245
  - personal knowledge rule compared, § 247
  - public records and reports, § 295
  - records regularly kept exception, § 286
- Knowledge, statements offered to show, § 250
- Laboratory reports, § 252, 296
- Land boundary reputations, § 322
- Lay opinions restrictions distinguished, § 10
- Leading questions eliciting hearsay, exception issues
  - dying declarations, § 311
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Learned treatises
  - generally, § 245, 321
  - cross-examination use, § 13
  - quasi-hearsay, basis for expert opinion as, § 324.3
- Limited purpose admissibility, § 59
- Limiting instructions, expert witnesses opinions, § 324.3
- Litigation, records made for use in, § 294
- Litigation, reports made for, § 288
- Marriage certificates, § 299
- Materiality element, residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Memory failures and unavailability, § 253
- Memory statements to prove the fact remembered or believed, § 276
- Mental competency, admissions of party-opponents, § 255
- Motive, physical or mental condition statements to show, § 274
- Motive element, against interest declarations, § 319
- Multiple hearsay, § 324.1
- Narrative testimony including, § 5
- Near miss rule, residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Necessity exceptions
  - generally, § 274

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Necessity exceptions—Cont'd
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
- 911 calls, § 252
- Nolo contendere pleas as admissions of party-opponents, § 257
- Nonassertive nonverbal conduct, § 250
- Nonverbal conduct, § 250
- Not-hearsay determinations
  - former testimony, § 301
  - spontaneous statements, nonhearsay treatment, § 269
- Notice, assertions offered to show, § 249
- Notice requirement, residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Oath or affirmation requirement, rationale for exclusion, § 245
- Objections to hearsay, tactical considerations, § 52
- Obstruction of justice misconduct as admission of party-opponent, § 265
- Offers to compromise as conduct admissions of party-opponents, § 266
- Opening statement remarks as admissions of party-opponents, § 254, 259
- Opinion polls, § 208
- Opinions
  - dying declarations, § 313
  - party-opponents' opinions, § 256
  - public records and reports, § 296
- Oral hearsay examples, § 248
- Oral vs written hearsay, § 245
- Pain statements, § 273
- Parties, identity of, former testimony, § 303
- Past recollection recorded exception, § 9
- Payment of medical expenses as admission of party-opponent, § 267
- Pedigree, § 322
- Penal interest, declarations against, § 318
- Performative aspects of speech, § 249

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Personal knowledge element
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 255
  - dying declarations, § 313
  - hearsay and personal knowledge rule compared, § 247
  - records of past recollection, § 280
  - records regularly kept, § 290
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Physical acts, explanatory words accompanying, § 249
- Physical examination refusal as admission of party-opponent, § 264
- Physical or mental condition statements
  - generally, § 273 et seq.
  - emotion showing, § 274
  - fear statements, § 276
  - intention showing, § 274, 275
  - memory or belief to prove the fact remembered or believed, § 276
  - motive showing, § 274
  - state of mind showing, § 274, 275
  - subsequent conduct evidence, § 275
- Plea negotiations as admissions of party-opponents, § 266
- Pleadings admissions of party-opponents, § 257
- Police reports and records as records regularly kept, § 288
- Predecessors in interest
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 260
  - former testimony of
    - generally, § 303
    - reform proposal, § 308
- Preliminary fact questions
  - against interest declarations, § 319
  - dying declarations, § 310
  - excited utterances, § 272
  - records regularly kept, § 292
  - spontaneous statements, § 270
- Preliminary hearing testimony, § 304
- Present sense impression statements, § 271

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Prestige, declarations against, § 318
- Principal's declarations against surety, admissions of party-opponents, § 260
- Prior consistent statements
  - generally, § 244
  - available witnesses, § 251
  - credibility, § 249
  - substantive use, § 251
- Prior identification statements, § 251
- Prior inconsistent statements
  - generally, § 34
  - available witnesses, § 251
  - credibility impeachment, § 249
  - impeachment use compared, § 34
  - substantive evidence, use of prior statement as, § 36, 251
  - substantive vs impeachment use, § 34
- Privies in estate admissions of party-opponents, § 260
- Privilege assertions and unavailability, § 253
- Privilege conflicts, failure to call privileged witness as conduct admission of party-opponent, § 264
- Probable cause determinations, § 245
- Procured unavailability of witnesses, § 253
- Proprietary or pecuniary interest, declarations against, § 317
- Public records and reports
  - generally, § 295
  - absence of record, § 300
  - activities of the office element, § 296
  - availability of declarant, § 295
  - certified copies or summaries, § 300
  - investigative reports, § 296
  - judgments, § 298
  - legal duty element, § 296
  - necessary records, § 295
  - opinions and conclusions, § 296
  - rationale for rule, § 295
  - secret vs public access, § 295
  - trustworthiness, § 295, 296

INDEX

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Public records and reports—Cont'd
  - vital statistics records, § 297
- Publications, § 321
- Quasi-hearsay, basis for expert opinion as, § 324.3
- Questions as assertions, § 246
- Rationales for rules. Justifications, above
- Reasons for excluding hearsay, § 245
- Recordation element, residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Records, public. Public records and reports, above
- Records of businesses. Business records, above
- Records regularly kept
  - generally, § 284 et seq.
  - absence of entry, § 287
  - Business records, above
  - computer records, § 294
  - electronic evidence, § 294
  - elements at common law, § 286
  - foundation requirements, § 292
  - hospital records, § 293
  - justification, § 286
  - litigation, records made for use in, § 294
  - litigation, reports made for, § 288
  - opinions, § 287
  - opinions in records, § 287
  - origin of rules, § 285
  - personal knowledge element, § 290
  - police reports and records, § 288
  - preliminary fact questions, § 292
  - proof as to regular practices, § 292
  - regular course of business element, § 287, 290
  - routine of business element, § 288
  - shop books, § 285
  - time element, § 289
  - trustworthiness, § 288, 292
  - types of records, § 287
  - unavailability of maker, § 291
- Records used to refresh recollection
  - generally, § 279 et seq.
  - exhibits, acceptance as, § 279

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Records used to refresh recollection—Cont'd
  - firsthand knowledge requirement, § 280
  - impairment of recollection element, § 282
  - memory when record made, § 281
  - proof of record accuracy, § 283
  - refreshing recollection from record distinguished, § 279
  - trustworthiness, § 251
- Reflective thought and excited utterances, § 272
- Reform proposals
  - generally, § 246, 326
  - academic, § 327
  - business records, § 286
  - dying declarations, § 315
  - evaluations of present rules, § 325
  - former testimony admission, § 308
  - former testimony of predecessor in interest, § 308
  - future of hearsay, § 327
  - statutory reforms, § 326
- Refreshing recollection exception, § 9
- Regular course of business element, records regularly kept, § 290
- Reliability
  - generally, § 245
  - criticisms of reliability rules, § 325
  - dying declarations, § 310
  - published materials, § 321
  - special reliability, § 310
- Reports, public. Public records and reports, above
- Reports produced by computer software, § 294
- Representative admissions of party-opponents, § 259
- Reputation evidence, § 249
- Res gestae
  - generally, § 268
  - Spontaneous statements, below
- Residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Ridicule invoking declarations as against interest, § 318

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Safety measures taken after an accident as admissions of party-opponents, § 267
- Scope of exclusion
  - hearsay examples, § 248
  - out-of-court utterances that are not hearsay, § 249
- Self-esteem, declarations against, § 318
- Self-generated electronic records, § 294
- Sex abuse crimes, § 272.1
- Shop books, § 285
- Silence, admission of party-opponents by, § 262
- Social interests, declarations against, § 318
- Special reliability, dying declarations, § 310
- Spoken vs written hearsay, § 245
- Spoliation of evidence as conduct admissions of party-opponents, § 265
- Spontaneous statements
  - assertiveness, § 269
  - electronic communication, § 271
  - Excited utterances, above excitement element, § 271
  - immediacy, § 268
  - nonhearsay treatment, § 269
  - Physical or mental condition statements, above
    - present sense impression statements, § 271
    - res gestae, § 268
    - self-serving aspects, § 270
  - State of mind, physical or mental condition statements to show
    - generally, § 274
    - subsequent conduct evidence, § 275
- Statutory reforms, § 326
- Supreme Court's decoupling of hearsay rules and Confrontation Clause rights, § 327
- Survey evidence, § 208
- Testimonial admissions of party-opponents, § 255, 258

HEARSAY—Cont'd

- Testimonial statements inculpatory another as against interest declarations, § 319
- Testimony. Former testimony, above
- Threats communicated on issue of self-defense, § 249
- Time element
  - ancient writings, § 323
  - dying declarations, § 310
  - excited utterances, § 272
  - records regularly kept, § 289
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Tombstones, § 322
- Trustworthiness element
  - generally, § 245
  - against interest declarations, § 316, 319
  - circumstantial evidence, § 324
  - criticisms, § 325
  - criticisms of trustworthiness, § 325
  - dying declarations, § 310
  - former testimony, § 308
  - physical or mental condition statements, § 273
  - public records and reports, § 295, 296
  - records of past recollection, § 251
  - records regularly kept, § 288, 292
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Truth of matter asserted, § 246
- Truthfulness element
  - against interest declarations, § 318, 319
  - dying declarations, § 309
- Unavailable declarants. Available and unavailable witness determinations, above
- Unreliability of hearsay, § 245
- Verbal acts, § 249
- Video, film and sound recordings, hearsay in, § 216
- Vital statistics records, § 297
- Waiver of cross-examination requirement, § 302
- Weight accorded, § 250, 271, 314
- Written hearsay examples, § 248
- Written vs spoken hearsay, § 245

INDEX

HEARSAY—Cont'd

Wrongfully procured unavailability of witnesses, § 253

HOSTILE WITNESSES

See Examination of Witnesses, this index

HYPNOSIS

Generally, § 206.4

HYPOTHETICAL QUESTIONS

Generally, § 14

See also Expert Witnesses, this index

Confusing the jury, § 14

Criticisms of use, § 14

Not in evidence facts, questions assuming, § 6

Objections to assumed facts, § 15

Ultimate issue rules, § 14

IDENTIFICATION

Bitemarks, § 210

Blood, § 211

Client identity, lawyer-client privilege, § 90

Courtroom identification, § 251

Criminal prosecutions, other crimes evidence to prove identity, § 190.8

Evidence validity probabilities, § 210

Exclusionary rules applicability to identifications of defendants, § 178

Eyewitness Identification, this index

Fibers, § 207

Fingerprints, § 207.1

Hair, § 207

Hearsay rules, prior identification statements, § 251

In internet communications identification issues, § 227

Interrogation re identity, self-incrimination privilege, § 124

Marking evidence for, § 51

Probabilities as evidence, § 210

Scientific evidence, § 207 et seq.

Self-incrimination privilege applicability to protect identity, § 120

Tattoos, § 217

IDENTIFICATION—Cont'd

Trace evidence, § 207

Voice Identification, this index

ILLUSTRATION

Real evidence, relevance vs illustrative theories of admittance, § 212

IMMIGRATION LAW PROCEEDINGS

Exclusionary rules, § 173

IMMUNITY

See Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index

Governmental secrets privileges, officers' immunity from liability distinguished, § 106

IMPEACHMENT

Generally, § 33 et seq.

Abnormality, § 44

Addiction, § 44

Admissions use, § 160

Alcohol use, § 44

Attacking the supporting character witness, § 48

Backfiring impeachment attempts, § 40

Bad character for veracity, § 194

Bad reputation indicating character, § 43

Bias, cross-examination to show, § 20

Bias and partiality foundation requirements, § 39 rehabilitation of impeached witnesses, § 47

Bolstering rehabilitation of the impeached witness, § 47

Bribery evidence, § 39

Capacity defects

generally, § 44

rehabilitation, § 47

Character

generally, § 40 et seq.

attacking the supporting character witness, § 48

backfiring impeachment attempts, § 40

bad character evidence, § 190

IMPEACHMENT—Cont'd

Character—Cont'd

- bad character for veracity, § 194
  - collateral fact rule, § 41
  - community, reputation for veracity within, § 43
  - conduct vs opinion evidence, § 43
  - conviction of crime, § 42
  - criminal defendants, character-based impeachment, § 42
  - degrading and disgraceful matters, § 41
  - discretion of court to allow, § 41
  - dishonesty or false statement crime convictions, § 42
  - do you know questions, § 43
  - ethical considerations, § 40
  - expert opinions, § 43
  - general character vs veracity
    - implications of character, § 43
  - infamous crime convictions, § 42
  - instances of misconduct, § 41
  - intrinsic impeachment limitations, § 41
  - limitations on character cross-examination, § 40, 41
  - misconduct evidence, § 41
  - moral turpitude crime convictions, § 42
  - noncriminal misconduct, § 41
  - opinion as to character, § 43
  - personal knowledge rule, character opinions, § 43
  - prejudice/probative value balancing, § 40
  - rehabilitation of impeached witnesses, § 47
  - relevancy, § 41
  - reputation, § 43
  - self-incrimination issues, § 41
  - supporting character witnesses, attacking, § 48
  - take-the-answer rule, § 41
  - truthfulness, character for, § 40
  - veracity reputation questions, § 43
- Coercion evidence, § 39
- Collateral fact rule
- character matters, § 41

IMPEACHMENT—Cont'd

Collateral fact rule—Cont'd

- intrinsic and extrinsic impeachment evidence, § 49
  - prior inconsistent statements, § 36, 49
  - scope of rule, § 49
  - specific contradiction, § 45
  - what facts are collateral, § 49
- Collateral matters, prior inconsistent statements regarding, § 36
- Community, impeachment based on reputation for veracity within, § 43
- Confession, inadmissible, use to impeach, § 162
- Contradiction
- collateral and non-collateral matters, § 49
  - specific, § 45
- Corrupt influence
- generally, § 33, 39
  - rehabilitation of impeached witnesses, § 47
- Credibility
- generally, § 29
  - three groups of rules, § 33
  - three stages of analysis, § 47
- Criminal defendants, character-based impeachment, § 42
- Cross-examination to impeach
- generally, § 19 et seq.
  - see also Examination of Witnesses, this index
- Direct examination, defusing impeachment evidence on, § 42
- Dishonesty or false statement crime convictions, § 42
- Do you know questions as to character, § 43
- Drug use, § 44
- Exclusionary rules, impeachment exception, § 183
- Expert opinions
- psychiatric opinions, § 44
  - witness fallibility opinions, § 206
- Extrinsic evidence, Intrinsic and extrinsic evidence, below
- Follow-up question dangers, § 30

INDEX

IMPEACHMENT—Cont'd

- Foundation requirements, bias and partiality, § 39
- Good and bad character evidence, § 190
- Grand jury testimony use, § 113
- Hearsay, hidden, in impeachment questions, § 41
- Hearsay declarants, § 324.2
- Inconsistencies. See Prior Inconsistent Statements, this index
- Interest in outcome of litigation
  - generally, § 39, 44
  - rehabilitation, § 47
- Intrinsic and extrinsic evidence
  - generally, § 33
  - character impeachment limitations, § 41
  - Collateral fact rule, above contradiction on collateral and non-collateral matters, § 49
- Judicially called witnesses, § 8
- Jury verdicts, § 68
- Leading questions, § 6
- Memory defects
  - generally, § 44
  - rehabilitation, § 47
- Mental capacity defects, § 44
- Misconduct evidence, character-based impeachment, § 41
- Modes of impeachment, § 33
- Motions in limine controlling character impeachment, § 41
- Noncriminal misconduct, character impeachment, § 41
- Offers to compromise evidence, § 266
- Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
- Opinions, inconsistent, § 35
- Other crimes evidence, § 190
- Partiality evidence, § 39
- Perjury, this index
- Personal knowledge rule, character opinions, § 43
- Prejudice/probative value balancing character impeachment, § 40
- conviction of crime impeachment, § 42

IMPEACHMENT—Cont'd

- Prejudice/probative value balancing—Cont'd
  - drug use impeachment, § 44
- Prior inconsistent statements
  - see also Prior Inconsistent Statements, this index
  - substantive vs impeachment use, § 34
- Psychiatric testimony, § 44
- Rehabilitation
  - generally, § 32, 47
  - prior consistent statements, § 249
  - truthful character, evidence of after truthfulness attacked, § 22
- Relevance of witness credibility, § 33
- Religious beliefs, § 46
- Reputation indicating character, § 43
- Rule in Queen Caroline's Case, § 28
- Sanity, § 44
- Scope of cross-examination to impeach, § 22
- Self-contradiction
  - Prior Inconsistent Statements, this index
  - specific contradiction distinguished, § 34
- Self-incrimination issues, character-based impeachment, § 41
- Self-incrimination privilege invocation, impeachment use, § 127, 129
- Sensory capacity defects, § 44
- Similar crimes evidence, § 190
- Specific contradiction
  - generally, § 45
  - self-contradiction distinguished, § 34
- State's witnesses in criminal prosecutions, § 39
- Subsequent remedial measures, § 267
- Supporting character witnesses, attacking, § 48
- Supporting the impeached witness, § 47
- Take-the-answer rule
  - character impeachment, § 41
  - Collateral fact rule, above
- Three groups of credibility rules, § 33

IMPEACHMENT—Cont'd

- Three stages in credibility analysis, § 47
- Truthful character, evidence of after truthfulness attacked, § 22
- Unsuccessful impeachment effects, § 33
- Veracity reputation questions, § 43
- Vision defects, § 44
- Voucher Rule, this index
- Witness fallibility opinions, § 206

IMPROPERLY OBTAINED EVIDENCE

- See Exclusionary Rules, this index

IN LIMINE MOTIONS

- Generally, § 4, 52
- Character impeachment, § 41
- Convictions of crime evidence generally, § 52
  - subsequent objection procedure, § 55
- Impeachment-character based, § 41
- Interlocutory nature of orders, § 52
- Opening statement considerations, § 52
- Suppression motions distinguished, § 52

INADMISSIBLE EVIDENCE

- Admissibility Determinations, this index
- Exclusionary Rules, this index

INCOMPETENT EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 61 et seq.
- Privileged evidence distinguished, § 74.1, 102

INCOMPETENT WITNESSES

- See Competency and Capacity of Witnesses, this index

INCRIMINATION

- See Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index

INDEFINITE QUESTIONS

- Cross-examination, § 7

INDEPENDENT SOURCE DOCTRINE

- See Exclusionary Rules, this index

INDUSTRY STANDARDS PUBLICATIONS

- Hearsay rules, § 321

INFANTS

- See Child Witnesses, this index

INFERENCES, § See also Burdens of Proof, this index

- Character traits, inferences from, § 186
- Circumstantial evidence, § 338, 344
- Compulsory and permissive, § 338
- Evidence, failure to produce, § 264
- Hearsay rules, inferences against interest, § 319
- Inferences drawn from inferences, § 338
- Lay opinions, inferences as, § 11
- Natural, § 344
- Overwhelming, § 338
- Permissive and compulsory, § 338
- Presumptions and, interrelationship, § 344
- Presumptions compared, § 342
- Privilege claims, inferences from, § 74.1
- Probabilities, inferences drawn from, § 210
- Production of evidence burden, § 338
- Remote, § 338
- Res ipsa loquitur, § 342
- Self-incrimination privilege invocations
  - civil litigation, § 136
  - criminal prosecutions, § 116, 126
- Speculative, § 338
- Standardized, § 342
- Witness, failure to call, § 264

INFORMER'S PRIVILEGE

- Generally, § 111
- Civil vs criminal proceedings, § 111
- Criminal defendants' rights to disclosure, § 111
- Identification protection, § 75

INDEX

INFORMER'S PRIVILEGE

—Cont'd

- Identity protection, § 88
- Journalist's privilege compared, § 76.2
- Qualified nature, § 74.2
- Who may claim, § 111

INJURIES

- See also Accidents, this index
- Exhibition of physical injuries to the jury, § 217
- Physical injuries, exhibition to the jury, § 217
- Relevance of similar injuries evidence, § 200

INSCRIBED OBJECTS

- Best evidence rule, § 233

INSTRUCTIONS

- See Jury Trials, this index

INSURANCE

- Lawyer-client privilege applicability to insurers of parties, § 91.1
- Liability insurance evidence, § 201

INTENT

- Confidentiality, intent to maintain lawyer-client privilege, § 91
- marital communications privilege, § 80
- Physical or mental condition statements to show, hearsay rules generally, § 274
- subsequent conduct evidence, § 275
- Specific intent, similar crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7

INTEREST

- Against interest declarations. See Hearsay, this index

INTEREST IN OUTCOME OF LITIGATION

- See also Bias and Partiality, this index
- Competency of witnesses, § 65
- Impeachment generally, § 39, 44, 65

INTEREST IN OUTCOME OF LITIGATION—Cont'd

- Impeachment—Cont'd rehabilitation, § 47
- Spontaneous statements, self-serving aspects, § 270

INTERNET AS EVIDENCE SOURCE

- Authentication, § 227
- Chat room communications, § 227
- Chat room communications, authentication, § 227
- Email, § 224, 227
- Identity issues in internet communications, § 227
- Judicial notice, internet impacts, § 334
- Spontaneous statements, electronically communicated, § 271
- Text messages, authentication, § 227
- Trustworthiness, § 334
- Website data and postings, § 227
- Website data and postings, authentication, § 227
- Wikipedia, § 334

INTERROGATION

- Arrest and Custody Detention, this index
- Confessions, this index
- Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index

INTERROGATORIES

- Generally, § 3
- Prior inconsistent statements, interrogatory answers as, § 37

INTOXICATION

- See also Alcohol Use, this index
- Blood alcohol testing, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Experimental and scientific evidence, § 205.1
- Field sobriety testing, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Horizontal gaze nystagmus test for alcohol intoxication, § 203
- Lay opinions, § 11

INTRINSIC EVIDENCE

See Impeachment, this index

INVESTIGATIONS

Reports, hearsay rules, § 296

INVITED ERROR

Generally, § 57

IRRELEVANT EVIDENCE

See Relevancy, this index

JOINT TENANTS AND OBLIGORS

Hearsay rules, declarations as admissions of party-opponents, § 260

JOURNALIST PRIVILEGE

Generally, § 76.2

JUDGES

Administrative agencies' deliberative processes, governmental secrets privileges, § 108

Admissibility of evidence, bench vs jury trials, § 60

Appellate review of findings of fact by judges, § 340

Authentication, judge and jury functions, § 212

Competency as witnesses, § 68

Confessions, determinations of admissibility and credibility, § 163

Credibility, judicial questions targeting, § 8

Discretion of Court, this index

Evidence exclusion by judge on own motion absent an objection, § 55

Exclusionary rules, authority to establish and apply generally, § 164 et seq.

see also Exclusionary Rules, this index

Expert witnesses

gatekeeping role of trial court, § 18, 330 judicial appointments

generally, § 18

scientific evidence, § 203

Findings of fact by judges, appellate review, § 340

JUDGES—Cont'd

Gatekeeping role, expert testimony, § 18, 330

National security assertions, judicial responsibilities, § 110

Opening statements, judicial interruptions, § 8

Preliminary Fact Finding, this index

Privilege claims as to confidential communications with, § 88

Sanctions, this index

Witnesses, judges' powers to call and question, § 8

JUDGMENTS

Evidentiary use, hearsay rules, § 298

JUDICIAL NOTICE

Generally, § 328

Adjudicative facts

generally, § 328

definition, § 203

judicial notice, § 328

legislative facts distinguished

generally, § 204, 328

policy issues, § 331

Administrative regulations, § 335

Appellate practice, judicial notice at the appellate level, § 333

Burdens of proof, judicial notice overriding, § 328

Common knowledge, § 329, 330

Constitutional law determinations distinguished, § 331

Development, § 334

Domestic law, § 335

Economic data use, § 331

Electronic evidence, scientific principles of computers, § 294

Foreign law, § 328, 335

Geographic facts, § 330

Indisputable facts, § 329, 332

International law, § 335

Internet impacts on judicial notice, § 334

Jury acceptance of judicially notice facts, § 328

Law, judicial notice of, § 335

Lawmaking exercises, § 331

INDEX

JUDICIAL NOTICE—Cont'd

- Legislative facts
  - generally, § 331, 333
  - adjudicative facts distinguished
    - generally, § 204, 328
    - policy issues, § 331
  - international law, § 335
  - legislative facts taken into account, § 331
  - maritime law, § 335
- Maritime law, § 335
- Municipal ordinances, § 335
- Notice of intent to take, § 333
- Own motion, judicial notice taken on, § 333
- Personal knowledge of judge
  - distinguished, § 329
- Policy judgments underlying, § 331
- Preliminary fact finding
  - distinguished, § 328, 332
- Private law, § 335
- Procedural incidents, § 333
- Relevancy considerations, § 330
- Requests for, § 333
- Scientific evidence, judicial notice
  - principle applicability, § 204
- Scientific principles
  - generally, § 330
  - computer functionality, § 294
- Scope of judicially notice facts, § 328
- Sister state law, § 335
- Social data use, § 331
- Social science materials use, § 331
- Trends in development, § 334
- Ultimate issue, judicially noticed facts touching, § 332
- Uses, § 332
- Verifiability of matter noticed, § 328, 330
- Work-a-day truths, § 334

JURISDICTION

- Former testimony evidence,
  - jurisdictional challenges to tribunal, § 305
- Illegally obtained, exclusionary rules, § 178

JURY TRIALS

- Accomplice testimony, cautionary instructions, § 4
- Admissibility of evidence, bench vs jury trials, § 60
- Affirmative defenses instructions, § 348
- Authentication, judge and jury functions, § 212
- Balancing Prejudice and Probative Value, this index
- Burdens of Proof, this index
- Cautionary instructions, eyewitness identification, § 4
- Common knowledge of individual jurors, § 329
- Competency of jurors as witnesses, § 68
- Confessions, determinations of admissibility and credibility, § 163
- Cross-examination jury considerations, § 30
- Curative instructions, inadmissible evidence, § 4
- Demonstrative aids, access during deliberations, § 214, 220
- Discrimination in selecting jurors, statistical evidence, § 209
- Dying declarations instructions, § 314
- Evidence instructions, § 4
- Evidence-related voir dire questions, § 4
- Exclusionary rule applicable to juror testimony, § 68
- Exhibits, jury access during deliberations, § 220
- Experiments by jurors, § 220
- Expert witnesses opinions instructions, § 324.3
- Eyewitness identification, cautionary instructions, § 4
- Fact and law questions, jury responsibilities, § 53
- Gruesome exhibits or demonstrations, § 212
- Hearsay rules instructions, § 324.3

JURY TRIALS—Cont'd

- Hypothetical questions confusing the jury, § 14
- Impeachment of jury verdicts, § 68
- Invocation of self-incrimination privilege, instructions, § 128
- Judicial demeanor, juror inferences, § 8
- Judicially notice facts, jury acceptance of, § 328
- Liability insurance evidence effects, § 201
- Limited purpose admissibility, instructions, § 59
- Misleading or Confusing the jury, this index
- Narrative vs interrogatory testimony effects, § 5
- Objections, speaking, as influencing juries, § 52
- Physical injuries, exhibition to the jury, § 217
- Presumptions, this index
- Privileges of jurors, § 68
- Questions to witnesses by juror, § 8
- Real evidence
  - jury access during deliberations, § 220
  - smell or taste perception, § 212
- Reasonable doubt instructions, § 341
- Speaking objections influencing juries, § 52
- Views by jury, § 219
- Weight of Evidence, this index
- Witnesses, jurors' questions to, § 8

JUVENILE COURT PROCEEDINGS

- Exclusionary rules, § 173

KINSHIP

- Lay opinions, § 10

KNOWLEDGE

- See also Personal Knowledge, this index
- Common knowledge, § 329, 330
- Facts subject to common knowledge, § 329, 330

KNOWLEDGE—Cont'd

- Hearsay rules, statements offered to show knowledge, § 250
- Judicial knowledge, judicial notice distinguished, § 329
- Judicial notice of common knowledge matters, § 329, 330
- Personal knowledge and a judge's knowledge distinguished, § 329

LABOR UNIONS

- Self-incrimination privilege applicability, § 141

LABORATORY REPORTS

- Hearsay rules, § 252, 296

LAW, QUESTIONS OF

- See also Fact and Law Questions, this index
- Expert opinions, § 12
- Judicial notice
  - generally, § 335
  - foreign law, § 328, 335
  - lawmaking exercises, § 331
- Substantive rules of law, presumptions implementing, § 342

LAWYER-CLIENT PRIVILEGE

- Generally, § 87 et seq.
- Advice of counsel defense as waiver, § 93
- Agents' protections, § 91, 91.1
- Appeals, who may assert privilege, § 92
- Attorney status requirements, § 88
- Client interviews, § 2
- Common interests, multiple clients with, § 91.1
- Conduct, communicative, § 89
- Confidentiality requirement, § 91, 91.1
- Corporate clients, § 87.1
- Crime-fraud exception, § 95
- Criminal prosecutions, § 88
- Death of client, § 94
- Discovery jurisprudence conflicts, § 96
- Documents created in anticipation of litigation, § 96
- Employees of clients, § 87.1

INDEX

LAWYER-CLIENT PRIVILEGE

—Cont'd

- Fact of employment as privileged, § 90
- Governmental entities, § 87.1
- Identity of client, § 90
- In camera inspection to determine validity of claim, § 87
- Insurers of parties, § 91.1
- Intent to maintain confidentiality, § 91
- Interpreters, communications made through, § 91
- Joint consultations of multiple clients, § 91.1
- Joint defense agreements, § 91.1
- Judges, confidential communications with, § 88
- Justification, § 87
- License requirements, § 88
- Multiple client joint consultations, § 91.1
- Multiple counsel, communications between, § 89
- Non-legal communications, § 88
- Origin, § 87
- Physician-patient privilege compared, § 105
- Pooled information situations, § 91.1
- Professional relationship requirements, § 88
- Purpose
  - generally, § 87
  - scope limitations in light of purpose, § 90
- Real evidence, § 96
- Scope
  - generally, § 87, 89
  - corporate clients, § 87.1
  - fact of employment as privileged, § 90
  - identity of client, § 90
  - purpose of privilege as limiting, § 90
  - real evidence, § 96
- Self-incrimination privilege invocation by lawyer on behalf of client distinguished, § 119

LAWYER-CLIENT PRIVILEGE

—Cont'd

- Third parties to communications, § 91
- Waiver
  - generally, § 93
  - corporate clients, § 87.1
- Who is protected, § 89
- Who may assert privilege, § 92
- Work product protection compared, § 96
- Writings protected, § 89

LAWYERS

- See Attorneys, this index

LEADING QUESTIONS

- See Examination of Witnesses, this index

LEARNED TREATISES

- Cross-examination use, § 13
- Hearsay rules, § 245, 321
- Quasi-hearsay, basis for expert opinion as, § 324.3

LEGISLATIVE FACTS

- See Judicial Notice, this index

LEGITIMACY OF CHILD

- Competency of party spouse, § 67
- Presumptions, § 344

LETTERS

- See Writings, this index

LIABILITY INSURANCE

EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 201

LIE DETECTORS

- Generally, § 206.3

LINEUPS

- See also Eyewitness Identification, this index
- Self-incrimination privilege, § 124

MALICE

- Hearsay statements showing state of mind or emotion, § 274, 275
- Presumptions, § 3476

MALICE—Cont'd

Similar crimes evidence to establish,
§ 190.7

MAPS

Demonstrative aids, § 214

MARITAL COMMUNICATIONS
PRIVILEGES

Generally, § 78 et seq.

Absolute vs qualified nature of, § 86

Acts, communicative, applicability to, § 79

Agency law rules, § 81

Communicative acts and facts, applicability to, § 79

Confidentiality requirements, § 80

Controversies in which privilege applicable, § 84

Death of spouse affecting, § 85

Divorce, communications after, § 81

Divorce affecting, § 85

Domestic violence litigation, § 84

Eavesdroppers, § 82

Enforcement, § 83

Facts, communicative, applicability to, § 79

Future of privilege, § 86

Holder of privilege determinations, § 83

Homicide, spousal, § 86

Hostile spouses, § 81

Intention to maintain confidentiality,
§ 80

Justifications, § 79

Marital status requirements, § 81

Policies underlying, § 79

Policy, § 86

Pre- and post-marital communications, § 81

Purpose, § 81

Qualified vs absolute nature of, § 86

Same-sex couples, § 81

Scope, controversies in which privilege applicable, § 79, 84

Separation, communications after,
§ 81

Spousal competency rules compared,
§ 66, 78

MARITAL COMMUNICATIONS

PRIVILEGES—Cont'd

Status as married, § 81

Survival of the privilege after death or divorce, § 85

Third party disclosures, § 80, 82

Time of making as factor, § 81

Waivers, § 83

Who may claim privilege, § 83

MARRIAGE

Certificates, § 299

Competency of spouses of parties
generally, § 66

disqualification procedure, § 70

paternity issues, § 67

Domestic Violence, this index

Hearsay rules

forfeiture of confrontation rights by wrongdoing, § 252, 253

marriage certificates, § 299

Paternity issues

competency of spouse of party, § 67

presumptions, § 344

Same-sex couples, marital communications privilege, § 81

MASTERS

Discretion of court to use, § 18

Preliminary references to, § 3

MATERIALITY

Photographic evidence, § 212

Relevancy and, § 185.1

Residual hearsay exceptio, § 324

MEDICAL EXPENSES

Hearsay rules, payment of medical expenses as admission of party-opponent, § 267

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Expert witness reform proposals,
§ 18

Physician-patient privilege, § 104

MEDICAL RECORDS

Privileges, § 293

INDEX

MEDICAL REVIEW COMMITTEES

Privileges, § 76.2

MEDICINE

Experimental and scientific evidence, § 205

MEMORY

Hearsay rules

memory failure, available/unavailable witness distinction, § 253

memory statements to prove the fact remembered or believed,
§ 276

Hypnotically developed recollections,
§ 206.4

Impeachment based on memory defects

generally, § 44

rehabilitation, § 47

Past recollection records

generally, § 279 et seq.

see also Hearsay, this index

Personal knowledge distinguished,
§ 10

Recovered repressed memories,
§ 203, 206

Refreshing Recollection, this index

MENDACITY

Credibility, this index

Truthfulness, this index

MENTAL DISORDERS

Competency of witnesses, § 62

MENTAL EXAMINATIONS

Physical and Mental Examinations,
this index

MENTAL STATE

Statements to show, hearsay rules
generally, § 274

subsequent conduct evidence, § 275

MINORS

See Child Witnesses, this index

MIRANDA RULES

See Confessions, this index

MISLEADING OR CONFUSING THE JURY

Anecdotal evidence, § 209

Competency of witnesses determina-
tions, § 62

Computer-generated models and simulations, § 218

Hypothetical questions, criticisms of use, § 14

Probabilities, § 210

Questions, misleading, § 7

Real evidence tending to, § 212

MISREPRESENTATIONS

Relevance of similar matters evidence, § 197

MODELS

Demonstrative aids, § 214

MODUS OPERANDI

Generally, § 190

Opinions, § 13

MORAL TURPITUDE

See Character, this index

MOTIONS

In Limine Motions, this index

Strike Motions, this index

Suppression Motions, this index

MOTIVE

Generally, § 190.5

Against interest declarations, § 319

Physical or mental condition statements to show, § 274

NEGATIVES

Burdens of proof, negative averments, § 337

Proof problems, § 200

NEGLIGENCE

Accident proneness evidence, § 189

Burdens of proof, § 337

Character evidence, § 189

Liability insurance evidence, § 201

Relevance

liability insurance evidence, § 201 similar accidents and injuries evidence, § 200

NEGLIGENCE—Cont'd

- Res ipsa loquitur, § 342
- Subsequent Remedial Measures, this index

911 CALLS

- Evidentiary use, § 252

NONTESTIMONIAL EVIDENCE

- Confrontation Clause rights, this index
- Real Evidence, this index
- Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index

NOTICE

- Best evidence rule
  - intent to offer copy, § 2
  - originals in possession of opponents, § 237
- Depositions, § 3
- Hearsay rules
  - assertions offered to show notice, § 249
  - residual hearsay exception, notice of intent to argue, § 324
- Judicial notice, notice of intent to take, § 333

OATH OR AFFIRMATION

- Competency of witnesses, § 62, 63
- Depositions, § 3
- Former testimony under oath, § 301, 302
- Hearsay exclusion rationale, § 245

OBJECTIONS

- See Admissibility Determinations, this index
- Competency of witness, § 70

OBJECTIVE EVIDENCE

- See Real Evidence, this index

OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

- Hearsay rules, misconduct as admission of party-opponent, § 265

OFFERS OF PROOF

- See also Admissibility Determinations, this index; Preliminary Fact Finding, this index
- Appellate court requirements, § 51

OFFERS OF PROOF—Cont'd

- Cross-examination questions, offers of proof in support of, § 29
- Objections eliciting, § 51
- Relevancy objections, § 51

OFFICIAL CERTIFICATES

- See Certificates, this index

OFFICIAL RECORDS

- See Records, this index

OFFICIAL REPORTS

- See Reports, this index

OPENING DOOR TO ADMISSION OF EVIDENCE

- Bolstering, door-opening effect, § 57
- Cross-examination
  - half-open door rule, § 21
  - open door rule, § 21, 49
- Fighting fire with fire, § 57
- Invited error, § 57
- Waivers of evidence objections, § 56, 57

OPENING STATEMENTS

- Argumentative matter, § 4
- Demonstrative aids used in, § 214
- Hearsay rules, opening state remarks as admissions of party-opponents, § 254, 259
- Judicial interruptions, § 8
- Motions in limine affecting, § 52
- Right to open and close, § 4

OPINION POLLS

- Evidentiary use, § 208

OPINIONS

- Generally, § 10 et seq.
- Authentication of handwriting, § 212, 223
- Capacity to make a will, lay opinions, § 12
- Care, character for, § 189
- Character opinions, impeachment based on, § 43
- Character proof, § 186
- Collective fact rule, lay opinions, § 11

INDEX

OPINIONS—Cont'd

- Competency of witnesses, opinion rules applicability, § 69
- Dying declarations containing, § 313
- Evolution of rule against opinions, § 11
- Expert opinions
  - generally, § 13 et seq.
  - see also Expert Witnesses, this index
  - lay and expert testimony distinguished, § 11, 12
- Facts distinguished, § 11, 12
- Foundation requirements, expert opinions, § 13
- Handwriting authentication, § 212, 223
- Hearsay rules
  - dying declaration opinions, § 313
  - party-opponents' opinions, § 256
  - public records and reports, opinions in, § 296
- Hypothetical Questions, this index
- Impeachment based on character opinions, § 43
- Inconsistent opinions, § 35
- Inferences as lay opinions, § 11
- Intoxication, § 11
- Kinship, § 10
- Law, opinions on questions of, § 12
- Lay opinions
  - generally, § 10 et seq.
  - capacity to make a will, § 12
  - collective fact rule, § 11
  - evolution of rule against opinions, § 11
  - expert opinions distinguished, § 11, 12
  - facts distinguished, § 11, 12
  - handwriting authentication, § 212
  - hearsay rules distinguished, § 10
  - inferences, § 11
  - intoxication, § 11
  - kinship, § 10
  - mental state, § 12
  - rational basis, § 11
  - reasoning processes, § 11
  - relativity of the opinion rule, § 12

OPINIONS—Cont'd

- Lay opinions—Cont'd
  - short-hand rendition rule, § 11
  - skilled lay observers, § 11
  - state of mind, § 11
  - testamentary capacity, § 12
- Mental state opinions, § 12
- Objections, tactical considerations, § 52
- Out-of-court statements, § 18
- Party-opponents' opinions, hearsay rules, § 256
- Penultimate questions, § 12
- Personal knowledge rule
  - generally, § 10
  - character opinions, § 43
- Prior inconsistent opinions, § 35
- Public opinion polls as evidence, § 208
- Public records and reports, hearsay as to opinions in, § 296
- Rational basis for lay opinion, § 11
- Reasoning processes as lay opinions, § 11
- Reform proposals, expert opinions, § 18
- Relativity of the opinion rule, § 12
- Sanity, § 12
- Short-hand rendition rule, § 11
- State of mind, § 11
- Testamentary capacity, § 12
- Truthfulness, § 12
- Ultimate issue opinions
  - generally, § 12
  - hypothetical questions evading ultimate issue rule, § 14
- Voice identification, § 212, 221, 228
- Weight accorded
  - expert opinions, § 12, 14, 15
  - lay opinions, § 12

ORDER OF PRESENTATION OF EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 4

ORDER OF PROOF

- Affirmative defenses, § 4
- Authentication witnesses, order of calling, § 2

ORDER OF PROOF—Cont'd

- Connecting up doctrine, § 58
- Cross-examination, § 23
- Discretion of court, § 24

OTHER HAPPENINGS AND TRANSACTIONS

- Convictions of Crime, this index
- Relevancy, this index

OWNERSHIP

- Reputation evidence, § 322

PAIN STATEMENTS

- Hearsay rules, § 273

PARENT-CHILD RELATIONSHIPS

- Privilege, § 88

PAROLE AND PROBATION PROCEEDINGS

- Exclusionary rules, § 174

PARTIALITY

- See Bias and Prejudice, this index

PARTIES

- Admissions of party-opponents
  - generally, § 254 et seq.
  - see also Hearsay, this index
- Competency as witnesses
  - generally, § 65
  - spouses of parties
    - generally, § 66
    - disqualification procedure, § 70
    - paternity issues, § 67
- Former testimony as hearsay exception, identity of parties, § 303
- Governmental parties, privileges, § 109
- Privilege assertions by party vs non-party owners, § 73.1
- Similar happenings and transactions involving. See Relevancy, this index

PARTNERSHIPS

- Self-incrimination privilege
  - applicability, § 141

PATERNITY ISSUES

- Competency of spouse of party, § 67
- Presumptions, § 344

PATERNITY ISSUES—Cont'd

- Testing
  - generally, § 211 et seq.
  - serologic tests, § 205

PEDIGREE

- Hearsay rules, § 322

PEER REVIEW COMMITTEES

- Expert witness qualification, § 202
- Privileges, § 76.2

PERCEPTION

- Firsthand Knowledge, this index
- Personal Knowledge, this index
- Real evidence perception by smell or taste, § 212
- Witnesses, perception capacity, § 62

PERJURY

- See also Truthfulness, this index
- Accused's story, examiner's dilemma, § 5
- Competency of witnesses, perjury convictions, § 64
- Cross-examination to disclose, § 30
- Former testimony evidence, § 301
- Narrative testimony including, § 5
- Prior inconsistent statements disclosing, § 28
- Writings disclosing, § 28

PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

- See also Competency and Capacity of
  - Witnesses, this index; Firsthand Knowledge, this index; Opinions, this index
- Admissibility challenges, § 53
- Admissions of party-opponents, hearsay rules, § 255
- Character opinions, § 43
- Competency of witnesses, personal knowledge rule applicability, § 69
- Dying declarations, § 313
- Evolution of rule against opinions, § 11
- Firsthand knowledge as, § 290
- Firsthand knowledge rule, § 10
- Foundation establishing, § 10

INDEX

PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

—Cont'd

- Hearsay rules
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 255
  - dying declarations, § 313
  - personal knowledge and hearsay exclusion rules compared, § 247
  - records regularly kept, § 290
  - residual hearsay exception, § 324
- Hypothetical questions, § 14
- Judicial Notice, this index
- Memory and knowledge distinguished, § 10
- Records of past recollection, § 280
- Surveillance video observations, § 248

PERSUASION BURDEN

- See Burdens of Proof, this index

PHOTOGRAPHS

- Generally, § 215
- Authentication
  - generally, § 215
  - electronic evidence, § 227
- Balancing prejudice and probative value, § 212
- Best evidence rule
  - generally, § 231, 233
  - electronic photographs, § 235
- Color photographs, § 215
- Copies, photographic, § 236
- Demonstrative aids, § 215
- Digital manipulation of electronic photographs, § 215
- Electronic
  - generally, § 215
  - authentication, § 227
  - best evidence rule, § 235
- Enhanced images, § 214
- Enlarged photographs, § 215
- Foundation, § 215
- Gruesome photographs, § 212
- Illustrative vs substantive use, § 212
- Independent substantive evidence, photographs relevant as, § 215
- Independent substantive use, § 215

PHOTOGRAPHS—Cont'd

- Materiality, § 212
- Pictorial testimony use, § 215
- Posed vs candid, § 215
- Relevance, § 215
- Silent witness evidence, § 215
- Surveillance, § 215
- Testimony as alternative proof of contents, § 234
- X-rays, § 215

PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATIONS

- Blood sample extraction, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Discovery, § 3
- Hearsay rules, refusal as admission of party-opponent, § 264
- Privacy rights, § 44
- Privilege applicability to examinations directed by third parties, § 99
- Psychiatric testimony based on, § 44

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS OF A PERSON

- Real evidence, § 217

PHYSICAL CONDITION STATEMENTS

- See Hearsay, this index

PHYSICAL EVIDENCE

- See Real Evidence, this index

PHYSICAL INJURIES

- Exhibition to the jury, § 217

PHYSICIAN-PATIENT PRIVILEGE

- Generally, § 98
- Criminal prosecutions, § 104
- Death certificates, § 101
- Death of patient, § 102
- Defenses waiving, § 103
- Drug crimes, § 99
- Ex parte contact with treating physicians, § 103
- Examinations directed by third parties, § 99
- Exempted proceedings, § 104

PHYSICIAN-PATIENT PRIVILEGE
—Cont'd

- Family members present during communications, § 101
- Future of privilege, § 105
- Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, § 98
- Hospital records, § 100
- Lawyer-client privilege compared, § 105
- Medical malpractice cases, § 104
- Non-patient employed physicians, § 99
- Nurses and attendants present during communications, § 101
- Origins, § 98
- Patient-litigant exception, § 103
- Policy of privilege, § 105
- Privacy protections, § 98
- Psychiatrists and psychotherapists generally, § 98
waiver, § 103
- Relationship requirements, § 99
- Reports of physicians pursuant to law, § 101
- Scope of privilege, § 100
- Subject matter of privilege, § 100
- Third parties present during communications, § 101
- Unlawful purposes, physician consultation for, § 99
- Waiver, § 103
- Who can claim privilege, § 98
- Who may claim privilege, § 102
- Worker compensation cases, § 104

PLAIN ERROR

- Harmless error distinguished, § 52

PLEADINGS

- Admissions of party-opponents in, § 257
- Burdens of proof relationship, § 336, 337
- Discovery requirements, notice pleading, § 2, 3
- Evidentiary use generally, § 257
- Hearsay rules, admissions of party-opponents, § 257

PLEADINGS—Cont'd

- Notice pleading discovery requirements, § 2, 3

PLEAS, EVIDENTIARY USE

- Admissions made in negotiations, § 266
- Admissions made in plea bargaining, § 160
- Guilty pleas, § 257
- Nolo contendere pleas, § 42, 160, 266

POLYGRAPH EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 206.3

POST-TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER

- Expert opinions, § 206

PREDECESSORS IN INTEREST

- Declarations as admissions of party-opponents, § 260

PREDICATES FOR ADMISSION OF EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 10, 51, 53
- Foundation, this index
- Preliminary Fact Finding, this index

PREJUDICE

- Balancing Prejudice and Probative Value, this index
- Bias and Partiality, this index
- Cross-examination, prejudicial questions, § 29

PRELIMINARY FACT FINDING

- Generally, § 53
- See also Admissibility Determinations, this index; Offers of Proof, this index
- Against interest declarations, hearsay rules, § 319
- Agency status, § 259
- Bias and partiality impeachment, § 39
- Competency of witnesses, § 70
- Conditional relevancy objections, § 53
- Connecting up doctrine, § 58
- Conspiracy existence, § 53, 259
- Dying declarations, § 53, 310

INDEX

PRELIMINARY FACT FINDING

—Cont'd

- Excited utterances, § 272
- Hearsay issues
  - generally, § 53
  - see also Hearsay, this index
- Judicial notice, preliminary fact finding distinguished, § 328, 332
- Leading questions to elicit preliminary matters, § 6
- Objections, preliminary questions of fact arising on, § 53
- Order of proof, § 53
- Records of past recollection, proof of record accuracy, § 283
- Records regularly kept, hearsay rules, § 292
- Relevance objections, § 53
- Spontaneous statements, hearsay rules, § 270
- Voir dire to determine, § 53
- Witness competency, § 53

PRELIMINARY HEARINGS

- Exclusionary rules, § 174
- Probable cause, hearsay evidence, § 245

PRESUMPTIONS

- Generally, § 342 et seq.
- See also Burdens of Proof, this index
- Affirmative defenses in criminal cases
  - generally, § 346 et seq.
  - constitutionality, § 347
  - creation of affirmative defenses, § 348
  - instructing the jury, § 348
  - mandatory and permissive presumptions, § 347
  - reasonable doubt standard, applicability, § 347
  - statutory presumptions, § 347
- Application, § 347
- Balancing of, § 344
- Burden shifting, § 342, 343
- Bursting bubble theory, § 344
- Categories, § 344
- Chain of custody, presumptive regularity, § 213

PRESUMPTIONS—Cont'd

- Child witnesses, competency, § 62
- Choice of law issues affecting, § 349
- Civil cases effects, § 344
- Competency of child witnesses, § 62
- Conclusive
  - generally, § 342
  - criminal cases, § 347
- Conflicting, § 344
- Constitutional questions
  - Affirmative defenses in criminal cases, above
  - civil cases, § 345
  - criminal cases, § 345 et seq.
- Creation, § 347, 348
- Criminal cases
  - Affirmative defenses in criminal cases, above
  - constitutional questions, § 345 et seq.
  - statutory presumptions, § 347
- Definitions, § 342, 344
- Effects, § 344
- Evidence
  - presumption arising from failure to produce, § 264
  - presumptions as, § 344
- Fact, presumptions of, § 342
- General and specific, § 344
- Inconsistent presumptions, § 344
- Inferences and, interrelationship, § 344
- Inferences compared, § 342
- Innocence, § 342
- Instructing the jury, affirmative defenses in criminal cases, § 348
- Irrebuttable, § 342
- Mandatory and permissive
  - generally, § 264, 342, 346
  - affirmative defenses in criminal cases, § 347
- Middle ground presumptions, § 344
- Policy-based, § 343, 344
- Presumptions based on presumptions, § 338
- Probabilities justifying, § 343
- Probative value, § 344

PRESUMPTIONS—Cont'd

- Rational connection between basic and presumed facts, § 345
- Reasonable doubt applicability, affirmative defenses in criminal cases, § 347
- Reasons for creation, § 343
- Rebuttable, § 342
- Rebuttal, § 347
- Res ipsa loquitur, § 342
- Shifting of burdens effect, § 344
- Social policy-based, § 343, 344
- Specific and general, § 344
- Statutory presumptions, criminal cases, § 347
- Substantive rules of law, presumptions implementing, § 342
- Witness, failure to call, § 264
- Writings, presumptive authenticity, § 229.1

PRETRIAL CONFERENCES

- Generally, § 3
- Authenticity of writings issues, § 229
- Expert witness issues, § 18

PRIMA FACIE CASE

- Generally, § 342
- See also Burdens of Proof, this index

PRIOR CONSISTENT STATEMENTS

- See also Credibility, this index
- Hearsay, this index
- Identification statements, hearsay rules, § 251
- Rehabilitation
  - generally, § 249
  - prior inconsistent statement impeachment, § 47
- Substantive use, hearsay rules, § 251
- Trustworthiness, § 251

PRIOR INCONSISTENT STATEMENTS

- Generally, § 34 et seq.
- See also Credibility, this index
- Admissions, inconsistent, § 37
- Affidavits containing, § 34

PRIOR INCONSISTENT STATEMENTS—Cont'd

- Collateral fact rule
  - generally, § 36
  - impeachment, § 49
- Collateral matters, § 36
- Compromise negotiations, § 266
- Confrontation requirement, § 37
- Credibility impeachment, hearsay rules, § 249
- Cross-examination as to reasons, § 251
- Degrees of inconsistency, § 34
- Depositions
  - generally, § 34
  - foundation requirements, § 37
- Extrinsic and intrinsic
  - generally, § 33
- Extrinsic and intrinsic inconsistency, § 36
- Former testimony, § 301
- Foundation requirements, § 37
- Hearsay, this index
- Impeachment
  - collateral fact rule, § 49
  - intrinsic and extrinsic, § 33
  - own witness, impeachment of, § 38
  - rehabilitation of impeached witnesses, § 47
  - substantive evidentiary use, § 34
- Interrogatory answers, inconsistent, § 37
- Leading questions to elicit, § 37
- Opinions, inconsistent, § 35
- Perjury impeachment, § 28
- Proof, § 34
- Reasons, cross-examination as to, § 251
- Refreshing recollection as to prior statement, § 37
- Rehabilitation of impeached witnesses, § 47
- Self-contradiction
  - generally, § 33
  - specific contradiction distinguished, § 34
- Substantive use
  - generally, § 36

INDEX

PRIOR INCONSISTENT

STATEMENTS—Cont'd

- Substantive use—Cont'd
  - hearsay rules, § 251
  - impeachment use compared, § 34
- Surprise requirement, § 38
- Tests for inconsistency, § 34
- Voucher rule, § 38
- Writings, inconsistent, § 28

PRIORS

- See Convictions of Crime, this index

PRIVACY RIGHTS

- Exclusionary rules, privacy right
  - justifications, § 165
- Physical and mental examinations, § 44
- Physician-patient privilege, § 98
- Privileges protecting, § 53, 72, 77
- Self-incrimination privilege, § 116
- Victims of crime, § 44
- Witness discovery, § 44
- Witnesses, § 44, 46

PRIVIES IN ESTATE

- Hearsay rules, declarations as admissions of party-opponents, § 260

PRIVILEGES, § Spouses. See Marital Communications Privileges, refreshing recollection with privileged writing 93, this index

- Generally, § 72 et seq.
- See also Refusal to Testify, this index
- Accountants, § 76.2
- Adverse arguments based on privilege claims, § 74.1
- Appeals, § 73.1
- Assertions. Invocations, below
- Civil vs criminal proceedings
  - informer's privilege, § 111
  - self-incrimination privilege, § 117
- Common law, § 75
- Conditional, § 77
- Confessions, this index
- Confidential employees, communications with, § 76.2
- Conflict of laws, § 73.2, 76.1

PRIVILEGES, § Spouses. See

Marital Communications

Privileges, refreshing recollection with privileged writing 93, this index—Cont'd

- Confrontation Clause rights overriding privileges rules, § 74.2
- Constitutional law
  - generally, § 114 et seq.
  - Confessions, this index
  - Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index
- Constitutional limitations, § 74.2
- Current pattern
  - generally, § 76
  - federal courts, § 76.1, 77
  - state courts, § 76.2
- Discretion of court as to assertions, § 77
- Eavesdroppers
  - generally, § 74
  - marital communications privilege, § 82
- Effect, § 72
- Effectiveness limitations, § 74 et seq.
- Evolution of privilege jurisprudence, § 75, 77
- Exclusion by judge on own motion
  - absent an objection, § 55
- Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Executive, § 74.2, 108
- Exercises. Invocations, below
- Failure to call privileged witness as conduct admission of party-opponent, hearsay rules conflicts, § 264
- Federal courts, § 76.1, 77
- First Amendment conflicts, § 113
- Forum in which privilege may be asserted, § 73.2
- Future of privilege jurisprudence, § 77
- Governmental Secrets Privileges, this index
- Grand jury proceedings, § 113
- Hearsay rules
  - failure to call privileged witness as conduct admission of party-opponent, § 264

PRIVILEGES, § Spouses. See
Marital Communications
Privileges, refreshing recollection with privileged writing 93, this index—Cont'd
Hearsay rules—Cont'd privilege exercises and available-unavailable witness distinction, § 253
Hospital records, § 293
Improperly obtained evidence. See
    Exclusionary Rules, this index
Incompetent and privileged evidence distinguished, § 74.1, 102
Inferences from claims, § 74.1
Informer's Privilege, this index
Intercepted information, § 74
Interpreters, lawyer-client communications made through, § 91
Invocations
    hearsay rules, available and unavailable witness distinction, § 253
    Self-Incrimination Privilege, this
    index
Journalists, § 76.2
Judges, confidential communications with, § 88
Jurors, § 68
Lawyer-Client Privilege, this index
Limitations on effectiveness, § 74 et seq.
Marital Communications Privileges,
this index
Medical records, § 293
Medical review committees, § 76.2
Model code treatments, § 75
Non-party privilege owners, procedure to assert, § 73.1
Origins, § 75
Owners, § 73.1
Parent-child relationships, § 88
Particularized need, qualified privileges, § 108, 113
Peer review committees, § 76.2
Personal, self-incrimination privilege as, § 119
Physician-Patient Privilege, this
index

PRIVILEGES, § Spouses. See
Marital Communications
Privileges, refreshing recollection with privileged writing 93, this
index—Cont'd
Privacy rights protections, § 53, 72, 77
Procedure to assert
    generally, § 73 et seq.
    appeals, § 73.1
    discretion of court, § 77
    forum in which privilege may be asserted, § 73.2
    non-party privilege owners, § 73.1 owners of privileges, § 73.1
    waivers, § 73
    where may privilege be asserted, § 73.2
    who may assert, § 73.1
Production of documents in discovery, privilege waivers through, § 3
Psychiatrists and psychotherapists
    generally, § 98
    waiver, § 103
Purposes of privilege rules, § 72
Qualified
    generally, § 77
    governmental secrets privileges, § 108
    informer's privilege, § 74.2
    judicial determinations, § 110 particularized need, § 108, 113 Refreshing recollection with privileged writing, § 9
Rules creating and defining, § 75
Scope, § 72
Self-Incrimination Privilege, this
index
Sources, § 75
Standing to assert
    generally, § 73.1
    physician-patient privilege, § 102
    spousal privileges, § 66
State courts, § 76.2
Statutory, § 75
Stolen information, § 74

INDEX

PRIVILEGES, § Spouses. See Marital Communications Privileges, refreshing recollection with privileged writing 93, this index—Cont'd

- Suspension of qualified privileges, § 77
- Thefts breaching, § 74
- Third parties present during communications
  - lawyer-client privilege, § 91
  - physician-patient privilege, § 101
- Waivers
  - generally, § 73
  - governmental secrets privileges,
§ 107
  - lawyer-client privilege
    - generally, § 93
    - corporate clients, § 87.1
  - marital communications privilege,
§ 83
  - physician-patient privilege, § 103
  - psychiatrists and psychotherapists,
§ 103
  - self-incrimination privilege
    - accused persons, § 129
    - witnesses, § 133
  - who can waive, § 76.2
- Warnings, self-incrimination privilege, § 131
- Where may privilege be asserted,
§ 73.2
- Who may assert, § 73.1
- Wiretapping statutes, § 74
- Witnesses, historical protection
  - against degrading and disgraceful matters questions, § 41

PROBABILITIES

- Burdens of proof, probabilities effecting allocations, § 337
- Identification, § 210
- Identification evidence, validity probabilities, § 210
- Paternity, § 211 et seq.
- Preponderance of, § 339
- Presumptions justified by, § 343
- Relevancy issues, § 190
- Statistical studies, § 208, 209

PROBABLE CAUSE

- Hearsay admission at hearings to determine, § 245
- Informer privilege issues, § 111

PROBATIVE VALUE

- Generally, § 184, 185.2
- Balancing Prejudice and Probative
Value, this index
- Customary behavior evidence, § 195
- Habit evidence, § 195
- Presumptions having, § 344
- Real evidence, § 212
- Relevancy and, § 184, 185.2

PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

- Best evidence rule, discovery procedures rendering rule obsolete, § 232
- Discovery, privilege waivers through,
§ 3
- Lawyer-client privilege issues, § 96
- Objections at trial to previously produced documents, § 55
- Self-incrimination privilege, § 138

PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE BURDEN

- See Burdens of Proof, this index

PRODUCTS LIABILITY

- Relevance of similar accidents and injuries evidence, § 200

PROFFER

- Definition, § 51

PROFILE EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 210
- Accident proneness, § 189
- DNA profiles, § 15
- Psychological profiles, § 203, 206.7

PROOF

- Admissibility issues, proof value of evidence admitted without objection, § 54
- Admissions requests to resolve proof matters, § 3
- Affirmative defenses, order of proof, § 4

PROOF—Cont'd

Appellate courts, offers of proof requirements, § 51
 Argument, offers of proof in, § 4
 Authenticate of writings by proof of handwriting, § 223
 Authentication, standard of proof, § 212
 Best evidence rule, proof of contents element, § 234
 Burdens of Proof, this index
 Case-in-chief, § 4
 Character, this index
 Clear, strong and convincing proof, § 339
 Clear and convincing proof, § 340
 Conviction of crime, § 42
 Corpus delicti, § 145
 Criminal convictions, § 42
 Definitions, § 336
 Demonstrations in aid of, § 212
 Discovery, this index
 Expert opinion bases, § 15
 Facts not in evidence, questions to witnesses assuming, § 6
 Foreign law, § 335
 Formal and informal, § 2
 Former testimony offered as hearsay exception, § 307
 Foundation matters
     Foundation, this index
     Preliminary Fact Finding, this index
 Handwriting proof to authenticate writings, § 223
 Hypothetical question assumptions, § 15
 Judicially noticed matters, § 329
 Negatives, proof problems, § 200
 Offers of proof in argument, § 4
 Order of presentation of evidence, § 4
 Order of Proof, this index
 Perjury, § 30
 Personal knowledge of witness, § 10
 Preliminary Fact Finding, this index
 Preparation and presentation, § 1 et seq.
 Presumptions, this index

PROOF—Cont'd

Pretrial conference treatment of proof matters, § 3
 Prior inconsistent statements, § 34
 Questions to witnesses assuming facts not in evidence, § 6
 Real evidence collection, § 2
 References to masters for findings, § 3
 Reputation, proof of to impeach, § 43
 Standard of proof
     authentication, § 212
     chain of custody, § 213
 Stipulations in aid of, § 2
 Theory of the case and proof development, § 2

PROPENSITY EVIDENCE

See Relevancy, this index

PROPERTY SALES

Relevance of similar sales to show value, § 199

PROVISIONAL ADMISSIBILITY

Generally, § 58

PSYCHIATRIC TESTIMONY

Impeachment based on sanity defects, § 44

PSYCHIATRISTS AND PSYCHOTHERAPISTS PRIVILEGE

Generally, § 98
 Waiver, § 103

PSYCHOLOGY

Scientific evidence, § 206 et seq.

PUBLIC OPINION

Polls as evidence, § 208

PUBLIC RECORDS

See Records, this index

PUBLIC REPORTS

See Reports, this index

PUBLICATIONS

Hearsay rules, § 321

INDEX

QUESTIONS

See Examination of Witnesses, this index

RAPE

See Sex Crimes, this index

REAL EVIDENCE

Generally, § 212

Ancient Documents, this index

Appeal, preservation for, § 212

Authentication requirements

generally, § 212 et seq.

see also Authentication, this index

Balancing prejudice and probative value, § 212

Best Evidence Rule, this index

Chain of custody, § 213

Charts as pedagogic aids, § 214

Compelled production, self-incrimination privilege, § 124, 137

Computer-assisted presentations, § 212

Computer-generated pedagogic aids, § 214

Computer-generated simulations and models, § 218

Confrontation Clause rights, forensic analysis reports, § 252, 296

Demonstrative Aids, this index

Discretion of court to exclude, § 212

Drawings and diagrams offered as demonstrative aids, § 214

Duplicates, § 214

Exclusionary rules applicability, testimony and physical evidence distinguished, § 179

Exhibits, this index

Forensic analysis reports, Confrontation Clause rights, § 252, 296

Fruit of the poisonous tree doctrine. See Exclusionary Rules, this index

Gruesome exhibits or demonstrations, § 212

Guns, § 213

Illustrative vs substantive use, § 212

Improperly obtained. See Exclusionary Rules, this index

In-court re-enactments, § 217

REAL EVIDENCE—Cont'd

Inscribed and uninscribed objects, best evidence rule, § 233

Jury access during deliberations, § 220

Laboratory reports, Confrontation Clause rights, § 252, 296

Lawyer-client privilege applicability to evidence in lawyer's possession, § 96

Maps as demonstrative aids, § 214

Misleading or confusing the jury, § 212

Models offered as demonstrative aids, § 214

Photographs, this index

Physical characteristics of a person, § 217

Physical injuries, exhibition to the jury, § 217

Pictorial testimony theory, § 212

Preservation for appeal, § 212

Probative value, § 212

Relevance vs illustrative theories of admittance, § 212

Samples of larger mass, § 213

Scars, § 217

Self-incrimination privilege, physical evidence protected, § 124, 137

Smell, perception by, § 212

Summaries as pedagogic aids, § 214

Surveillance photographs, § 215

Taste, perception by, § 212

Tattoos, § 19, 212, 217

Terminology, § 212

Testimonial evidence distinguished, § 212

Testimony distinguished, exclusionary rules applicability, § 179

Video, Film and Sound Recordings, this index

Views by jury, § 219

Weapons, § 213

Writings, this index

X-rays, § 215

REASONING

Lay opinions, reasoning processes as, § 11

RECOLLECTION

See Refreshing Recollection, this index

RECORD EVIDENCE

Generally, § 51

RECORDATION

See also Transcripts, this index
Depositions, recordation means, § 3

RECORDINGS

Best evidence rule, § 231, 233
Completeness doctrine, § 56
Telephone Conversations, this index
Video, Film and Sound Recordings, this index

RECORDS

Acknowledged and certified documents and records, § 229.1
Admissible evidence as record evidence, § 51
Authentication
    public records, § 212, 226
    records of regularly conducted activities, § 229.1
Best evidence rule exception public records, § 240
Business Records, this index
Confessions, mandatory recording, § 158
Confrontation Clause rights, testimonial vs nontestimonial evidence, § 252
Conviction of crime proof, § 42
Criminal record questions on cross-examination, § 29
Electronic records regularly kept, § 294
Evidence, record, § 51
Governmental records protection, § 106
Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, § 98
Hearsay rules
    records regularly kept, § 284 et seq.
    vital statistics records, § 297
Hospital records
    hearsay rules, § 293

RECORDS—Cont'd

Hospital records—Cont'd
    privileges, § 293
Medical records, § 293
Physician-patient privilege applicable to hospital records, § 100
Police records as records regularly kept for purposes of hearsay rules, § 288
Public records
    authentication, § 212, 226
    best evidence rule exception, § 240 burden of proof of trustworthiness, § 296
    Confrontation Clause rights, § 252
    governmental records protection, § 106
    Hearsay, this index
    physician-patient privilege applicability to death certificates, § 101
Public vs private, § 139
Refreshing recollection, records stimulating
    generally, § 279
    see also Hearsay, this index
Regularly conducted activities records, authentication, § 229.1
Self-authentication of public records, § 226, 229.1
Self-incrimination privilege, required records, § 139
Testimonial vs nontestimonial evidence, Confrontation Clause rights, § 252
Vital statistics records, § 297

RECOVERED MEMORIES

Generally, § 203, 206

REFEREES

Discretion of court to use, § 18

REFRESHING RECOLLECTION

Generally, § 9
See also Memory, this index
Deposition testimony used for, § 9
Former testimony evidence, § 301
Grand jury testimony use, § 113
Hearsay exception, § 9

INDEX

REFRESHING RECOLLECTION —Cont'd

- Hypnotically developed recollections, § 206.4
- Informal discovery and witness interviews, § 9
- Leading questions to refresh, § 6, 9
- Memoranda of past recollection generally, § 251
  - see also Hearsay, this index
  - distinctions, § 279
  - evidentiary use, § 279 et seq.
- Prior inconsistent statement offered to impeach, refreshing recollection as to prior statement, § 37
- Privileged writing used to refresh, § 9, 93

REFUSAL TO TESTIFY

- See also Privileges, this index
- Credibility, refusal to answer questions relevant to, § 19
- Cross-examination, take-the-answer rule, § 49
- Cross-examination refusal, § 19
- Hearsay, available/unavailable witness distinction, § 253
- Interrogation refusals, Miranda rules, § 152
- Oath, refusal to take, § 63, 70

REHABILITATION

- See also Bolstering, this index;
Impeachment, this index
- Corroboration distinguished, § 47

RELEVANCY

- Generally, § 184 et seq.
- Absence of prior accidents, § 200
- Accidents
  - proneness evidence, § 189
  - similar matters evidence, § 200
- Actions, character evidence offered to prove, § 186
- Admissibility determinations, § 184
- Assault prosecutions, victim character, § 193
- Background evidence questions on cross-examination, § 29

RELEVANCY—Cont'd

- Bad character in criminal prosecutions, § 190
- Balancing prejudice and probative value
  - generally, § 185.6
  - similar matters evidence, § 196 et seq.
- Behavior, characteristic, § 187
- Business transaction disputes, similar matters evidence, § 198
- Care, evidence of character for, § 189
- Causation, similar incidents evidence, § 200
- Character evidence
  - generally, § 186 et seq.
  - see also Character, this index
  - impeachment, character-based, § 41
- Circumstantial evidence, § 185.3
- Claims of a party, similar matters evidence, § 196
- Common plan evidence, § 190
- Complete-the-story rationale for admission, § 190
- Computer-generated models and simulations, § 218
- Conditional relevancy
  - generally, § 15
  - foundational facts, § 53
- Conduct on particular occasion, habit and conduct as evidence of, § 195
- Conduct to prove character
  - generally, § 186 et seq.
  - see also Character, this index
- Consciousness of guilt evidence, § 190
- Conspiracy, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190
- Contracts disputes, similar matters evidence, § 198
- Criminal record questions on cross-examination, § 29
- Cross-examination, § 29
- Custom as evidence of conduct on particular occasion, § 195
- Dangerous conditions, similar incidents evidence, § 200

RELEVANCY—Cont'd

- Defenses of a party, similar matters evidence, § 196
- Definition of relevance, § 185
- Deliberation, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Demonstrations and experiments presented as real evidence, § 217
- Determinations of relevance, § 185
- Direct and circumstantial evidence, § 185.3
- Direct and circumstantial evidence distinctions, § 185.3
- Discretion of court as to admission, § 200
- Existence of a larger plan or scheme, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.2
- Experimental and Scientific Evidence, this index
- Experiments presented as real evidence, § 217
- Exploratory questions on cross-examination, § 29
- Fear statements, § 276
- Former testimony offered as hearsay exception, objections that could have made, § 306
- Foundational facts, relevance objections, § 53
- Frauds, similar matters evidence, § 197
- Good character in criminal prosecutions, § 187
- Habit as evidence of conduct on particular occasion, § 195
- Homicide prosecutions, victim character, § 193
- Identity, other crimes evidence to prove, § 190.8
- Illustrative relevance, § 212
- Impeachment based on character, § 41
- Independent relevance of character evidence, § 188
- Injuries, similar injuries evidence, § 200
- Insurance against liability, relevance of evidence of, § 201

RELEVANCY—Cont'd

- Judicial ascertainment of relevance, § 185.4
- Judicial notice of relevancy, § 330
- Liability insurance evidence, § 201
- Limited purpose admissibility, § 59
- Malice, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Materiality and, § 185.1
- Meaning of relevance, § 185
- Misrepresentations, similar matters evidence, § 197
- Modus operandi evidence, § 190
- Motive, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.5
- Negligence
  - evidence of character for, § 189
  - liability insurance evidence, § 201
  - similar accidents and injuries evidence, § 200
- Objections based on relevancy, offers of proof, § 51
- Offers of proof, relevancy objections, § 51
- Opinions as to character for care, § 189
- Opportunity, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.6
- Other similar matters. Similar matters evidence, below
- Personality traits as circumstantial evidence, § 186
- Photographs, § 215
- Photographs relevant as independent substantive evidence, § 215
- Prejudicial effect, balancing against probative value
  - Confusion, distraction, and time-consumption, § 185.7
  - Trial judge's discretion, § 185.8
- Probabilities and relevance, § 190
- Probative value, § 184, 185.2
- Products liability, relevance of similar accidents and injuries evidence, § 200
- Propensity evidence
  - generally, § 190

INDEX

RELEVANCY—Cont'd

- Propensity evidence—Cont'd
  - bad character for veracity, impeachment, § 194
  - character, § 186, 190
  - sex crime propensity, other crimes evidence to show, § 190.10
  - similar matters evidence, § 200
- Property sales, similar sales to show value, § 199
- Rape shield laws, § 193
- Real evidence, relevance vs illustrative theories of admittance, § 212
- Remedial safety measures taken after an accident, § 267
- Res gestae, term criticized, § 190
- Safety
  - absence of prior accidents, § 200
  - measures taken after an accident, § 267
- Sex crime propensity, other crimes evidence to show, § 190.10
- Signature criminal behavior evidence, § 190.3
- Similar criminal acts evidence, § 190
- Similar matters evidence
  - generally, § 196
  - accidents, § 200
  - balancing prejudice and probative value, § 196 et seq.
  - business transactions, § 198
  - causation, § 200
  - claims of a party, § 196
  - Common plan, § 197.3
  - contracts, § 198
  - crimes, in criminal prosecutions, § 190
  - dangerous condition issues, § 200
  - defenses of a party, § 196
  - discretion of court to admit, § 200
  - Fabricated claims, § 196.1
  - frauds, § 197
  - Impeachment evidence, § 196.2
  - impeachment through similar crimes evidence, § 190
  - injuries, § 200
  - misrepresentations, § 197

RELEVANCY—Cont'd

- Similar matters evidence—Cont'd
  - nonexistence of similar matters, proof problems, § 200
  - propensity, § 200
  - property sales to show value, § 199
  - slip-and-fall suits, § 200
  - suits of a party, § 196
  - To prove intent to deceive, § 197.2
  - To prove knowledge, § 197.1
- Special relevance of character evidence, § 188
- Specific intent, other crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7
- Tattoos, § 190
- Tests, this index
- Value, similar property sales to show, § 199
- Victim character, evidence to show, § 193
- Views by jury, § 219
- Violence, character for, § 188
- Witness credibility, § 33
- Writings, § 221

RELIABILITY

- See also Authentication, this index; Trustworthiness, this index
- Confessions, this index
- Dying declarations, special reliability, § 310
- Expert witnesses, reliability of methodology, § 199
- Eyewitness identification, expert opinions as to reliability, § 13, 203, 206.5
- Hearsay, this index

RELIGIOUS BELIEFS

- Competency of witnesses, § 46, 63
- Impeachment based on, § 46

REMEDIAL MEASURES

- See Subsequent Remedial Measures, this index

REMOTE EVIDENCE

- See Relevancy, this index

REPORTS

- Accident reports, governmental secrets privileges, § 112
- Authentication, public reports, § 226
- Confrontation Clause rights, testimonial vs nontestimonial evidence, § 252
- Discovery, this index
- Expert opinions based on, § 15
- Expert witness reports discovery, § 3
- Forensic analysis reports, Confrontation Clause rights, § 252, 296
- Governmental secrets privileges, § 112
- Governmental Secrets Privileges, this index
- Hearsay rules
  - investigative reports, § 296
  - litigation, reports made for, § 288
  - reports produced by computer software, § 294
- Investigative reports, hearsay rules, § 296
- Laboratory reports, Confrontation Clause rights, § 252, 296
- Medical reports created for treatment purposes, Confrontation Clause rights, § 252
- Police reports as records regularly kept for purposes of hearsay rules, § 288
- Public reports
  - authentication, § 226
  - burden of proof of trustworthiness, § 296
  - Hearsay, this index
  - physician-patient privilege, reports of physicians pursuant to law, § 101
- Tax Returns, this index
- Testimonial vs nontestimonial evidence, Confrontation Clause rights, § 252

REPUTATION

- See also Character, this index
- Care, character for, § 189
- Family history, § 322
- Financial standing, § 322

REPUTATION—Cont'd

- Good reputation evidence in civil litigation, § 192
- Hearsay rules applicable to reputation evidence, § 249, 322
- Impeachment through reputation evidence of character, § 43
- Land boundaries, § 322
- Ownership, § 322
- Pedigree, § 322
- Proof of to impeach, § 43

RES GESTAE

- Generally, § 268
- Hearsay, this index
- Term criticized, § 190

RES IPSA LOQUITUR

- Generally, § 342

RIGHT TO COUNSEL

- Confessions, Miranda rules, § 152, 154
- Evidentiary use of uncounseled testimony, § 302
- Exclusionary rules enforcing, § 176
- Self-incrimination privilege matters, § 131
- Waivers, § 154

RISK

- Experts, actuarial risk opinions, § 206

RULE IN QUEEN CAROLINE'S CASE

- Impeachment, § 28

SAFETY

- See also Subsequent Remedial Measures, this index
- Relevance of absence of prior accidents evidence, § 200

SANCTIONS

- Cross-examination right, sanctions to enforce, § 19
- Exclusionary rules viewed as, § 164

SANITY

- Impeachment based on sanity defects, § 44
- Opinions, § 12

INDEX

SCARS

Real evidence, § 217

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE

See Experimental and Scientific Evidence, this index

SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES

Judicial notice, § 330

SEARCH AND SEIZURE LAW

Confessions, this index

Exclusionary Rules, this index

SECONDARY EVIDENCE

Generally, § 230

See also Best Evidence Rule, this index

Preferences among types of secondary evidence, § 238

SECRETS

See Governmental Secrets Privileges, this index

SELF-CONTRADICTION

See Prior Inconsistent Statements, this index

SELF-DEFENSE

Battered woman syndrome, § 206

Burden of producing evidence, § 348

Character evidence, § 188, 193

Hearsay rule, communicated threats, § 249, 275

SELF-INCRIMINATION

PRIVILEGE

Generally, § 114 et seq.

Accused person vs witness invocations, § 126 et seq.

Argument alluding to invocation of privilege, § 126

Assertion of privilege. Invocation of privilege, below

Associations, applicability of privilege

generally, § 140

agents and officers, § 141

Authority to grant immunity, § 142

Blanket invocations by witnesses, § 130

Blood samples, § 124

SELF-INCRIMINATION

PRIVILEGE—Cont'd

Burden of persuasion as to claims of, § 132

Burdens on exercise, § 136

Calling a witness to force invocation of privilege, § 134

Character-based impeachment, § 41

Civil vs criminal liabilities. Criminal liability limitation, below

Civil vs criminal proceedings, § 117

Collective entity rule, § 141

Comments on invocation of privilege, § 74.1, 74.2, 126

Communications vs non-testimonial activity, § 124

Compulsion requirement, § 125

Compulsory production, § 138

Conduct protected, § 120

Confrontation Clause conflicts, § 134

Constitutional basis, § 114, 116

Corporations, applicability of privilege

generally, § 140

agents and officers, § 141

Counsel as to rights, § 131

Credibility cross-examinations, § 129

Criminal liability limitation

generally, § 121 et seq.

another jurisdiction, criminal liability in, § 123 distinguishing civil and criminal liability, § 122

immunity grants, § 121

Cross-examination after waiver, § 129

Custodial interrogations vs witnesses in litigation, § 117, 125

Defense witness invocations, § 135

Determinations, § 132

Documents protected, § 137

Electronic devices, § 139.1

Exclusionary Rules, this index

Exercise. Invocation of privilege, below

Explicit vs implied invocations, § 118

Field sobriety testing, § 124

Forfeiture proceedings, § 122

SELF-INCRIMINATION

PRIVILEGE—Cont'd

- Handwriting samples, § 124
- Identification questions, § 124
- Identity protection, § 120
- Immunity grants
  - generally, § 142
  - authority to grant, § 142
  - criminal liability limitation, § 121
  - defense witnesses, § 135
  - evidentiary and non-evidentiary
    - use of immunized testimony, § 143
  - informal immunity, § 142
  - pocket immunity, § 142
  - testimonial immunity, § 143
  - transactional immunity, § 143
  - use immunity, § 143
- Impeachment based on character, § 41
- Impeachment use of invocation, § 127
- Improperly obtained evidence exclusions. See Exclusionary Rules, this index
- Inferences drawn from invocation
  - generally, § 116, 126
  - civil litigation inferences, § 136
- Informal immunity, § 142
- Instructions re invocation of privilege, § 128
- Interrogations in custody vs witnesses in litigation, § 117, 125
- Invocation of privilege
  - generally, § 118, 126 et seq.
  - accused persons vs witnesses, § 126 et seq.
  - argument alluding to, § 126
  - blanket invocations by witnesses, § 130
  - burdens on exercise, § 136
  - calling a witness to force invocation, § 134
  - comments on, § 74.1, 74.2, 126
  - Confrontation Clause conflicts, § 134
  - defense witness invocations, § 135
  - impeachment use, § 127

SELF-INCRIMINATION

PRIVILEGE—Cont'd

- Invocation of privilege—Cont'd
  - Inferences drawn from invocation, above
  - instructions re, § 128
  - penalties for, § 136
  - prosecution witness invocations, § 134
  - resolving privilege claims, § 132
  - retribution following, § 136
  - witness vs accused person invocations, § 130 et seq.
- Labor unions, applicability of privilege to, § 141
- Lawyer's invocation on behalf of client, § 119
- Lineups, § 124
- Natural persons limitation, § 140, 141
- Nature of privilege, § 115
- Non-custodial police questioning, § 125
- Non-testimonial activity, § 124
- Organizations, applicability of privilege
  - generally, § 140
  - agents and officers, § 141
- Origin, § 114
- Partnerships, applicability of privilege to, § 141
- Penalties for invocation of privilege, § 136
- Personal nature of privilege, § 119
- Plea proceedings, § 129
- Pocket immunity, § 142
- Police questioning, non-custodial, § 125
- Policy foundation, § 116
- Privacy protections, § 116
- Prophylactic rules to safeguard the right, § 115
- Prosecution witness invocations, § 134
- Real and appreciable risk of incrimination, § 120
- Real evidence
  - compelled production, § 124
  - obtained as result of privilege denials, § 159

INDEX

SELF-INCRIMINATION

PRIVILEGE—Cont'd

- Real evidence—Cont'd
  - protected, § 137
- Records, required, § 139
- Resolving privilege claims, § 132
- Retribution following invocation of privilege, § 136
- Right to counsel, § 131
- Scope
  - generally, § 115, 117
  - assertive conduct, § 120
  - natural persons vs jural entities, § 140
  - writings, § 137
- Sentencing procedures, § 122
- Silence rights
  - generally, § 126 et seq.
  - Invocation of privilege, above out-of-court silence, § 127
  - tacit confession or admission, § 161
  - witness vs accused person invocations, § 130
- Sobriety testing, § 124
- State and federal rules compared, § 115
- Status of privilege, § 115
- Subpoenas, § 138
- Tax returns, § 118
- Testimonial immunity, § 143
- Testimony vs non-testimonial activity, § 124
- Transactional immunity, § 143
- Use immunity, § 143
- Voice samples, § 124
- Waivers
  - accused persons, § 129
  - witnesses, § 133
- Warnings, § 131
- Witness vs accused person invocations, § 130 et seq.
- Writings protected, § 137

SENSES

- Blind or deaf witnesses, § 62
- Hearsay, present sense impression statements, § 271

SENSES—Cont'd

- Impeachment, sensory capacity defects, § 44
- Real evidence, smell or taste perception, § 212

SENTENCING PROCEEDINGS

- Exclusionary rules, § 174

SEPARATION OF POWERS

- Evidence disputes involving, § 106

SEQUESTRATION

- Witnesses, § 50

SETTLEMENT

- See also Pleas, this index
- Offers to compromise
  - admissions of party-opponents, § 266
  - impeachment, § 266
- Pretrial conferences, § 3
- Prior inconsistent statements in compromise negotiations, § 266

SEX CRIMES

- Child witnesses, bodily feelings, symptoms, and condition statements to physicians made for purposes of testimony, § 278
- Hearsay exceptions, § 272.1
- Shield laws, § 193
- Similar crimes evidence to show propensity, § 190.10
- Victim character, evidence to show, § 193

SHIFTING OF BURDENS

- See Burdens of Proof, this index

SHOP BOOKS

- Hearsay rules, § 285

SIGHT

- Impeachment, vision defects, § 44

SIGNATURES

- Authentication, notarized signatures, § 229.1
- Electronic evidence, digital signatures authentication, § 227
- Notarized signatures, § 229.1

SILENCE

- Admissions by silence of party-opponents, § 262
- Tacit admission, silence as, § 161

SILENCE, RIGHT OF

- Confessions, this index
- Interrogations, this index
- Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index

SILENT WITNESS EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 215

SIMILAR HAPPENINGS AND TRANSACTIONS

- See Relevancy, this index

SLIP-AND-FALL SUITS

- Relevance of similar incidents evidence, § 200

SMELL

- Real evidence perception by, § 212

SOBRIETY TESTING

- Self-incrimination privilege, § 124

SOCIAL SECURITY INFORMATION

- Governmental secrets privileges, § 112

SOUND RECORDINGS

- See Video, Film and Sound Recordings, this index
- Authentication, § 228
- Best evidence rule, § 231, 233
- Completeness doctrine, § 56
- Testimony as alternative proof of contents, § 234

SPECIFIC CONTRADICTION

- See Impeachment, this index

SPECIFIC INTENT

- Similar crimes evidence to establish, § 190.7

SPECULATIVE EVIDENCE

- See Relevancy, this index

SPEECH IMPEDIMENTS

- Examination of witnesses, § 5

SPOILIATION OF EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 265

SPONTANEOUS STATEMENTS

- See Hearsay, this index

SPOUSAL PRIVILEGES

- Common law witness competency rules compared, § 66
- Criminal prosecutions, § 66
- Terminated marriages, § 66

STANDING

- Exclusionary rules, standing to seek suppression, § 175, 176
- Privileges, this index

STATE OF MIND

- Fear statements, hearsay rules, § 276
- Lay opinions, § 11
- Physical or mental condition statements to show, hearsay rules generally, § 274
- subsequent conduct evidence, § 275

STATISTICAL STUDIES

- Generally, § 208 et seq.
- Correlations and causes, § 209 et seq.
- Jury discrimination, statistical evidence, § 209
- Opinion polls, § 208
- Probabilities, § 208, 209 et seq.
- Sampling, § 208
- Surveys, § 208

STIPULATIONS

- Proof, stipulations in aid of, § 2

STRIKE MOTIONS

- Generally, § 52

SUBPOENAS

- Discovery of witnesses, § 3
- Production of Documents, this index
- Records, this index
- Self-incrimination privilege, § 138
- Witness discovery, subpoenas to compel, § 3

SUBSEQUENT REMEDIAL MEASURES

- Generally, § 267

INDEX

SUBSEQUENT REMEDIAL MEASURES—Cont'd

- Exclusion on policy grounds, § 72.1
- Hearsay rules, § 267
- Impeachment use, § 267
- Relevance, § 267

SUMMARIES

- Pedagogic aids, use as, § 214
- Public records, certified summaries, § 300
- Voluminous evidence, § 214, 241

SUPPRESSION MOTIONS

- Admissibility Determinations, this index
- Exclusionary Rules, this index
- In limine motions distinguished, § 52

SURETYSHIP

- Hearsay rules, principal's declarations against surety as admission of party-opponent, § 260

SURPRISE

- Discovery, § 2
- Offers of evidence, balancing prejudice and probative value, § 185.5
- Prior inconsistent statements, surprise requirement, § 38

SURVEILLANCE VIDEO

- Personal knowledge issue, § 248

SURVEY EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 208

SYNDROMES

- Experimental and scientific evidence, § 206.7

TAKE-THE-ANSWER RULE

- See Impeachment, this index

TANGIBLE EVIDENCE

- See Real Evidence, this index

TASTE

- Real evidence, perception by, § 212

TATTOOS

- Identification through, § 217
- Real evidence, § 19, 212

TATTOOS—Cont'd

- Relevancy, § 190
- Self-incrimination claims, § 124

TAX RETURNS

- Governmental secrets privileges, § 112
- Self-incrimination privilege, § 118

TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS

- See also Voice Identification, this index
- Authentication, § 212, 221, 228

TESTAMENTARY CAPACITY

- Lay opinions, § 12

TESTIMONY

- Generally, § 5 et seq.
- See also Examination of Witnesses, this index
- Competency and Capacity of Witnesses, this index
- Confrontation Clause rights, testimonial vs nontestimonial evidence, § 252
- Direct and circumstantial evidence, § 185.3
- Former Testimony as Evidence, this index
- Narrative vs interrogatory testimony, § 5
- Nontestimonial evidence
  - Confrontation Clause rights, this index
  - Real Evidence, this index
  - Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index
- Photographs as pictorial testimony, § 215
- Pictorial testimony theory, real evidence, § 212
- Real and testimonial evidence distinguished, § 212
- Refusal to Testify, this index
- Self-incrimination privilege, testimonial vs non-testimonial activity, § 124
- Speech impediments, § 5

TESTS

- Generally, § 202 et seq.
- See also Experiments, this index
- Blood alcohol testing, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Discovery of test results, § 97
- Expert opinions based on test results, § 15
- Field sobriety testing, self-incrimination privilege, § 124
- Foundation for admission of test results evidence, § 203
- Horizontal gaze nystagmus test for alcohol intoxication, § 203
- Relevancy, § 203

TEXT MESSAGES

- Authentication, § 227

THEORY OF THE CASE

- Proof development to meet, § 2

TOMBSTONES

- Hearsay rules, § 322

TRANSCRIPTS

- Authentication, § 216
- Best evidence rule, § 236
- Depositions, recordation means, § 3
- Former testimony offered as hearsay exception, § 307
- Hearsay exceptions, recordation element, § 324
- Jury access during deliberations, § 220
- Video, film and sound recordings, § 216

TREATISES

- See Learned Treatises, this index

TRIALS

- Evidence admissible as to some of multiple parties, § 59
- Exclusion and separation of witnesses, § 50
- Multiple party trials, evidence admissible as to some parties, § 59
- Testimony as evidence in subsequent proceeding. See Hearsay, this index

TRUSTWORTHINESS

- See also Authentication, this index;
- Reliability, this index
- Against interest declarations, § 316, 319
- Ancient writings, § 323
- Burden of proof, public records and reports, § 296
- Circumstantial evidence, § 324
- Cross-examination as to, § 29
- Dying declarations, § 310
- Electronic evidence, § 294
- Former testimony offered as hearsay exception, § 308
- Hearsay, this index
- Internet information, § 334
- Physical or mental condition statements, § 273
- Prior consistent statements, § 251
- Public records and reports
  - burden of proof, § 296
  - hearsay rules, § 295, 296
- Records regularly kept, § 288, 292
- Records used to refresh recollection, § 251
- Spontaneous statements, § 270

TRUTHFULNESS

- See also Authentication, this index;
- Perjury, this index
- Against interest declarations, § 319
- Bad character for veracity, § 194
- Character impeachment
  - generally, § 40
  - bad character for veracity, § 194
  - rehabilitation, § 22
- Circumstantial evidence, truthfulness of witness as, § 40
- Confessions, truthfulness requirement, § 147
- Dying declarations, § 309
- Expert's opinions, § 206
- Hearsay, this index
- Impeachment, veracity reputation questions, § 43
- Opinions, § 12
- Rehabilitation evidence of truthful character, § 22
- Reputation for veracity, § 43

INDEX

ULTIMATE ISSUE

- Generally, § 12
- Hypothetical questions evading ultimate issue rules, § 14
- Judicially noticed facts touching, § 332
- Opinions touching, § 12
- Preliminary facts questions coinciding with, § 53

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION INFORMATION

- Governmental secrets privileges, § 112

VALIDITY

- Expert opinions
  - generally, § 13
  - peer review validation, § 202
- Identification evidence, validity probabilities, § 210
- Scientific evidence, methodology validation, § 203

VALUE

- Similar property sales to show, § 199

VERACITY

- See Truthfulness, this index

VERIFIABILITY

- See also Authentication, this index
- Computer-generated data, § 227
- Judicially noticed matters, § 330

VICTIMS

- See Criminal Prosecutions, this index

VIDEO, FILM AND SOUND RECORDINGS

- Generally, § 216
- Authentication, § 216
- Best evidence rule, § 231, 233
- Depositions, § 3
- Distortion dangers, § 216
- Experiments and demonstrations, recorded, § 217
- Foundation, § 216
- Hearsay in, § 216
- Illustrative vs substantive evidence uses, § 216

VIDEO, FILM AND SOUND RECORDINGS—Cont'd

- Illustrative vs substantive use, § 212
- Re-enactments, recorded, § 216
- Scripted and unscripted recordings, § 216
- Surreptitious filming, § 216
- Transcripts, § 216
- Unscripted recordings, § 216

VIDEO COMMUNICATION

- See Closed Circuit TV, this index

VISION

- Impeachment, vision defects, § 44

VOICE COMMUNICATIONS

- Authentication, § 221, 228

VOICE IDENTIFICATION

- Opinions, § 212, 221, 228
- Spectrograms, identification, § 207.2
- Telephone Conversations, this index

VOICE SAMPLES

- Self-incrimination privilege, § 124

VOIR DIRE

- Competency of witness, voir dire to determine, § 70
- Jury Trials, this index
- Preliminary fact issues, voir dire to determine, § 53

VOLUMINOUS EVIDENCE

- Summaries, § 214, 241

VOUCHER RULE

- Generally, § 6
- See also Bolstering, this index
- Abandoning jurisdictions, § 38
- Due process conflicts, § 252
- Exceptions, § 38
- Prior inconsistent statements, § 38
- Rationale, § 38

WAIVERS

- Confessions, this index
- Deposition waivers of privileges, effect on trial admissibility, § 3
- Exclusionary rules, § 183
- Marital communications privilege, § 83

WAIVERS—Cont'd

- Objections to evidence, § 55
- Opening Door to Admission of Evidence, this index
- Privileges
  - generally, § 73
  - see also Privileges, this index
  - deposition waivers, effect on trial admissibility, § 3
- Production of documents in
  - discovery, privilege waivers through, § 3
- Right to counsel, § 154
- Who can waive privileges, § 76.2

WARNINGS

- Confessions, Miranda rules, § 152
- Self-incrimination privilege, § 131

WEAPONS

- Authentication of real evidence, § 213

WEBSITE DATA AND POSTINGS

- Authentication, § 227

WEIGHT OF EVIDENCE

- Balancing Prejudice and Probative Value, this index
- Competency of witness affecting, § 62, 255
- Dying declarations, § 314
- Electronic evidence, § 207
- Experimental and scientific evidence, weight accorded, § 203
- Hearsay, § 250, 271
- Judges' comments on, § 8
- Opinions, this index
- Personal knowledge and, § 10
- Presumptions, weightier of conflicting presumptions, § 344
- Scientific evidence, § 203

WIRETAPPING

- See also Electronic Surveillance, this index
- Statutory restrictions, § 74

WITHDRAWAL OF EVIDENCE

- Generally, § 52

WITNESSES

- Child Witnesses, this index
- Competency and Capacity of Witnesses, this index
- Credibility, this index
- Cross-examination. See Examination of Witnesses, this index
- Demeanor, this index
- Direct examination. See Examination of Witnesses, this index
- Discovery, this index
- Examination of Witnesses, this index
- Exclusion during trial, § 50
- Expert Witnesses
- Hostile witnesses. See Examination of Witnesses, this index
- Impeachment, this index
- Interviews, work product protection, § 2
- Leading questions. See Examination of Witnesses, this index
- No-talk instructions of counsel, § 3
- Privileges, this index
- Self-Incrimination Privilege, this index
- Separation and sequestration during trial, § 50
- Subpoenas to compel discovery, § 3

WORK PRODUCT PROTECTION

- Expert reports, § 2
- Lawyer-client privilege compared, § 96
- Refreshing recollection with protected writing, § 9
- Witness interviews, § 2

WRITINGS

- Generally, § 221 et seq.
- Acknowledged and certified documents and records, § 229.1
- Admissibility after partial introduction, § 56
- Admissions of party-opponents, failure to reply to written communication, § 262
- Ancient Documents, this index
- Authentication
  - generally, § 221 et seq.

INDEX

WRITINGS—Cont'd

Authentication—Cont'd

- acknowledged and certified documents and records, § 229.1
  - ancient documents, § 225
  - burden of authentication, § 221
  - burden of proof, § 229
  - computer-generated documents, § 227
  - contents proving, § 224
  - deemed admissions of genuineness, § 229
  - distinctive characteristics, § 224
  - electronic photographs, § 227
  - foreign public documents, § 229.1
  - handwriting, proof of, § 223
  - internal authentication, § 221
  - modern procedural practice, § 229
  - percipient witness proof of authorship, § 222
  - postmarks on letters, § 224
  - presumptive authenticity, § 229.1
  - pretrial conference determinations, § 229
  - reply letters, § 224
  - requests for admissions of authenticity, § 229
  - self-authentication of public records, § 226, 229.1
  - witness testimony to authenticate, § 222
- Best Evidence Rule, this index
- Burden of authentication, § 221
- Completeness doctrine, § 56
- Computer-generated documents, authentication, § 227
- Consistent Past Writings, this index
- Contents proving authentication, § 224
- Cross-examination, inconsistent past writings, § 28
- Deeds, hearsay rules, § 323
- Distinctive characteristics, authentication by, § 224
- Documents, this index

WRITINGS—Cont'd

- Failure to reply to written communication as admission of party-opponents, § 262
- Handwriting, this index
- Hearsay rules
  - ancient writings, § 323
  - publications, § 321
- Inconsistent Past Writings, this index
- Internal authentication, § 221
- Jury access during deliberations, § 220
- Lawyer-client privilege protection, § 89
- Percipient witness proof of authorship, § 222
- Perjury, writings disclosing, § 28
- Pleadings, evidentiary use generally, § 257
- Postmarks on letters, authentication by, § 224
- Production of Documents, this index
- Publications, hearsay rules, § 321
- Records, this index
- Refreshing recollection by means of, § 9
- Relevance, § 221
- Reports, this index
- Rule in Queen Caroline's Case, § 28
- Self-authentication of public records, § 226, 229.1
- Self-incrimination privilege, writings protected, § 137
- Testimonial, jury access during deliberations, § 220
- Testimony as alternative proof of contents, § 234
- Witness testimony authentication, § 222

X-RAYS

- Generally, § 215
- Best evidence rule, § 233