

Introduction to the 2025 Edition

For the 2025 Edition, the author-editor and contributing authors have revised a number of chapters in eDiscovery for Corporate Counsel addressing new technology, case law and the effects of the Federal Rules on ediscovery in the corporate sector. In addition to updates throughout the edition, highlights include:

- A new section in Chapter 7 (Artificial Intelligence and Predictive Coding for Records Management and eDiscovery) on independent stratified sample validations (See § 7:25).
- A new section in Chapter 15 (Waiver of Attorney-Client Privilege) on voluntary disclosure of privileged materials and disclosure to corporate family member (See § 15:4).
- A new section in Chapter 23 (Outsourced Document Review: Data Intelligence, Technologist Lawyers, Advocacy Support) on building defensible and artificial intelligence (See § 23:21).

More information about the background of new authors can be found in the contributing author biographies below.

The author-editor hopes that this 2025 Edition of eDiscovery for Corporate Counsel serves you well.

Carole Basri
February 2025