

Introduction to the 2025 Edition

Mangrum on Nebraska Evidence (Nebraska Practice Series, Volume 3) is a comprehensive source for Nebraska evidence law. New features and recent developments in this 2025 Edition include discussion of the following cases, among many others:

- State v. Boswel: Court upheld the admission of graphic and gruesome photographs. [Rule 403]
- In re Guardianship of Patrick W. Nebraska Supreme Court upheld admissibility of investigatory materials obtained by the guardian ad litem. [Rule 702]
- State v. Anthony: Admissibility of statements made to law enforcement to explain the steps taken in an investigation of a defendant. [Rule 801]
- State v. Rush Nebraska Rules of Evidence do not apply to criminal preliminary hearings. [Rule 1101]